Rules and Regulations

Title 26—INTERNAL REVENUE

Chapter I—Internal Revenue Service, Department of the Treasury

SUBCHAPTER A—INCOME TAX

[T.D. 6828]

PART 1—INCOME TAX; TAXABLE YEARS BEGINNING AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1953

Capital Loss Carryover

On April 7, 1965, notice of proposed rule making with respect to the amendment of the Income Tax Regulations (26 CFR Part 1) under sections 172, 642, 1212, and 1222 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 to conform the regulations to changes made by section 230 of the Revenue Act of 1964 (78 Stat. 99) was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (30 F.R. 4482). After consideration of all such relevant matter as was presented by interested persons regarding the rules proposed, the amendments of the regulations as proposed are hereby adopted.

[SEAL] D. W. BACON,
Acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Approved: June 14, 1965.

STANLEY S. SURREY,
Assistant Secretary of the Treasury.

In order to conform the Income Tax Regulations (26 CFR Part 1) under sections 172, 642, 1212, and 1222 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 to section 230 of the Revenue Act of 1964 (78 Stat. 99), such regulations are amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. Paragraph (b) of § 1.172-3 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1.172-3 Net operating loss in case of a taxpayer other than a corporation.

* * * * *

(b) Treatment of capital loss carryovers. Because of the distinction between business and nonbusiness capital gains and losses, a taxpayer who has a capital loss carryover from a preceding taxable year, includible by virtue of section 1212 among the capital losses for the taxable year in issue, is required to determine how much of such capital loss carryover is a business capital loss and how much is a nonbusiness capital loss. In order to make this determination, the taxpayer shall first ascertain what proportion of the net capital loss for such preceding taxable year was attributable to an excess of business capital losses over business capital gains for such year, and what proportion was attributable to an excess of nonbusiness capital losses over nonbusiness capital gains. The same proportion of the capital loss carryover from such preceding taxable year shall be treated as a business capital loss and a nonbusiness capital loss, respectively. In order to determine the composition (business—nonbusiness) of a net capital loss for a taxable year, for purposes of this paragraph, if such net capital loss is computed under paragraph (b) of § 1.1212-1 and takes into account a capital loss carryover from a preceding taxable year, the composition (business—nonbusiness) of the net capital loss for such preceding taxable year must also be determined. For purposes of this paragraph, in case of a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1963, the term "capital loss carryover" means the sum of the short-term and long-term capital loss carryovers from such year. This paragraph may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). (i) A, an individual, has $5,000 ordinary taxable income (computed without regard to the deductions for personal exemptions) for the calendar year 1954 and also has the following capital gains and losses for such year: Business capital gains of $2,000; business capital losses of $3,200; nonbusiness capital gains of $1,000; and nonbusiness capital losses of $1,200.

(ii) A's net capital loss for the taxable year 1954 is $400, computed as follows:

Capital losses	$4,400
Capital gains	3,000
Excess of capital losses over capital gains	1,400
Less: $1,000 of such ordinary taxable income	1,000
Net capital loss for 1954	400

(iii) A's capital losses for 1954 exceeded his capital gains for such year by $1,400. Since A's business capital losses for 1954 exceeded his business capital gains for such year by $1,200, 6/7ths ($1,200/$1,400) of A's net capital loss for 1954 is attributable to an excess of his business capital losses over his business capital gains for such year. Similarly, 1/7th of the net capital loss is attributable to the excess of nonbusiness capital losses over nonbusiness capital gains. Since the capital loss carryover for 1954 to 1955 is $400, 6/7ths of $400, or $342.86, shall be treated as a business capital loss in 1955; and 1/7th of $400, or $57.14, as a nonbusiness capital loss.

Example (2). (i) A, an individual who is computing a net operating loss for the calendar year 1966, has a capital loss carryover from 1965 of $8,000. In order to apply the provisions of this paragraph, A must determine what portion of the $8,000 carryover is attributable to the excess of business capital losses over business capital gains and what portion thereof is attributable to the excess of nonbusiness capital losses over nonbusiness capital gains. For 1965, A had $10,000 ordinary taxable income (computed without regard to the deductions for personal exemptions), and a short-term capital loss carryover of $6,000 from 1964. In order to determine the composition (business—nonbusiness) of the $8,000 carryover from 1965, A first determines that of the $6,000 carryover from 1964, $5,000 is a business capital loss and $1,000 is a nonbusiness capital loss. This must be done since, under paragraph (b) of § 1.1212-1, the net capital loss for 1965 is computed by taking into account the capital loss carryover from 1964. A's capital gains and losses for 1965 are as follows:

	1965	Carried over from 1964
Business capital gains	$2,000
Business capital losses	3,000	$5,000
Nonbusiness capital gains	4,000
Nonbusiness capital losses	6,000	1,000

(ii) A's net capital loss for the taxable year 1965 is $8,000, computed as follows:

Capital losses (including carryovers)	$15,000
Capital gains	6,000
Excess of capital losses over capital gains	9,000
Less: $1,000 of such ordinary taxable income	1,000
Net capital loss for 1965	8,000

(iii) A's capital losses, including carryovers, for 1965 exceeded his capital gains for such year by $9,000. Since A's business capital losses for 1965 exceeded his business capital gains for such year by $6,000, 2/3rds ($6,000/$9,000) of A's net capital loss for 1965 is attributable to an excess of his business capital losses over his business capital gains for such year. Similarly, 1/3rd of the net capital loss is attributable to the excess of nonbusiness capital losses over nonbusiness capital gains. Since the total capital loss carryover from 1965 to 1966 is $8,000, 2/3rds of $8,000, or $5,333.33, shall be treated as a business capital loss in 1966; and 1/3rd of $8,000, or $2,666.67, as a nonbusiness capital loss.

* * * * *

PAR. 2. Section 1.642(h)-1 is amended by revising paragraph (b) and by adding a paragraph (c). These amended and added provisions read as follows:

§ 1.642(h)-1 Unused loss carryovers on termination of an estate or trust.

* * * * *

(b) The net operating loss carryover and the capital loss carryover are the same in the hands of a beneficiary as in the estate or trust, except that the capital loss carryover in the hands of a beneficiary which is a corporation is a short-term loss irrespective of whether it would have been a long-term or short-term capital loss in the hands of the estate or trust. The net operating loss carryover and the capital loss carryover are taken into account in computing both taxable income and adjusted gross income. The first taxable year of the beneficiary to which the loss shall be carried over is the taxable year of the beneficiary in which or with which the estate or trust terminates. However, for purposes of determining the number of years to which a net operating loss, or a capital loss under paragraph (a) of § 1.1212–1, may be carried over by a beneficiary, the last taxable year of the estate or trust (whether or not a short taxable year) and the first taxable year of the beneficiary to which a loss is carried over each constitute a taxable year, and, in the case of a beneficiary of an estate or trust that is a corporation, capital losses carried over by the estate or trust to any taxable year of the estate or trust beginning after December 31, 1963, shall be treated as if they were incurred in the last taxable year of the estate or trust (whether or not a short taxable year). For the treatment of the net operating loss carryover when the last taxable year of the estate or trust is the last taxable year to which such loss can be carried over, see § 1.642(h)–2.

(c) The application of this section may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). A trust distributes all of its assets to A, the sole remainderman, and terminates on December 31, 1954, when it has a capital loss carryover of $10,000 attributable to transactions during the taxable year 1952. A, who reports on the calendar year basis, otherwise has ordinary income of $10,000 and capital gains of $4,000 for the taxable year 1954. A would offset his capital gains of $4,000 against the capital loss of the trust and, in addition, deduct under section 1211 (b) $1,000 on his return for the taxable year 1954. The balance of the capital loss carryover of $5,000 may be carried over only to the years 1955 and 1956, in accordance with paragraph (a) of § 1.1212–1 and the rules of this section.

Example (2). A trust distributes all of its assets, one-half to A, an individual, and one-half to X, a corporation, who are the sole remaindermen, and terminates on December 31, 1966, when it has a short-term capital loss carryover of $20,000 attributable to short-term transactions during the taxable years 1964, 1965, and 1966, and a long-term capital loss carryover of $12,000 attributable to long-term transactions during such years. A, who reports on the calendar year basis, otherwise has ordinary income of $15,000, short-term capital gains of $4,000 and long-term capital gains of $6,000, for the taxable year 1966. A would offset his short-term capital gains of $4,000 against his share of the short-term capital loss carryover of the trust, $10,000 (one-half of $20,000), and, in addition deduct under section 1211(b) $1,000 (treated as a short-term gain for purposes of computing capital loss carryovers) on his return for the taxable year 1966. A would also offset his long-term capital gains of $6,000 against his share of the long-term capital loss carryover of the trust, $6,000 (one-half of $12,000). The balance of A's share of the short-term capital loss carryover, $5,000, may be carried over as a short-term capital loss carryover to the succeeding taxable year and treated as a short-term capital loss incurred in such succeeding taxable year in accordance with paragraph (b) of § 1.1212–1. X, which also reports on the calendar year basis, otherwise has capital gains of $4,000 for the taxable year 1966. X would offset its capital gains of $4,000 against its share of the capital loss carryovers of the trust, $16,000 (the sum of one-half of each the short-term carryover and the long-term carryover of the trust), on its return for the taxable year 1966. The balance of X's share, $12,000, may be carried over as a short-term capital loss only to the years 1967, 1968, 1969, and 1970, in accordance with paragraph (a) of § 1.1212–1 and the rules of this section.

PAR. 3. Paragraph (d) of the example in § 1.642(h)–5 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1.642(h)–5 Example.

* * * * *

(d) Under section 642(h)(1), there will be allowable to A a capital loss carryover of $2,500 for his taxable year 1954 and for his next 4 taxable years in accordance with paragraph (a) of § 1.1212–1. There will be allowable to the trust a similar capital loss carryover of $2,500 for its taxable year ending August 31, 1955, and its next 4 taxable years (but see paragraph (b) of § 1.643(a)–3), (for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1963, net capital losses may be carried over indefinitely by beneficiaries other than corporations, in accordance with § 1.642(h)–1 and paragraph (b) of § 1.1212–1.)

* * * * *

PAR. 4. Section 1.1212 is amended by revising section 1212 and by adding a historical note. These amended and added provisions read as follows:

§ 1.1212 Statutory provisions; capital loss carryover.

SEC. 1212. Capital loss carryover—(a) Corporations. If for any taxable year a corporation has a net capital loss, the amount thereof shall be a short-term capital loss in each of the 5 succeeding taxable years to the extent that such amount exceeds the total of any net capital gains of any taxable years intervening between the taxable year in which the net capital loss arose and such succeeding taxable year. For purposes of this section, a net capital gain shall be computed without regard to such net capital loss or to any net capital losses arising in any such intervening taxable years, and a net capital loss for a taxable year beginning before October 20, 1951, shall be determined under the applicable law relating to the computation of capital gains and losses in effect before such date.

(b) Other taxpayers—(1) In general. If a taxpayer other than a corporation has a net capital loss for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1963—

(A) The excess of the net short-term capital loss over the net long-term capital gain for such year shall be a short-term capital loss in the succeeding taxable year, and

(B) The excess of the net long-term capital loss over the net short-term capital gain for such year shall be a long-term capital loss in the succeeding taxable year.

For purposes of this paragraph, in determining such excesses an amount equal to the excess of the sum allowed for the taxable year under section 1211(b) over the gains from sales or exchanges of capital assets (determined without regard to this sentence) shall be treated as a short-term capital gain in such year.

(2) Transitional rule. In the case of a taxpayer other than a corporation, there shall be treated as a short-term capital loss in the first taxable year beginning after December 31, 1963, any amount which is treated as a short-term capital loss in such year under this subchapter as in effect immediately before the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1964.

(Sec. 1212 as amended by sec. 230(a), Rev. Act 1964 (78 Stat. 99))

PAR. 5. Section 1.1212–1 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1.1212–1 Capital loss carryover.

(a) Corporations; other taxpayers for taxable years beginning before January 1, 1964. (1) A corporation sustaining a net capital loss, and a taxpayer other than a corporation sustaining a net capital loss for any taxable year beginning before January 1, 1964, may carry over such loss to each of the 5 succeeding taxable years and treat it in each of such 5 succeeding taxable years as a short-term capital loss to the extent not allowed as a deduction against any net capital gains of any taxable years intervening between the taxable year in which the net capital loss was sustained and the taxable year to which carried. The carryover is thus applied in each succeeding taxable year to offset any net capital gain in such succeeding taxable year. The amount of the capital loss carryover may not be included in computing a new net capital loss of a taxable year which can be carried forward to the next 5 succeeding taxable years. For purposes of this paragraph, a net capital gain shall be computed without regard to such net capital loss or to any net capital losses arising in any such intervening taxable years, and a net capital loss for a taxable year beginning before October 20, 1951, shall be determined under the applicable law relating to the computation of capital gains and losses in effect before such date. Thus, where the applicable law for a taxable year beginning before October 20, 1951, provided that only certain percentages of the gain or loss recognized upon the sale or exchange of a capital asset should be taken into account in computing net capital loss, such percentages are to be taken into account in computing net capital loss for any such taxable year under this paragraph. In the case of nonresident alien individuals not engaged in trade or business within the United States, see section 871 and the regulations thereunder for special rules on capital loss carryovers. For the rules applicable to a taxpayer other than a corporation in the treatment of that amount of a net capital loss which may be carried over under this paragraph as a short-term capital loss to the first taxable year beginning after December 31, 1963, see paragraph (b) of this section.

(2) The practical operation of the provisions of this paragraph may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. (i) For the taxable years 1952 to 1956, inclusive, an individual with one exemption allowable under section 151 (or corresponding provision of prior law) is assumed to have a net short-term capital loss, net short-term capital gain, net long-term capital loss, net long-term capital gain, and taxable income (net income for 1952 and 1953) as follows:

	1952	1953	1954	1955	1956
Carryover from prior years:
From 1952		($50,000)	($29,500)	($29,500)
From 1954				(19,500)	($13,000)
Net short-term loss (computed without regard to the carryovers)	($30,000)	(5,000)	(10,000)
Net short-term gain (computed without regard to the carryovers)				40,000
Net long-term loss	(20,500)		(10,000)	(5,000)
Net long-term gain		25,000			15,000
Net income or taxable income, computed without regard to capital gains and losses, and, after 1953, without regard to the deduction provided by section 151	500	500	500	1,000	500
Net capital gain (computed without regard to the carryovers)		20,500		36,000
Net capital loss	(50,000)		(19,500)
Deduction allowable under section 1202					1,000
Taxable income (after deductions allowable under sections 151 and 1202)					900

(ii) Net capital loss of 1952. The net capital loss is $50,000. This figure is the excess of the losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets over the sum of (a) gains (in this case, none) from such sales or such exchanges, and (b) net income (computed without regard to capital gains and losses) of $500. This amount may be carried forward in full as a short-term loss to 1953. However, in 1953 there was a net capital gain of $20,500, as defined by section 117(a)(10)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939, and limited by section 117(e)(1) of the 1939 Code, against which this net capital loss of $50,000 is allowed in part. The remaining portion—$29,500—may be carried forward to 1954 and 1955 since there was no net capital gain in 1954. In 1955 this $29,500 is allowed in full against net capital gain of $36,000, as defined by paragraph (d) of § 1.1222-1 and limited by subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

(iii) Net capital loss of 1954. The net capital loss is $19,500. This figure is the excess of the losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets over the sum of (a) gains (in this case, none) from such sales or exchanges and (b) taxable income (computed without regard to capital gains and losses and the deductions provided in section 151) of $500. This amount may be carried forward in full as a short-term loss to 1955. The net capital gain in 1955, before deduction of any carryovers, is $36,000. (See sections 1222(9)(B) and 1212 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as it existed prior to the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1964.) The $29,500 balance of the 1953 loss is first applied against the $36,000, leaving a balance of $6,500. Against this amount the $19,500 loss arising in 1954 is applied, leaving a loss of $13,000, which may be carried forward to 1956. Since this amount is treated as a short-term capital loss in 1956 under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, the excess of the net long-term capital gain over the net short-term capital loss is $2,000 ($15,000 minus $13,000). Half of this excess is allowable as a deduction under section 1202. Thus, after also deducting the exemption allowed as a deduction under section 151 ($600), the taxpayer has a taxable income of $900 for 1956.

(b) Taxpayers other than corporations for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1963. (1) If a taxpayer other than a corporation sustains a net capital loss for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1963, the portion thereof which constitutes a short-term capital loss carryover may be carried over to the succeeding taxable year and treated as a short-term capital loss incurred in such succeeding taxable year, and the portion thereof which constitutes a long-term capital loss carryover may be carried over to the succeeding taxable year and treated as a long-term capital loss incurred in such succeeding taxable year. The carryovers are included in the succeeding taxable year in the determination of the amount of the short-term capital loss, the net short-term capital gain or loss, the long-term capital loss, and the net long-term capital gain or loss in such year, and the capital loss carryovers from such year. For purposes of this paragraph—

(i) A short-term capital loss carryover is the excess of the net short-term capital loss for the taxable year over the net long-term capital gain for such year, and

(ii) A long-term capital loss carryover is the excess of the net long-term capital loss for the taxable year over the net short-term capital gain for such year.

In determining a net short-term capital gain or loss of a taxable year, for purposes of computing a short-term or long-term capital loss carryover to the succeeding taxable year, an amount equal to the excess of the capital losses allowable as a deduction for the taxable year by virtue of section 1211(b) over the capital gains for such year is treated as a short-term capital gain occurring in such year. A taxpayer other than a corporation sustaining a net capital loss for any taxable year beginning before January 1, 1964, shall treat as a short-term capital loss in the first taxable year beginning after December 31, 1963, any amount which would be treated as a short-term capital loss in such year under subchapter P of chapter 1 of the Code as in effect immediately before the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1964. In the case of nonresident alien individuals not engaged in trade or business within the United States, see section 871 for special rules on capital loss carryovers.

(2) The practical operation of the provisions of this paragraph may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). For the taxable year 1963, an individual with one exemption allowable under section 151, has transactions which result in the following totals:

Net short-terms capital loss	($20,500)
Net long-term capital loss	(50,000)
Taxable income (computed without regard to capital gains and losses and without regard to the deduction provided by section 151)	500

The net capital loss is $70,000. This figure is the excess of the losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets over the sum of (i) gains (in this case, none) from such sales or exchanges, and (ii) taxable income (computed without regard to capital gains and losses and the deductions provided in section 151) of $500. This amount may be carried forward in full to 1964 as a short-term loss because a net capital loss for the taxable year 1963 could have been carried over as a short-term loss to the taxable year 1964 under subchapter P of chapter 1 of the Code as in effect immediately before the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1964.

Example (2). For the taxable year 1964, the same individual has transactions which result in the following totals:

Capital loss carryover from 1963 (treated as a short-term capital loss incurred in 1964)		($70,000)
Short-term capital losses incurred in 1964		(15,000)
Total short-term capital losses		(85,000)
Short-term capital gains incurred in 1964	$5,000
Taxable income computed without regard to capital gains and losses and deductions provided by section 151 (treated as a short-term capital gain)	500
Total short-term capital gains		5,500
Net short-term capital loss for 1964 for purposes of determining carryovers		(79,500)
Net long-term capital gains incurred in 1964		25,000
Excess of net short-term capital loss over net long-term capital gain		(54,500)

The net capital loss is $54,500, all of which constitutes a short-term capital loss carryover. This amount may be carried forward to 1965 and treated as short-term capital loss incurred in 1965.

Example (3). For the taxable year 1965, the same individual has transactions which result in the following totals:

Short-term capital loss carryover from 1964 (treated as a short-term capital loss incurred in 1965)		($54,500)
Short-term capital losses incurred in 1965		(15,000)
Total short-term capital losses		(69,500)
Short-term capital gains incurred in 1965	$5,000
Taxable income computed without regard to capital gains and losses and deductions provided by section 151 (treated as a short-term capital gain)	500
Total short-term capital gains		5,500
Net short-term capital loss for 1965 for purposes of determining carryovers		(64,000)
Net long-term capital losses incurred in 1965		(10,000)
Net capital loss for 1965		(74,000)

The net capital loss is $74,000. Of this amount, $64,000 is a short-term capital loss carryover (the excess of the net short-term capital loss over the net long-term capital gain—in this case, none). This amount may be carried forward to 1966 and treated as a short-term capital loss incurred in 1966.

The balance, $10,000, is a long-term capital loss carryover (the excess of the net long-term capital loss over the net short-term capital gain—in this case, none). This amount may be carried forward to 1966 and treated as a long-term capital loss incurred in 1966.

Example (4). For the taxable year 1966, the same individual has transactions which result in the following totals:

Long-term capital loss carryover from 1965 (treated as a long-term capital loss incurred in 1966)		($10,000)
Long-term capital losses incurred in 1966		(20,000)
Total long-term capital losses		(30,000)
Long-term capital gains incurred in 1966		10,000
Net long-term capital loss		(20,000)
Short-term capital gains incurred in 1966	$85,000
Taxable income computed without regard to capital gains and losses and deductions provided by section 151 (treated as a short-term capital gain)	1,000
Total short-term capital gains	86,000
Short-term capital loss carryover from 1965 (treated as a short-term capital loss incurred in 1966)	(64,000)
Short-term capital losses incurred in 1966	(10,000)
Total short-term capital losses	(74,000)
Net short-term capital gain for 1966 for purposes of determining carryovers		12,000
Excess of net long-term capital loss over net short-term capital gain		(8,000)

The net capital loss is $8,000, all of which constitutes a long-term capital loss carryover. This amount may be carried forward to 1967 and treated as a long-term capital loss incurred in 1967.

Example (5). For the taxable year 1967, the same individual has transactions which result in the following totals:

Long-term capital gains incurred 1967		$17,000
Long-term capital loss carryover from 1966 (treated as a long-term capital loss incurred in 1967)	($8,000)
Long-term capital losses incurred in 1967	(2,000)
Total long-term capital losses	(10,000)
Net long-term capital gain		7,000
Net short-term capital gain		5,000
Taxable income computed without regard to capital gains and losses and deductions provided by section 151		1,000

In 1967 there are both a net short-term capital gain and a net long-term capital gain. One-half of the net long-term capital gain is allowable as a deduction under section 1202. Thus, after also deducting the exemptions allowed as a deduction under section 151 ($600), the taxpayer has a taxable income of $8,900 for 1967.

(c) Husband and wife. (1) The following rules shall be applied in computing capital loss carryovers by husband and wife:

(i) If a husband and wife making a joint return for any taxable year made separate returns for the preceding year, any capital loss carryovers of each spouse from such preceding taxable year may be carried forward to the taxable year in accordance with paragraph (a) or (b) of this section.

(ii) If a joint return was made for the preceding taxable year, any capital loss carryover from such preceding taxable year may be carried forward to the taxable year in accordance with paragraph (a) or (b) of this section.

(iii) If a husband and wife make separate returns for the first taxable year beginning after December 31, 1963, or any prior taxable year, and they made a joint return for the preceding taxable year, any capital loss carryover from such preceding taxable year shall be allocated to the spouses on the basis of their individual net capital loss which gave rise to such capital loss carryover. The capital loss carryover so allocated to each spouse may be carried forward by such spouse to the taxable year in accordance with paragraph (a) or (b) of this section.

(iv) If a husband and wife making separate returns for any taxable year following the first taxable year beginning after December 31, 1963, made a joint return for the preceding taxable year, any long-term or short-term capital loss carryovers shall be allocated to the spouses on the basis of their individual net long-term and net short-term capital losses for the preceding taxable year which gave rise to such capital loss carryovers, and the portions of the long-term or short-term capital loss carryovers so allocated to each spouse may be carried forward by such spouse to the taxable year in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section.

(v) If separate returns are made both for the taxable year and the preceding taxable year, any capital loss carryover of each spouse may be carried forward by such spouse in accordance with paragraph (a) or (b) of this section.

(2) The provisions of subparagraph (1) (i), (iii), and (iv) of this paragraph may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). If H and W, husband and wife, make a joint return for 1955, having made separate returns for 1954 in which H had a net capital loss of $3,000 and W had a net capital loss of $2,000, in their joint return for 1955 they would have a short-term capital loss of $5,000 (the sum of their separate capital loss carryovers from 1954), allowable in accordance with paragrah (a) of this section. If, on the other hand, they make separate returns in 1955 following a joint return in 1954 in which their net capital loss was $5,000 allocable $3,000 to H and $2,000 to W, the carryover of H as a short-term capital loss for the purpose of his 1955 separate return would be $3,000 and that of W for her separate return would be $2,000, each allowable in accordance with paragraph (a) of this section.

Example (2). H and W, husband and wife, make separate returns for 1966 following a joint return for 1965. The capital gains and losses incurred by H and W in 1965, including those carried over by them to 1965, were as follows:

	H	W
Long-term capital gains	$8,000	$9,000
Long-term capital losses	(15,000)	(6,000)
Short-term capital gains	10,000	4,000
Short-term capital losses	(19,000)	(5,000)

Thus, in 1965 H and W had a net capital loss of $14,000 on their joint return. Of this amount, $4,000 was a long-term capital loss carryover, and $10,000 was a short-term capital loss carryover, determined in accordance paragraph (b) of this section. H's net long-term capital loss was $7,000 for 1965. This amount was offset on the joint return by W's net long-term capital gain of $3,000. Thus, H may carry over to his separate return for 1966, a long-term capital loss carryover of $4,000. H and W may carry over to their separate returns for 1966, as short-term capital loss carryovers, the amounts of their respective net short-term losses from 1965, $9,000 and $1,000.

PAR. 6. Section 1.1222 is amended by revising paragraphs (9) and (10) of section 1222 and by adding a historical note. These amended and added provisions read as follows:

§ 1.1222 Statutory provisions; other terms relating to capital gains and losses.

SEC. 1222. Other terms relating to capital gains and losses. * * *

(9) Net capital gain. In the case of a corporation, the term "net capital gain" means the excess of the gains from sales or exchanges of capital assets over the losses from such sales or exchanges.

(10) Net capital loss. The term "net capital loss" means the excess of the losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets over the sum allowed under section 1211. In the case of a corporation, for the purpose of determining losses under this paragraph, amounts which are short-term capital losses under section 1212 shall be excluded.

(Sec. 1222 as amended by sec. 230(b), Rev. Act 1964 (78 Stat. 100))

PAR. 7. Paragraphs (b), (d), and (e) of § 1.1222–1 are amended to read as follows:

§ 1.1222–1 Other terms relating to capital gains and losses.

* * * * *

(b) (1) In the definition of "net short-term capital gain," as provided in section 1222(5), the amounts brought forward to the taxable year under paragraph (a) of § 1.1212–1 and section 1212 (b) (1) (A) are short-term capital losses for such taxable year.

(2) In the definition of "net long-term capital gain," as provided in section 1222(7), the amounts brought forward to the taxable year under section 1212(b) (1) (B) are long-term capital losses for such taxable year.

(d) In the case of a corporation, the term "net capital gain" means the excess of the gains from sales or exchanges of capital assets over the losses from such sales or exchanges, which losses include any amounts brought forward pursuant to paragraph (a) of § 1.1212–1. In the case of a taxpayer other than a corporation for taxable years beginning before January 1, 1964, the term "net capital gain" means the excess of (1) the sum of the gains from sales or exchanges of capital assets, plus taxable income (computed without regard to gains and losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets and without regard to the deductions provided by section 151, relating to personal exemptions, or any deductions in lieu thereof) of the taxpayer or $1,000, whichever is smaller, over (2) the losses from such sales or exchanges, which losses include amounts brought forward under paragraph (a) of § 1.1212–1. Thus, in the case of estates and trusts for taxable years beginning before January 1, 1964, taxable income for the purposes of this paragraph shall be computed without regard to gains and losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets and without regard to the deductions allowed by section 642(b) to estates and trusts in lieu of personal exemptions. In the case of a taxpayer whose tax liability is computed under section 3 for taxable years beginning before January 1, 1964, the term "taxable income," for purposes of this paragraph, shall be read as "adjusted gross income." For application of the term "net capital gain," in computing the capital loss carryover under paragraph (a) of § 1.1212–1, see paragraph (a) (2) of § 1.1212–1.

(e) The term "net capital loss" means the excess of the losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets over the sum allowed under section 1211. However, amounts which are short-term capital losses under paragraph (a) of § 1.1212–1 are excluded in determining such "net capital loss".

SUBCHAPTER B—FARM MARKETING QUOTAS AND ACREAGE ALLOTMENTS

[Amdt. 2]

PART 722—COTTON

Subpart—Marketing Quota Regulations for 1964 and Succeeding Crops of Upland Cotton and Extra Long Staple Cotton

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

This amendment is issued pursuant to the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended (52 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 1281 et seq.).

(a) The purposes of this amendment are: (1) To revise disposition of acreage dates for determining compliance with farm cotton acreage allotments for Texas, (2) to establish the marketing quota penalty rates for excess cotton and (3) to make miscellaneous revisions.

(b) It is important that disposition dates for Texas be established immediately. In order that cotton may be marketed without restraint, it is necessary that the exact rate of penalty be made known promptly to producers who desire to market cotton and to buyers who are charged in the regulations with the duty of collecting penalty on the cotton marketed subject to penalty and the lien for the penalty. Therefore, it is essential that this amendment be made effective as soon as possible. Accordingly, it is hereby found and determined that compliance with the notice and public procedure requirements and compliance with the 30-day effective date requirement of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238; 5 U.S.C. 1003) is impracticable and contrary to the public interest and this amendment shall be effective upon filing of this document with the Director, Office of the Federal Register.

The Marketing Quota Regulations for the 1964 and Succeeding Crops of Upland Cotton and Extra Long Staple Cotton (29 F.R. 9767, 12867) are amended as follows:

1. Section 722.14 of the regulations is amended by substituting the following disposition dates for counties in Texas in lieu of such dates for Texas in paragraph (b) thereof:

2. Paragraphs (a), (b), and (f) of § 722.15 of the regulations are amended or deleted as follows:

§ 722.15 Eligibility for and issuance of marketing cards.

(a) Producers eligible to receive unconditional marketing cards, Form MQ–76 Upland or Form MQ–76 ELS. The operator of a farm or other producer, as provided in paragraph (e) of this section, or an official of a publicly owned agricultural experiment station shall be eligible to receive an unconditional marketing card, MQ–76 Upland or MQ–76 ELS, for each crop of cotton if for such crop no farm marketing excess is determined for the farm, except that the operator shall not be eligible to receive such card if (1) he or any producer on the farm has on hand any cotton produced in a previous crop year on which the penalty was incurred and has not been paid, or (2) the farm operator is eligible for price support only when loan documents must be prepared in the county office.

(b) Producers eligible to receive conditional marketing cards, Form MQ–77 Upland or Form MQ–77 ELS. The operator of a farm or other producer, as provided in paragraph (e) of this section, not eligible to receive an unconditional marketing card under paragraph (a) of this section shall be eligible to receive a conditional marketing card, MQ–77 Upland or MQ–77 ELS, for each crop of cotton if for such crop an amount equal to the penalty on any farm marketing excess has been paid and an amount equal to the penalty incurred by such operator or any producer on the farm has been paid with respect to any cotton on hand produced in a previous crop year.

(f) [Deleted]

3. Sections 722.20, 722.21, and 722.22 of the regulations are amended to read as follows:

§ 722.20 Identification by marketing card.

A marketing card issued to a producer under the provisions of § 722.15, when presented to the buyer together with the representation of the producer that the cotton being offered was produced in the crop year and on the farm for which the marketing card was issued, shall be evidence to the buyer that such cotton is not subject to the penalty provided in § 722.24 and the lien for the penalty as provided in § 722.25 and may be purchased without collection, deduction, or payment of the penalty.

§ 722.21 Identification by marketing certificate.

A marketing certificate, Form MQ–91 (Cotton), when presented to the buyer, shall be evidence to the buyer that the cotton described on such certificate may be purchased without the collection, deduction, or payment of the penalty, and that such cotton is not subject to the lien for the penalty.

§ 722.22 Identification by loan document.

A loan document (the Original or Producer's Copy) Cotton Producer's Note, Form CCC Cotton A; Release of Warehouse Receipts, Form CCC Cotton AA; or Form CCC Cotton G–1, when presented to the buyer, shall be evidence to the buyer that the carry-over cotton described in such loan document may be purchased without the collection deduction, or payment of the penalty and that such cotton is not subject to the lien for the penalty.

4. Section 722.46 of the regulations is amended by addition of a new paragraph (b) at the end thereof to read as follows:

§ 722.46 Penalty rate for each crop year.

(b) Penalty rates for 1965 crops of cotton—(1) Upland cotton. The parity price for upland cotton effective as of June 15, 1965, is 42.02 cents per pound. The rate of penalty for upland cotton produced in 1965 as calculated on the basis of such parity price and in accordance with the provisions of § 722.24 shall be 21.0 cents per pound of upland lint cotton.

(2) Extra long staple cotton. The parity price for ELS cotton effective as of June 15, 1965, is 74.90 cents per pound. Section 101(f) of the Agricultural Act of 1949, as amended, provides that the support price for the 1965 crop ELS cotton shall not exceed the same per centum of the parity price as for the 1956 crop.

Such per centum was 75 percent. No increased price support levels for 1965 crop ELS cotton have been established pursuant to section 402 of the Agricultural Act of 1949, as amended. Accordingly if the support price for 1965 crop ELS cotton were determined on the basis of the June 15, 1965, parity price, the support price thus determined could not exceed 75 per centum of the parity price for ELS cotton as of June 15, 1965. Thus the parity price, being higher than the possible support price, is used in accordance with the provisions of § 722.24 in calculating the rate of penalty for 1965 crop ELS cotton. Such rate of penalty shall be 37.4 cents per pound of ELS lint cotton.

(Secs. 301, 346, 375; 52 Stat. 38, as amended, 63 Stat. 674, 52 Stat. 66, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 1301, 1346, 1375)

PART 730—RICE

Subpart—Rice Marketing Quota Regulations for 1964 and Subsequent Crop Years

1965 RATE OF PENALTY

The amendment herein is issued under and in accordance with the provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended.

The purpose of this amendment is to announce the rate of penalty applicable to excess rice produced in the 1965 crop year.

Under the Act, the penalty rate per pound on the farm marketing excess is equal to 65 per centum of the parity price per pound for rice as of June 15 of the calendar year in which the crop is produced.

Since rice will shortly be harvested in some parts of the rice-producing areas and since the rate of penalty is essential in computing the amount of penalty on any excess rice production, it is important that this amendment be issued and made effective as soon as possible. In addition, calculation of the rate of penalty is a mathematical determination. Accordingly, it is hereby found that compliance with the notice, public procedure, and effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 1003) is unnecessary and contrary to the public interest, and this amendment shall become effective as provided herein.

Section 730.1573 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following sentence: "The rate of penalty applicable to the 1965 crop of rice shall be 4.30 cents per pound. This is 65 per centum of the parity price as of June 15, 1965, which is determined to be 6.62 cents per pound."

Effective date. Date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

AUTHORITY: The provisions of this subpart issued under sec. 4, 62 Stat. 1070 as amended; 15 U.S.C. 714b. Interpret or apply sec. 5, 62 Stat. 1072, secs. 105, 401, 63 Stat. 1051 as amended; 15 U.S.C. 714c, 7 U.S.C. 1421, 1441.

§ 1421.2241 Purpose.

This subpart contains additional program provisions which, together with the applicable provisions of the General Regulations Governing Price Support for the 1964 and Subsequent Crops, and any amendments thereto, apply to loans and purchases for 1965-crop barley.

§ 1421.2242 Availability.

(a) Producers desiring to participate in this program must file an application for price support not later than January 31, 1966, in States in which loans have February 28 or March 10, 1966, as their maturity dates and not later than March 31, 1966, in States in which loans have a maturity date of April 30, 1966 (see § 1421.2250).

(b) Loans will be available through January 31, 1966, in States in which loans have February 28 or March 10, 1966, as their maturity dates and through March 31, 1966, in States in which loans have a maturity date of April 30, 1966.

§ 1421.2243 Compliance requirements.

(a) A producer shall not be eligible for a loan or purchase unless he is eligible to receive a price support payment on barley of the 1965 crop under the 1964 and 1965 Feed Grain Program Regulations (29 F.R. 590 and any amendments thereto) on the farm on which the barley tendered for loan or purchase is produced, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section.

(b) The requirements of this section shall not apply to barley (1) produced on a farm in compliance with the New Farm Provisions of the 1964 and 1965 Feed Grain Program Regulations, as amended, (2) exempt from the Feed Grain Program for 1965 under the Malting Barley Exemption, in § 775.329 of this title (1964 and 1965 Feed Grain Program Regulations, as amended) or (3) produced in Alaska or in any other area of the United States where the 1964 and 1965 Feed Gain Program is not applicable on barley of the 1965 crop and price support payments are not made on such barley because of an emergency created by drought or other disaster or in order to prevent or alleviate a shortage in the supply of the commodity.

(c) A producer shall be eligible for a loan or purchase even though he has not received a price support payment on barley of the 1965 crop under the 1964 and 1965 Feed Grain Program Regulations if he would be eligible for a payment except for the fact that (1) he has declined a price support payment or (2) the barley was produced on land owned by the Federal Government and leased subject to restrictions prohibiting the receipt of Federal payments for diversion of acreage but not prohibiting the production of barley.

§ 1421.2244 Eligible barley.

(a) General. In order to be eligible for price support, barley must be merchantable for food or feed or for other uses as determined by CCC, and must not contain mercurial compounds or other substances poisonous to man or animals.

(b) Warehouse stored loan grade requirements. In order to be eligible for a warehouse storage loan, barley must also meet the following requirements:

(1) The barley must grade No. 5 or better, except that (i) the barley may grade "Sample" on the factor of total damage (except heat damage), (ii) Western Barley shall have a test weight of not less than 36 pounds per bushel, and (iii) the barley may have the following special grade designations: "Garlicky" and in the State of Alaska only, "Tough."

(2) The barley must not grade Blighted, Bleached, Ergoty, Smutty, or, if Western Barley, Stained;

(3) The barley must not grade "Weevily" unless the warehouse receipt is accompanied by a supplemental certificate which indicates the warehouseman will deliver barley which does not grade "Weevily" and which is otherwise of an eligible grade and quality. The grade, grading factors, and the quantity shown on the supplemental certificate must be as specified in § 1421.2247(c);

(4) The barley must not contain over 14.5 (13.5 if Western Barley) percent moisture unless the warehouse receipt is accompanied by a supplemental certificate which indicates the warehouseman will deliver barley which does not contain over 14.5 (13.5 if Western Barley) percent moisture and which is otherwise of an eligible quality. The grade, grading factors, and the quantity shown on the supplemental certificate must be as specified in § 1421.2247(c). This subparagraph shall not apply to barley produced in the State of Alaska.

§ 1421.2245 Determination of quality.

The class, grade, grading factors, and all other quality factors shall be based on the Official Grain Standards of the United States for Barley, whether or not such determinations are made on the basis of an official inspection.

§ 1421.2246 Determination of quantity.

When the quantity is determined by weight, a bushel shall be 48 pounds of barley free of dockage.

(a) In warehouse. The quantity of barley on which a warehouse storage loan shall be made and the quantity delivered to or acquired by CCC in an approved warehouse shall be the net weight specified on the warehouse receipt or on the supplemental certificate, if applicable. If the barley has been dried or blended to reduce the moisture content, the quantity specified on the warehouse receipt or the supplemental certificate, if applicable, shall represent the quantity after drying or blending, and such quantity shall reflect a minimum shrink in the receiving weight of 1.2 times the percentage difference between the moisture content of the barley, when received, and 14.5 (13.5 if Western Barley) percent.

(b) On farm. The quantity of eligible barley which may be placed under farm storage loan shall be determined in accordance with § 1421.67. The quantity acquired by CCC from farm storage under a loan or purchase shall be determined by weight. In determining the quantity of sacked barley by weight, a deduction of three-fourths of a pound per sack shall be made.

(c) Dockage. When the quantity is determined by weight, the percentage of dockage shall be determined and the weight of such dockage shall be deducted from the gross weight in determining the net quantity.

§ 1421.2247 Warehouse receipts.

Warehouse receipts tendered to CCC in connection with a loan or purchase must meet the requirements of this section.

(a) Separate receipt. A separate warehouse receipt must be submitted for each grade and class of barley.

(b) Entries. Each warehouse receipt, or the warehouseman's supplemental certificate (in duplicate) properly identified with the warehouse receipt, must show: (1) Gross weight and net bushels, (2) class, (3) grade (including special grades), (4) test weight, (5) moisture if above 14.5 (13.5 if Western Barley) percent, (6) dockage, (7) any other grading factor(s) when such factor(s) and not test weight determine the grade, (8) whether the barley arrived by rail, truck, or barge and, (9) the date the barley was received or deposited in the warehouse.

(c) Where warehouse receipt shows "Weevily" or excess moisture. If a warehouse receipt tendered for loan indicates the barley grades "Weevily" or contains over 14.5 (13.5 if Western Barley) percent moisture, the warehouse receipt must be accompanied by a supplemental certificate as provided in § 1421.2244(b) in order for the barley to be eligible for price support. The grade, grading factors, and the quantity to be delivered must be shown on the supplemental certificate as follows: (1) When the warehouse receipt shows "Weevily" and the barley has been conditioned to correct the "Weevily" condition, the supplemental certificate must show the same grade without the "Weevily" designation and the same grading factors and quantity as shown on the warehouse receipt; (2) when the warehouse receipt indicates a moisture content of over 14.5 (13.5 if Western Barley) percent and the barley has been dried or blended, the supplemental certificate must show the grade, grading factors, and quantity after drying or blending the barley to a moisture content of not over 14.5 (13.5 if Western Barley) percent. The quantity shown shall reflect a drying or blending shrink as specified in § 1421.2246; (3) the supplemental certificate must state that no lien for processing will be claimed by the warehouseman from Commodity Credit Corporation or any subsequent holder of the warehouse receipt; (4) in the case of conditions specified in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph, the grade, grading factors, and the quantity shown on the supplemental certificate shall supersede the entries for such items on the warehouse receipt.

(d) Liens. The warehouse receipts may be subject to liens for warehouse charges only to the extent indicated in § 1421.2249.

(e) Freight bill requirements. Warehouse receipts representing barley which has been shipped by rail or water from a country shipping point to a designated terminal point, or shipped by rail or water from a country shipping point to a storage point and stored in transit to a designated terminal point, must be accompanied by registered freight bills or by a certificate containing similar information. These registered freight bills or certificates must be representative as to origin and date of movement of the barley and must reflect the total freight from origin to the designated terminal point including penalty for out-of-line haul, if any. The form of these certificates shall be prescribed by the ASCS commodity office and shall be signed by the warehouseman and may be made a part of the supplemental certificate.

§ 1421.2248 Service charges.

A charge of one-half cent per bushel will be made for the quantity of barley delivered to CCC and such charge shall be handled in accordance with § 1421.60 (b).

§ 1421.2249 Warehouse charges.

(a) Handling and storage liens. Warehouse receipts and the barley represented thereby stored in an approved warehouse operating under the Uniform Grain Storage Agreement may be subject to liens for warehouse handling and storage charges at not to exceed the Uniform Grain Storage Agreement rates from the date the barley is deposited in the warehouse for storage. Warehouse receipts and the barley represented thereby stored in an approved warehouse operated by an eastern common carrier may be subject to liens for warehouse elevation (receiving and delivering) and storage charges from the date of deposit at rates approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission. In no event shall a warehouseman be entitled to satisfy the lien by sale of the barley when CCC is holder of the warehouse receipt.

(b) Deduction of storage charges—UGSA warehouses. The table at the end of this section provides the deduction for storage charges to be made from the amount of the loan or purchase price in the case of barley stored in an approved warehouse operated under the Uniform Grain Storage Agreement. Such deduction shall be based on entries shown on the warehouse receipts. If written evidence is submitted with the warehouse receipt that all warehouse charges except receiving and loading out charges have been prepaid through the applicable loan maturity date, no storage deductions shall be made. If such written evidence is not submitted, the date to be used for computing the storage deduction on barley stored in approved warehouses operating under the Uniform Grain Storage Agreement shall be the latest of the following: (1) The date the barley was received or deposited in the warehouse, (2) the date storage charges start, or (3) the day following the date through which the storage charges have been paid.

(c) Deduction of storage charges; eastern common carriers. In the case of barley stored in an approved warehouse operated by an eastern common carrier, there shall be deducted in computing the loan or purchase price the amount of the approved tariff rate for storage (not including elevation), which will accumulate from the date of deposit through the applicable maturity date unless written evidence is submitted with the warehouse receipt that such charges have been prepaid. The State office shall advise county offices of the applicable charges. Where the producer presents evidence showing the elevation charges have been prepaid, the amount of the storage charges to be deducted shall be reduced by the amount of the elevation charges prepaid by the producer.

§ 1421.2251 Support rates.

Basic support rates per bushel for barley of the classes "Barley" and "Western Barley" grading No. 2 or better will be published as an amendment to this section at a later date. Farm stored loans will be made at the applicable basic support rate adjusted for Weed Control discount where applicable. The support rate for warehouse storage loans and for barley acquired under a loan or purchase shall be the applicable basic support rate adjusted in accordance with the following provisions of this section and in the case of settlement of loans and purchases as further provided in § 1421.72. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, in determining the total loan, settlement, and purchase rate for eligible barley produced in compliance with the Malting Barley Exemption of § 775.329 of the 1964 and 1965 Feed Grain Program Regulations of this title, as amended, 16 cents per bushel shall be added to the applicable terminal or county rate listed in the following paragraphs:

(a) Support rates at designated terminal markets. (1) The basic support rates established for designated terminal markets apply to barley shipped on a domestic interstate freight rate basis. The basic support rate at the designated terminal market for any barley shipped at other than the domestic interstate freight rate shall be reduced by the amount by which the freight rate paid is less than the domestic interstate freight rate.

(2) The basic support rates established for designated terminal markets also apply to barley which has been shipped by rail or water from a country shipping point to one of the designated terminal markets, as evidenced by paid freight bills duly registered for transit privileges. If the amount of paid-in freight is insufficient to guarantee the minimum proportional domestic interstate freight rate, if any, from the terminal market to a recognized market determined by the appropriate ASCS commodity office, there shall be deducted from the applicable basic support rate the amount by which the amount of freight actually paid in is less than the amount required to be paid in to guarantee out-bound movement at the minimum proportional domestic interstate freight rate. If the barley is stored at any designated terminal market and neither registered freight bills nor registered freight certificates are presented, the basic support rate shall be reduced by the actual amount of paid-in freight required to guarantee the proportional out-bound rate from the terminal market to a recognized market determined by the appropriate ASCS commodity office.

(3) In determining the support rate for barley received by truck and stored at any designated terminal market, there shall be deducted from the applicable basic support rate the actual amount of paid-in freight required to guarantee the proportional out-bound rate from the terminal market to a recognized market determined by the appropriate ASCS commodity office, plus 2.5 cents per bushel.

(4) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, in determining the support rate for barley shipped by rail or water and stored at any of the following terminal markets, there shall also be deducted from the applicable basic support rate the transportation cost, if any may be incurred, as determined by the appropriate ASCS commodity office, for moving the barley to a tidewater facility located within the same switching limits:

Long Beach, Los Angeles, Oakland, San Francisco, Stockton, and Wilmington, Calif.
Baton Rouge and New Orleans, La.
Baltimore, Md.
Duluth, Minn.
Astoria and Portland, Oreg.
Albany and New York, N.Y.
Philadelphia, Pa.
Beaumont, Galveston, Houston, and Port Arthur, Tex.
Norfolk, Va.
Kalama, Longview, Seattle, Tacoma, and Vancouver, Wash.
Superior, Wis.

(5) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, in determining the support rate for barley received by truck and stored at any of the terminal markets listed in subparagraph (4) of this paragraph, there shall also be deducted from the applicable basic support rate an amount of 2.5 cents per bushel, plus the transportation cost, if any, as determined by the appropriate ASCS commodity office, for moving the barley to a tidewater loading facility located within the same switching limits.

(b) Support rates for barley in approved warehouse storage at other than designated terminal markets. In determining the support rate for barley which is shipped by rail or water and which is stored in approved warehouses (other than those situated in the designated terminal markets), there shall be deducted from the basic support rate for the appropriate designated terminal market, as determined by CCC, an amount equal to the transit balance, if any, of the through-freight rate from the point of origin for such barley to such terminal market: Provided, That on any barley shipped at other than the domestic interstate freight rate, the basic support rate shall be further reduced by the amount by which the freight rate paid is less than the amount of the domestic interstate freight rate from the point of origin of such barley to the point of destination or appropriate terminal market: And provided further, That in the case of barley stored at any railroad transit point, taking a penalty by reason of out-of-line movement to the appropriate designated market, or for any other reason, there shall be added to such transit balance an amount equal to the cost of any out-of-line movement to the appropriate designated market or other cost incurred in storing barley in such position.

(c) Basic county support rates. (1) The applicable basic support rate for farm-storage loans and for barley stored in approved county warehouse-storage, except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b) of this section and subparagraph (2) of this paragraph shall be the basic county support rate established for the county in which the barley is stored.

(2) If two or more approved warehouses are located in the same or adjoining towns, villages, or cities, having the same domestic interstate freight rate, such towns, villages, or cities shall be deemed to constitute one shipping point and the same basic county support rate shall apply even though such warehouses are not all located in the same county. Such support rate shall be the highest support of the counties involved.

(d) Discounts. The basic support rate shall be adjusted as applicable by discounts as follows:

Reason:	Discount (cents per bushel)
Class—Mixed barley	2
Grade:
No. 3	3
No. 4	6
No. 5	15
Total damage (percent):
10.1—11	1
11.1—12	2
12.1—13	3
13.1—14	4
14.1—15	5
15.1—16	6
16.1—17	7
17.1—18	8
18.1—19	9
19.1 and above	10

Other discounts to be determined by CCC for settlement purposes

NOTE: Discounts are cumulative except only one grade discount shall be applied. The discounts for total damage in excess of 10 percent are in addition to the discount of 15 cents for barley grading No. 5. For the purpose of applying discounts, factors which cause barley of the subclass Malting Barley or Blue Malting Barley to have a lower numerical grade than if the barley were graded under a different subclass shall be disregarded.

As used in this section and §§ 1427.2236 through 1427.2243, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(a) "CCC" shall mean the Commodity Credit Corporation, U.S. Department of Agriculture.

(b) "ASCS" shall mean the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture.

(c) "New Orleans office" shall mean the New Orleans ASCS Commodity Office, 120 Marais Street, New Orleans, La., 70112.

(d) "Financial institution" shall mean a bank in the United States which accepts demand deposits, an association organized pursuant to State law and supervised by State banking authorities, or a production credit association.

(h) "Date of investment" shall mean the date a financial institution exchanged cash for a loan draft, received it for deposit, or otherwise invested funds in it through a regular banking transaction.

(i) "Certificate" shall mean a loan draft on which a financial institution has entered its transit number and date of investment or a Commodity Credit Corporation Cotton Certificate of Interest (Form CCC-817) issued by the New Orleans office. A certificate is the document which evidences participation in a pool of price support program loans on cotton.

(j) "Holder" shall mean the financial institution which has converted a loan draft to a certificate in accordance with § 1427.2237, the financial institution named as payee on a certificate issued by the New Orleans office, or the financial institution which has acquired a certificate by transfer.

§ 1427.2236 Pooling of price support program loans.

(a) CCC will place in a pool for each crop of cotton beginning with the 1965 crop all price support program loans on cotton of such crop. CCC may place in the pool for any crop of cotton any other unmatured price support program loans on any commodities held by CCC which were disbursed under CCC price support programs for any crop.

(b) Financial institutions may participate in a pool by (1) converting loan drafts to certificates in accordance with § 1427.2237 or acquiring such certificates from other financial institutions and (2) holding the certificates as evidence of participation. The pool to which each certificate pertains shall be the pool for the crop of cotton of the year specified on the face of the document.

(c) Financial institutions may also participate in the pools by making price support program loan advances to cotton cooperative marketing associations on the basis of sight drafts which are drawn on the financial institutions by the associations and which are approved for CCC by the banks holding custody of the loan documents under servicing agreements with CCC or by the New Orleans office. Approval of such drafts for CCC shall evidence tender by the associations and acceptance by CCC of loan documents representing cotton having loan value equal to the amounts of such drafts. The New Orleans office will issue certificates to financial institutions for the amounts of such price support loan advances made by them. The date of each such certificates shall be the date of the loan advance covered by the certificate. Each certificate shall pertain to the pool for the crop of cotton of the year specified on the face of the document. Each certificate will also show the transit number of the financial institution named as payee.

(d) CCC will not issue certificates to itself but shall have an interest in each pool to the same extent as though certificates were issued equal to the amount by which the unpaid principal amount of loans comprising the pool exceeds the face value of outstanding certificates. To the extent of its interest, CCC reserves the right to offer financial institutions the opportunity to participate in the pool through issuance of certificates upon the payment to CCC of the face amounts thereof. Offers to sell certificates, when made, will be by special announcement. CCC may remove from the pool at any time loans representing all or any part of its interest in the pool. CCC shall have the residual interest in any proceeds of the pool remaining after payment of the face value of certificates plus earned interest.

§ 1427.2237 Conversion of loan drafts to certificates and acceptance of terms.

(a) Handling of loan drafts by financial institutions. Financial institutions will receive loan drafts issued to them if they are designated by producers to receive the proceeds of price support program loans on cotton and may acquire other loan drafts, which have been endorsed by the payees, through regular banking transactions. A financial institution may convert a loan draft to a certificate in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section or may obtain immediate cash reimbursement for the loan draft by presenting it as a cash item to the Federal Reserve Bank-Branch at New Orleans, La. through regular banking channels.

(b) Conversion of loan drafts to certificates by financial institutions. A financial institution may convert a loan draft to a certificate by entering the date of investment and its transit number in the designated spaces on the face of the loan draft. After conversion of a loan draft to a certificate, the certificate shall evidence participation in the loan pool for the crop of cotton of the year specified on the face of the document and shall be subject to all the provisions of this subpart relating to certificates.

(c) Liability for discrepancies or errors. Financial institutions shall not be responsible for any discrepancies which may be determined to exist between a loan draft and the related producer note or for a loan draft which was issued by the ASCS county office in error and shall be held harmless by CCC from any loss sustained as a consequence of such discrepancies or errors. This provision shall not be construed to relieve any financial institution from liability for any wilful misconduct on the part of the financial institution or its officers or employees.

(d) Acceptance of terms. The regulations in this subpart constitute the offer of CCC to financial institutions to participate in pools of CCC price support program loans on cotton. A financial institution which makes an election to participate in pools of CCC price support program loans by conversion of loan drafts to certificates in accordance with this section shall by such act evidence acceptance of the terms and conditions contained in this subpart.

§ 1427.2238 Purchase of certificates by CCC.

CCC shall purchase any outstanding certificate at its face value plus earned interest upon presentation by the holder as provided in §§ 1427.2242 and 1427.2243. CCC reserves the right to purchase at its option, at any time, any outstanding certificate at its face value plus earned interest, and will in the event the face value of outstanding certificates in any pool on the last day of any month exceeds the unpaid principal amount of the loans comprising the pool, as determined by CCC, call in for purchase outstanding certificates in a total amount sufficient to reduce the face value of outstanding certificates to or below the unpaid principal amount of the loans comprising the pool. The specific certificates to be called in for purchase shall be determined by CCC. Financial institutions will be notified of the certificate numbers of certificates to be purchased by CCC at least 15 days prior to the date such certificates are to be presented to CCC for purchase. Payment of the face amount and earned interest will be made as prescribed in §§ 1427.2242 and 1427.2243.

§ 1427.2239 Rate of interest and basis of computation of interest earned.

(a) Rate of interest. Certificates shall earn interest at the rate of 4.1 percent per annum.

(b) Rate increases or decreases. The rate of interest as specified in paragraph (a) of this section may be increased or decreased by CCC upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER of an amendment to these regulations providing for such increase or decrease: Provided, That with respect to any decrease in the interest rate, the effective date of such decrease shall be at least 15 days subsequent to the date of publication of such amendment in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Financial institutions will be promptly notified of all interest rate increases and decreases.

(c) Basis of computation of interest earned. Interest earned will be paid on a 365-day basis from and including the date of investment shown on a certificate, or the date shown on a certificate issued by the New Orleans office, to, but not including, the maturity date, the date the certificate is purchased by CCC, or the date a certificate is to be presented to CCC for purchase pursuant to a call by CCC, whichever date first occurs. Notwithstanding any other provision of this subpart, if the interest payable to a financial institution on certificates purchased on any day by CCC is computed to be $3 or less, or certificates established by conversion of loan drafts are presented for purchase earlier than 10 days after the dates of investment shown thereon, no interest shall be payable on such certificates, and, if any certificate established by conversion of a loan draft is presented for purchase later than 60 days after maturity, interest computed as provided in this section shall be payable only if satisfactory evidence is furnished to CCC that the financial institution identified by the transit number entered on the loan draft invested funds in the loan draft before the maturity date.

§ 1427.2240 Maturity date of certificates.

The maturity date of a certificate shall be August 1 of the year next following the crop year indicated on the certificate. If August 1 falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or national holiday, the maturity date of the certificate shall be the next succeeding business day.

§ 1427.2241 Transfer and exchange of certificates.

(a) Transfers between financial institutions. A certificate may be transferred to another financial institution by endorsement and delivery. A financial institution which acquires a certificate by endorsement and delivery may transfer it to another financial institution, present it for purchase by CCC pursuant to § 1427.2242 or § 1427.2243, or tender it to the New Orleans office for exchange as set forth in this section. Section 1427.2242 provides that interest on a certificate presented for payment through banking channels will be paid only to the financial institution indicated by the transit number shown on the face of the certificate; therefore, a financial institution which holds certificates as an investment should exchange those certificates acquired by endorsement and delivery from another financial institution before presenting them through banking channels for purchase by CCC.

(b) Exchange and consolidation of certificates. A financial institution may tender certificates to the New Orleans office for exchange or for exchange and consolidation. Only certificates relating to the same pool which have earned interest at the same rate or rates from the dates of investment shown thereon, or dates shown on certificates issued by the New Orleans office, will be consolidated. The tendering financial institution shall indicate the payee's name, transit number, and dollar amount of certificates desired for each group of certificates tendered. The new certificates will show the name and transit number of the tendering financial institution or of another financial institution designated by the tendering financial institution as payee. New certificates will be issued in the dollar amounts requested: Provided, That the total face value of such certificates issued shall be equal to the total face value of certificates tendered for exchange. Interest will not be paid at the time certificates are tendered for exchange. The date to be shown on a consolidated certificate shall be the weighted average date determined in accordance with paragraph (c) of this section. Exchange certificates issued without consolidation will show the same dates as the dates of investment shown on the certificates they replace or, if the certificates they replace were issued by the New Orleans office, the dates shown thereon.

(c) Formula for determining the weighted average date. The formula for determining the weighted average date of certificates issued in exchange for certificates tendered for exchange and consolidation shall be as follows: (1) The focal interest date shall be the date the certificates tendered for exchange were received by the New Orleans office; (2) dollar days shall be computed for each certificate from the date of investment shown thereon, or the date of a certificate issued by the New Orleans office, to, but not including, the focal interest date; (3) total dollar days shall be divided by the total face value of the certificates tendered for exchange to determine the average number of days the certificates were outstanding (fractions of ½ day or more will be raised to the next whole digit; fractions of less than ½ day will be disregarded); and (4) the average number of days outstanding shall be subtracted from the focal interest date to determine the date to be shown on the certificates to be issued.

(d) Certificates tendered for exchange during the 15-day period prior to maturity. Certificates tendered for exchange during the 15-day period prior to maturity will be held by the New Orleans office until maturity, at which time the face amount plus interest will be paid to the financial institution which tendered the certificates.

§ 1427.2242 Purchase by CCC of certificates presented through banking channels.

The holder of a certificate may receive payment of the face amount thereof at any time by endorsement and presentation through normal banking channels to the Federal Reserve Bank-Branch at New Orleans, La. The Federal Reserve Bank-Branch will receive the certificate as a cash item for the face amount thereof. The New Orleans office will compute interest earned on the total face value of certificates showing the same transit number paid through the Federal Reserve Bank branch each day, and will promptly pay such interest, computed according to § 1427.2239, to the financial institution indicated by the transit number shown on the face of the certificates.

§ 1427.2243 Purchase by CCC of certificates presented to the New Orleans office.

The holder of a certificate may receive payment of the face amount thereof, plus earned interest, computed according to § 1427.2239, by presentation of the certificate directly to the New Orleans office. Payment will be made by that office to the financial institution which presented the certificate. Certificates must be endorsed to CCC or bear the standard stamp endorsement customarily used by the financial institution. For prompt credit of the face amounts, certificates should be presented for payment through banking channels as provided in § 1427.2242.

Effective date. Upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Signed at Washington, D.C., on 11th day of June 1965.

Title 14—AERONAUTICS AND SPACE

Chapter I—Federal Aviation Agency

[Docket No. 6074; Amdt. 39-83]

PART 39—AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES

Boeing Models 720 and 720B Series Aircraft

Amendment 758 (29 F.R. 8474), AD 64-15-2, as amended by Amendment 797 (29 F.R. 11915) requires inspection of the inboard wing upper skin on Boeing Models 720 and 720B Series aircraft and repair if any cracks are found. Investigation, based upon a request for an extension of the repetitive inspection interval, has shown that an increase from 550 to 600 hours' time in service may be granted to operators of Boeing Models 720 and 720B Series aircraft without adversely affecting safety. Therefore, Amendment 758 as amended by Amendment 797 is further amended to provide a 50-hour increase in the repetitive inspection interval.

Since this amendment relieves a restriction and imposes no additional burden on any person, notice, and public procedure hereon are unnecessary and the amendment may be made effective in less than 30 days.

In consideration of the foregoing and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (25 F.R. 6489), § 39.13 of Part 39 of the Federal Aviation Regulations, Amendment 758 (29 F.R. 8474), AD 64-15-2, as amended by Amendment 797 (29 F.R. 11915), is further amended by striking out the words "550 hours' time in service" from the compliance paragraph and inserting the words "600 hours' time in service" in place thereof.

This amendment becomes effective June 17, 1965.

PART 39—AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES

Fairchild F-27 Aircraft

A proposal to amend Part 39 of the Federal Aviation Regulations to include an airworthiness directive requiring modification of the flap asymmetry system on Fairchild F-27 aircraft was published in 30 F.R. 3783.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the amendment. No objections were received. However, subsequent to the issuance of the proposal, there has been another flap asymmetry warning system failure. The Agency has determined that it is therefore necessary to reduce the compliance time for the required modification from 1,500 to 500 hours' time in service, and to require modification in accordance with Revision 2 of the manufacturer's service bulletin, which incorporates a minor change in wiring requirements and a minor change in the adjustment of the teleflex cables to the asymmetry switch over the original bulletin.

As a situation exists which demands immediate adoption of this regulation, it is found that additional notice and public procedure hereon are impracticable and good cause exists for making this amendment effective in less than 30 days.

In consideration of the foregoing, and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (25 F.R. 6489), § 39.13 of Part 39 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is amended by adding the following new airworthiness directive:

FAIRCHILD. Applies to Model F-27 aircraft Serial Numbers 1 to 39 inclusive, 41 to 45 inclusive, and 47.

Compliance required within the next 500 hours' time in service after the effective date of this AD, unless already accomplished.

(a) Remove old asymmetric switches, P/N 472-001-1 and -2, located on each outboard flap gear box at Wing Station 394.

(b) Accomplish the following modifications in accordance with paragraph 2, "Accomplishment Instructions", of Fairchild Service Bulletin No. 27-26, dated September 9, 1960, Revision 2, dated April 26, 1965, or later FAA-approved revision, or equivalent approved by the FAA Eastern Region, Engineering and Manufacturing Division:

(1) Rework the outboard flap and asymmetric switches, P/N 658-001, with the teleflex units.

(2) Install asymmetric override toggle switch at the cockpit pedestal and rewire aircraft for the new asymmetry switches and the override switch.

(c) Upon request of an operator, an FAA maintenance inspector, subject to prior approval of the Chief, Engineering and Manufacturing Branch, FAA Eastern Region, may adjust the compliance time specified in this AD if the request contains substantiating data to justify the increase for such operator.

This amendment becomes effective June 17, 1965.

PART 71—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS, CONTROLLED AIRSPACE, AND REPORTING POINTS

Alteration of Transition Area and Control Zone

The purpose of these amendments to Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is to revoke an extension of the Selma, Ala., transition area and two extensions of the Selma, Ala., control zone.

The Selma, Ala., radio beacon is scheduled to be decommissioned on July 22, 1965. It is therefore necessary that the control zone and transition area extensions based on the radio beacon be revoked. Additionally, the instrument approach procedure JAL-387-TACAN is being modified to a TACAN/ILS approach and the control zone extension based on the Craig AFB TACAN 152° radial is unnecessary.

Since these amendments are less restrictive in nature and impose no additional burden on any person, notice and public procedure hereon are unnecessary.

In consideration of the foregoing, Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is amended, effective 0001 e.s.t., July 22, 1965, as hereinafter set forth.

In § 71.181 the Selma, Ala., transition area (30 F.R. 3422) is amended by deleting "within 2 miles each side of a 097° bearing from the Selma RBN extending from the Selfield 5-mile radius area to the RBN."

In § 71.171 (29 F.R. 17581) the Selma, Ala., control zone (30 F.R. 3422) is amended by deleting "within 2 miles each side of a 143° bearing from the Selma, Ala., RBN extending from the 5-mile radius zone to the RBN" and "within 2 miles each side of the Craig AFB TACAN 152° radial extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 7.5 miles SE of the TACAN."

PART 71—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS, CONTROLLED AIRSPACE, AND REPORTING POINTS

Designation of Federal Airways and Reporting Points

On March 30, 1965, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (30 F.R. 4137), stating that the Federal Aviation Agency was considering amendments to Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations that would extend VOR Federal airways Nos. 498 and 506 to Kotzebue, Alaska, and that would designate Kotzebue as a low altitude compulsory reporting plant.

Interested persons were afforded an opportunity to participate in the proposed rule making through the submission of comments, but no comments were received.

In consideration of the foregoing, Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is amended, effective 0001 e.s.t., August 19, 1965, as hereinafter set forth.

1. In § 71.125 (29 F.R. 17546), V-498 and V-506 are amended, respectively, to read as follows:

PART 71—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS, CONTROLLED AIRSPACE, AND REPORTING POINTS

Control Zones, and Transition Area; Designation; Correction

On May 25, 1965, Federal Register Document No. 65-5415 was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (30 F.R. 6977) amending Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations. In the amendment, beginning on the sixth line of the Birmingham, Ala., control zone, it was stated "* * * within 2 miles each side of the 055° and 235° bearings from the Roebuck RBN extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 8 miles NW of the RBN." This control zone extension should have been designated from the 5-mile radius zone to 8 miles NE of the RBN. Also, in the amendment, beginning on the 19th line of the Birmingham, Ala., transition area, it was stated "* * * thence counterclockwise along this arc to the SW boundary V-209 * * *." This portion of the transition area description should have read "thence counterclockwise along this arc to the SE boundary of V-209."

Since these amendments are editorial in nature and impose no additional burden on any person, notice and public procedure hereon are unnecessary.

In consideration of the foregoing, effective immediately, Federal Register Document No. 65-5415 is altered as follows:

In the ninth line of the description of the Birmingham, Ala., control zone "NE" is substituted for "NW."

In the 20th line of the description of the Birmingham, Ala., transition area "SE" is substituted for "SW."

(Sec. 307(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958; 49 U.S.C. 1348(a))

Issued in East Point, Ga., on June 7, 1965.

Acting Director, Southern Region.

Title 19—CUSTOMS DUTIES

Chapter I—Bureau of Customs, Department of the Treasury

[T.D. 56427]

PART 10—ARTICLES CONDITIONALLY FREE, SUBJECT TO A REDUCED RATE, ETC.

Theatrical Effects, Motion-Picture Films, and Commercial Travelers' Samples

The procedure for entry of certain theatrical effects, motion-picture films, and commercial travelers' samples taken abroad and returned is prescribed in § 10.68 of the Customs Regulations. The procedure provides for registration of such articles on customs Form 4455 and for movement of such articles under a transportation and exportation entry when exportation is to be made at a port other than the port of entry. The provision for use of a transportation and exportation entry is cross-referenced to § 10.38(d) of the regulations. An employee has pointed out that this has given rise to an erroneous implication that customs Form 3495, which is required by § 10.38(d), is to be used in such cases and has suggested that the cross-reference be deleted.

In view of the foregoing and the fact that the cross-reference serves no useful purpose, the second sentence of § 10.68 (a) is amended by deleting "as prescribed by § 10.38(d)", so that the second sentence will read as follows: "When articles other than those exported by mail or parcel post are examined and registered at one port and exported through another port, they shall be forwarded to the port of exportation under a transportation and exportation entry."

Pursuant to section 105 of the Contract Work Hours Standards Act (40 U.S.C. 331) and Secretary's Order No. 32-63 (29 F.R. 118), I hereby amend 29 CFR 5.14 by adding a new paragraph (d) to that section to read as set forth below.

The provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 1003) which require notice of proposed rule making, opportunity for public participation and delay in effective date are not applicable because this rule involves only matters that relate to public contracts. The new 29 CFR 5.14(d) reads as follows:

§ 5.14 Limitations, variations, tolerances, and exemptions under the Contract Work Hours Standards Act.

* * * * *

(d) Variations. (1) In order to prevent undue hardship, a workday consisting of a fixed and recurring 24-hour period commencing at the same time on each calendar day may be used in lieu of the calendar day in applying the daily overtime provisions of the Act to the employment of firefighters or fireguards, under the following conditions: (i) Where such employment is under a platoon system requiring such employees to remain at or within the confines of their post of duty in excess of eight hours per day in a standby or on-call status; and (ii) if the use of such alternate 24-hour day has been agreed upon between the employer and such employees or their authorized representatives before performance of the work; and (iii) provided that, in determining the daily and the weekly overtime requirements of the Act in any particular workweek of any such employee whose established workweek begins at an hour of the calendar day different from the hour when such agreed 24-hour day commences, the hours worked in excess of 8 hours in any such 24-hour day shall be counted in the established workweek (of 168 hours commencing at the same time each week) in which such hours are actually worked.

GSA shall be notified by an agency occupying leased space assigned by GSA at least 60 days prior to the date on which the space, or portion thereof, will no longer be needed. In no event, however, shall such notice be given less than 30 days prior to the date on which the lease termination notice must be issued. Such notification shall be submitted in writing to the GSA regional office responsible for the geographical area in which the space is located, giving a description of the area involved, its location, and the estimated date of vacating. The appropriate GSA regional office may reassign or dispose of the space.

§ 101-20.206 Notice to GSA of relinquishment of Government-owned space.

When an agency is responsible for operation, maintenance, and protection of Government-owned space to which it has been assigned by GSA, and the agency determines that such space, or a portion thereof, is no longer needed, the agency shall so notify GSA at least 6 months prior to relinquishing the space. The notice shall be submitted in writing to the GSA regional office responsible for the geographical area in which the property is located, giving a description of the property, its location, and the estimated date of release. The operation, protection, and maintenance of the real property or portion thereof to be released shall continue to be the responsibility of the agency until the first day of the fiscal quarter after the 6-month period ends.

Effective date. Section 101-20.205 shall be effective September 30, 1965, and § 101-20.206 shall be effective November 30, 1965. However, agencies are requested to notify GSA as soon as possible of plans to relinquish space in the interim.

[7 CFR Part 991]

[Docket No. AO-349]

HOPS OF DOMESTIC PRODUCTION

Notice of Recommended Decision and Opportunity To File Written Exceptions With Respect to Proposed Marketing Agreement and Order

Pursuant to the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of the filing with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, of this recommended decision of the Department, with respect to a proposed marketing agreement and order (hereinafter referred to collectively as the "order") regulating the handling of domestically produced hops. Any order that may result from this proceeding will be effective pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 601 et seq.), hereinafter referred to as the "act".

Interested persons may file written exceptions to this recommended decision with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Room 112, Administration Building, Washington, D.C., 20250. To be considered, exceptions must be filed not later than July 2, 1965. They should be filed in quadruplicate. All such communications will be made available for public inspection at the office of the Hearing Clerk during regular business hours (7 CFR 1.27(b)).

Preliminary statement. The public hearing on the record of which the order is based was held in Portland, Oreg., March 29 through April 3, 1965, pursuant to a notice thereof which was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on March 10, 1965 (30 F.R. 3268). The notice contained a proposed marketing agreement and order prepared and submitted by a group of hop growers from the States of California, Oregon, Washington, and Idaho known as the "Four State Hop Study Group."

Material issues. The material issues presented on the record of the hearing are as follows:

(1) The existence of the right to exercise Federal jurisdiction;

(2) The need for the proposed regulatory program to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(3) The specific terms and provisions of the order, including:

(a) Definitions of the commodity, the area, the persons to be regulated, and those other terms set forth in the notice of hearing which are applicable to the provisions of the proposed program;

(b) The establishment, maintenance, powers, and duties of a Hop Administrative Committee, which shall be the administrative agency for the program;

(c) The establishment, maintenance, and duties of a Hop Advisory Board which shall be advisory to the committee;

(d) Procedures applicable to the committee and the Board;

(e) Authority for marketing research and development projects and the method of financing them;

(f) Authority for quality control and provisions for hop inspection and identification;

(g) Exemption of hops harvested prior to effective date of the program;

(h) Annual marketing policy procedures and a method for limiting the quantity of hops to be handled to normal market requirements;

(i) Allotment of the quantity to be handled among the producers thereof;

(j) Reserve pooling of hops in excess of normal market requirements;

(k) Transfer of producer allotment bases;

(l) The authority for the committee to incur expenses and for the Secretary to levy assessments on handlers;

(m) Establishment of reporting and related record keeping requirements; and

(n) Additional terms and conditions as set forth in the notice of hearing as §§ 991.70 through 991.82.

Findings and conclusions. The findings and conclusions on the aforementioned material issues all of which are based on the evidence adduced at the hearing and the record thereof are as follows:

The proposed program should regulate the handling of hops by restricting the volume of hops which may be received and freely handled by handlers. It should provide a method for limiting the quantity of hops from any crop which may be marketed and alloting such quantity among producers based on amounts sold by them during a representative period determined by the Secretary, to the end that the quantity available for handling from any such crop will be apportioned equitably among producers. This should be for the purpose of carrying out the declared policy of the act by establishing and maintaining orderly marketing conditions and increasing returns to producers of hops as provided therein.

(1) Hops are baled by growers and sold to dealers for shipment throughout the world. No significant differentiation occurs in producer sales or processing as between hops for use within the State of production as compared with hops for use in other parts of the United States or the world. Each of the principal hop producing States produces hops substantially in excess of its local needs. If a program regulating only interstate commerce in hops were to be made effective, the market for hops in the respective States of production would be greatly overburdened with the unregulated supplies and this would result in differing and lower prices in the individual States. All evidence of record is that all movement of hops is inextricably intermingled and in direct competition, and hence it is concluded that the handling of hops within the respective States of production directly burdens, obstructs, and affects interstate and foreign commerce to such an extent as to make necessary the regulation of intrastate commerce in hops as well as the interstate and foreign commerce.

(2) Prices received by growers for hops averaged 47.2 cents on the 1964 crop of 53.4 million pounds, about 74 percent of the January 1965 parity of 63.7 cents per pound. Recent acreage and production trends indicate a buildup in inventories and such are normally accompanied by lower grower returns in later years. Hop stocks on September 1, 1965, are expected to increase by about 4 million pounds relative to the year ago level of 19.1 million pounds and a further buildup is likely. Past experience indicates that this inventory will take a down turn in future years either as a result of economic pressures and associated reduction in acreage and production or as a result of the production guides which would be established by operation of the order.

The demand for hops in the United States and worldwide is inelastic as reflected by sharp increases and decreases in the price of hops in response to relatively small supply changes in the various producing areas in the world. In the United States, and more recently in Europe, extensive use of futures contracts has reduced these season average price fluctuations, but a substantial price response to changes in supply is still evident, particularly in the spot market.

U.S. brewers have consumed a little over 30,000,000 pounds annually in recent years of which about 5,500,000 have been imported and 24,500,000 have been U.S. hops. Foreign hops have been imported over the years at prices considerably above the level at which U.S. hops were available and certain brewers have been willing to pay the higher prices because of the special characteristics attributed to the varieties of the foreign hops that are imported.

A potentially important factor in the future outlook for hops is the growing use of extract and the technology associated with its development. Extract does not deteriorate noticeably with age. An equivalent amount of hops in the form of extract makes somewhat more beer than when hops are used in the traditional manner. Present technology indicates the feasibility of separating the components of hop extract and using them in various ways that could greatly increase their efficiency. The use of extract may slightly reduce the rate of increase in the world demand for hops in the years immediately ahead and, if widely adopted, could substantially reduce the world demand for hops in the future. In the long run, because of their relatively low price and high brewing value, U.S. hops may well be able to compete more favorably with hops of other origins for use in extract than for use in fresh form.

Concern was expressed at the hearing that the order would constitute effective acreage control and is therefore illegal under the act. However, although the effect of the program will be to institute guides to production, it does not deal with production control per se. The act specifically provides for limiting the quantity which handlers may handle to that which producers, on the basis of their sales in a representative period, sold to handlers. This authorization is the basis of the order and provision is made to cause hops in excess of the "salable" quantity to be pooled and disposed of by the committee.

It was also contended that the proposal would deny a hop grower the right to expand his business, would create a franchise to grow hops and would interfere with the production of new varieties needed to meet changing trade requirements. However, due consideration has been given to these matters and the program designed to give the fullest possible flexibility to producers wishing to increase their production or shift to different varieties or transfer their allotment bases to other locations of production as hereinafter discussed in connection with the transfer provisions.

The program was also opposed on the basis that the supply of hops is in balance with demand worldwide and that the hop industry in general is thriving and marketing is orderly as evidenced by wide use of future contracting. However, supporters of the program pointed to the historic fluctuation in production and prices resulting from the inelastic demand for hops and submitted evidence indicating that the current increases in production and carryover stocks will result in a repetition of previous severe economic adjustments. On the basis of current plantings and existing bearing acreage, 1965 season acreage of hops is estimated at 33,400 acres, an increase of 800 acres over 1964. At 1964 yields, this indicates production in 1965 of about 55 million pounds or at least 5 million pounds more than estimated demand for U.S. hops. An excess of 5 million pounds would increase hop stocks to near record levels of about 29 million pounds at the end of 1965–66, a quantity in excess of an entire year's domestic consumption of U.S. hops. In the past, whenever September 1 hop stocks have reached this level, prices of new contract and spot hops have been depressed and a substantial amount of acreage has been taken out of production. The last time this occurred was in the 2 years 1960 and 1961, when acreage fell from 29,200 acres to 22,900 acres, and present conditions and trends point to a pending similar adjustment. Production of hops involves substantial investment in hopyards, drying kilns and picking machines which can be used only for the production and processing of hops. Hence, these production adjustments involve substantial economic losses to hop producers. The order would, through providing production guides, discourage the buildup of excessive stocks and the attendant adjustments.

The program was opposed on the further grounds that the trade demand for U.S. hops is determined primarily by world competitive conditions and that the way the program would be administered would adversely affect the market and result in a spiral of increasing restrictions and consequent increasing production costs to the general detriment of the hop industry. However, operation of the program, the features of which are herein discussed, in a manner that will encourage industry stability and market growth appears to be feasible and should not be subject to the prejudgment that the program will fail to maintain the demand for hops. Operation of the order would be under the continuing review of the Secretary who would be obligated to terminate it if its operations proved unsuccessful.

(3) (a) "Secretary" should be defined to include the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States and, in recognition of the fact that it is physically impossible for him to perform personally all of the functions and duties imposed upon him by law, any other officer or employee of the United States Department of Agriculture who is or who may hereafter be authorized to act in his stead.

"Act" should be defined within the order to provide a ready and correct legal citation for the statute pursuant to which this order is to be operative and to make it unnecessary to refer to the citation whenever the word "act" is used.

"Person" should be defined as it is in the act to ensure that when it is used in the order it has the same meaning.

"Hops" should be defined to include the green or dried pistillate cones of the vine Humulus lupulus or Humulus americanus grown in the production area and should include any residues from processing, either in the form of whole hops or portions thereof, which can be used for a purpose for which hops are used. It is necessary to include processing residues, such as lupulin, because they compete with fresh hops for use in the production of malt beverages and extract.

"Production area" should be defined to include the current producing States of California, Oregon, Washington, and Idaho and any other part of the United States where hops are grown commercially. However, to reduce the administrative burden and possible compliance problems in States with negligible productions, the regulated area should consist of only the four named States currently with substantial commercial production. If other States become commercial producers, they should, if necessary for successful program operation, by amendment of the order become part of the production area and subject to program regulation. In such case, producers therein could obtain allotment bases pursuant to § 991.38 of the order or, if impracticable, so as to achieve a like method of allotment. For purpose of representation on the administrative committee, hereinafter discussed, the production area should be divided into four districts:

District 1—State of Washington.
District 2—State of Oregon.
District 3—State of Idaho.
District 4—State of California.

"Producer" is synonymous with "grower" and should be defined to mean any person engaged in a proprietary capacity in the production of hops. Such producers should be divided between cooperative producers who are members of and market their hops through a cooperative hop marketing association and independent producers who are not members. This distinction is needed in connection with the hop administrative committee hereinafter discussed. The producer should be the person having the right to sell the hops and hence the one engaged in a proprietary capacity in production. In sharecropping arrangements, each person receiving a share of the crop would be a producer. A cash renter of hop acreage, having the full right of disposition of the crop, would be the sole producer.

"Handler" should be defined as any person who handles hops. For regulatory, assessment, and reporting purposes, certain obligations are placed on handlers and such persons should be defined.

"Handle" should be defined to mean to acquire hops, use hops commercially of own production, or sell, transport (except as a common or contract carrier of hops owned by another) or otherwise place hops into the current of commerce, including preparation for market of hops, except that the preparation for market of other than reserve hops or substandard hops or the sale or delivery of such other hops to a handler of record shall not be construed as handling. This definition is intended to assure that all hops are subject to regulation. Failure to include all hops would impair the ability of the order to effectuate the purpose of the act.

Hops are normally dried and baled on the ranch by the producer. In doing so, he performs the preparation for market or handling function, as well as the production function. Preparation for market of hops other than reserve hops or substandard hops and delivery of such other hops to a handler of record should not be considered handling as such hops would be acquired by handlers who would move them into normal channels of distribution. Some brewers of beer grow their own hops and their acquisition and use should be handled to avoid their escaping regulation. Such brewers should be regarded as acting in three separate capacities, first as a producer, second as a handler, and third as a consumer, and in their handling capacity should be subject to the regulatory provisions of the order. Sale or transportation of hops from the point of production should be included to cover those further acts of handlers which directly place hops into the current of commerce. The movement of hops by a producer for storage or custom drying and baling within the area of production should not be construed as handling as such would not be placing them into the current of commerce. Hops produced and prepared by a brewer for use, or by a dealer for sale, should be considered as acquired, for regulatory and administrative purposes, at the time they are prepared, i.e., dried and baled. Transport is not intended to cover persons acting as agents of handlers such as common carriers.

"Marketing year" should be defined to mean the period August 1 through July 31 inclusive as this covers the period when new crop hops become available and are largely shipped and it establishes an operation period for the levying of assessments and hence a fiscal year.

"Part" should be defined to mean the order regulating the handling of hops and all rules, regulations and supplementary orders issued thereunder. The order itself should constitute a subpart of such part. This use of such terms is in conformity with the practices of the Office of the Federal Register.

(b) The program should be operated by a Hop Administrative Committee and its employees. The committee should consist of 13 grower members and their respective alternates. Representation on the committee should be distributed among the States having commercial production of hops primarily on the basis of their past record of production but also taking into consideration the number of growers in each district and the need to assure separate geographical districts reasonable representation. This should be accomplished by dividing the member positions among the various districts of production. District 1, with somewhat over half of the total production, should have 7 positions on the committee. Each of the other districts, due to similar production levels, should have 2 positions each on the committee. In District 1, about 85 out of a total of approximately 250 growers belong to one cooperative marketing association. Other growers have also entered into various cooperative arrangements and, to the extent that such other growers engage in cooperative marketing of hops, they, too, should be categorized as cooperative producers. To provide this group of hop growers with representation, roughly commensurate with their numbers and to ensure that they do not dominate the committee membership by virtue of their common interest and potential voting capacity they should be allocated 2 of the 7 District 1 positions on the committee. Independent hop producers are thereby assured 5 of its 7 positions. No differentiation between cooperative and independent producers is necessary in the other districts as cooperatives do not constitute a significant portion of the total number of growers in those districts.

To ensure that members of the committee have a direct interest in hop production, each member and alternate of the committee should at the time of his selection, and during his term of office, be a producer or an officer or employee of a producer in the district from which selected. At the hearing, a good deal of attention was devoted to the question of whether the cooperative would be on the proposed committee in its capacity as a handler. The cooperative positions on the committee should be for hop growers or members of the cooperative functioning in their capacity as growers. Full time employees of the cooperative should not be eligible for committee membership even though they may also be growers of hops as their primary interest would likely be that of handlers. To ensure true representation by persons serving on the committee, eligibility on the committee should be limited to hop products in the district which they represent, and if a committee member or alternate ceases to qualify as a producer at any time during his term of office, his position should be automatically vacated. No one individual should occupy more than one position on the committee simultaneously. In the case of growers or grower-dealers participating in more than one separate producing entity, each such entity would be considered a producer for referendum purposes and any officer or employee should be eligible for a position on the committee. This would provide each person as herein defined who is a producer an opportunity to serve on the committee.

Provisions should be included for growers in each district to nominate persons for each committee member and alternate position to represent them on the committee. Since the term of office hereinafter recommended begins on January 1, nominations should be made available to the Secretary by the committee not later than December 1 in order for the Secretary to complete his selection in time to coincide with the beginning of the term of office. If, for any reason, the committee does not submit nominees to the Secretary by that date, he should have the authority to select another qualified person for that position without nomination. This would be an additional safeguard to ensure continuity should the committee be unable to act. In submitting its nominees to the Secretary, the committee should also provide such related information as it deems appropriate or as the Secretary may request.

Election procedures should be provided to give growers a method of selecting nominees for member and alternate member positions on the committee. Balloting for each position should be conducted by the committee which should provide growers except cooperative marketing growers with ballots and necessary voting information. Cooperative associations should submit their candidates for each position directly to the committee for certification to the Secretary, hence, there is no need for ballots to be mailed to cooperative producers.

In order to obtain a list of candidates to be included on the ballot for each position, the committee should solicit names of candidates from the principal grower organization in each of the respective districts and should also include names submitted by petition signed by ten producers in the district from which the candidate would be expected to serve. The principal grower organization is not intended to mean the Hop Commissions now operating, nor cooperative marketing associations, but rather the dominant grower trade or service association in each of the States. A petition signed by ten growers is sufficient to indicate an interest in having a candidate serve in a particular member or alternate member position on the committee. Since an indication of interest is all that should be required, there is no need to obtain more than ten signatures as this would tend to place an undue limitation on this method of obtaining candidates in some States. To facilitate free choice by producers voting for a nominee, a blank space should also be provided for each position on the ballot for voters to write in their choice of other candidates. Each member position and each alternate member position should be voted on separately and the person receiving the highest number of votes for each position should be the nominee. The committee should conduct the election of nominees, provide voting instructions, and advise the Secretary of the election results. Eligibility to vote should be the same as eligibility to serve on the committee and no producer should have more than one vote for one position on the committee. Since producers' interests under the order would be generally similar in all districts, each producer should choose the district in which he wants to participate in election of committee nominees if he produces hops in more than one district and he should be limited to voting in that district only. Changing conditions may make it desirable to change these nominating procedures. Therefore, provisions should be included for the Secretary based on a committee recommendation to modify them if the need arises.

At an assembled meeting of the committee a quorum of ten members should be required for the transaction of business and nine concurring votes should be required as a basis for committee decisions. If neither the member nor alternate for the particular committee position is present at a meeting the members present should be empowered to designate one of the other alternates from the same district who is present to sit in the place of the absent member. The voting requirement of nine affirmative votes is desirable so that at least two districts must concur on any action in view of the importance of the regulatory actions and responsibilities of the committee.

In order to facilitate the transaction of routine business by the committee without entailing the expense of attending assembled meetings, provisions should be made for the committee to vote by mail, telephone, telegraph, or other means of communication upon due notice to all members and upon the proposition being explained accurately, fully, and identically to all of them. It is possible that a member and his alternate may not be available at the time the vote is solicited. However, committee management should make every effort to contact all of the voters. If any such proposition is sufficiently controversial to cause a dissenting vote or if ten concurring votes cannot be obtained, consideration of the issues should be presented at an assembled meeting. In obtaining a vote by one of these methods, a time limit should be announced to members and alternates acting as members to return their votes. Since this method of voting should be used for noncontroversial questions, a time limit is desirable to expedite the committee's business.

The enabling act provides in section 8c(7)(C) for the selection by the Secretary of an agency and defining its powers and duties which include only specified powers. These powers should be included in the order and thus would serve to notify the committee and other interested persons as to the extent of the powers of the committee.

In administering a program such as is herein set forth, the administrative committee would have many duties. To assist the committee in carrying out its responsibilities, it is desirable that its important duties be set forth in the order.

In order to carry out its business in an orderly manner, the committee should select from among its members such officers as it deems necessary and it should also adopt such bylaws or rules of procedure for the conduct of its meetings as it deems necessary. It is intended that the committee should serve as a "board of directors" and that most of the operational functions of the committee be carried out by employees. It should therefore be one of the duties of the committee to appoint such employees as it deems necessary and to determine the compensation and the duties to be performed by each.

The functions of the committee should be improved and expedited through the use of subcommittees to consider matters such as personnel, finance, qualification of a producer to fill deficiencies in his annual allotment, or assembling data necessary to establish original allotment bases. Both permanent and ad hoc subcommittees may be appropriate. It is not desirable that subcommittee members be made up of persons outside the committee since their actions would be less subject to the control of either the committee or the Secretary. This would not preclude the use of consultants by the committee or any subcommittee.

The committee would have the power to collect assessments on handlers for administrative expenses and to require various reports and records. With this responsibility the committee should also have the obligation to the hop industry and the Secretary to keep adequate minutes, books, and records to reflect program operations, prepare regular financial statements for the information of producers and handlers, and have its books audited by a certified public accountant at least once each year. Audits may be desirable in connection with changes of management or for other reasons and should be made whenever the committee deems necessary or when requested by the Secretary. Copies of all audit reports should be made available to the Secretary and, with confidential information deleted, be available to producers and handlers at the committee office.

It should be a duty of the committee to act as intermediary between the Secretary and producers and handlers. Since the committee is the administrative agency for the proposed program, it is in a position to handle most problems connected with program administration and producers or handlers should not need to go to the Secretary on questions that can be handled by the committee. This is not intended to preclude any persons going directly to the Secretary should he so desire.

To meet its marketing policy responsibilities and its surplus pool management responsibilities, it will be necessary for the committee to have data on crop and marketing conditions on which to make its decisions. It should, therefore, be a duty of the committee to investigate and assemble such information.

In its operation, the committee would necessarily be a primary source of information on the hop industry and it should provide the Secretary on request any available information.

Because of the importance of committee actions to both the producers and the handlers, all meetings of the committee to consider regulatory actions should be made known to them. All handlers should be given individual notice of such meetings and notice should be made available to producers through press releases or other methods considered appropriate by the committee. Producers and handlers should be advised of regulatory actions taken.

Since the Secretary has responsibility for the order, he should be given the same notice of committee and subcommittee meetings as is given the members. Notice of committee meetings should also be regularly mailed to any person who requests such notification.

One of the primary duties of the committee should relate to compliance. In this connection, the committee should make every effort to keep producers and handlers informed of their responsibilities under the program and should assist those involved in areas of compliance to bring their activities in complete conformity with program requirements. Committee employees authorized access to confidential information should make regular periodic audits of handlers' operations to the extent necessary to reasonably assure the committee that they are in compliance with the program's requirements.

(c) At the hearing considerable attention was directed to how the Hop Administrative Committee should be constituted and the role of handlers in administering the proposed marketing order program. The record shows that the program could be operated with some handlers (i.e., hop dealers) on the committee or with a grower committee assisted by an advisory board of such handlers. Also, that grower-dealers and grower-brewers should be permitted to be members of the committee in their capacity as growers. Thus, some hop dealers may have employees, concerned with production or working with producers, who are committee members. Since a major portion of the committee responsibilities will be concerned with producer allotments, it is not deemed essential that persons, in their capacity as dealers or brewers, be members of the committee. However, where matters of trade demand and marketing policy are concerned, the committee should have the advice of dealers and extractors, the persons concerned with buying and selling hops or hop products.

Hence, there should be established a Hop Marketing Advisory Board made up of 5 members and their alternates. It should include representatives of the important segments of the hop distribution business. It should, therefore, include 3 positions for each of the 3 largest hop dealers (as they handle the major portion of each crop), 1 position for all other hop dealers and 1 position for hop extractors. The committee should obtain a nominee for each position on the board from the persons represented by that position and forward such nominees to the Secretary for consideration and selection.

Duties of the board should include selection of officers and establishment of such bylaws as it deems necessary, and providing information and advice to the committee on marketing policy and other matters considered pertinent by it or requested by the committee. Since operation of the proposed program would affect handlers, the committee should make extensive use of the board and both groups should be free to convene separately or jointly as circumstances warrant.

(d) Provisions should be included for selection by the Secretary of qualified persons for each position on the committee and the board. Selection should normally be from nominees submitted by the committee but in the event nominees are not submitted or those submitted are not considered qualified by the Secretary, provisions should be included for the Secretary to select committee and board members from among other eligible persons. In order to verify their willingness to serve, persons selected should qualify by filing a written acceptance with the Secretary prior to assuming the duties of their respective positions.

To maintain continuity of experienced membership on the committee, provisions should be made for two-year terms, with the terms of those occupying odd numbered positions ending on December 31 of odd numbered years and those holding even numbered positions ending on December 31 of even numbered years. Handler composition of the board would not be likely to change very often and continuity would not be a problem. Therefore, there is no need to stagger the terms of board members and they should serve for two year terms ending on December 31 of even numbered years. The December 31 expiration date for each term of office is appropriate in view of the proposed marketing policy considerations of the committee and the board which would begin in February and would continue through final recommendations as to marketing policy in July and details of administering the program during and immediately after harvest of hops in the fall. Also in the interest of continuity, the committee and board members should serve for the term for which they are selected and until their respective successors are selected and have qualified.

Provisions should be included for alternate members to serve in place of committee or board members when the member is absent from a meeting or unable to participate in a vote on a matter for which a meeting is not convened. Alternates may also be needed to serve in places of members whose positions have been vacated for such reasons as death, resignation, removal or disqualification.

Vacancies occasioned by death, removal, resignation, or disqualification of committee and board members can be expected from time to time. Provisions should be made, in such cases, for the committee to certify to the Secretary a successor for the unexpired term depending upon the remaining length of the term and other aspects of the situation at the time. Vacancies should not be required to be filled but should be filled at the discretion of the Secretary. In this connection, where a vacancy occurring near the end of the term when little or no further business by the committee or board is contemplated, filling such a vacancy would serve no useful purpose.

Evidence was presented at the hearing that committee and board members should be willing to serve without compensation. However, they will incur certain expenses in connection with their committee and board duties and provisions should be included in the order for payment by the committee of necessary expenses incurred by committee and board members, including members of subcommittees, in performance of their authorized duties.

(e) Provisions should be included for the committee to engage in marketing research and development projects designed to assist, improve, or promote the marketing, distribution and consumption of hops. Such projects should be financed through regular assessment funds, except that, to the extent that they involve reserve hops, the cost of such projects should be allocated as an expense to the reserve pool. While the hearing record shows a strong interest in hop production research, projects are presently limited by the act to the area of marketing research and cannot include research on hop culture. No commitments or expenditures for any appropriate project should be made until the project is approved by the Secretary. This safeguard is important to ensure that projects will be within the scope of the authorized area of activity and will not duplicate other projects being undertaken by members of the industry or other agencies.

Hop dealers have done a great deal of effective promotional work in foreign markets and the U.S. Brewer's Association has done considerable work on hop quality. The State universities and hop commissions of the various States also have engaged in various marketing research projects. Marketing research and development projects undertaken by the committee could be done in cooperation with such persons and should not involve duplication.

While the committee may not engage in cultural research, it should facilitate projects to contribute to more efficient production and thereby improve returns to producers. For instance, to encourage the growing of hops for experimental purposes, provision should be included in the order for exemption from part or all of the regulations, of hops grown or used for research purposes.

(f) Provisions should be included in the order for the Secretary based on the committee recommendation or other information to establish minimum standards of quality for hops. Some poor quality hops are likely to be produced and, under conditions of limited supply, they would tend to be sold in normal markets to the detriment of the long run demand for hops of U.S. production. The committee should, therefore, have authority to recommend minimum standards on hops setting forth a maximum tolerance for leaf and stem content and such other minimum quality standards as may be found necessary to protect the demand for hops in the domestic and foreign markets. Upon recommendation by the committee, the Secretary should establish such minimum standards as would tend to effectuate the objectives of the part and the declared policy of the act. Hops not meeting such standards should be designated "substandard hops" and should not be handled.

There was also testimony at the hearing on the merits of exploring the development of U.S. standards for hops which would permit classification of hops into various qualities and grades. It is now normal industry practice to have all hops inspected by the Federal-State inspection services for leaf and stem and seed content. These quality factors are generally used as a basis for determining the value of the hops and the price paid to the producer. Also, a significant part of the crop is inspected by buyers for other factors of quality including laboratory tests for brewing value. Both the opponents of a marketing order and those advocating it agreed that quality maintenance was essential to growth of the market for hops.

It is recognized that it is not generally practical to sort or regrade hops after they have been placed in the bale. It is also recognized that the emphasis different brewers, both in the United States and in foreign countries, place on certain quality factors varies considerably. However, any industry, whether or not operating under a marketing order may contact the applicable Commodity Division of Consumer and Marketing Service, USDA, for assistance in developing U.S. standards for voluntary use. The proponents of a marketing order testified that they felt appropriate representatives of the various segments of U.S. hop industry should begin as soon as possible to explore the possibilities of developing a set of U.S. standards for hops.

If such U.S. standards are issued they would prove useful as a basis of reference in recommending and establishing minimum standards under the order. Any price premiums that may develop in the market place for hops meeting the higher classifications in any grade standards would depend over a period of time on the importance buyers placed on the value of hops meeting the higher grade classification.

At the hearing, the United States Brewers Association recommended establishment of a separate quality control board, consisting of four brewers and two handlers, to establish quality standards and administer all aspects of their operation. Incidental to its other administrative functions, the committee and staff would have all necessary facilities for recommending and administering a quality control program. It is therefore not essential that a separate agency be established for this purpose. However, the committee may need the technical advice of brewers and dealers and they should be consulted whenever the technical aspects of quality are under consideration by the committee.

The order should require positive identification of all hops as to which are salable, i.e., may be handled by dealers and brewers, and which are other hops. Inspection of hops to determine their value is now required under producer contracts with dealers and the inspection for leaf, stem and seed content should be mandatory under the order so that values on those hops entering the reserve pool, may be established by the committee. Also, the committee will need inspection to obtain data on producer deliveries as a guide to industry-wide production capability in the establishment of minimum standards of quality. When minimum standards are prescribed under the order inspection and certification should be mandatory to assure the handling of hops which conform with such standards. While inspection and identification of hops are separate requirements under the order, they should be handled together. The inspection agencies should be the Federal-State inspection services (those with inspectors licensed by the U.S. Department of Agriculture) and the committee should use the inspection services, who will be on the premises and have inspected the hops, to assist with any identification requirements under the order. Identification is necessary for compliance purposes, hence no hop identification should be altered or removed by any handler while hops are under his control.

Most hops are delivered to dealers by November 1. In keeping with this normal practice and in order to facilitate delivery of reserve hops to the committee, the inspection and identification requirements for all hops should be completed prior to November 15 or such other date as may be established for those hops to be delivered to the reserve pool. This is necessary to avoid compliance problems, to minimize the cost of program administration and to permit the committee to plan disposition of reserve hops. The cost of the inspection should be borne by the person who requests it.

(g) The order should not apply to hops harvested and baled prior to its effective date. The evidence of record is that no regulation should be applied to hops of the 1964 or earlier crops nor to any 1965 crop hops that have been harvested and baled prior to the effective date of the order. However, so that hops held by producers may be exempt from regulation, they should be identified as free hops and application should be made to the committee by the producers for such exemption within 30 days after the effective date of the order. Such identification should be performed by the committee at no expense to the producer. Also, hops held by handlers on the effective date of the order should be exempt from its provisions but such hops need not be identified as they are already past the basic point of regulation, the point of acquisition by the handler. The overall effect of these exemptions would be to free from regulation all hops harvested and baled prior to the effective date of the order and assure reasonable equity of treatment of producers and handlers.

(h) Producers begin to incur production costs shortly after March 1 and it is therefore desirable to provide them with tentative guides as to the quantity of hops that will be salable so that they can adjust their production plans accordingly. Therefore, the committee should meet prior to March 1 each year and make its preliminary estimates of the market requirements for hops from the ensuing crop. Operating experience may indicate a need for an earlier or later date and provisions should be included for the committee, with the approval of the Secretary, to establish a different date. In making its estimates, the committee should consider the prospective carryin of producers, handlers, and brewers, the desirable carryout, prospective imports and other factors affecting market conditions. Based on these factors, the committee should adopt a preliminary salable quantity and allotment percentage to be applied to the ensuing crop. As previously discussed, the committee should consider information and recommendations of the board in reaching marketing policy decisions.

The committee should meet again prior to August 1 of each year to review its preliminary marketing policy and after considering the same market factors should, if warranted, recommend establishment of a salable quantity and allotment percentage for the ensuing crop.

Such salable quantity may be larger or smaller than the preliminary salable quantity, but any changes should be based on substantive changes in market conditions that have taken place in the interim. If a worldwide or domestic shortage of hops is apparent and the committee determines that no salable restriction should be placed on hops produced from the ensuing crop, the committee should announce that no controls are recommended for that crop. Notice of both the preliminary marketing policy recommendation and any later revisions should be made known promptly to the Secretary and also to producers and handlers. This is necessary so that all concerned will be aware of the recommendations of the committee and can plan their production and purchases accordingly.

Whenever the Secretary finds, on the basis of the committee's recommendation or other information, that limiting the quantity of hops that may be freely marketed from a given crop would tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act, he should determine the total salable quantity of hops that may be acquired by handlers to meet normal market requirements and establish an annual allotment percentage for the purpose of releasing the desired total salable quantity. If market conditions warrant release of supplies in excess of the total producer allotment base, an annual allotment percentage of over 100 percent should be established. The Secretary's action should normally be based on the committee's recommendation but should also take into consideration other information. Other information might include such items as changes in crop or market conditions after the committee has made its recommendation or the legal limitation when hop prices exceed parity. The salable quantity should be pro rated among producers on the basis of their individual allotment bases which are hereinafter described. Once the salable quantity has been established for a crop, it should not be changed. A reduction would throw undue burdens on producers and handlers who had entered into a sales transaction on the basis of the established salable quantity. Increasing the salable quantity to provide for unforeseen demands would be unnecessary because any excess supplies that were available would be in the reserve pool and would be available for sale out of the pool to meet such increased demand. The order should provide that, in years when regulations are in effect, handlers are prohibited from handling other than salable hops. The salable hops should have been determined and identified pursuant to the provisions of the part. The prohibition should not apply to handling in the form of preparation of hops for market or of delivery of hops to the committee for pooling as such hops would be otherwise subject to control.

Due to the general practice of forward contracting by all segments of the hops industry, most of the 1965 crop of hops is already committed to dealers and large parts of the 1966 and 1967 crop are also committed. So that the order will cause a minimum of interference with existing contract commitments, any salable quantity should be set no lower than 100 percent of the producer allotment base on 1965 crop and 95 percent of the allotment base on 1966 and 1967 crops. Since any volume regulation that may be established should apply to the entire 1965 crop, no volume regulation on this crop should be established after August 15, 1965. This limitation is necessary to recognize the early harvest in California where some hops are ready for market by August 15 and hence a regulation after such date would not control the entire crop.

(i) Operation of the order would involve allocating the total quantity of hops that may be marketed among each of the hop producers. Quantities of hops sold by producers during the 1964–65 marketing year resulted from above average yields in all States except Idaho. Hence 1964–65 is appropriate as the representative period for computing the allotment base for most producers. However, the yield in 1964, for such producers, is about 7 percent in excess of the 1961–63 average and hop yields show no particular trend since 1945. Therefore, all base allotments resting on 1964 sales should be set at 93 percent of such sales so the total industry allotment base is representative of average conditions. For purposes of allotment base determination, hops produced by brewers and used in brewing should be treated the same as hops sold by other producers. Sales in the base period should be adjusted by deleting sales of other than 1964 crop hops and including any unsold 1964 crop hops held by a producer for later sale at the close of the 1964–65 marketing year. This is necessary to avoid inequities as between producers who sold only 1964 crop hops during the representative period and those who included hops of other crops or who failed to complete sales of the 1964 hops in the period. Each year some growers carry over all or part of one year's crop which may then be sold in the subsequent marketing year, along with the current crop produced in such year. Also adjustments may be necessary to accord equitable treatment of producers due to such factors as adverse weather, disease or pesticide residues in 1964–65, and the committee, with the approval of the Secretary, should adjust such producer's allotment bases by recognizing their sales under average yield conditions in the most recent preceding years. This should be done by using either 93 percent of the highest average amount of hops per acre available for sale from either his 1962 or 1963 crops times his 1964 acreage or 100 percent of the average amount per acre available for sale in the three years 1962, 1963, and 1964, times his 1964 acreage. Again, the highest yield should be reduced to 93 percent to offset the possible inflationary effect that would otherwise result from above average yields. However, 100 percent of the average of the three years is appropriate because the basis of the adjustment is that 1964 is a below normal yield and thus will have reduced the average.

It is normal practice for hops from both existing and planned acreage to be sold on futures contracts, one or more years in advance of actual production. Under such futures contracts, producers incur various costs as well as obligations to deliver. It is also normal for handlers when entering into such contracts with producers to contract for delivery to brewers. With respect to new acreage where no hops were produced in 1964, it would be inequitable to both producers and handlers to deny allotment bases to producers who had made advance contract commitments prior to December 14, 1964. On the other hand, as hereinafter discussed, it would not be equitable to provide allotment bases to producers who entered into advance commitments after December 14, 1964. Such commitments would inflate the total allotment base and thereby penalize all those producers and handlers who in good faith discontinued making commitments. Use of a later date would benefit the few who increased their commitments in anticipation of successfully obtaining a revision in such date.

On such date the Four State Hop Study Group by resolution at a meeting in Portland, Oreg., which was attended by a representative group of growers from all four producing districts as well as by representatives of the two major handlers which handle the substantial majority of U.S. hops, recommended that December 14, 1964, be used as the cutoff date for the purpose of permitting allotments for commitments of new or additional acreage. The meeting and the decisions were well publicized following the December 14, 1964, meeting. The date of December 14, 1964, was contained in the drafts and summaries of the proposed order discussed and distributed to producers by the Four State Hop Study Group in the development of the order and was contained in the notice of hearing.

Commitments made by producers prior to December 14, 1964, to grow or sell hops, from new or additional acreage, should qualify for inclusion in the allotment base and the allotment base for such acreage should be computed by applying to it the average yield of the producer's other 1964 acreage in the same State. This would be the most likely yield from such acreage. However, so that the producer does not receive excessive allotments, annual allotments referable to such allotment base, should not be issued until the first year when hops are produced and baled from such acreages. Determinations as to such commitments should be made by the committee, and approved by the Secretary, and should be based on such things as planting hops, constructing trellis, or entering into bona fide sales contracts.

The Brewers Gold and Bullion type of hops are normally planted one year, and are not put up on trellis and harvested until the second year because of the very low yield normally obtained if they are harvested the same year in which they are planted. In a few cases in 1964, these two varieties were planted and, because of strong demand, harvested the same year even though relatively low yields were obtained. However, yields would not result in an appropriate allotment base. For these reasons, such acreage should be treated the same as new or additional acreage committed prior to December 14, 1964, on which no hops were produced in 1964.

Where the necessary sales or yield data are not available because the producer has no applicable sales history in the State or records are inadequate or yield data are not applicable because of a shift of variety, the 1964 State average yield of the like variety should be applied to such producer's acreage. Generally, hops are produced in a single region of a State and on land permitting yields similar to those of other producers. All allotment bases and adjustments should be based on information obtained by the the committee from handlers and producers, and should be established by the committee and should be subject to approval by the Secretary. The foregoing procedures are necessary to insure careful consideration of each producer's history and establishment of an allotment base for each producer that will result in as equitable an apportionment of the salable quantity as is feasible. The producer's right to retain an allotment base should be based on his continued capability to produce hops. The committee should, with the approval of the Secretary, establish rules and regulations setting forth the conditions under which a producer's allotment base will be revoked.

The order would allot to each individual producer his equitable share of the quantity of hops released for market. It is possible that the demand for hops will increase in the future and when it appears that the long-run level of sales will exceed 100 percent of the total producer allotment base or whenever the Secretary determines that the maintenance of orderly marketing conditions will permit, the committee should be authorized, with the approval of the Secretary, to issue additional allotment bases to either existing or new producers. However, the issuance of such bases should be pursuant to rules and regulations setting forth the basis of issuance and have the approval of the Secretary.

To permit sound administration of the program, it is necessary for each producer to annually advise the committee of the location(s) where he intends to produce his annual allotment, that he recognizes his obligation to report his production to the committee and abide by reserve pooling requirements and other provisions of the part. This should be facilitated by each producer filing a production data form with the committee each year confirming his recognition of obligations incidental to various provisions of the order, prior to the issuance to him of his annual allotment. The committee should then qualify and issue to each producer, his appropriate annual allotment.

Producers have entered into various long-term contracts obligating them to deliver hops in future years, some of these running through the calendar year 1972. It was proposed that these contracts be exempt from quantity limitations if they were so worded as to constitute a legal obligation, after the order was in effect, to deliver a specific quantity of hops from specified acreage, and the contract was effective as of December 14, 1964. However, the delivery was not to exceed 100 percent of the allotment base of the producer. Objections were made, not to the principle of granting the exemption, but rather to the restrictions proposed which would preclude some long-term contracts from being eligible for the exemption. The producers were held to be subject to suit by dealers or brewers demanding full delivery on contracts whether or not permitted by the order. This was proposed to be corrected by permitting a producer with any written contract, with a handler or brewer, to deliver hops if the contract were valid in the absence of the order. The total number of these contracts is not known, nor the poundage of hops thereunder, but the evidence is that the volume of hops under contract decreases sharply beyond 1967. In operation, the proposal would not cause any increase of burden on producers who do not have a contract beyond 1967. Such producers would continue to have their annual allotment determined by the application of the allotment percentage to the individual producer's allotment base. This percentage would be determined, without regard to the long-term contracts, by dividing the total salable quantity by the total producer allotment base. Since substantial interference with contract obligations is not essential to achievement of the objectives of the order and to recognize that producers with long-term contracts generally at fixed prices, or prices determined by formula, will not share in the possible increase in returns on salable hops received by producers without such contracts, a provision to grant the exemption for all contracts on a specific quantity from a specified acreage, which would be valid except for the part, i.e., in the absence of an order, is deemed appropriate and consistent with providing equity of treatment to the producers affected by the order. However, the delivery limitation of 100 percent of the producer's allotment base should be retained to avoid permitting deliveries in excess of the producer's production level (as determined by his allotment base) and to restrict the delivery of indefinite volumes as "overages" when permitted by the contracts.

Provisions should be included in the order for a producer who, despite a bona fide effort, produces less than his annual allotment of hops as a result of conditions reasonably beyond his control, to obtain hops at time of harvest from another producer who has grown supplies in excess of his allotment. The order should not permit a grower to intentionally not produce all or part of his annual allotment and still be qualified to acquire hops from another producer, that would otherwise be reserve hops, as this would permit a windfall to the nonproducer and thereby create a situation objectionable to producers generally. Once a salable quantity has been established for a crop, every effort should be made to place that quantity on the market. In situations such as this, the most expeditious way of doing so would be to provide for free transfers of hops from producers with an excess to producers with deficits in production. Whether a producer has made a reasonable effort to produce his annual allotment should depend on such things as whether he has sufficient hops under trellis to produce his allotment (considering his previous yields), when the hops were planted, and whether he has followed normal commercial practices in growing and harvesting the hops. By time of harvest, the committee members and the manager should have knowledge of where deficits are likely to occur. Also, annual salable allotments would have been made and each producer informed as to the poundage he was entitled to have identified as salable. The exchanges and identification should occur prior to the time excess hops become reserve hops so as to make unnecessary any changes of identification of hops and to freely permit the fulfillment of the salable allotment. However, the committee should be permitted to obtain names, the quantity, and such other information as it may need in order to administer the provision and the release of any of such information shall only be as permitted by the act. Experience may indicate the desirability of changing these requirements and they should, therefore, be subject to modification by the committee with the approval of the Secretary.

If a producer producing less than his annual allotment does not qualify to fill his deficiency with hops from another producer or fails to exercise his option to fill all of his allotment by the date excess hops become reserve hops, he should thereupon be ineligible to acquire hops from another producer. This is necessary to cause valid transactions to be completed prior to the time the reserve pool is established and to preclude producers from using allotments on which they failed to make a bona fide effort to produce the hops. Administration of this provision should be covered by rules and regulations to be prescribed by the committee with the approval of the Secretary.

The committee should set up means to act as a clearing house of information so that it may assist producers and handlers in locating and identifying any excess hops and in obtaining, insofar as practical, the total release of salable hops.

(j) Despite the guides to production created by the order, fluctuating yields and other factors can result in some hops being produced in excess of the salable quantity each year. Provisions should be made for such hops to be placed by producers in a reserve pool managed by the committee and available to it to maintain and expand the demand for hops. Moreover, to minimize the possibility of excess hops entering normal channels of trade, all hops which have been prepared for market and are in excess of a producer's annual allotment should become reserve hops subject to committee control on November 1, and should be delivered to the committee no later than November 15, or such other dates as the committee may prescribe. Contracts with dealers generally require delivery to the dealer by November 1, and hence hops held by producers, in their capacity of handlers of such hops, on and after that date would, in many cases, be reserve hops only. Harvesting and baling operations are completed before this date. Hence, November 1 is a suitable date by which hops in excess of salable will be known and can be placed in the reserve pool. Delivery, storage, and disposition decisions by the committee may differ from year to year and the committee should, therefore, be authorized to establish different dates if necessary. Handlers not wishing to deliver hops to the reserve pool should have the option, prior to the date hops in excess of a producer's allotment become reserve hops, of disposing of such hops in noncompetitive outlets. If a handler decides to so dispose of hops that have already been baled and identified, such disposition and the removal of identification should, for purposes of control, be done at the direction of the committee.

So that due accounting may be made to equity holders, the committee should pool reserve hops in a manner to accurately account for the receipt, storage, and disposition of all hops placed in the pool. Also, to permit disposition of old, deteriorated hops, a separate pool should be used for each crop but, to permit earnings on reserve hops to pay committee pooling expenses, hops of different varieties or having different qualities should all be placed in a common pool of one year. To assure an equitable settlement of pool accounts in terms of the relative values of each lot of hops placed in the pool, the committee should operate the pool in terms of quality categories for each variety and a schedule of relative values. The quality categories should reflect the determinations shown on inspection certificates and any disagreement, other than an error of recording, should be resolved by using the normal appeal procedures of the inspection service.

Since hops deteriorate with age and the order should avoid a further buildup of stocks, each pool should be disposed of by the end of a 12-month period from the date of establishment. However, the committee, with approval of the Secretary, should have the authority to either limit the pooling period to less than 12 months or extend it beyond 12 months depending upon such factors as the overall conditions of supply and demand. Hops in the reserve pool should be disposed of by selling them (1) for use in normal market outlets to meet trade demand requirements not satisfied by salable hops, (2) by release by the committee for use in market development projects, (3) by disposal in nonnormal outlets to the extent that there is clearly no need to hold them in the pool until the expiration of the 12-month or other pool period, or (4) by giving growers an opportunity to exchange salable hops of a quality or variety they hold for an equal quantity of hops from the reserve pool. No such exchange should be authorized until the committee has announced its intentions to close the pool and, so that the exchange may be consummated, such announcement should be not less than 30 days prior to the time the pool is closed. Following completion of any exchange, any remaining hops in the pool should promptly be disposed of in nonnormal outlets.

To enable it to dispose of reserve hops in the best interest of the hop industry and to meet trade demand not satisfied by salable hops, the committee should be authorized to offer to sell hops to handlers from the reserve pool, but each offer should be subject to the disapproval of the Secretary. To permit this to occur, five days should be allowed after he has been notified of the terms of the offer by the committee. This will permit the Secretary time to review the information on which the committee acted and to determine whether the proposal is sound and consistent with the objectives of the order. Provision should be included for the Secretary to indicate approval of such offers in less than five days in order to accommodate situations where prompt reserve releases are in the best interest to the hop industry. For the reasons stated any changes in the terms of an offer should also be subject to the review of the Secretary.

It is possible, that hops which would otherwise go to salvage outlets could be used to some extent by the committee or the handlers in market development. With the committee providing hops from the reserve pool at reduced costs, handlers may be able to carry on their market development efforts on an expanded scale and increase the trade demand for U.S. hops. Therefore, such releases should be authorized either as market development projects of the committee, approved by the Secretary or as offers, for such restricted use, to handlers. When offered to handlers, the same procedure should be used, to permit review and concurrence by the Secretary, as on an offer to supplement salable supplies.

It should be provided that before the disposition of any pool in nonnormal outlets, producers be given an opportunity to exchange the hops they hold for an equal quantity of hops from the reserve pool. Such exchanges would be for the purpose of removing damaged or unsuitable hops from delivery as salable and should be subject to such terms and conditions as the committee, with the approval of the Secretary, establishes to protect the equity holders of the hops in the pool. Such exchanges should not be made until such time as it is apparent that normal sales from the pool had been completed and the remainder of the hops would need to be disposed of as mulch or such other nonnormal outlets.

To minimize pooling expenses, the committee should be authorized, with the approval of the Secretary, to divert excess reserve hops to mulch, fertilizer or other nonnormal outlets soon after delivery of reserve hops to the pool has been completed. Hops of low quality or determined to be in excess of foreseeable needs should not be held to accrue storage and administrative expenses. Moreover, hops remaining at the end of a pooling period should so be disposed of to liquidate the pool and avoid a buildup of holdings of reserve hops.

Proceeds from the distribution of reserve hops in each year's pool, after deduction of committee expenses of pooling, should be paid on a pro rata basis to all producers or equity holders taking into consideration the quality, variety and the relative value the hops credited to each. In the case of a cooperative marketing association of producers, committee expenses may be minimized by paying such pool proceeds to the association for inclusion in its returns to individual producers and such should be done. Operation of the pool, including receiving, handling, storage and disposition will entail a certain amount of expense for which the committee must be reimbursed. Since the committee is prohibited by the act from using administrative assessments to finance pooling costs, the only source of funds to cover such expenses are those derived from sale of hops from the pool or from the participants in the pool. To pay expenses which exceed pool receipts, the committee should have a method of obtaining funds to cover such expenses. Therefore, provisions should be included in the order for the committee to require advances by equity holders to cover anticipated pool expenses. Persons not wishing to participate in the pool and make such advances are provided the option, under the order, of disposing of their hops, under the direction of the committee, on the farm or other nonnormal outlets.

(k) Achievement of the function of the order of limiting the supply of hops for handling by allotting it to producers, requires knowledge of each production location and its output capability. However, a producer should be free to change the location(s) where he grows hops to other land which he owns or leases, whether to shift to a different variety, utilize more efficient land or other reason. The evidence of record indicates that program administration is most practical on hops by binding the allotment to the producer and his continued capability of producing rather than with a particular farm or land. For this reason, the annual allotment should not be used by another person except where the allotment base has been transferred to such producer pursuant to § 991.46. The committee should keep abreast of all changes of location of hop production by such means as are provided in § 991.38(c).

Transfer of allotment bases, in whole or in part, to other producers should be provided for in order to facilitate efficient use of hop production resources and to provide for a continued use of allotment bases when producers retire or otherwise discontinue the production of hops. However, since the committee and the Secretary will have assigned such bases to individual producers, only by an action on their part can a base be transferred to a different producer. Moreover, to be consistent with other order requirements, such transfers of allotment bases should be made only upon the person relinquishing the base so indicating in writing and the applicant for the allotment base assuring the committee and the Secretary that he is capable of producing sufficient hops to use the base.

(l) Operation of the order would involve certain administrative and other expenses. Therefore, the committee should be authorized to incur such expenses as the Secretary finds appropriate under the act. In order for these determinations to be made, the committee should submit a budget for each marketing year to the Secretary along with sufficient explanation of the budgeted items to enable the Secretary to make his determinations. The committee should also recommend an appropriate rate of assessment to obtain the necessary funds on the basis of the estimated salable quantity of the hops to be handled in such year.

The act requires that such expenses be borne by the handlers who are regulated under the program. Each handler should be required to pay to the committee, on demand, his pro rata share of the authorized expenses for each marketing year. Such pro rata share should be the rate of assessment fixed by the Secretary times the number of pounds of salable hops which each handler handles. Assessments should be levied on only the total salable quantity each year, as reserve hops "handled", by virtue of being prepared for market, should not be assessed as they would either go to reserve pool or be disposed in nonnormal outlets. Assessments should be levied on the handler of record acquiring hops of his own production or from the original producer. If funds to operate the program are not available due to an unanticipated reduction in the salable amount, provisions should be included for the Secretary to increase the assessment rate to cover authorized expenses. To cause equitable sharing of expenses, irrespective of the proportion of his needs a handler has acquired, increased rates should apply retroactively to all hops handled during that particular marketing year. There may be years when a short crop or excessively high prices make operation of the regulatory provisions of the proposed program unwarranted, but certain administrative costs would continue and provisions should be made in the order for payment of such expenses as may be necessary to maintain continuity of the committee and administrative functions.

An operating reserve fund, not to exceed approximately one marketing year's operational expenses should be authorized to provide funds for operation during the early months of the marketing year prior to the availability of assessment income from that year's crop and to provide an optional source of funds in marketing years when the assessable quantity is insufficient. The operating reserve should be accumulated by retaining residual funds remaining at the end of each marketing year. When it approaches the maximum authorized amount, or such lower limit as the committee, with the approval of the Secretary, may establish, subsequent assessment rates should be reduced to draw the reserve fund down to the desired level or, where circumstances dictate, the excess assessment money should be refunded to handlers on a pro rata basis, by returning sums which each paid in excess of his share of actual expenses and of the year's addition, if any, to the operating reserve. Only by permitting a refund of excess assessment money can the committee set a target sum in the operating reserve and definitely not exceed it at the end of a season.

Provision should be made, consistent with the concept of pro rata sharing of expenses, for disposition of any unexpended funds on termination of the program to be in such manner as the Secretary may direct but, to the extent practical on a pro rata basis to the persons from whom collected.

(m) The committee would be expected to meet in February and in July to make its preliminary and final marketing policy recommendations for the ensuing marketing year. In considering its marketing policy, the committee will need various statistical information, an important item in setting annual allotments being the quantity of hops held by handlers. Each handler should, therefore, be required to provide the committee with such information as it may request on hops held by him on January 1 and June 1 of each year. Under unusual marketing conditions, the committee may want to consider its marketing policy at other times and provisions should be included for the committee to get such inventory information on other dates if it becomes necessary.

For purposes of marketing policy compliance and as a basis for collection of administrative assessments, the committee should have regular reports from handlers on their receipts of hops from producers. Provisions should be included in the order for each handler to report to the committee on such dates as the committee may designate, identifying marks, variety, weight, place of production, and other necessary information for each lot of hops received. In addition, handlers should file with the committee, upon request, information on the weight and variety of hops acquired from each producer to assist the committee in establishing producer allotment bases.

In addition to these basic reports, the committee should be authorized, with the approval of the Secretary, to obtain other reports from handlers when necessary to enable it to exercise its powers and perform its duties.

For compliance purposes and due opportunity to investigate and audit, records relating to the handling of hops and necessary to substantiate the required reports should be held by all handlers for at least 2 years after the end of the marketing year to which they apply.

Also provision should be made to permit conduct of the audits by the Secretary or committee management of each handler's pertinent records and to examine the hops he receives and has on hand. Such audits would be necessary and should be made to resolve questions of program compliance. All such investigations should be carried out during normal business hours and should be limited to matters relating to administration of the order and regulations issued thereunder.

To protect each handler against disclosure of confidential information regarding his business to his competitors or to unauthorized persons, the order should provide that all reports and records furnished or submitted by handlers to, or obtained by, employees of the committee which contain data or information constituting a trade secret or disclosing the trade position, financial condition, or business operations of the particular handler from whom received, shall be treated as confidential and shall at all times be kept in the custody and under the control of one or more employees of the committee who shall disclose the information to no person other than the Secretary. Committee and Department employees are precluded from disclosing such information by Department regulations and the act. Information on individual handler operations is not needed for marketing policy considerations by members of the committee and the information that is needed should be prepared by committee employees in consolidated form in such a way as not to reveal the position of individual handlers. Since the Secretary's responsibility includes disposition of individual cases of alleged violations of the order, it is necessary that he have access to confidential information relating to individual handlers.

(n) Except for § 991.78(b), the provisions of §§ 991.70 through 991.80, as hereinafter set forth are common to marketing agreements and orders now operating. The provisions of §§ 991.81 and 991.82 as hereinafter set forth are applicable only to marketing agreements and are also generally common to the marketing agreements now operating. These provisions of the marketing agreement and order set forth certain rights, obligations, privileges, or procedures which are necessary and appropriate for effective operation of the program. The provisions are incidental to and not inconsistent with section 8c (6) and (7) of the act and are necessary to effectuate the other provisions of the order and to effectuate the declared policy of the act. Testimony at the hearing supports the inclusion of each of these provisions in the order.

As required by the act, provisions should be included in § 991.78(b) requiring the Secretary to terminate provisions of the order at the end of any fiscal year whenever he finds that such termination is favored by a majority of the producers who during the preceding marketing year produced for market more than 50 percent of the hops so produced. Such determination should be made on the basis of referendum conducted by the Secretary to determine whether the requisite number of producers favor termination of the program. So that due notice is given and producers and handlers may prepare for termination, the referendum should be held not later than October 15 of a marketing year and if termination is favored it should be effective as of the subsequent August 1.

Rulings on proposed findings and conclusions. The Presiding Officer announced at the hearing that interested persons could, not later than May 7, 1965, file with the Hearing Clerk proposed findings and conclusions, and written arguments or briefs, based on evidence received at the hearing. Briefs were filed by the United States Brewers Association, Washington State Hop Producers, Inc., S. S. Steiner, Inc., John I. Haas, Inc., L. Oppenheimer and Co., Inc., J. Sonnenschein Hop Co., Inc., Hans Hinrichs Co., Inc., John Barth, Inc., George Segal Co., Inc., F. Bing, Inc., M. Weilheimer, Inc., Keller Hops Co., Inc., Hops Extract Corporation of America, The Free Enterprise Hop Committee (a group of hop growers), Yakima Chief Ranches, Newhouse Farms, Clover Meadows Ranch, and Jack Miller (a group of hop growers), Carl Weathers, Donald Weathers, Annen Bros., and John Coleman (a group of hop growers), and the proponent hop growers.

Each point included in the briefs was carefully considered, along with the evidence in the record, in making the findings and reaching the conclusions hereinbefore set forth. To the extent that any suggested findings or conclusions contained in any of the briefs are inconsistent with the findings and conclusions contained herein, the request to make such findings or to reach such conclusions is denied on the basis of the facts found and stated in connection with this recommended decision.

General findings. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing, and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The marketing agreement and order, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The said marketing agreement and order regulate the handling of hops grown in the production area in the same manner as, and are applicable only to persons in the respective classes of commercial or industrial activity specified in, a proposed marketing agreement and order upon which a hearing has been held;

(3) The said marketing agreement and order are limited in their application to the smallest regional production area which is practicable, consistent with carrying out the declared policy of the act, and the issuance of several orders applicable to subdivisions of the production area would not effectively carry out the declared policy of the act;

(4) There are no differences in the production and marketing of hops grown in the production area which make necessary different terms and provisions applicable to different parts of such area; and

(5) All handling of hops grown in the production area, as defined in said marketing agreement and order, is in the current of interstate or foreign commerce or directly burdens, obstructs, or affects such commerce.

Positions 1 and 2 shall be for cooperative producers in District No. 1, positions 3 through 7 shall be for independent producers in District 1. Positions 8 and 9 shall be for District 2 producers, 10 and 11 for District 3 producers, and 12 and 13 for District 4 producers.

Each member and alternate of the committee shall be at the time of his selection and during his term of office, a producer, or an officer or employee of a producer, in the district for which selected and shall not be a full time employee of a cooperative hop marketing association.

[1] Sections 991.81 and 991.82 apply only to the proposed marketing agreement and not to the proposed order.

§ 991.17 Nominations.

(a) General. Growers in each district shall nominate persons for each committee member and each alternate position in their respective districts as prescribed in § 991.15. Nominations shall be certified by the committee and submitted to the Secretary by December 1 of each year, together with information deemed by the committee to be pertinent or requested by the Secretary. If nominations for any position are not submitted in the specified manner by such date, the Secretary may select the representative for that position without nomination.

Names of producer candidates to be included on the ballot for each district shall include names submitted to the committee by the principal grower organization in each district, and shall also include names submitted by petition signed by 10 producers in each such district, except that nominees for positions 1 and 2 shall be submitted directly to the committee for certification to the Secretary by the cooperative associations. Ballots containing the names of the candidates and a blank space for write-in candidates for each position, together with voting instructions, shall be mailed to all growers of record except cooperative growers in District 1. The eligible person receiving the highest number of votes for a member or alternate position shall be the nominee for that position. Only producers eligible to serve on the committee from the district in which the nominations are being conducted shall be eligible to vote, and each producer shall have one vote for each position to be filled. No producer shall participate in the election of nominees in more than one district. If the Secretary concludes, on the basis of a recommendation of the committee, that this procedure is unsatisfactory, or should be changed for any reason, he may change this procedure through formulation and issuance of superseding regulations.

§ 991.18 Procedure.

At an assembled meeting, all votes shall be cast in person and 10 members of the committee shall constitute a quorum. Decisions of the committee shall require the concurring vote of at least 9 members. If both a committee member and his alternate are unable to attend a committee meeting, the committee may designate any other alternate from the same district who is present at the meeting to serve in the member's place. The committee may vote by mail, telephone, telegraph, or other means of communications: Provided, That each proposition is explained accurately, fully and identically to each member. All votes shall be confirmed in writing. A reasonable time limit may be set by the committee for receipt of written confirmation. Ten concurring votes and no dissenting vote shall be required for approval of a committee action by such method.

§ 991.19 Powers.

The committee shall have the following powers:

(a) To administer this subpart in accordance with its terms and provisions;

(b) To make rules and regulations to effectuate the terms and provisions of this subpart;

(c) To receive, investigate, and report to the Secretary complaints of violations of this part;

(d) To keep minutes, books, and records which will reflect all of the acts and transactions of the committee and which shall be subject to examination by the Secretary;

(e) To prepare periodic statements of the financial operations of the committee and to make copies of each such statement available to producers and handlers for examination at the office of the committee;

(f) To cause the books of the committee to be audited by a certified public accountant at least once each marketing year and at such other times as the committee may deem necessary, or as the Secretary may request, to submit two copies of each such audit report to the Secretary, and to make available a copy which does not contain confidential data for inspection at the offices of the committee by producers and handlers;

(g) To act as intermediary between the Secretary and any producer or handler;

(h) To investigate and assemble data on the growing, handling, and marketing conditions with respect to hops;

(i) To submit to the Secretary such available information as he may request or the committee may deem desirable and pertinent;

(j) To notify producers and handlers of all meetings of the committee to consider recommendations for regulations and of all regulatory actions taken affecting producers and handlers;

(k) To give the Secretary the same notice of meetings of the committee and its subcommittees as is given to its members; and

(l) To investigate compliance and use means available to prevent violations of the provisions of this part.

HOP MARKETING ADVISORY BOARD

§ 991.22 Establishment and membership.

A Hop Marketing Advisory Board (hereinafter referred to as "board") consisting of 5 members, each of whom shall have an alternate, is hereby established to advise and assist the committee. Positions 1, 2, and 3 shall be for the 3 handlers who handled the largest quantity of hops during the preceding fiscal year. Position 4 shall be for all other handlers, other than extractors. Position 5 shall be for extractors of hops.

§ 991.23 Nomination.

Nominations for the respective positions shall be made by the handler or handlers involved and shall be submitted to the committee for transmission to the Secretary, together with information deemed by the committee to be pertinent or requested by the Secretary.

§ 991.24 Duties.

The duties of the board shall consist of selecting from its members such officers, establishing such bylaws as it deems necessary for performing its functions, making recommendations with respect to marketing policies, and the consideration of such other matters as it may deem advisable or the committee may request.

COMMITTEE AND BOARD

§ 991.25 Selection and term of office.

(a) Selection. Committee and board members shall be selected by the Secretary from nominees submitted by the committee or from among other eligible persons. Each person so selected shall qualify by filing a written acceptance with the Secretary prior to assuming the duties of the position.

(b) Term of office. The terms of office of committee members shall be for a period of 2 calendar years except that the term of office of committee members holding odd numbered positions shall, commencing with the 1967 calendar year, end on December 31 of odd numbered years, and committee members holding even numbered positions as set forth in § 991.15 shall end on December 31 of even numbered years. The term of office of board members shall be 2 calendar years ending on December 31 of even numbered years. Committee and board members shall serve for the term of office for which they are selected and have qualified and until their respective successors are selected and have qualified.

§ 991.26 Alternate members.

An alternate for a member shall act in the place of such member (a) in his absence or (b) in the event of his death, removal, resignation, or disqualification, until a successor for his unexpired term has been selected and has qualified.

§ 991.27 Vacancy.

Any vacancy occasioned by the death, removal, resignation, or disqualification of any committee or board member, shall be recognized by the committee certifying to the Secretary a successor for the unexpired term, unless selection is deemed unnecessary by the Secretary.

§ 991.28 Expenses.

Members of the committee, board, and their subcommittees shall serve without compensation but shall receive such allowances for necessary expenses incurred in connection with their duties as may be approved by the committee.

RESEARCH

§ 991.30 Marketing research and development projects.

The committee, with the approval of the Secretary, may establish or provide for the establishment of marketing research and development projects designed to assist, improve, or promote the marketing, distribution, and consumption of hops. The expense of such projects shall be paid from funds collected pursuant to § 991.56, but the expenses of any projects involving reserve hops shall be allocated, if appropriate, in whole or in part, to funds obtained from the disposition of such reserve hops. Hops grown or used for research purposes may be exempted from regulation.

QUALITY REGULATION, INSPECTION AND IDENTIFICATION

§ 991.31 Quality regulation.

Upon recommendation of the committee, the Secretary shall establish such minimum standards of quality for hops in terms of their leaf and stem content and other quality factors as will tend to effectuate the objectives of this part and the declared policy of the act and no handler shall handle hops which fail to meet such standards. Hops failing to meet such standards shall be considered "substandard" hops and, except for disposition within a producer's farming operations, shall not be disposed of to persons other than the committee or its designees.

§ 991.32 Inspection and identification.

No handler shall handle, nor the committee receive for reserve pooling, hops which have not been inspected for leaf, stem and seed content, identified as prescribed by the committee, and when minimum quality requirements are issued pursuant to § 991.31, inspected and certified as meeting such requirements. Inspection and certification shall be by a Federal-State inspection service and the cost borne by the applicant. Inspection and identification shall be completed prior to November 15 or other date established pursuant to § 991.39. Such identification shall not be altered or removed by any handler while in his control.

§ 991.33 Hops baled prior to effective date of this subpart.

Any producer having hops baled prior to the effective date of this subpart is entitled, upon application to the committee within 30 days after such date, to have such hops identified as free of regulation under this subpart, at no expense to himself, and any handler may then handle such hops. Hops held by handlers on the effective date of this subpart are also exempt from regulation under this subpart.

VOLUME LIMITATIONS

§ 991.36 Marketing policy.

As soon in the calendar year as practicable, but no later than March 1, or such other date as the committee with the approval of the Secretary may establish, the committee shall meet and adopt its preliminary marketing policy for the ensuing marketing year. At such meeting, the committee shall consider the recommendations of the Board, the quantity of hops that should be made available for marketing to meet market requirements and establish orderly marketing conditions, the prospective carryin of producers, handlers, and brewers, the desirable carryout, the prospective imports, and other factors affecting marketing conditions. If these considerations indicate a need for limiting the quantity of hops marketed, the committee shall adopt a preliminary salable quantity and allotment percentage for the ensuing crop. Prior to August 1 of each year, the committee shall review its preliminary marketing policy and, if conditions warrant, recommend establishment of a salable quantity and allotment percentage for the ensuing crop. Notice of the preliminary marketing policy for a marketing year and any later changes shall be submitted promptly to the Secretary and all producers and handlers.

§ 991.37 Establishment.

(a) Action by the Secretary. Whenever the Secretary finds, on the basis of the committee's recommendation or other information, that limiting the quantity of hops available for handling from the production of a calendar year would tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act, he shall determine the salable quantity for such crop which handlers may handle. The salable quantity shall be pro rated among producers by applying an allotment percentage to each producer's allotment base established pursuant to § 991.38. The allotment percentage shall be established by the Secretary and shall be equal to the salable quantity divided by the total producer allotment base. No handler may handle hops other than salable hops determined and identified pursuant to the provisions of this part except that a producer-handler may prepare hops for market.

(b) Limitations on allotment percentage. The allotment percentage applicable to the 1965 crop shall be not less than 100 percent. However, unless such is established prior to August 15, 1965, there shall be no allotment percentage applicable to the 1965 crop. No allotment percentage applicable to the 1966 or 1967 crop shall be less than 95 percent.

§ 991.38 Allotment of salable quantity.

(a) Allotment bases. Each producer's allotment base shall be 93 percent of the amount of hops sold (which for purpose of this section shall include hops used commercially of own production) by such producer during the 1964–65 marketing year. However, in order to equitably apportion among producers the total quantity of hops which handlers may acquire from them, hops sold by the producer during the 1964–65 marketing year of other than his 1964 production shall not be included in his allotment base and hops from his 1964 production remaining for sale at the end of the 1964–65 marketing year shall be included in his allotment base. Where such adjustments fail to result in equitable apportionment due to such factors as adverse weather, disease or pesticide residues in 1964–65, the committee, with the approval of the Secretary, shall increase such base to the higher of (1) 93 percent of the highest average amount per acre available for sale from either his 1962 or 1963 harvested acreage as applied to his 1964 acreage, or (2) 100 percent of the average amount per acre available for sale from his 1962, 1963, and 1964 harvested acreage as applied to his 1964 acreage. In the case of producers with new or additional acreage, on which no hops were produced in 1964, that was committed prior to December 14, 1964, to the growing and marketing of hops by such things as planting hops, constructing trellis, or entering into a bona fide contract to market hops from new or additional acreage, an allotment base for such acreage shall be computed by applying to it the average yield referable to the allotment base on the producer's other 1964 acreage in the same State: Except, That no annual allotment on that portion of an allotment base derived from such acreage shall be issued until the year when hops are first produced and baled from such acreage. Acreage of Bullion or Brewers Gold variety hops planted and harvested in 1964, shall be treated the same as committed acreage having no production. Where the necessary yield data are not available because the producer has no applicable sales history in the State or records are inadequate, or yield data are not applicable because of a shift in variety, the 1964 State average yield of the like variety shall be applied. All allotment bases and adjustments shall be based on reports from handlers, producer certifications, and other information available to the committee and the Secretary at the time when bases are established. It shall be the responsibility of the committee to establish, with the approval of the Secretary, each eligible producer's allotment base. The right of each producer, based on a continuing capability to produce hops, to retain his allotment base shall be subject to such rules and regulations as the committee, with the approval of the Secretary, prescribes.

(b) Additional allotment bases. Whenever it appears that over the long-run the salable quantity will be at a level exceeding the total producer allotment base or whenever the Secretary determines that it will not interfere with the maintenance of orderly marketing conditions, the committee may issue additional allotment bases pursuant to this subpart and such rules and regulations as are prescribed with the approval of the Secretary.

(c) Issuance of annual allotments to producers. As early as practicable, in each year, the committee shall furnish each producer a qualification form. Such form shall contain space for the producer to show changes in the locations, if any, where he intends to produce his annual allotment, an agreement by the producer to report his production to the committee, to abide by reserve pooling requirements and such other requirements as are necessary to carry out the provisions of this part. Such form shall be used by the committee to qualify and issue to each producer his appropriate annual allotment which shall be the allotment percentage times his allotment base: Provided, That a producer who, except for this part, is legally obligated to deliver a specific quantity of hops from specified acreage of his own production pursuant to the terms of a written contract entered into prior to, and effective as of December 14, 1964, and calling for delivery of crops produced no later than 1972 shall be permitted to deliver such hops to fulfill such contract terms up to, but not in excess of, 100 percent of the allotment base established for him.

(d) Filling deficiencies in salable quantity. (1) A producer who produced less than his annual allotment under conditions where he had sufficient hops under trellis to produce his allotment, taking into consideration his previous average yield and the year in which the hops were planted, and who according to normal commercial practice, makes a bona fide effort to grow and harvest the hops from such acreage, may prior to the date excess hops become reserve hops pursuant to § 991.39, fill any deficit in his allotment, by acquiring hops from another producer that are in excess of such other producer's annual allotment and the committee may require a full report of the transaction including the names of both parties, the quantity and such other information as will enable the committee to administer this provision. These requirements may be modified by the committee, with the approval of the Secretary .

(2) A producer producing less than his annual allotment and who meets the above qualifications but does not exercise his option to fill the deficit in his allotment by the date excess hops become reserve hops pursuant to § 991.39 or who fails to meet all of the above qualifications shall be ineligible to acquire excess hops. Administration of this provision shall be in accordance with such rules and regulations as the committee may prescribe with the approval of the Secretary.

(e) Information. As a service to growers and handlers, the committee may act as a clearing house of information on production and the availability of hops in excess of salable. Such information shall be available at the committee office to any producer or handler upon request.

Reserve Pool

§ 991.39 Reserve hops.

Hops baled, packaged, processed, or otherwise prepared for market that are in excess of an effective individual producer annual allotment and are held by any producer, in his capacity as a handler of such hops, on November 1, shall be reserve hops. No such handler shall ship or deliver reserve hops to other than the committee or its designees and such shall occur not later than November 15, or such other date as the committee may prescribe. However, any such handler, may arrange to dispose of such hops, under the direction of the committee, in nonnormal outlets.

§ 991.40 Reserve pool requirements.

(a) General. The committee shall pool reserve hops in a manner to accurately account for their receipt, storage, and disposition. The committee may establish categories for various qualities or varieties of pooled hops and a schedule of relative values for settlement of pool accounts. Reserve hops from each crop shall be pooled separately.

(b) Disposition. The committee shall endeavor to dispose of each reserve pool during the 12-month period following the date established in § 991.39 for delivery of reserve hops to the committee or its designees or such other period as the committee, with the approval of the Secretary, may establish to recognize such factors as supply and demand conditions. Such hops may be disposed of as follows:

(1) Normal market outlets. The committee may offer reserve hops for purchase by handlers and use in normal market outlets when necessary to meet trade demand requirements not satisfied by salable hops. No such offer to sell reserve hops to handlers shall be made by the committee until 5 days (exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays) have elapsed from the time it files with the Secretary complete information as to the terms of such offer, and the Secretary may disapprove the offer or any term thereof: Provided, That at any time prior to the expiration of the 5-day period, the offer may be made to handlers upon the committee receiving from the Secretary notice that he does not disapprove the making of the offer. Subject to the same conditions as are set forth in the preceding sentence with respect to the making of such offers, the committee may withdraw an offer to sell reserve hops to handlers or may extend the offer period.

(2) Market development. Reserve hops may be released by the committee for use in a market development project approved by the Secretary or offered to handlers for such restricted use in the same manner as in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

(3) Exchange. Prior to disposing of any pool in nonnormal outlets, salable hops held by growers which are damaged or otherwise unsuitable may be exchanged for reserve hops in the pool. All such exchanges shall be subject to such terms and conditions as the committee, with the approval of the Secretary, may establish.

(4) Nonnormal outlets. The committee may at any time, with the approval of the Secretary, dispose of reserve hops, determined to be in excess of foreseeable needs, in mulch, fertilizer, or other nonnormal outlets and shall so dispose of reserve hops on which the pooling period has terminated.

(c) Distribution of pool proceeds. The proceeds from the disposition of reserve hops from each pool after deduction of any expense incurred by the committee in receiving, handling, holding, or disposition thereof, shall be distributed to the respective equity holders or their successors in interest on the basis of the quality, variety and the number of pounds credited to each account in the pool, except that distribution of the proceeds to members of cooperative hop marketing associations shall be made to such association. The committee may require advances by equity holders of anticipated expenses at the time hops are pooled.

Transfers

§ 991.45 Transferring of locations.

A producer may change the location(s) where he produces his annual allotment to other land which he owns or leases but such shall not be recognized as extending to the land of another person except in conjunction with the transfer of an allotment base pursuant to § 991.46. The committee shall, by such means as are provided in § 991.38(c), obtain information as to the location(s) where each producer intends to produce each allotment.

§ 991.46 Transfer of producer allotment bases.

The committee, with the approval of the Secretary, may transfer, upon request, part or all of an allotment base from one producer to another and such will be done only upon the person relinquishing the base so indicating in writing and the person desiring the allotment base furnishing such information as the committee and the Secretary deems necessary to assure that he is capable of producing sufficient hops to use such base.

Expenses and Assessments

§ 991.55 Expenses.

The committee is authorized to incur such expenses as the Secretary finds are reasonable and likely to be incurred by it during each marketing year for the maintenance and functioning of the committee and for such other purposes as the Secretary may, pursuant to the provisions of this subpart, determine to be appropriate. The committee, shall submit to the Secretary a budget for each marketing year, including an explanation of the items appearing therein, and a recommendation as to the rate of assessment for such year.

§ 991.56 Assessments.

(a) Requirements for payment. Each handler shall pay to the committee upon demand, his pro rata share of the expenses authorized by the Secretary for each marketing year. Each handler's pro rata share shall be the rate of assessment per pound fixed by the Secretary times the quantity of salable hops which he handles. At any time during or after a marketing year, the Secretary may increase the rate of assessment as necessary to cover authorized expenses. The payment of expenses for the maintenance and functioning of the committee may be required during periods when no regulations are in effect.

(b) Excess funds. At the end of a marketing year, funds in excess of the year's expenses shall be placed in an operating reserve not to exceed approximately one marketing year's operational expenses or such lower limits as the committee, with the approval of the Secretary, may establish. Funds in such reserve shall be available for use by the committee for expenses authorized pursuant to § 991.55. Funds in excess of those placed in the operating reserve shall be refunded to handlers. Each handler's share of such excess shall be the amount of assessments he paid in excess of his pro rata share of the actual expenses of the committee and the addition, if any, to the operating reserve.

(c) Accounting of funds upon termination of order. Any money collected as assessments hereunder and remaining unexpended in the possession of the committee or a succeeding board of trustees after termination of this part shall be distributed in such manner as the Secretary may direct, provided that to the extent practical, such funds shall be returned pro rata to the persons from whom such funds were collected.

REPORTS AND RECORDS

§ 991.60 Reports.

(a) Inventory. Each handler shall file with the committee a certified report, showing such information as the committee may specify with respect to any hops which were held by him on January 1, and June 1, and such other dates as the committee may designate.

(b) Receipts. Each handler shall file with the committee a certified report showing for each lot of hops received, the identifying marks, variety, weight, place of production, and the producer's name and address on such dates as the committee may designate. For the purpose of establishing allotments pursuant to § 991.38, each handler shall file with the committee, upon request, information as to the weight and variety of hops which he acquired from each producer.

(c) Other reports. Upon the request of the committee, with the approval of the Secretary, each handler shall furnish to the committee such other information as may be necessary to enable it to exercise its powers and perform its duties under this part.

§ 991.61 Records.

Each handler shall maintain such records pertaining to the handling of hops as will substantiate the required reports. All such records shall be maintained for not less than 2 years after the end of the marketing year to which they apply.

§ 991.62 Verification of reports and records.

For the purpose of assuring compliance with record keeping requirements and verifying reports filed by producers and handlers, the Secretary and the committee through its duly authorized employees, shall have access to any premises where applicable records are maintained, or where hops are received or held, and at any time during reasonable business hours shall be permitted to inspect such handler premises, and any and all records of such handlers with respect to matters within the purview of this part.

§ 991.63 Confidential information.

All reports and records furnished or submitted by handlers to, or obtained by the employees of, the committee which contain data or information constituting a trade secret or disclosing the trade position, financial condition, or business operations of the particular handler from whom received, shall be treated as confidential and the reports and all information obtained from records shall at all times be kept in the custody and under the control of one or more employees of the committee who shall disclose such information to no person other than the Secretary.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 991.71 Rights of the Secretary.

Members of the committee and the board, and any agents, employees, or representatives thereof, shall be subject to removal or suspension by the Secretary at any time. Each and every decision, determination, and other act of the committee shall be subject to the continuing right of disapproval by the Secretary at any time. Upon such disapproval, the disapproved action of the committee shall be deemed null and void, except as to acts done in reliance thereon or in accordance therewith prior to such disapproval by the Secretary.

§ 991.72 Derogation.

Nothing contained in this part is, or shall be construed to be, in derogation or in modification of the rights of the Secretary or of the United States (a) to exercise any powers granted by the act or otherwise, or (b) in accordance with such powers, to act in the premises whenever such action is deemed advisable.

§ 991.73 Agents.

§ 991.76 Separability.

If any provision of this part is declared invalid or the applicability thereof to any person, circumstance, or thing is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this part or the applicability thereof to any other person, circumstance, or thing shall not be affected thereby.

§ 991.77 Effective time.

The provisions of this part, and of any amendment thereto, shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare above his signature and shall continue in force until terminated in one of the ways specified in § 991.78.

(b) Referendum. The Secretary shall terminate the provisions of this subpart at the end of any marketing year whenever he finds that such termination is favored by a majority of the producers who during the preceding marketing year produced for market more than 50 percent of the volume of hops so produced: Provided, That any referendum by the Secretary to determine whether producers favor termination of this part shall be held during the first 15 days of October, and if termination is favored, it shall be effective as of the subsequent August 1.

(c) Termination of act. The provisions of this subpart shall, in any event, terminate whenever the provisions of the act authorizing them cease to be in effect.

The public hearing is for the purpose of receiving evidence with respect to the economic and marketing conditions which relate to the proposed amendments hereinafter set forth, and any appropriate modifications thereof, to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order.

The proposed amendments, set forth below, have not received the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture.

Proposed by Eastern Milk Producers Cooperative Association, Inc.:

Proposal No. 1. Revoke the provisions of §§ 1002.81, 1002.66(b) and the reference to § 1002.81 in other provisions of the order and add a new § 1002.81 to read as follows:

§ 1002.81 Marketing service deduction—nonmembers of an association of producers.

In making payments to producers pursuant to § 1002.70, each handler shall, with respect to all milk delivered by each producer other than himself during each month deduct (insert here amount of the maximum deduction as adduced from the hearing record to be proper) cents per hundredweight, or such lesser amount as the Secretary shall determine to be sufficient, and shall, on or before the (day to be established from record of hearing) day after the end of each month, pay such deductions to the market administrator. Such moneys shall be expended by the market administrator only in providing for market information, and for verification of weights, samples, and tests of milk delivered by such producers. The market administrator may contract with an association or associations of producers for the furnishing of the whole or any part of such services to, or with respect to the milk delivered by, such producers.

Proposed by Messrs. Willard P. Foster, J. Riker Robinson, Everett Dence, Paul Doran, Howard Makela, Morris Fluker, and Murray Grodman:

Proposal No. 2. (A) Revise § 1002.81 in accordance with proposal No. 1 with a rate of deduction from nonmembers not to exceed 1 cent per hundredweight.

(B) In the alternative, establish a nonprofit cooperative foundation to be named (for example) "Order No. 2 Market Service Association" as follows:

1. The purposes of the Association will be to engage in (1) research activities under Order No. 2; (2) presentation of results at hearings, etc., under the order, and recommendations for amendments; (3) educational activities with respect to the foregoing.

2. The Association will be financed by payments of not to exceed $0.01 per hundredweight out of the producer-settlement fund.

3. Policy will be established by the Board of Directors consisting of three members from each cooperative or federation of over 1,000 in membership; except that if there are only three such associations, one shall be entitled to a fourth member. The association entitled to a fourth member shall change from year to year according to the alphabetical order of such associations. The Board of Directors shall also include members appointed by the Secretary of Agriculture from the staff of land-grant colleges within the milkshed to represent the general public, including (a) cooperatives or federations of not more than 1,000 in membership, unaffiliated with any other federation, and (b) producers not affiliated with any cooperative association: Provided, however, That directors so appointed shall constitute one-fifth of the entire number of directors.

4. Economic and Legal: Each cooperative or federation of over 1,000 shall be entitled to be represented on the Economist Committee by one economist. Similarly, the Legal Committee. Each representative shall draw 50 percent of his salary from the group which he represents and 50 percent from the new Association. The office staff shall be persons employed and paid for exclusively by the Association, not affiliated with any single cooperative.

5. Education and Information: This work shall be conducted by persons employed exclusively by the Association and not affiliated with any single cooperative, and paid for entirely by the Association.

6. No other activities shall be engaged in.

Proposed by Milk Dealers' Association of Metropolitan New York, Inc.; Sealtest Foods, Metropolitan Division of National Dairy Products Corp.; and New York State Milk Distributors, Inc. (except the Dairymen's League):

Proposal No. 3. Revoke § 1002.81 Cooperative payments for marketwide services, §1002.66(b), and other references to § 1002.81.

Add a new § 1002.73 to read as follows:

§ 1002.73 Marketing service deductions.

(a) In making the payments required under §§ 1002.70, 1002.71, and 1002.72 to producers, other than himself and any producer who is a member of a cooperative association which the Secretary determines is performing the services specified in this section, each handler shall deduct (the number of cents to be based on evidence presented at the hearing) cents per hundredweight, or such lesser rate as the Secretary shall determine to be sufficient for marketing services. The handlers shall pay the amount deducted to the market administrator on or before the 18th day after the end of the month.

(b) The market administrator shall expend amounts received under paragraph (a) of this section only in providing for market information to such producers and for verification of weights, samples, and tests of milk received from them. The market administrator may contract with a cooperative association or an agency of the State in which the nonmember producer resides for the furnishing of the whole or any part of these services.

Proposed by Inter-State Milk Producers' Cooperative:

Proposal No. 4. Revoke the provisions of § 1002.81, Cooperative payments for marketwide services, and add a new § 1002.81, Marketing services, as follows:

§ 1002.81 Marketing services.

(a) Except as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, each handler, in making payments directly to producers for milk other than milk of his own production, shall deduct $0.05 per hundredweight or such lesser amount as the Secretary may prescribe and shall pay such deductions to the market administrator, on or before the 18th day after the end of the month. Such money shall be expended by the market administrator to provide market information and to verify the weights, samples, and tests of milk of producers who are not receiving such services from a cooperative association; and

(b) In the case of producers for whom the Secretary determines a cooperative association is actually performing the services set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, each handler shall make, in lieu of the deduction specified in paragraph (a) of this section, such deductions from the payments to be made directly to such producers as are authorized by agreement between such producers and the cooperative rendering such services, on or before the 18th day after the end of each month, and pay such deductions to such cooperative.

Make such other changes in order 2 as are necessary to coordinate all other provisions in connection with the addition of proposed § 1002.81.

Proposed by New England Milk Producers' Association:

Proposal No. 5. Eliminate from Federal milk order No. 2 the provisions concerning cooperative payments for marketing services and substitute therefor provisions for a marketing service program by the market administrator for producers who are not members of cooperative associations which the Secretary determines are providing market information to and verifying weights, samples, and tests for their members, the cost of providing these services to nonmember producers to be borne by a deduction of 3 cents a hundredweight on milk received from these producers or such lesser rate as the Secretary determines to be sufficient, such sums to be paid to the market administrator as compensation for such services to nonmember producers.

FEDERAL AVIATION AGENCY

[14 CFR Part 71]

[Airspace Docket No. 65-CE-69]

CONTROL ZONE AND TRANSITION AREA

Proposed Alteration

The Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations which would alter controlled airspace in the Miles City, Mont., terminal area.

The following airspace is presently designated in the Miles City terminal area:

(1) The Miles City, Mont., control zone is designated as that airspace within a 5-mile radius of Miles City Airport (latitude 46°25'40'' N., longitude 105°53'10'' W.); within 2 miles each side of the 251° bearing from the Miles City RBN, extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 8 miles SW of the RBN; and within 2 miles each side of the Miles City VORTAC 226° radial, extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 12 miles SW of the VORTAC.

(2) The Miles City, Mont., transition area is designated as that airspace extending upward from 700 feet above the surface within a 7-mile radius of Miles City Airport (latitude 46°25'40'' N., longitude 105°53'10'' W.); and that airspace extending upward from 1,200 feet above the surface within a 23-mile radius of the Miles City VORTAC extending clockwise from the Miles City VORTAC 241° to the 156° radials and within a 30 mile radius of the Miles City VORTAC, extending clockwise from the Miles City VORTAC 156° to the 241° radials.

The Federal Aviation Agency, having completed a comprehensive review of the terminal airspace structural requirements in the Miles City, Mont., terminal area, as a result of the recent cancellation of the jet penetration procedures and the development of arc approach procedures for the Miles City Airport, proposes the following airspace action:

(1) Alter the Miles City, Mont. control zone by redesignating it as that airspace within a 5-mile radius of Miles City Airport (latitude 46°25'40'' N., longitude 105°53'10'' W.); and within 2 miles each side of the 252° bearing from the Miles City RBN extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 8 miles SW of the RBN; and within 2 miles each side of the Miles City VORTAC 226° radial extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 8 miles SW of the VORTAC.

(2) Alter the Miles City, Mont. transition area by redesignating it as that airspace extending upward from 700 feet above the surface within an 8-mile radius of Miles City Airport (latitude 46°25'40'' N., longitude 105°53'10'' W.); and that airspace extending upward from 1,200 feet above the surface within a 17-mile radius of the Miles City VORTAC south of V–120 and within a 22-mile radius of the Miles City VORTAC north of the south edge of V–120.

The proposed control zone modification reduces the extension based on the VORTAC from 12 to 8 miles southwest of the VORTAC because cancellation of the jet penetration procedure eliminates the requirement for the longer extension.

The 8-mile radius transition area with a 700-foot floor would provide controlled airspace protection for aircraft executing prescribed instrument approach procedures during descent from 1,500 to 1,000 feet above the surface and for aircraft making random departures during climb from 700 to 1,200 feet above the surface.

It is proposed to reduce the overall size of the 1,200-foot floor transition area as a result of the cancellation of the jet penetration procedure. The proposed configuration would provide controlled airspace protection for aircraft executing prescribed instrument approach procedures during the portions of their approaches executed at and above 1,500 feet above the surface. It would also provide controlled airspace protection for aircraft holding at the Miles City VORTAC and radio beacon.

Certain minor revisions to the prescribed instrument approach procedures would be effected in conjunction with the actions proposed herein, but operational complexity would not be increased nor would aircraft performance or present landing minimums be adversely affected.

The floors of the airways that traverse the transition areas proposed herein would automatically coincide with the floors of the transition areas.

Specific details of the changes to procedures that would be required may be examined by contacting the Chief, Airspace Branch, Air Traffic Division, Central Region, Federal Aviation Agency, 4825 Troost Avenue, Kansas City, Mo., 64110.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views, or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Director, Central Region, Attention: Chief, Air Traffic Division, Federal Aviation Agency, 4825 Troost Avenue, Kansas City, Mo., 64110. All communications received within 45 days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Division Chief. Any data, views, or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The public Docket will be available for examination by interested persons in the office of the Regional Counsel, Federal Aviation Agency, 4825 Troost Avenue, Kansas City, Mo., 64110.

This amendment is proposed under the authority of section 307(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (49 U.S.C. 1348).

Issued at Kansas City, Mo., on June 7, 1965.

EDWARD C. MARSH,
Director, Central Region.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES FOR THE LICENSING AND REGULATION OF RADIOACTIVE MATERIALS

FOREWORD

These documents present a brief description of the practices, capabilities, and proposed activities of the Radiological Health Service, Tennessee Department of Public Health, insofar as they would relate to assumption of certain regulatory functions of the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission.

Under section 274 of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954 as amended, the Atomic Energy Commission is authorized to enter into agreement with the Governor of a State, whereby it may transfer certain licensing and regulatory control of byproduct, source, and special nuclear materials, in quantities not sufficient to form a critical mass, to a State. Relinquishment of such authority by the Atomic Energy Commission and subsequent assumption by the State is made when the Atomic Energy Commission has evaluated and accepted the competency of the State to administer such licensing and regulatory authority; and certain authorities are reserved to the Atomic Energy Commission.

The Tennessee Act of 1957 entitled Atomic Energy and Nuclear Materials, as amended in 1961, authorizes the Governor of Tennessee to enter an agreement with the Atomic Energy Commission relating to the regulation of byproduct, source, and special nuclear material and to appoint a radiation advisory group. The Radiological Health Service Act of 1959 and as amended in 1961 and in 1963 designates the Tennessee Department of Public Health as the department responsible for the control of ionizing radiation; makes mandatory the registration of all sources of radiation except those which are licensed or exempted under the rules and regulations of the Tennessee Department of Public Health. Further the Radiological Health Service Act authorizes the department to formulate rules and regulations necessary for the control of ionizing radiation.

To this narrative are attached the Radiological Health Service Act, the Atomic Energy and Nuclear Materials Act, and the various resumes, regulations, and outlines of proposed practices and activities to be undertaken by the Radiological Health Service, Tennessee Department of Public Health, pursuant to an agreement between the Atomic Energy Commission and the Governor of Tennessee.

History. The first attention given to problems created by ionizing radiation in Tennessee came in 1945 with the passage of the State Industrial Hygiene Service Act. Consideration was then given to industrial radiation exposures along with other problems of occupational health. This included problems of radiation exposures in the work areas from radiographic testing and exposures from X-ray machines as used in industrial clinics.

The next year, the U.S. Atomic Energy Act of 1946 was passed and with it came the civilian use of radioactive byproduct material. From the time the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission began to inspect the users of these materials, the State was interested, and when the Commission began to invite State officials along on inspection tours, State health personnel took advantage of the opportunity to see these installations and the uses to which radioisotopes were being applied.

To keep abreast of this newly developing field, members of the Industrial Hygiene Service attended various radiation courses offered by the U.S. Public Health Service. These courses varied from basic training in radiological health to more advanced courses in management of nuclear emergencies.

In 1951, a regulation was adopted to control the use of shoe fitting fluoroscopes. As a result, many users voluntarily chose to discontinue their use when advised of the potential hazard of excessive radiation exposure presented by these devices. By close surveillance, those remaining in service were brought into compliance wtih the regulation. This means of controlling the use of shoe fluoroscopes was considered appropriate at the time.

Recently, however, the Health Department was successful in having a law enacted making the display or use of these machines illegal.

As time progressed, various attempts were made by the State Health Department to draft legislative bills which would provide specifically for control of all radiation sources.

A bill was passed by the General Assembly in 1957, but it did not provide for regulatory activities essential to a comprehensive State radiation control program.

This Act of 1957 was important in other ways, as it was primarily a declaration of State policy in support of peaceful uses of atomic energy. It provided for an advisory committee on atomic energy which would keep the Governor of the State informed on and encourage activity in, the various associated fields such as workmen's compensation, insurance, nuclear industry, nuclear education and health and safety. This Act was amended in 1961 to authorize the Governor to enter, at his discretion, an agreement with the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission.

At the next meeting of the General Assembly, 2 years later, the Health Department presented a bill which would provide for a comprehensive radiation control program. It would create within the Tennessee Department of Public Health, the Radiological Health Service. This bill was passed and contained, among others, the following provisions:

1. Created an agency whose sole function was radiation control activities.

2. Gave the Commissioner of Public Health authority to adopt rules and regulations which would have the effect of law and provided for inspection.

3. Required the registration of all owners and possessors of radiation sources.

4. As later amended, authorized the adoption of rules and regulations which would provide for licensing of radioactive materials and exempted them from registration.

Since enactment of this legislation, the Radiological Health Service has registered all known sources of radiation in the State, has inspected most of the radiation producing machines registered and made recommendations for correction where necessary. Follow-up programs were also conducted to determine compliance.

The scope of these activities can be illustrated by a consideration of the accelerated dental and medical X-ray survey programs which were followed during the summer months of 1961 through 1963. During that period, 1,100 dental X-ray units and approximately 1,500 medical X-ray units were inspected.

The Radiological Health Service has a well equipped radiological laboratory and is presently establishing calibration for the various instruments and will as soon as possible institute the various monitoring programs which are necessary to keep abreast of radiation in the environment.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Radiation Control Program will be conducted by the Radiological Health Service, Tennessee Department of Public Health.

Licensing and registration. The State Program will control all sources of ionizing radiation. Provisions have been made for the issuance of both specific and general licenses. The specific license will be issued to authorize possession of radioactive materials not exempted or generally licensed by the Department. Requirements for the possession of byproduct, source, and special nuclear materials will be comparable to those of the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission. In addition, regulations provide that the Department will require radioactive materials licenses for naturally occurring radioactive materials such as radium and accelerator-produced isotopes of nonexempt quantities. All other sources of radiation such as medical and dental X-ray machines will be registered.

The licensing program will be essentially identical to that presently employed by the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission, and will cover post-licensing inspections. Prelicensing evaluations will be made when necessary. With respect to human use of radioactive materials, a committee of not less than three qualified physicians will be available for consultation and recommendations concerning license applications.

Inspection. The Tennessee Department of Public Health, Radiological Health Service, proposes to conduct future inspectional activities to determine compliance with State regulations and to determine adequacy of the licensee's radiation protection program. Inspections will be comparable to the type now undertaken by the Division of Compliance of the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission. Inspections will be performed by personnel qualified in radiological health. Competency in this field of work has been developed through joint participation of State health personnel with Atomic Energy Commission inspectors. It is estimated that the Tennessee Department of Public Health has been represented in 75 percent of all Atomic Energy Commission inspections made in Tennessee during the last 5 years.

The following frequency for the inspection of Tennessee licenses is planned but may be either increased or decreased depending upon individual circumstances:

Industrial Radiographers—once each 6 months.

Operations involving waste disposal—once each 6 months.

Industrial, Special Licenses—once each 6 months.

Industrial, Broad Licenses—once each 12 months.

Academic—once each 24 months.

Medical and Hospital—once each 24 months.

Others—Based on hazards associated with the program.

Before the termination of each inspection, the inspector will confer with the licensee to discuss the results of his inspection, presenting tentative oral recommendations or suggestions. During this meeting he will answer questions on the regulatory program.

The inspector will submit in writing comprehensive reports to the Director of the Radiological Health Service relating facts and circumstances observed during the inspection. The report will enumerate violations, if any, and include recommendations. Recommendations made by field personnel will be subject to the critical review of senior members of the Radiological Health Service.

Licensees will be informed of the results of all inspections, orally at the time of inspection or by letter or notice from the department.

It is expected that most licensed activities will be inspected at least once in each 2 years. Most of the inspections will be scheduled visits, but a significant number may be on an unannounced basis.

Compliance. If only minor items of noncompliance, such as improper signs, failure to label, etc., are involved which the licensee agrees in writing to correct at the time of the inspection, no further action will be taken by the department, except that corrective action will be reviewed during the next inspection.

If the inspection reveals noncompliance of a more serious nature, the licensee will be required to correct such items within a time period to be specified by the department based upon the degree of hazard involved. The licensee will be required to inform the department in writing within 30 days, or less if specified, as to corrective action taken and the date completed. The department will then conduct a follow-up inspection or the matter will be reviewed during the next regular inspection to assure that corrective action has in fact been accomplished. The legal recourses which may be taken by the Radiological Health Service are cited within the Tennessee Code Annotated.

Enforcement. When in the judgment of the Radiological Health Service a person is engaged or about to engage in acts or practices constituting a violation of the Act, rules, regulations or orders, the State's Attorney General may, at the request of the department, make application for a court order to enjoin such acts or practices or direct compliance.

Should the Radiological Health Service determine that an emergency exists, it shall have the authority to impound or to order the impounding of any source whether licensed or not in the possession of any person who is not equipped to observe or fails to observe the provisions of the Tennessee Act on Radiological Health or any rules and regulations issued thereunder. In the case of violation, section 53-3312 of the Tennessee Code Annotated provides for appropriate penalties by fine or imprisonment or both.

The full legal procedures normally will be employed only in those instances where there is continued noncompliance after notice, willful negligence on the part of the licensee, or where a serious potential hazard exists.

Of special importance is the provision under section 53-3307, Tennessee Code Annotated, which empowers the Commissioner of Public Health or his duly authorized representatives to enter upon any premises in the line of duty.

Staffing. The Radiological Health Service Act of 1959 gives the Commissioner of Public Health the responsibility for administering the Act.

Curtis P. McCammon, M.D., has been appointed by the Commissioner as Director of Radiological Health and Industrial Hygiene Services. Functionally the Service Director has been named by the Commissioner of Public Health to serve as the State's Radiation Control Officer. Administratively, the Director is responsible to Cecil B. Tucker, M.D., Director of the Division of Preventable Diseases.

Mr. J. A. Bill Graham, Assistant Director of Radiological Health and a Radiological Physicist, has technical and administrative supervision of the broad Radiation Control Program. Mr. Graham also is in charge of the licensing program and supervises the review and evaluation of applications for licenses.

Mr. Charles P. West, Radiological Physicist, with the assistance of Mr. Graham will conduct inspections and generally administer on site aspects of the licensing and regulatory program.

Assisting with the inspection of industrial licensees and registrants will be Industrial Hygiene Engineers of the Industrial Hygiene Service, their chief function being the inspection of specifically licensed industrial gauges.

As new radiological physicists are employed, they will assume duties in licensee inspection after receiving training in the broad aspects of the Radiation Control Program. Present plans provide for the hiring of two additional radiological physicists and one radiological chemist. The chemist will be engaged not only in sample preparation and counting, but also in the collection of environmental samples.

When replacement of present personnel is necessary or new personnel are employed, these will be required to have equivalent capabilities in radiological health now demonstrated by incumbent personnel.

Reciprocity. Regulations of the department provide for the recognition of licenses issued by the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission or other agreement states.

Hearings. Section 53-3306 of the Radiological Health Service Act provides for public participation, where appropriate, in the issuance of rules or regulations. Section 53-3307 of the Act provides that a recipient of a notice of violation of the Act or rules and regulations under the Act may request and receive a hearing by the Commissioner of Health.

Section 53-3307 further authorizes the issuance of an order which shall be effective immediately in those instances where the Radiological Health Service finds that immediate action is necessary to protect persons or property from radiation hazards. Emergency orders shall be complied with immediately upon receipt thereof; but the person affected may within 30 days after service of such an emergency order request and receive a hearing.

Any person aggrieved by an order issued under this section, after hearing, is entitled to judicial review thereof by a writ of certiorari as provided for by Tennessee law.

[Docket No. 50-214]

DEPARTMENT OF WATER AND POWER OF THE CITY OF LOS ANGELES

Order Modifying Hearing and Providing for Interim Conference

On June 8, 1965, the Atomic Safety and Licensing Board transmitted a telegram to the participants inquiring as to the progress of investigatory work undertaken since April 1, 1965. The telegram requested data concerning the reports, if any, of the investigatory work, date of completion of such reports and the readiness of the participants to cross-examine other reports so that the proceeding could proceed expeditiously to conclusion. By order issued on May 14, the hearing in this proceeding was scheduled to reconvene on June 21.

The Applicant, Department of Water and Power of the city of Los Angeles, replied that it did not contemplate the preparation of any further reports and indicated a readiness for hearing. The Staff replied that a report was being prepared for its submission and that the report would be ready approximately July 12 and cross-examination of the reports possibly submitted by others could be undertaken a few days after receipt. The intervenors replied that their report would be ready by June 18. By a second telegram transmitted June 11, the intervenors stated that they needed the Staff report for their preparation and cross-examination and, therefore, requested that the hearing be continued and that an interim conference be convened on June 21, 1965.

It appears advisable to the Board that a definite hearing schedule for the remainder of this proceeding can best be accomplished by providing for an interim conference on June 21, 1965, so that the precise programs respecting the preparation of reports, the exchange, and the analyses thereof can be definitely ascertained. For these reasons, the order for the hearing for the presentation of evidence on June 21, 1965, should be modified. This information that can be presented at a prehearing conference will enable the Board to designate another schedule for submission of prepared in advance evidence, the exchange thereof among the participants and the issuance of an additional order for hearing.

Wherefore, it is ordered, In accordance with §§ 2.718 and 2.752 of the Commission's rules of practice that:

(a) The hearing scheduled to reconvene at 10 a.m. local time, in the Committee Room of the Civic Auditorium, Santa Monica, Calif., is modified, and another date for hearing will be designated at an interim conference to be convened to consider matters of procedure on June 21, 1965, as hereinafter ordered;

(b) An interim conference shall convene at 10 a.m. local time, in the Committee Room of the Civic Auditorium, Santa Monica, Calif., to consider matters of procedure in aid of the expeditious disposition of this proceeding, including the preparation of a schedule of dates for submission and exchange among the participants of any further reports, or prepared in advance evidence, intervals for analyses and the determination of the date when further direct evidence and cross-examination can be undertaken to conclude the hearings in this proceeding.

Issued: June 11, 1965, Germantown, Md.

ATOMIC SAFETY AND LICENSING BOARD,
SAMUEL W. JENSCH,
Chairman.

Notice of Proposed Approval

Application of Sky Courier, Inc., et al., for approval of control and interlocking relationships under sections 408 and 409 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended, Docket 16106.

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the statutory requirements of section 408(b), that the undersigned intends to issue the attached order under delegated authority. Interested persons are hereby afforded a period of 15 days from date of service within which to file comments or request a hearing with respect to the action proposed in the order.

Dated at Washington, D.C., June 14, 1965.

ORDER APPROVING CONTROL AND INTERLOCKING RELATIONSHIPS

Petition of Sky Courier, Inc., Cross Armored Carrier Corp., Arthur DeBevoise, Alexander C. Allen, Merritt T. Kennedy, John Kevin Murphy, Docket 12093; for amendment of order approving control and interlocking relationships.

Application of Sky Courier, Inc., et al., Docket 16106; for approval of control and interlocking relationships under sections 408 and 409 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended.

The Board, by Order E-17376 adopted August 29, 1961, in Docket 12093, approved under section 408 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended (the Act), the control by Arthur DeBevoise of (1) Cross Armored Carrier Corp. (Cross), an intrastate motor carrier which in turn controlled Sky Courier, Inc. (Sky), an air freight forwarder, and (2) various other motor carriers, including Armored Carrier Corp. (Armored). Such order also approved under section 409 of the Act interlocking relationships resulting from the positions of certain individuals with these companies.

On April 28, 1965, an application was filed for approval of Mr. DeBevoise's acquisition through Armored of 100 percent of the stock of Pony Express, Inc. (Pony), while he continues to hold the interests approved by Order E-17376.[1] The application also requested approval of interlocking relationships resulting from the holding by such individuals of the following positions:

Individual	Sky	Pony
Arthur DeBevoise.	President and director.	President and director.
John Kevin Murphy.	Executive vice president and director.	Executive vice president and director.
Alexander C. Allen.	Secretary-treasurer and director.	Vice president and director.

The application states that Pony is a motor carrier operating only within the State of Florida, and that it is engaged solely in a local parcel delivery business in an area north of Miami under a certificate issued by the Florida Railroad and Public Utilities Commission.

No adverse comments or requests for a hearing have been received.

Notice of intent to dispose of the application without a hearing has been published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, and a copy of such notice has been furnished by the Board to the Attorney General not later than the day following the date of such publication, both in accordance with the requirements of section 408(b) of the Act.

Upon consideration of the application, it is concluded that Pony is a common carrier within the meaning of section 408 of the Act, and that the control of Pony by Mr. DeBevoise, while he continues to control Sky, is subject to section 408 of the Act. However, it has been further concluded that such relationships do not affect the control of an air carrier directly engaged in the operation of aircraft in air transportation, do not result in creating a monopoly and do not restrain competition or jeopardize another air carrier not a party to the acquisition of control. Furthermore, no person disclosing a substantial interest in this proceeding is currently requesting a hearing, and it is found that the public interest does not require a hearing. It therefore appears that approval of the control relationships would not be inconsistent with the public interest.[2]

It is also concluded that interlocking relationships within the scope of section 409(a) of the Act will exist between the companies as a result of the holding by Messrs. DeBevoise, Allen, and Murphy of the positions described herein. However, it is further concluded that the parties have made a due showing in the form and manner prescribed that such interlocking relationships will not adversely affect the public interest.

Pursuant to authority duly delegated by the Board in the Board's Regulations, 14 CFR 385.13 and 385.3, it is found that the foregoing control relationships should be approved under section 408(b) of the Act, without a hearing, that the interlocking relationships should be approved under section 409, and that the above-mentioned petition filed in Docket 12093 should be dismissed.

Accordingly, it is ordered:

1. That the control by Mr. DeBevoise of Sky and Pony be and it hereby is approved;

2. That, subject to the provisions of Part 251 of the Board's Economic Regulations, as now in effect or hereafter amended, the interlocking relationships existing by reason of the holding by Messrs. DeBevoise, Allen, and Murphy of the positions described herein be and they hereby are approved;

3. That, subject to the provisions of Part 251 of the Board's Economic Regulations, the individual applicants are authorized to hold, generally, in addition to the positions specifically requested, directorships or offices within the same group of affiliated companies[3] to which they may be hereafter elected or appointed; and

4. That the petition, filed March 24, 1965, in Docket 12093 be and it hereby is dismissed.

Persons entitled to petition the Board for review of this order pursuant to the Board's Regulations, 14 CFR 385.50, may file such petitions within 5 days after the date of service of this order.

riers, embodied in the resolutions of Joint Conference 3–1, of the International Air Transport Association (IATA), and adopted pursuant to the provisions of Resolution 590 dealing with specific commodity rates.

The agreement, adopted pursuant to unprotested notices to the carriers and promulgated in IATA Status Report No. 21, names a rate under a new specific commodity description as set forth below. The effect of this change would be to reduce the rates applicable to the commodities involved by approximately 60.6 percent.

Item 1701—Essential Oils and Aromatics, 151 cents per kg., minimum weight 45 kgs., Sydney to West Coast.

The Board, acting pursuant to sections 102, 204(a), and 412 of the Act, does not find the subject agreement to be adverse to the public interest or in violation of the Act, provided that approval thereof is conditioned as hereinafter ordered.

Accordingly, it is ordered, That:

Agreement CAB 18169, R–15, be approved, provided that such approval shall not constitute approval of the specific commodity description contained therein for purposes of tariff publication.

Any air carrier party to the agreement, or any interested person, may, within 15 days from the date of service of this order, submit statements in writing containing reasons deemed appropriate, together with supporting data, in support of or in opposition to the Board's action herein. INTERNATIONAL AIR TRANSPORT ASSOCIATION

Order Relating to Specific Commodity Rates

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D.C., on the 14th day of June 1965.

There has been filed with the Board pursuant to section 412(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (the Act) and Part 261 of the Board's Economic Regulations, an agreement[1] between various air carriers, foreign air carriers, and other carriers, embodied in the resolutions of Traffic Conference 1 of the International Air Transport Association (IATA). The agreement, which has been assigned CAB Agreement number 18362, was adopted at meetings of the Venice Cargo Conference May 5 through May 27, 1965, and carries an early effectiveness date of June 15, 1965.

The agreement relates to the specific commodity rates to be applicable within the Western Hemisphere. Insofar as United States points are concerned, the agreement, as set forth in the attachment, adds rates to new points under existing commodity descriptions and names rates under new commodity descriptions. The effect of these changes would be to reduce the rates applicable to the commodities involved. Such reductions range from approximately 7.7 percent to 53.3 percent.

The Board, acting pursuant to sections 102, 204(a) and 412 of the Act, does not find the above-described agreement, promulgated in IATA Memorandum TC1/Resolution 557, to be adverse to the public interest or in violation of the Act, provided that approval thereof is conditioned as hereinafter ordered.

Accordingly, it is ordered That:

Agreement CAB 18362 be approved, provided that such approval shall not constitute approval of the specific commodity descriptions contained therein for purposes of tariff publication.

Any air carrier party to the agreement, or any interested person, may, within 15 days from the date of service of this order, submit statements in writing containing reasons deemed appropriate, together with supporting data, in support of or in opposition to the Board's action herein. An original and 19 copies of the statements should be filed with the Board's Docket Section. The Board may, upon consideration of any such statements filed, modify or rescind its action herein by subsequent order.

Take notice that on June 7, 1965, Delta Natural Gas Co., Inc. (Applicant), 120 South Main Street, Winchester, Ky., filed in Docket No. CP65-390 an application pursuant to section 7(a) of the Natural Gas Act for an order of the Commission directing Tennessee Gas Transmission Co. (Tennessee) to establish physical connection with Applicant's proposed facilities and to sell and deliver natural gas to Applicant for resale and distribution in the unincorporated town of Jeffersonville, Montgomery County, Ky., and environs, all as more fully set forth in the application on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Applicant proposes to construct and operate a distribution system within the town of Jeffersonville at an estimated cost of $35,887.17 and requests an order directing Tennessee to provide up to 2,000 Mcf of natural gas per day through the proposed connection.

GEORGIA POWER CO.

Order Returning Settlement Proposal To Presiding Examiner

JUNE 9, 1965.

Counsel for Georgia Power Co. (Georgia Power), joined by counsel for the intervenor Power Section of the Georgia Municipal Association (Power Section), during the course of hearings in these proceedings on May 21, 1965, offered on the record a proposal for the settlement of all issues in this proceeding. On May 26, 1965, the Presiding Examiner certified the proposal to the Commission for consideration.

Georgia Power has approved the terms of the settlement proposal, but the record indicates that only 2 of the 50 municipalities have accepted the settlement proposal. There is nothing in the record to indicate the views of the other 48 municipalities. Furthermore, the record indicates that Georgia Power's offer of settlement is contingent upon its unconditional acceptance by all 50 municipalities who are members of the Power Section. Therefore, consideration of the proposal by the Commission at this time would be premature and the settlement proposal should be returned to the Presiding Examiner.

The Commission orders: The Settlement proposal of Georgia Power and the Power Section, certified to the Commission by the Presiding Examiner on May 26, 1965, is hereby returned to the Presiding Examiner.

(Louisiana), all as more fully set forth in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

The application states that Louisiana is constructing a plywood plant near Wyatt, Winn Parish, La., and estimates that it will require 336,600 Mcf of natural gas during the third year of operations.

The estimated cost of the proposed facilities is $41,581, which will be financed from current working funds.

The exemptive order would be effective until the first annual meeting of the stockholders of the Fund, which is scheduled to be held on December 13, 1965. All interested persons are referred to the application which is on file with the Commisison for a statement of the representations therein, which are summarized below.

The Fund was organized under the laws of the State of California on September 21, 1964, and on October 16, 1964, the Fund registered under the Investment Company Act and filed with the Commission a registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933 (File No. 2-22851) with respect to the proposed public offering of 400,000 shares of its common stock. The Fund has not yet commenced operations and will not have any stockholders until it sells it shares after the registration statement becomes effective.

On September 28, 1964, the Fund entered into a management contract with the firm of Constitution Investment Management Co. The management contract as amended was approved at a meeting of the Fund's board of directors on April 6, 1965. The Fund's Initial Subscription Application, which will be signed by all persons who subscribe to the Fund's initial net worth of $100,000 and who will constitute the initial stockholders of the Fund, provides for the approval of the amended management contract by these subscribers. In addition, the investment advisory contract will be submitted to stockholders for ratification or rejection at the first annual meeting of stockholders.

Similarly, the present directors of the Fund have not been elected by the Fund's stockholders as required by section 16(a) of the Act and such election, which is not possible prior to the proposed issuance of common stock of the Fund, will be held at the first annual meeting of stockholders.

On September 28, 1964, the board of directors of the Fund appointed the firm of William C. Harker, CPA, 510 South Spring Street, Los Angeles, Calif. as independent public accountant for the Fund. The continued employment of William C. Harker, CPA, will be subject to ratification or rejection by the Fund's stockholders at the first annual meeting of stockholders.

Section 6(c) of the Act provides that the Commission, by order upon application, may conditionally or unconditionally exempt any person or transaction from any provision of the Act or of any rule or regulation thereunder, if and to the extent that such exemption is necessary or appropriate in the public interest and consistent with the protection of investors and the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of the Act.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than June 29, 1965, at 5:30 p.m., submit to the Commission in writing a request for a hearing on the matter accompanied by a statement as to the nature of his interest, the reason for such request and the issues, if any, of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such communication should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C., 20549. A copy of such request shall be served personally or by mail (airmail if the person being served is located more than 500 miles from the point of mailing) upon the Fund at the address stated above. Proof of such service (by affidavit or in case of an attorney-at-law by certificate) shall be filed contemporaneously with the request. IMPERIAL FUND, INC., ET AL.

Notice of Filing of Application for Order Exempting Sale by Open-End Company of Shares at Other Than Public Offering Price

JUNE 9, 1965.

In the matter of Imperial Fund, Inc., Imperial Equity Corp., Imperial Financial Services, Inc.; 10709 Wayzata Boulevard, Minnetonka, Minn. (812-1767).

Notice is hereby given that Imperial Fund, Inc. ("Fund"), a Minnesota corporation and a registered open-end investment company, has filed an application pursuant to section 6(c) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("Act") for an order exempting from the provisions of section 22(d) of the Act a proposed offer of its shares at net asset value to shareholders of Imperial Equity Corp. ("Equity"), a registered closed-end investment company. Equity and Imperial Financial Services, Inc., the principal underwriter for Fund, have joined in the application. Section 22(d) of the Act provides, in pertinent part, that no registered investment company shall sell any redeemable security issued by it to any person except at the current offering price described in the prospectus. All interested persons are referred to the application as filed with the Commission for a complete statement of the representations therein which are summarized below.

In March 1963, Fund caused Equity to be organized and transferred to it certain of Fund's assets including all of Fund's investments which were nonmarketable. In return for the assets transferred, Equity issued to the shareholders of Fund one share of its common stock for each share of Fund held.

In September 1964, shareholders of Equity approved a resolution to sell its assets and distribute the proceeds to shareholders. A plan of complete liquidation of Equity will be submitted to its shareholders at a meeting scheduled to be held in the future. If the plan is adopted, Equity proposes to make cash distributions. Fund proposes to offer Equity shareholders the opportunity to invest their cash distributions in shares of Fund at net asset value. The offer will be made to essentially the same group of shareholders who originally received Equity shares. Fund offers its shares to the public at net asset value plus a sales charge.

Notice is further given that any person may, not later than June 28, 1965, at 5:30 p.m., submit to the Commission in writing a request for a hearing on the matter accompanied by a statement as to the nature of his interest, the reason for such request and the issues of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission shall order a hearing thereon. Any such communication should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C., 20549. A copy of such request shall be served personally or by mail (airmail if the person being served is located more than 500 miles from the point of mailing) upon applicant at the address stated above. Proof of such service (by affidavit or in case of an attorney-at-law by certificate) shall be filed contemporaneously with the request. At any time after said date, as provided by Rule O-5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the Act, an order disposing of the application herein may be issued by the Commission upon the basis of the showing contained in said application, unless an order for hearing upon said application shall be issued upon request or upon the Commission's own motion.

By the Commission.

IMPERIAL EQUITY CORP. AND IMPERIAL LAND CO.

Notice of Filing of Application for Order Exempting Transactions

JUNE 9, 1965.

Notice is hereby given that Imperial Equity Corporation ("Imperial Equity"), 10709 Wayzata Boulevard, Minnetonka, Minn., registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("Act") as a closed-end nondiversified management company, and Imperial Land Co. ("Imperial Land"), a real estate holding company all of the outstanding voting stock of which is owned by Imperial Equity (collectively hereinafter called "Applicants"), have filed an application for an order pursuant to sections 6(c) and 17(b) of the Act. Applicants seek to exempt from the provisions of section 17(a) of the Act certain transactions incident to an Agreement, dated August 17, 1964, between Imperial Equity, Imperial Land and two companies registered under the Act as open-end diversified investment companies, Imperial Capital Fund ("Imperial Capital") and Imperial Fund, Inc. ("Imperial Fund"). The Agreement is designed to settle certain claims of the parties to it arising out of transactions discussed below. All interested persons are referred to the application on file with the Commission for a full statement of Applicants' representations, which are summarized below.

Transactions leading to the agreement. Imperial Land and Imperial Fund became affiliated persons of each other on June 1, 1961, as a result of the acquisition by Imperial Fund of 250 shares of capital stock of Imperial Land. Subsequently, during the continuance of such affiliation, Imperial Land issued to Imperial Fund (a) $575,000 principal amount of its convertible debentures (increasing Imperial Fund's holdings thereof to $700,000 principal amount) and (b) 1,750 shares of its capital stock, which, with a subsequent acquisition from another source, increased Imperial Fund's holdings to 2,240 shares. During the period March through July 1962 Imperial Capital purchased from Imperial Land convertible debentures in the aggregate amount of $350,000. During July and November 1962, Imperial Fund converted the debentures into 7,000 shares, increasing its holdings of Imperial Land's capital stock to 9,240 shares. If effect were given to the conversion of Imperial Fund's holdings of Imperial Land debentures into Imperial Land common stock, the only outstanding debentures of Imperial Land would have been the $350,000 principal amount of debentures held by Imperial Capital.

Thereafter, Imperial Fund organized Imperial Equity and, on March 25, 1963, it transferred to Imperial Equity all of its nonmarketable securities, a small amount of cash and some marketable securities in exchange for all of the stock of Imperial Equity. Imperial Fund then distributed all of the stock of Imperial Equity to its stockholders on a pro rata basis. The 9,240 shares of capital stock of Imperial Land were included in the assets transferred, and, as a result, Imperial Land and Imperial Equity became, and continue to be, affiliated persons of each other.

Subsequently, Imperial Equity asserted that the conversion by Imperial Fund in 1962 of the $700,000 principal amount of the convertible debentures into common stock of Imperial Land violated the Act, and that Imperial Equity was entitled to rescind the conversion and resume its status as a convertible debenture holder. Over the objections of Imperial Capital, Imperial Equity surrendered 7,000 shares of Imperial Land's common stock in exchange for $700,000 principal amount of the convertible debentures.

At the time Imperial Equity resumed its position as the holder of $700,000 of the convertible debentures, Imperial Capital was the holder of $350,000 principal amount of such debentures, with $50,000 principal amount having been purchased from Imperial Land during July 1962, the month in which Imperial Fund elected to convert $200,000 of the convertible debentures.

The conflicting claims. After Imperial Equity resumed its position as holder of convertible debentures of Imperial Land and prior to the settlement agreement of August 17, 1964, Imperial Equity claimed that it was entitled to be the holder of $700,000 principal amount, 6 percent convertible debentures issued by Imperial Land and that such holdings ranked pari passu with the $350,000 principal amount of the convertible debentures held by Imperial Capital. Imperial Capital claimed that Imperial Equity was not entitled to be considered the holder of any of the convertible debentures, and that its holdings were the only outstanding convertible debentures.

Settlement of the claims. Insofar as the Agreement concerns Imperial Equity and Imperial Land, it includes terms which, in effect, provide that new convertible debentures are to be exchanged for the convertible debentures presently claimed by Imperial Equity. Imperial Equity will waive a portion of the interest accrued on the debentures, and interest will be paid on certain portions of advances made by Imperial Equity.

By virtue of the ownership by Imperial Equity of all of the outstanding stock of Imperial Land, Imperial Land is an affiliated person of Imperial Equity under section 2(a)(3)(B) of the Act. Section 17 of the Act prohibits, inter alia, an affiliated person (Imperial Land) of a registered investment company (Imperial Equity), acting as principal, from knowingly selling any security or other property to such registered investment company, unless the Commission grants an application for exemption.

Any action previously taken carrying out the terms of the Agreement is to be rescinded if the parties do not obtain appropriate relief from the Commission pursuant to section 6(c) of the Act.

The Agreement of settlement provides in pertinent part as follows:

1. Imperial Equity is recognized as the holder of $700,000 principal amount of the convertible debentures, modified as follows: Imperial Equity (and its predecessor in interest, Imperial Fund) waive interest on $200,000 of the convertible debentures from July, 1962 to November 1, 1963, and on $500,000 of convertible debentures from November, 1962 to November 1, 1963. The $1,050,000 principal amount of convertible debentures outstanding will not bear interest after July 2, 1964; interest on the convertible debentures due Imperial Capital on July 2, 1964, and considered owing to Imperial Equity for the period November 1, 1963, until July 2, 1964, will be payable on the respective interest payment dates following July 2, 1964.

2. Imperial Equity and Imperial Fund waive all claims for interest on advances made to Imperial Land for the period from the date of each advance to August 1, 1964. From and after August 1, 1964, Imperial Equity will be entitled to interest at the rate of 6 percent annually payable semiannually on that portion of the outstanding balance of advances previously or subsequently made which exceeds $330,000. All advances made by Imperial Equity prior to and subsequent to the date of the Agreement shall be senior to, and will be entitled to priority over, the $1,050,000 of convertible debentures in payment of principal and interest (to the extent interest is payable on the advances as described above).

3. Of the $350,000 principal amount of the convertible debentures held by Imperial Capital, $50,000 principal amount are considered entitled to priority as to payment of principal over the other convertible debentures.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than June 28, 1965, at 5:30 p.m., submit to the Commission in writing a request for a hearing on the above matters accompanied by a statement as to the nature of his interest, the reason for such request and the issues of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission shall order a hearing thereon. Any such communication should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C., 20549. A copy of such request shall be served personally or by mail (air mail if the person being served is located more than 500 miles from the point of mailing) upon the applicants at the address set forth above. Proof of such service (by affidavit or in case of an attorney-at-law by certificate) shall be filed contemporaneously with the request. At any time after said date, as provided by Rule 0-5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the Act, an order disposing of the application herein may be issued by the Commission upon the basis of the information stated in said application unless an order for hearing upon said application shall be issued upon request or upon the Commission's own motion.

By the Commission.
