Message on the Observance of Rosh Hashanah

September 22, 2025

I send my warmest greetings to every American celebrating Rosh Hashanah, the start of the new year for the Jewish faith and a holy time of prayer, community, and spiritual reflection.

During this sacred time, Jewish believers begin the Ten Days of Repentance, culminating in Yom Kippur, the holiest day of the year in Judaism. As the Jewish community gathers for this special time of spiritual renewal, my administration recommits to upholding religious liberty and ending faith-based persecution, including the scourge of anti-Semitism. Above all, we pledge to build a future of peace and to recognize the dignity imprinted on every human soul.

I offer my best wishes and heartfelt prayers for a season of reflection and renewal. Have a blessed Rosh Hashanah.
