E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871; E.O. 9381; 8 F.R. 13083; E.O. 9672, 11 F.R. 221; E.O. 9697, 11 F.R. 1691; Reg. Dir. of Ec. Stab. dated March 8, 1946, 11 F.R. 2517; G.O. 13 of the NWSB, 8 F.R. 14039; Organization and Jurisdiction of the NWSB, 11 F.R. 5820.

§ 806.1 Purpose of this part. Direct controls over the payment and adjustment of wage and salaries in the building and construction industry remain in effect pursuant to the Stabilization Act of October 2, 1942, Executive Orders 9250 and 9672 and § 4001.103 of the Supplementary Wage and Salary Regulations of the Director of Economic Stabilization, dated March 8, 1946. These controls are administered by the Wage Adjustment Board as agent of the National Wage Stabilization Board pursuant to rules which, because of the special considerations applicable to the building and construction industry, differ from the general rules governing the stabilization of wages and salaries. This part explains the special rules applicable to wage control in the building and construction industry and the way in which these rules are administered by the Wage Adjustment Board and the National Wage Stabilization Board.

§ 806.2 Organization of Wage Adjust-ment Board. The Wage Adjustment Board (hereafter referred to as the Board) was established within the Department of Labor in 1942 pursuant to Administrative Order No. 101 of the Secretary of Labor for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of the Wage Sta-bilization Agreement of May 22, 1942 which provided for the stabilization of wage rates applicable on building and construction projects undertaken or financed by the federal government. Subsequently, the Board was given responsibility for administering the wage stabilization program for the entire building and construction industry. The Board consists of nine members, appointed by the Secretary of Labor. Three of the members, including the Chairman, represent the public, three represent employers in the building and construction industry and three represent employees in that industry.

§ 806.3 Jurisdiction of the Wage Adjustment Board. The jurisdiction of the Board covers the administration of stabilization rules with respect to all wages and salaries paid to mechanics and laborers in the building and construction industry employed directly upon the site of the work.

(a) The term "mechanics and laborers" includes employees performing manual labor in connection with and at the site of any building and construction project, including working foremen and mechanic's apprentices. The term does not include employees whose work, although connected with building and construction projects, is non-manual or not performed directly and primarily at the site of a particular building project, such as executive, administrative, technical and clerical employees, and manual employees working in shops or away from the site of a project.

(b) The term "building and construc-tion industry" includes all persons, whether employers, contractors, employees or others, engaged in erecting, constructing, altering, remodeling, painting and decorating installations such as buildings, bridges, highways and the like. Work performed in the building and construction industry includes the transporting of materials and supplies to or from a particular building or construction project by the employees of the employer or contractor performing the construction and the manufacturing of materials, supplies or equipment on the site of a project by the employer or contractor but does not otherwise include the manufacturing or furnishing of materials nor the performance of servicing or maintenance work. Maintenance work is work performed by workers employed on a permanent basis in a particular plant or facility for the purpose of keeping such plant or facility in efficient operating condition but does not include similar work performed on a contract basis, for various plants and facilities under different ownership.

(c) The term "site of the work" means the place or places at which the direct labor involved in a building or construction project is performed and includes temporary installations used in connection with a particular project even though such installations may not be directly on the site of the project. Installations of a permanent or commercial nature used to serve numerous projects are not considered as being on the site of construction.

(d) The term "project" means a particular building job or a particular construction job undertaken by an employer in the building and construction industry at a specified location. A project may be classified by the Board as involving one of three types of construction, namely building construction, heavy construction and highway construction and the approved wage rates for a particular job classification in a particular area may vary depending on the type of construction involved in a project.

§ 806.4 General rule governing wage and salary payments. No wages or salaries, as defined in the Stabilization Act and regulations issued thereunder, may be paid to or received by mechanics and laborers employed in the building and construction industry unless payment of such wages or salaries is preapproved by this part, or has been approved by the Board in accordance with this part. The payment or receipt of wages or salaries not so approved constitutes a violation of the Stabilization Act and subjects any party to such violation to the sanctions presecribed by the Stabilization Act and by the Executive Orders and Regulations issued thereun-

§ 806.5 Wage and salary payments which are pre-approved-(a) Davis-Bacon rates. An employer engaged in the performance of a Federal Government project pursuant to contract with any Federal Government agency may, without further approval, pay for work performed in connection with such project, the wages or salaries which have been specified as applicable by the Secretary of Labor pursuant to the Davis-Bacon Act.

(b) Area rates. An employer engaged in the performance of any non-federal project may, without further approval, pay to any mechanic or laborer working on such project the applicable area rate, as defined in this paragraph. An area rate is a rate adopted by the Board as applicable to mechanics and laborers performing the work of a specific job classification for a particular type of construction on any project in a specifically designated geographical area. An area rate may be paid only for work performed in the specific area for which it is applica-Any employer who pays an area rate may continue to pay such rate notwithstanding any adjustment subsequently made by the Board in such area rate, or an employer may adjust the rate he pays to conform with any adjustment made by the Board in the area rate. All area rates adopted by the Board after the date of issuance of these regulations will be designated as such and will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Area rates issued by the Board prior to the date of issuance of these regulations will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER as soon as practicable; information as to area rates not so published may be obtained on request from the Board or from any Regional office of the National Wage Stabilization Board. Where no area rates have been adopted for any particular job classifications, type of construction or area, any interested parties may petition the Board for the adoption and announcement of such area rates.

(c) Established rates. An employer engaged in the performance of any nonfederal project may, without further approval, pay to any mechanic or laborer the employer's established rate, as defined in this paragraph. An employer's established rate is the rate which either has been specifically approved by ruling of the Board applicable to such employer or which, in the event no such approval has been given, was actually paid by such employer on October 2, 1942, for mechanics or laborers doing the work of a particular job classification for a particular type of construction on a project located within a specified geographical area. An established rate may be paid only for work performed in the specific area where the rate is established. No adjustment may be made in such an established rate, without specific approval, except to the extent permitted by this part.

(d) Substandard increases. An employer engaged in the performance of any non-federal project may, without further approval, increase the wage or salary of any employee to an amount not exceeding sixty-five cents per hour.

(e) Travel time; traveling expense. An employer may, without further approval, pay any employee for actual travel time at the approved rate, and for actual traveling expense whenever such employee has been required to report at the employer's shop or at any other particular site and later, during the course of the same working day, is required to travel to a different working site.

(f) Foremen's rates. An employer may, without further approval, increase the wage rate for any working foreman engaged on a project in any specified area, provided the rate as adjusted maintains the differential which was established in the particular area prior to October 2, 1942, or which was subsequently approved by the Board for such area, between the foremen's rate and the approved rate for the proper related job classification.

(g) Established premium payment practices. An employer may pay for actual travel expense incurred by an employee, or subsistence or premium compensation for work outside the regularly constituted work day or work week only if (1) a practice of making such payments was established prior to October 2, 1942 as an area practice in the particular area where such employer is operating, as demonstrated by definite evidence, or (2) such practice has been specifically approved by the Board as an area practice for the particular area where such employer is operating, or (3) such employer had personally established such practice prior to October 2, 1942 in the same area as demonstrated by definite evidence, or had subsequently obtained specific approval of the Board therefor.

Wage and salary payments $ 806.6 which require specific approval-(a) Increases not pre-approved under § 806.5. The increase of any wage or salary rate or of any other wage or salary or the adoption of any rate or other wage or salary practice not pre-approved under § 806.5 requires the specific approval of the Board prior to its being put into effect.

(b) Decreases. An employer who adopts any approved wage or salary rate or any other approved wage or salary practice may not thereafter without specific prior approval of the Board de-crease such rate or practice with respect to any employees working on projects in the area, job classification and type of construction for which such rate or practice is applicable.

§ 806.7 Standards of approval. (a) Rates approved on the basis of specific application shall be applicable only to the particular parties who join in the application and only for such project or projects as are specified in the ruling, unless the ruling is designated as an "arearate ruling" and is duly announced as such

(b) Notwithstanding the general rule prohibiting the payment of rates, approved for use in one area, in a different area, the Board recognizes that in particular branches of the industry, the practice has been established of transferring certain specialist employees of exceptional training and skill from area to area and paying such employees the same rates irrespective of the area in which the employees may be utilized. Accordingly the Board will approve such practice for any particular project on specific application of any employer where the application demonstrates (1) that on October 3, 1942 he customarily employed specialized workers to work in different areas at a uniform wage rate; (2) that the authorization requested is in accord with his October 3, 1942 practice: (3) that the authorization is limited to certain specified, highly specialized employees whose ratio to the number of employees on the project is not greater than the customary ratio used on pre-October 3, 1942 projects.

§ 806.8 Application for approval of wage and salary rates. (a) any application for approval of wage or salary rates or other forms of compensation within the jurisdiction of the Board, or for the adjustment of rates, shall be filed directly with the Board, Department of Labor, Washington, D. C.

(b) Applications for the establishment or revision of area rates may be filed by any interested party. Before any action is taken on any application, notice will be given by the Board to all interested parties who may file with the Board within 14 days from the date when notice is sent any comments or objections to be considered in connection with the application.

Applications for approval of rates for particular employers or projects, unless signed by all interested parties, must state the names of all such parties.

(c) All applications shall be filed on Wage Adjustment Board Form 44 and shall contain the following information in connection with the rates for which approval is sought:

(1) An identification of the specific job classifications including apprentices for which each rate is to be applicable.

(2) A specific definition of the geographic area in which the proposed rates are to be applicable.

(3) An identification of the type of construction for which the proposed rates are to be applicable, namely building, heavy or highway construction..

(4) A statement as to the effective date for approval of the proposed rates.

(5) In the case of rates other than area rates, a specific identification of the parties with respect to whom the approval is sought.

(6) Where approval is sought for any changes in wage practices other than wage rates, a statement as to the practices actually in effect by the parties on October 2, 1942.

(7) A statement of the differential proposed for working foremen and what such differential was on October 2, 1942.

§ 806.9 Processing of applications and rulings thereon. (a) No ruling of the Board may be given effect by any party prior to receipt by such party of the official ruling of the Board.

(b) The granting of an oral hearing in connection with an application shall be within the sole discretion of the Board.

§ 806.10 Reconsideration and review of rulings. (a) The Board may, on its own motion or upon application addressed to it, reconsider any ruling. Where a request for reconsideration is joined in by all the parties affected by the Board's ruling and where such request is received within a reasonable time after the decision on the case by the Board, the Board will reconsider its action and advise the parties of its decision. Under normal circumstances a period of three weeks from the date when notice is given of a decision, will be deemed a reasonable time for filing a request for reconsideration. Where a request for reconsideration is not joined in by all parties to the case, the Board will give 14 days notice to all other parties to the case who within that period may file any comments in connection with the request for reconsid-

(b) Any ruling issued by the Board shall be final unless reviewed and modified by the National Wage Stabilization Board on its own motion or unless a petition for review is filed with the National Wage Stabilization Board pursuant to the procedures prescribed in $ 802.8.

PART 944-REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE OPERATION OF THE PRIORITIES SYSTEM

[Priorities Reg. 13, Direction 16, as Amended Aug. 9, 1946]

URGENCY CERTIFICATES FOR SURPLUS MATERIALS AND EQUIPMENT

The following direction is issued pursuant to Priorities Regulation 13:

(a) What this direction does. There is an urgent need for materials and equipment required in essential reconversion programs and many of these are not readily obtainable in sufficient quantities from new produc-tion. This direction describes how a person meeting the criteria described below may apply for a Civilian Production Administration Urgency Certificate which may help him to acquire surplus materials or equipment from the War Assets Administration if the material or equipment is available in surplus. Preference ratings have no effect on sales by WAA either by way of obliging it to sell or by way of determining as among several buyers who shall get the material or product. The urgency certificates issued under this direction are not preference ratings and may not be used to obtain materials or equipment from new production.

(b) How to apply for an urgency certifi-cate. Application for a Civilian Production Administration urgency certificate to acquire government owned surplus material or equipment should be made on Form CPA-4425, addressed to the Civilian Production Administration, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: PR-13, Direction 16. Form CPA-4425 can be obtained from the Civilian Production Administration, Washington 25, D. C., or ministration. Civilian Production Administration District Construction Offices. In those cases where a certification from another Government agency is required as described in paragraph (c) (1) (ii), such certification should accompany the application when filed with the Civilian Production Administration.

(c) When the Civilian Production Administration may issue urgency certificates. (1) It is the general policy of the Civilian Production Administration not to grant urgency certificates for Government-owned surplus property. However, if an applicant has been unable to obtain the material or equipment from new production as scon as required, the Civilian Production Administration may in limited cases grant such certificates good for 60 days for items of materials or equipment needed to support essential production under the following conditions:

(i) The material or equipment is required to sustain or increase his production of prod-ucts listed on Schedule 1 of Priorities Regulation 28, and a CC rating would be assigned under the provisions of that schedule to obtain the particular item or items from new production. (In the case of steel or iron in the forms and shapes listed in Schedule 1 of Order M-21, urgency certificates will be issued only if the applicant would be authorized to place a certified order to obtain the material from new production under Direction 12 or 13 to Order M-21); or

(ii) The material or equipment is needed by a war contractor for production which cannot be deferred without serious results to the defense program or to the health and welfare of the enlisted personnel. In this case a certification from the War or Navy Department or the Maritime Commission recommending the issuance of a Civilian Production Administration urgency cer-tificate is required.

(2) If a CC rating has already been assigned or an application has already been submitted for a rating and the desired material or equipment is not obtainable from new production as soon as required, an urgency certificate may be issued in place of the rating if the applicant meets the criteria stated in paragraph (c) (1). A request to substitute an urgency certificate under this direction for a rating may be made by letter addressed to Civilian Production Administration, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: PR-13, Direction 16, instead of using CPA-

(3) The Civilian Production Administra-tion will carefully screen all requests and issue urgency certificates only when in its judgment such action is deemed necessary in the interests of the overall reconversion. Urgency certificates will not be issued to any applicant for more materials than the quantity which he will require to meet his current or scheduled operations during the 60 days immediately following the date of the application, less the amount he has on hand and expects to receive from other sources during that period.

(4) No urgency certificate will be issued or renewed for any item listed on Exhibit A of WAA Regulation 2 "Property to be Set-aside for Veterans."

(d) How to use an urgency certificate. a CPA urgency certificate is issued, it will be given to the applicant in duplicate. These certificates are good only for government property which has been declared surplus WAA and will cover material or equipment of the type requested or equivalent material or equipment. The certificate holder should present both copies of the certificate to a local sales office of WAA together with his written order or bid as required by it. It is important that these certificates be filed with WAA promptly since every urgency certificate expires 60 days after its issuance by CPA.

(e) Effect of urgency certificates on WAA.

(1) Unless CPA specifically directs other-wise, the local sales office of WAA must give precedence to holders of CPA urgency certificates over any other class of buyers in selling any surplus materials or equipment of the type covered by urgency certificates which have been filed with it and which have not expired. Urgency certificates are not valid against any particular lot of materials or equipment which WAA has advertised or publicly offered for sale. and terms of sale of specific material or equipment to a holder of an urgency certificate and the relative precedence among holders of urgency certificates will be determined by WAA. However, in view of the conditions under which the urgency certificates are issued WAA is required to effect the transaction as quickly as possible. If the sale is made through a dealer, WAA will designate the certificate holder who is to receive the material or equipment, and the dealer must give WAA a certification in substantially the following form:

The undersigned certifies to the seller and to the Civilian Production Administration, subject to the criminal penal-ties of section 35 (A) of the U.S. Crimi-nal Code that he will resell promptly the material or equipment obtained this certificate to ______ (insert name of urgency certificate holder designated by WAA).

The standard certification described in Priorities Regulation 7 may not be used in-stead of this certification. Any person giving the certification described above must dispose of the material or equipment he gets with it in accordance with its terms.

(2) If a holder of an urgency certificate is unwilling or unable to meet the price and terms of sale determined by WAA, it is not reuired to make the sale.

(f) Expiration of urgency certificates. Every urgency certificate expires 60 days after its issuance by CPA. If any person to whom an urgency certificate has been issued is unable to obtain the material or equipment covered by the certificate before it expires, he may file an application on Form CPA-4425 for renewal, after the original certificate has expired. CPA may issue a new certificate if the applicant still meets the criteria described in paragraph (c)

(g) Effect of this direction on other directions to Priorities Regulation 13. Certain other directions issued pursuant to Priorities Regulation 13 limit sales of specific materials buyers who certify that they will use the material for a particular purpose. Notwith-standing the provisions of any such direc-tions, holders of urgency certificates for materials of the type covered by these directions may acquire such materials and their purchase orders take precedence over buyers eligible to purchase under the terms of the directions.

Issued this 9th day of August 1946.

PART 1315—RUBBER AND PRODUCTS AND MA-TERIALS OF WHICH RUBBER IS A COM-PONENT

[RMPR 300, Amdt. 4]

RUBBER DRUG SUNDRIES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Revised Maximum Price Regulation 300 is amended in the following respects:

- 1. Section 5 (b) (3) is amended to read as follows:
- (3) The price calculated in the manner just set forth is the manufacturer's adjusted base price to that class of purchaser whose base price he must determine under paragraph (c). The manufacturer shall determine his adjusted base price for sales to other classes of purchasers by adjusting this price derived under subparagraph (2) to reflect the differentials that the manufacturer had in effect to other classes of purchasers on December 1, 1941.
- 2. A new subparagraph, designated (4), is added to section 5 (b), to read as follows:
- (4) The manufacturer's maximum price shall be 110 percent of the adjusted base price determined under subparagraph (3) above for the manufacturer's sales to the class of purchaser to whom he is selling.
- 3. Section 6 (b) (2) is amended to read as follows:
- (2) The manufacturer shall then determine his adjusted base price for the sale of that rubber drug sundry to the class of wholesalers to which he sold the largest volume of rubber drug sundries during the calendar year 1942. This adjutted base price shall be determined in accordance with section 5. If the manufacturer did not sell that rubber drug sundry to wholesalers during the calendar year 1942, he shall determine the adjusted base price for the sale of the rubber drug sundry to that class of retailers to which he sold the largest volume of rubber drug sundries during the calendar year 1942. This price shall be determined in accordance with section 5.

- 4. Subparagraph (4) of section 6 (b) is amended to read as follows:
- (4) The resultant price is the manufacturer's adjusted base price for the sale of the rubber drug sundry being priced to that class of purchasers for which he must determine an adjusted base price under subparagraph (2). The manufacturer shall then determine his adjusted base price for sales of the rubber drug sundry being priced to other classes of purchasers by adjusting this price derived under subparagraph (3) to reflect the differentials that the manufacturer had in effect to other classes of purchasers on December 1, 1941.

The manufacturer's maximum price shall be 110 percent of the adjusted base price determined above for the manufacturer's sales to the class of purchaser to whom he is selling.

5. The following paragraph is added at the end of section 6 (c):

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this regulation, a manufacturer's maximum price for a rubber drug sundry covered by this section which was established prior to August 14, 1946, shall be recomputed, reported, and redetermined in accordance with the preceding paragraph.

- 6. Section 8 (b) (3) is amended to read as follows:
- (3) The seller's proposed maximum price or pricing method and proposed maximum prices for resales by wholesalers and retailers;
- 7. Section 8 (c) is amended to read as follows:
- (c) Maximum prices. After receipt of this application, the Office of Price Administration will establish, by written authorization, the seller's maximum price or a method of determining the maximum price for the rubber drug sundry for which a price authorization is sought. This order may also set forth the maximum prices for subsequent sellers (or method of determining the maximum prices for subsequent sellers) and may require notifications of such subsequent sellers' maximum prices to be given them. The seller's and subsequent sellers' maximum prices thus established shall be consistent with the level of maximum prices established by the regulations of the Office of Price Administration. Until the seller receives this authorization establishing his maximum prices, he shall not receive payment for the rubber drug sundry being priced.

- 8. In section 12 (b) (1), the first sentence following the headnote is amended by substituting the date August 14, 1946, for the date April 23, 1945.
- 9. In section 12 (b) (3), the first sentence following headnote is amended by substituting the date August 14, 1946, for the date April 9, 1945.
- 10. In the first sentence following the headnote of section 12 (c), the words "after August 14, 1946" are added immediately following the words "first delivery".
- 11. A new paragraph, designated (d), is added to section 12, to read as follows:
- (d) Where, in the opinion of the Administrator, a maximum wholesale or retail price computed under paragraph (b) or (c) is not consistent with those otherwise established under the regulation or where, in the opinion of the Administrator, these paragraphs are not appropriate for determining maximum wholesale or retail prices of a rubber drug sundry item, the Office of Price Administration may by order establish maximum prices for sales at wholesale and at retail that are consistent with those otherwise established under the regulation.
- 12. In Appendix B, the headnote of Table I and the list of items and prices in the table are amended to read as follows:

KALL, SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH

PUBLIC NOTICE CONCERNING PROPOSED

TRANSFER OF CONTROL 1

The Commission hereby gives notice that on July 30, 1946 there was filed with it an application (B5-TC-503) for its consent under section 310 (b) of the Communications Act (47 U. S. C. A. 310) to the proposed transfer of 50% of the capital stock of Salt Lake City Broadcasting Company, Inc., licensee of Radio Station KALL, Salt Lake City, Utah, from Abrelia S. Hinckley, George C. Hatch and Wilda Gene Hatch, to the Telegram Publishing Company, 136 South Main Street, Salt Lake City, Utah.

Under an agreement dated July 20, 1946 the transferors agreed to sell 7,500 shares, 3,750 shares and 3,750 shares, respectively of stock of the licensee representing 50% of the total shares outstanding and the Telegram Publishing Company agreed to buy such stock in consideration of the payment of $100,000 upon delivery of the certificates of stock and upon the election of the officers and directors indicated in the agreement. A requirement also is made that any of the parties, before selling their stock, must first offer it to the other parties in accordance with the terms shown more fully in the contract which is on file with the application at the offices of the Commission in Washington, D. C.

In the Commission's decision of September 6, 1945, granting the application for transfer of control of the Crosley Corporation (Docket No. 6767), it was announced that public hearings would be held to consider new rules and regulations for the handling of assignment and transfer applications including provision for public notice by the applicant and by the Commission for the filing of such applications and pertinent details in cases where a controlling interest is involved. Thereafter, on October 3, 1945, the Commission also gave public notice (10 F.R. 12926) that pending the issuance of such proposed new rules, hearing thereon, and final adoption, consideration of such applications would be deferred unless applicants desired to follow the procedure proposed in the Crosley decision and supplement their applications so as to come within the framework of the announced procedure, including the provision for public notice. Pursuant thereto, the Commission was advised on August 5, 1946 that beginning on August 2, 1946 notice of the proposed transfer of control of KALL would be published twice a week for three weeks in the "Salt Lake Tribune" and "Salt Lake Telegram," newspapers of general circulation in Salt Lake City, Utah, in conformity with said proposed rules.

In accordance with the procedure proposed in the Crosley decision and that announced in the Commission's release, no action will be had upon the KALL application for a period of 60 days from August 2, 1946, within which time other persons desiring to apply for the facilities involved may do so upon the same terms and conditions as set forth in the above-described contract.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION.

[Project No. 1853]

FIRST IOWA HYDRO-ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE
ORDER REOPENING RECORD

AUGUST 6, 1946.

It appearing that:

(a) On a declaration of intention by First Iowa Hydro-Electric Cooperative ("Cooperative"), filed January 29, 1940, (DI-154) whereof notice was duly given, including notice in writing to the State of Iowa, the Commission, on June 3, 1941, determined that a license under Part I of the Federal Power Act is required for a proposed hydroelectric power development on the Cedar River in the State of Iowa.

(b) On application by the Cooperative for a license for such project, filed August 11, 1941, and later supplemented, the Commission held hearings in January and May, 1942, at which the State of Iowa appeared as an intervener and offered evidence in opposition to the granting of such license.

(c) The State of Iowa in particular contended that the applicant had failed to comply with the requirements of section 9 (b) of the Federal Power Act in that it had not obtained the approval of the State Executive Council under Chapter 363 of the 1939 Iowa Code for construction of the project.

(d) The Iowa Electric Light and Power Company and Iowa-Illinois Gas & Electric Company appeared as limited participants in the license application proceedings and assisted the State.

(e) By order of January 29, 1944, the Commission dismissed the application for license for failure of the Cooperative to submit satisfactory evidence of compliance with the above referred to State laws then treated as being required by section 9 (b) of the Federal Power Act.

In its opinion the Commission determined that:

* * The present plans call for a practical and reasonably adequate development to utilize the head and water available, create a large storage reservoir, and make available for recreational purposes a considerable area now unsuitable for such use, all at a cost which does not appear to be unreasonable.

Further changes in design may be desirable, but they are minor in character and can be effected if the applicant is able to meet the other requirements of the Act.

(f) On review, the Commission's dismissal of the applications for license was set aside by the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia on June 21, 1946, and the case remanded to the Commission for further proceedings in conformity with the opinion of the Supreme Court of the United States rendered April 29, 1946 (66 Sup. Ct. 906).

(g) On June 28, 1946, the State of Iowa filed a Petition for Reopening of Case, which sought to reopen, among other things, the issues of jurisdiction and navigability of the Cedar River which have already been determined.

(h) Over five years have elapsed since the application was originally filed and over two and a half years since we issued our decision in January 1944, and applicant is entitled to a prompt determination of the matter in accordance with the remand of the Court.

(i) The record should be supplemented by a further showing as to the design and economic feasibility of the proposed project.

The Commission orders that:

(A) The record on the application for license be and the same hereby is reopened, in conformity with the opinion of the Supreme Court and pursuant to the remand, to permit the showing as set forth in paragraph (i) above.

(B) The Commission's Bureau of Power shall, and the State of Iowa and the Cooperative may, not later than September 9, 1946, submit preliminary engineering reports on any changes and conditions relating to the economic feasibility of the project since the determination referred to in paragraph (e) above which would require a modification in that determination.

(C) A public hearing is hereby set to be held commencing at 10:00 a.m., September 23, 1946, in the Commission's hearing room, 12th floor, Hurley-Wright Building, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C., on the matters referred to in paragraph (i) above and any other matters which the Commission may designate by supplemental order upon receipt of the information called for in paragraph (B) above.

(D) Nothing in this order contained shall be deemed to reopen the record for further consideration of the applicability of the licensing requirements of Part I of the Federal Power Act to the proposed project or any matters other than those referred to in paragraph (i) above.

By the Commission.

If the resale ceiling price cannot be determined under the above method, the reseller shall apply to the Office of Price Administration for the establishment of a ceiling price under § 1499.3 (c) of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Ceiling prices established under that section will reflect the supplier's prices as adjusted in accordance with this order.

> [Rev. SO 119, Order 316] S. W. FARBER, INC.

ADJUSTMENT OF CEILING PRICES

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to sections 15 and 16 of Revised Supplementary Order No. 119, it is ordered:

(a) Manufacturers' ceiling prices. S. W. Farber, Incorporated, 141-155 South Fifth Street, Brooklyn, New York, may increase its ceiling prices to each class of purchaser as established by Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 for each article of its manufacture in the product-lines listed below by the applicable percentage listed below:

Percentage by Which Ceiling Prices May Be Increased

Product-line: Small electric appliances______ Stainless steel cooking ware_____ Chromium tableware_____ 18

As used in this paragraph "ceiling prices as established under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188", shall mean the ceiling prices established under that regulation without the inclusion in those ceiling prices either directly or indirectly of any adjustment, either individual or industry-wide.

(b) Ceiling prices of purchasers for resale. (1) A purchaser for resale, who had an established ceiling price prior to the effective date of this order for any article other than a small electrical appliance whose manufacturer's ceiling price was adjusted in accordance with the provisions of this order, may increase that established ceiling price by the same percentage as the manufacturer is authorized to increase his ceiling price by paragraph (a) of this order.

(2) A purchaser for resale who had no established ceiling price prior to the effective date of this order for any article other than a small electrical appliance whose ceiling price is subject to this order, shall determine his ceiling price by adding to his invoice cost the same percentage markup which he has on the 'most comparable article" for which he has a properly established ceiling price. For this purpose the "most comparable article" is one which meets all the following tests:

(i) It belongs to the narrowest trade category which includes the article being priced.

(ii) Both it and the article being priced were purchased from the same class of supplier.

(iii) Both it and the article being priced belong to a class of articles to which, according to customary trade practices, an approximately uniform percentage markup is applied.

(iv) Its net replacement cost is nearest to the net cost of the article being priced.

The determination of a ceiling price in this way need not be reported to the Office of Price Administration, however, each seller must keep complete records showing all the information called for by OPA Form 620-759 with regard to how he determined his ceiling price, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

If the resale ceiling price cannot be determined under the above method, the reseller shall apply to the Office of Price Administration for the establishment of a ceiling price under § 1499.3 (c) of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Ceiling prices established under that section will reflect the supplier's prices as adjusted in accordance with this order.

(3) As required by Order No. 6 under § 1499.159e of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, S. W. Farber, Incorporated, shall calculate resellers' ceiling prices for small electrical appliances of its manufacture in accordance with the provisions of that order, tions.

(d) Notification. At the time of, or prior to the first invoice to a purchaser for resale on and after the effective date of this order, showing prices adjusted in accordance with this order, the seller shall notify the purchaser in writing of the method established in paragraph (b) of this order for determining adjusted ceiling prices for resales of the articles. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

(e) All the provisions of Order No. 6 under § 1499.159e of Maximum Price Regulation. No. 188 not expressly inconsistent with the provisions of this order shall continue to apply to small electrical appliances covered by this order.

(f) All requests contained in the application for price adjustment filed by S. W. Farber, Incorporated, assigned OPA Docket No. 6069–SO 119–96c, not specifically granted by this order are hereby denied.

(g) The provisions of Supplementary Order No. 153, shall have no application to any sale or delivery of any article subject to this order.

(h) This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

This order shall become effective on the 9th day of August 1946.

Issued this 8th day of August 1946.

[Rev. SO 119, Rev. Order 11] DOUGLAS FURNITURE CORP.

ADJUSTMENT OF CEILING PRICES

Order No. 11 under Revised Supplementary Order No. 119 is revised and amended to read as follows:

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to sections 15 and 16 of Revised Supplementary Order No. 119, it is ordered:

(a) Manufacturer's ceiling prices. Douglas Furniture Corporation, 1817 South 55th Street, Cicero, Illinois, may compute its adjusted ceiling prices for all articles of Chrome Kitchen and Dinette Furniture, which it manufactures, as follows:

(1) For an article in its line during October 1941, the adjusted ceiling price is the highest price charged during that month to each class of purchaser increased by 24.1 per cent.

(2) For an article not in its line during October 1941, but which has a properly established ceiling price, in effect before the effective date of this order, the adjusted ceiling price is the article's properly established ceiling price for the particular sale (exclusive of all permitted increases or adjustment charges) increased by the percentage determined in accordance with "Note 3" in section 5 of Revised Supplementary Order No. 119.

(3) For an article which is first offered for sale after the effective date of this revised order, the adjusted ceiling price is the maximum price hereafter properly determined or established in accordance with Maximum Price Regulation No. 183 and prices so fixed may not be increased under this order.

(4) The manufacturer's adjusted ceiling price fixed in accordance with this revised order is his new ceiling price if it is higher than his previously established ceiling price including all increases and adjustments otherwise authorized for him individually or for his industry.

(b) Resellers' ceiling prices. Resellers of an article which the manufacturer has sold at an adjusted ceiling price determined under this revised order shall determine their maximum prices as follows:

(1) A retailer who must determine his ceiling price under Maximum Price Regulation No. 580 and a wholesaler who must determine his ceiling price under Maximum Price Regulation No. 590, shall compute their ceiling prices in the manner provided by those regulations. However, if the supplier's invoice states both an "unadjusted maximum price" and a selling price, the reseller shall compute his ceiling prices under those regulations as they have been modified by Order No. 8 under § 1499.159e of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188.

(2) A reseller who determines his maximum resale price under the General Maximum Price Regulation, and whose supplier's invoice states both an "unadjusted maximum price" and a selling price, shall compute his ceiling prices under that regulation as modified by Order No. 8 under § 1499.159e.

If his supplier's invoice does not state an "unadjusted maximum price", the reseller shall calculate his ceiling price by adding to his invoice cost the same percentage markup which he had on the "most comparable article" for which he has a properly established ceiling price. For this purpose the "most comparable article" is the one which meets all of the following tests:

 It belongs to the narrowest trade category which includes the article being priced.

(ii) Both it and the article being priced were purchased from the same class of supplier.

(iii) Both it and the article being priced belong to a class of article to which, according to customary trade practices, an approximately uniform percentage markup is applied.

(iv) Its net replacement cost is nearest to the net cost of the article being priced

The determination of a ceiling price in this way need not be reported to the Office of Price Administration; however, each seller must keep complete records showing all the information called for by OPA Form 620-759 with regard to how he determined his ceiling price for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

If the maximum resale price cannot be determined under the above method, the reseller shall apply to the Office of Price Administration for the establishment of a ceiling price under § 1499.3 (c) of the General Maximum Price Regulation, Ceiling prices established under that section will reflect the supplier's prices as adjusted in accordance with this revised order.

(3) The provisions of Supplementary Order No. 153 shall not apply to the determination of ceiling prices for resales of articles covered by this revised order.

of articles covered by this revised order.
(c) Terms of sale. Ceiling prices adjusted by this order are subject to each seller's terms, discounts, and allowances on sales to each class of purchaser in effect during March 1942, or thereafter, properly established under OPA regulations.

(d) Notification. At the time of, or prior to the first invoice to a purchaser for resale on and after the effective date of this revised order, showing prices adjusted in accordance with this revised order, the seller shall notify the purchaser in writing of the method established in paragraph (b) of this revised order for determining adjusted maximum prices for resale of the articles. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

(e) All requests for adjustment of maximum prices not specifically granted by this revised order are hereby denied.

(f) This revised order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(g) This revised order shall become effective on the 8th day of August, 1946.

Issued this 8th day of August, 1946.
