

Administration of Donald J. Trump, 2026

Digest of Other White House Announcements

August 7, 2026

The following list includes the President's public schedule and other items of general interest announced by the Office of Communications and Office of the Press Secretary and not included elsewhere in this Compilation.

January 1

In the morning, the President traveled to the Trump International Golf Club West Palm Beach in West Palm Beach, FL.

In the afternoon, the President traveled to Palm Beach, FL, where, at his residence at the Mar-a-Lago Club, he remained overnight.

The White House announced that the President will return to Washington, DC, on January 4.

January 2

In the morning, the President traveled to Lake Worth, FL, where, at the Arc Stone and Tile store, he purchased marble and onyx for the new White House Ballroom under construction. Then, he traveled to the Trump International Golf Club West Palm Beach in West Palm Beach, FL.

In the afternoon, the President traveled to Palm Beach, FL, where, he had an intelligence briefing.

In the evening, at the Mar-a-Lago Club, the President met with U.S. Ambassador to China David A. Perdue, Jr. He also gave the order to begin a U.S. military operation to capture President Nicolas Maduro Moros of Venezuela in Caracas, Venezuela. He remained overnight at his residence at the Mar-a-Lago Club.

The President announced that White House doctors had reported that he was in "perfect health" following his third successful completion of a cognitive examination.

January 3

Early in the morning, at the Mar-a-Lago Club in Palm Beach, FL, the President met with Secretary of State Marco A. Rubio, Secretary of War Peter B. Hegseth, Central Intelligence Agency Director John L. Ratcliffe, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff Gen. J. Daniel Caine, USAF, and White House Deputy Chief of Staff for Policy Stephen Miller to observe the U.S. military operation in Caracas, Venezuela, that included the capture of President Nicolas Maduro Moros of Venezuela and his wife Cilia Flores and their exfiltration to the U.S. for criminal processing in New York City.

In the morning, the President had a telephone conversation with Tyler Pager of the New York Times. Later, from his residence at the Mar-a-Lago Club, he participated in a live telephone interview with Rachel Campos-Duffy and Charlie Hurt for the Fox News Channel's "Fox and Friends" program.

In the evening, at the Mar-a-Lago Club, the President and Mrs. Trump had dinner with former White House Senior Adviser Elon R. Musk. They remained overnight at their residence at the Mar-a-Lago Club.

January 4

In the morning, the President traveled to the Trump International Golf Club West Palm Beach in West Palm Beach, FL. He also participated in a telephone interview with Michael Scherer of the Atlantic magazine.

In the afternoon, the President traveled to his residence at the Mar-a-Lago Club in Palm Beach, FL.

In the evening, the President returned to Washington, DC. Sen. Lindsey O. Graham and Secretary of Commerce Howard W. Lutnick accompanied him.

January 5

In the morning, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting.

During the day, the President had a telephone conversation with Gov. Kathleen C. Hochul of New York. He also participated in a telephone interview with Kristen Welker of NBC News.

The President announced the release of the updated Department of Health and Human Services childhood vaccination schedule in order to bring the U.S. into alignment with other developed countries.

January 6

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting.

The President announced that the "interim authorities" in Venezuela would be turning over between 30 and 50 million barrels of "high quality, sanctioned oil" to the U.S. to be sold at market price under the supervision of Secretary of Energy Christopher A. Wright.

The President announced the nomination of Andrew Davis and Chris Wolfe to be judges on the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Texas.

The President announced the nomination of John Shepherd to be a judge on the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Arkansas.

The President announced the nomination of Anna St. John to be a judge on the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana.

January 7

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President signed Executive orders. He also had meeting in the Oval Office with Sens. Lindsey O. Graham, Eric Schmitt, and Katie Boyd Britt, during which he viewed a clip of video footage depicting a reported confrontation between U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) agents and protesters in Minneapolis, MN, in which a vehicle operator purportedly drove toward an ICE officer, with shots fired, before crashing into a parked vehicle nearby.

Also in the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President participated in an interview with David E. Sanger, Tyler Pager, Katie Rogers, and Zolan Kanno-Youngs of the New York Times. White House Communications Director Steven Cheung, Press Secretary Karoline Leavitt, and Executive Assistant Natalie J. Harp; and New York Times photographer Doug Mills also attended. During the interview, the President had a telephone conversation with President Gustavo Petro Urrego of Colombia to discuss drug trafficking and counternarcotics in Columbia and arrangements being made by Secretary of State Marco A. Rubio and Minister of Foreign Relations Rosa Yolanda Villavicencio for the two Presidents to meet in Washington, DC, in the near future. Vice President James D. "J.D." Vance and Secretary Rubio also attended for the telephone conversation with President Petro. Ms. Harp also showed the reporters a video clip of the ICE confrontation with protesters in Minneapolis. Following the interview, the President took

Mr. Sanger, Mr. Pager, Ms. Rogers, and Mr. Kanno-Youngs on a tour of the Executive Residence.

During the day, the President had a telephone conversation with Prime Minister Keir Starmer of the United Kingdom.

The President announced that he had ordered all U.S. flags across the country to be lowered to half-mast in honor of the death of Rep. Douglas L. LaMalfa.

The President announced his decision to take steps to "ban large institutional investors from buying more single-family homes" and work with Congress to codify the measure in an effort to lower housing costs and reduce market barriers to homeownership.

The President announced his decision to impose limits on executive compensation, shareholder dividends, and stock buy-backs for defense contractors that do not meet administration expectations for manufacturing efficiency, plant construction, production targets, deadline compliance, and other metrics.

The President announced his proposal, "after long and difficult negotiations with Senators, Congressmen, Secretaries, and other political representatives," to raise the military budget from $1 trillion to $1.5 trillion in light of new revenue generated from U.S. tariff policy.

The President announced that Venezuela had agreed to use revenue derived from the "new oil deal" with the U.S. to purchase U.S.-made agricultural products, medicines and medical devices, and equipment to improve Venezuela's electrical grid and energy facilities.

The White House announced that the President will meet with executives of petroleum and gas companies at the White House on January 9 to discuss the recent U.S. seizure of Venezuelan oil and next steps in marketing Venezuelan crude oil in the global marketplace.

January 8

In the morning, in the East Room, the President participated in a photographic opportunity with U.S. attorneys. Later, in the Oval Office, he had an intelligence briefing.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting. He also met with Lip-Bu Tan, chief executive officer of Intel Corp., to discuss the launch of the new sub-2 nanometer CPU processor chip designed, built, and packed in the U.S.

During the day, in the Roosevelt Room, the President recorded an interview with Sean Hannity of Fox News Channel's "Hannity" program for later broadcast. He also participated in a telephone interview with Hugh Hewitt of Salem Radio Network's "The Hugh Hewitt Show" for syndicated broadcast. He also had a telephone conversation with Prime Minister Keir Starmer of the United Kingdom.

The President announced that he had instructed his "representatives" at Federal housing agencies to purchase $200 billion in mortgage-backed bonds in an effort to drive down mortgage rates and monthly payments and improve housing affordability.

January 9

In the morning, in the Oval Office, the President met with Secretary of State Marco A. Rubio.

In the afternoon, in the Private Dining Room, the President and Vice President James D. "J.D." Vance had lunch.

Later in the afternoon, the President traveled to Palm Beach, FL, where, at his residence at the Mar-a-Lago Club, he remained overnight.

The President announced his decision to cancel the "previously expected second wave of attacks" in light of Venezuela's cooperation in releasing a large number of political prisoners.

The President announced the U.S. seizure "in coordination with the interim authorities of Venezuela" of an oil tanker that departed Venezuelan ports without U.S. approval and the return of the tanker to Venezuela.

The President announced that he was "calling for a 1-year cap on credit card interest rates of 10 percent" effective January 20.

The White House announced that the President will welcome President Gustavo Petro Urrego of Colombia to the White House in early February.

January 10

In the morning, the President traveled to his local dentist for an appointment. Later, he returned to his residence at the Mar-a-Lago Club in Palm Beach, FL, where he remained overnight.

January 11

In the morning, the President traveled to the Trump International Golf Club West Palm Beach in West Palm Beach, FL.

In the afternoon, the President traveled to Palm Beach, FL, where, at his residence at the Mar-a-Lago Club.

In the evening, the President returned to Washington, DC. While en route aboard Air Force One, he had a telephone conversation with Elon R. Musk, chief executive officer of SpaceX. He also participated in a telephone interview with Garrett Haake of NBC News.

The White House announced that the President will travel to Detroit, MI, on January 13.

January 12

In the morning, in the Oval Office, the President met with Secretary of State Marco A. Rubio.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President met with U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops President Archbishop Paul S. Coakley of Oklahoma City, OK. Later, he signed documents.

Later in the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President met with Frank Siller, chairman and chief executive officer of the Tunnel to Towers Foundation.

During the day, the President had a telephone conversation with Sen. Elizabeth A. Warren to discuss efforts to improve affordability in the national economy.

The President announced his decision to impose a tariff of 25 percent on U.S. imports from "any country doing business" with Iran.

The White House announced that the President will welcome Venezuelan opposition leader and Nobel Prize for Peace recipient María Corina Machado to the White House on January 15.

January 13

In the morning, the President traveled to Romulus, MI.

In the afternoon, following his arrival at Detroit Metropolitan Wayne County Airport, the President traveled to Dearborn, MI, where, at the Ford River Rouge complex, he toured manufacturing facilities with Ford Motor Co. Executive Chairman William C. Ford, Jr., Chief Executive Officer James D. Farley, Jr., and River Rouge Plant Manager Corey Williams. Secretary of the Treasury Scott K.H. Bessent also participated. While at the plant, he also recorded an interview with Tony Dokoupil of CBS News for later broadcast. Later, he traveled to Detroit, MI.

Later in the afternoon, the President returned to Washington, DC.

The President announced the cancellation of "all meetings with Iranian officials" until Iran stops its forceful repression of political demonstrations.

The President announced that he had instructed Secretary of the Treasury Scott K.H. Bessent to "follow the money" in the investigation of Minnesota's distribution of Federal funds in the provision of certain social services.

January 14

In the morning, the President had a telephone conversation with Interim President Delcy Rodriguez Gomez of Venezuela to discuss U.S. efforts to help Venezuela stabilize and recover, including cooperation on oil and minerals, trade, and national security.

In the evening, in the Oval Office, the President participated in an interview with Steve A. Holland of Reuters. White House Press Secretary Karoline Leavitt also attended.

The President announced his decision to terminate payments made by the Federal Government to States where there are "corrupt criminal protection centers known as sanctuary cities" effective February 1.

January 15

In the morning, in the Oval Office, the President had an intelligence briefing.

In the afternoon, in the Private Dining Room, the President had a lunch meeting with Venezuelan opposition leader and Nobel Prize for Peace recipient María Corina Machado. During the meeting, Ms. Machado presented her Nobel Prize as a gift to the President. He also met with White House Press Secretary Karoline Leavitt.

During the day, the President participated in separate telephone interviews with Matthew Foldi of the Washington Reporter and Sophia Cai of Politico.

The President announced the formation of the "Board of Peace" as part of the implementation of the second phase of the cease-fire agreement between Hamas and Israel, with individual member appointments to be announced soon.

The White House announced that the President will welcome Prime Minister Robert Fico of Slovakia to the Mar-a-Lago Club in Palm Beach, FL, on January 17.

The White House announced that the President will travel to Miami, FL, on January 19.

January 16

In the afternoon, the President traveled to Palm Beach, FL, where, at his residence at the Mar-a-Lago Club, he remained overnight.

The President posted to his Truth Social feed the text of a letter to President Abdelattah Said Elsisy of Egypt thanking him for his role in negotiating and implementing the cease-fire agreement between Hamas and Israel and offering to restart U.S. mediation to resolve regional conflicts over the Grand Ethiopian Renaissance Dam project.

The President announced the appointment Ali Sha'ath as Chair of the National Committee for the Administration of Gaza (NCAG).

The President announced the appointment of the following individuals as members of the founding Executive Board of the Board of Peace: Marco A. Rubio; Steven C. Witkoff; Jared C. Kushner; Tony Blair; Marc Rowan; Ajay Banga; and Robert Gabriel, Jr.

The President announced the appointment of Aryeh Lightstone and Josh Gruenbaum as Senior Advisers to the Board of Peace.

The President announced the appointment of Nickolay E. Mladenov as High Representative for Gaza.

The President announced the appointment of Maj. Gen. Jasper Jeffers III as Commander of the International Stabilization Force.

The President announced the appointment of the following individuals as members of the Gaza Executive Board in support of the Office of the High Representative and the National Committee for the Administration of Gaza: Steven C. Witkoff; Jared C. Kushner; Hakan Fidan; Ali Al-Thawadi; Hassan Rashad; Tony Blair; Marc Rowan; Reem Al-Hashimy; Nickolay E. Mladenov; Yakir Gabay; and Sigrid Kaag.

January 17

In the morning, the President traveled to the Trump International Golf Club West Palm Beach in West Palm Beach, FL.

In the afternoon, the President returned to the Mar-a-Lago Club in Palm Beach, FL, where he met with Prime Minister Robert Fico of Slovakia. He remained overnight at his residence at the Mar-a-Lago Club.

The President announced his decision to file a lawsuit against JPMorgan Chase for "debanking" him following the civil unrest and violence at the U.S. Capitol on January 6, 2021.

The President announced his decision, through forthcoming Executive order, to reserve an exclusive 4-hour block on the second Saturday in December for the annual Army-Navy football game in order to protect the traditional matchup from being pushed aside by additional college football playoff games.

The President announced his decision to impose a tariff of 10 percent on U.S. imports from Denmark, Norway, Sweden, France, Germany, the United Kingdom, the Netherlands, and Finland, effective February 1, to be increased to 25 percent on June 1, until "such time as a deal is reached for the complete and total purchase of Greenland" toward the protection of "global peace and security" through efficient missile defense.

The President announced the designation of the following individuals as members of a Presidential delegation to attend the opening ceremony of the Olympic Games in Milan, Italy, on February 6: James D. "J.D." Vance and Usha Chilukuri Vance (heads of delegation); Marco A. Rubio; Tilman Feritta; Jocelyne Lamoureux-Davidson; Monique Lamoureux-Morando; Apolo Ohno; and Evan Lysacek.

January 18

In the morning, the President traveled to the Trump International Golf Club West Palm Beach in West Palm Beach, FL.

In the afternoon, the President stopped at Baer's Furniture store. Then, he traveled to Palm Beach, FL, where, at his residence at the Mar-a-Lago Club, he remained overnight.

During the day, the President exchanged text messages with Prime Minister Jonas Gahr Støre of Norway about his not winning the Nobel Prize for Peace and his interest in pursuing U.S.

ownership and administration of Greenland. He also had a telephone conversation with Prime Minister Keir Starmer of the United Kingdom.

January 19

In the evening, the President traveled to Miami Gardens, FL, where, at the Hard Rock Stadium, he attended the National College Football Championship game between the University of Miami Hurricanes and the University of Indiana Hoosiers. Secretary of State Marco A. Rubio, Secretary of the Interior Douglas J. Burgum, White House Deputy Chief of Staff Daniel J. Scavino, Communications Director Steven Cheung, the President's personal adviser Boris Epshteyn, Ultimate Fighting Championship Chief Executive Officer Dana F. White, and the President's daughter Ivanka M. Trump, daughter-in-law Lara J. Trump, Vanessa Trump, the ex-wife of the President's son Donald, and grandchildren Kai, Carolina, and Luke Trump also attended.

Later in the evening, the President returned to Washington, DC, arriving early the following morning. He also had a telephone conversation with Secretary General Mark Rutte of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization to discuss Greenland and its importance to U.S. and international security and agree to a meeting with "various parties" in Davos, Switzerland.

During the day, the President participated in a telephone interview with Peter Nicholas of NBC News. He also had a telephone conversation with President Ahmad Husayn al-Shara' of Syria.

January 20

In the early morning, the President viewed video footage of a January 18 incident in which protesters entered the Cities Church in Saint Paul, MN, whose pastor David Easterwood also reportedly serves in a local U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement capacity.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President signed documents.

In the evening, the President departed for Zurich, Switzerland. Shortly after takeoff from Joint Base Andrews, MD, a minor electrical issue on Air Force One required a return landing, and the President boarded a substitute aircraft and departed a second time.

During the day, the President recorded an interview with Katie Pavlich of NewsNation's "Katie Pavlich Tonight" program for later broadcast. He also had a telephone conversation with President Recep Tayyip Erdogan of Turkey.

The President posted to Truth Social screen shots of text messages to him from President Emmanuel Macron of France and Secretary General Mark Rutte of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization concerning his interest in pursuing U.S. ownership and administration of Greenland as well as U.S. security and stabilization efforts in Syria, Gaza, and Ukraine.

January 21

In the early morning, the President traveled to Zurich, Switzerland, arriving in the afternoon.

In the afternoon, upon arrival at the Zurich Airport, the President traveled to Davos, Switzerland, where he participated in a greeting with the leadership of the World Economic Forum. Then, he traveled to the Davos Congress Centre.

In the evening, the President traveled to AlpenGold Hotel, where he remained overnight.

During the day, at the Davos Congress Centre, the President had separate meetings with President Karol Nawrocki of Poland and Prime Minister Bart De Wever of Belgium. He also recorded separate interviews with Joe Kernen of CNBC's "Squawk Box" program and Maria Bartiromo of Fox Business Network's "Mornings With Maria" program for later broadcast. He also spoke briefly with reporters.

The President announced that he had "formed the framework of a future deal with respect to Greenland" with Secretary General Mark Rutte of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and that the U.S. would "not be imposing the tariffs that were scheduled to go into effect on February 1".

The White House announced that the President will meet with President Volodymyr Zelenskyy of Ukraine in Davos, Switzerland, on January 22.

The White House announced that the President will travel to Iowa on January 27.

January 22

In the morning, the President traveled to the Davos Congress Centre.

In the afternoon, at the Davos Congress Centre, the President met with President Volodymyr Zelenskyy of Ukraine. He also spoke briefly with reporters. Later, he traveled to Zurich, Switzerland. Upon arrival at the Zurich Airport, he traveled to Shannon, Ireland, arriving in the evening.

In the evening, at the Shannon Airport, while aboard Air Force One, the President met with U.S. Ambassador to Ireland Edward S. Walsh. Later, he returned to Washington, DC.

During the day, the President had a telephone conversation with Venezuelan opposition leader María Corina Machado.

The President announced his decision to add the Times Siena Poll to his pending lawsuit against the New York Times.

The President announced the U.S. intention to bid for the World Expo 2035 under the chairmanship of Secretary of State Marco A. Rubio.

The President posted on his Truth Social feed a note to Prime Minister Mark Carney of Canada announcing that he had withdrawn Canada's invitation to join the Board of Peace.

The White House announced further details on the President's travel to Clive, IA, on January 27.

January 23

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President participated in an interview with Emily Goodin, Marisa Schultz, and Steven Nelson of the New York Post. Later, also in the Oval Office, he signed H.R. 4323, the Trafficking Survivors Relief Act, and H.R. 6938, the Commerce, Justice, Science; Energy and Water Development; and Interior and Environment Appropriations Act, 2026.

Later in the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President met with Social Security Administration Commissioner Frank J. Bisignano. Then, also in the Oval Office, the President had policy meetings.

During the day, the President was briefed multiple times on the severe winter storm and extreme cold impacting many States. He also participated in an interview in the Oval Office with Steven Nelson, Emily Goodin, and Marisa Schultz of the New York Post, and California Post Opinion Editor Joel Pollak.

January 24

In the evening, in the East Room, the President hosted a screening of the documentary film "Melania."

During the day, the President had a telephone conversation with Prime Minister Keir Starmer of the United Kingdom.

The President declared an emergency in Virginia and approved Federal disaster funds to supplement Commonwealth response efforts due to emergency conditions resulting from a severe winter storm beginning on January 22 and continuing.

The President declared an emergency in South Carolina and approved Federal disaster funds to supplement State response efforts due to emergency conditions resulting from a severe winter storm beginning on January 22 and continuing.

The President declared an emergency in Tennessee and approved Federal disaster funds to supplement State response efforts due to emergency conditions resulting from a severe winter storm beginning on January 22 and continuing.

The President declared an emergency in Kentucky and approved Federal disaster funds to supplement Commonwealth response efforts due to emergency conditions resulting from a severe winter storm beginning on January 22 and continuing.

The President declared an emergency in Indiana and approved Federal disaster funds to supplement State response efforts due to emergency conditions resulting from a severe winter storm beginning on January 22 and continuing.

The President declared an emergency in Mississippi and approved Federal disaster funds to supplement State response efforts due to emergency conditions resulting from a severe winter storm beginning on January 22 and continuing.

The President declared an emergency in North Carolina and approved Federal disaster funds to supplement State response efforts due to emergency conditions resulting from a severe winter storm beginning on January 22 and continuing.

The President declared an emergency in Maryland and approved Federal disaster funds to supplement State response efforts due to emergency conditions resulting from a severe winter storm beginning on January 22 and continuing.

The President declared an emergency in Louisiana and approved Federal disaster funds to supplement State response efforts due to emergency conditions resulting from a severe winter storm beginning on January 22 and continuing.

The President declared an emergency in West Virginia and approved Federal disaster funds to supplement State response efforts due to emergency conditions resulting from a severe winter storm beginning on January 22 and continuing.

The President declared an emergency in Georgia and approved Federal disaster funds to supplement State response efforts due to emergency conditions resulting from a severe winter storm beginning on January 22 and continuing.

The President declared an emergency in Arkansas and approved Federal disaster funds to supplement State response efforts due to emergency conditions resulting from a severe winter storm beginning on January 22 and continuing.

January 25

During the day, the President participated in a telephone interview with Josh Dawsey of the Wall Street Journal.

The White House announced further details on the President's travel to Des Moines, IA, on January 27.

January 26

In the morning, the President had a telephone conversation with Gov. Timothy J. Walz of Minnesota to discuss the situation in Minneapolis and efforts to coordinate Federal, State, and local law enforcement.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President met with Secretary of the Air Force Troy E. Meink. Later, also in the Oval Office, he had policy meetings. He also participated in a telephone interview with Sid Rosenberg of the "Sid and Friends in the Morning" show on WABC Radio in New York City for later broadcast.

Later in the afternoon, the President had a telephone conversation with Mayor Jacob Frey of Minneapolis, MN, to discuss the situation in Minneapolis.

During the day, in the Oval Office, the President met with Secretary of Homeland Security Kristi L. Noem. White House Chief of Staff Susan Wiles, Press Secretary Karoline Leavitt, and Communications Director Steven Cheung, and Secretary Noem's Senior Adviser Corey Lewandowski also attended. He also participated in a telephone interview with Barak Ravid of Axios.

The President announced his decision to send White House Border Czar Thomas D. Homan to Minnesota to assess the situation and report directly to him.

The President announced his decision to increase tariffs on U.S. imports from South Korea from 15 percent to 25 percent on automobiles, lumber, pharmaceutical products, and all other imports covered by reciprocal trade adjustments due to the South Korean legislature's failure to enact the agreement struck with President Lee Jae-myung of South Korea.

January 27

In the afternoon, the President traveled to Des Moines, IA. Upon arrival at the Des Moines International Airport, he traveled to Urbandale, IA, where, at the Machine Shed Restaurant, he greeted diners, posed for photographs, visited with the family of Rep. Zachary Nunn, and participated in a live interview with Will Cain of Fox News Channel's "Will Cain Show". Later, he traveled to Clive, IA.

In the evening, the President returned to Washington, DC.

During the day, the President participated in a telephone interview with Rachel Scott of ABC News.

January 28

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President participated in a greeting with auto workers. Musician Nicki Minaj also joined the event. Later, also in the Oval Office, he had a policy meeting.

The President announced that "a massive armada" headed by the aircraft carrier USS Abraham Lincoln was heading in the direction of Iran "ready, willing, and able to rapidly fulfill its mission, with speed and violence" if Iran fails to "negotiate a fair and equitable deal" concerning its pursuit of nuclear weapons.

The President announced the nomination of Colin McDonald to be Assistant Attorney General for National Fraud Enforcement.

January 29

In the morning, in the Oval Office, the President had an intelligence briefing. He also had a telephone conversation with President Claudia Sheinbaum Pardo of Mexico to discuss border security, efforts to curb drug trafficking, and trade issues.

During the day, the President had a telephone conversation with Director of National Intelligence Tulsi Gabbard, who was at the Federal Bureau of Investigation Field Office in Atlanta, GA, meeting with agents who participated in the FBI's voting records search-and-seizure operation at the Fulton County Elections and Operations Hub in Union City, GA, on January 28, as part of its investigation into the 2020 Presidential election.

The President announced his decision to decertify Canada's Bombardier Global Express and all Canadian-made aircraft until such time as the U.S.-made Gulfstream is fully certified in Canada and threatened to impose a tariff of 50 percent "on any and all aircraft sold into the United States" if the "situation is not immediately corrected".

January 30

In the morning, in the Oval Office, the President had an intelligence briefing.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting.

The President announced the nomination of Brett Matsumoto to be Commissioner of the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

January 31

In the evening, at the Capital Hilton hotel, the President attended the Alfalfa Club dinner and spoke with former Gov. John E. "Jeb" Bush of Florida. Later, he traveled to Palm Beach, FL, where, at his residence at the Mar-a-Lago Club, he remained overnight.

The President announced that he had instructed Secretary of Homeland Security Kristi L. Noem that U.S. Customs and Border Protection and Immigration and Customs Enforcement personnel were fully authorized, upon request from State and local authorities, to protect Federal buildings, courthouses, and other property in "various poorly run Democrat cities" where political demonstrations occur.

February 1

In the morning, the President participated in a telephone interview with Sophia Cai of Politico.

In the afternoon, in the Grand Ballroom at the Mar-a-Lago Club, the President attended the wedding reception of White House Deputy Chief of Staff Daniel J. Scavino and Art in Embassies Director Erin M. Elmore. Later, he returned to Washinton, DC, arriving in the evening.

The President announced his decision, subject to approval from the Board of Trustees, to close the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts for a 2-year period beginning on July 4 in order to undertake extensive renovation work at the facility without the interruption of public performances and entertainment programming.

February 2

In the morning, the President had a telephone conversation with Prime Minister Narendra Modi of India to discuss efforts to end the war between Russia and Ukraine, with Prime Minister Modi agreeing to stop buying Russian oil and instead buy "much more" from the U.S. and, potentially, Venezuela, and outline a trade deal between India and the U.S., in which the U.S. would charge a reduced reciprocal tariff, lowering it from 25 to 18 percent, with India reducing tariffs and nontariff barriers against the U.S. to zero. Prime Minister Modi also committed to buy

U.S. exports "at a much higher level," in addition to over $500 billion in U.S. energy, technology, agricultural, coal, and other products. He also had a live telephone interview with former Federal Bureau of Investigation Deputy Director Daniel J. Bongino for the "Dan Bongino Show" podcast.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President signed documents.

The President announced that his administration would seek $1 billion in "damages" from Harvard University over its alleged failure to address campus anti-Semitism.

February 3

In the morning, in the Oval Office, the President met with President Gustavo Petro Urrego of Colombia. Minister of Foreign Relations Rosa Yolanda Villavicencio, Minister of Defense Pedro Arnulfo Sánchez Suárez, and Ambassador to the U.S. Daniel García-Peña Jaramillo of Colombia; and U.S. Vice President James D. "J.D." Vance, Secretary of State Marco A. Rubio, and Sen. Bernie Moreno also attended.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President signed documents.

During the day, the President had a telephone conversation with Prime Minister Keir Starmer of the United Kingdom.

February 4

In the morning, the President had a telephone conversation with President Xi Jinping of China to discuss trade and military issues, his scheduled travel to China in April, the political status of Taiwan, the war between Russia and Ukraine, the situation in Iran, China's purchase of U.S. oil and gas as well as additional agricultural products, including lifting the soybean count to 20 million tons for the current season and committing to 25 million tons for next season, airplane engine deliveries, and other subjects. Later, in the Oval Office, he recorded an interview with Tom Llamas of the "NBC Nightly News" program for later broadcast. White House Press Secretary Karoline Leavitt also attended.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting.

During the day, the President had a telephone conversation with Savannah Guthrie, cohost of NBC News' "Today" program, to discuss the apparent abduction of her mother Nancy Guthrie from her Catalina Foothills, AZ, home on February 1 and offer Federal law enforcement resources to aid in the investigation.

February 5

In the morning, in the Oval Office, the President had an intelligence briefing.

In the afternoon, the President and White House Press Secretary Karoline Leavitt watched a televised press conference concerning the investigation into the apparent abduction of Nancy Guthrie, mother of NBC News' "Today" program cohost Savannah Guthrie, from her Catalina Foothills, AZ, home on February 1. They also discussed the President's support for H.R. 22, Safeguard American Voter Eligibility (SAVE) Act, to improve election security and integrity through measures such as required voter identification, proof of citizenship, and reduced mail-in voting.

During the day, the President had a telephone conversation with Prime Minister Keir Starmer of the United Kingdom to discuss the 2025 U.K. agreement with Mauritius to transfer sovereignty of the Chagos Islands to Mauritius while keeping the island of Diego Garcia under British control, the status of the joint U.S.-U.K. military base located on the island, and his assertion that the U.S. retained the right to "militarily secure" the base should future arrangements threaten U.S. access.

February 6

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President signed Executive orders. Later, he had a telephone conversation with Gov. Tate Reeves of Mississippi to discuss the impacts of the recent severe winter storm and his approval of Federal disaster assistance to support State and local recovery efforts.

In the evening, the President traveled to Palm Beach, FL, where, at his residence at the Mar-a-Lago Club, he remained overnight.

During the day, the President met with the Committee for the Preservation of the White House and conducted for members a tour "in and around" the Lincoln Bedroom, Queens' Room, Yellow Oval, Map Room, East Room, and sections of the White House complex and residence. He also had a telephone conversation with Sen. Timothy E. Scott.

The President declared a major disaster in Mississippi and approved Federal disaster funds to supplement State response efforts due to emergency conditions resulting from a severe winter storm beginning from January 23 through 27.

The President declared a major disaster in Tennessee and approved Federal disaster funds to supplement State response efforts due to emergency conditions resulting from a severe winter storm beginning from January 22 through 27.

February 7

In the morning, the President traveled to the Trump International Golf Club West Palm Beach in West Palm Beach, FL.

In the afternoon, the President traveled to Palm Beach, FL, where, at his residence at the Mar-a-Lago Club, he remained overnight.

During the day, the President met with President Nasry Juan "Tito" Asfura Zablah of Honduras to discuss trade and investment and other areas of bilateral cooperation.

February 8

In the morning, the President traveled to the Trump International Golf Club West Palm Beach in West Palm Beach, FL.

In the afternoon, the President returned to his residence at the Mar-a-Lago Club in Palm Beach, FL.

In the evening, the President traveled to the Trump International Golf Club West Palm Beach in West Palm Beach. Later, he returned to Washington, DC, arriving early the following morning.

February 9

In the afternoon, in the Roosevelt Room, the President recorded an interview with Larry Kudlow of Fox Business Network's "Kudlow" program for later broadcast. Later, in the Oval Office, he had a policy meeting.

The President announced his decision to postpone the opening of the Gordie Howe International Bridge connecting Detroit, MI, and Windsor, Ontario, until Canada resumes trade negotiations with the U.S. and considers granting "at least" half of the bridge's ownership to the U.S. and share in the authority of its administration.

February 10

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President met with White House Press Secretary Karoline Leavitt to review surveillance footage newly released by the Federal Bureau of Investigation pertaining to the apparent abduction of Nancy Guthrie, mother of NBC News' "Today" program cohost Savannah Guthrie, from her Catalina Foothills, AZ, home on February 1. They also discussed the previously scheduled National Governors Association (NGA) meeting at the White House during its annual convening in Washington from February 19 through 21, which was cancelled by the NGA and rescheduled as a private dinner with Republican Governors after Democratic Governors stated they would boycott the meeting having learned that Gov. Jared S. Polis of Colorado and Gov. Westley W.O. "Wes" Moore of Maryland had not been invited. Later, also in the Oval Office, he signed documents. Then, also in the Oval Office, he had a policy meeting.

In the evening, the President had a private dinner with Rupert Murdoch, chairman of News Corp.

During the day, the President had a telephone conversation with Prime Minister Mark Carney of Canada to discuss the Gordie Howe International Bridge constructed to connect Detroit, MI, and Windsor, Ontario. He also participated in a telephone interview with Barak Ravid of Axios.

The White House announced that the President will welcome Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu of Israel to the White House on February 11.

The White House announced that the President and Mrs. Trump will travel to Fort Bragg, NC, on February 13.

February 11

In the morning, in the Oval Office, the President met with Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu of Israel to discuss ongoing negotiations with Iran and progress in implementing the U.S.-brokered Israel-Hamas cease-fire agreement.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President met with U.S. Special Envoy to the United Kingdom Mark Burnett.

During the day, the President had a telephone conversation with Gov. Kevin J. Stitt of Oklahoma in his capacity as chairman of the National Governors Association.

The President announced the designation of the following individuals as members of a Presidential delegation to attend the closing ceremony of the Olympic Games in Milan, Italy, on February 22: Linda E. McMahon (head of delegation); Tilman J. Fertitta; Lauren Fertitta; Kelly L. Loeffler; Meredith O'Rourke; Bob Book; Neil Book; Trish Duggan; Diane Hendricks; and Ryan Suter.

February 12

In the morning, in the Oval Office, the President had an intelligence briefing.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting. Later, also in the Oval Office, he had another policy meeting.

The President announced the nomination of Katie Lane to be a judge on the U.S. District Court for the District of Montana.

The President announced the nomination of Sheria Clarke to be judge on the U.S. District Court for the District of South Carolina.

The President announced the nomination of Kara Westercamp to be a judge on the U.S. Court of International Trade.

The President announced the nomination of Evan Rikhye to be a judge on the U.S. District Court for the District of the Virgin Islands.

February 13

In the afternoon, the President and Mrs. Trump traveled to Fort Bragg, NC. Upon arrival at Pope Army Airfield, they were greeted on the tarmac by 18th Airborne Corps Commanding General and Senior Mission Commander Lt. Gen. Gregory K. Anderson, USA, and his wife Luzane. Later, also at Fort Bragg, he participated in a private military engagement with Special Forces personnel who carried out the January 3 Operation Absolute Resolve in Caracas, Venezuela, which resulted in the capture and exfiltration of President Nicolás Maduro Moros of Venezuela for criminal processing in the U.S.

Later in the afternoon, the President and Mrs. Trump traveled to their residence at the Mar-a-Lago Club in Palm Beach, FL.

In the evening, at the Mar-a-Lago Club, the President participated in a private dinner. He remained overnight at his residence.

February 14

In the morning, the President traveled to the Trump International Golf Club West Palm Beach in West Palm Beach, FL.

In the afternoon, the President traveled to Palm Beach, FL, where, at his residence at the Mar-a-Lago Club, he remained overnight. He also had private meetings.

February 15

In the morning, the President traveled to West Palm Beach, FL, where, at the Trump International Golf Club West Palm Beach, he played golf with Gov. Ronald D. DeSantis of Florida and retired college football coaches Urban Meyer and Nick Saban.

In the afternoon, the President traveled to his residence at the Mar-a-Lago Club in Palm Beach, FL. He also had private meetings.

In the evening, the President traveled to West Palm Beach, where, at the Trump International Golf Club West Palm Beach, he participated in a private dinner. Later, he traveled to his residence at the Mar-a-Lago Club in Palm Beach, where he remained overnight.

The President announced a meeting of the Board of Peace at the U.S. Institute of Peace in Washington, DC, on February 19.

February 16

In the evening, the President and Mrs. Trump returned to Washington, DC.

During the day, the President participated in separate telephone interviews with Steven Nelson of the New York Post and Sophia Cai of Politico.

The President announced he had directed Federal authorities, including the resources of the Federal Emergency Management Agency, to "provide all necessary management, direction, and coordination to protect the Potomac, the water supply in the Capital region, and our treasured national resources in our Nation's Capital city" in the wake of a sewer-line breach in Montgomery County, MD, on January 1, which resulted in approximately 243 million gallons of wastewater being dumped directly into the Potomac River.

February 17

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President participated in a credentialing ceremony for newly appointed Ambassadors to the U.S. Later, also in the Oval Office, he had policy meetings.

During the day, the President had a telephone conversation with Prime Minister Keir Starmer of the United Kingdom.

The President announced the launch of three projects in the "strategic areas of oil and gas" in Texas, power generation in Ohio, and critical minerals in Georgia that grow out of the U.S. trade and investment deal forged with Japan.

The White House announced that the President will travel to Rome, GA, on February 19.

February 18

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President signed documents. Then, also in the Oval Office, he had a policy meeting.

During the day, the President met with Vasant Narasimham, chief executive officer of Novartis. He also met with Stephen Moore, senior visiting fellow in economics of the Heritage Foundation.

The President announced the nomination of Justin Smith to be a judge on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit in Missouri.

The President announced the nomination of Tony Powell, Tony Mattivi, and Jeffrey Kuhlman to be judges on the U.S. District Court for the District of Kansas.

The White House announced that the President will host a working breakfast with Governors in the East Room at the White House on February 20.

The White House announced that the President and Mrs. Trump will host a dinner with Governors at the White House on February 21.

February 19

In the morning, at the U.S. Institute of Peace, the President participated in a family photograph with representatives of the Board of Peace and Vice President James D. "J.D." Vance, Secretary of State Marco A. Rubio, White House Chief of Staff Susan Wiles, U.S. Special Envoy for Peace Missions Steven C. Witkoff, and the President's son-in-law Jared C. Kushner. He also met with President Prabowo Subianto Djojohadikusumo of Indonesia.

In the afternoon, the President traveled to Rome, GA, where, upon arrival at the Richard B. Russell Regional Airport, he was greeted on the tarmac by Lt. Gov. Burt Jones of Georgia, U.S. Ambassador to the Bahamas Herschel J. Walker, and University of Georgia Bulldogs quarterback Gunner Stockton. Then, at the Varsity restaurant, he greeted owners, visited and posed for photographs with staff and guests, and recorded an interview with Josh Pate of the "Josh Pate's College Football Show" podcast for later broadcast. Lt. Gov. Jones, Rep. Brian T. Jack, Republican congressional candidate Clay Fuller, Administrator of the Small Business Administration Kelly L. Loeffler, Ambassador Walker, and Mr. Stockton also attended. Later, at the Coosa Steel Corp. plant, he toured manufacturing facilities with owner Andrew Saville.

In the evening, the President returned to Washington, DC.

The President announced that the Commission of Fine Arts had voted to approve the project design for the proposed White House Ballroom construction.

The President announced that he would direct Secretary of War Peter B. Hegseth and other relevant departments and agencies to "begin the process of identifying and releasing Government files related to alien and extraterrestrial life, unidentified aerial phenomena (UAP), and unidentified flying objects (UFOs), and any and all other information connected to these highly complex, but extremely interesting and important, matters."

February 20

In the morning, in the Oval Office, the President had a private meeting.

During the day, in the Oval Office, the President met with General Secretary Tô Lâm of Vietnam.

The President announced that all "national security tariffs, section 232 and existing section 301 tariffs, remain in place and in full force and effect" and that the U.S. would be initiating "several section 301 and other investigations to protect our country from unfair trading practices."

The President announced that he had signed a global tariff of 10 percent, "effective almost immediately," on all imports into the U.S.

The White House announced that the President will travel to Beijing, China, from March 31 to April 2.

February 21

In the morning, the President had executive time.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had policy meetings.

The President announced his decision to raise the "worldwide tariff, effective immediately" from 10 percent to 15 percent on all imports into the U.S. based on "a thorough, detailed, and complete review" of the U.S. Supreme Court decision in Learning Resources, Inc. v. Trump concerning his administration's tariff policy.

The President announced that, working with Gov. Jeffrey M. Landry of Louisiana in his capacity as U.S. Special Envoy to Greenland, he would deploy a U.S. Navy hospital ship to Greenland "to take care of the many people who are sick, and not being taken care of there."

The White House announced that the President will travel to Doral, FL, on March 7.

February 22

In the morning, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had executive time.

In the evening, the President had a telephone conversation with members of the Team U.S.A. men's Olympic ice hockey team to congratulate them on their gold medal victory over Canada in overtime at the 2026 Winter Olympics, in Milan, Italy, and invite them to attend his State of the Union Address at the U.S. Capitol on February 24.

February 23

In the morning, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had executive time.

The White House announced that the President will travel to Corpus Christi, TX, on February 27.

February 24

In the morning, the President had executive time.

In the afternoon, in the Blue Room, the President participated in a State of the Union luncheon. He also welcomed members of the Team U.S.A. men's Olympic ice hockey team.

February 25

In the morning, in the Oval Office, the President had executive time. Later, also in the Oval Office, he had a policy meeting.

In the afternoon, in the Cabinet Room, the President met with Secretary of Transportation Sean P. Duffy. Later, in the Oval Office, he had a policy meeting.

February 26

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, in the Oval Office, he had an intelligence briefing.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had a private meeting. He also met in the Oval Office with Mayor Zohran K. Mamdani of New York City. Later, he had a telephone conversation with Mayor Mamdani.

The White House announced that the President will present the Medal of Honor to three U.S. Army soldiers for acts of gallantry and intrepidity above and beyond the call of duty during their respective service in Germany, Afghanistan, and Vietnam, in a ceremony at the White House on March 2: M. Sgt. Roderick W. "Roddie" Edmonds (posthumous); S. Sgt. Michael H. Ollis (posthumous); and CSM Terry P. Richardson, retired.

February 27

In the afternoon, the President traveled to Corpus Christi, TX. Sens. R. Edward "Ted" Cruz, John Cornyn III, Reps. Lance Gooden and Michael J. Cloud, National Border Patrol Council President Paul A. Perez, and actor Dennis Quaid accompanied him. Upon arrival at the Corpus Christi International Airport, he was greeted on the tarmac by Gov. Gregory W. Abbott of Texas, Secretary of Energy Christopher A. Wright, Port Commission Chairman Gabe Guerra, Port of Corpus Christi Chief Executive Officer Kent Britton. Then, at the Port of Corpus Christi, the President recorded an interview with Mike Gillaspia of 3NEWS for later broadcast. Later, he stopped at a Whataburger restaurant, where he greeted staff and patrons and purchased dinner for Air Force One guests. He also had a telephone conversation with Joe Scarborough, cohost of the MS NOW channel's "Morning Joe" program.

Later in the afternoon, the President traveled to West Palm Beach, FL, arriving in the evening. Upon arrival at the Palm Beach International Airport, he traveled to Palm Beach, FL, where, at his residence at the Mar-a-Lago club, he remained overnight.

The President announced his decision to direct Federal department and agencies to cease all use of Anthropic's technology products and begin a 6-month phase out the company's artificial intelligence software.

February 28

Early in the morning, at the Mar-a-Lago Club, the President met with White House Chief of Staff Susan Wiles, Secretary of State Marco A. Rubio, and Central Intelligence Agency Director John L. Ratcliffe to oversee the commencement of U.S. military operations in Iran. He also posted to his X and Truth Social feeds video remarks on the commencement of "major" U.S. combat operations in Iran. He also had a telephone conversation with Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu of Israel. He also had a telephone conversation with Natalie Allison of the Washington Post.

Also in the morning, the President had a telephone conversation with Jon Levine of the Washington Free Beacon.

In the afternoon, the President had separate telephone conversations with Prime Minister Keir Starmer of the United Kingdom, Amir Mishal al-Ahmad al-Jabir al-Sabah of Kuwait, and President Recep Tayyip Erdogan of Turkey. He also participated in separate telephone interviews with Kristen Welker of NBC News, Jonathan Karl of ABC News, and Rachel Scott of ABC News.

In the evening, at the Mar-a-Lago Club, the President participated in a MAGA Inc. meeting and dinner. He also had separate telephone conversations with Mychael Schnell and Laura Barrón-López of MS NOW and Robert Costa of CBS News.

During the day, the President participated in separate telephone interviews with Barak Ravid of Axios and Matthew Foldi of the Washington Reporter.

March 1

In the morning, the President had separate telephone conversations with Michael Scherer of the Atlantic magazine and Jacqui Heinrich of Fox News.

In the afternoon, the President posted to his X and Truth Social feeds video remarks on the status of U.S. combat operations in Iran and the death of Supreme Leader Ayatollah Ali Hoseini-Khamenei of Iran, and the death of three U.S. servicemembers in Iranian airstrikes on Port Shuaiba, Kuwait. He was also informed of the sinking of nine Iranian naval vessels and destruction of Iranian naval headquarters in U.S. airstrikes. Later, he returned to Washington, DC, arriving in the evening.

In the evening, on arrival at the White House, after exiting Marine One, the President spoke briefly to reporters on his way through the Rose Garden. He also spoke with ABC News Chief White House Correspondent Jonathan Karl.

During the day, the President had separate telephone conversations with Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu of Israel, King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa of Bahrain, President Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan of the United Arab Emirates, and Bafel Talabani, leader of the Patriotic Union of Kurdistan. He was also briefed on the shooting in Austin, TX. He also participated in separate telephone interviews with Zolan Kanno-Youngs of the New York Times, Peter Nicholas and Alexandra Marquez of NBC News, Nikki Schwab of the Daily Mail, Connor Stringer of the Telegraph, Libby Blanca Alon of Israel's Channel 14 News, and Joe Kernan of CNBC.

March 2

In the morning, the President had executive time. He also participated in separate telephone interviews with Jake Tapper of CNN, Steven Nelson of the New York Post, and Bret Baier of Fox News.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President signed documents. Later, also in the Oval Office, he had policy meetings.

In the evening, the President participated in separate telephone interviews with Kellie Meyer of NewsNation, Phil Wegman of RealClearPolitics, and independent journalist Rachael Bade.

March 3

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, on the South Portico, he welcomed Chancellor Friedrich Merz of Germany.

In the afternoon, in the Cabinet Room, the President and Chancellor Merz had a working lunch. Later, in the Oval Office, the President met with Secretary of the Treasury Scott K.H. Bessent and Secretary of Energy Christopher A. Wright. Later, also in the Oval Office, he had policy meetings.

In the evening, the President had a telephone conversation with Sen. John N. Kennedy.

During the day, the President participated in separate telephone interviews with Sophia Cai of Politico and Harry Cole of the Sun newspaper. He also had a telephone conversation with Corey Lewandowski, a senior adviser to Secretary of Homeland Security Kristi L. Noem.

The President announced that he had accepted the White House Correspondents Association's invitation to attend its annual dinner on April 25.

The President announced that he had ordered the U.S. Development Finance Corporation to provide "at a very reasonable price" political risk insurance and guarantees for the financial security of all maritime trade, especially energy, traveling through the Persian Gulf.

The President announced the designation of the following individuals as members of a Presidential delegation to attend the opening ceremony of the 2026 Paralympic Games in Verona, Italy, on March 6: Douglas A. Collins (head of delegation); Tilman J. Fertitta; Lauren Fertitta; E. Scott Turner; Robin Turner; Meghan Patenaude Bauer; Morgan DeWitt Snow; Riley M. Barnes; Richard Walters; Andrea Hall; Brayden Hall; Andrew Yohe; and Chris Young.

March 4

In the morning, the President had executive time.

In the afternoon, the President participated in a telephone interview with Eric Cortellessa of TIME magazine.

The White House announced that the President will welcome heads of state from Argentina, Bolivia, Chile, Costa Rica, the Dominican Republic, Ecuador, El Salvador, Honduras, Panama, Paraguay, and Trinidad and Tobago for a Shield of the Americas Summit in Miami, FL, on March 7.

March 5

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, in the Oval Office, he had an intelligence briefing. He also participated in a telephone interview with Dasha Burns of Politico.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting. He also had separate telephone conversations with Secretary of Homeland Security Kristi L. Noem and Sen. Markwayne Mullin. He also participated in a telephone interview with Jonathan Karl of ABC News.

During the day, the President participated in separate telephone interviews with Steve A. Holland of Reuters, Garrett Haake of NBC News, Caitlin Doornbos of the New York Post, and Barak Ravid of Axios and Israel's Channel 12 News.

The White House announced that the President had signed pardons for former National Football League players Joe Klecko, Nate Newton, Jamal Lewis, Travis Henry, and the late Billy Cannon.

The President announced the designation of the following individuals as members of a Presidential delegation to attend the Inauguration of José Antonio Kast Rist as President of Chile in Santiago, Chile, on March 11: Christopher Landau (head of delegation); Brandon Judd; Michael Kozak; Caleb Orr; Joseph Humire; Viviana Bovo; and Matthew Rhodes.

The President announced the nomination of Markwayne Mullin to be Secretary of Homeland Security.

The President announced the resignation of Kristi L. Noem as Secretary of Homeland Security.

The President announced the appointment of Kristi L. Noem as U.S. Special Envoy for the Shield of the Americas.

March 6

In the morning, the President had executive time. He also participated in a telephone interview with Dana Bash of CNN.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President signed documents. Then, also in the Oval Office, he had a policy meeting. Later, in the Oval Office, he met with Secretary of War Peter B. Hegseth. Then, also in the Oval Office, he met with Secretary of the Interior Douglas J. Burgum.

Also in the afternoon, the President met with the chief executive officers of leading defense contractors to discuss efforts to improve production and delivery schedules of "exquisite class" weaponry: Tom Arseneault of BAE Systems, Inc.; Jim Taiclet of Lockheed Martin; Kathy J. Warden of Northrup Grumman Corp.; Christopher T. Calio of RTX Corp.; Kelly Ortberg of the Boeing Co.; Jim Currier of Honeywell Aerospace; and Christopher Kubasik of L3Harris Technologies Missile Solutions. Secretary Hegseth also attended.

In the evening, the President traveled to Miami, FL, where, at his residence at the Trump National Doral Miami golf resort, he remained overnight.

During the day, in the Oval Office, the President met with Venezuelan opposition leader María Corina Machado. He also met in the Oval Office with Indiana State senatorial candidate Blake Fiechter. He also participated in a telephone interview with Barak Ravid of Axios.

The White House announced that the President will travel to Dover, DE, on March 7 to participate in the dignified transfer of remains of U.S. servicemembers killed in Iranian airstrikes on Port Shuaiba, Kuwait.

March 7

In the morning, at his residence at the Trump National Doral Miami golf resort, the President had executive time. Later, at the Trump National Doral Miami golf resort, he participated in a family photograph with heads of state from Argentina, Bolivia, Chile, Costa Rica, the Dominican Republic, Ecuador, El Salvador, Honduras, Panama, Paraguay, and Trinidad and Tobago in attendance for the Shield of the Americas Summit.

Later in the morning, the President and Mrs. Trump traveled to Dover, DE, arriving in the afternoon.

In the afternoon, upon arrival at Dover Air Force Base, the President and Mrs. Trump were greeted on the tarmac by 436th Airlift Wing Commander Col. Jamil I. Musa, USAF, and Air Force Mortuary Affairs Operations Commander Col. Martha J. "Jeannie" Sasnett, USAF. Then, they met with the families of Maj. Jeffrey R. O'Brien, USA, Capt. Cody A. Khork, USA, CWO 3 Robert M. Marzan, USA, Sgt. 1 Nicole M. Amor, USA, Sgt. 1 Noah L. Tietjens, USA, and Sgt. Declan J. Coady, USA, who were killed in Iranian airstrikes on Port Shuaiba, Kuwait, on March 1, and participated in a dignified transfer of remains. Later, they traveled to Miami, FL, arriving in the evening.

In the evening, the President and Mrs. Trump traveled to their residence at the Trump National Doral Miami golf resort, where they remained overnight. He also participated in a telephone interview with Robert Costa of CBS News.

During the day, the President participated in a telephone interview with Viviana Mazza of Italy's Corriere della Sera newspaper.

March 8

In the morning, at his residence at the Trump National Doral Miami golf resort, the President had executive time. He also participated in a telephone interview with Mary Bruce of ABC News.

In the evening, the President participated in a telephone interview with Brian Kilmeade of Fox News.

During the day, the President had separate telephone conversations with Prime Minister Mark Carney of Canada, Prime Minister Keir Starmer of the United Kingdom, and President Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan of the United Arab Emirates. He also participated in a telephone interview with Jacob Magid of the Times newspaper of Israel.

The White House that the President will travel to Hebron, KY, on March 11.

March 9

In the morning, at his residence at the Trump National Doral Miami golf resort, the President had executive time. He also had a telephone conversation with Prime Minister Anthony Albanese of Australia to discuss the asylum claim made by five members of Iran's national women's soccer team who were in Gold Coast, Australia, for the Women's Asian Cup tournament when the U.S. and Israel airstrikes on Iran began on February 28.

In the afternoon, at the Trump National Doral Miami golf resort, the President participated in a roundtable discussion.

In the evening, the President traveled to Doral, FL, where, at the El Arepazo restaurant, he greeted staff and patrons and purchased dinner for Air Force One guests. Then, he returned to Washington, DC. While en route aboard Air Force One, he had a telephone interview with Trey Yingst of Fox News.

During the day, the President had separate telephone conversations with President Vladimir Vladimirovich Putin of Russia and Amir Tamin bin Hamad Al Thani of Qatar.

He also had separate telephone interviews with Peter Nicholas of NBC News, Weijia Jiang of CBS News, and Steven Nelson of the New York Post.

March 10

In the morning, the President had executive time.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had policy meetings.

During the day, the President met with Gov. Gretchen E. Whitmer of Michigan to discuss his approval of $100 million in Federal disaster assistance funds to State and local support recovery efforts from the major ice storms that struck Michigan in the previous year.

The President announced that America First Refining would open the first new U.S.-based oil refinery in 50 years in Brownsville, TX.

March 11

In the morning, the President had executive time.

In the afternoon, the President traveled to Hebron, KY. Upon arrival at the Cincinnati/Northern Kentucky International Airport, he traveled to Reading, OH, where, at the Thermo Fisher Scientific manufacturing facility, he was greeted by Gov. Mike DeWine of Ohio, Thermo Fisher Scientific Chairman and Chief Executive Officer Marc N. Casper, and Executive Vice President and Biopharma Services President Mike Shafer. Then, he toured the factory floor with Mr. Casper, Mr. Shafer, and Administrator of the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services Mehmet Oz, greeted staff, and recorded an interview with Tyler Madden of WKRC-TV (CBS) for later broadcast. Later, he traveled to Walton, KY, where, at Verst Logistics, he recorded an interview with professional boxer and social media influencer Jake Paul for later broadcast online.

In the evening, the President returned to Washington, DC.

During the day, the President participated in separate telephone interviews with Barak Ravid of Axios and Peter Doocy of Fox News.

March 12

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, he had an intelligence briefing.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had policy meetings.

During the day, the President was briefed on the vehicular attack on the Temple Israel synagogue in West Bloomfield, MI. He also participated in a telephone interview with Christian Datoc of the Washington Examiner.

March 13

In the morning, the President had executive time.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President signed Executive orders. Later, also in the Oval Office, he participated in a greeting with the winners of the National Finals Rodeo.

In the evening, the President and Mrs. Trump traveled to Palm Beach, FL, where, at their residence at the Mar-a-Lago Club, they remained overnight. Mrs. Trump's father Victor Knavs accompanied them.

During the day, the President participated in a live telephone interview with Brian Kilmeade of Fox News Radio's "Brian Kilmeade Show" and Fox News Channel's "Fox and Friends" program.

The President announced the appointment of Matt Floca as Chief Operating Officer and Executive Director of the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts.

The President announced the resignation of Richard A. Grenell as Executive Director of the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts.

March 14

In the morning, at the Mar-a-Lago Club, the President had executive time. Later, the President traveled to the Trump International Golf Club West Palm Beach in West Palm Beach, FL.

In the afternoon, the President traveled to Palm Beach, FL, where, at his residence at the Mar-a-Lago Club, he remained overnight.

During the day, the President participated in a telephone interview with Kristen Welker of NBC News

March 15

In the morning, at the Mar-a-Lago Club, the President had executive time. Later, the President traveled to the Trump International Golf Club West Palm Beach in West Palm Beach, FL.

In the afternoon, the President traveled to his residence at the Mar-a-Lago Club in Palm Beach, FL.

In the evening, the President returned to Washington, DC.

During the day, the President participated in a telephone interview with Edward Luce of the Financial Times. He also had separate telephone conversations with Prime Minister Keir Starmer of the United Kingdom and President Emmanuel Macron of France.

March 16

In the morning, the President had executive time. He also had a telephone interview with Liz Landers of PBS News Hour. Later, in the Oval Office, he had a policy meeting. Then, in the East Room, he had lunch with members of the Board of Trustees for the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts. He also spoke with Senate Majority Leader John R. Thune.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President participated in an interview with Maggie Haberman and Jonathan Swan of the New York Times. White House Communications Director Steven Cheung, Press Secretary Karoline Leavitt, and Executive Assistant Natalie J. Harp also attended. Later, also in the Oval Office, he signed documents. Vice President James D. "J.D." Vance also attended.

Later in the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President met with U.S. Ambassador to Japan George E. Glass.

March 17

In the morning, the President had executive time. He also spoke with Sen. Lindsey O. Graham.

In the morning, on the South Portico, the President welcomed Prime Minister Micheál Martin of Ireland.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting. Later, also in the Oval Office, he signed documents. Then, he participated in a greeting with Deputy First Minister of Northern Ireland Emma Little-Pengelly of the United Kingdom. Later, he greeted Prime Minister Martin.

The White House announced that the President's scheduled travel to China in April had been postponed.

March 18

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, in the Oval Office, he had an intelligence briefing.

In the afternoon, the President traveled to Dover, DE. Secretary of War Peter B. Hegseth and Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff Gen. J. Daniel Caine, USAF, Speaker of the House of Representatives J. Michael Johnson, and Sens. Jim Banks, Todd C. Young, Bernie Moreno, Jon Husted, Thomas H. Tuberville, Katie Boyd Britt, and Tim Sheehy accompanied him. Upon arrival at Dover Air Base, he was greeted on the tarmac by 436th Airlift Wing Commander Col. Jamil I. Musa, USAF, and Air Force Mortuary Affairs Operations Commander Col. Martha J. "Jeannie" Sasnett, USAF. Then, he participated in a dignified transfer of remains for members of the 6th Air Refueling Wing and 121st Air Refueling Wing who were killed when their KC-135 refueling aircraft crashed in western Iraq on March 12: Maj. John A. Kliner, USAF; Capt. Ariana G. Savino, USAF; Tech. Sgt. Ashley B. Pruitt, USAF; Capt. Seth R. Koval, USAF; Capt. Curtis J. Angst, USAF; and Tech. Sgt. Tyler H. Simmons, USAF. Later, he returned to Washington, DC.

During the day, the President had a telephone conversation with King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa of Bahrain

March 19

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, on the South Portico, he welcomed Prime Minister Sanae Takaichi of Japan.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting.

In the evening, the President participated in a greeting with Prime Minister Takaichi. Then, in the State Dining Room, they had dinner.

During the day, the President had a telephone conversation with President Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan of the United Arab Emirates.

The White House announced that the President will travel to Memphis, TN, on March 23.

March 20

In the morning, the President had executive time. He also participated in a telephone interview with Stephanie Ruhle of MS NOW.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting. Later, he traveled to West Palm Beach, FL, arriving in the evening. Secretary of State Marco A. Rubio accompanied him.

In the evening, upon arrival at the Palm Beach International Airport, the President traveled to Palm Beach, FL, where, at his residence at the Mar-a-Lago Club, he remained overnight.

During the day, the President participated in a telephone interview with Martha MacCallum of Fox News Channel's "The Story" and "The Five" programs for later broadcast. He also met with Colorado Republican congressional candidate Hope Scheppelman and her husband Steven to discuss finding roles for them in the administration and the suspension of Ms. Scheppelman's primary campaign against Republican incumbent Rep. Jeff Hurd for Colorado's third congressional district.

March 21

In the morning, at the Mar-a-Lago Club, the President had executive time. Later, he traveled to the Trump International Golf Club West Palm Beach in West Palm Beach, FL.

In the afternoon, the President traveled to his residence at the Mar-a-Lago Club in Palm Beach, FL.

In the evening, at his residence at the Mar-a-Lago Club, the President had dinner with political consultant and lobbyist Roger Stone, whom the President pardoned on December 23, 2020, for his Federal conviction on charges of witness tampering, obstructing an official proceeding, and making false statements. Later, at his residence, he remained overnight.

The President announced that further U.S. airstrikes would target Iran's energy infrastructure and power plants should Iran not reopen the Strait of Hormuz to commercial transit within 48 hours.

March 22

In the morning, at the Mar-a-Lago Club, the President had executive time. Later, he traveled to the Trump International Golf Club West Palm Beach in West Palm Beach, FL.

In the afternoon, the President traveled to Palm Beach, FL, where, at his residence at the Mar-a-Lago Club, he remained overnight.

During the day, the President participated in separate telephone interviews with Neria Kraus of Israel's Channel 13 TV News "Kraus Report" podcast, Libby Blanca Alon of Channel 14 News of Israel, and Hannah Brandt of NewsNation. He also spoke with Senate Majority Leader John R. Thune.

The President announced that U.S. Immigrations and Customs Enforcement officers would be deployed to select U.S. airports, beginning on March 23, to assist in nonspecialized activities of the Transportation Security Administration during a period of staffing shortfalls.

March 23

In the morning, at the Mar-a-Lago Club in Palm Beach, FL, the President had executive time. Later, he traveled to Memphis, TN, where, at a Tennessee Air National Guard facility, he recorded an interview with Valerie Calhoun of WHBQ-TV Fox 13 in Memphis for later broadcast. He also participated in a telephone interview with Maria Bartiromo of Fox Business Network's "Mornings With Maria" program.

In the afternoon, at the Graceland estate, the President toured the house and archives of musician Elvis Presley with Graceland Director of Archives and Exhibits Angie Marchese. Later, he returned to Washington, DC, arriving in the evening.

In the evening, in the Oval Office, the President met with Sens. Katie Boyd Britt, Bernie Moreno, Steven D. Daines, and Lindsay O. Graham.

During the day, the President had separate telephone conversations with Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu of Israel and Chief of Defense Forces Syed Asim Munir Ahmed Shah of Pakistan. He also had a telephone interview with Joe Kernen of CNBC.

The President announced that he had instructed the Department of War "to postpone any and all military strikes against Iranian power plants and energy infrastructure" for a 5-day period to allow for continued negotiations toward "a complete and total resolution of our hostilities in the Middle East."

March 24

In the morning, the President had executive time.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had policy meetings. Later, also in the Oval Office, he signed documents.

During the day, the President had a telephone conversation with Prime Minister Narendra Modi of India. Elon R. Musk, chief executive officer of Tesla and SpaceX, also joined the call.

The White House announced that the President will travel to Miami, FL, on March 27.

March 25

In the morning, the President had executive time.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had an intelligence briefing. Later, he had policy meetings.

The President appointed David O. Sacks and Michael J.K. Kratsios as members of the President's Council of Advisers on Science and Technology, and upon appointment, designate them Cochairs.

The President appointed the following individuals as members of the President's Council of Advisers on Science and Technology: Marc Andreessen; Sergey Brin; Safra Catz; Michael S. Dell; Jacob DeWitte; Fred Ehrsam; Larry Ellison; David Friedberg; Jensen Huang; John Martinis; Bob Mumgaard; Lisa Su; and Mark E. Zuckerberg.

The President announced that he will meet with President Xi Jinping of China in Beijing, China, on May 14 and 15.

March 26

In the morning, the President had executive time.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President signed documents. Late, he participated in a live telephone interview with Kayleigh McEnany, Lisa Kennedy Montgomery, Jesse Watters, Dana Perino, and Greg Gutfeld of the Fox News Channel's "The Five" program.

The President announced his decision to direct U.S. military operations in Iran to pause "the period of energy plant destruction by 10 days to Monday, April 6, 2026, at 8 p.m." to allow for continued U.S. negotiations with Iran.

March 27

In the morning, the President had executive time.

In the afternoon, the President traveled to Miami, FL. Upon arrival at Miami International Airport, he traveled to Miami Beach, FL. In the Oval Office, he met with Harry A. "Hal" Lawton, president and chief executive officer of Tractor Supply Co.

In the evening, the President traveled to Palm Beach, FL, where, at his residence at the Mar-a-Lago Club, he remained overnight.

During the day, the President had separate telephone conversations with Speaker of the House of Representatives J. Michael Johnson and professional golfer Eldrick T. "Tiger" Woods. He also participated in a telephone interview with Jacqui Heinrich of Fox News.

March 28

In the morning, at the Mar-a-Lago Club in Palm Beach, FL, the President had executive time. Later, he traveled to the Trump International Golf Club West Palm Beach in West Palm Beach, FL.

In the afternoon, the President traveled to his residence at the Mar-a-Lago Club in Palm Beach, FL.

In the evening, at the Mar-a-Lago Club, the President participated in a MAGA Inc. meeting. Later, also at the Mar-a-Lago Club, he participated in a fundraising dinner. He remained overnight at his residence.

March 29

In the morning, at the Mar-a-Lago Club in Palm Beach, FL, the President had executive time. Later, he traveled to the Trump International Golf Club West Palm Beach in West Palm Beach, FL.

In the afternoon, the President traveled to his residence at the Mar-a-Lago Club in Palm Beach, FL.

In the evening, the President returned to Washington, DC.

During the day, the President had separate telephone conversations with Libby Blanca Alon of Channel 14 News of Israel and Edward Luce of the Financial Times.

The President announced the successful negotiation by U.S. Special Envoy to Belarus John Coale on the release of an additional 250 political prisoners in Belarus.

March 30

In the morning, the President had executive time. He also had a telephone conversation with Sen. Lindsey O. Graham and participated in separate telephone interviews with Annmarie Hordern of Bloomberg TV and Caitlin Doornbos, Emily Goodin, and Steven Nelson of the New York Post.

Late, in the East Room, he participated in a photographic opportunity with the spring class of White House interns.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting. Later, also in the Oval Office, he signed documents.

The White House announced that the President and Mrs. Trump will host the White House Easter Egg Roll on the South Lawn on April 6.

The White House announced that the President will travel to Beijing, China, from May 13 through 15.

March 31

In the morning, the President had executive time. He also had a telephone conversation with Weijia Jiang of CBS News.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had policy meetings.

During the day, the President participated in separate telephone interviews with Barak Ravid of Axios, Peter Nicholas of NBC News, Phillip Nieto of the Daily Mail, Jonathan Karl of ABC News, and Connor Stringer of the Telegraph.

The President announced that he and Mrs. Trump will welcome King Charles III and Queen Camilla of the United Kingdom to the White House on April 28.

The President announced that he had directed Environmental Protection Agency Administrator Lee M. Zeldin to investigate the conduct of insurance companies following the wildfires in California that burned thousands of homes in the Los Angeles area in 2025.

April 1

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, at the U.S. Supreme Court, he attended oral arguments in the case of Trump v. Barbara, which reviewed a lower court ruling that struck down the administration's "birthright" citizenship restrictions contained in Executive Order 14160 of January 20, 2025, "Protecting the Meaning and Value of American Citizenship." Attorney General Pamela J. Bondi also attended. He also had a telephone interview with Steve A. Holland of Reuters.

In the afternoon, in the East Room, the President participated in an Easter lunch. Later, in the Oval Office, he had a policy meeting.

In the evening, the President had a telephone conversation with Prime Minister Mark Carney of Canada. He also participated in a telephone interview with Diana Nerozzi of Politico.

During the day, the President had separate telephone conversations with Sen. Lindsey O. Graham and Administrator of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration Jared Isaacman. He also met with Attorney General Bondi.

Also during the day, the President had separate telephone conversations with President Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan of the United Arab Emirates and Crown Prince Muhammad bin Salman bin Abd al-Aziz Al Saud of Saudi Arabia. He also participated in a telephone interview with Steve A. Holland of Reuters.

The President announced that Supreme Leader Mojtaba Khamenei of Iran had requested a cease-fire with the U.S.

The President announced the nomination of John Marck and Arthur "Rob" Jones to be judges on the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Texas.

The President announced the nomination of Mike Hendershot to be a judge on the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Ohio.

The President announced the nomination of Jeffrey Kuntz to be a judge on the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida.

April 2

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, he had an intelligence briefing. He also had separate telephone interviews with Aidan McLaughlin of Vanity Fair, Zachary Halaschak of the DC Examiner, and Eric Cortellessa of TIME Magazine.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President signed Executive orders. Later, also in the Oval Office, he had a policy meeting.

During the day, the President spoke with Peter Doocy of Fox News.

The President announced that the National Capital Planning Commission had voted to approve the project design for the proposed White House Ballroom construction.

The President announced the resignation of Pamela J. Bondi as Attorney General.

The President announced the designation of Deputy Attorney General Todd Blanche as Acting Attorney General.

April 3

In the morning, the President had executive time.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had policy meetings. Later, also in the Oval Office, he signed documents.

During the day, the President had a telephone conversation with Garrett Haake of NBC News and Andrew Feinberg of the Independent newspaper.

April 4

In the morning, the President had executive time. He also had a telephone conversation with Sen. Lindsey O. Graham.

April 5

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, he traveled to the Trump National Golf Club Washington, D.C., in Potomac Falls, VA. He also participated in separate telephone interviews with Barak Ravid of Axios, Trey Yingst of Fox News, and Rachel Scott of ABC News.

Later in the morning, the President returned to Washington, DC.

In the afternoon, the President had a telephone interview with Matthew Foldi of the Washington Reporter.

In the evening, in the East Room, the President and Mrs. Trump hosted a family Easter dinner.

During the day, the President had a telephone conversation with Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu of Israel. He also participated in separate telephone interviews with Meredith McGraw of the Wall Street Journal, Barak Ravid of Axios, and Julia Manchester of the Hill newspaper. He also sent a statement via text message to Kristen Welker of NBC News.

The President announced the successful rescue of a second U.S. servicemember, whose aircraft had been shot down in southern Iran.

April 6

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, on the South Lawn, he and Mrs. Trump participated in White House Easter Egg Roll activities.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting. Later, also in the Oval Office, he participated in a Passover greeting with Jewish community leaders.

In the evening, the President had a telephone conversation with crewmembers of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration Artemis II flyby mission to observe the Moon: commander Reid Wiseman, pilot Victor J. Glover, and mission specialist Christina H. Koch; and Canadian Space Agency astronaut Jeremy Hansen.

April 7

In the morning, the President had executive time. He also participated in separate telephone interviews with Caitlin Doornbos of the New York Post, Bret Baier of Fox News, Sophia Cai of Politico, Jacqui Heinrich of Fox News, and Gabe Gutierrez of NBC News.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting.

In the evening, the President had dinner with U.S. Ambassador to India Sergio Gor. He also participated in separate telephone interviews with Danny Kemp of Agence France-Presse and Mark Stone of Sky News.

Also in the evening, the President had a telephone conversation with Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu of Israel to discuss U.S. military operations in Iran.

During the day, the President had separate telephone conversations with Prime Minister Shehbaz Sharif and Chief of Defense Forces Syed Asim Munir Ahmed Shah of Pakistan to discuss U.S. military operations in Iran. He also participated in separate telephone interviews with Laura Ingraham of Fox News Channel's "The Ingraham Angle" program and Mark Stone of Sky News.

April 8

In the morning, the President had executive time. He also participated in separate telephone interviews with Jonathan Karl of ABC News, Steven Nelson of the New York Post, and Liz Landers of PBS News Hour. Later, in the Oval Office, he met with Secretary of Agriculture Brooke L. Rollins.

In the afternoon, the President was informed of reports that Iran had restricted commercial transit through the Strait of Hormuz in response to reported continued Israeli attacks in Lebanon.

Then, in the Roosevelt Room, he participated in an interview. Later, in the Oval Office, he met with Secretary General Mark Rutte of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. Later, in the State Dining Room, he participated in a Freedom250 Reception.

During the day, the President had separate telephone conversations with President Recep Tayyip Erdogan of Turkey and President Emmanuel Macron of France.

The President announced his decision to impose a tariff of 50 percent on U.S. imports from any "country supplying military weapons to Iran [with] no exclusions or exemptions" effective immediately.

The White House announced that the President will travel to Miami, FL, on April 11.

April 9

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, he had an intelligence briefing. He also participated in a telephone interview with Andrew Kaczynski of CNN.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had policy meetings. Later, in the Roosevelt Room, he participated in a roundtable discussion on the "Make America Healthy Again" initiative. Then, in the Oval Office, he had a policy meeting. He also participated in separate telephone interviews with Neria Kraus of Israel's Channel 13 TV News "Kraus Report" podcast and Jacqueline Alemany of MS NOW News.

Also in the afternoon, the President invited roundtable participants known as the "MAHA Moms" back to the Oval Office for a photographic opportunity. Secretary of Health and Human Services Robert F. Kennedy, Jr., also participated.

In the evening, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting.

During the day, the President had a telephone conversation with Prime Minister Keir Starmer of the United Kingdom. He also participated in an interview with Peter Nicholas of NBC News.

The President announced the nomination of Benjamin Flowers to be a judge on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit.

April 10

In the morning, the President had executive time.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had policy meetings. He also met with Sens. Lindsey O. Graham and John A. Barrasso III to discuss funding for the Department of Homeland Security. Later, he traveled to Charlottesville, VA, arriving in the evening. His son Eric accompanied him.

In the evening, at the Trump Winery, the President participated in a MAGA Inc. meeting, followed by a MAGA Inc. roundtable dinner. While at the winery, he also viewed the splash-down of the crew of the Artemis II spacecraft into the Pacific Ocean off the coast of San Diego, CA, following their successful lunar flyby. Later, he returned to Washington, DC.

During the day, the President participated in separate telephone interviews with Shawn McCreesh of the New York Times and Steven Nelson of the New York Post.

The President announced that his administration had "filed the presentation and plans" for its proposed triumphal arch construction to the Commission of Fine Arts.

The President announced the nomination of Matthew Schwartz to be a judge on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit in New York.

The President announced that White House Deputy Chief of Staff for Legislative, Political, and Public Affairs James Blair would be taking a leave of absence to work with the Republican Party on the 2026 midterm elections.

April 11

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, he traveled to the Trump National Golf Club Washington, D.C., in Potomac Falls, VA. He also participated in a telephone interview with Kellie Meyer of NewsNation.

In the afternoon, the President returned to Washington, DC. Later, he traveled to Miami, FL, arriving in the evening.

In the evening, upon arrival at the Kaseya Center, the President was greeted by Dana F. White, chief executive officer of Ultimate Fighting Championship (UFC). Then, he attended several UFC matches, including fights between Cub Swanson and Nate Landwehr and Jiří Procházka and Carlos Ulberg. His daughter Ivanka, son Donald and his fiancée Bettina Anderson, daughter Tiffany and her husband Michael Boulos, Secretary of State Marco A. Rubio, White House Deputy Chief of Staff Daniel J. Scavino and his wife, Art in Embassies Director Erin M. Scavino, and U.S. Ambassador to India Sergio Gor also attended. While at the Kaseya Center, he also spoke with UFC Chief Business Officer Hunter Campbell and congratulated Paulo Costa following his fight victory over Azamat Murzakanov. Later, he traveled to his residence at the Trump National Doral Miami golf resort, where he remained overnight.

April 12

In the morning, at the Trump National Doral Miami golf resort, the President had executive time. He also participated in a telephone interview with Maria Bartiromo of Fox Business Network's "Sunday Morning Futures With Maria Bartiromo" program.

In the evening, the President returned to Washington, DC.

During the day, at the Trump National Doral Miami golf resort, the President visited with Gov. Ronald D. DeSantis of Florida and his wife Casey. He was also "fully debriefed" by Vice President James D. "J.D." Vance, U.S. Special Envoy for Peace Missions Steven C. Witkoff, and his son-in-law, U.S. Special Envoy for Peace Jared C. Kushner, on their weekend meetings in Islamabad, Pakistan, with Iran's representatives, Speaker of the Parliament Mohammad-Bagher Ghalibaf, Minister of Foreign Affairs Abbas Araqchi, and Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs Ali Bagheri, mediated by Prime Minister Shehbaz Sharif and Chief of Defense Forces Syed Asim Munir Ahmed Shah of Pakistan, to negotiate an agreement to end the U.S. conflict with Iran. He also participated in a telephone interview with Norah O'Donnell of CBS News.

The President announced that the U.S. military would impose a blockade on commercial transit into and out of the Strait of Hormuz and that he had instructed the U.S. Navy "to seek and interdict every vessel in international waters that has paid a toll to Iran" in the period leading up to the U.S.-enforced blockade.

April 13

In the morning, the President had executive time.

In the afternoon, on the West Wing Colonnade, after paying Arkansas-based DoorDash driver Sharon Simmons for the McDonalds delivery, the President invited her into the Oval Office. Later, in the Oval Office, he signed documents.

Later in the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting.

In the evening, on the South Portico, the President and Mrs. Trump welcomed King Willem-Alexander and Queen Máxima of the Netherlands, posed for photographs, then entered the White House for dinner. Prime Minister Rob Jetten of the Netherlands also participated.

The White House announced that the President will travel to Las Vegas, NV, on April 16.

April 14

In the morning, the President had executive time.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President met with Speaker of the House of Representatives J. Michael Johnson and Chairman of the National Republican Congressional Committee Rep. Richard L. Hudson, Jr. Later, also in the Oval Office, he met with Sean O'Brien, general president of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters. Then, in the Diplomatic Reception Room, he recorded an interview with Maria Bartiromo of the Fox News Channel's "Mornings With Maria" program for later broadcast. Later, in the Oval Office, he met with U.S. Ambassador to China David A. Perdue, Jr.

During the day, the President had a telephone conversation with Prime Minister Narendra Modi of India. He also participated in separate telephone interviews with Caitlin Doornbos of the New York Post, Viviana Mazza of Italy's Corriere della Sera newspaper, Jonathan Karl of ABC News, Mark Stone of Sky News, and Margot Haddad of France's La Chaîne Info (LCI) news channel.

The White House announced that the President will travel to Phoenix, AZ, on April 17.

April 15

In the morning, the President had executive time.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting. Later, also in the Oval Office, he signed documents. Then, also in the Oval Office, he had a policy meeting.

During the day, the President had a telephone conversation with Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu of Israel.

April 16

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, he had an intelligence briefing. He also had separate telephone conversations with President Joseph Aoun of Lebanon and Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu of Israel to discuss terms for a 10-day cease-fire between Israel and the Hizballah political and paramilitary organization and announce a trilateral meeting with them and Secretary of State Marco A. Rubio in Washington, DC, on April 21.

In the afternoon, the President traveled to Las Vegas, NV.

In the evening, at the Trump International Hotel Las Vegas, the President remained overnight.

During the day, in the Oval Office, the President met with Lieutenant Governor Taranjit Sandhu of Delhi, India. He also had a telephone conversation with Amir Tamin bin Hamad Al Thani of Qatar.

Also during the day, the President was briefed on the disappearance or death of several nuclear and aerospace scientists in the research community who had access to sensitive U.S. Government information.

The President announced that he had directed Vice President James D. "J.D." Vance, Secretary Rubio, and Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff Gen. J. Daniel Caine, USAF, to work with Israel and Lebanon to build on the 10-day cease-fire agreement and achieve a lasting resolution to the conflict between Hizballah and Israel.

The President announced the nomination of Erica Schwartz to be Director of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.

April 17

In the morning, the President had executive time. He also participated in separate telephone interviews with Dan Rivers of ITV News, Kellie Meyer of NewsNation, Kate Sullivan of Bloomberg News, Steve A. Holland of Reuters, and Barak Ravid of Axios.

In the afternoon, the President traveled to Phoenix, AZ. Later, he returned to Washington, DC, arriving in the evening.

During the day, the President participated in separate telephone interviews with Weijia Jiang of CBS News, Danny Kemp of Agence France-Presse, and Jonathan Karl of ABC News.

The President announced that the "Strait of Hormuz is completely open and ready for business and full passage," but that the U.S. Navy would continue to enforce a blockade on U.S.-sanctioned Iranian commercial vessels "until such time as our transaction with Iran is 100-percent complete" pending further negotiations.

April 18

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, in the Oval Office, he signed an Executive order.

In the afternoon, the President traveled to the Trump National Golf Club Washington, D.C., in Potomac Falls, VA.

In the evening, the President returned to Washington, DC.

April 19

In the morning, the President had executive time. He also participated in separate telephone interviews with Jonathan Karl of ABC News, Trey Yingst of Fox News, Caitlin Doornbos of the New York Post, and Maria Bartiromo of Fox News.

During the day, the President participated in separate telephone interviews with Barak Ravid of Axios, Jacqueline Alemany of MS NOW's "The Weekend" program, and Margot Haddad of France's La Chaîne Info (LCI) news channel.

The President announced that USS Spruance had intercepted, boarded, and taken custody the Iranian-flagged cargo ship Touska in the Gulf of Oman due to its suspected violations of U.S. sanctions.

April 20

In the morning, the President had executive time. He also participated in separate telephone interviews with Julia Manchester of the Hill newspaper, Caitlin Doornbos of the New York Post, and Liz Landers of PBS NewsHour.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting. Later, also in the Oval Office, he signed Executive orders.

In the evening, the President participated in a live telephone interview with John Fredericks of the "John Fredericks Radio Show."

During the day, the President made remarks via teleconference at a telerally to benefit the Virginia Republican Party. He also participated in a telephone interview with Jeff Mason of Bloomberg News.

The White House announced the resignation of Secretary of Labor Lori M. Chavez-DeRemer and the designation of Deputy Secretary Keith Sonderling as Acting Secretary of Labor.

April 21

In the morning, the President had executive time. Then, he participated in a live telephone interview with Joe Kernen of CNBC's "Squawk Box" program. He also participated in a telephone interview with Dan Rivers of ITV News.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had policy meetings. Later, also in the Oval Office, he had another policy meeting.

April 22

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, in the Oval Office, he met with Social Security Administration Commissioner Frank J. Bisignano. He also had a telephone conversation with Sen. Lindsey O. Graham.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had policy meetings. Also in the Oval Office, he met with Mayor Karen R. Bass of Los Angeles, CA, Los Angeles County Fifth District Supervisor Kathryn Barger, and Supervisor Barger's Chief of Staff, Anna Mouradian, to discuss rebuilding and recovery efforts following the 2025 wildfires in the Los Angeles area.

Also in the afternoon, the President was informed that the eight women protesters who were reportedly scheduled to be executed in Iran would instead be either released immediately or sentenced to 1 month in prison.

During the day, the President met with Secretary of War Peter B. Hegseth and Deputy Secretary of War Steve Feinberg. He also participated in separate telephone interviews with Martha MacCallum of Fox News and Caitlin Doornbos of the New York Post.

April 23

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, he had an intelligence briefing.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President signed documents. Later, also in the Oval Office, he had a policy meeting. He also greeted Lebanon's Ambassador to the U.S. Nada Hamadeh Moawad and Israel's Ambassador to the U.S. Yechiel Leiter from Israel and Lebanon who had arrived for talks with Vice President James D. "J.D." Vance, Secretary of State Marco A. Rubio, U.S. Ambassador to Israel Michael D. Huckabee, and U.S. Ambassador to Lebanon Michel Issa toward a resolution of the conflict between the Hizballah political-paramilitary organization and Israel. He also posted a message to his Truth Social feed on the successful service and resignation of Secretary of the Navy John C. Phelan.

Also in the afternoon, the President posted to his Truth Social feed a video of remarks on his administration's efforts to restore and renovate the Reflecting Pool between the Lincoln Memorial and the Washington Monument on the National Mall.

In the evening, at the U.S. Institute of Peace, the President participated in a private dinner to celebrate "250 Years of the First Amendment" hosted by David Ellison, founder and chief executive officer, Paramount Skydance Corp., parent company of CBS.

During the day, in the Oval Office, the President met with stand-up comedian and media personality Jimmy Failla. He also participated in separate telephone interviews with Sarah Smith of BBC News and Steve A. Holland of Reuters.

The President announced that he had "ordered the United States Navy to shoot and kill any boat, small boats though they may be . . . putting mines in the waters of the Strait of Hormuz" and that U.S. mine sweepers were in the process of clearing the Strait of mines.

April 24

In the morning, the President had executive time.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting. Later, he traveled to Palm Beach, FL, arriving in the evening.

In the evening, at the Mar-a-Lago Club, the President attended the Republican National Committee Spring Retreat. He remained overnight at his residence at the Mar-a-Lago Club.

During the day, the President had separate telephone conversations with President Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan of the United Arab Emirates and Amir Tamin bin Hamad Al Thani of Qatar.

April 25

In the morning, at the Mar-a-Lago Club, the President had executive time. He also participated in separate telephone interviews with Aishah Hasnie of Fox News and Barak Ravid of Axios.

In the afternoon, the President returned to Washington, DC.

In the evening, at the Washington Hilton hotel, just prior to his remarks at the White House Correspondents Association dinner, the President and Mrs. Trump were evacuated to a safe location after reports of shots fired within the hotel. Later, he posted to his Truth Social feed that the suspected shooter had been apprehended, that law enforcement had requested that he "leave the premises, consistent with protocol," that Mrs. Trump, Vice President James D. "J.D." Vance, and Cabinet members were "in perfect condition," and that he would hold a press conference from the James S. Brady Press Briefing Room at the White House in the next 30 minutes. He also spoke separately with Mayor Muriel E. Bowser of Washington, DC, and the U.S. Secret Service agent who was injured in the line of fire during the encounter with Cole T. Allen, suspect in the shooting during the White House Correspondents' Association dinner at the Washington Hilton hotel.

Later in the evening, in the Oval Office, the President met with Vice President Vance, Secretary of State Marco A. Rubio, Secretary of War Peter B. Hegseth, Secretary of Homeland Security Markwayne Mullin, Acting Attorney General Todd Blanche, White House Deputy Chief of Staff Daniel J. Scavino, Deputy Chief of Staff for Legislative, Political, and Public Affairs James Blair, Deputy Chief of Staff for Policy Stephen Miller, and Press Secretary Karoline Leavitt, and other senior advisers. He also had a telephone conversation with U.S. Special Presidential Envoy for Special Missions Richard A. Grenell.

The President announced that he had cancelled the trip of his representatives to Islamabad, Pakistan, to meet with the Iranian delegation for scheduled negotiations.

The President announced that the White House Correspondents Association dinner would be rescheduled within 30 days.

The White House released further details on the state visit of King Charles III and Queen Camilla of the United Kingdom to the White House from April 27 through April 30.

April 26

In the morning, the President had executive time. He also had a telephone conversation with President Ursula von der Leyen of the European Commission.

Also in the morning, the President had a telephone conversation with Sen. Lindsey O. Graham. He also participated in a live telephone interview with Jacqui Heinrich of the Fox News Channel's "The Sunday Briefing" program.

During the day, in the Diplomatic Reception Room, the President recorded an interview with Norah O'Donnell of CBS News' "60 Minutes" program for later broadcast. He also had a telephone conversation with Prime Minister Keir Starmer of the United Kingdom.

April 27

In the morning, the President had executive time. He also met with his national security team to discuss the situation in Iran.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting. Later, on the South Portico, he and Mrs. Trump welcomed King Charles III and Queen Camilla of the United Kingdom. Then, in the Green Room, they hosted King Charles and Queen Camilla for tea and participated in a tour of the new bee hive installation near the kitchen garden on the South Lawn.

Later in the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting.

During the day, the President had a telephone conversation with King Abdullah II of Jordan.

The White House announced that the President will travel to Middleton, FL, on May 1.

April 28

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, on the South Portico, he and Mrs. Trump participated in a greeting with King Charles III and Queen Camilla of the United Kingdom followed by a guestbook signing in the Blue Room. Then, in the Cross Hall, the President and Mrs. Trump participated in a receiving line for official delegations.

Later in the morning, in the Oval Office, the President met with King Charles.

In the afternoon, on the drive outside the Oval Office, the President and Mrs. Trump escorted King Charles and Queen Camilla to their waiting motorcade, and the President spoke briefly to reporters.

In the evening, on the South Portico, the President and Mrs. Trump participated in a greeting with King Charles and Queen Camilla followed by a tour of the Executive Residence and document viewing. During the King and Queen's arrival, the President also spoke briefly to reporters. Then, in the Blue Room, the President and Mrs. Trump participated in a receiving line.

April 29

In the morning, the President had executive time. He also participated in a telephone interview with Barak Ravid of Axios.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had policy meetings.

During the day, the President had a telephone conversation with President Vladimir Vladimirovich Putin of Russia to discuss the Ukraine conflict and the situation in Iran.

The White House announced that the President will travel to Miami, FL, on May 2.

April 30

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, on the South Portico, he and Mrs. Trump participated in a farewell ceremony with King Charles III and Queen Camilla of the United Kingdom, and the President spoke briefly with reporters. Then, in the Oval Office, the President participated in a telephone interview with Greta Van Susteren of Newsmax TV's "The Record with Greta Van Susteren" for later broadcast.

Also in the morning, the President had a telephone conversation with Gov. William B. Lee of Tennessee to discuss efforts to "correct the unconstitutional flaw in the congressional maps" used in the State.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President signed an Executive order. Later, also in the Oval Office, he had policy meetings.

During the day, the President had a telephone conversation with Prime Minister-designate Ali Falih Alzaidy of Iraq to congratulate him on his election and wish him success in forming a new government. He also participated in a telephone interview with Mark Stone of Sky News.

Also during the day, the President met with businessman and Kentucky Republican congressional candidate Nate Morris to discuss finding an ambassadorial role for him in the administration and the suspension of his primary campaign against Republican incumbent Rep. Garland H. "Andy" Barr IV for Kentucky's sixth congressional district.

The President announced his decision to remove U.S. tariffs and restrictions imposed on whiskey imported from the United Kingdom "in honor of the King and Queen of the United Kingdom, who have just left the White House."

The President announced the withdrawal of the nomination of Casey Means to be U.S. Surgeon General.

The President announced the nomination of Nicole B. Saphier to be U.S. Surgeon General.

May 1

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, he had an intelligence briefing.

In the afternoon, the President traveled to Middleton, FL.

In the evening, the President traveled to West Palm Beach, FL. Later, he traveled to Palm Beach, FL, where, at his residence at the Mar-a-Lago Club, he remained overnight.

The President announced his decision to increase to 25 percent the U.S. tariffs imposed on cars and trucks imported into the U.S. from the European Union "based on the fact the European Union is not complying with our fully agreed to trade deal" beginning the following week.

The President announced the official approval of State permits in Florida, Georgia, South Carolina, and North Carolina for the 2026 red snapper recreational season.

May 2

In the morning, at the Mar-a-Lago Club, the President had executive time. Later, he traveled to the Trump National Golf Club Jupiter in Jupiter, FL. He also had a dentist appointment.

In the afternoon, the President returned to his residence at the Mar-a-Lago Club in Palm Beach, FL.

In the evening, the President traveled to Miami, FL, where, at his residence at the Trump National Doral Miami golf resort, he remained overnight.

May 3

In the morning, at the Trump National Doral Miami golf resort, the President had executive time.

In the afternoon, at the Trump National Doral Miami golf resort, the President attended the PGA Tour Cadillac Championship.

In the evening, the President traveled to Joint Base Andrews, MD. His son Donald accompanied him. Prior to boarding Marine One en route to Washington, DC, the President spoke briefly to reporters.

During the day, the President participated in a telephone interview with Nathan Guttman of Kan News.

The President announced that the U.S. Navy would guide, starting May 4, any stranded commercial ships from neutral countries through the Strait of Hormuz as "a humanitarian gesture" while U.S. negotiations with Iran continued.

May 4

In the morning, the President had executive time.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting. Later, also in the Oval Office, he signed documents.

During the day, the President participated in separate telephone interviews with Jonathan Karl of ABC News, Trey Yingst of Fox News, and Hugh Hewitt of Salem Radio Network's "The Hugh Hewitt Show" for syndicated broadcast.

The President announced the designation of the following individuals as members of a Presidential delegation to attend the Inauguration of Laura Fernández Delgado of Costa Rica in San Jose, Costa Rica, on May 8: Christopher Landau (head of delegation); Melinda Hildebrand; Michael Kozak; Matthew Rhodes; and Ana Quintana-Lovett.

May 5

In the morning, the President had executive time.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting. On the South Lawn, he also observed activities celebrating youth sports and fitness and greeted participants. Later, he recorded an interview with Sharyl Attkisson of Sinclair Broadcast Group's "Full Measure With Sharyl Attkisson" program for later broadcast.

In the evening, in the Rose Garden, the President participated in a Rose Garden Club dinner.

During the day, in the Oval Office, the President met with New York Republican gubernatorial candidate and County Executive Bruce Blakeman of Nassau County, NY.

The President announced that, on the request of Pakistan and other countries, the U.S. military would pause its "Project Freedom" operation to guide stranded commercial vessels through the Strait of Hormuz, while maintaining its blockade of sanctioned traffic in and out of the Strait, in order to acknowledge the "great progress [that] has been made toward a complete and final agreement with representatives of Iran" and allow the agreement to be finalized and signed.

May 6

In the morning, the President had executive time. He also participated in separate telephone interviews with Caitlin Doornbos of the New York Post and Liz Landers of PBS News Hour. Later, in the Oval Office, he had a policy meeting.

In the afternoon, the President had an intelligence briefing. Later, in the Rose Garden, he and Mrs. Trump participated in a reception for the Trust for the National Mall.

During the day, the President participated in separate telephone interviews with Bret Baier of Fox News and James Franey of the New York Post. He also had a telephone conversation with Jack Daly, a North Carolina lawyer and political operative who was convicted on charges of conspiracy to commit mail fraud and lying to the Federal Election Commission on June 9, 2023.

May 7

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, he welcomed President Luiz Inácio Lula da Silva of Brazil. Then, in the Oval Office, he and President Lula had a meeting to discuss discussed trade and tariffs and other topics. Later in the morning, in the Cabinet Room, the President and President Lula had a working lunch.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting. Later, also in the Oval Office, he signed Executive orders. Then, also in the Oval Office, he had policy meetings.

During the day, the President had a telephone conversation with President Ursula von der Leyen of the European Commission to discuss the situation in Iran, the necessity to prevent Iran from developing a nuclear weapon, and implementation of the U.S.-EU trade agreement. He also participated in a telephone interview with Rachel Scott of ABC News and met with social media influencers and podcasters Nick, Elliot, and Lucas Gasparini and Kyle Forgeard, known collectively as the "NELK Boys".

May 8

In the morning, the President had executive time.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting.

In the evening, the President traveled to Potomac Falls, VA, where, at the Trump National Golf Club Washington, D.C., he a LIV Golf dinner. Later, he returned to Washington, DC.

During the day, the President participated in a telephone interview with Peter Nicholas of NBC News.

The President announced that the Department of War had released to the public the first tranche of its files concerning alien and extraterrestrial life, unidentified aerial phenomena (UAP), and unidentified flying objects (UFO) for "their review and study."

May 9

In the morning, the President had executive time. He also participated in a telephone interview with Viviana Mazza of Italy's Corriere della Sera newspaper.

In the afternoon, the President traveled to Potomac Falls, VA, where, at the Trump National Golf Club Washington, D.C., he attended the LIV Golf Tournament. Later, he returned to Washington, DC.

During the day, the President participated in a telephone interview with Margot Haddad of France's La Chaîne Info (LCI) news channel.

May 10

In the morning, the President had executive time.

In the afternoon, the President "read the response" from Iranian representatives concerning negotiations with the U.S. to end the conflict with Iran and announced that he found it "totally unacceptable."

During the day, the President had a telephone call with Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu of Israel. He also participated in separate telephone interviews with Barak Ravid of Axios and media personality and political commentator Bill O'Reilly.

The President announced that the U.S. had secured the release of three Polish and two Moldovan prisoners, including Polish journalist and activist Andrzej Poczobut and Carmelite friar Grzegorz Gawel, from Belarusian and Russian detention through the efforts of U.S. Special Envoy to Belarus John Coale.

May 11

In the morning, the President had executive time. He also participated in separate telephone interviews with John Roberts of Fox News and Nancy Cordes of CBS News.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting. Later, in the Oval Office, he signed Executive orders.

In the evening, the President had a telephone conversation with U.S. Agency for Global Media Special Adviser Kari Lake, to discuss her nomination to be U.S. Ambassador to Jamaica. He also participated in a telephone interview with Kellie Meyer of NewsNation

The White House announced that the President will travel to Walter Reed National Military Medical Center in Bethesda, MD, on May 26 for his annual dental and medical evaluations and visit with U.S. servicemembers.

The President announced the nomination of Daniel M. Traynor to be a judge on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit in North Dakota.

The President announced the nomination of Daniel D. Domenico to be a judge on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit in Colorado.

The President announced the nomination of Kasdin M. Mitchell to be a judge on the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Texas.

The President announced the nomination of Angela V. Colmenero to be a judge on the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Texas.

The President announced the nomination of Antonio M. Pozos to be a judge on the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

The President announced the nomination of Michael C. Martin to be a judge on the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan.

May 12

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, in the Oval Office, he participated in an interview with Fortune magazine Editor-in-Chief and Chief Content Officer Alyson Shontell. He also had a telephone conversation with Jensen Huang, founder, president, and chief executive officer of NVIDIA Corp. to invite him to join his delegation traveling to China.

In the afternoon, the President traveled to Anchorage, AK. Tesla and SpaceX Chief Executive Officer Elon R. Musk and Fox News Channel host Sean Hannity accompanied him.

In the evening, the President traveled to Beijing, China, arriving the following evening. Mr. Musk, Mr. Hannity, Mr. Huang, and the President's son Eric and daughter-in-law Lara accompanied him.

During the day, the President participated in a telephone interview with Sid Rosenberg of the "Sid and Friends in the Morning" show on WABC Radio in New York City.

The White House announced that the President will meet with President Xi Jinping of China in Beijing, China, on May 14 and 15.

The President announced the resignation of Commissioner of Food and Drugs Martin A. Makary.

The President announced the designation of Deputy Commissioner Kyle Diamantas as Acting Commissioner of Food and Drugs.

May 13

In the evening, upon arrival at the Beijing Capital International Airport, the President was greeted on the tarmac by Vice President Han Zheng, Ambassador to the U.S. Xie Feng, and Executive Vice Minister of Foreign Affairs Ma Zhaoxu of China; and U.S. Ambassador to China David A. Perdue, Jr. Then, the President traveled to the Four Seasons Hotel Beijing, where he remained overnight.

During the day, the President had a telephone conversation with President Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan of the United Arab Emirates.

May 14

In the morning, at the Four Seasons Hotel Beijing, the President had executive time. Then, he traveled to the Great Hall of the People, where he was greeted by President Xi Jinping of China and participated in an arrival ceremony. Tesla and SpaceX Chief Executive Officer Elon R. Musk, NVIDIA Corp. Founder, President, and Chief Executive Officer Jensen Huang, and Apple Inc. Chief Executive Officer Timothy D. Cook also attended.

In the afternoon, the President traveled to the Temple of Heaven, where he toured the complex with President Xi and spoke briefly with reporters. Then, he traveled to the Four Seasons Hotel, where he recorded an interview with Sean Hannity of Fox News Channel's "Hannity" program for later broadcast. Later, he traveled to the Great Hall of the People.

In the evening, the President returned to the Four Seasons Hotel, where he remained overnight.

May 15

In the morning, at the Four Seasons Hotel Beijing, the President had executive time and recorded an interview with Bret Baier of Fox News Channel's "Special for later broadcast. Later, he traveled to the Zhongnanhai government complex, where he was greeted by President Xi Jinping of China and they walked the grounds and participated in a "friendship" photograph.

In the afternoon, at the Zhongnanhai government complex, the President and President Xi had a working lunch. Also attending were Communist Party of China Central Committee General Office Director Cai Qi, Minister of Foreign Affairs Wang Yi, Vice Premier of the State Council He Lifeng, Executive Vice Minister of Foreign Affairs Ma Zhaoxu, Ambassador to the U.S. Xie Feng; and U.S. Secretary of State Marco A. Rubio, Secretary of the Treasury Scott K.H. Bessent, Secretary of War Peter B. Hegseth, and U.S. Trade Representative Jamieson L. Greer. Later, he traveled to Anchorage, AK, crossing the international dateline and arriving in the morning. While en route aboard Air Force One, he had separate telephone conversations with Chancellor Friedrich Merz of Germany and Prime Minister Sanae Takaichi of Japan. Then, he returned to Washington, DC, arriving in the evening. Fox News Channel host Sean Hannity and the President's son Eric and daughter-in-law Lara accompanied him.

The President announced the siting of the planned National Garden of American Heroes in West Potomac Park.

The President announced the successful execution of a joint Nigeria-U.S. military strike that resulted in the death of suspected Islamic State of Iraq and Syria (ISIS) terrorist organization senior leader Abu-Bilal al-Minuki, whose compound was located in the Lake Chad Basin region shared by Nigeria, Chad, Niger, and Cameroon.

May 16

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, he traveled to the Trump National Golf Club, D.C., in Potomac Falls, VA.

In the evening, the President returned to Washington, DC. Upon arrival at the White House, he viewed the White House Ballroom construction project.

The White House announced that the President will deliver the commencement address at the U.S. Coast Guard Academy in New London, CT, on May 20.

May 17

In the morning, the President had executive time.

In the afternoon, the President traveled to the Trump National Golf Club, D.C., in Potomac Falls, VA. Later, he returned to Washington, DC.

During the day, the President had a telephone conversation with Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu of Israel. He also participated in separate telephone interviews with Barak Ravid of Axios and Neria Kraus of Israel's Channel 13 News.

The White House announced further details on the President's travel to New London, CT, on May 20.

May 18

In the morning, the President had executive time.

During the day, the President had a telephone conversation with Senate Majority Leader John R. Thune. He also participated in a telephone interview with Caitlin Doornbos of the New York Post.

The President announced a postponement, at the request of Amir Tamim bin Hamad Al Thani of Qatar, President Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan of the United Arab Emirates, and Crown Prince Muhammad bin Salman bin Abd al-Aziz Al Saud of Saudi Arabia, of the U.S. strike on Iran scheduled for May 19, to allow for the continued "serious negotiations" underway to prevent Iran from obtaining a nuclear weapon and that he had instructed Secretary of War Peter B. Hegseth and Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff Gen. J. Daniel Caine, USAF, to resume the attack plan "on a moment's notice," should an acceptable deal not be reached.

May 19

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, in the Oval Office, he had a policy meeting. He also participated in a telephone interview with Zachary Halaschak of the Washington Examiner.

In the afternoon, the President spoke with Vice President James D. "J.D." Vance about U.S. diplomatic engagement with Iran. Later, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting. Later, also in the Oval Office, he signed Executive orders.

In the evening, the President had a telephone conversation with Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu of Israel.

During the day, the President had a telephone conversation with Sen. Timothy E. Scott.

The White House announced that the President will travel to Suffern, NY, on May 22.

May 20

In the morning, the President traveled to Groton, CT.

In the afternoon, the President returned to Washington, DC.

During the day, the President had a telephone conversation with President Recep Tayyip Erdogan of Turkey.

The White House announced that the President will travel to Évian-les-Bains, France, from June 15 through 17.

May 21

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, he had an intelligence briefing. He also had a telephone conversation with Cochairman of the President's Council of Advisers on Science and Technology David O. Sacks.

In the afternoon, the President had lunch with Environmental Protection Agency Administrator Lee M. Zeldin. Later, in the Oval Office, the President participated in a credentialing ceremony for newly appointed Ambassadors to the U.S.

The President announced the deployment of an additional 5,000 U.S. servicemembers to Poland.

May 22

In the morning, the President had executive time. He also participated in a telephone interview with Dasha Burns of Politico.

In the afternoon, the President traveled to Morristown, NJ. Upon arrival at the Morristown Airport, he traveled to Suffern, NY. Later, he traveled to Morristown, NJ. Upon arrival at the Morristown Airport, he returned to Washington, DC, arriving in the evening.

The President announced the resignation of Director of National Intelligence Tulsi Gabbard effective June 30.

The President announced the designation of Acting Director of National Intelligence Aaron Lukas as Director of National Intelligence.

May 23

In the morning, the President had executive time. He also participated in separate telephone interviews with Barak Ravid of Axios and Nancy Cordes of CBS News.

During the day, the President had separate telephone conversations with Crown Prince Muhammad bin Salman bin Abd al-Aziz Al Saud of Saudi Arabia; President Mohammed bin Zayed Al Nahyan of the United Arab Emirates; Amir Tamim bin Hamad Al Thani, Prime Minister Muhammad bin Abd al-Rahman Al Thani, and Minister Ali al-Thawadi of Qatar; Chief of Defense Forces Syed Asim Munir Ahmed Shah of Pakistan; President Recep Tayyip Erdoğan of Turkey; President Abdel Fattah Said Elsisy of Egypt; King Abdullah II of Jordan; King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa of Bahrain; and Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu of Israel.

May 24

In the morning, the President had executive time.

May 25

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, he traveled to Arlington, VA, arriving in the afternoon.

In the afternoon, at Arlington National Cemetery, the President participated in a wreath-laying ceremony at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier and observed a moment of silence. Vice President James D. "J.D." Vance and Secretary of War Peter B. Hegseth also participated. Later, he returned to Washington, DC.

Later in the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting.

May 26

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, he traveled to Bethesda, MD, where, at the Walter Reed National Military Medical Center, he greeted servicemembers and medical center staff. Then, he underwent his annual physical exam.

In the afternoon, the President returned to Washington, DC. Later, in the Oval Office, he had policy meetings.

In the evening, in the Rose Garden, the President participated in a Rose Garden Club dinner.

May 27

In the morning, the President had executive time. He also participated in a telephone interview with Liz Landers of PBS News Hour.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had policy meetings.

The President announced the nomination of Matthew Byrne to be a judge on the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Ohio.

May 28

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, in the Grand Foyer and other White House locations, he recorded an interview with his daughter-in-law Lara J. Trump of Fox News Channel's "My View With Lara Trump" for later broadcast.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President signed documents. Later, also in the Oval Office, he had a policy meeting.

During the day, in the Oval Office, the President signed H.R. 3497, the Medal of Sacrifice Act of 2025, which was assigned Public Law No. 119–94. Rep. Brian J. Mast also attended.

May 29

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, he had an intelligence briefing. Then, in the Situation Room, he had a meeting to discuss the progress of U.S. negotiations with Iran toward resolving the conflict over the enrichment of nuclear material and commercial transit through the Strait of Hormuz.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had policy meetings. Later, also in the Oval Office, he signed Executive orders. Then, also in the Oval Office, he had a policy meeting.

May 30

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, he traveled to the Trump National Golf Club Washington, D.C., in Potomac Falls, VA.

In the afternoon, the President returned to Washington, DC.

The President announced that he had ordered his "representatives to look into the feasibility" of planning an "America Is Back" rally in Washington, DC, on June 24 to take the place of the scheduled Freedom 250 "Great American State Fair" concert series, which was scheduled to begin on June 25.

May 31

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, he traveled to the Trump National Golf Club Washington, D.C., in Potomac Falls, VA.

In the afternoon, the President returned to Washington, DC.

During the day, at the Trump National Golf Club Washington, D.C., the President participated in a photographic opportunity with Virginia Senatorial candidate David Williams. He also had a telephone conversation with President Emmanuel Macron of France.

The President announced the appointment of U.S. Ambassador to Turkey Thomas Barrack as U.S. Special Presidential Envoy to Syria and U.S. Special Presidential Envoy to Iraq.

June 1

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, in the Oval Office, he had a policy meeting.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President signed an Executive order. Later, also in the Oval Office, he had policy meetings.

During the day, the President had separate telephone conversations with Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu of Israel and representatives of the leaders of the Hizballah political-paramilitary organization in Lebanon to discuss an immediate cessation of hostilities. He also participated in separate telephone interviews with Garrett Haake of NBC News, Eamon Javers of CNBC, and Jonathan Karl of ABC News.

The White House announced that the President will travel to Chippewa Falls, WI, on June 5.

June 2

In the morning, the President had executive time.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting. Then, in the Roosevelt Room, he recorded an interview with New York Post columnist Miranda Devine of the podcast "Pod Force One" for later broadcast. Later, also in the Oval Office, he had policy meetings.

During the day, in the Oval Office, the President met with Brazilian Senator Flávio Bolsonaro, son of former President Jair Messias Bolsonaro of Brazil. He also met in the Oval Office with Texas State Attorney General and Republican senatorial candidate W. Kenneth Paxton, Jr., and Lt. Gov. Dan Patrick of Texas. He also met in the Oval Office with Rep. Jimmy Patronis and his sons Theo and Johnny. During the visit, the President also called Rep. Patronis's mother Helen. He also met in the Oval Office with Gov. William B. Lee of Tennessee, his wife Maria, and other members of their family.

The President announced the appointment of Federal Housing Finance Agency Director William J. Pulte as Acting Director of National Intelligence.

The President announced that he will attend the rescheduled White House Correspondents' Association dinner in Washington, DC, on July 24.

June 3

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, in the Oval Office, he had a policy meeting.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had policy meetings.

In the evening, in the Rose Garden, the President participated in a Rose Garden Club dinner.

During the day, the President met with Mary T. Barra, chair and chief executive officer, General Motors Corp.; Roger S. Penske, founder and chairman, Penske Corp.; and James D. Farley, chief executive officer, Ford Motor Co. He also participated in a telephone interview with Nathan Guttman of Kan News.

The President announced his intention to nominate Deputy Attorney General Todd Blanche to be Attorney General.

The President announced that he will travel to France for the Group of Seven (G-7) nations summit on June 14.

June 4

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, he had an intelligence briefing.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting.

During the day, the President participated in a telephone interview with Andrew Feinberg of the Independent.

June 5

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, in the Oval Office, he had a policy meeting.

In the afternoon, the President traveled to Eau Claire, WI. Upon arrival at the Chippewa Valley Regional Airport, he traveled to Chippewa Falls, WI, where, at the Custer Farm, he recorded an interview with Kristen Welker of NBC's "Meet the Press" program for later broadcast. Later, he traveled to Morristown, NJ, arriving in the evening.

In the evening, upon arrival at the Morristown Regional Airport, the President traveled to Bedminster, NJ, where, at his residence at the Trump National Golf Club Bedminster, he remained overnight.

The President announced that TrumpRx.gov had added another 160 prescription drugs at discounted prices to its suite of online medication offerings.

The President announced the nomination of Stuart Nash and James Crowell to be judges on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia.

June 6

In the morning, at the Trump National Golf Club Bedminster, the President had executive time.

In the evening, at his residence at the Trump National Golf Club Bedminster, the President remained overnight.

June 7

In the morning, at the Trump National Golf Club Bedminster, the President had executive time.

In the afternoon, the President participated in a telephone interview with Edward Luce of the Financial Times.

In the evening, the President had a telephone conversation with Sen. Michael S. Lee. He also participated in a telephone with Glenn Beck, host of Blaze Media's "Glenn Beck Program." The President remained overnight at his residence at the Trump National Golf Club Bedminster.

During the day, the President had a telephone conversation with Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu of Israel. He also participated in separate telephone interviews with Caitlin Doornbos of the New York Post, Trey Yingst of Fox News, Libby Blanca Alon of Channel 14 News of Israel, Barak Ravid of Axios, and Nathan Guttman of Kan News.

June 8

In the morning, at the Trump National Golf Club Bedminster, the President had executive time. He also had a telephone conversation with Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu of Israel.

In the evening, the President traveled to New York City, where, at Madison Square Gardens, he attended game 3 of the National Basketball Association finals between the San Antonio Spurs and the New York Knicks. Madison Square Garden Entertainment Corp. Executive Chairman and New York Knicks owner James L. Dolan and his son Chris Dolan, personal senior counsel Boris Epshteyn, Secretary of the Interior Douglas J. Burgum, Secretary of Transportation Sean P. Duffy, Environmental Protection Agency Administrator Lee M. Zeldin, U.S. Special Envoy for Peace Missions Steven C. Witkoff, White House Deputy Chief of Staff Daniel J. Scavino and his wife Erin, Communications Director Steven Cheung, Communications Adviser Margo Martin, Personal Aide to the President Walt Nauta, White House aide Natalie Harp, and the President's former daughter-in-law Vanessa Trump, granddaughter Kai M. Trump, and son-in-law Michael Boulos also attended. During the game, he also visited with NBA Commissioner Adam Silver and stepped onto the court during halftime. Later, he returned to Washington, DC, arriving early the following morning.

During the day, the President participated in separate telephone interviews with Jonathan Karl of ABC News, Sarah Smith of BBC News, Barak Ravid of Axios, and James Matthews of Sky News.

The President announced the nomination of Todd Blanche to be Attorney General.

June 9

In the morning, the President had executive time.

In the afternoon, the President was informed by military advisers that Iran had shot down a U.S. Army AH-64 Apache helicopter while patrolling the Strait of Hormuz on June 8 and that both pilots involved were "safe and uninjured." Then, in the Oval Office, he had policy meetings. Later, he authorized the commencement of U.S. strikes on Iran in response to its downing of a U.S. Army helicopter.

During the day, in the Oval Office, the President greeted workers who participated in the renovation work on the Lincoln Memorial Reflecting Pool. He also participated in a telephone interview with Jonathan Karl of ABC News.

The President announced that William J. Pulte would assume his duties as Acting Director of National Intelligence on June 19 while retaining his role as Director of the Federal Housing Finance Agency and Chairman of Fannie Mae/Freddie Mac

June 10

In the morning, the President had executive time. He also had a telephone conversation with Giovanni V. Infantino, president, Fédération Internationale de Football Association (FIFA).

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President participated in a greeting with three of the top finalists of the Presidential 1776 Award: Rowan Kozminski of Grand Rapids, MI; Summer Brondstetter of Seattle, WA; and Miriam Washut of Lander, WY. Secretary of Education Linda E. McMahon and actor and television host Mario Lopez also attended. Later, also in the Oval Office, he had a policy meeting.

During the day, the President participated in separate telephone interviews with Steven Nelson of the New York Post and Trey Yingst of Fox News.

The President announced that he had asked Acting Director of National Intelligence William J. Pulte, upon assuming duties June 19, to "execute the immediate and needed downsizing of the office, reverting staff to their home agencies."

The President announced the successful passage of more than 200 commercial vessels through the Strait of Hormuz as a result of a U.S. military support mission he had ordered in May, resulting in more than 100 million barrels of oil coming onto market.

June 11

In the morning, the President had executive time. He also participated in a live telephone interview with Ainsley Earhardt, Brian Kilmeade, and Lawrence Jones of Fox News Channel's "Fox and Friends" program. Later, he had an intelligence briefing.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President signed a proclamation. Later, also in the Oval Office, he had a policy meeting.

During the day, the President had separate telephone conversations with Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu of Israel, Amir Tamim bin Hamad Al Thani of Qatar, President Recep Tayyip Erdogan of Turkey, King Salman bin Abd al-Aziz Al Saud of Saudi Arabia, President Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan of the United Arab Emirates, King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa of Bahrain, and Amir Mishal al-Ahmad al-Jabir al-Sabah of Kuwait to discuss the negotiated agreement toward a U.S. cease-fire with Iran. He also participated in a telephone interview with Caitlin Doornbos of the New York Post.

The President announced that the U.S. military would be "hitting Iran . . . very hard tonight" and "at some point in the not too distant future" would be "taking Kharg Island and other oil infrastructure points and assume total control of their oil and gas markets."

The President announced his decision to cancel the "scheduled strikes and bombings against Iran this evening" in recognition of progress in negotiations with the "highest level of Iranian leadership" and that the U.S. naval blockade of commercial transit through the Strait of Hormuz would "remain in full force and effect until this transaction is finalized" at a time and place to be determined.

The President announced the nomination of Walter J. "Jay" Clayton III to be Director of National Intelligence.

June 12

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, in the Oval Office, he recorded a podcast with Usha Chilukuri Vance, wife of Vice President James D. "J.D." Vance.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting. Later, he recorded an interview for later broadcast.

During the day, in the Oval Office, the President met with Ukrainian heavyweight boxing champion Oleksandr Usyk. He also participated in separate telephone interviews with Barak Ravid of Axios, Viviana Mazza of Italy's Corriere della Sera newspaper, and Daniele Compatangelo of Italy's LA7 television channel.

The President announced a "swift and lethal kinetic strike" by the U.S. Southern Command "to successfully execute" Héctor Rusthenford "Niño" Guerrero," leader of the Tren de Aragua criminal organization in Venezuela.

June 13

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, he traveled to the Trump National Golf Club Washington, D.C., in Potomac Falls, VA, arriving in the afternoon.

In the evening, at the Trump National Golf Club Washington, D.C., the President participated in a MAGA Inc. dinner. Later, he returned to Washington, DC.

During the day, the President had a telephone conversation with Prime Minister Keir Starmer of the United Kingdom.

The President announced his intention to nominate James M. McDonald to be U.S. attorney for the Southern District of New York.

June 14

In the morning, the President had executive time. He also participated in a telephone interview with Scott Jennings of CNN.

In the afternoon, the President participated in a family dinner.

In the evening, the President participated in an Ultimate Fighting Championship (UFC) Freedom 250 VIP Reception. Later, on the South Lawn, he attended UFC Freedom 250 mixed martial arts matches. UFC Chief Executive Officer and President Dana F. White, Jr., President Karol Nawrocki of Poland, Speaker of the House of Representatives J. Michael Johnson, Senate Majority Leader John R. Thune, Mrs. Trump, and the President's sons Donald, Eric, and Barron also attended. During a break between matches, he visited with Mark E. Zuckerberg, chief executive officer, Meta, and posed for a photograph.

During the day, the President had separate telephone conversations with President Volodymyr Zelenskyy of Ukraine and President Vladimir Vladimirovich Putin of Russia. He also participated in separate telephone interviews with Trey Yingst of Fox News, David E. Sanger of the New York Times, and Barak Ravid of Axios.

The President announced a completed U.S. agreement with Iran to "fully authorize the toll-free opening of the Strait of Hormuz and . . . authorize the immediate removal of the United States naval blockade" of sanctioned commercial traffic through the Strait.

June 15

In the early morning, following the UFC Freedom 250 matches on the South Lawn, the President traveled to Geneva, Switzerland, arriving in the afternoon.

In the afternoon, upon arrival at the Geneva Airport, the President was greeted on the tarmac by President Guy Parmelin and Federal Department of Foreign Affairs Head of Protocol Terrence Billeter of Switzerland; and U.S. Ambassador to Switzerland Callista L. Gingrich and her husband, former Speaker of the House of Representatives Newton L. Gingrich. Then, he traveled to Evian Les Bains, France, where, upon arrival at the landing zone, he was greeted by U.S. Ambassador to France Charles Kushner and traveled to the Evian Resort, arriving in the evening.

In the evening, at the Hotel Royal Evian, the President participated in a photographic opportunity with President Emmanuel Macron of France, followed by an official photograph, greeting, and working dinner with leaders of Group of Seven (G-7) nations. He remained overnight at the Hotel Royal Evian.

The President announced that he will host and deliver remarks at an event to "kick off" the "Freedom 250 Great American State Fair" celebration of 250 years of independence, including live music and military aircraft flyovers, on the National Mall on June 24.

The President announced that he will host and deliver remarks at a "Tribute to America" rally, including live music and military aircraft flyovers, between the Washington Monument and the Lincoln Memorial on the National Mall on July 4.

June 16

In the morning, at the Hotel Royal Evian, the President had executive time. Then, also at the Hotel Royal, he met with President Volodymyr Zelenskyy of Ukraine. Then, also at the Hotel Royal Evian, he participated in a working session with leaders of Group of Seven (G-7) nations. Later, also at the Hotel Royal, he met with the Amir Tamim bin Hamad Al Thani of Qatar. Secretary of State Marco A. Rubio, Secretary of the Treasury Scott K.H. Bessent, White House Chief of Staff Susan Wiles, Deputy Chief of Staff Daniel J. Scavino, Secretary of Commerce Howard W. Lutnick, Trade Representative Jamieson L. Greer, and National Economic Council Director Kevin A. Hassett also attended.

In the afternoon, at the Hotel Royal Evian, the President had a working lunch with G-7 and Middle East leaders. Later, also at the Hotel Royal Evian, he attended a working session with G-7 leaders and outreach partners on international investment partnerships and participated in an official group photograph. President Lula Inacio da Silva of Brazil, Prime Minister Narendra Modi of India, President William Samoei Ruto of Kenya, and President Lee Jae-myung of South Korea also attended.

In the evening, at the Hotel Royal, the President attended a G-7 social dinner and cultural performance. He remained overnight at the Hotel Royal Evian.

June 17

In the morning, at the Hotel Royal Evian, the President had executive time. Then, also at the Hotel Royal, he participated in a working session with leaders of Group of Seven (G-7) nations and outreach partners on promoting economic growth.

In the afternoon, at the Hotel Royal Evian, the President had a working lunch with G-7 leaders, G-7 outreach partners, and global technology company chief executive officers on innovation and artificial intelligence.

In the evening, the President traveled to Orly, France. Upon arrival at the Paris Orly Airport, he was greeted on the tarmac by U.S. Deputy Chief of Mission Mario Mesquita of the U.S. Embassy in Paris, France. Then, he traveled to Versailles, France, where, upon arrival at the Versailles Palace, the President was greeted by President Emmanuel Macron of France and his wife Brigitte, and they had dinner. During the dinner at the Versailles Palace, the President also signed a memorandum of understanding outlining terms for a cessation of hostilities between the U.S. and Iran and both leaders spoke with President Volodymyr Zelenskyy of Ukraine.

During the day, on the margins of the G-7 nations summit in Évian-les-Bains, the President had a working lunch with OpenAI Executive Officer Sam Altman, Google's DeepMind Technologies Chief Executive Officer Demis Hassabis, Anthropic Chief Executive Officer Dario Amodei, Meta Platforms Chief AI Officer Alexandr Wang, Mistral AI Chief Executive Officer

Arthur Mensch, Cohere Chief Executive Officer Aidan Gomez, and Salesforce Chief Executive Officer Marc Benioff. Secretary of State Marco A. Rubio, Secretary of the Treasury Scott K.H. Bessent, Secretary of Commerce Howard W. Lutnick also attended.

The President announced the cancellation of confirmation hearings for his nominee to be Director of National Intelligence, Walter J. "Jay" Clayton III, until his nominee for a replacement U.S. attorney for the Southern District of New York, Jamie McDonald, was confirmed and that Federal Housing Finance Agency Director William J. Pulte would remain as Acting Director of National Intelligence.

The White House announced that the President will travel to Ankara, Turkey, on July 7 and 8.

June 18

In the early morning, the President returned to Washington, DC. Later, he had executive time.

In the afternoon, in the Roosevelt Room, the President recorded an interview with Marc Caputo of Axios's "The Axios Show" for later broadcast. Later, he had an intelligence briefing.

During the day, the President participated in separated telephone interviews with Libby Blanca Alon of Israel's Channel 14 News and Nathan Guttman of Kan News.

The White House announced that the President will award the Medal of Honor to Maj. James Capers, Jr., USMC (Ret.), Col. John W. Ripley, USMC (posthumous), and Maj. Nicholas Dockery, USA (Ret.), at a ceremony at the White House on June 18.

The White House announced that the President will travel to Macungie, PA, on June 23.

June 19

In the morning, the President had executive time.

In the afternoon, the President traveled to Joint Base Andrews, MD, where he met with U.S. Air Force personnel and toured the newly retrofitted "Bridge Air Force One" (VC-25B Bridge) Presidential aircraft that was given to him by the Government of Qatar. Later, he traveled to Camp David, MD, where he remained overnight.

During the day, the President participated in separate telephone interviews with Daniele Compatangelo of Italy's LA7 television channel and Gabe Gutierrez of NBC News.

June 20

In the morning, at Camp David, MD, the President had executive time.

The President announced that the U.S. Park Police had arrested multiple individuals in connection with incidents of suspected vandalism at the newly renovated Lincoln Memorial Reflecting Pool on the National Mall.

The White House announced further details on the President's travel to Reading, PA, on June 23.

June 21

In the morning, at Camp David, MD, the President had executive time.

In the afternoon, the President returned to Washington, DC.

During the day, the President participated in a telephone interview with Trey Yingst of Fox News.

June 22

In the morning, the President had executive time.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting.

In the evening, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting.

June 23

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, he traveled to Reading, PA, arriving in the afternoon. He also participated in a telephone interview with Liz Landers of PBS NewsHour.

In the afternoon, upon arrival at the Reading Regional Airport, the President traveled to Macungie, PA, where, following his tour of the Mack Lehigh Valley Operations truck manufacturing facility, he participated in an interview with Salena Zito of the Washington Examiner. Later, he returned to Washington, DC.

The President announced that, based on Iran's agreement to the "highest level [of] nuclear inspections" as well as "other major concessions," the U.S. would allow the Strait of Hormuz to remain open, with no further U.S. naval blockade of sanctioned commercial transit.

June 24

In the morning, the President had executive time. He also participated in a telephone interview with Trey Yingst of Fox News.

In the afternoon, at the U.S. Capitol, the President attended a Senate Steering Committee lunch. Later, in the Oval Office, he met with Secretary General Mark Rutte of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

Later in the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting.

During the day, the President met with Kelly Ortberg, president and chief executive officer, Boeing Co.; Vimal Kapur, chairman and chief executive officer, Honeywell Technologies; and James D. Taiclet, chairman, president, and chief executive officer, Lockheed Martin.

The President announced that he had instructed the Department of Justice to begin investigating oil companies suspected of "not dropping their price at the pump commensurate with the sharply lower prices they are paying for oil" on international markets.

The President announced that he had canceled the signing of H.R. 6644, the 21st Century ROAD to Housing Act, previously scheduled for June 24 at the U.S. Capitol, "until such time as we pass the desperately needed" S. 1383, the Safeguard American Voter Eligibility Act.

June 25

In the morning, the President had executive time.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President met with actor Kelsey Grammer. Later, also in the Oval Office, he met with Speaker of the House of Representatives J. Michael Johnson.

Later in the afternoon, also in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting.

During the day, in the Oval Office, the President met with Secretary of Health and Human Services Robert F. Kennedy, Jr., Secretary of Agriculture Brooke L. Rollins, Health and Human Services Principal Deputy Chief of Staff Stefanie Spear, Department of Health and Human Services senior adviser Calley L. Means, Ecdysis Foundation Founder and Director Jonathan Lundgren, American Farm Bureau Federation President Vincent M. "Zippy" Duvall, Sr., Georgia farmer Will Harris, and Indiana farmer Rick Clark. He then signed an Executive order.

The President announced the nomination of Christopher Klomp to be Deputy Secretary of Health and Human Services.

June 26

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, in the Oval Office, he had a policy meeting. Then, also in the Oval Office, he had an intelligence briefing.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting. Later, also in the Oval Office, he signed documents.

In the evening, the President participated in a Republican National Committee reception.

The President announced that Iran directed "at least four one-way attack drones at ships transverse the Strait of Hormuz," with one "large and very expensive" cargo ship's upper deck "solidly" hit, and that the U.S. military had "knocked down" three of the drones.

The President announced his determination to impose a tariff of 100 percent on goods entering the U.S. from any country that levied a digital services tax on U.S. companies, superseding "trade deals made with the country, whether implemented, signed, or not."

June 27

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, he traveled to the Trump National Golf Club Washington, D.C., in Potomac Falls, VA.

In the afternoon, at the Trump National Golf Club, the President participated in a MAGA Inc. lunch. Later, he returned to Washington, DC.

The President announced that U.S. military aircraft had struck Iranian missile and drone storage locations and coastal radar sites for reported violations of its cease-fire agreement with the U.S.

The President announced the nomination of Lance Schroyer to be Director of U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement.

June 28

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, he walked through Lafayette Park to inspect restoration efforts underway pursuant to his 2025 Executive order on beautification projects in the District of Columbia. Then, at the East Potomac Golf Links, he and Secretary of the Interior Douglas J. Burgum viewed renovation work underway on the course, received updated blueprints on the project, and met with project designer Tom Fazio. Mr. Fazio's son Gavin also attended. Later, the President's motorcade passed the Lincoln Memorial, across the Arlington Memorial Bridge, and along the area designated for the President's planned triumphal arch to be built. Then, he traveled to the Trump National Golf Club Washington, D.C., in Potomac Falls, VA.

In the afternoon, the President returned to Washington, DC.

During the day, the President was briefed on the publication of a new book by New York Times reporters Maggie Haberman and Jonathan Swan.

June 29

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, in the Oval Office, he had a policy meeting.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had policy meetings. Later, also in the Oval Office, he had policy meetings.

During the day, in the Oval Office, the President met with Speaker of the House of Representatives J. Michael Johnson.

The President announced the nomination of Keith E. Sonderling to be Secretary of Labor.

The President announced the nomination of Anna St. John to be a judge on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit.

The President announced the nomination of Gregory Cook to be a judge on the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Alabama.

The President announced the nomination of John Cronan and Jason Manion to be Commissioners on the U.S. Sentencing Commission.

The White House announced that the President will travel to Bismarck, ND, on July 1.

June 30

In the morning, the President had executive time.

In the afternoon, the President had lunch with former Mesa County, CO, Clerk and Recorder Tina Peters, who was convicted of criminal charges related to efforts to overturn the 2020 election of President Joseph R. Biden, Jr., in August 2024 and later pardoned by President Trump. They also posed for photographs in the Oval Office. Later, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting. Later, also in the Oval Office, he participated in an interview with Matthew Boyle and Nick Gilbertson of Breitbart News. White House Communications Director Steven Cheung also attended.

Also in the afternoon, the President had separate telephone conversations with Sen. Roger W. Marshall, Gov. Tate Reeves of Mississippi, Gov. Bradley J. Little of Idaho, Gov. Michael Kehoe of Missouri, Rep. Tom Tiffany, and Gov. Brian P. Kemp of Georgia to discuss his approval of Federal disaster assistance funds designated respectively for Kansas, Mississippi, Idaho, Missouri, Wisconsin, and Georgia.

In the evening, in the Rose Garden, the President participated in a Rose Garden Club dinner.

The White House announced that the President will travel to Rapid City, SD, on July 3.

The President announced that the Republican Party will hold a midterm convention in Dallas, TX.

The President announced the resignation of Council of Economic Advisers Chair Pierre Yared.

The President announced $415.9 million in disaster assistance funds for Florida.

The President announced $32.1 million in disaster assistance funds for Michigan.

The President declared a disaster in Idaho and approved Federal funds to supplement State response efforts due to emergency conditions resulting from severe storms, straight-line winds, flooding, landslides, and mudslides from March 11 through 15.

The President declared a disaster in Missouri and approved Federal funds to supplement State response efforts due to emergency conditions resulting from severe storms, tornadoes, and flooding from April 10 through 21.

The President declared a disaster in Wisconsin and approved Federal funds to supplement State response efforts due to emergency conditions resulting from severe storms, tornadoes, and flooding from April 13 through 23.

The President declared a disaster in Missouri and approved Federal funds to supplement State response efforts due to emergency conditions resulting from severe storms, tornadoes, and flooding from April 23 through 28.

The President declared a disaster in Mississippi and approved Federal funds to supplement State response efforts due to emergency conditions resulting from severe storms, straight-line winds, tornadoes, and flooding on May 6 and 7.

The President declared a disaster in Louisiana and approved Federal funds to supplement State response efforts due to emergency conditions resulting from Tropical Storm Arthur on June 17 and 18.

July 1

In the morning, the President traveled to Bismarck, ND. Secretary of the Interior Douglas J. Burgum and his wife Kathryn, the President's sons Eric and Donald, and Donald's wife Bettina accompanied him. Upon arrival at the Bismarck Airport, he was greeted on the tarmac by Sen. John H. Hoeven III. Then, he boarded Marine One, landing at the Painted Canyon landing zone outside Theodore Roosevelt National Park, where he boarded the "Freedom250 Train" and traveled to Medora, ND. Upon arrival at the Theodore Roosevelt Presidential Library, he participated in a tour of exhibits with Executive Director Robbie Lauf and Secretary Burgum.

In the afternoon, at the Bismarck Airport, after boarding Air Force One, the President conducted a tour of the newly refurbished Presidential plane for the traveling press pool. Then, he returned to Washington, DC, arriving in the evening.

In the evening, the President had a telephone conversation with Fédération Internationale de Football Association (FIFA) President Giovanni V. Infantino to discuss the red card and one-game suspension given to U.S. striker Folarin Balogun during the FIFA World Cup Tournament match between the U.S. men's national soccer team and the Bosnia and Herzegovina national football team on July 1 at Levi's Stadium in Santa Clara, CA.

The President announced the Freedom Fuel Network's decision to lower gas prices on July 3 at 25 "Freedom Fuel" retail gas stations across the greater Philadelphia, PA, area ahead of Independence Day and in commemoration of the 250th anniversary of the U.S. Declaration of Independence.

July 2

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, in the Oval Office, he had a policy meeting. Then, he had an intelligence briefing.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had policy meetings. Later, in the Oval Office, the President recorded an interview with Joe Kernen of CNBC for later broadcast. Mr. Kernen's son Scott also visited the Oval Office.

In the evening, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting.

The President announced the declaration of National Scallops Day to celebrate an action taken by the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration to open up the Northern Edge of Georges Bank to scallops fishing.

The President announced the opening of "Spirit of '76 at Freedom Plaza," a new exhibition in Washington, DC, honoring "heroes and martyrs of the American Revolution" through a temporary display of statues.

July 3

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, in the Oval Office, he had a policy meeting.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting. Later, also in the Oval Office, he signed documents. Then, also in the Oval Office, he had a policy meeting. Later, he traveled to Ellsworth Air Force Base, SD, arriving in the evening. The President's son Donald, Donald's wife Bettina, the President's daughter Tiffany, and Tiffany's husband Michael Boulos accompanied him.

In the evening, upon arrival, the President was greeted on the tarmac by Senate Majority Leader John A. Thune, 28th Bomb Wing Commander Col. Jonathan A. Keller, USAF, and 28th Bomb Wing Command Chief CMS Thomas M. Podgorski, USAF. Then, he traveled to Keystone, SD. Later, he returned to Washington, DC, arriving early the following morning.

During the day, the President had a telephone conversation with Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu of Israel. He also met and posed for photographs in the Oval Office with mixed martial artist Justin Gaethje and his parents John Ray and Carolina. He also recorded an interview with Usha Chilukuri Vance, wife of Vice President James D. "J.D." Vance, for later broadcast on her "Storytime With the Second Lady" podcast. He also met with reporter Rita Cosby.

Also during the day, the President had a conversation with Glenn Beck of Blaze Media.

The President announced that he had signed pardons for several individuals who were convicted of violating Federal air pollution law.

The President announced that the Department of Treasury would begin accepting philanthropic contributions of "readily tradable publicly traded stock" to help fund the Trump Accounts children's savings program.

July 4

In the morning, the President had executive time.

In the evening, the President participated in a telephone interview with Bret Baier of Fox News.

During the day, the President had separate telephone conversations with President Volodymyr Zelenskyy of Ukraine and President Vladimir Vladimirovich Putin of Russia. He also participated in a telephone interview with Barak Ravid of Axios.

July 5

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, he traveled to the Trump National Golf Club Washington, D.C., in Potomac Falls, VA.

In the afternoon, the President returned to Washington, DC.

In the evening, the President viewed a television broadcast of the Federation Internationale de Football Association (FIFA) World Cup match between England and Mexico.

July 6

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, in the Rose Garden, the President participated in a Rose Garden Club lunch.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President participated in a greeting with the National Border Patrol Council Executive Committee. Later, also in the Oval Office, he had a policy meeting.

In the evening, the President traveled to Ankara, Turkey, arriving the following afternoon.

During the day, the President had separate telephone conversations with President Vladimir Vladimirovich Putin of Russia and President Volodymyr Zelenskyy of Ukraine. He also participated in a photographic opportunity in the Oval Office with musician Nicki Minaj. He also met with former Los Angeles, CA, mayoral candidate Spencer Pratt, and his son Gunnar. White House Chief of Staff Susan Wiles also attended.

Also during the day, the President met with and posed for photographs in the Oval Office with White House Deputy Chief of Staff for Policy Stephen Miller, his wife Katie, and their son Hawthorne.

The President announced Walmart's decision, at the request of his administration, to lower prices in celebration of the 250th anniversary of the U.S. Declaration of Independence, including by "dropping the price for a pound of ground beef by almost 15 percent," among other products.

July 7

In the afternoon, upon arrival at Etimesgut Air Base, the President was greeted on the tarmac by President Recep Tayyip Erdogan of Turkey; and U.S. Ambassador to Turkey and Special Presidential Envoy for Syria and Iraq Thomas Barrack, Permanent Representative to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization Matthew G. Whitaker, and Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff Gen. J. Daniel Caine, USAF. Then, he traveled to the Bestepe Presidential Compound, where he participated in an arrival ceremony with President Erdogan. Later, he traveled to the JW Marriott Hotel Ankara.

In the evening, the President traveled to the Bestepe Presidential Compound, where he attended a social dinner with North Atlantic Treaty Organization leaders. Later, he returned to the JW Marriott Hotel, where he remained overnight.

July 8

In the morning, at the JW Marriott Hotel Ankara, the President had executive time. Later, he traveled to the Bestepe Presidential Compound, where, upon arrival, he was greeted by Vice President Cevdet Yılmaz of Turkey. Then, he participated in an official welcome and family photography with North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) leaders. Then, also at the Bestepe Presidential Compound, he attended a NATO working session.

In the afternoon, at the Bestepe Presidential Compound, the President met with President Volodymyr Zelenskyy of Ukraine. Later, also at the Bestepe Presidential Compound, he met with President Ahmad Husayn al-Shara' of Syria.

In the evening, the President traveled to the Ankara Esenboga Airport. Upon arrival, he traveled to Royal Air Force Mildenhall in Suffolk, United Kingdom, where he greeted U.S. servicemembers, spoke briefly to reporters, and boarded the newly refurbished Presidential aircraft. Then, he returned to Washington, DC, arriving early the following morning.

July 9

In the morning, the President had executive time.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had an intelligence briefing. Later, also in the Oval Office, he signed documents.

Later in the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had policy meetings.

During the day, the President had a telephone conversation with Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu of Israel.

July 10

In the morning, the President had executive time. He also participated in separate telephone interviews with Caitlin Doornbos of the New York Post and Zachary Halaschak of the DC Examiner.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting. Later, also in the Oval Office, he participated in a swearing-in ceremony for John Rich as Special Envoy for American Landowners.

During the day, the President had a telephone conversation with Crown Prince Muhammad bin Salman bin Abd al-Aziz Al Saud of Saudi Arabia.

The President announced that he would not sign H.R. 6644, the 21st Century ROAD to Housing Act.

July 11

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, he traveled to the Trump National Golf Club Washington, D.C., in Potomac Falls, VA.

In the afternoon, the President returned to Washington, DC.

In the evening, the President had a telephone conversation with Sen. Lindsey O. Graham.

The White House announced that the President will travel to Carlisle, PA, on July 15.

July 12

In the morning, the President had executive time. Also in the morning, he traveled to the Trump National Golf Club Washington, D.C., in Potomac Falls, VA.

In the afternoon, the President returned to Washington, DC. He also had a telephone conversation with Rep. Addison G. "Joe" Wilson. He also participated in separate telephone interviews with Kristen Welker of NBC's "Meet the Press" program and Jake Tapper of CNN's "State of the Union" program.

During the day, the President had a telephone conversation with Rep. Ralph W. Norman, Jr.

The President announced that he had ordered all American flags throughout the U.S. lowered to half-mast until July 18 at 6 p.m. in honor of the "remarkable life and achievements of Senator Lindsey Graham, a dear friend of mine, and a truly great man, who achieved so much for our country and his beloved home State of South Carolina."

July 13

In the morning, the President had executive time. Then, he participated in a live telephone interview with Ainsley Earhardt, Griff Jenkins, and Lawrence Jones of Fox News Channel's "Fox and Friends" program.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President met with Speaker of the House of Representatives J. Michael Johnson and National Republican Campaign Committee Chairman Rep. Richard E. Hudson, Jr. Later, also in the Oval Office, he participated in a live radio interview with Hugh Hewitt of Salem Radio Network's "The Hugh Hewitt Show" for syndicated broadcast. Then, also in the Oval Office, he signed an Executive order.

In the evening, the President participated in a live telephone interview with Greg Kelly of NewsMax's "Greg Kelly Reports" program.

The President announced the resumption of the U.S. naval blockade of sanctioned commercial traffic through the Strait of Hormuz, emphasizing that the Strait of Hormuz remained open and that the U.S. would be reimbursed "at the rate of 20 percent on all cargo shipped for any and all costs necessary to do the job of providing safety and security to this very volatile section of the world," effective immediately.

The President announced that he had recommended to Gov. Henry D. McMaster of South Carolina to appoint Darline Graham Nordone to fill on an interim basis the Senate seat vacated by the death of her brother, Sen. Lindsey O. Graham, on July 12.

The President announced that the Lincoln Memorial Reflecting Pool had been drained in order to repair the reported damage done by vandalism and that the pool would be "refilled and put back into service soon."

July 14

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, on the West Wing Portico, he greeted Prime Minister Ali Falih Kadhimi al-Zaydi of Iraq.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting. Later, also in the Oval Office, he participated in a swearing-in ceremony for Sen. Timothy Sheehy, who will serve in the U.S. Navy Reserve as a part-time servicemember at the rank of lieutenant assigned to SEAL Team 18 in Virginia Beach, VA.

Later in the afternoon, in the Roosevelt Room, the President recorded an interview with Trey Yingst of Fox News for later broadcast.

During the day, in the Oval Office, the President met with Holocaust survivors.

The President announced that the U.S. would not collect a reimbursement fee of 20 percent on cargo released through the U.S. blockade of the Strait of Hormuz following "productive conversations with Middle East leadership" and would instead accept "trade and investment deals that the various Gulf States will be making into the United States" as adequate compensation.

July 15

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, in the Oval Office, he had a policy meeting.

In the afternoon, the President traveled to Carlisle, PA, where, upon arrival at the U.S. Army War College, he was greeted by Secretary of War Peter B. Hegseth, Sen. David McCormick and his wife Dina Powell McCormick, Secretary of the Army Daniel P. Driscoll, War College President and Commanding General Maj. Gen. Trevor J. Bredenkamp, USA, and Army Vice Chief of Staff Gen. Christopher C. LaNeve, USA. Then, he proceeded through a cordon of "75 Old Guard" soldiers and answered a reporter's question. Prior to his remarks at the Pennsylvania Defense and Innovation Summit, he participated in an interview with Edward Lawrence of Fox Business. Later, he returned to Washington, DC.

During the day, in the Situation Room, the President met with Vice President James D. "J.D." Vance, Secretary of State Marco A. Rubio, Secretary of War Peter B. Hegseth, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs Gen. J. Daniel Caine, USAF, Central Intelligence Agency Director John L. Ratchliffe, U.S. Special Envoy for Peace Missions Steven C. Witkoff, and other senior advisers to discuss U.S. military operations in Iran. He also met in the Oval Office with Brenden Dilley, host of the "Dilley Show" podcast, and cohost Michael Beatty. White House Communications Director Steven Cheung and Deputy Chief of Staff for Legislative, Political, and Public Affairs James Blair also attended.

The President announced that Iran had released Dena Karar, a U.S. citizen wrongfully detained in December 2024.

July 16

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, in the Oval Office, the President met with Sen. Darline Graham Nordone. Then, also in the Oval Office, he met with President Nayib Armando Bukele Ortez of El Salvador.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting. Later, also in the Oval Office, he signed documents. He also spoke with White House Press Secretary Karoline Leavitt to discuss the situation in Iran and the suspension of White House technical assistant and teleprompter operator Gabriel Perez, who reportedly placed bets on more than a dozen Presidential speeches on the prediction market Kalshi.

The White House announced that the President will travel to East Rutherford, NJ, on July 19 to attend the Fédération Internationale de Football Association World Cup Final between Spain and Argentina.

The White House announced that the President will travel to Marietta, GA, on July 22.

July 17

In the morning, the President had executive time.

In the afternoon, the President traveled to New York City. His father-in-law Victor Knavs accompanied him. Upon arrival at the John F. Kennedy International Airport, he traveled to Trump Tower.

In the evening, the President traveled to Bedminster, NJ, where, at his residence at the Trump National Golf Club Bedminster, he remained overnight.

The President announced additional tariffs on U.S. imports from Canada to account for the cost of the wildfire smoke affecting portions of the U.S.

July 18

In the morning, at the Trump National Golf Club Bedminster, the President had executive time.

During the day, the President had a telephone conversation with President Claudia Sheinbaum Pardo of Mexico.

Also during the day, at Trump National Golf Club Bedminster, the President met with Mark Burns, pastor of the Harvest Praise and Worship Center in Easley, SC, and founder of the NOW Television Network. He also participated in separate telephone interviews with Hannah Brandt of NewsNation and Caitlin Doornbos of the New York Post.

July 19

In the morning, at the Trump National Golf Club Bedminster, the President had executive time.

In the afternoon, the President and Mrs. Trump traveled to East Rutherford, NJ, where, at the MetLife Stadium, they attended the Fédération Internationale de Football Association World Cup Final between Spain and Argentina. Prime Minister Mark Carney of Canada; President Claudia Sheinbaum Pardo of Mexico; King Felipe VI and Queen Letizia Prime Minister Pedro Sánchez

Perez-Castejon of Spain; FIFA President Giovanni V. Infantino; White House Task Force on the 2026 FIFA World Cup Executive Director Andrew Giuliani; U.S. Secretary of State Marco A. Rubio, Secretary of Homeland Security Markwayne Mullin, and Secretary of Commerce Howard W. Lutnick; Fox News Radio program host Brian Kilmeade; Kraft Group Founder, Chairman, and Chief Executive Officer Robert K. Kraft; and the President's sons Eric and Barron also attended. Prior to the match, the President participated in an interview with Jenny Taft of Fox Sports. During the match, the President spoke with Prime Minister Carney about the Canadian wildfire smoke affecting portions of the U.S. Following the match, the President participated in the trophy ceremony, congratulated players, and posed for photographs.

In the evening, the President and Mrs. Trump returned to Washington, DC. Mrs. Trump's father Victor Knavs accompanied them.

The White House announced that the President will travel to Dobbins, GA, on July 22.

The President announced that he had ordered "Federal suspension and debarment officials to review" the conduct of the National Academy of Sciences in the publication of "fraudulent, biased, and misleading manuals on climate change" on behalf the Federal judiciary.

July 20

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, in the Oval Office, he had a policy meeting.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting. Then, also in the Oval Office, he signed documents. Later, in the Oval Office, he greeted members of the 2025 Little League Softball World Series champion West Suburban Little League team from Johnstown, PA.

Later in the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had policy meetings.

During the day, the President had a telephone conversation with Prime Minister Andy Burnham of the United Kingdom. He also met in the Oval Office with Sens. R. Edward "Ted" Cruz and Marsha W. Blackburn.

July 21

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, he greeted athletes from Denison University. Then, on the West Wing Portico, he welcomed President Joseph Aoun of Lebanon and met with President Aoun in the Oval Office.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting. Later, also in the Oval Office, he greeted House Republicans. Then, also in the Oval Office, he had a policy meeting.

During the day, in the Oval Office, the President met with Rep. Timothy L. Walberg.

The President announced that he had directed his administration "to allow all U.S. airline carriers to fly directly to Lebanon" following his meeting with President Joseph Aoun of Lebanon.

The President announced that generic prescription drugs imported into the U.S. would "continue to have a tariff of 0 percent for a 2-year period of time" followed by a 200-percent tariff for 1 year and 200 percent thereafter, effective August 1, "in order to reshore generic pharmaceutical production" in the U.S. and protect U.S. consumers.

The President announced that he will travel to Dover Air Force Base, DE, on July 22.

July 22

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, he traveled to Dover Air Force Base, DE, where, upon arrival, he was greeted on the tarmac by 436th Airlift Wing Commander Col. Jamil Musa, USAF, and Command Chief CMS Elijah Edwards, USAF. Then, he met with the family members of fallen soldiers and participated in the dignified transfer of remains for Pvt. Isabella Gonzales, USA; 1st Lt. Tyler J. Feehan, USA; Sgt. Michael E. Swinton, USA; and Sgt. Angel S. Rampersad, USA, of Ozone Park, NY, who were killed in Iranian attacks on Muwaffaq Salti Air Base in Jordan on July 18 and 19. Secretary of Defense Peter B. Hegseth, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff Gen. J. Daniel Caine, USAF, Army Chief of Staff General Christopher C. LaNeve, USA, White House Press Secretary Karoline Leavitt, and Executive Assistant Natalie J. Harp also attended.

In the afternoon, the President traveled to Marietta, GA. The family of 1st Lt. Feehan accompanied him. Later, he returned to Washington, DC, arriving in the evening.

The President announced that any attack by Iran on a ship in the Strait of Hormuz "whether it be by missile, rocket, drone, or any other device or weapon" would result in a U.S. military strike on one "bridge or power plant" in response, "including those located next to or in" Tehran.

July 23

In the morning, the President participated in a telephone interview with Barak Ravid of Axios.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting. He also posed for a photograph with Major League Baseball's Los Angeles Dodgers pitcher Shohei Ohtani in the Oval Office.

In the evening, in the Oval Office, the President greeted U.S. Ambassador to Switzerland and Liechtenstein Callista L. Gingrich and her husband, former Speaker of the House of Representatives Newton L. Gingrich. Speaker of the House of Representatives J. Michael Johnson and White House Executive Assistant Natalie J. Harp also attended.

The President announced that the civil nuclear energy agreement currently "being made" between the U.S. and Saudi Arabia "will be approved, but is totally subject to Saudi Arabia joining the very respected and successful Abraham Accords" concerning normalized relations with Israel.

The White House announced that the President will travel to Milford, MI, on July 27.

July 24

In the morning, the President had executive time.

The President announced that his administration would initiate an investigation under section 301 of the Trade Act of 1974 into the European Union's "practice of 'robbing' American companies and, in turn, the American taxpayer" through digital services taxes and announced an anticipated retaliatory "substantial tariff to be placed . . . at the earliest possible moment."

The White House announced that the President will travel to Waterford Township, MI, on July 27.

July 25

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, he traveled to the Trump National Golf Club Washington, D.C., in Potomac Falls, VA.

In the afternoon, the President returned to Washington, DC.

During the day, the President participated in a telephone interview with Sonia Dridi of France's LCI news channel.

July 26

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, he traveled to the Trump National Golf Club Washington, D.C., in Potomac Falls, VA.

In the afternoon, the President returned to Washington, DC.

The President announced the designation of the following individuals as members of a Presidential delegation to attend the Inauguration of Keiko Fujimori as President of Peru in Lima, Peru, on July 28: Christopher Landau (head of delegation); Bernie Navarro; William Kimmitt; Erin Browne; and Viviana Bovo.

July 27

In the morning, the President had executive time. He also participated in a telephone interview with Barak Ravid of Axios. Later, he traveled to Waterford, MI, arriving in the afternoon.

In the afternoon, upon arrival at the Oakland County International Airport, the President traveled to Milford, MI, where, at the General Motors Proving Ground, he was greeted by General Motors Corp. Chair and Chief Executive Officer Mary T. Barra. Then, he viewed a vehicle test "drag race" with Secretary of Transportation Sean P. Duffy and General Motors executives and participated in a garage tour. Later, he returned to Washington, DC, arriving in the evening.

July 28

In the morning, the President had executive time. He also participated in a live telephone interview with Ansley Earhardt, Steve Doocy, and Brian Kilmeade for Fox News Channel's "Fox and Friends" program. Then, in the Oval Office, he met with President Volodymyr Zelenskyy of Ukraine. Later, also in the Oval Office, he met with Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu of Israel.

The President announced that he would invite to the White House lifeguard Ryder Williams, his family, and "perhaps" Nathaniel Rai, the 10-year-old boy he saved during a water rescue at Seabright State Beach in Santa Cruz, CA, on July 25, in order to present Ryder with a "high civilian honor."

July 29

In the morning, the President had executive time. He also participated in a telephone interview with Trey Yingst of Fox News. Later, in the Rose Garden, he participated in a greeting with members of the FCS National Champion Montana State University Bobcats football team. Then, in the Oval Office, he had an intelligence briefing.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had policy meetings.

During the day, the President met with Minister of Defense Prince Khalid bin Salman bin Abd al-Aziz Al Saud of Saudi Arabia. He also had a meeting with Under Secretary of State for Economic Affairs Jacob Helberg and members of his staff and posed for photographs with the team in the Oval Office.

Also during the day, in the Oval Office, the President met with opera singer Christopher Macchio.

July 30

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, in the East Room, he participated in a greeting with the summer class of White House interns.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting. Later, also in the Oval Office, he signed documents. Then, also in the Oval Office, he had a policy meeting.

July 31

In the morning, the President had executive time. He also participated in a telephone interview with Jacqui Heinrich of Fox News. Later, he traveled to Camp David, MD.

In the afternoon, the President traveled to Bedminster, NJ, where, at his residence at the Trump National Golf Club Bedminster, he remained overnight.

ADD to June 25 Entry – during the day

August 1

In the morning, at the Trump National Golf Club Bedminster, the President had executive time.

During the day, the President had a telephone conversation with Crown Prince Muhammad bin Salman bin Abd al-Aziz Al Saud of Saudi Arabia.

The White House announced that the President will travel to Las Vegas, NV, on August 4.

The President announced that he had agreed to cancel a planned "attack" at the request of Iran and "other Middle Eastern countries" and hold off on further U.S. military action in order to allow negotiators to finalize the "perimeters of a deal" already made, with Israel's concurrence, toward a cessation of hostilities and the "immediate, complete, and total opening of the Hormuz Strait" to commercial transit.

August 2

In the morning, at the Trump National Golf Club Bedminster, the President had executive time.

In the afternoon, the President had a telephone conversation with Gov. Robert W. Ferguson of Washington to discuss wildfires impacting Spokane and other regions of the State. Later, he returned to Washington, DC, arriving in the evening.

During the day, the President had a telephone conversation with Rep. Addison G. "Joe" Wilson.

The President announced that he had won the Trump National Golf Club Bedminster senior golf championship with a score of 70.

The White House announced additional details on the President's travel to Las Vegas, NV, on August 5.

August 3

In the morning, the President had executive time.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had policy meetings. He also had separate telephone conversations with Gov. Michael L. Kehoe of Missouri and Gov. Patrick J. Morrissey of West Virginia to discuss Federal disaster assistance for recovery efforts associated with recent severe storms, winds, tornadoes, flooding, landslides, and mudslides in their respective States.

During the day, at the White House, the President met with Secretary of the Interior Douglas J. Burgum and U.S. Attorney for the District of Columbia Jeanine Pirro.

August 4

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, in the Rose Garden, he participated in a greeting with the 2026 NCAA wrestling champion Penn State University Nittany Lions.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting. Later, also in the Oval Office, he participated in a swearing-in ceremony for Walter J. "Jay" Clayton III as Director of National Intelligence. Then, he traveled to Rancho Palos Verdes, CA.

In the evening, at the Trump National Golf Club Los Angeles, the President participated in a Republican National Committee roundtable event, followed by a reception. While at the Trump National, he also recorded an interview with Trace Gallagher of Fox News for later broadcast. Later, he traveled to Las Vegas, NV, where, at the Trump International Hotel Las Vegas, he remained overnight.

August 5

In the morning, at the Trump International Hotel Las Vegas, the President had executive time.

In the afternoon, prior to his remarks at the Red Rock Casino Resort and Spa in Las Vegas, NV, the President participated in an interview with Tom Durian of KVVU-TV Fox5 News. Later, the President returned to Washington, DC, arriving in the evening.

The President announced the designation of the following individuals as members of a Presidential delegation to attend the Inauguration of Abelardo Gabriel de la Espriella Otero as President of Colombia in Santiago de Cali, Colombia, on August 7: Todd W. Blanche (head of delegation); Hugo Guevara; Mario R. Diaz-Balart; Sara Carter; Terrance C. Cole; Cliff Sims; Viviana Bovo; Joseph M. Humire; and Kristopher D. Jarvis.

August 6

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, in the Oval Office, he had a policy meeting. Then, he had an intelligence briefing. He also participated in a telephone interview with Peter Nicholas of NBC News.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President signed documents. Then, in the Roosevelt Room, he recorded an interview with Jake Sherman of Punchbowl News for later broadcast. Later, in the Oval Office, he had a policy meeting.

During the day, the President had a telephone conversation with Crown Prince Muhammad bin Salman bin Abd al-Aziz Al Saud of Saudi Arabia.

August 7

In the morning, the President had executive time. Later, in the Oval Office, he had a policy meeting.

In the afternoon, in the Oval Office, the President had a policy meeting. Later, he traveled to Bedminster, NJ, where, at his residence at the Trump National Golf Club Bedminster, he remained overnight.

Names: Abbott, Gregory W.; Abdullah II, King; Albanese, Anthony; Alemany, Jacqueline; Al-Hashimy, Reem; Allison, Natalie; Alon, Libby Blanca; Al-Thawadi, Ali; Altman, Sam; Alzaidy, Ali Falih; Amodei, Dario; Anderson, Bettina; Anderson, Gregory K.; Anderson, Luzane; Andreessen, Marc; Angst, Curtis J.; Aoun, Joseph; Araqchi, Abbas; Armor, Nicole M.; Arseneault, Tom; Asfura Zablah, Nasry Juan "Tito"; Attkinson, Sharyl; Bade, Rachel; Bagheri, Ali; Baier, Bret; Balogun, Folarin; Banga, Ajay; Banks, Jim; Barger, Kathryn; Barnes, Riley M.;

Barr, Garland H. "Andy," IV; Barra, Mary T.; Barrack, Thomas; Barrasso, John A., III; Barrón-López, Laura; Bartiromo, Maria; Bash, Dana; Bass, Karen R.; Bauer, Meghan Patenaude; Beatty, Michael; Beck, Glenn; Benioff, Marc; Bessent, Scott K.H.; Billeter, Terrence; Bisignano, Frank J.; Blackburn, Marsha W.; Blair, James; Blair, Tony; Blakeman, Bruce; Blanche, Todd; Blanche, Todd W.; Bolsonaro, Flávio; Bondi, Pamela J.; Bongino, Daniel J.; Book, Bob; Book, Neil; Bovo, Viviana; Bowser, Muriel E.; Boyle, Matthew; Brandt, Hannah; Bredenkamp, Trevor J.; Brin, Sergey; Britt, Katie Boyd; Britton, Kent; Brondstetter, Summer; Browne, Erin; Bruce, Mary; Bukele Ortez, Nayib Armando; Burgum, Douglas J.; Burnett, Mark; Burnham, Andy; Burns, Dasha; Burns, Mark; Bush, John E. "Jeb"; Byrne, Matthew; Cai Qi; Cai, Sophia; Cain, Will; Caine, J. Daniel; Calhoun, Valerie; Calio, Christopher T.; Camilla, Queen; Campbell, Hunter; Campos-Duffy, Rachel; Cannon, Billy; Capers, James, Jr.; Caputo, Marc; Carney, Mark; Carter, Sara; Casper, Marc N.; Catz, Safra; Charles III, King; Chavez-DeRemer, Lori M.; Cheung, Steven; Clark, Rick; Clarke, Sheria; Clayton, Walter J. "Jay", III; Clayton, Walter J. "Jay", III; Cloud, Michael J.; Coady, Declan J.; Coakley, Paul S.; Coale, John; Cole, Harry; Cole, Terrance C.; Collins, Douglas A.; Colmenero, Angela V.; Compatangelo, Daniele; Cook, Gregory; Cook, Timothy D.; Cordes, Nancy; Cornyn, John, III; Cortellessa, Eric; Cosby, Rita; Costa, Paulo; Costa, Robert; Cronan, John; Crowell, James; Cruz, R. Edward "Ted"; Currier, Jim; Daines, Steven D.; Daly, Jack; Datoc, Christian; Davis, Andrew; Dawsey, Josh; de la Espriella Otero, Abelardo Gabriel; De Wever, Bart; Dell, Michael S.; DeSantis, Casey; DeSantis, Ronald D.; Devine, Miranda; DeWine, Mike; DeWitte, Jacon; Diamantas, Kyle; Diaz-Balart, Mario R.; Dilley, Brenden; Dockery, Nicholas; Dokoupil, Tony; Dolan, Chris; Dolan, James; Domenico, Daniel D.; Doocy, Peter; Doornbos, Caitlin; Dridi, Sonia; Driscoll, Daniel P.; Duffy, Sean P.; Duggan, Trish; Durian, Tom; Duvall, Vincent M. "Zippy," Sr.; Earhardt, Ainsley; Edmonds, Roderick W. "Roddie"; Edwards, Elijah; Ehlers, Fred; Ellison, David; Ellison, Larry; Elmore, Erin M.; Elsis, Abdelfattah Said; Epshteyn, Boris; Erdogan, Recep Tayyip; Failla, Jimmy; Farley, James D.; Farley, James D., Jr.; Fazio, Gavin; Fazio, Tom; Feinberg, Andrew; Feinberg, Steve; Felipe VI, King; Ferguson, Robert W.; Feritta, Tilman; Fernández Delgado, Laura; Fertitta, Lauren; Fertitta, Tilman J.; Fico, Robert; Fidan, Hakan; Fiechter, Blake; Floca, Matt; Flores, Cilia; Flowers, Benjamin; Foldi, Matthew; Ford, William C., Jr.; Forgeard, Kyle; Franey, James; Fredericks, John; Frey, Jacob; Friedberg, David; Fujimori, Keiko; Fuller, Clay; Gabay, Yakir; Gabbard, Tulsi; Gabriel, Robert, Jr.; Gaethje, Carolina; Gaethje, John Ray; Gaethje, Justin; Gallagher, Trace; García Peña Jaramillo, Daniel; Gasparini, Elliot; Gasparini, Lucas; Gasparini, Nick; Gawel, Grzegorz; Ghalibaf, Mohammad-Bagher; Gilbertson, Nick; Gillaspia, Mike; Gingrich, Callista L.; Gingrich, Newton L.; Giuliani, Andrew; Glass, George E.; Glover, Victor J.; Gomez, Aidan; Gonzales, Isabella; Gooden, Lance; Goodin, Emily; Gor, Sergio; Graham Nordone, Darline; Graham, Lindsey O.; Grammer, Kelsey; Grenell, Richard A.; Gruenbaum, Josh; Guerra, Gabe; Guerrero, Héctor Rusthenford "Niño"; Guevara, Hugo; Gutfeld, Greg; Guthrie, Nancy; Guthrie, Savannah; Gutierrez, Gabe; Guttman, Nathan; Haake, Garrett; Haberman, Maggie; Haddad, Margot; Halaschak, Zachary; Halaschak, Zachary; Hall, Andrea; Hall, Brayden; Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa, King; Han Zheng; Hannity, Sean; Hansen, Jeremy; Harp, Natalie; Harp, Natalie J.; Harris, Will; Hasnie, Aishah; Hassabis, Demis; Hassett, Kevin A.; He Lifeng; Hegseth, Peter B.; Heinrich, Jacqui; Helberg, Jacob; Hendershot, Mike; Hendricks, Diane; Henry, Travis; Hewitt, Hugh; Hildebrand, Melinda; Hochul, Kathleen C.; Hoeven, John H., III; Holland, Steve A.; Homan, Thomas D.; Hordern, Annmarie; Huang, Jensen; Huckabee, Michael D.; Hudson, Richard E., Jr.; Hudson, Richard L., Jr.; Humire, Joseph; Humire, Joseph M.; Hurd, Jeff; Hurt, Charlie; Husted, Jon; Infantino, Giovanni V.; Ingraham, Laura; Isaacman, Jared; Issa, Michael; Jack, Brian T.; Jarvis, Kristopher D.; Javers, Eamon; Jeffers, Jasper, III; Jenkins, Griff; Jennings, Scott; Jetten, Rob; Jiang, Weijia; Johnson, J. Michael; Jones, Arthur "Rob"; Jones, Burt; Jones, Lawrence; Judd, Brandon; Kaag, Sigrid; Kaczynski, Andrew; Kanno-Youngs, Zolan; Kapur, Vimal; Karar, Dena; Karl, Jonathan; Kast Rist, José Antonio; Kehoe, Michael; Keller, Jonathan A.; Kelly, Greg; Kemp, Brian P.; Kemp, Danny; Kennedy

Montgomery, Lisa; Kennedy, John N.; Kernan, Joe; Kernen, Joe; Kernen, Scott; Khalid bin Salman bin Abd al-Aziz Al Saud, Prince; Khamenei, Ayatollah Ali Hoseini-; Khamenei, Mojtaba; Khork, Cody A.; Kilmeade, Brian; Kimmit, William; Klecko, Joe; Klinner, John A.; Klomp, Christopher; Knavs, Victor; Koch, Christina H.; Koval, Seth R.; Kozak, Michael; Kozminski, Rowan; Kraft, Robert K.; Kratsios, Michael J.K.; Kraus, Neria; Kubasik, Christopher; Kudlow, Larry; Kuhlman, Jeffrey; Kuntz, Jeffrey; Kushner, Charles; Kushner, Jared C.; Lâm, Tô; LaMalfa, Douglas L.; Lamoureux-Davidson, Jocelyne; Lamoureux-Davidson, Monique; Landau, Christopher; Landers, Liz; Landry, Jeffrey M.; Landwehr, Nate; Lane, Katie; LaNeve, Christopher C.; Lauf, Robbie; Lawrence, Edward; Lawton, Harry A, "Hal"; Leavitt, Karoline; Lee Jae-myung; Lee, Maria; Lee, Michael S.; Lee, William B.; Leiter, Yechiel; Letizia, Queen; Levine, Jon; Lewandowski, Corey; Lewis, Jamal; Lightstone, Aryeh; Little, Bradley J.; Little-Pengelly, Emma; Llamas, Tom; Loeffler, Kelly L.; Lopez, Mario; Luce, Edward; Lukas, Aaron; Lula da Silva, Luiz Inácio; Lundgren, Jonathan; Lutnick, Howard W.; Lysacek, Evan; Ma Zhaoxu; MacCallum; MacCallum, Martha; Macchio, Christopher; Machado, Maria Corina; Macron, Brigitte; Macron, Emmanuel; Madden, Tyler; Maduro Moros, Nicolas; Magid, Jacob; Makary, Martin A.; Mamdani, Zohran K.; Manchester, Julia; Manion, Jason; Marchese, Angie; Marck, John; Marquez, Alexandra; Marshall, Roger W.; Martin, Margo; Martin, Michael C.; Martin, Micheal; Martinis, John; Marzan, Robert M.; Mason, Jeff; Mast, Brian J.; Matsumoto, Brett; Matthews, James; Mattivi, Tony; Máxima, Queen; Mazza, Viviana; McCormick, David; McCormick, Dina Powell; McCreesh, Shawn; McDonald, Colin; McDonald, James M.; McDonald, Jamie; McEnany, Kayleigh; McGraw, Meredith; McLaughlin, Aidan; McMahon, Linda E.; McMaster, Henry D.; Means, Calley L.; Means, Casey; Meink, Troy E.; Mensch, Arthur; Merz, Friedrich; Mesquita, Mario; Meyer, Kellie; Meyer, Urban; Miller, Hawthorne; Miller, Katie; Miller, Stephen; Mills, Doug; Minaj, Nicki; Minuki, Abu-Bilal al-; Mishal al-Ahmad al-Jabir al-Sabah, Amir; Mitchell, Kasdin M.; Mladenov, Nickolay E.; Moawad, Nada Hamadeh; Modi, Narendra; Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan; Moore, Stephen; Moore, Westley W.O. "Wes"; Moreno, Bernie; Morris, Nate; Morrissey, Patrick J.; Mouradian, Anna; Muhammad bin Abd al-Rahman Al Thani; Muhammad bin Salman bin Abd al-Aziz Al Saud, Crown Prince; Mullin, Markwayne; Mumgaard, Bob; Munir Ahmed Shah, Syed Asim; Murdoch, Rupert; Murzakanov, Azamat; Musa, Jamil; Musa, Jamil I.; Musk, Elon R.; Narasimham, Vasant; Nash, Stuart; Navarro, Bernie; Nawrocki, Karol; Nelson, Steven; Nerozzi, Diana; Netanyahu, Benjamin; Newton, Nate; Nicholas, Peter; Nieto, Phillip; Noem, Kristi L.; Norman, Ralph W., Jr.; Nunn, Zachary; O'Brien, Jeffrey R.; O'Brien, Sean; O'Donnell, Norah; Ohno, Apolo; Ohtani, Shohei; Ollis, Michael H.; O'Reilly, Bill; O'Rourke, Meredith; Orr, Caleb; Ortberg, Kelly; Oz, Mehmet; Pager, Tyler; Parmelin, Guy; Pate, Josh; Patrick, Dan; Patronis, Helen; Patronis, Jimmy; Patronis, Johnny; Patronis, Theo; Paul, Jake; Pavlich, Katie; Paxton, W. Kenneth, Jr.; Penske, Roger S.; Perdue, David A., Jr.; Perez, Gabriel; Perez, Paul A.; Perino, Dana; Peters, Tina; Petro Urrego, Gustavo; Phelan, John C.; Poczobut, Andrzej; Podgorski, Thomas M.; Polis, Jared S.; Pollak, Joel; Powell, Tony; Pozos, Antonio M.; Prabowo Subianto Djojohadikusumo; Pratt, Gunnar S.; Pratt, Spencer; Procházka, Jiří; Pruitt, Ashley B.; Pulte, William J.; Quaid, Dennis; Quintana-Lovett, And; Rai, Nathaniel; Rashad, Hassan; Ratcliffe, John L.; Ravid, Barak; Reeves, Tate; Rhodes, Matthew; Rich, John; Richardson, Terry P.; Rikhye, Evan; Ripley, John W.; Rivers, Dan; Roberts, John; Rodriguez Gomez, Delcy; Rogers, Katie; Rollins, Brooke L.; Rosenberg, Sid; Rowan, Marc; Rubio, Marco A.; Ruhle, Stephanie; Ruto, William Samoei; Rutte, Mark; Saban, Nick; Sacks, David O.; Sánchez Perez-Castejon, Pedro; Sánchez Suárez, Pedro Arnulfo; Sandu, Taranjit; Sanger, David E.; Saphier, Nicole B.; Sasnett, Martha J. "Jeannie"; Saville, Andrew; Savino, Ariana G.; Scarborough, Joe; Scavino, Daniel J.; Scavino, Erin; Scavino, Erin M.; Scheppelman, Hope; Scheppelman, Steven; Scherer, Michael; Schmitt, Eric; Schnell, Mychael; Schroyer, Lance; Schultz, Marisa; Schwab, Nikki; Schwartz, Erica; Schwartz, Matthew; Scott, Rachel; Scott, Timothy E.; Sha'ath, Ali; Shafer, Mike; Shara', Ahmad Husayn al-; Sharif, Shehbaz; Sheehy, Tim; Sheehy, Timothy; Sheinbaum Pardo, Claudia; Shepherd, John;

Sherman, Jake; Shontell, Alyson; Siller, Frank; Silver, Adam; Simmons, Sharon; Simmons, Tyler H.; Sims, Cliff; Smith, Justin; Smith, Sarah; Snow, Morgan DeWitt; Sonderling, Keith; Sonderling, Keith E.; Spear, Stefanie; St. John, Anna; Starmer, Keir; Stitt, Kevin J.; Stockton, Gunner; Stone, Mark; Stone, Roger; Store, Jonas Gahr; Stringer, Connor; Su, Lisa; Sullivan, Kate; Suter, Ryan; Swan, Jonathan; Swanson, Cub; Swinton, Michael E.; Taft, Jenny; Taiclet, James D.; Taiclet, Jim; Takaichi, Sanae; Talabani, Bafel; Tamim bin Hamad Al Thani, Amir; Tan, Lip-Bu; Tapper, Jake; Thawadi, Ali al-; Tietjens, Noah L.; Tiffany, Tom; Traynor, Daniel M.; Trump, Barron W.; Trump, Bettina; Trump, Carolina; Trump, Donald J., Jr.; Trump, Eric F.; Trump, Ivanka M.; Trump, Kai M.; Trump, Lara J.; Trump, Luke; Trump, Vanessa; Tuberville, Thomas H.; Turner, E. Scott; Turner, Robin; Ulberg, Carlos; Usyk, Oleksandr; Van Susteren, Greta; Vance, James D. "J.D."; Vance, Usha Chilukuri; Villavicencio, Rosa Yolanda; von der Leyen, Ursula; Walberg, Timothy L.; Walker, Herschel J.; Walsh, Edward S.; Walters, Richard; Walz, Timothy J.; Wang Yi; Wang, Alexandr; Warden, Kathy J.; Warren, Elizabeth A.; Washington Reporter; Washut, Miriam; Watters, Jesse; Wegman, Phil; Welker, Kristen; Westercamp, Kara; Whitaker, Matthew G.; White, Dana F.; Whitmer, Gretchen E.; Wiles, Susan; Willem-Alexander, King; Williams, Corey; Williams, David; Williams, Ryder; Wilson, Addison G. "Joe"; Wiseman, Reid; Witkoff, Steven C.; Wolfe, Chris; Woods, Eldrick T. "Tiger"; Wright, Christopher A.; Xi Jinping; Xie Feng; Yared, Pierre; Yilmaz, Cevdet; Yingst, Trey; Yohe, Andrew; Young, Chris; Young, Todd C.; Zaydi, Ali Falih Kadhim al-; Zeldin, Lee M.; Zelenskyy, Volodymyr; Zuckerberg, Mark E.

Subjects: "College Football Show" podcast; "Dan Bongino Show" podcast; "Melania," White House screening; 2026 midterm elections; 21st Century ROAD to Housing Act; ABC News; Agence France-Presse; Agricultural production, strengthening efforts; Alaska, President's visit; Alfalfa Club dinner; Alien and extraterrestrial life, unidentified aerial phenomena (UAP), and unidentified flying objects (UFOs), release of Government files; Anthropic artificial intelligence products, Federal Government discontinuation of use; Apple Inc.; Arizona, President's visit; Arkansas, disaster assistance; Assistant Attorney General for National Fraud Enforcement; Atlantic magazine; Attorney General; Australia, Prime Minister; Aviation, U.S. Immigrations and Customs Enforcement officers, deployment to U.S. airports to assist Transportation Security Administration; Axios; BAE Systems, Inc.; Bahamas, U.S. Ambassador; Bahrain, King; Basketball; BBC News; Belarus, release of political prisoners; Belarus, U.S. Special Envoy; Belgium, Prime Minister; Blaze Media, "Glenn Beck Program"; Bloomberg News; Bloomberg TV; Board of Peace; Boeing Co.; Brazil, President; Breitbart News; Bureau of Labor Statistics; California Post; California, 2025 wildfires in Los Angeles area; California, Artemis II spacecraft splash-down off coast of San Diego; California, death of U.S. Representative; California, President's visit; California, Trump National Golf Club Los Angeles in Rancho Palos Verdes; Canada, Gordie Howe International Bridge connecting Windsor, Ontario, to Detroit, MI; Canada, Prime Minister; Canada, trade with U.S.; CBS News; CBS News, "60 Minutes" program; Centers for Disease Control and Prevention; Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services; Central Intelligence Agency; Chagos Archipelago, territorial status; Chile, President-elect; China, Ambassador to the U.S.; China, Beijing Capital International Airport in Beijing; China, Communist Party of China Central Committee; China, Executive Vice Minister of Foreign Affairs; China, Four Seasons Hotel Beijing in Beijing; China, Great Hall of the People in Beijing; China, Minister of Foreign Affairs; China, President; China, President Trump's visit; China, President's visit; China, Temple of Heaven in Beijing; China, U.S. Ambassador; China, Vice Premier of the State Council; China, Vice President; China, Zhongnanhai government complex in Beijing; Citizenship; CNBC; CNBC, "Squawk Box" program; CNN; Colombia, Ambassador to the U.S.; Colombia, drug trafficking; Colombia, Minister of Defense; Colombia, Minister of Foreign Relations; Colombia, President; Colombia, President-elect; Colorado, Governor; Commerce, Justice, Science; Energy and Water Development; and Interior and Environment

Appropriations Act, 2026; Commission of Fine Arts; Committee for the Preservation of the White House; Connecticut, President's visit; Connecticut, U.S. Coast Guard Academy in New London; Costa Rica, President-elect; Council of Economic Advisers; Daily Mail; DC Examiner; Deaths, Sen. Lindsey O. Graham; Deaths, U.S. Representative Douglas L. LaMalfa; Defense contractors, production and efficiency, improvement efforts; Delaware, Dover Air Force Base; Denison University athletes, greeting with President; Department of Agriculture, Special Envoy for American Landowners; Department of Education, Presidential 1776 Award; Department of Health and Human Services, childhood vaccination schedule updates; Department of Health and Human Services, Deputy Secretary; Deputy Attorney General; Deputy Secretary of Labor; Deputy Secretary of War; Diego Garcia, U.S.-United Kingdom joint military facility; Director of National Intelligence; Disaster assistance, Arkansas; Disaster assistance, Florida; Disaster assistance, Georgia; Disaster assistance, Idaho; Disaster assistance, Indiana; Disaster assistance, Kentucky; Disaster assistance, Louisiana; Disaster assistance, Maryland; Disaster assistance, Michigan; Disaster assistance, Mississippi; Disaster assistance, Missouri; Disaster assistance, North Carolina; Disaster assistance, Tennessee; Disaster assistance, Virginia; Disaster assistance, West Virginia; Disaster assistance, Wisconsin; District of Columbia, Capital Hilton hotel; District of Columbia, East Potomac Golf Links; District of Columbia, Lafayette Park beautification efforts; District of Columbia, Mayor; District of Columbia, Republican Party event; District of Columbia, shooting outside White House Correspondents' Association dinner venue; District of Columbia, U.S. Institute of Peace; District of Columbia, Washington Hilton hotel; Easter; Egypt, President; El Salvador, President; Election security and integrity, strengthening efforts; Environmental Protection Agency; European Commission President; European Union, trade with U.S.; Federal Bureau of Investigation; Federal court nominations and confirmations; Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA); Federal Housing Finance Agency; Federation Internationale de Football Association (FIFA) World Cup; Financial Times; Florida, Arc Stone and Tile store in Lake Worth; Florida, Baer's Furniture store in West Palm Beach; Florida, disaster assistance; Florida, El Arepazo restaurant in Doral; Florida, Governor; Florida, Hard Rock Stadium in Miami Gardens; Florida, Kaseya Center in Miami; Florida, Republican Party event; Florida, Republican Party events; Florida, Shield of the Americas Summit in Miami; Florida, Trump International Golf Club West Palm Beach in West Palm Beach; Florida, Trump National Doral Miami golf resort in Miami; Florida, Trump National Golf Club Jupiter in Jupiter; Food and Drug Administration; Football; Ford Motor Co.; Fortune magazine; Fox Business; Fox Business Network, "Kudlow" program; Fox Business Network, "Mornings With Maria" program; Fox News; Fox News Channel, "Fox and Friends" program; Fox News Channel, "Hannity" program; Fox News Channel, "Mornings With Maria" program; Fox News Channel, "The Five" program; Fox News Channel, "The Ingraham Angle" program; Fox News Channel, "The Story" and "The Five" programs; Fox News Channel, "The Sunday Briefing" program; Fox News Channel, "Will Cain Show"; Fox News Radio, "Brian Kilmeade Show"; Fox Sports; France, Evian Resort in Evian Les Bains; France, La Chaîne Info (LCI) news channel; France, LCI news channel; France, Paris Orly Airport in Orly; France, President; France, President Trump's visit; France, President's visit; France, U.S. Ambassador; France, Versailles Palace in Versailles; Freedom250 Reception; Gasoline costs; General Motors Corp.; Georgia, Coosa Steel Corp. plant in Rome; Georgia, disaster assistance; Georgia, Governor; Georgia, Lieutenant Governor; Georgia, President's visit; Georgia, Richard B. Russell Regional Airport in Rome; Georgia, Varsity restaurant in Rome; Germany, Chancellor; Golf; Grand Ethiopian Renaissance Dam project, regional negotiations; Greenland, political status; Grocery costs; Group of Seven (G-7) nations; Heritage Foundation; High Representative for Gaza; Hill newspaper; Holocaust survivors, meeting with President; Homeownership, access and affordability; Honduras, President; Honduras, trade with U.S.; Honeywell Aerospace; Honeywell Technologies; Housing, affordability and access; Idaho, disaster assistance; Idaho, Governor; Independent; Independent newspaper; India, Prime Minister; India, trade with U.S.; India, U.S. Ambassador; Indiana, disaster assistance; Indonesia, President; Intel Corp.; International Brotherhood of Teamsters; Iowa, Machine Shed Restaurant in Urbandale; Iowa, President's visit; Iran, death of U.S. servicemembers; Iran, diplomatic engagement with U.S.; Iran, human rights issues; Iran, Minister of Foreign Affairs; Iran, restriction of commercial transit through Strait of Hormuz; Iran, Supreme Leader; Iran, U.S. airstrikes and military operations; Iran, U.S. diplomatic efforts; Iran, U.S. military operations; Iran, U.S. sanctions; Iraq, death of U.S. servicemembers in KC-135 crash; Iraq, Prime Minister; Iraq, Prime Minister-designate; Iraq, U.S. Special Presidential Envoy; Ireland, President Trump's visit; Ireland, Prime Minister; Ireland, Shannon Airport in Shannon; Ireland, U.S. Ambassador; Islamic State of Iraq and Syria (ISIS) terrorist organization; Israel, Ambassador to the U.S.; Israel, Channel 12 News; Israel, Channel 13 TV News "Kraus Report" podcast; Israel, Channel 14 News; Israel, military operations in Lebanon; Israel, Prime Minister; Israel, Times newspaper; Israel, U.S. Ambassador; Israel-Hamas cease-fire agreement implementation; Italy, 2026 Olympic Games in Milan; Italy, 2026 Paralympic Games in Verona; Italy, Corriere della Sera newspaper; Italy, LA7 television channel; ITV News; Jamaica, U.S. Ambassador; Japan, investment and business ventures in U.S.; Japan, Prime Minister; Japan, U.S. Ambassador; John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts; Joint Chiefs of Staff; Jordan, King; Jordan, U.S. soldiers killed at Muwaffaq Salti Air Base; JPMorgan Chase, lawsuit over "debanking" President Trump; Kan News; Kentucky, disaster assistance; Kentucky, President's visit; Kentucky, Verst Logistics in Walton; Kenya, President; Kuwait, Amir; Kuwait, Iranian airstrikes on Port Shuaiba; L3Harris Technologies Missile Solutions; Lebanon, Ambassador to the U.S.; Lebanon, Hizballah political-paramilitary organization; Lebanon, Israeli military operations; Lebanon, President; Lebanon, relations with U.S.; Lebanon, U.S. Ambassador; Liechtenstein, U.S. Ambassador; Lincoln Memorial Reflecting Pool, renovation work; Lincoln Memorial Reflecting Pool, suspected vandalism; LIV Golf; Lockheed Martin; Louisiana, disaster assistance; Louisiana, Governor; MAGA Inc. political action committee; Maryland, disaster assistance; Maryland, Governor; Maryland, Joint Base Andrews; Maryland, President's visit; Maryland, Walter Reed National Military Medical Center in Bethesda; Mauritius, relations with United Kingdom; Medal of Honor; Medal of Sacrifice Act of 2025; Mexico, President; Michigan, disaster assistance; Michigan, Ford River Rouge complex in Dearborn; Michigan, General Motors Proving Ground in Milford; Michigan, Gordie Howe International Bridge connecting Detroit to Windsor, Ontario; Michigan, Governor; Michigan, President's visit; Michigan, vehicular attack on Temple Israel synagogue in West Bloomfield; Minnesota, Cities Church in Saint Paul; Minnesota, Governor; Minnesota, U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement confrontation with protesters in Minneapolis; Mississippi, disaster assistance; Mississippi, Governor; Missouri, disaster assistance; Missouri, Governor; Montana State University Bobcats football team, greeting with President; MS NOW channel, "Morning Joe" program; National Academy of Sciences; National Aeronautics and Space Administration; National Basketball Association; National Border Patrol Council; National Capital Planning Commission; National Committee for the Administration of Gaza; National Economic Council; National Finals Rodeo; National Garden of American Heroes; National Governors Association; National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration; National Republican Campaign Committee; National Republican Congressional Committee; National Scallops Day; Natural disasters, severe winter storms and extreme cold; Natural disasters, Tropical Storm Arthur; NBC News; NBC News, "NBC Nightly News" program; Netherlands, King; Netherlands, Prime Minister; Netherlands, Queen; Nevada, KVVU-TV Fox5 News; Nevada, President's visit; Nevada, Red Rock Casino Resort and Spa in Las Vegas; Nevada, Trump International Hotel Las Vegas in Las Vegas; New Jersey, MetLife Stadium in East Rutherford; New Jersey, Trump National Golf Club Bedminster in Bedminster; New York Post; New York Times; New York Times, addition of Times Siena Poll to pending lawsuit from President Trump; New York, Governor; New York, Madison Square Gardens in New York City; New York, President's visit; New York, Trump Tower in New York City; New York, WABC Radio in New York City; News Corp.; News media, Presidential interviews;

Newsmax TV, "The Record with Greta Van Susteren"; NewsMax, "Greg Kelly Reports" program; NewsNation; NewsNation, "Katie Pavlich Tonight" program; Nigeria, counterterrorism efforts, cooperation with U.S.; North Atlantic Treaty Organization; North Carolina Fort Bragg; North Carolina, disaster assistance; North Carolina, President's visit; North Dakota, Bismarck Airport in Bismarck; North Dakota, President's visit; North Dakota, Theodore Roosevelt Presidential Library in Medora; Northrup Grumman Corp; Norway, Prime Minister; Novartis; NVIDIA Corp.; Ohio, Governor; Ohio, President's visit; Ohio, Thermo Fisher Scientific manufacturing facility in Reading; Ohio, WKRC-TV (CBS) in Cincinnati; Oklahoma, Governor; Olympic Games; Pakistan, Chief of Defense Forces; Pakistan, Prime Minister; Paramount Skydance Corp.; Pardons and commutations; Passover; Patriotic Union of Kurdistan; PBS News Hour ; Penn State University Nittany Lions wrestling team, greeting with President; Pennsylvania, Mack Lehigh Valley Operations truck manufacturing facility in Macungie; Pennsylvania, President's visit; Pennsylvania, U.S. Army War College in Carlisle; Penske Corp.; Persian Gulf, risk insurance and financial security guarantees for maritime trade and energy commerce; Peru, President-elect; Petroleum company executives, meeting with President; Poland, defense relationship with U.S.; Poland, President; Politico; Prescription drug costs, reduction efforts; President's Council of Advisers on Science and Technology; Punchbowl News; Qatar, Amir; Qatar, Prime Minister; RealClearPolitics; Red snapper recreational season, approval of State permits; Reflecting Pool, renovation work; Republican National Committee; Reuters; Rose Garden Club dinner; RTX Corp.; Safeguard American Voter Eligibility Act; Salem Radio Network, "The Hugh Hewitt Show"; Saudi Arabia, Crown Prince; Saudi Arabia, Minister of Defense; Saudi Arabia, nuclear energy cooperation with U.S.; Secretary of Agriculture; Secretary of Commerce; Secretary of Energy; Secretary of Homeland Security; Secretary of Labor; Secretary of State; Secretary of the Air Force; Secretary of the Army; Secretary of the Interior; Secretary of the Navy; Secretary of the Treasury; Secretary of Transportation; Secretary of War; Semiconductor manufacturing; Senate Steering Committee; Sinclair Broadcast Group, "Full Measure With Sharyl Attkisson" program; Sky News; Slovakia, Prime Minister; Small Business Administration; Social Security Administration; Softball; South Carolina, death of U.S. Senator; South Carolina, disaster assistance; South Carolina, Governor; South Dakota, President's visit; South Korea, President; South Korea, trade with U.S.; SpaceX; Spain, King; Spain, Prime Minister; Spain, Queen; Speaker of the House of Representatives; State of the Union Address; Sun newspaper; Switzerland, AlpenGold Hotel in Davos; Switzerland, Davos Congress Centre in Davos; Switzerland, Geneva Airport in Geneva; Switzerland, President; Switzerland, President Trump's visit; Switzerland, U.S. Ambassador; Syria, President; Syria, U.S. Special Presidential Envoy; Tariffs; Telegraph; Tennessee, congressional restricting efforts; Tennessee, disaster assistance; Tennessee, Governor; Tennessee, Graceland estate in Memphis; Tennessee, President's visit; Tennessee, WHBQ-TV Fox 13 in Memphis; Texas, 3NEWS in Corpus Christi; Texas, America First Refining oil refinery opening in Brownsville; Texas, Corpus Christi International Airport in Corpus Christi; Texas, Governor; Texas, Lieutenant Governor; Texas, President's visit; Texas, shooting in Austin; Texas, Whataburger restaurant in Corpus Christi; TIME magazine; Tractor Supply Co.; Trafficking Survivors Relief Act; Transportation Security Administration; Trump Accounts, children's savings program; Trust for the National Mall reception; Tunnel to Towers Foundation; Turkey, Bestepe Presidential Compound in Ankara; Turkey, Etimesgut Air Base in Ankara; Turkey, JW Marriott Hotel Ankara in Ankara; Turkey, President; Turkey, President Trump's visit; Turkey, President's visit; Turkey, U.S. Ambassador; Turkey, Vice President; U.S. Agency for Global Media; U.S. Armed Forces, funding and equipment, improvement efforts; U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops; U.S. Development Finance Corporation; U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement; U.S. Park Police; U.S. Sentencing Commission; U.S. Special Envoy for Peace; U.S. Special Envoy for Peace Missions; U.S. Special Envoy for the Shield of the Americas; U.S. Special Envoy to Belarus; U.S. Special Envoy to Greenland; U.S. Special Presidential Envoy for Special Missions; U.S. Surgeon

General; Ukraine, President; Ultimate Fighting Championship; Under Secretary of State for Economic Affairs; United Arab Emirates, President; United Kingdom, Deputy First Minister of Northern Ireland; United Kingdom, King; United Kingdom, President Trump's visit; United Kingdom, Prime Minister; United Kingdom, Queen; United Kingdom, Queen Consort; United Kingdom, relations with Mauritius; United Kingdom, Royal Air Force Mildenhall in Suffolk; United Kingdom, U.S. Special Envoy; Vanity Fair; Venezuela, Interim President; Venezuela, President; Venezuela, relations with U.S.; Venezuela, release of political prisoners; Venezuela, trade with U.S.; Venezuela, Tren de Aragua criminal organization; Vice President; Vietnam, General Secretary; Virginia Republican Party; Virginia, disaster assistance; Virginia, President's visit; Virginia, Republican Party events; Virginia, Trump National Golf Club Washington, D.C.; Virginia, Trump National Golf Club Washington, D.C., in Potomac Falls; Virginia, Trump Winery in Charlottesville; Wall Street Journal; Washington Examiner; Washington Free Beacon; Washington Post; Washington Reporter; Washington, Governor; West Virginia, disaster assistance; West Virginia, Governor; White House Ballroom construction project; White House Border Czar; White House Chief of Staff; White House Communications Adviser; White House Communications Director; White House Correspondents Association; White House Deputy Chief of Staff; White House Deputy Chief of Staff for Legislative, Political, and Public Affairs; White House Deputy Chief of Staff for Policy; White House interns; White House Internship Program; White House Press Secretary; White House Task Force on the 2026 FIFA World Cup; Wildfire smoke from Canadian forests; Wisconsin, Chippewa Valley Regional Airport in Eau Claire; Wisconsin, Custer Farm in Chippewa Falls; Wisconsin, disaster assistance; Wisconsin, President's visit; World Economic Forum Leadership; World Expo 2035, U.S. bid.