MEMORANDUM OF DECEMBER 5, 1972

[Presidential Determination No. 73-9]

Presidential Determination—Portugal

Memorandum for the Secretary of State

THE WHITE HOUSE,
Washington, December 5, 1972.

In accordance with the recommendation in your memorandum of November 6, and pursuant to Section 614(a) of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961, as amended, I hereby:

(a) Determine that the use of not to exceed $905,000 in FY 1973 for the grant of defense articles and defense services to Portugal, without regard to Section 620(m) of the Act, is important to the security of the United States; and

(b) Authorize such use of up to $905,000 for the grant of defense articles and defense services to Portugal without regard to the limitations of Section 620(m) of the Act.

This determination shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Rules and Regulations

Title 6—ECONOMIC STABILIZATION

Chapter III—Price Commission

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS TO CHAPTER

The purpose of these amendments to the regulations of the Price Commission is to make conforming amendments to §§ 300.1(b), 305.21, and 305.30(d), and to amend § 301.2 to include certain Federal charges in the definition of allowable costs.

Section 300.1(b) of the Price Stabilization regulations exempts from the coverage of the Price Stabilization regulations those sales or leases of property or services which are exempted by Subpart D of Part 101 of the Cost of Living Council regulations. Since this regulation was adopted, the small business exemption was added in Subpart E of Part 101. To provide for these exemptions, the reference in § 300.1(b) is changed to include any exemption specified in Part 101 of the Cost of Living Council regulations.

Section 301.2 of the Rent Stabilization regulations contains the definition of "allowable costs," which include State and local charges for certain municipal services. This amendment adds Federal charges to this definition to account for situations in which the Federal Government provides services normally provided by the State or municipality.

Section 305.21 of the Procedural Regulations of the Price Commission is amended herein to conform to new Subparts M and N of Part 401 of the procedural rules of the IRS, which provide for the issuance of a notice of apparent liability and a final notice of apparent liability by the IRS in rent cases.

As adopted, § 401.1031(c) of the procedural rules of the IRS also includes a provision whereby a person served with a notice of apparent liability may appeal to an IRS appeals representative. In view of the availability of this administrative appeal, it is unnecessary to provide for an appeal to the Price Commission. Accordingly, § 305.21 of the regulations of the Price Commission is amended to except from those appeals to the Price Commission, an appeal from a notice of apparent liability or a final notice of apparent liability issued by the IRS.

Section 305.30(d) contains a reference to § 301.607. As a result of the July 4, 1972, revision of Part 301 (37 F.R. 13226), the proper citation is now to § 301.108(e), and § 305.30(d) is amended accordingly.

Because the purpose of these amendments is to provide immediate guidance and information as to the price stabilization program, and procedures for its effective implementation, notice and public procedure thereon is impracticable, unnecessary, and would not be in the public interest. Good cause exists for making them effective in less than 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Economic Stabilization Act of 1970, as amended, Public Law 91-379, 84 Stat. 799; Public Law 91-558, 84 Stat. 1468; Public Law 92-8, 85 Stat. 13; Public Law 92-15, 85 Stat. 38; Economic Stabilization Act Amendments of 1971, Public Law 92-210; Executive Order No. 11640, 37 F.R. 1213, January 27, 1972; Cost of Living Council Order No. 4, 36 F.R. 20202, October 16, 1971)

In consideration of the foregoing, Chapter III of Title 6 of the Code of Federal Regulations is amended as set forth herein, effective December 18, 1972.

Issued in Washington, D.C., on December 14, 1972.

JAMES B. MINOR,
General Counsel, Price Commission.

PART 300—PRICE STABILIZATION

1. Section 300.1(b) is amended to read as follows:

§ 300.1 Scope.

* * * * *

(b) This part does not apply to the sale or lease of any property or service that is exempted by Part 101 of this title.

* * * * *

PART 301—RENT STABILIZATION

2. Section 301.2 is amended by changing the definition of "Allowable costs" appearing in that section to read as follows:

§ 301.2 Definitions.

* * * * *

"Allowable costs" means State and local real property taxes; and Federal, State, and local fees, levies, and other charges for municipal services, except for gas and electricity.

* * * * *

PART 305—PROCEDURAL REGULATIONS

3. Section 305.21 is amended to read as follows:

§ 305.21 Who may appeal.

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, any person aggrieved by an adverse action issued pursuant to Part 401 of this title by IRS or the Chief Counsel's Office for IRS, may file an appeal with the Commission.

(b) Paragraph (a) of this section does not apply to a person who seeks to appeal from:

(1) A notice of violation issued by the IRS under § 401.1021 of this title;

(2) A notice of apparent liability issued by IRS under § 401.1031 of this title;

(3) A final notice of apparent liability issued by IRS under § 401.1031 of this title; or

(4) An adverse action, other than an interpretation, by the District Director of Internal Revenue, Dallas, Tex., or Austin, Tex. during the period beginning on November 13, 1972 and ending at the close of February 10, 1973.

§ 305.30 [Amended]

4. Section 305.30(d) is amended by deleting the reference to "§ 301.607" and substituting therefor "§ 301.108(e)".

SUBCHAPTER B—FARM MARKETING QUOTAS AND ACREAGE ALLOTMENTS

[Amdt. 9]

PART 730—RICE

Subpart—Regulations for Determination of Acreage Allotments for 1969 and Subsequent Crops of Rice

On pages 21643 to 21646 of the FEDERAL REGISTER of October 13, 1972, notice of proposed rule making regarding certain changes in subject regulations was published (37 F.R. 21643). Interested persons were given 30 days after publication of the notice in which to submit data, views, or recommendations.

A comment was timely received from one "producer" rice State questioning the need for continuing the proposed provision authorizing an adjustment of a producer preliminary allotment because an established crop rotation system is being carried out on a farm. It has been determined that such a provision is needed for a limited number of producers in another "producer" rice State.

It has been noted that the proposed provisions for determining producer rice history acreages do not give maximum history credit in some instances when the producer was not engaged in the production of rice in the current year. Language has been added to take care of this eventuality.

Also, the proposed language providing by reference for subtracting the "reapportioned" acreage from the allotments determined under §§ 730.68, 730.73, and 730.79 when determining current year history and preliminary allotments is inaccurate. The farm allotments as initially established under these sections of the regulations do not include "reapportioned" acreage. Therefore, such language has been removed.

Except for the following changes the proposed notice as previously published is hereby adopted:

1. Paragraphs (c) and (d) of § 730.67 are amended to remove the language which provides for subtracting any reapportioned acreage from the allotment determined under § 730.73.

2. Paragraph (d)(3) of § 730.67 is amended to authorize producer rice history acreage equal to the allotment instead of zero when the producer was not engaged in the production of rice in the current year, if the producer was engaged in the production of rice in either of the two preceding years and at least 75 percent of the allotment was planted or considered planted to rice in such year.

3. Paragraph (e) of § 730.67 is amended to remove the language which provides for subtracting any reapportioned acreage from the allotment determined under § 730.68.

4. Paragraphs (c) and (d) of § 730.78 are amended to remove the language which provides for subtracting any reapportioned acreage from the allotment determined under § 730.79.

5. Paragraph (c) of § 730.78 is also amended to change the language following the reference to § 730.79 in the proviso of subparagraph (2) to read "minus any released acreage for such year" and by adding to the end of subparagraph (3) the phrase "plus any released acreage."

6. The authority clause has been added.

7. An effective date provision is added immediately after the authority clause.

Signed at Washington, D.C., on December 8, 1972.

KENNETH E. FRICK,
Administrator, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

1. Section 730.62 be amended by revising subparagraphs (4), (10), (13), and (14) of paragraph (b) to read as follows:

§ 730.62 Definitions.

* * * * *

(b) * * *

(4) "Farm rice history acreage" means the acreage determined in accordance with § 730.1516(b) or § 730.67(b) and § 730.1527(b) or § 730.78(b), as applicable.

* * * * *

(10) "Producer rice history acreage" means the producer's share(s) of the farm rice history acreage determined in accordance with § 730.67(b) and apportioned among the producers who were engaged in the production of rice on farms as provided under § 730.67(d).

* * * * *

(13) "Farm planted and considered planted acreage" means the acreage determined in accordance with §§ 730.67(b) and 730.78(b), as applicable.

(14) "Producer rice history acreage" means the acreage determined in accordance with § 730.67(d).

* * * * *

2. Section 730.67 be amended by revising the entire section thereof to read as follows:

§ 730.67 Establishment of preliminary allotments for old producers.

(a) Basic factors. In a producer State, the past production of rice in the State by the producer engaged in the production of rice on farms and the allotments previously established in the State for such producer; abnormal conditions affecting acreage, land, labor, and equipment available for the production of rice; crop-rotation practices; and the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of rice, are the factors for apportioning the State allotment, less appropriate reserves, to producers who shared in the history acreage determined for a farm in any one or more of the 5 calendar years immediately preceding the year for which the allotment is determined. Taking these factors into consideration, the county committee shall, with approval of the State committee or its representative, establish a rice allotment for the current year for each old producer in the county in accordance with § 730.68. Prior to establishing such allotments the county committee shall determine:

(1) For each old farm the planted and considered planted acreage of rice and the rice history acreage for the year immediately preceding the year for which the producer allotment is to be established.

(2) For each producer engaged in the production of rice on the farm for which such planted and considered planted and history acreages are being established, his share of such acreages.

(b) Farm planted and considered planted acreage. The farm planted and considered planted acreage is the farm rice acreage determined in accordance with Part 718 of this chapter, including any prevented planting credit determined thereunder, plus any allotment acreage:

(1) Preserved under the provisions of Part 719 of this chapter.

(2) Underplanted in the current year to deplete stored excess produced in a prior year as provided in this Part 730.

(c) Farm rice history acreage. The farm rice history acreage is:

(1) For a farm consisting of federally owned land, the allotment determined under § 730.73.

(2) For a farm other than one consisting of federally owned land, the allotment determined under § 730.73: Provided, That in the current year or either of the 2 preceding years the planted and considered planted acreage for the farm is 75 percent or more of the allotment determined under § 730.73.

(3) For a farm other than one consisting of federally owned land and when the provisions of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph are not applicable, the planted and considered planted acreage as determined for the farm under paragraph (b) of this section.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this paragraph (c), the rice history acreage determined for any farm shall not exceed the allotment determined under the provisions of § 730.73.

(d) Producer rice history acreage. (1) The producer rice history acreage for a producer engaged in the production of rice as provided in § 730.62(b)(3) is determined by:

(i) Apportioning the farm rice history acreage determined under paragraph (c) of this section among the producers who were engaged in the production of rice on the farm in the same proportion that each producer's allotment minus any reapportioned acreage he received and allocated to the farm for such year bears to the farm allotment established under § 730.73, and

(ii) Adding any allotment released by the producer under the provisions of § 730.75.

(2) The producer rice history acreage for a producer who (i) was not engaged in the production of rice because he failed to allocate his producer allotment to a farm, or (ii) was determined not to have been engaged in the production of rice in accordance with the provisions of § 730.72(e), or (iii) did not release his allotment to the county committee, shall be zero: Provided, That if the producer allocated his producer allotment to a farm in either of the 2 preceding years and the rice acreage planted or considered planted is as much as 75 percent of his allotment in such year, his history acreage shall be his producer allotment.

(e) Recommended producer preliminary allotment. If the producer's rice history acreage as determined under paragraph (d) is:

(1) 75 percent or more of the allotment determined under § 730.68, such allotment will become the preliminary allotment for the following year.

(2) Less than 75 percent of the allotment determined under § 730.68, the preliminary allotment for the following year will be the average of the allotment determined under § 730.68 and the producer's rice history acreage for such year.

(3) If a definitely established crop-rotation system is being carried out on a farm on which the producer is engaged in the production of rice and the preliminary allotment does not represent anticipated plantings for the current year because of a definitely established crop-rotation system, the preliminary allotment may be adjusted by the county committee taking into consideration annual State apportionment factors during the base period.

(i) For a farm due for an increase under the rotation system, the adjusted preliminary allotment for the producer shall not be greater than the largest allotment established for the producer during the 5-year base period.

(ii) For a farm due for a decrease under the rotation system, the adjusted preliminary allotment for the producer shall not be less than the smallest allotment established for the producer during the 5-year base period.

3. Section 730.69 be amended by revising the entire section thereof to read as follows:

§ 730.69 Determination of allotments for new producers.

(a) Basis. In a producer State or administrative area in which a new producer reserve is held the State committee with the assistance of the county committee shall establish a rice allotment for the current year for each eligible new producer whose application is timely filed in writing on or before February 15 of the year for which the new producer allotment is requested.

(b) Eligibility requirements. To be eligible for an allotment as a new producer, the applicant shall timely file his application for an allotment and shall establish to the satisfaction of the county committee that:

(1) He does not own or operate any other farm in the United States for which a rice allotment is established for the current crop year.

(2) The available land, type of soil, and topography of the land on the farm to which the requested allotment will be allocated is suitable for the production of rice.

(3) He owns, or otherwise has readily available, adequate equipment and irrigation water necessary for the production of rice on the farm.

(4) He expects to obtain during the current year more than 50 percent of his income from the production of agricultural commodities or products; except when the county committee, with the approval of a State committee representative determines that the income of the applicant from farming or otherwise will not provide a reasonable standard of living for him and his family.

(5) He has not filed his application for the purpose of obtaining an allotment as a new producer which would be used, if obtained, as a device to offset a reduction in the rice acreage of an old producer with whom he was formerly, or will be, associated in financing, producing, or marketing rice.

(c) Income determination. In making income determinations pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section the following will apply:

(1) Income from farming shall include the estimated return from home gardens, livestock and livestock products, poultry, or other agricultural products produced for home consumption or other use on the farm(s). Do not include estimated return from the production of the requested rice allotment.

(2) Nonfarming income shall include but shall not be limited to salaries, commissions, pensions, social security payments, and unemployment compensations.

(3) Spouse's farm and nonfarm income shall be included in the computation.

(4) If the applicant is a partnership, each partner must expect to obtain more than 50 percent of his current year income from farming.

(5) If the applicant is a corporation, it must have no other major corporate purpose other than ownership or operation of the farm(s). Farming must provide its officers and general manager with more than 50 percent of their reported income. Salaries and dividends from the corporation shall be considered as income from farming.

(6) When applying the income exception referred to under (b)(4) the county committee must exercise good judgment to see that their determination is reasonable in the light of all pertinent factors, and that this special provision is made only to those who qualify. In making their determination, the county committee shall consider such factors as size and type of farming operations, estimated net worth, estimated gross family farm income, estimated farming off-farm income, number of dependents, and other factors affecting the individual's ability to provide a reasonable standard of living for himself and his family.

(d) Individual farm allotment limitations. The allotment determined for any new producer shall not exceed the smallest of (1) the preliminary allotment established under § 730.67 for old rice producers in the county producing rice under similar conditions except for the acreage planted to rice during the base period, (2) the allotment requested by the applicant, or (3) the acreage of rice intended to be planted by the applicant on the farm(s) to which the allotment is to be allocated in the current year; Provided, That, if the acreage planted to rice by the applicant in the current year is less than 75 percent of the allotment established under this section, the allotment for the producer shall be reduced to the acreage actually planted to rice by the producer. The acreage resulting from any such allotment reduction in each county shall be transferred for accounting purposes to the reserve for appeals and correction, missed farms, and adjustments as provided for under § 730.68.

(e) Total new producer allotments limited to reserve. The sum of all new producer allotments established in any State or area, in accordance with the provisions of this section shall not exceed the reserve made available by the State committee for new producers in the State or area, and such reserve shall not exceed 3 percent of the applicable State or area allotment. Any part of such reserve that is not used for the establishment of new producer allotments shall remain in the new producer reserve for the current year and may not be used for any other purpose.

(f) No State or area reserve. Requests for new producer allotments shall not be accepted for any year for a State or area for which no new producer reserve has been held by the State committee.

(g) Cancellation of new producer rice allotment for misrepresentation. If a new producer rice allotment is established and it is later determined by the county committee that the applicant unknowingly furnished incomplete or inaccurate information the allotment shall be cancelled effective for the next crop year. If it is determined that the applicant knowingly furnished incomplete or inaccurate information and the State committee concurs in the county committee determination, the allotment shall be cancelled as of the date issued. The applicant shall be notified of the action taken in either case.

4. Section 730.78 be amended by revising the entire section thereof to read as follows:

§ 730.78 Establishment of preliminary allotments for old farms.

(a) Basic factors. In a farm State, the past production of rice on farms and the allotments previously established for such farms; abnormal conditions affecting acreage; land, labor, and equipment available for the production of rice; crop-rotation practices; and the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of rice are the factors for apportioning the State allotment among counties and less appropriate reserves, to farms on which history acreage has been determined for the farm in any one or more of the 5 calendar years immediately preceding the year for which the allotment is determined. Taking these factors into consideration, the county committee shall, with the approval of the State committee or its representatives, establish a rice allotment for the current year for each old farm in the county in accordance with § 730.79. Prior to establishing such allotments the county committee shall determine for each old farm the planted and considered planted acreage of rice and the rice history acreage for the year immediately preceding the year for which the allotment is to be established.

(b) Farm planted and considered planted acreage. The farm planted and considered planted acreage is the farm rice acreage determined in accordance with Part 718 of this chapter, including any prevented planting credit determined thereunder, plus any allotment acreage:

(1) Preserved under the provisions of Part 719 of this chapter.

(2) Underplanted in the current year to deplete stored excess produced in a prior year as provided in this Part 730.

(c) Farm rice history acreage. The farm rice history acreage is:

(1) For a farm consisting of federally owned land, the allotment determined under § 730.79.

(2) For a farm other than one consisting of federally owned land, the allotment determined under § 730.79: Provided, That in the current year or either of the 2 preceding years the planted and considered planted acreage for the farm is 75 percent or more of the allotment determined under § 730.79 minus any released acreage for such year.

(3) For a farm other than one consisting of federally owned land and when the provisions of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph are not applicable, the planted and considered planted acreage as determined for the farm under paragraph (b) of this section plus any released acreage.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this paragraph (c), the rice history acreage determined for any farm shall not exceed the allotment determined under § 730.79.

(d) Recommended farm preliminary allotment. If the farm rice history acreage as determined under paragraph (c) of this section is:

(1) 75 percent or more of the allotment determined under § 730.79, such allotment will become the preliminary allotment for the following year.

(2) Less than 75 percent of the allotment determined under § 730.79, the preliminary allotment for the following year will be the average of the allotment determined under § 730.79 and the farm rice history acreage for such year.

(3) If a definitely established crop-rotation system is being carried out on a farm and the preliminary allotment does not represent anticipated plantings for the current year because of a definitely established crop-rotation system, the preliminary allotment may be adjusted by the county committee taking into consideration annual county apportionment factors.

(i) For a farm due for an increase under the rotation system, the adjusted preliminary allotment for the farm shall not be greater than the largest allotment established for the farm during the 5-year base period.

(ii) For a farm due for a decrease under the rotation system, the adjusted preliminary allotment for the farm shall not be less than the smallest allotment established for the farm during the 5-year base period.

5. Section 730.80 be amended by revising the entire section thereof to read as follows:

§ 730.80 Determination of allotments for new farms.

(a) Basis. In a farm State or administrative area in which a new farm reserve is held the State committee with the assistance of the county committee shall establish a rice allotment for the current year for each eligible new farm application timely filed in writing by the owner or operator on or before February 15 of the year for which the new farm allotment is requested.

(b) Eligibility requirements. To be eligible for an allotment as a new farm, the operator or owner shall timely file his application for an allotment and shall establish to the satisfaction of the county committee that:

(1) Neither the owner nor the operator of the farm covered by the application owns or operates any other farm in the United States for which a rice allotment is established for the current crop year.

(2) The available land, type of soil, and topography of the land on the farm for which the allotment is requested is suitable for the production of rice.

(3) The operator owns, or otherwise has readily available, adequate equipment and irrigation water necessary for the production of rice on the farm.

(4) The operator expects to obtain during the current year more than 50 percent of his income from the production of agricultural commodities or products; except when the county committee, with the approval of a State committee representative, determines that the income of the operator from farming or otherwise will not provide a reasonable standard of living for the operator and his family.

(c) Income determination. In making income determinations pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section the following will apply:

(1) Income from farming shall include the estimated return from home gardens, livestock and livestock products, poultry, or other agricultural products produced for home consumption or other use on the farm(s). Do not include estimated return from the production of the requested rice allotment.

(2) Nonfarming income shall include but shall not be limited to salaries, commissions, pensions, social security payments, and unemployment compensations.

(3) Spouse's farm and nonfarm income shall be included in the computation.

(4) If the operator is a partnership, each partner must expect to obtain more than 50 percent of his current year income from farming.

(5) If the operator is a corporation, it must have no other major corporate purpose other than ownership or operation of the farm(s). Farming must provide its officers and general manager with more than 50 percent of their reported income. Salaries and dividends from the corporation shall be considered as income from farming.

(6) When applying the income exception referred to under paragraph (b) (4) of this section, the county committee must exercise good judgment to see that their determination is reasonable in the light of all pertinent factors, and that this special provision is made only to those who qualify. In making their determinations, the county committee shall consider such factors as size and type of farming operations, estimated net worth, estimated gross family farm income, estimated farming off-farm income, number of dependents, and other factors affecting the individual's ability to provide a reasonable standard of living for himself and his family.

(d) Eminent domain. A farm which includes land acquired by an agency having the right of eminent domain for which the entire rice allotment was pooled pursuant to Part 719 of this chapter, which is subsequently returned to agriculture production, shall not be eligible for a new farm allotment for a period of 3 years from the date the former owner was displaced.

(e) Entire allotment designated by owner as a result of reconstitution. A farm which includes land which has no rice allotment because the owner did not designate an allotment for such land when the parent farm was reconstituted pursuant to Part 719 of this chapter shall not be eligible for a new farm rice allotment for a period of 5 years beginning with the year in which the reconstitution became effective.

(f) Individual farm allotment limitations. The allotment determined for any new farm shall not exceed the smallest of (1) the preliminary allotment established under § 730.78 for old rice farms in the county which are similar except for the acreage planted to rice on such farms during the base period, (2) the allotment requested by the applicant, or (3) the acreage of rice intended to be planted on the farm in the current year: Provided, That if the acreage planted to rice on the farm in the current year is less than 75 percent of the allotment established under this section, the allotment for the farm shall be reduced to the acreage actually planted to rice on the farm. The acreage resulting from any such allotment reduction in each county shall be transferred for accounting purposes to the reserve for appeals and corrections, missed farms, and adjustments as provided for under § 730.79.

(g) Total new farm allotments limited to reserve. The sum of all new farm allotments established in any State or area, as applicable, in accordance with the provisions of this section shall not exceed the reserve made available by the State committee for new farms in the State or area, as applicable, and such reserve shall not exceed 3 percent of the applicable State or area allotment. Any part of such reserve that is not used for the establishment of new farm allotments shall remain in the new farm reserve for the current year and may not be used for any other purpose.

(h) No State or area reserve. Requests for new farm allotments shall not be accepted for any year for a State or area for which no new farm reserve has been held by the State committee.

(i) Cancellation of new rice farm allotment for misrepresentation. If a new farm allotment is established and it is later determined by the county committee that the applicant unknowingly furnished incomplete or inaccurate information the allotment shall be canceled effective for the next crop year. If it is determined that the applicant knowingly furnished incomplete or inaccurate information and the State committee concurs in the county committee determination, the allotment shall be canceled as of the date issued. The applicant shall be notified of the action taken in either case.

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders; Fruits, Vegetables, Nuts), Department of Agriculture

[Orange Reg. 71, Amdt. 3; Grapefruit Reg. 73, Amdt. 2; Tangerine Reg. 44, Amdt. 4; Tangelo Reg. 44, Amdt. 2]

PART 905—ORANGES, GRAPEFRUIT, TANGERINES, AND TANGELOS GROWN IN FLORIDA

Limitation of Shipments

Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 905, as amended (7 CFR Part 905), regulating the handling of oranges, grapefruit, tangerines, and tangelos grown in Florida, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the committees established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of oranges, grapefruit, tangerines, and tangelos, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) The recommendations by the committees reflect their appraisal of the potential marketing situation during the week in which Christmas Day occurs and for the period immediately following. Historically, there has been heavy purchasing of fresh oranges, grapefruit, tangerines, and tangelos in the terminal markets prior to Christmas Day followed by a period of slow movement immediately following the holiday. Inordinate shipments in the period of slow movement tend to depress market prices and returns to growers. Hence, the curtailment of such shipments, as hereinafter specified, is necessary to prevent a buildup of excess supplies in the markets during and immediately following the Christmas Day week in order to prevent unduly depressed market prices and returns to growers.

(3) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of these amendments until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 553) in that the time intervening between the date when information upon which these amendments are based became available and the time when these amendments must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Domestic shipments of Florida oranges, grapefruit, tangerines, and tangelos are currently regulated pursuant to Orange Regulation 71 (37 F.R. 21799, 24432, 25036), Grapefruit Regulation 73 (37 F.R. 21799, 24432), Tangerine Regulation 44 (37 F.R. 21799, 24432, 24189, 25914), and Tangelo Regulation 44 (37 F.R. 21799, 24432) and, unless sooner terminated or modified, will continue to be so regulated; determinations as to the need for, and extent of, regulation under § 905.52(a)(3) of the order must await the development of the crops and the availability of information about the demand for such fruits; the recommendation and supporting information for limiting the total quantity of fresh oranges, grapefruit, tangerines, and tangelos by prohibiting shipments thereof, pursuant to said section, during the period herein provided, were promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of members of the Growers Administrative Committee on November 29, 1972, held to consider recommendations for such regulations, after giving due notice of such meeting, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; necessary supplemental information was submitted to the Department on December 11, 1972; information regarding the provisions of the regulations recommended by the committees has been disseminated among shippers of such fruits grown in the production area, and these regulations, including the effective time thereof, are identical with the recommendations of the committees; and compliance with these regulations will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective time hereof.

Order 1. In § 905.545 (Orange Reg. 71; 37 F.R. 21799, 24432, 25036), the provisions of paragraph (a) preceding subparagraph (1) thereof and paragraph (b) are revised to read as follows:

§ 905.545 Orange Regulation 71.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b) of this section, during the period December 4, 1972, through December 31, 1972, no handler shall ship between the production area and any point outside thereof in the continental United States, Canada, or Mexico:

* * * * *

(b) During the period beginning at 6 p.m., e.s.t., December 21, 1972, and ending at 12:01 a.m., e.s.t., December 28, 1972, no handler shall ship between the production area and any point outside thereof in the continental United States, Canada, or Mexico, any oranges grown in the production area.

* * * * *

2. In § 905.546 (Grapefruit Reg. 73; 37 F.R. 21799, 24432), the provisions of paragraph (b) are revised to read as follows:

§ 905.546 Grapefruit Regulation 73.

* * * * *

(b) During the period beginning at 6 p.m., e.s.t., December 21, 1972, and ending at 12:01 a.m., e.s.t., December 28, 1972, no handler shall ship between the production area and any point outside thereof in the continental United States, Canada, or Mexico,, any grapefruit grown in the production area.

* * * * *

3. In § 905.547 (Tangerine Reg. 44; 37 F.R. 21799, 24432, 24189, 25914), the provisions of paragraph (b) are revised to read as follows:

§ 905.547 Tangerine Regulation 44.

* * * * *

(b) During the period beginning at 6 p.m., e.s.t., December 21, 1972, and ending at 12:01 a.m., e.s.t., December 28, 1972, no handler shall ship between the production area and any point outside thereof in the continental United States, Canada, or Mexico, any tangerines grown in the production area.

* * * * *

4. In § 905.548 (Tangelo Reg. 44; 37 F.R. 21799, 24432), the provisions of paragraph (b) are revised to read as follows:

§ 905.548 Tangelo Regulation 44.

* * * * *

(b) During the period beginning at 6 p.m., e.s.t., December 21, 1972, and ending at 12:01 a.m., e.s.t., December 28, 1972, no handler shall ship between the production area and any point outside thereof in the continental United States, Canada, or Mexico, any tangelos grown in the production area.

PART 907—NAVEL ORANGES GROWN IN ARIZONA AND DESIGNATED PART OF CALIFORNIA

Limitation of Handling

(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 907, as amended (7 CFR Part 907), regulating the handling of Navel oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674), and upon the basis of the recommendations and information submitted by the Navel Orange Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such Navel oranges, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this amendment until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 553) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amendment is based became available and the time when this amendment must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and this amendment relieves restrictions on the handling of Navel oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California.

(b) Order, as amended. The provisions in paragraph (b)(1)(ii) of § 907.578 (Navel Orange Reg. 278, 37 F.R. 26000) are hereby amended to read as follows:

Chapter XVIII—Farmers Home Administration, Department of Agriculture

SUBCHAPTER B—LOANS AND GRANTS PRIMARILY FOR REAL ESTATE PURPOSES

[FHA Instruction 444.13]

PART 1822—RURAL HOUSING LOANS AND GRANTS

Subpart L—Fair Housing Marketing

ADDITION OF SUBPART

Part 1822 is amended to add new Subpart L, "Fair Housing Marketing" to provide information to Farmers Home Administration personnel, FHA borrowers, contractors, packagers, and others who provide housing for sale to applicants for FHA rural housing loans about the provisions of title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968, and their obligations under that Act to provide fair housing to all persons regardless of race, color, religion, or national origin. Since the subpart involves a statement of policy, and is interpretive of title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968, it is not subject to the requirements as to notice of proposed rule making set out in 5 U.S.C. 553.

The new Subpart L of Part 1822, Title 7, Code of Federal Regulations, will read as follows:

Sec.
1822.381 General.
1822.382 Coverage.
1822.383 Discriminatory acts prohibited.
1822.384 Affirmative action.
1822.385 Complaints of discrimination.
1822.386 Relation to other regulations.

AUTHORITY: The provisions of this Subpart L issued under sec. 510, 63 Stat. 437, 42 U.S.C. 1480; Order of Act. Sec. of Agr., 36 F.R. 21529; Order of Sec. of Agr., 37 F.R. 14245; Order of Asst. Sec. of Agr. for Rural Development and Conservation, 36 F.R. 21529.

§ 1822.381 General.

This subpart is designed to inform Farmers Home Administration (FHA) personnel, FHA borrowers, and contractors, packagers, and others who provide housing for sale to applicants for FHA rural housing (RH) loans of the provisions of title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968 and their obligations under that Act to provide fair housing to all persons regardless of race, color, religion, or national origin. This subpart, along with the guide, "Packaging Applications for Rural Housing Loans," will be given as a handout to all packagers as prescribed in Subpart A of this part.

§ 1822.382 Coverage.

The prohibitions against discrimination in the sale, rental, or financing of housing contained in title VIII apply:

(a) To all dwellings financed by loans made by the Federal Government; therefore, to all FHA–RH loan borrowers.

(b) To any person in the business of selling or renting dwellings defined as:

(1) The owner of a dwelling intended for occupancy by five or more families;

(2) Any person who has participated as principal in the sale or rental of three or more dwellings in the past year;

(3) Any person who has served as the sale or rental agent in two or more transactions in the past year.

§ 1822.383 Discriminatory acts prohibited.

Title VIII prohibits FHA personnel, multiunit FHA housing borrowers, and those with whom FHA does business (contractors, realtors, packagers) from:

(a) Refusing to sell or rent a particular dwelling because of a person's race, color, religion, or national origin. The following actions constitute violations of this provision:

(1) Refusal to package an FHA–RH loan application because of the applicant's race, color, religion, or national origin;

(2) Refusal or failure to show a particular dwelling or homes in a particular subdivision to applicants of a particular race, color, religion, or national origin;

(3) Directing persons only to areas populated by those of similar race, color, religion, or national origin when housing is available in other areas;

(4) Representing unsold dwellings or sites as sold to prospective buyers because of their race, color, religion, or national origin.

(b) Requiring applicants for services to meet different terms or conditions because of their race, color, religion, or national origin; for example, requiring larger rents or downpayments from minority applicants.

(c) Including in any advertising either directly or through visual representation a preference for applicants of a particular race or ethnic origin.

(1) Words indicative of the race or ethnic background of the dwelling or landlord such as "White private home," "Sites for colored families," "Restricted area," "All black subdivision," may not be used in advertising housing financed or to be financed by FHA.

(2) Advertising certain sites or homes only in selected geographic areas or through selected advertising media may be a violation of title VIII. For example, advertising homes in a particular subdivision only in a local Spanish language newspaper and not in the English language paper would indicate a preference for Spanish-American applicants. Selection of advertising media and the areas to be covered by any advertising must be made to reach potential applicants of all races or ethnic origins.

§ 1822.384 Affirmative action.

(a) All recipients of FHA rural rental housing loans, farm labor housing loans or grants, and rural housing site loans, and all packagers of applications for section 502 RH loans must display the "Fair Housing Poster." County supervisors should see that these posters are prominently displayed in the borrower's or packager's sale or rental offices. These posters may be ordered from the Finance Office.

(b) FHA multiunit housing borrowers and FHA packagers are encouraged to: (1) Actively publicize available housing or sites to minority and majority persons through their usual advertising methods, including minority publications or other minority outlets which are available;

(2) Instruct their employees in the fair housing provisions of the Civil Rights Act of 1968 and this subpart;

(3) Include the slogan, "Equal Housing Opportunity" in printed advertising;

(4) When using human models or representations in advertising, use representations of the majority and minority races in the same ad;

(5) Provide housing opportunities for minority families outside areas of minority concentration and outside areas which are already substantially racially mixed.

(c) All applicants for FHA multiunit housing loans or grants must sign a Form

FHA 400-4, "Nondiscrimination Agreement," and abide by all Department of Agriculture nondiscrimination regulations.

(d) All packagers of FHA-RH loans and all applicants for conditional commitments must sign an "Equal Opportunity in Housing Certification," as part of Form FHA 422-8, "Property Information and Appraisal Report—Rural Housing Nonfarm Tract."

§ 1822.385 Complaints of discrimination.

(a) Complaints of discrimination because of race, color, religion, or national origin directed against the Farmers Home Administration or FHA borrowers that are directly received by the county office staff should be sent to the State director. All such complaints will be forwarded to the Administrator, Attention: Civil Rights Coordinator, for handling in accordance with Secretary's Memorandum No. 1595.

(b) Discrimination complaints against packagers, contractors, or others with whom FHA deals should be filed with the Department of Housing and Urban Development. However, these complaints may be accepted by FHA personnel and routed through the State director to the Administrator, Attention: Civil Rights Coordinator.

§ 1822.386 Relation to other regulations.

Nothing in this subpart in any way interferes with the administration of the nondiscrimination requirements of title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 or the "Equal Opportunity in Housing Certification," signed by all packagers.

Dated: October 24, 1972.

DARREL A. DUNN,
Associate Administrator,
Farmers Home Administration.

Title 14—AERONAUTICS AND SPACE

Chapter I—Federal Aviation Administration, Department of Transportation

[Airspace Docket No. 72-WA-63]

PART 75—ESTABLISHMENT OF JET ROUTES AND AREA HIGH ROUTES

Revocation of Jet Route Segment

The purpose of this amendment to Part 75 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is to revoke the U.S. portion of Jet Route No. 590 which is presently designated between Thunder Bay, Ontario, Canada, and Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., this route has been used primarily for Canadian aircraft transiting the northern tip of the State of Michigan. Canadian air route traffic control centers exercise air traffic jurisdiction over the entire route, and the U.S. portion of this route was designated at the request of the Canadian Ministry of Transport (MOT). The Canadian MOT has advised they plan to revoke their portion of HL590/J-590 effective February 1, 1973. Action is taken herein to revoke the U.S. portion of the route at the same time.

Since this amendment revokes a jet route segment which was established primarily for use by Canadian aircraft, and since the U.S. public is not particularly concerned or interested in this route, notice and public procedure thereon are not required. However, since it is necessary that sufficient time be allowed to permit appropriate changes to be made on aeronautical charts this amendment will become effective more than 30 days after publication.

In consideration of the foregoing Part 75 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is amended, effective 0901 G.m.t., February 1, 1973, as hereinafter set forth.

In § 75.100 (37 F.R. 2382, 36 F.R. 24799) Jet Route No. 590 is deleted.

(Sec. 307(a), Federal Aviation Act of 1958, 49 U.S.C. 1348(a); sec. 6(c), Department of Transportation Act, 49 U.S.C. 1655(c))

Issued in Washington, D.C., on December 12, 1972.

CHARLES H. NEWPOL,
Acting Chief, Airspace and Air Traffic Rules Division.

Title 21—FOOD AND DRUGS

Chapter I—Food and Drug Administration, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare

SUBCHAPTER C—DRUGS

PART 135e—NEW ANIMAL DRUGS FOR USE IN ANIMAL FEEDS

PART 135g—TOLERANCES FOR RESIDUES OF NEW ANIMAL DRUGS IN FOOD

Robenidine Hydrochloride

The Commissioner of Food and Drugs has evaluated a new animal drug application (48-486V) filed by American Cyanamid Co., Post Office Box 400, Princeton, NJ 08540, proposing the safe and effective use of robenidine hydrochloride as a coccidiostat in chicken feed. The application is approved.

The Commissioner further concludes that to assure that edible tissues are safe for human consumption, the regulations should be amended to provide safe tolerances for residues of the drug in edible tissues of chickens.

Therefore, pursuant to provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 512(i), 82 Stat 347; 21 U.S.C. 360b(i)) and under authority delegated to the Commissioner (21 CFR 2.120), Parts 135e and 135g are amended as follows:

1. A new section is added to Part 135e as follows:

§ 135e.66 Robenidine hydrochloride.

(a) Chemical name. 1,3-bis(para-chloro-benzylideneamino)-guanidine hydrochloride.

(b) Approvals. Premix level of 30 grams per pound has been granted: for the sponsor seed code No. 004 in § 135.501(c) of this chapter.

(c) Assay limits. Finished feed not less than 80 percent nor more than 120 percent of labeled amount. Premix not less than 95 percent or more than 115 percent of labeled amount.

(d) Special considerations. Finished feed containing robenidine hydrochloride must be fed within 50 days from the date of manufacture. Do not use in feeds containing bentonite.

(e) Related tolerances in edible products. See § 135g.85 of this chapter.

(f) Conditions of use. It is used as follows:

	Grams per ton	Limitations	Indications for use
Robenidine hydrochloride.	30 (0.0033%)	For broiler or fryer chickens only; do not feed to layers; feed continuously as the sole ration; withdraw 5 days prior to slaughter.	As an aid in the prevention of coccidiosis caused by Eimeria mivati, E. brunetti, E. tenella, E. acervulina, E. maxima, and E. necatrix.

2. Part 135g is amended by adding a new section as follows:

§ 135g.85 Robenidine hydrochloride.

Tolerances are established for residues of robenidine hydrochloride in edible tissues of chickens as follows:

0.2 part per million in skin and fat.

0.1 part per million (negligible residue) in edible tissues other than skin and fat.

Effective date. This order shall be effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (12-16-72).

Title 26—INTERNAL REVENUE

Chapter I—Internal Revenue Service, Department of the Treasury

SUBCHAPTER A—INCOME TAX

[T.D. 7227]

PART 12—TEMPORARY INCOME TAX REGULATIONS UNDER THE REVENUE ACT OF 1971

Presidential Election Campaign Fund; Designation by Individuals

The following regulations relate to the application of section 6096 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended by section 802 of the Revenue Act of 1971 (85 Stat. 573), to the designation by individuals to payments to the presidential election campaign fund.

The regulations set forth herein are temporary and are designed to inform taxpayers of the application of section 6096 to the manner and time in which designations to the presidential election campaign fund shall be made prior to the issuance of regulations to be prescribed by the Commissioner and approved by the Secretary or his delegate.

In order to provide such temporary regulations under section 6096 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, the following regulations are adopted:

§ 12.6 Designation by individuals.

(a) In general. (1) For taxable years ending on or after December 31, 1972, every individual (other than a nonresident alien) whose income tax liability, as defined in paragraph (b) of this section, is $1 or more may, at his option, designate that $1 shall be paid over to the presidential election campaign fund, in accordance with the provisions of section 9006. Such designation may be made either for the account of a specified political party's (as referred to in section 9002 (6), (7), or (8)) candidates (as defined in section 9002(2)) for election to the offices of President and Vice President of the United States, or for a general account for all eligible candidates (as defined in section 9002(4)) for election to the offices of President and Vice President of the United States.

(2) In the case of a joint return of a husband and wife, each spouse may designate that $1 be paid to any account as provided in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph only if the joint income tax liability, as defined in paragraph (b) of this section, of the husband and wife is $2 or more.

(b) Income tax liability. For purposes of paragraph (a) of this section, the income tax liability of an individual for any taxable year is the amount of the tax imposed by chapter 1 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 on such individual for such taxable year (as shown on his return), reduced by the sum of the credits (as shown in his return).

(c) Manner and time of designation. For taxable years ending on or after December 31, 1972, and beginning before January 1, 1973, a designation under paragraph (a) of this section may be made with respect to any taxable year only at the time of the filing of the return of the tax imposed by chapter 1 for such taxable year. Such designation shall be made by the individual on Form 4875 in accordance with the instructions applicable thereto and must be filed with the original income tax return for such year (whether or not timely filed), but not separately or with an amended return.

Because of the need for immediate guidance with respect to the provisions contained in this Treasury decision, it is found impracticable to issue it with notice and public procedure thereon under section 553(b).

(Sec. 7805, Internal Revenue Code of 1954, 68A Stat. 917; 26 U.S.C. 7805)

SUBCHAPTER D—MISCELLANEOUS EXCISE TAXES

[T.D. 7228]

PART 147—TEMPORARY REGULATIONS UNDER THE INTEREST EQUALIZATION TAX ACT

Direct Investment in Certain Qualified Lending and Financing Corporations

On July 28, 1972, notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (37 F.R. 15160) with respect to the amendment of the temporary regulations under the Interest Equalization Tax Act (26 CFR Part 147) to reflect the addition of section 4915(e) to the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 by section 3(e) of the Interest Equalization Tax Extension Act of 1971 (85 Stat. 13), to reflect the amendment of section 4920 (a)(3B) and (d) by section 3(e) of such act, and to limit the application of temporary regulations inconsistent with section 3(e) of such act. After consideration of all such relevant matter as was presented by interested persons regarding the rules proposed and a hearing having been held on September 6, 1972, the amendment of the regulations as proposed is hereby adopted, subject to the changes set forth below:

PARAGRAPH 1. Section 147.2–2, as set forth in paragraph 1 of the appendix to the notice of proposed rule making, is changed by revising so much of paragraph (a)(2)(ii) as follows (b) thereof, so much of paragraph (a)(3) as precedes subdivision (i) thereof, and the last sentence of paragraph (b)(2) to read as set forth below.

PAR. 2. Section 147.7–8(b), as set forth in paragraph 3 of the appendix to the notice of proposed rule making, is amended by revising subparagraphs (1) and (2)(iii) to read as set forth below.

PAR. 3. Section 147.7–9, as set forth in paragraph 3 of the appendix to the notice of proposed rule making, is amended by revising paragraph (a)(2), paragraphs (b)(1)(v) and (5)(i)(b) and (ii) so much of paragraph (c) as precedes subparagraph (1) thereof, so much of paragraph (c)(1)(iii) as follows (c) thereof, paragraph (c)(1)(iv), paragraph (c)(2) (ii) and (iii), and paragraphs (d) and (f) to read as set forth below.

(Section 7805, Internal Revenue Code of 1954, 68A Stat. 917; 26 U.S.C. 7805)

[SEAL] JOHNNIE M. WALTERS,
Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Approved: December 13, 1972.

FREDERIC U. HICKMAN,
Assistant Secretary of the Treasury.

In order to provide temporary regulations under section 4915(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as added thereto by section 3(e) of the Interest Equalization Tax Extension Act of 1971 (85 Stat. 13), and under section 4920(a)(3B) and (d) as amended by section 3(e) of such Act, and in order to limit the application of temporary regulations inconsistent with section 3(e) of such Act to acquisitions made before the effective date of such Act, the temporary regulations under the Interest Equalization Tax Act (26 CFR Part 147) are amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. Section 147.2–2 is added immediately after § 147.2–1. The added section reads as follows:

§ 147.2–2 Exclusion under section 4915(e) for direct investments in certain financing corporations.

(a) In general—(1) Background. Under section 4915(a), the tax imposed by section 4911 does not apply to an acquisition by a United States person of stock or debt obligations of a foreign corporation if immediately after the acquisition such person, together with certain of its affiliates, owns 10 percent or more of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock of such foreign corporation. Section 4915(c)(1) states, however, that the provisions of section 4915(a) do not apply if the foreign issuer or foreign obligor is formed or availed of by the United States person for the principal purpose of acquiring, through such foreign issuer or obligor, an interest in stock or debt obligations of one or more other foreign issuers or obligors which would be subject to the tax imposed by section 4911 if acquired directly by the United States person. Under section 4915(e), after April 1, 1971, a financing corporation described in paragraph (b) of this section shall be treated, with respect to acquisitions of its stock or debt obligations, as a foreign corporation which is not formed or availed of for the principal purpose described in section 4915(c)(1), if the following is established to the satisfaction of the Commissioner or his delegate:

(i) The amounts received by the financing corporation as a result of the acquisition of its stock or debt obligations will not be used to acquire stock of foreign issuers or debt obligations of foreign obligors or utilized in any way outside the United States, unless such amounts received by the financing corporation as a result of such acquisition of its stock or debt obligations were derived from sources outside the United States by the United States person making such acquisition from the financing corporation. For the rules concerning derivation of amounts from sources outside the United States, see subparagraph (2) of this paragraph and § 147.7–9(c).

(ii) Such information and records with respect to the financing corporation as are described in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph shall, upon written notice mailed to the financing corporation at its last known address within the United States, be made readily available, within 45 days from the date such notice is mailed to the corporation, for inspection by the district director or his delegate with whom the financing corporation filed a copy of its statement of election under section 4920(a)(3B)(B) and § 147.7–8(b)(1) or its statement of notice under section 4915(e)(2)(C) and paragraph (b)(2) of this section. If, however, the financing corporation has no last known address within the United States, the written notice shall be mailed to the financing corporation in care of the U.S. person making the acquisition from the financing corporation at his last known address.

(2) Use and source of amounts invested. For purposes of this section—

(i) Amounts received by the financing corporation as a result of such acquistion of its stock or debt obligations will be considered as utilized outside the United States if used to provide working capital for activities outside the United States, if used to purchase physical plant, equipment, raw material, or inventory to be used outside the United States, or if loaned or invested outside the United States.

(ii) Amounts derived from sources outside the United States are:

(a) Amounts derived from one or more of the sources allowable under section 4920(d)(2) and § 147.7–9(c).

(b) Amounts borrowed from sources outside the United States. If such borrowed amounts are repaid from amounts derived directly or indirectly from sources within the United States (including repatriated funds), the rules concerning misuse of amounts received, as set forth in paragraph (c) of this section, shall apply.

Amounts described in (a) or (b) of this subdivision which have been physically repatriated from sources outside the United States will not be treated as derived from sources outside the United States. Thus, if a U.S. person physically receives funds in the United States as a dividend from a foreign corporation, or otherwise transfers funds to the United States, such funds will be treated as physically repatriated and derived from sources within the United States.

(iii) Except as provided to the contrary in subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph, all amounts will be treated as derived from sources within the United States.

(3) Recordkeeping. The information and records with respect to the financing corporation, to be made readily available for inspection as required in subparagraph (1)(ii) of this paragraph, consist of full records, or, in the case of a foreign financing corporation, copies thereof certified by an officer of such corporation to be true and correct copies of such records, disclosing all of the facts establishing—

(i) The use by the financing corporation of all amounts received by it as a result of such acquisition, and

(ii) The status of the financing corporation at all times as a corporation described in subparagraph (A), (B), or (C) of section 4915(e)(2) and in paragraph (b) of this section. In the case of a financing corporation described in subparagraph (B) or (C) of section 4915(e)(2) and in paragraph (b)(2) or (3) of this section, the requirements of this subdivision are not met unless the specific recordkeeping and reporting requirements set forth in § 147.7–9(f) are met.

(4) Acquisitions from third persons. The acquisition by a U.S. person of stock of a financing corporation from a foreign person other than the issuer shall be deemed to meet the requirements of section 4915(e), but only if all the funds or property used for such acquisition were derived from sources outside the United States.

(b) Financing corporation defined—(1) In general. For purposes of this section, a financing corporation is—

(i) A domestic corporation described in section 4920(a)(3)(C) (relating to corporations primarily engaged in the lending or financing business outside the United States),

(ii) A domestic corporation which is a qualified lending and financing corporation (as defined in section 4920(d) and § 147.7–9) during any period for which its election is in effect under section 4920(a)(3B) and § 147.7–8 to be treated as a foreign issuer and foreign obligor, or

(iii) A foreign corporation which (a) is a qualified lending and financing corporation (as defined in section 4920(d) and § 147.7–9) and (b) has filed a statement of notice of its status as a qualified lending and financing corporation.

(2) Statement of notice. For purposes of subparagraph (1)(iii) of this paragraph, the statement of notice must—

(i) State that the foreign corporation claims status as a qualified lending and financing corporation,

(ii) Disclose the information required to be furnished under § 147.7–8(b)(2)(ii) and (iii) by domestic qualified lending and financing corporations, and

(iii) Disclose the district director with whom the copy of such statement is being filed. The statement must be filed with the Internal Revenue Service Center (Attention: IET Coordinator), 310 Lowell Street, Andover, MA 01812, and a copy of such statement must be filed with the district director (Attention: IET Coordinator) for the district in which is located the legal residence, principal place of business, or principal office or agency of the U.S. person which owns or controls more than 50 percent of the stock of the financing corporation or, if no U.S. person owns or controls more than 50 percent of its stock, with the Office of International Operations (Attention: IET Coordinator), Internal Revenue Service, Washington, D.C. 20225. Such statement of notice shall be effective as of the date it is filed (or as of the date of the creation, or substantial change in ownership, of the financing corporation if the notice is filed within 30 days of such creation or substantial change in ownership). However, a statement of notice filed on or before [30 days after the date of publication of Treasury decision in the FEDERAL REGISTER] shall be effective as of April 3, 1971, or such date thereafter as such corporation may specify in such statement of notice. A notice in effect on April 1, 1971, that was filed under section 4915(c)(3) (as in effect prior to its repeal as of April 2, 1971) shall be treated as satisfying the requirement of a notice under this subparagraph, but only if a copy of such notice is filed by (60 days after the date of publication of Treasury decision in the FEDERAL REGISTER) with the Internal Revenue Service Center (Attention: IET Coordinator), 310 Lowell Street, Andover, MA 01812.

(c) Misuse of amounts received. If section 4915(e)(1) and paragraph (a) of this section applied to an acquisition of stock or debt obligations of a financing corporation, and—

(1) (i) The amounts received by the financing corporation from such acquisition are (before the termination date specified in section 4911(d)) in turn used to acquire stock of other foreign issuers or debt obligations of other foreign obligors or utilized in any other way outside the United States, and

(ii) Such amounts were not derived from sources outside the United States (as determined under paragraph (a)(2)(ii) of this section) by the U.S. person making such acquisition of stock or debt obligations of the financing corporation, or

(2) Information or records described in paragraph (a)(3) of this section are not, upon notice as prescribed in paragraph (a)(1)(ii) of this section, made readily available in accordance with such paragraph, then liability for the tax imposed by section 4911 shall be incurred by the U.S. person making such acquisition of stock or debt obligations of the financing corporation at the time such amounts are so used or such information or records are not so available. The amount of such tax shall be equal to the amount of tax for which the U.S. person would have been liable under section 4911 upon its acquisition of the stock or debt obligations of the financing corporation involved if section 4915(e)(1) and paragraph (a) of this section had not applied to such acquisition. The amount of such tax paid by the U.S. persons under this paragraph will, as provided in § 147.7–8(b)(3)(ii), reduce the liability of the domestic financing corporation for such tax, if any, upon revocation of its election under section 4920(a)(3B)(B) and § 147.7–8(b)(3) if such revocation gives rise to the liability of such U.S. person for such tax under this paragraph.

(d) Prior law. Section 4915(c)(3), as in effect prior to its repeal by the Interest Equalization Tax Extension Act of 1971 on April 1, 1971, shall apply to acquisitions prior to April 2, 1971, of stock or debt obligations of foreign corporations described in and treated by virtue of such section as not formed or availed of for the principal purpose set forth in section 4915(c)(1).

PAR. 2. Section 147.7–7 is amended by revising the title of such section and by adding a new paragraph (i) to such section. The revised title and added paragraph read as follows:

§ 147.7–7 Election by certain domestic financing companies to be treated as foreign issuers or obligors with respect to acquisitions made before April 3, 1971.

* * * * *

(i) Acquisitions before April 3, 1971. The provisions of this section shall be applicable only with respect to acquisitions made before April 3, 1971.

PAR. 3. The following new sections are added immediately after § 147.7–7:

§ 147.7–8 Election by certain domestic financing companies to be treated as foreign issuers or obligors with respect to acquisitions made after April 2, 1971.

(a) In general. Under section 4920(a)(3B) as amended by section 3(e)(2) of the Interest Equalization Tax Extension Act of 1971, a domestic corporation, which is a qualified lending or financing corporation (as defined in section 4920(d) and § 147.7–9), may elect after April 2, 1971, to be treated as a foreign issuer or foreign obligor for purposes of chapter 41 of the Internal Revenue Code. Paragraph (b) of this section prescribes the manner of making the election. During the period such an election is in effect, such corporation (referred to in this section as an "electing corporation") is treated as a foreign issuer or foreign obligor for purposes of chapter 41 and, provided the requirements of section 4915(e) and § 147.2–2 are met, is treated as not formed or availed of for the principal purpose described in section 4915(c)(1). For example, a U.S. person may acquire stock of an electing corporation without liability for the tax imposed by section 4911 if the requirements of section 4915(e) and § 147.2–2 are satisfied. In addition, an electing corporation will be exempt from such tax on stock or debt obligations of one or more foreign issuers or obligors acquired by it. See, however, paragraph (b)(3) of this section with respect to revocation of the election.

(b) Time and manner of making election—(1) In general. An election under this section may be made at any time after April 2, 1971. Such election shall be made by filing the statement of election prescribed in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph with the Internal Revenue Service Center (Attention: IET Coordinator), 310 Lowell Street, Andover, MA 01812, and by filing a copy of such statement of election with the district director (Attention: IET Coordinator), for the district in which is located the legal residence, principal place of business, or principal office or agency of the U.S. person which owns or controls more than 50 percent of the stock of the electing corporation or, if no U.S. person owns or controls more than 50 percent of its stock, with the district director (Attention: IET Coordinator) for the district in which is located the principal place of business or principal office or agency of the electing corporation. Such election shall be effective with respect to acquisitions by a U.S. person of the stock or debt obligations of the electing corporation and, with respect to acquisitions by the electing corporation of stock or debt obligations of a foreign issuer or obligor, made on or after the date on which the statement of election is filed and shall remain in effect until revoked in accordance with subparagraph (3) of this paragraph. If, however, a statement of election is filed on or before (30 days after the date of publication of Treasury decision in the FEDERAL REGISTER), such election shall be effective as of April 3, 1971, or such date thereafter as such corporation may specify in such statement of election. An election in effect on April 1, 1971, made under section 4920(d) of the Internal Revenue Code (as in effect on April 1, 1971) shall be treated as satisfying the requirement of an election under this section, but only if a copy of such statement of election is filed by (60 days after the date of publication of Treasury decision in the FEDERAL REGISTER) with the Internal Revenue Service Center (Attention: IET Coordinator), 310 Lowell Street, Andover, MA 01812. If a U.S. person acquires the stock or debt obligations of an electing corporation prior to the effective date of the corporation's election, the acquisition will not be treated as an acquisition covered by section 4915(e) and §147.2–2.

(2) Information to be furnished. The statement of election referred to in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph shall contain the following information:

(i) A statement that the corporation elects to be treated as a foreign issuer or foreign obligor for purposes of chapter 41 of the Internal Revenue Code and is a qualified lending and financing corporation,

(ii) The name, address, employer identification number (if any) and principal place of business or principal office of the corporation,

(iii) The capitalization of the corporation disclosing, as of the date the statement of election is filed, the amounts of outstanding stock and debt obligations of the corporation, the names and addresses of shareholders, contributors to capital, and holders of debt obligations (if known), the number of shares owned by each shareholder, and the amounts furnished by each shareholder, contributor to capital, and holder of debt obligations, and

(iv) The district director with whom the copy of such statement is being filed.

(3) Revocation of election—(i) In general. An election under this section may be revoked by filing a statement of revocation, which shall include the name, address, employer identification number (if any), and principal place of business or principal office of the corporation, with the Internal Revenue Service Center (Attention: IET Coordinator), 310 Lowell Street, Andover, MA 01812, and a copy of such statement of revocation with the district director (Attention: IET Coodinator) with whom it filed its copy of its statement of election under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph. In addition, an election made under this section shall be deemed revoked if, at any time, the corporation fails to meet any requirement which must be satisfied under section 4920(d) or in paragraphs (b) through (f) of § 147.7–9 in order to be a qualified lending and financing corporation. When a domestic corporation's election is revoked or is deemed revoked, it may not make any further election under this section.

(ii) Effect of revocation. At the time its election under this section is revoked or deemed revoked, a domestic corporation shall incur liability for the tax imposed by section 4911 with respect to all stock or debt obligations it acquired during the period for which the election was in effect and which are held by it at such time. The amount of such tax shall be equal to the amount of tax for which the corporation would be liable under section 4911 if it had acquired such stock or debt obligations immediately after such revocation. If a domestic corporation becomes liable for such tax as a result of revocation of its election, and if such revocation also causes a United States person which previously made an acquisition of the corporation's stock or debt obligations without liability for such tax to become liable for such tax on its acquisition under section 4912(b)(3) and section 4915(e)(3) and § 147.2–2(c), the liability of the domestic corporation for such tax under this subdivision shall be reduced under section 4913(c) by the amount of such tax paid by the United States person upon its acquisition under section 4912(b)(3) and section 4915(e)(3) and § 147.2–2(c).

§ 147.7–9 Qualified lending and financing corporation defined.

(a) In general. For purposes of §§ 147.2–2 and 147.7–8, under section 4920(d) a "qualified lending and financing corporation" is a corporation which meets the following tests:

(1) It is engaged in a lending and financing trade or business within the meaning of paragraph (b) of this section.

(2) Its funds used to acquire the two classes of assets described in paragraph (c) of this section are derived from sources described in paragraph (c) of this section.

(3) It has not acquired any stock except as permitted in paragraph (d) of this section.

(4) In the case of a domestic corporation, it has identified its stock and debt obligations in the manner prescribed in paragraph (e) of this section.

(5) It has satisfied the recordkeeping and reporting requirements of paragraph (f) of this section. If a corporation at any time fails to meet any of these tests, it will no longer be a qualified lending and financing corporation and the provisions of §§ 147.2–2(c) and 147.7–8(b)(3), in the case of a domestic corporation, will apply.

(b) Lending and financing business—(1) In general. In order to be engaged in a lending and financing trade or business as required, the corporation must derive at least 90 percent of the gross income of its trade or business in each of its taxable years, commencing with the taxable year in which it first claims status as a qualified lending and financing corporation, from one or more of the sources set forth in subdivisions (i) through (vi) of this subparagraph. For purposes of this paragraph, the term "gross income" is gross income as defined in section 61 and the regulations thereunder, except that for purposes of subdivisions (i) and (iii) of this subparagraph gross income shall be reduced by depreciation on the property leased, computed on a straight line basis. For purposes of computing such depreciation, the corporation may adopt any useful life permitted under section 167, except any useful life permitted as a variance from a class life under the last sentence of section 167(m)(1). In the case of a foreign corporation, gross income shall be determined as if such corporation were a domestic corporation. For purposes of this paragraph, the taxable year of the foreign corporation shall be determined under section 441 and the regulations thereunder, and by treating a foreign corporation which is not subject to U.S. income tax as though it were a taxpayer within the meaning of section 7701(a)(14). The permissible sources of gross income under this subparagraph are:

(i) Making loans, including the acquisition of obligations arising under a lease which is entered into principally as a financing transaction (for purposes of this section referred to as a "financing lease").

(ii) Acquiring accounts receivable, notes, or installment obligations (or similar obligations received in the ordinary course of its trade or business) arising out of the sale of tangible personal property or the performance of services.

(iii) Leasing tangible personal property, other than through financing leases, but only if such leasing accounts for less than 50 percent of its trade or business.

(iv) Servicing debt obligations.

(v) Carrying on incidental activities, such as temporarily investing idle funds in debt obligations (including bank deposits) which are payable on demand or have a period remaining to maturity of less than 1 year or carrying on guaranty and brokerage activities, in connection with its trade or business described in subdivision (i), (ii), (iii), or (iv) of this subparagraph.

(vi) Any combination of the foregoing.

For purposes of this paragraph, the term "tangible personal property" is tangible personal property as defined in section 48(a)(1)(A) and the regulations thereunder.

(2) Financing leases. For purposes of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, whether a lease is a financing lease depends upon whether it appears at its execution that such lease is in reality a substitute for debt financing. The rules of this subparagraph and subparagraphs (3) and (4) of this paragraph for determining whether a lease is a financing lease do not apply to the determination of whether a lease is in fact a sale or other financing transaction under sections 38, 57, 163, 167, or any other section of subtitle A of the Code (relating to income tax) and the rules of those sections do not apply to the determination of whether a lease is a financing lease under this section or § 147.7–10. A lease once tested to determine if it is a financing lease will not again be so tested unless its provisions are significantly changed. A lease which is renewable without affirmative action by the lessor shall be treated as having a single term ending on the last day of the final renewal period and shall be so tested at its execution for the period of such single term. In the case of a lease which is renewable upon the affirmative action of the lessor, the initial term and each renewal term of the lease shall be treated as constituting separate leases having separate terms ending, as the case may be, on the last day of the initial term and the last day of each respective renewal term and shall be so tested at its execution for the period of the initial term and shall be so tested again at the commencement of each respective renewal term for the period of such renewal term. A lease is in reality a substitute for debt financing if:

(i) It appears at the execution of the lease that over its term the lessor is either guaranteed a specific return or is guaranteed in whole or in part against loss of income, or

(ii) It appears at the execution of the lease from the provisions of the lease agreement that over its term (a) the sum of the ordinary and necessary trade or business expenses (other than rental payments with respect to the leased property) to be borne by the lessor by reason of or attributable to the lease which would, were the lessor liable for income tax under subtitle A of the Code, be allowable as deductions solely by reason of section 162 will be less than (b) 15 percent of the gross income from rents payable under the lease.

(3) Guarantee test. The guarantee test set forth in subparagraph (2)(i) of this paragraph will be met if the lessor has, in any manner, formal or informal, contracted with the lessee or a party related to the lessee that as a result of the lease the lessor either will receive a specified return as a result of the lease or will not suffer a loss. This test is based upon an analysis of the leasing arrangement as a whole to determine whether over the entire term of the lease (and not just a portion of such term) the lessor is guaranteed a specified return or against loss as a result of the lease. In determining whether the lessor is assured of a specified return or that he will not suffer a loss as a result of the lease, weight will be given to all the facts and circumstances of each particular case. Thus, an arrangement whereby the lessor is assured by, or on behalf of, the lessee that the income the lessor will receive or accrue as a result of the lessee's use of the property will exceed the expenses he will pay or accrue which are attributable to the property, or the lessee's use of the property, by a fixed or determinable amount will meet the guarantee test in subparagraph (2)(i) of this paragraph. This test will be met, for example, if the lessee is obligated to pay all the expenses attributable to the property which the lessor will incur or accrue for the period covered by the lease (including taxes other than taxes measured by or related to income) and, in the event of complete or partial destruction of the property, the lessee is obligated either to continue to pay the full rent for such period or a lump-sum amount equivalent to at least the present value of such rental payments. The fact that the residual value of leased property is unknown at the time of the execution of a lease shall not of itself affect a determination that such lease meets the guarantee test in subparagraph (2)(i) of this paragraph. The fact that amounts to be paid by the lessee may depend, in whole or in part, on fluctuation of interest rates shall not affect the characterization of such return as a specified return. A lease will not meet the guarantee test in subparagraph (2)(i) of this paragraph if the lessor bears the major risk of loss, during the term of the lease, with respect to complete or partial destruction of the property. Thus, the guarantee test of subparagraph (2)(i) of this paragraph will not be met if at no time during the lease term can the sum, of the amount of rent the lessee must continue to pay in the event of a complete or partial destruction of the property plus the liability of the lessee for all or a portion of the residual value of the property at the scheduled end of the lease term (projected as if no such event occurs), exceed 50 percent of the property's fair market value when the lease was executed. In cases where the obligation to pay rent abates only in case of certain specified natural disasters or certain specified structural defects, the determination of whether the lessor's risk is substantial is to be made from all the facts and circumstances. A lessor's risk will not be considered insubstantial because the lessor is protected against loss of income by means of rental continuation insurance unless the lessee or a related party is obligated to pay for or to reimburse the lessor for such insurance. The fact that the lessor is protected by means of escalator clauses against increases in some but not all of the expenses attributable to the property does not cause the guarantee test of subparagraph (2)(i) of this paragraph to be met unless the lessor bears no substantial risk with respect to total or partial destruction of the property and the expenses not subject to escalator clauses are not significant or are fixed by agreement with the lessee or a related party. The fact that the lessor of an equipment lease has a contract with a third party which provides all necessary repair and maintenance services for a fixed price for a period covered by the lease does not mean that the lessor is guaranteed a specified return or against loss as a result of the lease, and thus, will not cause the guarantee test of subparagraph (2)(i) of this paragraph to be met.

(4) Expense test. For purposes of the 15-percent expense test set forth in subparagraph (2)(ii) of this paragraph—

(i) Only those expenses (other than rental payments with respect to the leased property) deductible solely by reason of section 162 are included. Hence, examples of expenses which are not included are depreciation allowable by reason of section 167, interest allowable by reason of section 163, taxes allowable by reason of section 164, and amortization allowable by reason of section 184 or similar provisions. Only those section 162 expenses paid or payable by the lessor are included. Thus, section 162 expenses paid or payable by the lessee or any party other than the lessor are not included unless the lessor is obligated to reimburse the party paying the expense. Similarly, if the lessee or some other party is obligated to reimburse the lessor for expenses paid or payable by the lessor, expenses so reimbursed are not considered paid or payable by the lessor. If the lessee is obligated to pay to the lessor a charge for services which is separately stated or determinable, the expenses incurred by the lessor with respect to those services are not included.

(ii) The gross income from rents of the lessor is the total amount which is payable to the lessor by reason of the lease agreement other than reimbursements of section 162 expenses and charges separately stated or determinable. The fact that such amount depends, in whole or in part, on the sales or profits of the lessee, the performance of significant services by the lessor, or the fluctuation of interest rates shall not affect the characterization of such amount as gross income from rents for purposes of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph. In such cases, a reasonable estimate of the income to be earned over the term of the lease should be made to determine whether the 15-percent test will be met.

(5) Nonfinancing leases. For purposes of subparagraph (1)(iii) of this paragraph—

(i) Leasing transactions of tangible personal property (other than through financing leases referred to in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph) shall be deemed to account for less than 50 percent of the trade or business of the corporation if the total adjusted bases, determined under sections 1012 and 1016 (and in the case of a foreign corporation determined as if the corporation were a domestic corporation), at the end of the taxable year of tangible personal property held subject to leases which are not financing leases amounts to less than the sum of the adjusted bases, determined under sections 1012 and 1016 (and in the case of a foreign corporation determined as if the corporation were a domestic corporation), at the end of the taxable year of—

(a) All property owned by the corporation in connection with its business activities described in paragraph (b)(1)(i), (ii), (iv), and (v) of this section, and

(b) All property actively used by the corporation (not including investment assets such as portfolio investments) which were not taken into account under (a) of this subdivision.

(ii) If the corporation does not satisfy the test set forth in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph, leasing transactions of tangible personal property (other than through financing leases referred to in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph) shall nonetheless be deemed to account for less than 50 percent of the trade or business of the corporation if the total amount of gross income, within the meaning of paragraph (b)(1) of this section, for the taxable year derived by the corporation from leases of tangible personal property which are not financing leases amounts to less than one-half of the total amount of gross income, within the meaning of paragraph (b)(1) of this section, of the corporation for the taxable year.

(iii) If the corporation does not satisfy either of the tests set forth in subdivision (i) or (ii) of this subparagraph, a determination by the district director with whom the corporation filed a copy of its statement of election under section 4920(a)(3B)(B) and § 147.7–8(b)(1) or its statement of notice under section 4915(e)(2)(C) and § 147.2–2(b)(2) that leasing transactions of tangible personal property (other than through financing leases referred to in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph) account for less than 50 percent of the trade or business of the corporation may be made if the corporation presents sufficient special facts and circumstances to justify such a determination.

(c) Source of funds. A corporation (referred to in this paragraph as the "corporation being tested") must meet the source of funds test described in this paragraph in order to be a qualified lending and financing corporation. (This source of funds test does not apply to funds which were held on April 1, 1971, outside the United States by the corporation being tested and were not physically repatriated to the United States after such date.) If the corporation being tested acquires and carries any assets from two classes, they must be acquired and carried only from certain sources. The two classes of assets are: Debt obligations of foreign obligors (including obligations arising under a financing lease referred to in paragraph (b)(1) of this section), and tangible personal property, other than property 85 percent or more of the purchase price of which is attributable to manufacture, production, growth, or extraction in the United States, acquired for leasing in transactions which are not financing leases referred to in paragraph (b)(1) of this section. Assets of either class must be acquired and carried only with amounts derived solely from one or more of the following four sources enumerated in subparagraphs (1), (2), (3), and (4) of this paragraph:

(1) Debt obligations. (i) The proceeds of the sale (including a sale in a transaction described in section 4919(a)(1)) by the corporation being tested (or by a domestic corporation described in section 4912(b)(3) which is a member of a controlled group, as defined in section 48(c)(3)(C), of which the corporation being tested is a member or would be such a member if it were a domestic corporation) of debt obligations of such corporation being tested (or such domestic corporation) to persons other than members of the three prohibited classes enumerated in subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph.

(ii) (a) The first prohibited class is a U.S. person (not including a foreign branch of a domestic corporation or of a domestic partnership, if such branch is engaged in the commercial banking business and acquired such debt obligations in the ordinary course of such commercial banking business).

(b) The second prohibited class is a foreign partnership in which the corporation being tested (or one or more includible corporations in an affiliated group, as defined in section 1504, of which the corporation being tested is a member) owns directly or indirectly (within the meaning of section 4915(a)(1)) 10 percent or more of the profits interest of the partnership.

(c) The third prohibited class is a foreign corporation, if the corporation being tested (or one or more includible (domestic) corporations in an affiliated group, as defined in section 1504, of which the corporation being tested is a member or would be a member if it were a domestic corporation) owns directly or indirectly (within the meaning of section 4915(a)(1)) 10 percent or more of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock of such foreign corporation, except to the extent such foreign corporation has, within 1 year after filing a statement of notice as described in subdivision (iii) of this subparagraph, acquired funds through loans from persons other than persons described in this subdivision (ii) and is using such funds to acquire the debt obligations of the corporation being tested (or such domestic corporation).

(iii) For purposes of subdivision (ii)(c) of this subparagraph, the statement of notice described in this subdivision shall contain—

(a) The name, address, and principal place of business or principal office of the foreign corporation and its connection through stock ownership to the corporation being tested.

(b) A statement of intention of the foreign corporation to issue debt obligations as set forth in subdivision (ii)(c) of this subparagraph.

(c) A statement of the maximum total face amount of debt obligations to be issued under subdivision (ii)(c) of this subparagraph which the issuer anticipates (as of the time the statement of notice is filed) will be outstanding at any one time and the proceeds of which will be used to acquire debt obligations of the corporation being tested (or such domestic corporation).

The statement of notice may, at the option of such foreign corporation, apply with respect to debt obligations to be issued the proceeds of which will be used to acquire debt obligations of more than one corporation being tested if the information which must be contained in such statement of notice is set forth separately with respect to each of the corporations being tested.

The statement of notice shall be filed with the Internal Revenue Service Center (Attention: IET Coordinator), 310 Lowell Street, Andover, MA 01812, and a copy of such statement of notice shall be filed with the district director with whom the corporation being tested filed its statement of election under section 4920(a)(3B)(B) and § 147.7–8(b)(1) or its statement of notice under section 4915(e)(2)(C) and § 147.2–2(b)(2). Such statement of notice filed under this subdivision shall be effective as of the date it is filed. If a statement of notice is filed with a district director, an internal revenue service center, or the Internal Revenue Service National Office on or before (30 days after the date of publication of Treasury decision in the FEDERAL REGISTER), the notice shall be deemed to be effective as of the date it is so filed, even though the notice does not contain the information required by (a), (b), and (c) of this subdivision or the notice, or a copy of it, is not filed at the place required by this subdivision, but only if a further statement of notice, and a copy of it, containing the information required by (a), (b), and (c) of this subdivision is filed on or before (30 days after the date of publication of Treasury decision in the FEDERAL REGISTER) at the places required by this subdivision.

(iv) The funds used for repaying or refinancing any debt obligation sold by the corporation being tested for the purpose of obtaining funds, as provided in this subparagraph, must be derived from one or more of the four sources allowed under this paragraph. If such a domestic corporation referred to in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, or a foreign corporation that is not a member of the prohibited class referred to in subdivision (ii)(c) of this subparagraph, has obtained funds through loans to acquire the debt obligations of the corporation being tested (or of such a domestic corporation), then it must repay all or a portion of such loans only with amounts such domestic corporation or foreign corporation derives directly from one or more of the four sources allowed under this paragraph, or with amounts it derives indirectly through the corporation being tested from one or more of the four sources allowed all or a portion of under this paragraph. It must refinance such loans only with amounts it derives directly from one or more of the four sources allowed under this paragraph. If a loan is repaid or refinanced from a source other than one of the four sources allowed under this paragraph, the test of this paragraph will not be met. No debt obligation sold for the purpose of obtaining funds, as provided in this subparagraph, shall be convertible into stock or debt obligations of a person who is a member of a prohibited class described in subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph.

(2) Stock. (i) The proceeds of payment for stock, or the proceeds of a contribution to capital, of the corporation being tested, but only if—

(a) The payment or contribution was derived from the sale of debt obligations by one or more corporations which are members (or would be members if they were domestic corporations) of a controlled group (as defined in section 48(c)(3)(C)) of which the corporation being tested is a member (or would be such a member if it were a domestic corporation) to persons other than persons who are members of a prohibited class described in subparagraph (1)(ii) of this paragraph, and

(b) Such debt obligations, if acquired by U.S. persons, would be subject to the tax imposed by section 4911.

(ii) For example, a payment or contribution shall be considered to be within the meaning of the preceding sentence where the funds for the payment or contribution are obtained by a domestic corporation making the payment or contribution through a loan from one or more corporations includible in a controlled group as defined in section 48(c)(3)(C) (or would be includible if they were domestic corporations) of which the domestic corporation is a member, provided such includible corporation or corporations acquired the funds which are loaned to the domestic corporation through the issuance of debt obligations to persons other than persons who are members of a prohibited class described in subparagraph (1)(ii) of this paragraph and provided such debt obligations, if acquired by U.S. persons would be subject to the tax imposed by section 4911. The funds used for repaying all or a portion of all such debt obligations must be derived (a) directly by the debtor corporation from one or more of the four sources allowed under this paragraph, (b) indirectly by the debtor corporation through the corporation being tested from one or more of the four sources allowed under this paragraph, or (c) indirectly by the debtor corporation through one or more other qualified lending and financing corporations which are members (or would be members if they were domestic corporations) of a controlled group (as defined in section 48(c)(3)(C)) of which the corporation being tested is a member (or would be such member if it were a domestic corporation), from retained earnings and reserves of such other qualified lending and financing corporations which are derived from the conduct of a lending or financing business outside the United States. The funds used for refinancing all or a portion of all such debt obligations must be derived directly by the corporation from one or more of the four sources allowed under this paragraph. Funds derived indirectly from sources not allowed under this paragraph with actual knowledge of such indirect derivation shall be deemed to be derived from such sources. If all or a portion of a debt obligation is repaid or refinanced from a source other than a source allowed under this paragraph, the test of this paragraph will not be met.

(iii) For purposes of this subparagraph, debt obligations which would be subject to the tax imposed by section 4911 if acquired by U.S. persons include debt obligations of a foreign obligor and debt obligations of a domestic corporation or partnership for which an election under section 4912(c) has been made or which is a domestic corporation or partnership formed or availed of to obtain funds for a foreign issuer or obligor as described in section 4912(b)(3).

(3) Earnings. Retained earnings and reserves of the corporation being tested to the extent derived from the conduct of its lending or financing business outside the United States.

(4) Trade accounts. Trade accounts payable and accrued liabilities of the corporation being tested to the extent derived from the conduct of its lending or financing business outside the United States—

(i) Which are payable by the corporation being tested within 1 year (3 years in the case of tax liabilities) from the date they were incurred or accrued,

(ii) Which are not paid with funds derived from sources inside the United States, and

(iii) Which arise in the ordinary course of the lending and financing trade or business of such corporation otherwise than from borrowing.

(d) Acquisition of stock. In order to be a qualified lending and financing corporation, the corporation may not acquire any stock of foreign issuers or of domestic corporations or domestic partnerships other than stock of one or more members of a controlled group (as defined in section 48(c)(3)(C)) of which the qualified lending and financing corporation is a member (or of a corporation which would be a member if it were a domestic corporation) which stock is acquired as payment for stock, or as a contribution to capital, of the qualified lending and financing corporation. The corporation may, however, accept pledges of stock to secure the payment of debt obligations held by it, as long as the sole purpose of the pledge is to protect the corporation's rights as a creditor or lessor and its rights as pledgee do not exceed those customarily conferred on pledgees. The right to vote on all corporate matters or to receive dividends (except in satisfaction of its rights as a creditor) is not ordinarily conferred on pledgees. The corporation may not as a result of realizing on its pledge rights acquire beneficial ownership of the stock in satisfaction (in whole or in part) or upon default of the debt obligations.

(e) Identification of debt obligations and stock. On the face of each document evidencing any debt obligation of a domestic qualified lending and financing corporation sold for the purpose of obtaining funds, there shall be marked the following or substantially similar language: "This debt obligation is to be treated as the debt obligation of a foreign obligor for purposes of the United States Interest Equalization Tax and its acquisition by a U.S. person shall subject such person to tax liability to the extent provided in Chapter 41 of the Internal Revenue Code." Any stock certificate of such a corporation shall be similarly marked.

(f) Recordkeeping and reporting requirements. A qualified lending and financing corporation shall maintain at its principal place of business or principal office or agency such records (including full records of acquisitions of all debt obligations of foreign obligors and of all tangible personal property acquired for leasing, whether or not in financing transactions) as are necessary to establish that the requirements set forth in paragraphs (b) through (e) of this section have been satisfied and to substantiate the information required to be furnished under § 147.7–8(b)(2) for an electing domestic qualified lending and financing corporation or under § 147.2–2(b)(2) for a foreign qualified lending and financing corporation. Such records, in the case of a foreign qualified lending and financing corporation, or/copies thereof certified by an officer of such corporation to be true and correct copies of such records, shall, upon written notice mailed to the qualified lending and financing corporation at its last known address within the United States, be made readily available in the United States within 45 days from the date such notice is mailed to the corporation, for inspection by the district director or his delegate with whom the corporation filed a copy of its statement of election under section 4920(a)(3B)(B) and § 147.7–8(b)(1) or its statement of notice under section 4915(e)(2)(C) and § 147.2–2(b)(2). If, however, the qualified lending and financing corporation has no last known address within the United States, the written notice shall be mailed to the corporation in the care of each U.S. person believed to own directly or indirectly 10 percent or more of the stock of the qualified lending and financing corporation at his last known address within the United States. A qualified lending and financing corporation which has at any time after April 1, 1971, received any amounts representing a direct acquisition of the stock or debt obligations of such corporation by a U.S. person shall file an annual report disclosing the use of such amounts by such corporation. Such annual report shall disclose:

(1) The name, address, employer identification number, and principal place of business or principal office of the corporation and of each of the U.S. persons making any such acquisition.

(2) The amounts received by such corporation during the year from each U.S. person, with an indication whether such amounts were derived by the U.S. person from inside the United States, and the dates such amounts were received by the corporation.

(3) In the case of funds and property received from a source outside the United States described in § 147.2–2(a)(2)(ii)(b) (relating to amounts borrowed from outside the United States) and not disclosed under subparagraph (6) of this paragraph, a schedule disclosing the amounts of such funds and property received during the year.

(4) The corporation's gross income for its taxable year as determined under paragraph (b)(1) of this section, the amount attributable to each one of the permissible sources of gross income described in paragraph (b)(1)(i) through (vi) of this section, and the amount thereof (if any) not attributable to any such permissible source. The corporation shall specifically identify the payor and reason for payment of items of gross income attributable to sources described in paragraph (b)(1)(v) and (vi) of this section, except with respect to any such item of gross income which amounts to less than the greater of 10 percent of the gross income attributable to such sources or 1 percent of the corporation's gross income.

(5) If the corporation expects to satisfy the test of paragraph (b)(5)(i) of this section (relating to assets test for nonfinancing leases), for each of its six business activities described in subdivisions (i) through (vi) of paragraph (b)(1) of this section, and for any other activities of the corporation, a statement of the total adjusted bases of property used in connection with each activity as of the end of the taxable year.

(6) (i) In the case of funds and property of the corporation attributable to each one of the three sources respectively, described in paragraph (c)(1), (2), and (3), of this section, and to nonqualified sources (that is, sources other than the sources described in paragraph (c)(1) through (4) of this section), a schedule setting forth—

(a) The funds and property on hand at the beginning of the corporation's taxable year derived from each such source and not disbursed as at the beginning of the year,

(b) The funds and property derived during its taxable year from each source,

(c) The funds and property disbursed during its taxable year attributable to each source, and

(d) The funds and property on hand at the end of the corporation's taxable year derived from each source and not disbursed as at the end of the year.

(ii) The schedule described in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph shall also set forth the funds and property disbursed during the corporation's taxable year attributable to the source described in paragraph (c)(4) of this section (relating to trade accounts).

(iii) For purposes of subdivision (i)(c) of this subparagraph, the corporation may arbitrarily assign the disbursement of amounts among the named sources, and, in the case of funds and property not attributable to sources described in paragraph (c)(1) through (4) of this section, the corporation shall disclose in a generalized manner the purpose for which such funds and property not attributable to such sources are disbursed. For example, such disbursements might be disclosed in a general manner as made for office expenses (which as a single item includes salaries, supplies, rent, and furniture and fixtures).

(iv) In lieu of providing the information required by subdivision (i) of this subparagraph with respect to funds and property attributable to nonqualified sources not described in paragraph (c)(1) through (4) of this section, the corporation may provide such information with respect to funds and property attributable to the source described in paragraph (c)(4) of this section.

(7) The name and address of each person receiving from the corporation any amount described in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph which was derived by the U.S. person from inside the United States, and a schedule showing the use of any such amount and whether used inside or outside the United States.

(8) A statement, verified by an officer of the corporation, that the corporation has not acquired any stock the acquisition of which is not permitted under paragraph (d) of this section.

(9) If the corporation is a domestic corporation, a sample copy of each document not submitted with a previous report evidencing a debt obligation of the corporation and of each stock certificate of the corporation.

Such report shall be filed within 6 months after the close of the corporation's taxable year, or by (6 months after the date of publication of Treasury decision in the FEDERAL REGISTER) in the case of a taxable year closing before (date of publication of Treasury decision in the FEDERAL REGISTER), with the Internal Revenue Service Center (Attention: IET Coordinator), 310 Lowell Street, Andover, MA 01812, and a copy of such report shall be filed at or about the same time with the district director (Attention: IET Coordinator) with whom it filed its statement of election under section 4920(a) (3B) (B) and § 147.7–8(b) (1) or its statement of notice under section 4915(e) (2) (C) and § 147.2–2(b) (2). For purposes of this paragraph, the taxable year of a foreign corporation shall be determined under section 441 and the regulations thereunder, and by treating a foreign corporation which is not subject to United States income tax as though it were a taxpayer within the meaning of section 7701(a) (14). Such district director is authorized to grant a reasonable extension of time for filing such report under section 6081 and the regulations thereunder.

§ 147.7–10 Application of test for determining if a lease is a financing lease under section 4920(a) (1).

(a) In general. For purposes of section 4920(a) (1), whether a lease is entered into principally as a financing transaction shall be determined by applying the tests of § 147.7–9(b) (2), (3), and (4). In accordance with § 147.7–9(b) (2), such tests will not affect the characterization of leases for income tax purposes and other tests for determining the characterization of leases for income tax purposes will not apply to this section.

(b) Effective date. This section shall apply only with respect to leases executed on or after August 28, 1972 which were not executed pursuant to a binding written contract made before such date.

PART 571—FEDERAL MOTOR VEHICLE SAFETY STANDARDS

Hydraulic Brake Systems; Date for Response to Petitions for Reconsideration

The purpose of this notice is to announce a date by which a response will be issued to the petitions for reconsideration of Motor Vehicle Safety Standard No. 105a, Hydraulic Brake Systems, 49 CFR 571.105a, published September 2, 1972 (Docket No. 70–27; Notice 5; 37 F.R. 17970 with corrections at 37 F.R. 19138).

The NHTSA found that it was not practicable to take action by December 1, 1972, the date by which action would originally be taken under the agency's policy on petitions for reconsideration. Action on the above petitions and notice is planned for issuance not later than February 1, 1973.

PART 230—CREDIT UNIONS SERVING DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE PERSONNEL

Stateside and Overseas Facilities

The following amendments to Part 230 have been approved:

1. § 230.7(a) (1) (i) has been revised and reads as follows:

§ 230.7 Stateside DOD credit unions.

(a) General—(1) New DOD credit unions. (i) Where there is a demonstrated need for credit union services, primary emphasis will be placed on the establishment of a facility chartered by onsite personnel when sufficient personnel capability and interest exists. Otherwise, the possibility of using full service credit union suboffice services of an existing credit union under the common bond principle (e.g., Army credit unions servicing Army personnel at Army installations) should be explored. However, credit union services should not be denied or delayed merely because the common-bond principle cannot be satisfied.

2. § 230.8(a) (1) (i) has been revised and reads as follows:

§ 230.8 Overseas DOD credit unions.

(a) Regulated overseas credit unions (see definition in § 230.3). Such credit unions established as a suboffice of a U.S.-based Federal credit union, will be limited to on-base operations, and will confine its membership to DOD military and civilian personnel and their dependents who are U.S. citizens.

(1) Development and supervisory procedures. Unified command commanders and/or designated component commanders and the military departments will: (a) Issue appropriate instructions consistent with this directive governing existing suboffice credit unions under their jurisdiction, and (b) encourage the suboffice concept consistent with the principles established for stateside DOD credit unions and any international arrangements related to the presence of U.S. forces in the country concerned.

(i) The office of the ASD(M&RA) will be notified through military channels where there is a need for credit union services in an overseas location. This notification will include the name of a designated project officer and a statement that this requirement has been coordinated with the U.S. Chief of Mission or U.S. Embassy involved and that the country involved will permit the operation.

Proposed Rule Making

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

Office of Import Programs

[15 CFR Part 702]

[44 CFR Part 401]

FOREIGN EXCESS PROPERTY

Notice of Proposed Rule Making

Notice is hereby given that the U.S. Department of Commerce proposes to revise in its entirety present Part 401, Chapter IV, of Title 44, Code of Federal Regulations, and to substitute in lieu thereof, a new Part 702, Chapter VII, of Title 15, Code of Federal Regulations, set forth below.

Both the present Part 401 and the proposed new Part 702 relate to the importation into the United States of foreign excess property implementing sections 402, 404(b), and 601 of the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949. These provisions of law provide, in substance, that foreign excess property (other than any agricultural commodity, food, or cotton or woolen goods which are under the jurisdiction of the Secretary of Agriculture) may be imported into the United States only if the Secretary of Commerce determines that the importation of such property would relieve a domestic shortage or otherwise be beneficial to the economy of this country.

The revisions embodied in the proposed regulations reflect clarification and modification of substantive and procedural requirements concerning the importation into the United States of foreign excess property. The principal modifications are as follows:

1. Change the geographical basis for determinations of shortage and benefit to the economy from fixed geographical areas (i.e., Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, and the Continental United States) to parts of these fixed areas, or combinations thereof, depending on the product involved in an application.

2. Change the time period for effectuating a withdrawal or amendment to General Determinations of shortage and benefit to the economy from at least 30 days to publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

3. Abolish the special procedures for small lot importations, importations for public and quasi-public use, and importation of metal scrap because the original basis for the procedures (administrative convenience) no longer exists.

4. Require applicants, who have purchased foreign excess property from an intermediary, to submit a photocopy of the U.S. Government contract or bill of sale for such property to the original purchaser.

Interested persons may, within 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER submit to the Director, Office of Import Programs, U.S. Department of Commerce, Washington, D.C. 20230, written comments (preferably in quintuplicate) concerning these proposed regulations.

All written submissions made pursuant to this notice will be available for public inspection at the Central Reference and Records Inspection Facility, Room 7043, Commerce Building, 14th Street between Constitution Avenue and E Street NW., Washington, D.C. 20230 (cf. 15 CFR 4.5 (a)(6) and (d)).

Deputy Assistant Secretary and Director, Bureau of Resources and Trade Assistance.

AUTHORITY: The provisions of this Part 702 issued under secs. 402, 404(b), 601 of the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949 (63 Stat. 398, 399, 64 Stat. 583; 40 U.S.C. 512, 514(b) and 473); Foreign Liquidation Commissioner's Reg. 8 (44 CFR 308.15); and Commerce Department Organization Order No. 10-3.

§ 702.1 General provisions.

This part prescribes regulations for making applications for determinations as to whether importation of foreign excess property, as defined in this part, would relieve domestic shortages or otherwise be beneficial to the economy of this country. This part also prescribes (a) procedures for the issuance of FEP Import Determinations and FEP Import Authorizations, as defined in § 702.2 (g) and (h); (b) subsidiary criteria and principles to be applied in determining whether importation of foreign excess property would relieve domestic shortages or otherwise be beneficial to the economy of this country; and (c) procedures for the making of General Determinations by the Deputy Assistant Secretary with respect to the importation of particular foreign excess property. It should be noted that foreign excess property may, in whole or in part, also be subject to the licensing requirements of the Department of the Treasury under the Mutual Security Act of 1954, as amended. (See 26 CFR Part 180.) In such instances, issuance of a FEB Import Authorization in no way affects those licensing requirements.

§ 702.2 Definitions.

For the purposes of the regulations in this part and the forms issued to implement them:

(a) "Foreign excess property" means any property (except any agricultural commodity, food, or cotton or woolen goods) located outside the United States, under the control of any Federal agency, which is not required for its needs and the discharge of its responsibilities as determined by the head thereof. It includes any such property after it has been disposed of by such Federal agency, notwithstanding any subsequent change of ownership. The importation of surplus property sold by the U.S. Government or any agency thereof in foreign areas before July 1, 1949, is governed by Foreign Liquidation Commissioner's Reg. 8, which delegates to the Secretary of Commerce jurisdiction over some but not all of such property. To the extent that jurisdiction over such property is delegated to the Secretary of Commerce, such property shall be deemed to be foreign excess property, and is governed by the provisions of this part. Property of lend-lease origin (unless such property has been reacquired by a Federal agency and subsequently disposed of under the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949) is not regarded as foreign excess property nor is the importation of such property prohibited or otherwise limited by Foreign Liquidation Commissioner's Reg. 8.

(b) "Deputy Assistant Secretary" means the Deputy Assistant Secretary and Director, Bureau of Resources and Trade Assistance, of the Department of Commerce.

(c) "Foreign Excess Property Officer (FEPO)" means the Officer appointed by the Deputy Assistant Secretary to administer the regulations of this part.

(d) "Appeals Board" means the Appeals Board for the United States Department of Commerce.

(e) "Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, firm, association, trust, estate, or other entity.

(f) "United States" means the States of the Union, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands.

(g) "FEP Import Determination" (Form FEPF–2) means the document issued by the FEPO stating that the importation of specified and identified foreign excess property would, or would not, relieve domestic shortages or otherwise be beneficial to the economy of this country. An FEP Import Determination is not an authorization to import foreign excess property.

(h) "FEP Import Authorization" (Form FEPF–4) means a document issued by the FEPO to the owner of specified and identified foreign excess property authorizing such person to import such foreign excess property into the United States within the period stated therein.

(i) "Used" property means property which shows physical signs of use or which has deteriorated because of such factors as rust, damage, age, handling, or exposure at the time of importation into the United States.

(j) "Unused" property means property which is in new condition at the time of importation into the United States.

§ 702.3 Criteria.

(a) Basic criteria. The basic criteria governing the importation of foreign excess property contained in the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949 are whether "the importation of such property would relieve domestic shortages or otherwise be beneficial to the economy of this country." These basic criteria require particularization in their application. More detailed criteria are set forth below.

(b) Detailed criteria.—(1) Shortages. A shortage in the market for any particular type or class of goods or materials exists when the demand is greater than the supply. Shortages may be temporary or seasonal in nature and may also be chronic or of long duration. Shortages may be caused by inadequate productive capacity to supply the market; by insufficient raw materials or component parts; by inadequate labor force or work stoppage; or by lack of sufficient demand to support economic production. Shortages are to be determined as of the date of receipt of an application for FEP Import Determination. Normal commercial practices applicable to the production and delivery of particular goods and materials shall be considered in determining whether a shortage exists.

(i) Competitive products. A product of specific grade, quality, capacity or dimension, or having particular performance characteristics, shall be considered to be in short supply if domestically produced products of like or equivalent grade, quality, capacity, dimension or performance characteristics are not available in the domestic market.

(ii) Outstanding FEP Import Determinations. FEP Import Determinations issued for the importation of a given product will be included in the domestic supply for the purpose of determining whether a shortage exists.

(iii) Unused versus used property. Unused foreign excess property will be regarded as competitive with new property of domestic manufacture, and used foreign excess property will be regarded as competitive with used property of domestic manufacture, unless the facts dictate to the contrary.

(2) Beneficial to the economy of this country. The importation of foreign excess property must have special benefits over and beyond any benefits to be derived in the marketplace solely by an added supply of goods and materials through imports.

(i) Price. The price at which foreign excess property is acquired, or the price at which it can be sold in the domestic market, shall not be considered as a benefit to the economy.

(ii) Unique items. Articles of historical value for use as museum or collection pieces, articles for personal noncommercial use, and the like may be considered beneficial to the economy.

(iii) Expenditures accruing from the importation. A need for expenditures for labor, materials, parts, storage, transportation, and the like, together with other relevant factors, subsequent to importation, may be considered beneficial to the economy.

(c) Geographical basis for determinations. Shortages and benefits to the economy of this country for particular foreign excess property shall be determined on the basis of geographical areas. The maximum quantities of any particular foreign excess property that will be authorized for importation into a geographical area will be the estimated semiannual domestic consumption of the area for such property.

§ 702.4 General determinations of shortage or benefit.

(a) Upon application of any interested person or on his own motion, the Deputy Assistant Secretary may make a general determination that the importation of particular foreign excess property would relieve a domestic shortage or otherwise be beneficial to the economy of this country. At least 30 days prior to making a general determination, the Deputy Assistant Secretary will publish in the FEDERAL REGISTER notice of intention to make such a general determination and will state in such notice in what manner and for what period comments on such proposed general determination may be submitted. At the expiration of the 30-day period and after consideration of comments properly and timely submitted, the Deputy Assistant Secretary may make such general determination, subject to such conditions as he may deem appropriate, and shall publish notice thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(b) Upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER of a general determination that the importation of particular foreign excess property would relieve a domestic shortage or would otherwise be beneficial to the economy of this country, and until such general determination is withdrawn by notice of withdrawal published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, the FEPO will issue FEP Import Authorizations for such property upon the receipt of applications for FEP Import Determination provided (1) each such application is complete in all material respects as prescribed in the instructions contained in Form FEPF–1; (2) the following statement is entered in Part I, Box 8 of Form FEPF–1 in lieu of the information called for in the heading thereof;

This application is filed in accordance with and subject to the provisions of § 702.4 General determinations of shortage or benefit.

(3) Proof of ownership of the property is attached to the application; and (4) the application otherwise complies with the regulations of this part.

(c) General determinations that importations of particular foreign excess property would relieve a domestic shortage or otherwise be beneficial to the economy of this country may be amended or withdrawn by the Deputy Assistant Secretary, and notice of such amendment or withdrawal shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

§ 702.5 Entries in bond for reexport.

(a) Applications for importations of foreign excess property in bond for reexport will not be entertained by the FEPO. The procedures set forth in this section shall be applicable to such applications and importations.

(b) The Bureau of Customs, Department of the Treasury, shall have authority to permit the entry into the United States of foreign excess property in bond for reexport. Bonds accepted for this purpose by the Bureau of Customs shall conform to Bureau of Customs Forms 7551 or 7555, with the added condition:

There is incorporated in and made a part of the bond NO. _____ dated _____ in the amount of _____, executed by _____, as principal, and _____, as surety, the following added condition:

Whereas, the principal named in the said bond has been permitted to enter merchandise subject to the provisions of section 402 of the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949, which has been imported for reexport:

The obligors named in the above-mentioned bond stipulate and agree that there shall be delivered to the District Director of Customs for the port of entry named in this bond or to the District Director at another port of entry; in accordance with the provisions of law and regulations pertaining to the entry and exportation of merchandise, all the above-described merchandise for customs inspection and identification prior to exportation; and if such merchandise shall not be used for any gainful purpose in the United States; and if all the merchandise shall be actually so exported within 2 years from the date of importation, or within any lawful extension of such period, and if the said merchandise shall not be relanded in the United States; or, in default thereof, the obligors shall pay to the District Director of Customs such amounts as liquidated damages as may be demanded by him in accordance with the law and regulations, not exceeding the amount of this obligation.

Then this added condition shall be void, otherwise to remain in full force and effect.

(c) No extensions of time for reexportation shall be granted by the Bureau of Customs without the prior written approval of the FEPO.

(d) The Commissioner of Customs may promulgate such regulations not inconsistent herewith as he deems appropriate with respect to applications for importation of foreign excess property in bond for reexport, and procedures of the Bureau of Customs in respect to such applications.

(e) Persons making applications to import foreign excess property in bond for reexport shall comply with regulations promulgated by the Commissioner of Customs. The provisions of § 702.7 shall not apply thereto.

§ 702.6 Entries in bond other than for reexport.

(a) If an applicant for an FEP Import Determinaton or FEP Import Authorization elects to do so, he may specify in his application that the foreign excess property which he proposes to import will be processed, reprocessed, disposed of, or otherwise dealt with in a stated manner. If the FEPO determines that importation of the property under the specified conditions would relieve a domestic shortage or otherwise be beneficial to the economy of this country, but that importation of such property for any different use or purpose would not satisfy these criteria, he may authorize importation of such property upon condition that the applicant, prior to or concurrently with entry of the property, furnish a bond with sufficient surety to the District Director of Customs for the port of entry of such property. Such bond shall conform to Bureau of Customs 7551 or 7555, and shall contain such added special condition or conditions as may be appropriate to the case. The penal sum of any such bond shall be three times the value of the property to be imported.

(b) The special condition or conditions of each different type bond proposed to be authorized under paragraph (a) of this section shall be submitted by the FEPO to the Commissioner of Customs for his concurrence. No conditional FEP Import Determination or conditional FEP Import Authorization shall be issued with respect to any property unless and until the concurrence of the Commissioner of Customs with respect to the special condition or conditions of the bond applicable thereto shall have been received by the FEPO.

(c) Upon receipt of concurrence of the Commissioner of Customs in the special condition or conditions of a proposed bond, the FEPO may issue a conditional FEP Import Determination or conditional FEP Import Authorization as provided in this section. Such conditional FEP Import Determination or conditional FEP Import Authorization shall specify the condition or conditions under which the foreign excess property described therein may be imported into the United States, and shall set forth the special condition or conditions of the bond provided for in this section. The property described therein may thereupon be imported only upon presentation of a conditional FEP Import Authorization in due form, accompanied by an appropriate surety bond, to the District Director of Customs for the port of entry of such property.

(d) The Bureau of Customs shall retain custody of bonds furnished under this section and may take appropriate measures to secure compliance with the conditions and obligations of such bonds, and for the enforcement thereof.

§ 702.7 Applications.

(a) Any person proposing to import foreign excess property (other than that exempted from the requirement of an FEP Import Authorization pursuant to § 702.5) shall make application in duplicate to the FEPO for an FEP Import Determination. Such application shall be made on Form FEPF–1 (or reproduction thereof) which may be obtained from the FEPO, the Field Offices of the Department of Commerce, and the District Directors of the Bureau of Customs, Department of the Treasury. The applicant should answer all applicable questions appearing on Form FEPF–1 in accordance with the regulations of this part and the instructions set forth in the form. Terms used in the form have the meanings defined in § 702.2.

(b) Where the applicant is the owner of the foreign excess property which is the subject of the application, and submits proof of ownership thereof as prescribed in § 702.9, the application shall also be treated as a request for an FEP Import Authorization.

(c) An application which is incomplete in any material respect, or which is not executed in accordance with the instructions set forth in Form FEPF–1, the applicable provisions of the regulations of this part, or which does not lie within the jurisdiction of the FEPO, shall be returned without action to the applicant.

(d) From the time of receipt of a completed Form FEPF–1, processing of an application to import unused foreign excess property by the FEPO will generally be limited to 15 days, and 20 days for used foreign excess property.

§ 702.8 Issuance of FEP Import Determinations.

(a) The determination made by the FEPO that importation of foreign excess property would or would not relieve domestic shortages or otherwise be beneficial to the economy of this country shall be issued on Form FEPF–2. An FEP Import Determination is not an authorization to import foreign excess property.

(b) FEP Import Determinations shall be serially numbered, and shall be dated and signed by the FEPO. Affirmative FEP Import Determinations shall remain in effect for a period not to exceed 6 months from the date of issuance. Negative FEP Import Determinations shall remain in effect for a period of 30 days from the date of issuance.

(c) A copy of each FEP Import Determination shall be transmitted to the applicant, to a person acting on the applicant's behalf, or to any other person upon request.

§ 702.9 Issuance of Import Authorizations.

(a) Upon presentation to the FEPO of Request for FEP Import Authorization (Form FEPF–3), or of Application for FEP Import Determination (Form FEPF–1), completely executed including Part II thereof, and proof of ownership of foreign excess property described therein concerning which the FEPO has made a determination that its importation would relieve domestic shortages or otherwise be beneficial to the economy of this country, the FEPO shall issue an FEP Import Authorization (Form FEPF–4). The original of the FEP Import Authorization shall be transmitted to the applicant and two copies of each FEP Import Authorization shall be furnished to the Director of Customs at the proposed port of entry.

(b) Proof of ownership shall consist of a photocopy of bill of sale of the property involved or other evidence of title satisfactory to the FEPO. If the person, submitting a request for FEP Import Authorization or Application for FEP Import Determination executed as described in paragraph (a) of this section, did not purchase the foreign excess property directly from the Federal agency which disposed of such property, a photocopy of the contract or bill of sale for such property to the original purchaser shall be provided to the FEPO together with the proof of ownership.

(c) FEP Import Authorizations shall expire upon the expiration date of the FEP Import Determination with respect to the same property, and shall constitute the sole authority for the importation thereof into the United States within such period.

(d) Each original FEP Import Authorization shall be presented to the Director of Customs for his endorsement at the time of entry of any property described therein.

§ 702.10 Transfer of FEP Import Authorizations.

(a) The holder of an FEP Import Authorization may transfer it to a transferee of the foreign excess property specified therein. If such transfer shall be of all the foreign excess property specified in the FEP Import Authorization, the FEP Import Authorization may be transferred by assignment to the transferee of the property. If such transfer shall be of a part of the foreign excess property specified in the FEP Import Authorization, the holder of the FEP Import Authorization shall return the original FEP Import Authorization to the FEPO together with photocopy of bill of sale of the property transferred and Request for FEP Import Authorization (Form FEPF–3) executed by the transferee. The FEPO shall thereupon cancel the original FEP Import Authorization and issue new FEP Import Authorizations to the original holder and the transferee as their respective interests appear.

(b) The FEPO shall notify the Director of Customs at the proposed port of entry of any such cancellation of an FEP Import Authorization, and shall furnish to such Director copies of new FEP Import Authorizations issued as a result of any such transfer and request.

§ 702.11 Time extensions.

A person who has received from the FEPO an FEP Import Authorization may file with the FEPO, prior to the expiration date thereof, a request for an extension of time. Such request shall state any reasons why the extension is needed, and the duration of the extension requested. The FEPO may allow the request in whole or in part, if he determines that unusual circumstances beyond the control of the applicant prevented the applicant from importing the foreign excess property prior to the expiration date of the FEP Importation Authorization. The FEPO shall promptly notify the applicant of his decision, and, if he grants an extension of time, he shall promptly inform the Director at the proposed port of entry.

§ 702.12 Appeals.

(a) The Appeals Board of the Department of Commerce shall consider appeals by persons affected by the regulations of this part that fall within the limits of the jurisdiction specified in this subsection:

(1) FEP Import Determinations that the importation of specified and identified foreign excess property would not relieve domestic shortages or otherwise be beneficial to the economy of this country;

(2) Applications returned without action where the FEPO found that such applications do not lie within the jurisdiction of the FEPO;

(3) Terminations under § 702.14(a) of any person's rights to submit applications to the FEPO;

(4) Cancellations under § 702.14(a) of FEP Import Determinations and FEP Import Authorizations issued to any person; and

(5) Determinations that a request for a time extension under § 702.11 should not be granted.

(b) Appeals from actions of the FEPO must be filed within 30 days of the date of such action. Appeals shall be made by letter in triplicate addressed to the Appeals Board, Department of Commerce, Washington, D.C. 20230, reference: FEP Regulation No. 1. If the applicant so requests, the Appeals Board shall grant him a hearing at the office of the Board at the Department of Commerce, Washington, D.C.

(c) Decisions of the Appeals Board shall be communicated in writing to the FEPO and to appellant and shall be carried out by an appropriate action of the FEPO.

§ 702.13 Exemptions.

(a) Personal property sold by a foreign government not acting as an agent for the U.S. Government, provided there is no evidence that the property is foreign excess property, may be entered into the economy of the United States without presentation of an FEP Import Authorization. The FEPO and the Directors of Customs at the ports of entry in the United States will accept the following documentation as prima facie evidence that such property qualifies for entry under this policy: (1) A copy of the sales brochure issued by the foreign government which identifies the specific item presented for importation; (2) a copy of the notice of award or contract of sale issued by the foreign government to the purchaser of the property which identifies the property being presented for entry as being the same as that listed in the sales brochure; and (3) an affidavit by the importer of record that to the best of his knowledge and belief the property was never sold as surplus property by the U.S. Government or an agency thereof. If the importer of record does not procure the property directly from a foreign government, he will be required to present in addition to the documents specified in subparagraphs (1), (2), and (3) of this paragraph, invoices which trace the chain of ownership from the foreign government to the importer of record. If any of the documents called for above are in a foreign language, the importer of record must simultaneously present English translation thereof.

(b) Nothing in the regulations of this part shall be construed as limiting the authority of any Federal agency to import Government-owned property into the United States.

§ 702.14 Violations and penalties.

(a) Any person who imports, or attempts to import, foreign excess property into the United States and who fails to comply, both before or after such importation or attempted importation, with the regulations of this part is subject to administrative action by the FEPO terminating his right to submit applications to the FEPO and/or canceling any FEP Import Determinations and FEP Import Authorizations issued to such person.

(b) Any person who fraudulently or knowingly imports into the United States any foreign excess property contrary to the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949, or receives, conceals, buys, sells, or in any manner facilitates the transportation, concealment, or sale of such property after importation, knowing the same to have been imported into the United States contrary to law, shall upon conviction, be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned not more than 5 years, or both. Foreign excess property imported into the United States in violation of this provision, or the value thereof, to be recovered from any person described in this paragraph, shall be forfeited to the United States. (18 U.S.C. 545).

(c) Any person who knowingly and willfully makes any false, fictitious, or fraudulent statement or representation to an employee of the Department of Commerce, or of the Bureau of Customs, Department of the Treasury, in any matter concerning the importation of foreign excess property shall, upon conviction, be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned not more than 5 years, or both (18 U.S.C. 1001).

§ 702.15 Communications.

All communications concerning the regulations of this part shall, unless otherwise set forth, be addressed to the Foreign Excess Property Officer, Office of Import Programs, Department of Commerce, Washington, D.C. 20230.

§ 702.16 Transitional provisions.

(a) All FEP Import Determinations and FEP Import Authorizations issued prior to the effective date of the regulations of this part, are hereby ratified, adopted, and confirmed by the Deputy Assistant Secretary, and shall remain in effect in accordance with their terms.

(b) All applications pending before the FEPO prior to the effective date of the regulations of this part shall be considered in accordance with the provisions hereof.

§ 702.17 Revocation of previous orders and delegations.

The regulations of this part supersede Foreign Excess Property Order No. 1 (revised) (44 CFR Part 401), as amended, and all delegations made thereto.

LIQUID FEED SUPPLEMENTS

Proposed New Animal Drug Requirements

Livestock and poultry producers have found feed and drinking water to be efficient and economical routes for administration of drugs to their animals for the prevention and treatment of disease as well as for improving rate of weight gain and feed efficiency. Many approvals have been granted and regulations promulgated providing for the use of drugs in animal feed and drinking water. More recently, the use of liquid feed supplements has become a significant factor in livestock production. Most sanctions which have been granted for the addition of drugs to medicated feeds have been based upon their use in dry feeds only, but since the emergence of the use of liquid feed supplements, these sanctions have been interpreted by many users as permitting the addition of these drugs to liquid feed supplements.

The Food and Drug Administration has accumulated information including reports and data submitted by drug manufacturers which has shown that various forms of bacitracin, oxytetracycline, and chlortetracycline are unstable when incorporated in liquid feed supplements. The demonstrated instability of these drugs gives rise to the question of the stability of other drugs when added to liquid feed supplements except where specific approval has been granted for such use. On this basis, the Commissioner of Food and Drugs concludes that any drug product which bears labeling for its addition to liquid feed supplements is a new animal drug for which an approved new animal drug application is required prior to marketing. The Commissioner further concludes that, because of their demonstrated instability in liquid feed supplements, drug products containing any form of bacitracin, chlortetracycline, or oxytetracycline and intended for use in the feed and/or drinking water of animals should be required to bear in their labeling a statement that the product is not for use in liquid feed supplements, unless the product is the subject of an approved new animal drug application providing for such use.

Following the issuance of a final order based upon this proposal, all firms marketing products containing any form of bacitracin, oxytetracycline, or chlortetracycline and intended for use in the feed and/or drinking water of animals will be required to appropriately revise their labeling within 60 days of the order. In addition, any drug product marketed for use in liquid feed supplements must be the subject of an approved application for such use.

Therefore, pursuant to provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (secs. 502(f), 512, 701(a), 52 Stat. 1051, 1055, 82 Stat. 343–351; 21 U.S.C. 352(f), 360b, 371(a)) and under authority delegated to the Commissioner (21 CFR 2.120), it is proposed that Part 135 be amended by adding the following new section:

§ 135.112 Liquid feed supplements; new animal drug requirements.

(a) Information available to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs shows that certain drugs are unstable when added to liquid feed supplements. The demonstrated instability of these drugs gives rise to the question of the stability of other drugs when added to liquid feed supplements except where specific approval has been granted for such use. Therefore, the labeling of a drug to provide for its use in a liquid feed supplement causes such drug to be a new animal drug for which an approved new animal drug application is required pursuant to section 512(b) of the act.

(b) The addition of a drug to a liquid feed supplement causes such supplement to become an animal feed bearing or containing a new animal drug for which an approved application is required pursuant to section 512(m) of the act.

(c) Each drug product which contains any of the drugs listed in paragraph (d) of this section and bears labeling for its use in animal feed and/or drinking water must also include in such labeling the following statement: "For Use in _____ _____ only. Not for Use in Liquid Feed Supplements," the blank being filled in with the words "Dry Feeds", "Drinking Water", "Dry Feeds and Drinking Water" as applicable, unless such drug product is the subject of an approved new animal drug application providing for its use in liquid feed supplements.

(d) The labeling provisions of paragraph (c) of this section apply to all forms of bacitracin, oxytetracycline, and chlortetracycline.

(e) The labeling provisions of paragraph (c) of this section should be placed into effect at the earliest possible time, and for any drug which is the subject of an approved new animal drug application may be implemented without prior approval as provided for in § 135.13a (d) and (e). Labeling which has not been revised in accordance with paragraph (c) of this section within 60 days after the effective date of this statement of policy in the FEDERAL REGISTER will cause such drug products to be subject to regulatory proceedings.

Interested persons may, within 60 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER, file with the Hearing Clerk, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Room 6–88, 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, MD 20852, written comments (preferably in quintuplicate) regarding this proposal. Comments may be accompanied by a memorandum or a brief in support thereof. Received comments may be seen in the above office during the working hours, Monday through Friday.

Dated: December 12, 1972.

Associate Commissioner for Compliance.

HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCES

Proposed Revision of Test for Primary Skin Irritants

The Commissioner of Food and Drugs believes the present method for testing hazardous substances for primary skin irritation prescribed in § 191.11 (21 CFR 191.11) can be improved by the revision proposed below.

The Commissioner is concerned that the skin irritation test does not realistically reflect the skin contact that could reasonably be expected from exposure to household substances. The regulation requires that the tested substance be applied to the skin of the back of the rabbit and remain in contact under a bandage for 24 hours before an initial examination and reading is made. In the household, immediate steps would probably be taken to flush or remove a substance when irritation is perceived, and a 24-hour contact period is therefore too severe a test.

The Food and Drug Administration has developed a modified testing procedure based on a 4-hour contact period. The test requires application to 12 sites rather than the minimum of six sites now required. This will provide statistically more reliable data. The reproducibility of the test results has been demonstrated by a collaborative study, a copy of which has been placed on file with the Hearing Clerk, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Room 6–88, 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, MD 20852, for public review.

Preparation of an "Illustrated Guide for Grading Dermal Irritation" is anticipated, and a notice of its availability will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The Commissioner does not expect the new test procedure, if adopted, to materially alter the classification of more severe dermal irritants and corrosives to the skin. It will aid in classifying corrosives by clarifying certain troublesome language, and will resolve situations where borderline irritation is an issue. Therefore, pursuant to provisions of the Federal Hazardous Substances Act (sec. 10(a), 74 Stat. 378; 15 U.S.C. 1269) and under authority delegated to him (21 CFR 2.120), the Commissioner proposes that Part 191 be amended as follows:

1. In § 191.1 by revising paragraph (h) to read as follows:

§ 191.1 Definitions.

* * * * *

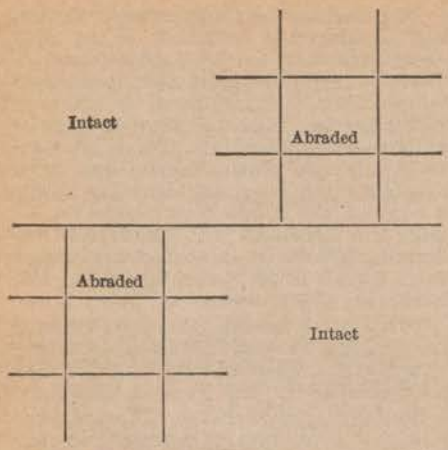
(h) Corrosive. A "corrosive substance" is one that causes visible destruction or irreversible alterations in the tissue at the site of contact. A test for a corrosive substance is whether, by human experience, such tissue destruction occurs at the site of application. A substance would be considered corrosive to the skin if, when tested on the intact skin of the albino rabbit by the technique described in §191.11, the structure of the tissue at the site of contact is destroyed or changed irreversibly after a contact period of 4 hours or less. A substance would be considered corrosive to the eye if a positive test result as to corrosiveness is obtained when the substance is tested by the method described in § 191.12. Other appropriate tests should be applied when contact of the substance with other than skin or eye tissue is being considered.

* * * * *

2. By revising § 191.11 to read as follows:

§ 191.11 Test for primary skin irritants.

(a) Primary irritation of the skin is measured by a patch-test technique on abraded and intact skin of healthy albino rabbits in the weight range of 2 to 3 kilograms. At least six rabbits must be used. The back of each animal is clipped free of hair and is divided into four quadrants, each being no less than 4 square inches in area. Two of the test sites should be abraded and two left intact, as follows:



(b) By use of a sterile 18-gage needle or other suitable sterile instrument, the abraded areas are prepared by making four epidermal incisions through the stratum corneum, two incisions perpendicular to the other two in a manner resembling a "tic-tac-toe" pattern. These incisions should not be so deep that they disturb the derma or produce bleeding. This design will limit to two the number of compounds that can be studied per group of six animals.

(c) Liquid test materials (0.5 milliliter) and/or solid or semisolid test materials (0.5 gram) are introduced under a 1.5 by 1.5 inch 12-ply gauze patch which is secured in place by two ½ x 4 inch strips of adhesive tape in the form of an X. (See paragraph (f) of this section.) The animals are immobilized in stocks and the trunk of each animal is loosely wrapped with an impervious material, such as a rubberized cloth, for an exposure period of 4 hours. (The impervious wrap should be applied in such a manner that the palm of the analyst's hand can be easily placed between the wrap and the animal's back.) After 4 hours of exposure, the patches are removed and the resulting reactions are evaluated on the basis of the following table:

Skin reaction	Value
Erythema and eschar formation:
No erythema	0
Very slight erythema (barely perceptible)	1
Well-defined erythema	2
Moderate to severe erythema	3
Severe erythema (beet redness) to slight eschar formation (injuries in depth)	4
Edema formation:
No edema	0
Very slight edema (barely perceptible)	1
Slight edema (edges of area well defined by definite raising)	2
Moderate edema (raised approximately 1 millimeter)	3
Severe edema (raised more than 1 millimeter and extending beyond the area of exposure)	4

(d) Following this initial reading, all test sites are washed with an appropriate solvent to prevent further exposure. Normally the solvent is water. Occasionally ether or acetone may be used. The solvent of choice is dependent on the composition of the substance under investigation. Readings are again made at 24 and 48 hours after the initial application; animals will be retained until 96 hours after the initial application and observed. Any delayed necrosis will be reported, but the data will not be used in determining irritation indices. Each test substance will therefore be evaluated on a total of 12 sites; that is, six abraded and six intact. The primary irritation index is calculated by adding the values for erythema or eschar formation, and edema at 4, 24, and 48 hours on intact and abraded skin (12 values) and dividing by six to obtain an individual score for each rabbit. The combined average of the six individual scores is the primary irritation index; for example:

PRIMARY IRRITATION INDEX WITH 4-HOUR EXPOSURE

Rabbit No.	Skin	Erythema-eschar observation			Edema observation			Score (sum of individual values for each rabbit divided by six)
		4 hour	24 hour	48 hour	4 hour	24 hour	48 hour
1	Intact	1	1	1	0	1	0	1.83
	Abraded	2	1	2	0	1	1
2	Intact	1	1	3	0	0	1	1.67
	Abraded	1	1	2	0	0	0
3	Intact	2	1	2	0	1	0	1.83
	Abraded	1	0	2	0	1	1
4	Intact	1	0	1	0	0	0	0.83
	Abraded	1	1	1	0	0	0
5	Intact	1	0	1	0	0	0	0.83
	Abraded	1	1	1	0	0	0
6	Intact	1	1	2	0	0	1	1.16

The primary irritation index is determined by totaling the score column and dividing by six; in this case 8.15 divided by six equals 1.4 (rounded off to the first decimal point).

(e) When tissue destruction is observed on any of the six intact skin sites with or without similar destruction on the abraded areas, the test material is considered corrosive as defined in § 191.1(h). The ratio of tissue destruction observed on both intact and abraded skin sites is recorded; for example:

Test site	Evaluation of skin reaction	Ratio regarding six rabbits; observation time
		4 hours	24 hours	48 hours
Intact	Corrosive	2:6	3:6	3:6
Abraded	Corrosive	5:6	5:6	5:6

When tissue destruction occurs only in the epidermal incisions of the abraded site, record the ratio of the sites showing tissue destruction at the 4-, 24-, and 48-hour readings. In addition compute a modified primary irritation index by evaluating the skin reaction on the surface surrounding all abraded areas along with the observations on the six intact sites and record them in the manner depicted under paragraph (d) of this section.

(f) A stipulation of the test described in this section is that the substance tested (liquid, solid, or semisolid) represent a homogeneous aliquot of the substance under investigation. This factor is most important when testing formulated products containing several ingredients, such as emulsions or suspensions which can separate due to standing, shipping, or temperature changes. Dry blended powders can segregate due to standing and shipping. Solid substances such as powders should be moistened with sufficient solvent to make a paste (and the quantity of solvent specified) or should be made into a 50-percent weight-to-volume solution. Normally the solvent is water. Occasionally ether or acetone may be used. The solvent of choice is dependent on the composition of the substance under investigation. If the bulk density of a powder-sample is such that it is physically impossible to place 0.5-gram samples under the patches, the largest practical amount should be applied and reported.

Interested persons may, within 60 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER, file with the Hearing Clerk, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Room 6–88, 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, Md. 20852, written comments (preferably in quintuplicate) regarding this proposal. Comments may be accompanied by a memorandum or brief in support thereof. Received comments may be seen in the above office during working hours, Monday through Friday.

PUBLIC ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS

Payments for Ineligible Cases and Overpayments for Eligible Cases; Exclusion of Expenditures; Extension of Comment Period and Effective Date

Notice was given on December 5, 1972 (37 F.R. 25853) of proposed regulations which would exclude from Federal financial participation all expenditures for payments for ineligible cases and overpayments for eligible cases under the programs of financial and medical assistance authorized under titles I, IV–A, X, XIV, XVI, and XIX of the Social Security Act. The notice stated that the regulations were to become effective January 1, 1973, and a period of 20 days from the date of publication of the notice was given for comments.

Due to the widespread interest in the proposed regulations since publication of the original notice, the Department has determined that the time for making comments should be extended until January 15, 1973. Also, the proposed effective date of January 1, 1973, set forth in the preamble of the original notice and in the proposed §§ 201.5(a)(4) and 206.10(c)(1), is hereby deleted. Regulations on this subject will instead become effective no later than April 1, 1973. The additional time will enable staff of the Department to consult with State public assistance agencies and other interested persons regarding the proposed regulations and other related regulations of the Department, with the objective of seeking the best means of assuring the validity of assistance payments.

COVERAGE AND CONDITIONS OF ELIGIBILITY IN FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS

Factors Specific to AFDC

Notice is hereby given that the regulations set forth in tentative form below are proposed by the Administrator, Social and Rehabilitation Service, with the approval of the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare. The proposed regulations implement the U.S. Supreme Court decision in "Townsend v. Swank," December 20, 1971, regarding age and school attendance requirements in AFDC and the U.S. Supreme Court's summary affirmances in "Juras v. Meyers," "Weaver v. Doe," and "Carleson v. Taylor," prohibiting the denial of AFDC to otherwise eligible children on the basis of a caretaker relative's refusal to cooperate in establishing paternity or seeking support for dependent children.

The proposed amendments to § 233.90 require, as conditions for approval of State AFDC plans, that:

1. The plan must include all otherwise eligible children under age 18 regardless of school attendance;

2. If the plan includes children over 17, it must include all children 18 through 20 who are regularly attending a school, college, or university or regularly attending a course of vocational or technical training designed to fit them for gainful employment;

3. There may be no denial of assistance because a caretaker relative does not cooperate in naming the putative father of a child born out of wedlock or seeking support from a person with legal responsibility to support the child.

Prior to the adoption of the proposed regulations, consideration will be given to any comments, suggestions, or objections thereto which are submitted in writing to the Administrator, Social and Rehabilitation Service, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, 330 Independence Avenue SW., Washington, DC 20201, within a period of 30 days from date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Comments received will be available for public inspection in Room 5121 of the Department's offices at 301 C Street SW., Washington, DC, on Monday through Friday of each week from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. (area code 202—963-7361).

(Sec. 1102, 49 Stat. 647, 42 U.S.C. 1302)

Dated: November 8, 1972.

JOHN D. TWINAME,
Administrator, Social and Rehabilitation Service.

Approved: December 7, 1972.

ELLIOT L. RICHARDSON,
Secretary.

Section 233.90 is amended by adding three new subparagraphs to paragraph (b). As amended, § 233.90 reads as follows:

§ 233.90 Factors specific to AFDC.

* * * * *

(b) Conditions for plan approval. (1) A child may not be denied AFDC either initially or subsequently "because of the conditions of the home in which the child resides", or because the home is considered "unsuitable", unless "provision is otherwise made pursuant to a State statute for adequate care and assistance with respect to such child". (Section 404(b) of the Social Security Act.)

(2) An otherwise eligible child who is under the age of 18 years may not be denied AFDC, regardless of whether he attends school or makes satisfactory grades.

(3) If a State elects to include in its AFDC program children 18 and over, it must include all children 18 years of age and under 21 who are regularly attending a school, college, or university, or a course of vocational or technical training designed to fit them for gainful employment.

(4) A child may not be denied AFDC either initially or subsequently because a parent or caretaker relative fails to assist:

(i) In the establishment of paternity of a child born out of wedlock; or

(ii) In seeking support from a person having a legal duty to support the child.

DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION

Federal Aviation Administration

[14 CFR Part 39]

[Docket No. 12436]

BRITISH AIRCRAFT CORPORATION VISCOUNT MODEL 810 SERIES AIRPLANES

Proposed Airworthiness Directive

The Federal Aviation Administration is considering amending Part 39 of the Federal Aviation Regulations by adding an airworthiness directive applicable to British Aircraft Corp. Viscount Model 810 Series airplanes. There have been reports of sheared rivets on the airsteps hinged fairing operating link on BAC Viscount Model 810 Series airplanes that could result in obstruction of movement of the aileron controls. Since this condition is likely to exist or develop in other airplanes of the same type design, the proposed airworthiness directive would require inspection of the rivets on the airsteps hinged fairing operating link for looseness and shearing, and replacement, if necessary, on BAC Viscount Model 810 Series airplanes.

Interested persons are invited to participate in the making of the proposed rule by submitting such written data, views, or arguments as they may desire. Communications should identify the docket number and be submitted in duplicate to the Federal Aviation Administration, Office of the General Counsel, Attention: Rules Docket, AGC-24, 800 Independence Avenue SW., Washington, DC 20591. All communications received on or before January 18, 1973 will be considered by the Administrator before taking action upon the proposed rule. The proposals contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received. All comments will be available, both before and after the closing date for comments, in the Rules Docket for examination by interested persons.

In consideration of the foregoing, it is proposed to amend § 39.13 of Part 39 of the Federal Aviation Regulations by adding the following new airworthiness directive:

BRITISH AIRCRAFT CORP. Applies to Viscount Model 810 Series airplanes, which do not incorporate Modification G.1843.

Compliance is required as indicated.

To detect loose or sheared rivets on the airsteps hinged fairing operating link, accomplish the following:

(a) Within the next 25 hours' time in service after the effective date of this AD, unless already accomplished within the last 475 hours' time in service prior to the effective date of this AD, and thereafter at intervals not to exceed 500 hours' time in service from the last inspection, inspect the 5/16 inch diameter rivets on the airsteps hinged fairing operating link for looseness and shearing.

(b) If sheared or loose rivets are found during an inspection required by paragraph (a), before further flight, either—

(1) Replace the sheared or loose rivets with serviceable rivets of the same type, that are approved for installation in the assembly, and continue to inspect in accordance with paragraph (a); or

(2) Incorporate Modification G.1843, dated September 22, 1961, or an FAA-approved equivalent.

(c) The repetitive inspections required by this AD may be discontinued after Modification G.1843 is incorporated.

This amendment is proposed under the authority of sections 313(a), 601, and 603 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (49 U.S.C. 1354(a), 1421, and 1423), and of section 6(c) of the Department of Transportation Act (49 U.S.C. 1655(c)).

Issued in Washington, D.C., on December 12, 1972.

JAMES F. RUDOLPH,
Director, Flight Standards Service.

FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION

[46 CFR Part 506]

[Docket No. 72-62]

FOREIGN DISCRIMINATION AFFECTING U.S. SHIPS

Regulations To Adjust or Meet Conditions Unfavorable to Shipping in Foreign Trade

Section 19 of the Merchant Marine Act of 1920 (46 U.S.C. 876) authorizes the Commission to make rules and regulations to adjust or meet general or special conditions unfavorable to shipping in the foreign trade which arise out of or result from foreign laws, rules or regulations, or by the practices of common carriers by water operating in our foreign commerce. In January of 1964, the Commission announced its broad general intention to promulgate "off-setting regulations," if and when "discriminatory practices against vessels documented under the law of the United States are found * * *" (46 CFR Part 506).

The Commission's experience since the issuance of that regulation has demonstrated its insufficiency in promptly dealing with unfavorable conditions which from time to time arise in the foreign trade. On the one hand, the lack of any indication of the kinds of regulations authorized by section 19 has left persons already harmed by such conditions and persons who can reasonably expect harm from impending unfavorable conditions in considerable doubt as to what could or should be done in a given situation. This has in turn cast doubt on the efficacy of section 19 itself. On the other hand, the lack of any specific procedures by which to obtain section 19 relief has caused confusion as to the proper method of seeking relief, and in a number of occasions has left the Commission without sufficient information upon which to make a considered judgment.

While section 19 authorizes the promulgation of regulations to meet or adjust unfavorable conditions created by the "private" acts of ocean carriers in our foreign trade, these regulations are primarily concerned with the "public" acts of foreign nations, the proliferation of which has created a climate calling for action by the Commission.

The means by which the nations of the world seek to insure the well-being of and secure advantages for their merchant marines are many and varied. The rise of the concept of bilateralism has been used by foreign countries as an excuse to pass laws, decrees and regulations which, if strictly enforced, would create conditions decidedly unfavorable to shipping in the foreign trade. The legislative processes of a great many of the countries that are our trading partners enable their governments to enact, postpone, cancel, and reenact laws or decrees with a speed and flexibility largely unobtainable under our Constitution. This situation calls for regulations embodying all that promptness of effective action and flexibility which is compatible with due process of law.

The methods adopted by other countries to promote their merchant marines range from the relatively simple expedient of imposing discriminatory consular fees through rather complex financing arrangements, which require as a condition for government financing shipment of the goods on a national-flag vessel to unilateral governmental allocations of cargoes to individual vessels. Past and present practices include:

(a) The already mentioned discriminatory consular fees;

(b) Exoneration from import duties on cargoes carried by vessels of the importing nation;

(c) The outright reservation of a percentage of the maritime transportation of cargo, both import and export, for national-flag vessels (usually enforced by levying a charge equal to a percentage of the value of the cargo on shipments not carried by national-flag vessels);

(d) The arbitrary creation of categories of "government cargo" together with the requirement that all such cargoes be shipped by national-flag vessels;

(e) Conditioning the use of the countries banking system upon the requirement that shipments so financed be made by national-flag carriers; and

(f) Discriminatory pilotage charges.

The above, which is by no means all-inclusive, clearly demonstrates the need for greater flexibility in the formulation of regulations to meet or adjust the unfavorable conditions created by such a wide variety of practices. Experience has taught the Commission that if a response is to be effective, it must be prompt. Accordingly, the Commission proposes to amend Part 506 of Title 46 of the Code of Federal Regulations to read as follows:

§ 506.1 Purpose.

It is the purpose of the regulations of this part to declare certain conditions unfavorable to shipping in the foreign trade of the United States and to establish procedures by which persons who are or can reasonably expect to be adversely affected by such conditions may petition the Federal Maritime Commission for the issuance of regulations under the authority of section 19 of the Merchant Marine Act of 1920. It is the further purpose of the regulations of this part to afford notice to foreign governments of the general circumstances under which the authority granted to the Commission under section 19 will be invoked.

§ 506.2 Scope.

The actions and regulations under this part will be issued when the Federal Maritime Commission finds, on its own motion or upon petition, that a foreign government has promulgated and enforced or intends to enforce laws, decrees, regulations or the like, or has engaged in or intends to engage in practices which presently have or prospectively could create conditions unfavorable to shipping in the foreign trade, and when efforts of the Commission fail to remove those unfavorable conditions through friendly representations with foreign governments or agencies through diplomatic or other channels.

§ 506.3 Findings—Conditions unfavorable to shipping in the foreign trade.

For the purposes of this part, the following conditions herein found to be unfavorable to shipping in the foreign trade, are those which:

(a) Impose upon vessels documented under the laws of the U.S. fees, charges or requirements different from those of other vessels competing in the trade, or which preclude or are intended to preclude vessels documented under the laws of the United States from competing in the trade on a reasonable economic basis.

(b) Reserve substantial cargoes to the national-flag vessels of a foreign country and fail to provide, on reasonable terms, for effective and equal access to cargo by vessels documented under the laws of the United States.

(c) Are otherwise unjustly discriminatory or unfair to vessels documented under the laws of the United States.

(d) Are unjustly discriminatory or unfair as between carriers, shippers, exporters, importers, or ports, or between exporters from the United States and their foreign competitors and which cannot be justified under generally accepted international agreement or practice and which operate to the detriment of the foreign commerce of the United States or are contrary to the public interest.

(e) Create any other condition unfavorable to shipping in the foreign trade.

§ 506.4 Initial action to meet conditions unfavorable to shipping—Resolution through diplomatic channels.

Upon a determination that one or more of the conditions found unfavorable to shipping under § 506.3 exists, the Commission may request the Secretary of State to use his good offices to remedy the adverse conditions through diplomatic channels. The Commission and its staff shall give every assistance in pursuing such efforts, and the Commission may request the Secretary to report the results of his efforts at a specified time, not more than 30 days from the date of the request.

§ 506.5 Same—Submission of information, etc.

Upon a determination that one or more of the conditions found unfavorable to shipping under § 506.3, and a determination that owners, operators, or charterers of certain vessels should be subjected to the procedures of this section, the Commission may at the time of the finding or at such later time as the Commission deems necessary or appropriate, and without further proceedings order any such owner, operator, or charterer to furnish any of the following information the Commission deems necessary:

(a) Statistics for a representative period showing cargo carried to and from U.S. ports by vessels owned, operated, or chartered by them by type, source, value, and directions;

(b) Information for a representative period on the activities of vessels they own, operate, or charter, including sailings to and from U.S. ports, costs incurred, taxes or other charges paid to authorities, and subsidies or other payments received from foreign authorities; and

(c) Information for a specified future period on the prospective activities of vessels which they own, operate, or charter, or plan to own, operate, or charter, to and from U.S. ports, including projected sailings, projected costs, projected taxes or other charges to be paid to authorities, and projected subsidies or other payments to be received from foreign authorities.

The Commission may also, after a determination is made under this section, notify vessel owners, operators, or charterers that the activities of their vessels to and from U.S. ports may be subjected to limitations or modifications necessary to meet conditions unfavorable to shipping and that plans including projected sailings submitted under paragraph (b) of this section shall be considered subject to approval by the Commission.

§ 506.6 Same—Same—Failure to comply.

In addition to such other penalties as are provided by law or regulation, any vessel owner, operator, or charterer who fails to comply with the requirements of § 506.5 may be subject to such regulation of his sailings to or from U.S. ports to the extent and for such period of time as the Commission deems appropriate to achieve the required compliance.

§ 506.7 Same—Subsequent action.

If the unfavorable conditions found under § 506.3 have not been remedied through diplomatic channels under § 506.4, and notwithstanding any failure to take initial action under § 506.6, the Commission, if it deems warranted, may, without further hearing, proceed to further action against vessel owners, operators, or charterers subject to the provisions of this part. Such action may include:

(a) The imposition of equalizing fees or charges;

(b) Limitation of the number of sailings to and from U.S. ports during a specified period;

(c) Suspension of any or all tariffs filed for carriage to and from U.S. ports; and

(d) Such other actions as the Commission shall deem necessary and appropriate in the public interest to adjust or meet any condition unfavorable to shipping in the foreign trade.

§ 506.8 Same—Postponement of.

The Commission may, on its own motion or upon petition, postpone or discontinue any and all actions taken by it under the provisions of this part.

§ 506.9 Petitions—General; who may file.

All requests for findings of conditions unfavorable to shipping in the foreign trade under § 506.3 or for action to remedy such conditions under § 506.5 or § 506.7, or for both, shall be by written petition. Any person who has been harmed by conditions unfavorable to shipping in the foreign trade, or any person who can reasonably expect harm from impending conditions, may file a petition for relief under the provisions of this part.

§ 506.10 Same—For finding of condition unfavorable to shipping.

Petitions for the finding of a condition unfavorable to shipping in the foreign trade shall set forth the following:

(a) A concise description of the foreign law, rule, regulation, or practice complained of;

(b) A certified English translation of any law, rule, or regulation involved;

(c) A clear indication of the harm already caused or which may reasonably be expected to be caused petitioner; and

(d) If actual harm is alleged, the information set forth in § 506.11 shall accompany the petition.

§ 506.11 Same—For specific relief.

Petitions for the issuance of a regulation or for other specific action under section 19 or the provisions of this part shall set forth the following:

(a) A statement of applicable findings under § 506.3 or an indication that such findings have been or are being sought;

(b) Statistics for a representative period showing a present or prospective cargo loss if harm is alleged on that basis. Included in all such statistics shall be the total cargo carried or projected in the trade for the period chosen by petitioner;

(c) Statistics or other relevant evidence for a representative period showing increased costs, inferior service, or other harm to cargo interests if injury is claimed on that basis; and

(d) A recommended regulation, the promulgation of which will in the view of the petitioner, adjust or meet the conditions unfavorable to shipping in the trade.

§ 506.12 Same—How filed.

An original and 15 copies of the petition for section 19 relief shall be filed with the Secretary, Federal Maritime Commission, Washington, D.C. 20573.

§ 506.13 Same—Amendment and dismissal of.

Upon the failure of a petitioner to comply with the provisions of this part, the petitioner, by appropriate notice, will be afforded a reasonable opportunity to amend the petition. Failure to amend the petition will result in its dismissal: Provided, That for good cause shown additional time for amendment may be granted.

§ 506.14 Participation by interested persons.

Interested persons will be afforded an opportunity to participate in proceedings instituted under the rules of this part by the submission of written data, views, or arguments, with or without opportunity to present same orally on any matter.

§ 506.15 Same—Content and effective date.

The Commission shall incorporate in any regulations adopted under the rules of this part a concise statement of their basis and purpose. Except where conditions warrant and for good cause, regulations promulgated by the Commission shall not become effective until 30 days after the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Interested persons may participate in this rulemaking proceeding by filing with the Secretary, Federal Maritime Commission, Washington, D.C. 20573, on or before January 15, 1973, an original and 15 copies of their views or arguments pertaining to the proposed amended rules. All suggestions for changes in the text as set out above should be accompanied by drafts of the language thought necessary to accomplish the desired change and by statements and arguments in support thereof.

The Federal Maritime Commission, Bureau of Hearing Counsel, shall participate in the proceeding and shall file reply to comments on or before February 2, 1973, serving an original and 15 copies on the Federal Maritime Commission and one copy to each party who filed written comments. Answers to Hearing Counsel's replies shall be submitted to the Federal Maritime Commission on or before February 12, 1973.

By the Commission.

FILING OF TARIFFS BY COMMON CARRIERS BY WATER IN FOREIGN COMMERCE OF THE UNITED STATES AND BY CONFERENCES OF SUCH CARRIERS

Postponement of Date for Filing Comments

The Commission's notice of proposed rule making in this proceeding was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER May 20, 1972 (37 F.R. 10389). Time for filing comments on the proposal was subsequently postponed to December 15, 1972.

The Commission is now considering the publication of certain additions and revisions to the proposed rules. It is necessary, therefore, to postpone the time for filing comments in this proceeding to enable the Commission to complete consideration and publication of any revisions prior to receipt of comments.

Accordingly, it is ordered, That the date for filing comments on the proposed rules in this proceeding is postponed pending further notice.

By the Commission.

[Docket No. R-462]

RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT, ACCOUNTING AND REPORTING

Notice of Proposed Rule Making

DECEMBER 13, 1972.

Pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 553, and sections 301, 303, 304, 309 (49 Stat. 854, 855, 858; 16 U.S.C. 825, 825a, 825b, 825c, 825h) of the Federal Power Act and sections 8, 9, 10, 16 (52 Stat. 825, 826, 830; 15 U.S.C. 717g, 717h, 717i, 717o) of the Natural Gas Act, the Commission gives notice it proposes to amend:

A. Certain accounts in the Uniform System of Accounts for Class A and Class B Public Utilities and Licensees, prescribed by 18 CFR Part 101.

B. Certain accounts in the Uniform System of Accounts for Class A and Class B Natural Gas Companies, prescribed by 18 CFR Part 201.

C. Certain schedules of FPC Form No. 1, Annual Report for Public Utilities, Licensees and others (Class A and Class B) prescribed by 18 CFR 141.1.

D. Certain schedules of FPC Form No. 2, Annual Report for Natural Gas Companies (Class A and Class B) prescribed by 18 CFR 260.1.

E. Certain statements in Part 35, Filing of Rate Schedules of Subchapter B, Regulations Under the Federal Power Act.

F. Certain statements in Part 154, Rate Schedules and Tariffs of Subchapter E, Regulations Under the Natural Gas Act.

President Nixon stated in his energy message of June 4, 1971, that "the key to meeting our twin goals of supplying adequate energy and protecting the environment in the decades ahead will be a balanced and imaginative research and development program."

This Commission believes that research and development is an essential part of the national energy policy demanding a high priority of industry and government leadership.

In a report made by the R. & D. Goals Task Force of the Electric Research Council, entitled "Electric Utilities Industry Research and Development Goals Through the Year 2000" it was estimated that to achieve desired goals for an industrywide research and development program it would "require R. & D. expenditures averaging, over the next 29 years, approximately double the current level of combined expenditures of Government, manufacturers and utilities. * * * In terms of 1971 dollars, the program we have set forth will cost an average of $1,120 million for each of the next 29 years starting with $667 million in 1972 and peaking at about $1.2 billion in 1977. * * *"

Since this Commission has sufficient reasons to believe that expenditures for research and development will increase sharply in the near future due to the concerted effort for technological advances and the search for new energy means and supplements, the Commission staff was directed to review the present accounting and reporting criteria in this area to determine whether the existing Commission requirements are consistent with current needs. Based on information emanating from this review, we are presenting a new rulemaking on the subject of research and development wherein certain supplementary accounting and reporting changes are being proposed. This rule making proposes certain changes in the research and development definition, the accounting for the utility expenditures incurred, rate philosophy, and related reporting.

The present definition of research and development (27.B. (Electric) and 28.B. (Gas)) found in the Uniform Systems of Accounts was established by Order No. 322, issued May 26, 1966, in Docket No. R-256 (35 FPC 820, 31 F.R. 7897, June 3, 1966). By Order No. 408, issued August 26, 1970, in Docket No. R-381 (44 FPC 639, 35 F.R. 13983, September 3, 1970), the Commission prescribed accounting treatment for expenditures for research and development and revised certain report schedules in the Annual Report Forms Nos. 1 and 2. In Order No. 408 the Commission then stated, "The Commission has noted that several of the respondents have criticized the definition of research and development incorporated in the present Uniform System of Accounts and have submitted suggestions for revision of this definition. We agree that the present definition may be too restrictive and hereby direct our staff to review the definition currently in our Uniform Systems of Accounts." Such a review has been completed with the resultant changes proposed shown hereinafter. We believe the revised definition, as now proposed, is more in line with present needs.

As to the accounting for expenses incurred by the utility in support of research and development projects, this Commission is well aware that to demonstrate a real commitment to success in the field of research and development all segments of the industry must determine and define their financial commitments to the program. In the National Power Survey, this Commission expressed its deep concern of the workability of a purely voluntary funding system for a research and development program of the magnitude that lies ahead. Therein our preference for the broadest possible utility participation in research and development funding through a system whereby individual companies would contractually pledge to provide specific amounts of money on a basis proportionate to their annual kilowatt-hour sales or some other equitable method, was expressed.[1] We are also aware that projects of this magnitude may give cause for joint efforts of various utilities to accomplish the desired end objectives, particularly with regard to the funding phase.

In Commission Order No. 408, aforementioned, the Commission amended its accounting and ratemaking policies to encourage more extensive research and development activities. To be specific, Account 188, Research and Development Expenditures, a balance sheet account, was added to the Uniform Systems of Accounts. The purpose of this account was to establish a deferred debit account and the balances therein would receive consideration as a rate base item while the portions being amortized would be allowed to be written off above the line. We are herein proposing the necessary amendments to the Regulations Under the Federal Power and Natural Gas Acts to more specifically implement that purpose.

Since the amount of expenditure could be substantial for any project and since there is always a question of whether such expenditure would be includible as a rate base item in a rate proceeding, we are proposing that utilities may, at their option, request prior Commission approval for rate treatment of R. & D. expenditures of $50,000 or more in any project, which may be a company undertaking or a contribution toward a joint project undertaken by others. We are also proposing that this prior approval be extended to aggregate amounts of $500,000 or more related to projects the expenditures of which have been recorded in Account 188.

We also believe it is appropriate that the companies be allowed the opportunity not only to recover their expenditures from such projects through charges to utility operations but also that they be allowed to earn a return on the unamortized balances in Account 188, Research and Development Expenditures. Under present policies such a return is possible only when there is a rate proceeding. Consequently, to provide this additional stimulation and incentive, we are proposing that companies be allowed to request approval from the Commission for tracking authority at the same time that Commission approval is requested for rate treatment of amounts exceeding $50,000 in Account 188. This would allow the application of the currently authorized rate of return to be applied immediately to the unamortized balances in Account 188. Requests for tracking would include full details of the incentives which have already been allowed by other jurisdictional bodies, such as "add-on amounts" to customers bills, so that tracking approval would not allow double recovery. It also follows that double recovery will not be allowed for ratemaking purposes on any items in Account 188 in any proceeding before this Commission.

It is envisioned that due to the need for full disclosure in the area of research and development there may be occasions when it would be appropriate and desirable to record plant transferred from Account 107, Construction Work in Progress—Electric (Gas) which was previously classified in the research and development section thereof, but has been completed in an account to be termed Account 103, Experimental Electric (Gas) Plant Unclassified. This account would be a holding account for such plant once completed and while being operated in an experimental status, unless that plant item is considered to be a plant item properly includible in Account 101, Electric (Gas) Plant in Service. Because of the uncertain characteristics of experimental plants it may be proper to depreciate the cost of such plants over a relatively short period of time, therefore, such plant is proposed to be retained in Account 103 until the plant is considered satisfactory to perform the utility function for which it was designed.

During the review of the present accounting and rate treatment of research and development, consideration was given to the proper treatment to be made of any profits and/or royalties related to the successful projects whose benefits are also utilized for a price, by nonparticipating utilities or by nonutility entities.

Thus, we are proposing that any such benefits derived from this source shall be accounted for above the line as utility operating income, to be recorded in Account 456(495), Other Electric (Gas) Revenues. It is also proposed that when a utility participates in a joint project where other utilities or entities are also contributing, the contractual agreements should provide complete access to the cost records and results relating to the project.

And finally, a minor amendment is proposed in the reporting now prescribed at schedule page 448, of FPC Annual Report Form No. 1 and schedule page 572, of FPC Annual Report Form No. 2, both entitled "Research and Development Activities." We find from experience that the information being reported therein is not satisfactory for present Commission needs. This is not due to the lack of compliance on the part of some reporting utilities, but mainly due to the lack of specific reporting instructions. Based on the 2 years usage of the revised form, it is now proposed to further revise the form as set out in Attachment A.[2] Also, we are proposing to make a slight amendment to schedule pages 401 and 403, Electric Plant in Service, 406, Construction Work in Progress and Completed Construction Not Classified—Electric (Accounts 107 and 106), and 416, Miscellaneous Service Revenues and Other Electric Revenues (Account 451, 456) of the FPC Annual Report No. 1 and schedule pages 501 and 504, Gas Plant in Service, 507, Construction Work in Progress and Completed Construction Not Classified—Gas (Accounts 107 and 106), and 526. Incidental Gasoline and Oil Sales and Other Gas Revenues (Accounts 492 and 495) of the FPC Form No. 2 in consonance with the accounting for revenues received as an outgrowth of research and development ventures mentioned above. These revisions are considered minor in nature and should not be an increased reporting burden on the utility.

The proposed amendment to the Uniform System of Accounts and Regulations Under the Federal Power Act would be issued under authority granted the Federal Power Commission by the Federal Power Act, particularly sections 19, 20, 205, 206(a), 208, 209, 301, 303, 304, 309 (41 Stat. 1073, 49 Stat. 851, 852, 853, 854, 855, 858; 16 U.S.C. 812, 813, 824d, 824e, 824g, 825, 825a, 825b, 825c, 825h).

The proposed amendment to the Uniform System of Accounts and Regulations Under the Natural Gas Act would be issued under authority granted the Federal Power Commission by the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4, 8, 9, 10, 16 (52 Stat. 822, 825, 826, 830; 15 U.S.C. 717c, 717g, 717i, 717o).

The proposed amendments to FPC Form No. 1, Annual Report for Electric Utilities, Licensees and Others, would be issued under authority granted the Federal Power Commission by the Federal Power Act as amended, particularly sections 301, 304, and 309 (49 Stat. 854, 855–856, 858, 859; 16 U.S.C. 825, 825c, 825h).

The proposed amendments to FPC Form No. 2, Annual Report for Natural Gas Companies, would be issued under authority granted the Federal Power Commission by the Natural Gas Act, as amended, particularly sections 8, 10, and 16 (52 Stat. 825, 826, 830; 15 U.S.C. 717g, 717i, 717o).

PART 35—FILING OF RATE SCHEDULES

A. The following are proposed amendments to § 35.13 Filing of changes in rate schedules, prescribed in Part 35, Filing of Rate Schedules (18 CFR 35.13).

1. In § 35.13 Filing of changes in rate schedules, amend paragraph (b) (4) (iv) by adding Statement E1—Research and Development immediately following "Statement E—Accumulated Depreciation," to read as follows:

[1] The 1970 National Power Survey, p. I–1-33.

[2] Filed as part of the original document.

PART 101—UNIFORM SYSTEM OF ACCOUNTS PRESCRIBED FOR CLASS A AND CLASS B PUBLIC UTILITIES AND LICENSEES

B. The following are proposed amendments to the Uniform System of Accounts for Class A and Class B Public Utilities and Licensees, prescribed in Part 101, Chapter I, Title 18 of the Code of Federal Regulations (18 CFR Part 101).

1. In the definition section, revise Definition "27.B." As revised Definition 27.B. will read as follows:

Definitions

27. * * * B. "Research and Development" means expenditures incurred by public utilities and licensees either directly or through another person or organization (such as research institute, industry association, foundation, university, engineering company, or similar contractor) in pursuing research and development activities including experiment, design, installation, construction, or operation. Such research and development costs should be reasonably related to the existing or future utility business, broadly defined, of the public utility or licensee or to the environment in which it operates or expects to operate. The term includes but is not limited to: all such costs incidental to the design, development, or implementation of an experimental facility, a plant process, a product, a formula, an invention, a system, or similar items, and the improvement of already existing items of a like nature; amounts expended in connection with the proposed development and/or proposed delivery of alternate sources of electricity; and the costs of obtaining its own patent, such as attorney's fees expended in making and perfecting a patent application. The term does not include expenditures for efficiency surveys, general management studies, consumer surveys, advertising, promotions, or items of a like nature.

2. In the chart of the Balance Sheet Accounts, amend the chart of accounts by revising the account title of Account "103, Electric plant in process of reclassification to read: Experimental electric plant unclassified. As so amended Account 103 will read:

Balance Sheet Accounts

ASSETS AND OTHER DEBITS

1. Utility Plant

Electric Plant

* * * * *

103 Experimental electric plant unclassified.

* * * * *

3. In the text of the Balance Sheet Accounts:

a. Revise the title and complete text of Account "103, Electric plant in process of reclassification."

b. Amend paragraph A of Account "188, Research and development expenditures."

As so revised and amended, the revised and amended portions of the Balance Sheet Accounts' text will read:

Balance Sheet Accounts

1. Utility Plant

103 Experimental electric plant unclassified.

A. This account shall include the cost of electric plant which was constructed as a research and development plant under the provisions of paragraph C, account 107, Construction Work in Progress—Electric, and due to the nature of the plant it is desirous to operate it for a period of time in an experimental status.

B. Amounts in this account shall be transferred to account 101, Electric Plant in Service, when the project is no longer considered as experimental and is able to satisfactorily perform any utility function for which it was designed.

C. The depreciation on property in this account shall be charged to account 403, Depreciation Expense, and credited to account 108, Accumulated Provision for Depreciation of Electric Plant in Service. The amounts herein shall be depreciated over a period which would correspond to the estimated useful life of the relevant project considering the characteristics involved. However, when projects are transferred to account 101, Electric Plant in Service, a new depreciation rate based on the remaining service life and undepreciated amounts, will be established.

D. Records shall be maintained with respect to each unit of experiment so that full details may be obtained as to the cost, depreciation, and the experimental status.

* * * * *

4. Deferred Debits

* * * * *

188 Research and development expenditures.

A. This account shall be charged with the cost of all expenditures coming within the meaning of Research and Development (R. & D.) of this Uniform System of Accounts (See definition 27.B.), except those expenditures properly chargeable to Account 107, Construction Work in Progress—Electric.

* * * * *

E. Commission approval may be requested to use this account for R. & D. expenditures of $50,000 or more related to a project undertaken by the company or as part of a project undertaken by others, or for a group of projects which, in the aggregate, cost $50,000 or more when advance assurance of rate base treatment is desired. This approval may be requested regardless of whether the R. & D. is undertaken by the utility or by another party or organization. Approval requests shall describe the project in such detail so as to satisfy the Commission that the project expenditures involved qualifies as being valid, justifiable, and reasonable. In addition, the request shall specifically include the estimated cost of the project and a description of utility's expenditure percentage in the total project program. When a utility participates in a joint project, the contractual agreements should provide the utility complete access to cost records and results related to the project. Records shall be so kept that unscheduled progress reports may be called for as determined by the Commission. (See definition 27.B.)

* * * * *

4. Account 456, Other electric revenues, of the Operating Revenue Accounts is amended by adding an additional item numbered 6, to the items list as follows:

Operating Revenue Accounts

6. Revenues in payment for rights and/or benefits received from others which were realized through research and development ventures and cost of which was accounted for in Account 188, Research and Development Expenditures. In the event the amount received would be so large as to distort revenues for the year in which received (5 percent of net income before application of the benefit) the amount shall be credited to Account 253, Other Deferred Credits, and amortized by credits to this account over a period not to exceed 5 years.

PART 141—STATEMENTS AND REPORTS (SCHEDULES)

C. Effective for the reporting year 1972, it is proposed to amend schedule pages 401, 403, 406, 416, and 448 of FPC Form No. 1, Annual Report for Electric Utilities, Licensees and Others (Class A and Class B) prescribed by 18 CFR 141.1, all as set out in Attachment A hereto.[1]

[1] Filed as part of the original document.

PART 154—RATE SCHEDULES AND TARIFFS

D. The following are proposed amendments to paragraph "(f) Description of Statements," prescribed in § 154.63 Changes in a tariff, executed service agreement or part thereof, Part 154, Rate Schedules and Tariffs, (18 CFR 154.63):

1. In "Schedule C–4," of "Statement C—Cost of Plant" add 103 immediately following "(Account 101)" shown in brackets in the first sentence.

2. Add Schedule N–11 to "Statement N—Cost determinants for minor changes in a rate level," immediately following "Schedule N–10."

As so amended those portions of § 154.63 will read as follows:

§ 154.63 Changes in a tariff, executed service agreement or part thereof.

PART 201—UNIFORM SYSTEM OF ACCOUNTS FOR NATURAL GAS COMPANIES

E. The following are proposed amendments to the Uniform System of Accounts for Class A and Class B Natural Gas Companies, prescribed in Part 201, Chapter I, Title 18 of the Code of Federal Regulations:

1. In the definition section, revise Definition "28.B." As revised, Definition 28.B. will read as follows:

Definitions

* * * * *

28. * * *

B. "Research and Development" means expenditures incurred by natural gas companies either directly or through another person or organization (such as research institute, industry association, foundation, university engineering company or similar contractor) in pursuing research and development activities including experiment, design, installation, construction or operation. Such research and development costs should be reasonably related to the existing or future utility business, broadly defined, of the company or to the environment in which it operates or expects to operate. The term includes but is not limited to: All such costs incidental to the design, development or implementation of an experimental facility, a plant process, a product, a formula, an invention, a system or similar items, and the improvement of already existing items of a like nature; amounts expended in connection with the proposed development and/or proposed delivery of substitute or synthetic gas supplies (alternate fuel sources for example, a coal gasification plant or a plant synthetically producing gas from liquid hydrocarbons); and the costs of obtaining its own patent, such as attorney's fees expended in making and perfecting a patent application. The term does not include expenditures for efficiency surveys, general management studies, consumer surveys, advertising, promotions, or items of a like nature.

B. Amounts in this account shall be transferred to account 101, Gas Plant in Service, when the project is no longer considered as experimental and is able to satisfactorily perform any utility function for which it was designed. Prior to such transfer the subject plant must be certified by the Commission for use as gas plant in service.

C. The depreciation on property in this account shall be charged to account 403, Depreciation Expense, and credited to account 108, Accumulated Provision for Depreciation of Gas Plant in Service. The amounts herein shall be depreciated over a period which would correspond to the estimated useful life of the relevant project considering the experimental characteristics involved. However, when projects are transferred to account 101, Gas Plant in Service, a new depreciation rate based on the remaining service life and undepreciated amounts, will be established.

* * * * *

E. Commission approval may be requested to use this account for R. & D. expenditures of $50,000 or more related to a project undertaken by the company or as part of a project undertaken by others, or for a group of projects which, in the aggregate, cost $50,000 or more when advance assurance of rate base treatment is desired. This approval may be requested regardless of whether the R. & D. is undertaken by the utility or by another party or organization. Approval requests shall describe the project in such detail so as to satisfy the Commission that the project expenditures involved qualifies as being valid, justifiable and reasonable. In addition, the request shall specifically include the estimated cost of the project and a description of utility's expenditure precentage in the total project program. When a utility participates in a joint project, the contractual agreements should provide the utility complete access to cost records and results related to the project. Records shall be so kept that unscheduled progress reports may be called for as determined by the Commission. (See definition 27.B.)

PART 260—STATEMENTS AND REPORTS (SCHEDULES)

F. Effective for the reporting year 1972, it is proposed to amend schedule pages 501, 504, 507, 526, and 572 of FPC Form No. 2, Annual Report for Natural Gas Companies (Class A and Class B) prescribed by 18 CFR 260.1 all as set out in Attachment B hereto.[2]

Any interested person may submit to the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, not later than January 29, 1973, data, views, comments, or suggestions in writing concerning the amendments to the annual report forms proposed herein. Written submittals will be placed in the Commission's public files and will be available for public inspection at the Commission's Office of Public Information, Washington, D.C. 20426, during regular business hours. The Commission will consider all such written submittals before acting on the matters herein proposed. An original and 14 conformed copies should be filed with the Secretary of the Commission. In addition, interested persons wishing to have their comments considered in the clearance of the proposed revisions in the report forms pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 3501-3511 may, at the same time, submit a conformed copy of their comments directly to the Clearance Officer, Statistical Policy Division, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, D.C. 20503. Submittals to the Commission should indicate the name, title, mailing address, and telephone number of the person to whom communications concerning the proposal should be addressed, and whether the person filing them requests a conference with the staff of the Federal Power Commission to discuss the proposed revisions. The Staff, in its discretion, may grant or deny requests for conference.

The Secretary shall cause prompt publication of this notice to be made in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By direction of the Commission.

KENNETH F. PLUMB,
Secretary.

UNIGARD MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANY

Surety Company Acceptable on Federal Bonds

A Certificate of Authority as an acceptable surety on Federal bonds has been issued by the Secretary of the Treasury to the following company under sections 6 to 13 of Title 6 of the United States Code. An underwriting limitation of $5,593,000.00 has been established for the company.

Name of company, location of principal executive office, and State in which incorporated:

Unigard Mutual Insurance Company
Seattle, Washington
Washington

Certificates of Authority expire on June 30 each year, unless sooner revoked, and new Certificates are issued on July 1 so long as the companies remain qualified (31 CFR Part 223). A list of qualified companies is published annually as of July 1 in Department Circular 570, with details as to underwriting limitations, areas in which licensed to transact fidelity and surety business and other information. Copies of the Circular, when issued, may be obtained from the Treasury Department, Bureau of Accounts, Audit Staff, Washington, D.C. 20226.

5⅞-PERCENT TREASURY NOTES OF SERIES F-1974

Offering of Notes

DECEMBER 15, 1972.

I. Offering of notes. 1. The Secretary of the Treasury, pursuant to the authority of the Second Liberty Bond Act, as amended, invites tenders at a price not less than 99.51 percent of their face value for $2 billion, or thereabouts, of notes of the United States, designated 5⅞-percent Treasury Notes of Series F-1974. Tenders will be received up to 1:30 p.m., e.s.t., Wednesday, December 20, 1972. The notes will be issued under competitive and noncompetitive bidding, as set forth in section III hereof.

II. Description of notes. 1. The notes will be dated December 28, 1972, and will bear interest from that date at the rate of 5⅞ percent per annum, payable on a semiannual basis on June 30 and December 31, 1973, and June 30 and December 31, 1974. They will mature December 31, 1974, and will not be subject to call for redemption prior to maturity.

2. The income derived from the notes is subject to all taxes imposed under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The notes are subject to estate, inheritance, gift or other excise taxes, whether Federal or State, but are exempt from all taxation now or hereafter imposed on the principal or interest thereof by any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority.

3. The notes will be acceptable to secure deposits of public moneys. They will not be acceptable in payment of taxes.

4. Bearer notes with interest coupons attached, and notes registered as to principal and interest, will be issued in denominations of $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, $100,000, and $1 million. Provision will be made for the interchange of notes of different denominations and of coupon and registered notes, and for the transfer of registered notes, under rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury.

5. The notes will be subject to the general regulations of the Department of the Treasury, now or hereafter prescribed, governing U.S. notes.

III. Tenders and allotments. 1. Tenders will be received at Federal Reserve Banks and Branches and at the Office of the Treasurer of the United States, Washington, D.C. 20220, up to the closing hour, 1:30 p.m. e.s.t., Wednesday, December 20, 1972. Each tender must state the face amount of notes bid for, which must be $1,000 or a multiple thereof, and the price offered, except that in the case of noncompetitive tenders the term "noncompetitive" should be used in lieu of a price. In the case of competitive tenders, the price must be expressed on the basis of 100, with two decimals, e.g., 100.00. Tenders at a price less than 99.51 will not be accepted. Fractions may not be used. Noncompetitive tenders from any one bidder may not exceed $200,000. It is urged that tenders be made on the printed forms and forwarded in the special envelopes marked "Tender for Treasury Notes," which will be supplied by Federal Reserve Banks on application therefor.

2. Commercial banks, which for this purpose are defined as banks accepting demand deposits, may submit tenders for account of customers provided the names of the customers are set forth in such tenders. Others than commercial banks will not be permitted to submit tenders except for their own account. Tenders will be received without deposit from banking institutions for their own account, federally insured savings and loan associations, States, political subdivisions or instrumentalities thereof, public pension and retirement and other public funds, international organizations in which the United States holds membership, foreign central banks and foreign states, dealers who make primary markets in Government securities and report daily to the Federal Reserve Bank of New York their positions with respect to Government securities and borrowings thereon, and Government accounts. Tenders from others must be accompanied by payment of 5 percent of the face amount of notes applied for.

3. Immediately after the closing hour tenders will be opened, following which public announcement will be made by the Department of the Treasury of the amount and price range of accepted bids. Those submitting tenders will be advised of the acceptance or rejection thereof. In considering the acceptance of tenders, those at the highest prices will be accepted to the extent required to attain the amount offered. Tenders at the lowest accepted price will be prorated if necessary. The Secretary of the Treasury expressly reserves the right to accept or reject any or all tenders, in whole or in part, and his action in any such respect shall be final. Subject to these reservations, noncompetitive tenders for $200,000 or less without stated price from any one bidder will be accepted in full at the average price[1] (in two decimals) of accepted competitive tenders.

4. All bidders are required to agree not to purchase or to sell, or to make any agreements with respect to the purchase or sale or other disposition of any notes of this issue at a specific rate or price, until after 1:30 p.m., e.s.t., Wednesday, December 20, 1972.

5. Commercial banks in submitting tenders will be required to certify that they have no beneficial interest in any of the tenders they enter for the account of their customers, and that their customers have no beneficial interest in the banks' tenders for their own account.

IV. Payment. 1. Settlement for accepted tenders in accordance with the bids must be made or completed on or before December 28, 1972, at the Federal Reserve Bank or Branch or at the Office of the Treasurer of the United States, Washington, D.C. 20220, in cash or other funds immediately available by that date. Payment will not be deemed to have been completed where registered notes are requested if the appropriate identifying number as required on tax returns and other documents submitted to the Any qualified depositary credit in its Treasury Tax and Loan Account for notes allotted to it for itself and its customers.

V. General provisions. 1. As fiscal agents of the United States, Federal Reserve Banks are authorized and requested to receive tenders, to make such allotments as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasurty, to issue such notices as may be necessary, to receive payment for and make delivery of notes on full-paid tenders allotted, and they mal issue interim receipts pending delivery of the definitive notes.

2. The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time, or from time to time, prescribe supplemental or amendatory rules and regulations governing the offering, which will be communicated promptly to the Federal Reserve Banks.

COMMISSIONER OF FOOD AND DRUGS

Redelegation of Authority To Administer Certain Functions Promulgated by Comprehensive Drug Abuse Prevention and Control Act

The following authority delegated to the Assistant Secretary for Health and Scientific Affairs by the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare has been redelegated to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs, as follows:

1. Functions vested in the Secretary pertaining to section 302(a) of the Public Health Service Act (42 U.S.C. 242(a)) which relate to the determination and reporting requirements with respect to the medicinal and scientific requirements of the United States for controlled substances.

2. Functions vested in the Secretary pertaining to section 303 of the Public Health Service Act (42 U.S.C. 242a) which relate to the authorization of persons engaged in research on the use and effect of drugs to protect the identity of their research subjects with respect to drugs scheduled under Public Law 91-513 for which a notice of claimed exemption for an investigational new drug is filed with the Food and Drug Administration and with respect to all drugs not scheduled under Public Law 91-513.

3. Functions vested in the Secretary pertaining to section 4 of the Comprehensive Drug Abuse Prevention and Control Act of 1970 (84 Stat. 1241) which relate to the determination of the safety and effectiveness of drugs or to approve new drugs to be used in the treatment of narcotic addicts.

4. Functions vested in the Secretary pertaining to section 303(f) of the Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. 823(f)) which relate to the determination of the qualifications and competency of practitioners wishing to conduct research with controlled substances listed in Schedule I of the Act, and the merits of the research protocol.

5. Functions vested in the Secretary pertaining to provisions of the Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. 801 et seq.) which relate to administration of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C. 301 et seq.).

ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION

[Docket Nos. 50-390A and 50-391A]

TENNESSEE VALLEY AUTHORITY

Notice of Receipt of Attorney General's Advice and Time for Filing of Petitions to Intervene on Antitrust Matters

The Commission has received, pursuant to section 105c of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended, a letter of advice from the Attorney General of the United States, dated December 11, 1972, a copy of which is attached as Appendix A.

Any person whose interest may be affected by this proceeding may, pursuant to § 2.714 of the Commission's rules of practice, 10 CFR Part 2, file a petition for leave to intervene and request a hearing on the antitrust aspects of the application. Petitions for leave to intervene and requests for hearing shall be filed within thirty (30) days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, either: (1) By delivery to the AEC Public Document Room at 1717 H Street NW., Washington, DC, or (2) by mail or telegram addressed to the Secretary, U.S. Atomic Energy Commission, Washington, D.C. 20545, Attention: Chief, Public Proceedings Branch.

For the Atomic Energy Commission.

APPENDIX "A"

TENNESSEE VALLEY AUTHORITY

Watts Bar Nuclear Plant, Units 1 and 2

[AEC Dockets Nos. 50-390A, 50-391A; Department of Justice File 60-415-43]

DECEMBER 11, 1972.

On August 23, 1971, Mr. Bertram H. Schur of your Commission forwarded to the Attorney General, for his antitrust review pursuant to section 105c of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, 68 Stat. 919, 42 U.S.C. 2011-2296 as amended by Public Law 91-560, 84 Stat. 1472 (December 19, 1970), an application filed by the Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA) for a permit to construct the Watts Bar Nuclear Plant, Units 1 and 2. Although TVA was asked to supply information to the Department to be utilized in its antitrust review pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 2135c (4), TVA initially failed to do so. Since the information for our review was not thereafter provided for some period of time, we deemed the statutory time for rendering antitrust advice to be tolled while we awaited the necessary information.

The Watts Bar units, each with a capacity of 1,269,900 kilowatts, are presently scheduled for operation for 1977 and 1978 or soon thereafter. They are proposed to be integrated as a part of TVA's bulk power supply system and will form a significant addition to TVA's ability to market firm capacity and to engage in coordination with neighboring power systems in the coordinated regional bulk power supply.

TVA markets bulk power supply throughout the State of Tennessee: it is the sole bulk power supplier in that State, except for Kingsport Power Co., an American Electric Power subsidiary, through which an AEP operating company markets bulk power supply in Kingsport and five smaller communities. It also markets bulk power supply in areas of Mississippi, Kentucky, Alabama, North Carolina, and a portion of Georgia. Its electric power functions are limited principally to supply of electric power in bulk for resale at retail by independent distributors of electric power, who are almost exclusively nonprofit agencies such as municipalities and cooperatives. TVA makes some sales at retail to Federal Government agencies and also makes direct sales to large private industries. Further, it engages in significant interchange and sale of power with other electric utilities. Of 1971 total electric operating revenues of approximately $575 million, approximately $380 million was obtained by sales to independent distribution systems; $62 million from sales to Federal agencies; $125 million from direct sales to very large industries; and $10 million from interchange of power with other bulk power suppliers.

While other Federal Governmental agencies' authority to market power is ordinarily limited to the sale of surplus hydroelectric power generated at Federal water resource development projects, TVA is unique among Federal Government agencies in having bulk power supply public utility responsibility and statutory authority to install steam generation facilities in order to meet such responsibility for growing loads.

TVA's 1972 system peak load was 16,664,000 kilowatts. As of that date it had a system dependable capacity of 18,595,000 kilowatts consisting of 14,671,007 kilowatts of thermal capacity and 3,924,000 kilowatts of hydroelectric capacity integrated by an extensive high voltage transmission system operating principally at 161 kv. with some elements of 500 kv. Its annual increments of increase in load are in excess of 1,500 megawatts over the next 10 years and its large system size assisted by its interconnections with other systems enables it economically to justify addition of nuclear generating units of the sizes contemplated in the instant application.

Prior to 1959, TVA's operating and constructing budget was dependent upon annual appropriations by Congress. Under those circumstances TVA's ability to supply power in bulk in competition with other bulk power supply sources was regulated directly by Congress in the annual appropriations process. In 1959 Congress permitted TVA to obtain additional construction funds from the private money market but imposed a limitation on the geographic areas in which TVA could market bulk power supply. Additionally, it restricted TVA's interconnection and coordination with adjacent bulk power suppliers except as to those with which it was interconnected as of July, 1957. Section 15d (a) TVA Act, 16 U.S.C. 831n–4; "Hardin v. Kentucky Utility Co.", 390 US 1 (1967).

It is not presently clear the exact extent to which amended section 15d(a) restricts TVA in its ability to enter into coordination arrangements with other electric utility systems. However, we are persuaded that, in any event, the statute would not justify TVA in discriminating in the establishment or operation of coordination arrangements among similarly situated electric systems.

On the basis of information obtained from the applicant and presently available from other sources, we find no antitrust problems which would require a hearing by your Commission on the instant application.

COUNCIL ON ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY

ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT STATEMENTS

Notice of Availability

Environmental impact statements received by the Council from December 4 through December 8, 1972.

NOTE: At the head of the listing of statements received from each agency is the name of an individual who can answer questions regarding those statements.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Contact: Dr. T. C. Byerly, Office of the Secretary, Washington, D.C. 20250, 202—388–7803.

FOREST SERVICE

Draft, December 8

Burnt Fork Planning Unit, Montana, County: Ravalli. The statement refers to a revised multiple use plan for the Burnt Fork Planning Unit of the Bitterroot National Forest. Approximately 20,905 acres of the unit would continue to be roadless, and would be managed with an emphasis on backcountry values. The remaining 28,695 acres would be open for developmental options and more intensive managing practices, for such values as timber, mineral, watershed, wildlife, esthetics, and recreation; 19,353 acres of previously unroaded land will be developed with roads. There will be adverse impact upon air, soil, and water quality, and wildlife habitat. (98 pages) (ELR Order No. 05734) (NTIS Order No., EIS 72 5734–D)

Herbicide Control of Sagebrush and Wyethia, Utah, County: Several. The statement refers to the proposed use of the herbicide 2,4–D on 5,000 acres of sagebrush and wyethia covered land annually. The chemical may find its way to water supplies and to the soil; nontarget species will be affected. Among the animal species for which sagebrush provides food and/or habitat, are grouse, elk, and mule deer. (68 pages) (ELR Order No. 05731) (NTIS Order No. EIS 72 5731–D)

SOIL CONSERVATION SERVICE

Draft, December 4

Upper Salt Creek Watershed, Illinois, Counties: Cook, Lake, and Du Page. The proposed watershed project will include land treatment measures supplemented by one floodwater retarding-recreation structure, five floodwater retarding structures, 1.8 miles of channel modification, and 261 acres of flood plain preserves. Vegetive cover on 208 acres of construction area will be temporarily disturbed; 649 acres will be permanently inundated by sediment and beneficial use pools, and 851 acres will be temporarily flooded by detention pools. Channel modifications will disturb the vegetive cover on 26 acres. Approximately 700 persons and one business will be dislocated. (29 pages) (ELR Order No. 05709) (NTIS Order No. EIS 72 5709–D)

ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION

Contact: For nonregulatory matters: Mr. Robert J. Catlin, Director, Division of Environmental Affairs, Washington, D.C. 20545, 202—973–5391.

For regulatory matters: Mr. A. Giambusso, Deputy Director for Reactor Projects, Directorate of Licensing, 202—973–7373, Washington, D.C. 50545.

Draft, December 6

Emergency Core Cooling Systems (ECCS). The statement refers to the Commission's proposed rule-making action on acceptance criteria for emergency core cooling systems in light-water-cooled nuclear power reactors. The action would provide general criteria and evaluation models that will be used by the AEC to evaluate the ability of the systems to control the consequences of loss-of-coolant accidents over the entire spectrum of postulated accident conditions. Alternatives considered include: Adopting the interim criteria of June 29, 1971; adopting criteria which encompass modifications proposed in the ECCS rule-making hearings initiated on January 27, 1972; and not adopting criteria but rather evaluating each nuclear powerplant on an ad hoc case-by-case basis. (125 pages) (ELR Order No. 05723) (NTIS Order No. EIS 72 5723–D)

Draft, December 8

Limerick Station, Units 1 and 2, Pennsylvania, County: Montgomery. The statement refers to the proposed issuance of a construction permit to the Philadelphia Electric Co. for the two-unit station. Each unit will employ a boiling water reactor; total capacity for the two will be 3,293 MWT and 1,055 MWE (net), with "stretch" power levels of 4,550 MWT and 1,100 MWE anticipated. Cooling water will be drawn from the Schuylkill River and from the Delaware River via Perkiomen Creek, circulated through two natural draft towers, and discharged to the river. Withdrawal of water from the Delaware River will restrict both present and future municipal, industrial, and recreational uses of the river. (Approximately 390 pages) (ELR Order No. 05750) (NTIS Order No. EIS 72 5750–D)

Final, December 6

Zion Nuclear Power Station, Illinois, County: Lake. The statement evaluates the continuation of construction permits and the issuance of an operating permit to the Commonwealth Edison Co. for the station. Each of the two pressurized water reactors will produce 3,250 MWT to generate 1,100 MWE. Excess heat will be discharged to Lake Michigan by a once-through, 1,530 g.p.m. cooling system. The station has had an adverse effect upon Lake Michigan beach property, by preventing access and causing erosion. Approximately 10 curies of radioactive liquid waste, along with 2,000 curies of tritium and 400 curies of radioactive gaseous wastes, will be discharged annually to the environment. (345 pages) (ELR Order No. 05721) (NTIS Order No. Comments made by: EPA, COE, USDA, DOC, DOI, FPC, State and local agencies EIS 72 5721–F)

Three Mile Island Nuclear Station, Pennsylvania, County: Dauphin. The statement refers to the proposed continuation of construction permits and the issuance of operating licenses to the Metropolitan Edison Co., the Jersey Central Power and Light Co., and the Pennsylvania Electric Co., for the two-unit plant. Unit 1 has a capacity of 2,535 MWT to produce 871 MWE; Unit 2 is of 2,772 MWT and 959 MWE. Each unit employs a pressurized water reactor. Approximately 36,000 g.p.m. of Susquehanna River water will be utilized for cooling (through four natural draft towers), and discharged at 3° Fahrenheit above ambient. (256 pages) Comments made by: USDA, DOD, HEW, DOI, and one State agency (ELR Order No. 05722) (NTIS Order No. EIS 72 5722–F)

Final, December 8

Hanford Plant No. 2, Washington, County: Benton. The statement refers to the proposed issuance of a construction permit to the Washington Public Power Supply system for a 3,458 MWT, 1,100 MWE boiling water reactor, with a forced-draft cooling tower system. Cooling water will be drawn from the Columbia River at 37cf (maximum); gaseous and liquid effluents containing radionuclides will be discharged to the environs. (292 pages) Comments made by: USDA, COE, DOC, EPA. HEW, DUD, DOI, DOT, and State agencies (ELR Order No. 05749) (NTIS Order No. EIS 72 5749–F)

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

Contact: Mr. Sidney R. Galler, Deputy Assistant Secretary for Environmental Affairs, Department of Commerce, Washington, D.C. 20230, 202—967–4335.

Draft, December 4

Fruit/Church Industrial Park, Calif., County: Fresno. The statement refers to the proposed development of an industrial park in southwest Fresno. The action will include a loan to the O'neil Meat Co., which will enable it to modernize its plant; and a grant to the city of Fresno, which will permit the acquisition of the 74-acre site and its development for use by heavy industry. There will be increases in noise, dust, and exhaust emissions during and after construction. (127 pages) (ELR Order No. 05713) (NTIS Order No. EIS 72 5713–D)

Draft, December 7

Dredging of Dead-Reef Shells, Mobile Bay, Ala. The statement refers to an application for Section 10 Permit for the dredging of dead-reef shells in Mobile Bay by Radcliff Materials, Inc. Approximately 6 million cubic yards of dead-reef shell and 12 million cubic yards of overburden will be removed. Adverse effects of the project include lowered productivity of about 2,000 acres of Mobil Bay for 5 years, temporary damage to flora and fauna in an additional 3,500 acres of the estuary, degradation of water quality and aesthetics, conflict with commercial fishing interest, and long-term softening of the bottom of the bay. Draft, December 4

Crooked Creek Project No. 2628, Alabama, Counties: Randolph and Clay. The action consists of approval of an application by Alabama Power Co. for major license for construction and operation of a hydroelectric generating plant to be located on the Tallapoosa River. The project will consist of a concrete dam 150 feet high by 956 feet long, earth and rock-filled dikes (4,500 feet), and a powerhouse containing two generating units. Inundation of 10,660 acres of land will eliminate farmland, timber crops, and wildlife habitat, and displace four homes. Changes in water quality and elimination of the free flowing river and its bank fishery are adverse effects of the project. (56 pages) (ELR Order No. 05716) (NTIS Order No. EIS 72 5716–D)

DEPARTMENT OF HEW

Contact: Mr. Robert Lanza, Special Assistant to the Assistant Secretary for Health and Scientific Affairs, Room 4062, HEW North Building, Washington, D.C. 20201, 962–0827.

Draft, December 8

Martha's Vineyard Hospital, Mass., County: Dukes. The statement refers to the proposed construction of additional facilities for an existing hospital, including a one-story structure with 40 general and 40 long-term beds, a central sterile supply area, a new lobby, parking areas, and a new sewage disposal plant. The proposed facility would be located in one of the least accessible, and most residential areas of the county. A bridge between Vineyard Haven and the hospital represents potential hinderance to vehicular access; the site does not lend itself to future expansion, nor does it conform to the "County Plan." (36 pages) (ELR Order No. 05751) (NTIS Order No. EIS 72 5751–D)

Draft, December 7

Unimak Islands Wilderness, Alaska. The statement refers to the proposed legislative designation of 973,000 acres of the 998, 260-acre Unimak Island (which is part of the Aleutian Islands National Wildlife Refuge) as wilderness within the National Wilderness Preservation System. (39 pages) (ELR Order No. 05726) (NTIS Order No. EIS 72 5726–D)

Anaho Island Wilderness Area, Nev., county: Washoe. The statement refers to the proposed legislative designation of the 247-acre Anaho Island National Wildlife Refuge (located in Pyramid Lake) as wilderness within the National Wilderness Preservation System. The island is of special significance as being one of the few known white pelican nesting colonies in North America. Other birds of the island include the California gull, the double-crested cormorant, the great blue heron, and the Caspian tern. (19 pages) (ELR Order No. 05727) (NTIS Order No. EIS 72 5727–D)

FEDERAL HIGHWAY ADMINISTRATION

Draft, December 4

State Highways 29 and 121, California, county: Napa. The proposed project consists of a freeway on Routes 29 and 121 between existing Route 29 near Soscol Road and Imola Avenue West, a distance of 4.8 miles. The project will provide a four-lane bypass for the city of Napa and a bridge spanning the Napa River. Approximately 380 acres of grassland will be committed to right-of-way use; 22 acres of vineyard and 13 acres of spear orchard will be removed. Other adverse impacts of the action include loss of wildlife habitat, displacement of six families and possible encroachment on archaeological sites. (92 pages) (ELR Order No. 05710) (NTIS Order No. EIS 72 5710–D)

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. R-371; Opinion 639]

AREA RATES FOR APPALACHIAN AND ILLINOIS BASIN AREAS

Opinion and Order Denying Petitions To Amend Regulations Governing Sales of Natural Gas

DECEMBER 12, 1972.

1. On October 16, 1969, the Commission issued a notice of proposed rule making in this proceeding, 34 F.R. 17341, proposing to issue rules fixing just and reasonable ceiling rates, and otherwise regulating jurisdictional sales of natural gas in the Appalachian and Illinois Basin area.[1]

2. After strict compliance with the rule making procedures of the Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U.S.C. 551 et seq., the Commission, by Order No. 411, established just and reasonable rates for "old" and "new" gas, and imposed indefinite moratoria on rate increases.

3. No petition for judicial review of Order 411 was filed, and accordingly, the rates and conditions therein specified became effective on October 2, 1970.

4. On January 28, 1972, petitions were filed by Iroquois Gas Co., Pennsylvania Gas Co., United Natural Gas Co., and Columbia Gas Co. requesting that the Commission amend its regulations to permit higher rates in the Appalachian Basin. The petitions and supporting documents called into question the effectiveness of the Appalachian-Illinois Basin areas rate structure, and accordingly, we noticed the petitions on June 19, 1972 (37 F.R. 12852) so as to give express notice of our intention to "consider termination of the moratoria imposed in * * * Order 411 * * * and such revisions of §§ 154.107, 154.108, and 157.40 * * * as may be found to be in the public interest."

5. Thirty-two responses were filed in answer to our request for comments on revision of the area rate structure for Appalachian-Illinois.[2] The responses show rare unanimity in recognizing that exploration and development must be expanded, that new supplies of domestic gas must be obtained for the interstate market, and that the rate levels prescribed in Order 411 have not adequately stimulated exploration and development. Virtually all respondents commented on the present gas shortage, and the higher cost to consumers which will result if demand is satisfied through nonconventional supplements.

6. Inasmuch as the rate structure prescribed in Order 411 has now been effective for over 2 years, without the uncertainties attendant to judicial review and possible modification, we are in a position to assess whether this rate structure has functioned to call forth reliable and adequate supplies of gas. From the record before us, our review establishes certain incontrovertible facts.

I. National Gas Supply. The national gas supply problem continues. During the past year there have been further declines in all gauges used to test gas supply adequacy including declines in gas reserve additions and the reserve/production (R/P) ratio. In 1971, natural gas reserves committed to interstate pipeline companies (as reported on Federal Power Commission Form 15) decreased for the fourth consecutive year to 161.3 trillion cubic feet, 18.6 percent below the peak level of 198.1 trillion cubic feet at year end 1967. The R/P ratio which stood at 20.2 9 years ago, has now dropped to 11.4.

We are now at the point where curtailments of gas service by the major pipeline companies are becoming increasingly prevalent with seriously adverse economic results. As gas users switch to more costly imported LNG or synthetic supplementing, or to less desirable fuels which are costly to the environment, industrial growth in many parts of the Nation is retarded. In many areas new gas service to private homes is being denied.

Pipeline companies are experiencing increasing difficulty in contracting for new gas supplies necessary to adequately serve present customers and provide service to new consumers who are requesting it. Seven companies[3] have reported gas curtailments during the 1971–72 heating season. Reports from the companies involved indicate that the volumes being curtailed have been substantial. Total curtailments for this seven-company group during the 1971-72 winter exceeded 500 billion cubic feet.

Analysis of reports made to the Federal Power Commission by the pipeline companies this summer indicates that natural gas supply deficiencies for the year extending from April, 1972, through March, 1973, will be substantially more severe than for the prior year. Firm requirement deficiencies are forecast for 15 companies in the aggregate amount of approximately 1 trillion cubic feet for the 12-month period, April 1, 1972, to March 31, 1973. This represents about 9.7 percent of the total annual sales (1970) of these 15 companies.

In addition, the interruptible gas service offered by many of the major pipeline companies is being cut off much more frequently and for longer periods of time than in the past. One major pipeline company[4] has announced that it plans to make no deliveries at all to its interruptible service customers during the the 1972–73 winter season.

The Commission's analysis of the current supply situation as set forth in Opinion No. 598 still applies. There the Commission stated:

> Curtailments in service to customers by pipeline and distributor companies are before us in a number of proceedings, * * *. An adequate gas supply is essential for efficient utilization of pipeline investment in transmission facilities to provide required service at a reasonable cost to the consumer. We thus find a critical shortage of gas in the United States.

II. Appalachian-Illinois Area Activity—(a) Exploration and development. Tables setting forth exploratory drilling and total drilling statistics by well count basis and footage for the years 1966–1971 inclusive are attached as Appendices B and C.[5] The exploratory gas well count reached a high of 97 wells in 1968 based on activity in the West Virginia and Kentucky portions of the area. By 1971 the comparable exploratory gas well count dropped to 47 wells.

The following compares the success ratios of National and Appalachian exploratory drilling for the year 1970 (AAPG figures).

TOTAL UNITED STATES

	Oil	Gas	Total productive	Dry	Total drilled
Number of wells	790	481	1,271	6,422	7,693

[6] Illinois was not included because completions in that State were predominantly oil and were not representative of the Appalachian area.

The success ratio of exploratory drilling in the Appalachian Basin was 26.9 percent as compared to the national average of 16.5 percent.

Drilling depths in the Appalachian and Illinois Basin Area are generally shallow when compared with other areas. In 1971, the area accounted for 38 percent of the successful gas wells drilled in the United States but these represented only 23 percent of the national footage drilled. In 1970, JAS [7] lists the average Appalachian Basin gas well depth as 3,874 feet, and the national average gas well depth as 6,007 feet. In the same year, JAS lists only 16 gas wells below 7,500 feet in the Appalachian and Illinois Basin Areas, with only two of these wells below the 7,500- to 9,999-foot bracket. These statistics point out the lack of deeper well drilling in those areas.

In the Appalachian and Illinois Basin Areas, the productivity of drilling (reserves added per foot of successful gas well footage drilled) is substantially below the national average of approximately 600 Mcf per foot. During the 6-year period 1966–71, the productivity of drilling in these eastern basins has varied from 50–145 with an average of 94 Mcf per successful gas well foot for the 6-year period.

Part of this low productivity is the result of the close gas well spacing permitted in these eastern States. However, well spacing alone is not the complete reason for the low drilling productivity. Historically, the Appalachian Basin is an area of low pressure gradients, poor to good porosity, thin productive formations and, for the most part, only average permeability. Collectively, these characteristics, in the shallow horizons, have resulted in low daily production rates after initial flush production periods. Economic expectations from deep production must be greater to support an expanded program of deeper drilling.

(b) Production, reserves and potential. The Appalachian and Illinois Basin Areas currently produce about 2 percent of the national gas production.[8] Of the national jurisdictional producer sales to pipeline companies, about 1.2 percent is attributed to Appalachian and Illinois Basin producers. This area produces approximately 9 percent of its own needs. The following chart summarizes the production position of the Appalachian and Illinois Basins in the year 1971 (volumes in million Mcf at 14.73 p.s.i.a.)

[7] Joint Association Survey of the U.S. Oil and Gas Producing Industry; Nov. 1971.

[8] Reserves and production for each State are summarized on Appendix D, filed as part of the original document.

	United States	Appalachian Illinois basins	Percent
Reserves (AGA) (excluding underground storage)	278,805.6	4,298.7	1.5
Production (AGA)	22,976.5	449.2	2.0
Jurisdictional sales (1970 Form 2)	13,672.0	168.1	1.2

There are eleven large producers [9] currently selling gas in the Appalachian and Illinois Basin Areas under 119 separate rate schedules. It is estimated these large producers sell approximately 25 percent of the jurisdictional gas in the areas. The current number of small producers is not known but in 1967, 1,350 small producers had rate schedules on file with the Commission.

The Potential Gas Committee Report of October 1971,[10] states "there are numerous opportunities in the Appalachian Basin for new gas discoveries in formations already productive and in many unexplored deeper zones. Only a little more than 10 percent of the total volume of sedimentary rock has been tested * * *"

III. Intrastate and interstate sales. The following illustrates the relative jurisdictional verus nonjurisdictional sales for the most important gas producing States of the Appalachian and Illinois Basin Areas for the year 1971.[11] (Volumes in Million Mcf at 14.73 p.s.i.a.)

	Gas production AGA	Interstate sales Form 2	Percent of production dedicated to interstate sales
	(Mcf)	(Mcf)
West Virginia	217.9	139.3	64
Ohio	82.7	None	0
Pennsylvania	76.3	13.3	17
Kentucky	[12] 65.4	21.2	31
Other States	6.9	1.8	3
Total for areas	449.3	175.8	39

[12] Production in Kentucky is predominantly in the Appalachian Basin. (90 percent in 1970.)

Intrastate sales under contracts dated on and after September 15, 1971, through September 14, 1972, ranged from 43 cents per Mcf to 53 cents per Mcf.[13]

IV. Deep gas exploration. Order 411 (at page 13 Memo.) states that "with respect to new gas supplies discovered below 8,000 feet and proposed to be sold at rates higher than herein prescribed, we shall consider each contract for the sale of new gas when application is made for a certificate, and shall fix a rate for each sale on an ad hoc basis upon proper showing that a rate higher than those which are prescribed herein is appropriate." No filings have been made based on this depth consideration.

It should be noted that national well drilling cost figures indicate that gas wells drilled below 8,000 feet cost approximately one and one-half times as much per foot as the overall average gas well costs.

V. Comparative cost factors—(a) Comparison with the cost of Southwest Gas. Order 411 notes that the 3-year average for the years 1964, 1966, and 1968, the alternative cost of Southwest gas to Appalachian pipeline companies was 34.78 cents per Mcf at 14.73 p.s.i.a. A similar calculation for the year 1971 results in a cost of 41.94 cents per Mcf, or an increase of 7.26 cents per Mcf. This increase may be slightly on the low side since the figure of 41.94 cents is an average for the year 1971, and the purchase prices of gas for the Southwest transmission companies have now increased above the 1971 average purchase price. Although the alternative of purchasing additional Southwest gas by Eastern pipeline companies is limited, the comparison indicates that Appalachia-Illinois gas would be competitive with Southwestern gas even after price increases of 8 cents to 10 cents per Mcf in the Eastern pricing areas.

(b) Comparison with costs of supplements. In Opinion 622,[14] we noted that imported LNG would have a delivered city gate price in the range of $0.90–$1.10/Mcf; that Alaskan gas was estimated to cost between $1.18 and $1.35/Mcf; that SNG was estimated to cost from $1.05 to $1.23/Mcf, and that gas from coal may cost between $0.85 and $1.10/Mcf. Applying such a comparison, with due regard for transportation costs, indicates that Appalachia-Illinois prices would be competitive with supplemental gas at approximately $0.90/Mcf.

VI. Cost of service. The rates prescribed in Order 411 were established, in part, in reliance upon a cost analysis having a 1962 data base. The respondents here suggest, with considerable force, that 1962 costs are not representative of the 1972 cost of finding and producing new gas supplies. Our staff has undertaken an up-dating of cost factors in Appalachia-Illinois, using the national cost data base relied upon in southern Louisiana [15] and Texas gulf coast.[16] Staff studies show, as set forth on Appendix E,[8] that the cost of finding new gas in the Appalachia-Illinois area is in the range of 35–47 cents per Mcf. These studies are based on 1969 cost data and trended to 1970; we are aware that 1971–72 costs probably exceed the levels computed by staff.

Our review of staff's cost analysis is undertaken only to provide one means of determining whether Order 411 rate levels for new gas can reasonably be expected to operate effectively in stimulating exploration for and development of new supplies of gas. We are not here involved in setting just and reasonable rates, nor even guidelines or initial rates, and accordingly the type of exhaustive analysis of cost factors set forth in southern Louisiana and Texas gulf coast is inappropriate.

7. On the basis of each of the general areas discussed above—national supply, area drilling and production activity, intrastate competition for new gas, the need for deep exploration, comparative costs, and changes in cost of service—we are persuaded that the rate structure provided in Order 411 is not a complete answer to the need of the consuming public for adequate and reliable supplies of new gas.

8. Having so determined, we are confronted with the basic policy decision of how best to achieve the results mandated by the Natural Gas Act. We could, as suggested by the New York Commission, embark upon a new area rate proceeding aimed at a general price increase, or, as other parties suggest, establish a "third vintage" price range for new Appalachia-Illinois gas.

9. We approach our problem mindful of the fact that rate regulation should be simple and uniform; that what is done in Appalachia-Illinois should not be considered in isolation, but rather, must be considered as a part of an overall approach to the challenge of effective regulation in this era of short supply.

10. We choose not to establish a new rate for "new" gas as determined by contract date vintaging. As hereafter set forth, we are not persuaded that the necessities of consumer protection in insuring an adequate and reliable supply of gas are served by unyielding adherence to the vintaging concept; we are even more sure that expansion of the concept is unwise. Nor do we believe that the natural gas shortage will be alleviated by a new round of area rate proceedings,[17] of which Appalachia-Illinois would be only the first.

11. It has been argued that the historic Commission pattern of setting rates area by area, whether through rule making or by adjudication, has not demonstrated sufficient flexibility to maintain a workable relationship between supply and demand, and, as the parties here point out, requires the use of noncurrent cost data. We appreciate that a uniform national rate for gas sold in interstate commerce, arrived at through rule making and tending toward recognition of the commodity value of gas, would not be subject to these infirmities, but before considering this course of action, as an alternative to area rate proceedings, we await the guidance of reviewing courts now hearing appeals of Opinions 595,[18] 598,[19] and Order 435.[20]

12. Were we to attempt to establish a new ceiling price for new gas in Appalachia-Illinois, we would necessarily run the substantial risk that today's order would be no more effective in eliciting new supplies of gas than was Order 411. When that order was issued, it then appeared, not only to the Commission but to all participating parties, that the ceiling rates there established were sufficient to support a vigorous and sustained program of exploration and development aimed at finding new supplies of gas for the interstate market. In retrospect, we find that the rates established in 1970 did not produce the necessary results, and the public interest clearly requires that we avoid that which experience has shown to be futile.

13. We believe that we have already provided a procedural structure which responds to the realities of today's needs. In Order 455,[21] we added § 2.75 to our general rules of practice and procedure, and thereby permitted applications for certification of new gas sales at bargained-for rates. Applications under the optional procedure are not limited to the pricing constraint of area rates heretofore or hereafter set, and permanent certificates may be issued by the Commission authorizing sales at any rate level shown to be just and reasonable and required by the present and future public convenience and necessity. In Order 455 we envisioned the discharge of our regulatory responsibility by review, and hearing if necessary, of such applications; we proposed to examine, in one proceeding, the supply needs of the pipeline purchaser together with the public interest considerations inherent in any new sale of gas such as price, volume, quality, and duration of contract.

14. In our judgment, the optional procedures permitted by Order 455 are well suited to meet the particular problems of Appalachia-Illinois which all parties before us have called to our attention. On the one hand, consumers can be called upon to pay higher prices only for new supplies of gas; there is no price rise for gas already flowing in interstate commerce. On the other hand, purchasers and sellers have the opportunity to bargain for prices which will provide necessary incentives, which will meet the competitive thrust of the intrastate market, and which will permit the recovery of today's higher costs of deeper and more intensified drilling. It remains our responsibility, of course, to insure that the bargaining process yields the lowest reasonable cost to the consumer.

15. In suggesting wider utilization of § 2.75 procedures, we would emphasize that the expressed concern of the parties here, that additional drilling on previously dedicated acreage should be encouraged, is fully met through the provisions of § 2.75 which permit its use for certification of sales at above ceiling rates of gas produced from wells commenced after April 6, 1972. We note also that inasmuch as no contingent escalations of flowing gas rates were provided in Order 411, the waiver provisions of § 2.75(m)(2) are inapplicable in Appalachia-Illinois, as indeed they are inapplicable in all producing areas except southern Louisiana and Texas gulf coast. And finally, we note that the waiver provisions of § 2.75(m)(1) apply only to the contract submitted under § 2.75; the optional procedure does not require, nor has it ever required, waiver of future price increases on other gas already being sold, or yet to be sold, in the interstate market.

16. The New York Commission argues that we should adhere to the area ceiling rate structure and set the new rate for a new vintage of gas at 50 cents per Mcf. To remove price ceilings and leave the price open, New York argues, will lead to delays while the "going price" level is being determined on a case-by-case basis. New York's concern for reducing producer uncertainty to a minimum is well founded. When we promulgated Order 455, we intended to provide as much certainty as possible for those who serve the Nation's need for adequate gas supplies by committing risk capital to exploration and development. Accordingly, we there stated, in the context of defining standards to be employed in § 2.75 proceedings:

> We will, absent a showing of special circumstances, accept as conclusive the cost findings embodied in our area rate decisions, as such may be supplemented from time to time by appropriate Commission order.

17. This record shows, and our own staff studies confirm, that at 1970 cost levels, the cost of finding and producing new gas in the Appalachia-Illinois area is in the range of 35–47 cents/Mcf. Consumers cannot expect new supplies of gas to be provided at less than cost. We have been admonished not to rely on cost alone, but also to consider producer rate levels in the context of "non-cost" factors of supply and demand, capital formation, and probable industry response to any given level of rates. Austral Oil, et al. v. F.P.C., 428 F. 2d 407 (CA5, 1970). Applications under § 2.75 will be so considered, and the findings and conclusions stated in this opinion and order will be utilized in our review of § 2.75 applications hereafter tendered covering proposed sales of Appalachia-Illinois area gas.

18. For the reasons hereinabove set forth, we conclude that the rate levels prescribed in Order 411 should be retained, and that no amendment of our regulations is required. Neither the moratoria on rate increases imposed in Order 411 and embodied in §§ 154.107(e) and 154.108(e), nor the ceiling rates specified in §§ 154.107(c) and 154.108(c) operate as a bar to applications for certification of sales submitted under § 2.75 of our regulations. See § 2.75(a).

19. One final matter requires our attention. In Order 411, as in all our area rate decisions, two-tier pricing was employed, with one ceiling price set for gas sold "pursuant to a contract dated prior to October 8, 1969," and another ceiling price set for gas sold "pursuant to a contract dated after October 7, 1969."

20. Vintaging by contract date had its inception in Statement of General Policy No. 61–1, 24 FPC 818 (1960). It was

[17] We recognize that Permian II (AR70–1) and Rocky Mountain (R–425) rates have not been established by final order of the Commission. After decisions have been rendered in these dockets, the Commission's review of all pricing levels which began in 1969 will have been completed.

there recognized that such price differentials for a single commodity dedicated to serving one market had no rational basis for the long term, and that "it is anticipated that these differences in price levels will be reduced and eventually eliminated as subsequent experience brings about revisions in the prices in the various areas." 24 FPC at 819. Nonetheless, vintaging by contract date has become a hallmark of the area rate structure though no Commission opinion has clearly stated substantive reasons for perpetuating this concept irrespective of changed market conditions of supply and demand.

21. We believe vintaging to be an anachronism which we should now move to eliminate. Vintaging operates to discourage development of the full productive capacity of acreage committed to the interstate market, for even though such developmental drilling is undertaken at current costs, gas production obtained thereby is priced at the lower of two rates, when it is the higher of the two that is Commission-designed to provide the incentive for development of additional gas supplies.

22. Our recognition of the disincentives built into vintaging led us to make the optional certification procedure available for gas produced from wells commenced after April 6, 1972, irrespective of the date of original contract. While this will help match current costs and current risks with current prices for those who follow the optional procedure, some degree of relief should also be made available to those who do not use § 2.75 because of a desire to remain within the area rate pricing framework.

23. Any change in vintage rates would require a modification by us of rates already determined to be just and reasonable. Many of these determinations are under judicial review and should not now be altered by the Commission. We are free, however, to effect one change in the application of vintaging concepts by interpretation of the specific language used in setting vintage rates, and we now do so.

24. The wording of Order 411, and all other Commission area rate orders or opinions of similar import, stating that "old" gas rates will be applicable to "gas sold pursuant to a contract dated prior to October 8, 1969" will be literally and strictly applied. If a gas contract dated prior to October 8, 1969, terminates, and the purchaser and seller enter into a new contract, gas sales under the new contract will be governed by the applicable pricing provisions relating to "gas sold pursuant to a contract dated after October 7, 1969." We will, thereby, simply adhere to the plain meaning of Order 411, and other orders and opinions with similar language, as written. In time this will result in the elimination of a two-price system, a result we believe intended by the original authors of vintaging and a result we wholeheartedly endorse.

The Commission orders:

The petitions filed herein requesting the amendment of Commission's regulations are denied.

[Project 176; Docket Nos. E-7652, E-7655]

ESCONDIDO MUTUAL WATER CO.

Notice of Recommendation for Recapture of Project

DECEMBER 12, 1972.

Escondido Mutual Water Co., Project No. 176; Secretary of the Interior acting in his capacity as Trustee for the Rincon, La Jolla, and San Pasqual Bands of Mission Indians v. Escondido Mutual Water Co. and city of Escondido, Calif., Docket No. E-7562; Vista Irrigation District, Docket No. E-7655.

Public notice is hereby given that the U.S. Department of the Interior filed on May 22, 1972, as supplemented on October 18, 1972, a recommendation that Project No. 176 be recaptured by the U.S. Government at the end of the existing license period. The project is located in San Diego County, Calif., partially along the San Luis Rey River and Escondido Creek in the vicinity of the city of Escondido, Calif. The present license period expires on June 24, 1974.

The project consists principally of a concrete diversion dam about 16 feet high located on the San Luis Rey River; a conduit about 15 miles in length consisting of tunnels, canals, a syphon, and flumes conveying the flow to the point of release into Lake Wohlford; the Rincon powerhouse which utilizes water from the conduit at a point 6 miles below the San Luis Rey River diversion dam where it is diverted through a 2100 foot long penstock connecting to the powerhouse, containing two generating units totaling 240 kilowatts, operating under a head of 820 feet; two operator's cottages, one located at the Rincon powerhouse and one at the diversion dam; telephone lines, power lines, access roads, and trails necessary to operate and maintain project works; and other facilities and interests appurtenant to the project.

The Department of the Interior states that it desires to recapture certain portions of the project as described in the original license in Exhibit K, as amended, which is on file with this Commission. However, the Department indicates that it would be satisfied with the recapture of the diversion works on the San Luis Rey River, the Escondido conduit to the point of release into Lake Wohlford, and the Rincon power drop with all appurtenant buildings and lands as described in Exhibit K. The Department contends that the diversion works, the power drop, and appurtenant buildings are all located on Indian reservation lands. The Escondido conduit is almost entirely located on Indian reservation or public lands of the United States; however, there are some few parcels of private lands upon which an existing right-of-way would be maintained by the Department.

The Department states that it would operate the diversion works and the conduit for the benefit of the three Indian reservations as well as for the benefit of the general public being served by the water transported through the conduit. The Department further states that the water, in whatever amount which is determined to belong to the Escondido Mutual Water Co., the city of Escondido, or the Vista Irrigation District would be transported through the conduit for release into Lake Wohlford. Interior proposes that the power drop on the Rincon Reservation would be eliminated and water from the canal would be directed into a gravity-fed sprinkler irrigation system on the Rincon Indian Reservation and put to such other uses on that reservation which are necessary for its use and development utilizing the amount of water reserved for the Indians' use.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make protest with reference to the Department of Interior's recommendation for recapture of Project No. 176 should on or before January 22, 1973, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, petitions to intervene or protests in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceedings. Persons wishing to become parties to the proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file petitions to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules. The recommendation for recapture filed by the Department of the Interior is on file with this Commission and available for public inspection.

KANSAS GAS AND ELECTRIC CO.

Notice of Proposed Changes in Rates and Charges

DECEMBER 13, 1972.

Take notice that Kansas Gas and Electric Co. (KG & E), on November 8, 1972, tendered for filing proposed changes in its rates and charges applicable to private and municipal electric distribution utilities and to Rural Electric Cooperative Associations. The changes which would increase annual revenues approximately $367,000 (9.89 percent) based upon 1972 operations, are proposed to become effective on January 10, 1973. The tendered rate filing consists of rate schedules proposed to supersede PMW-268, Public Utility Resale, REA-369, service to nonprofit Rural Electric Cooperative Associations and electric interconnection contracts or agreements and service schedules to various municipalities.

KG & E states that the increased rates are needed to permit it to earn a more equitable return from its service to resale customers, and that under present rates KG & E earned 5.39 percent from these services, including 3.95 percent from Rural Electric, 7.38 percent from small municipalities without generation, and 4.91 percent from municipalities with generation. The proposed rates and charges would provide an overall return of 7.89 percent, including 6.09 percent from Rural Electric, 7.61 percent from municipalities without generation, and 6.86 percent from municipalities with generation, based upon 1971 test year operations. KG & E further states that without the proposed rate increase, the company cannot attract on reasonable terms the new capital necessary to finance its $141 million construction program through 1976, needed to provide a continued supply of electricity, including the growth in requirements. In view of its supporting statements reflecting declining earnings, KG & E requests that the rate filing be permitted to become effective on January 10, 1973, without suspension.

Copies of the rate filing have been mailed to all jurisdictional customers and the Kansas State Corporation Commission.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said application should file a petition to intervene or protest with the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with §§ 1.8 and 1.10 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8, 1.10). All such petitions or protests should be filed on or before December 29, 1972. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a petition to intervene. Copies of this application are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

MOBIL OIL CORP.

Notice of Application

DECEMBER 12, 1972.

Take notice that on December 4, 1972, Mobil Oil Corp. (Applicant), 800 Three Greenway Plaza East, Houston, TX 77046, filed in Docket No. CI73-402 an application pursuant to section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the sale for resale of natural gas in interstate commerce to Ni-Gas Supply, Inc., from production in the East Cameron Block 81 Field, offshore Louisiana, and delivery of said gas to the purchaser's transporter at Applicant's production platforms, all as more fully set forth in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Applicant proposes to sell approximately 672,000 Mcf of gas per month at 28 cents per Mcf at 15.025 p.s.i.a., subject to B.t.u. adjustment. Applicant states that it reserves for its own use up to one-third of the Block 81 production in excess of 22,000 Mcf of gas per day.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before January 2, 1973, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's Rules.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission on this application if no petition to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a petition for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

NEW ENGLAND POWER SERVICE CO.

Notice of Filing of Proposed Rate Schedule Supplements

DECEMBER 12, 1972.

Take notice that on November 1, 1972, New England Power Service Co., on behalf of New England Power Co., filed in this docket certain supplements to existing contracts. The company states that the new supplements will bring into line and make uniform all of the terms and conditions in the company's contracts for partial requirements service to NEPOOL nonparticipants and its coordinate subtransmission contracts for outside entitlements.

The company requests the contract supplements be made effective on December 1, 1972, or on the earlier date of commercial operation of either the Vermont Yankee or Maine Yankee nuclear power generation units.

Any person desiring to be heard with reference to New England Power Service Co.'s filing in this docket should file a petition to intervene or protest with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). All such petitions or protests should be filed on or before December 26, 1972. All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to the proceeding must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules. New England Power Service Co.'s proposed contract supplements are on file with the Commission and available for public inspection.

[Project No. 2570]

OHIO POWER CO.

Notice of Availability of Draft Environmental Statement for Inspection

DECEMBER, 13, 1972.

Notice is hereby given that on December 18, 1972, as required by the Commission rules and regulations under Order 415, as amended, a staff draft environmental statement pursuant to section 102(2)(C) of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (Public Law 91-190) was placed in the public files of the Federal Power Commission. This statement deals with an application for license by Ohio Power Co. for unconstructed hydroelectric Racine Project No. 2570 filed pursuant to the Federal Power Act. This statement is available for public inspection in the Commission's Office of the Public Information, Room 2523, General Accounting Office, 441 G Street NW., Washington, DC and its New York Regional Office. Copies will be available from the National Technical Information Service, Department of Commerce, Springfield, Va. 22151.

The project which would be located on the Ohio side of the United States' Racine Locks and Dam in Meigs County, Ohio and Mason County, W. Va. on the Ohio River and would consist of an intake canal; a concrete powerhouse section containing 2-20 mw generating units; a tailrace; a 3.5 mile long double circuit 69-kv transmission line; recreational facilities consisting of an overlook area with parking facilities, comfort station, picnic area, and fishing pier; and appurtenant facilities.

Any person desiring to present evidence regarding environmental matters in this proceeding must file with the Federal Power Commission a petition to intervene, and also file an explanation of their environmental position, specifying any difference with the environmental statement upon which the intervenor wishes to be heard. Written statements by persons not wishing to intervene may be filed for the Commission's consideration. The petitions to intervene or comments should be filed with the Commission on or before 45 days from December 18, 1972. The Commission will consider all responses to the statement.

PACIFIC POWER & LIGHT CO.

Notice of Application

DECEMBER 13, 1972.

Take notice that on November 6, 1972, Pacific Power & Light Co., pursuant to § 35.12 of the Commission's regulations, filed an Exchange Agreement dated September 13, 1972, between Pacific Power & Light Co. and the Bonneville Power Administrator.

This short-term contract, terminating on June 30, 1975, provides for the exchange of nonfirm energy from the Administrator for the capacity and energy from Pacific's combustion turbine at Libby, Mont. In exchange for the 26 megawatts of capacity made available by Pacific, the Administrator will make available to Pacific each month 7,366,667 kilowatt-hours of nonfirm energy. This represents an exchange of 3,400 kilowatt-hours of nonfirm energy per year for each kilowatt of capacity made available and is a special rate arrived at through negotiations.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before December 28, 1972, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, petitions to intervene or protests in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. PENNSYLVANIA ELECTRIC CO.

Notice of Filing of Proposed Settlement Agreement

DECEMBER 12, 1972.

Take notice that Pennsylvania Electric Co. (Penelec) on December 5, 1972, filed a proposed Settlement Agreement, with supporting cost-of-service data, which would resolve all issues in Docket No. E-7718 relating to supplemental power service supplied by Penelec to Allegheny Electric Cooperative, Inc. (Allegheny). The Settlement Agreement also encompasses a revised "Wheeling" agreement, not the subject of Docket No. E-7718, which would modify the contractual arrangements by which Penelec wheels power from the Power Authority of the State of New York (PASNY) to Allegheny. The proposed effective date of the Settlement Agreement is February 5, 1972.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said application should file a petition to intervene or protest with the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with §§ 1.8 and 1.10 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8, 1.10). All such petitions or protests should be filed on or before December 27, 1972. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a petition to intervene. Pennsylvania Electric Co.'s proposed agreement is on file with the Commission and available for public inspection.

[Docket No. CP73-142]

UNITED GAS PIPE LINE CO.

Notice of Application

DECEMBER 12, 1972.

Take notice that on November 27, 1972, United Gas Pipe Line Co. (Applicant), 1500 Southwest Tower, Houston, Tex. 77002, filed in Docket No. CP73-142 an application pursuant to section 7(b) of the Natural Gas Act for permission and approval to abandon certain natural gas transportation service rendered for Mid Louisiana Gas Co. (Mid Louisiana) in Louisiana, all as more fully set forth in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Applicant proposes to abandon certain natural gas transportation service which it renders for Mid Louisiana from the Hester Storage Field in St. James Parish, La., to points of interconnection with Mid Louisiana in East Baton Rouge Parish, La. Applicant states that pursuant to its contract with Mid Louisiana either party may cancel that agreement on or after October 1, 1972, by giving at least 6 months' prior written notice to the other party, and that as the parties were unable to reach accord on the terms of the continuation of service, it advised Mid Louisiana on March 27, 1972, that the agreement would be terminated as of October 1, 1972.

Applicant, in Docket No. CP73-143, has filed an application for approval to divert natural gas from its Napoleonville-Kosciusko line into its New Orleans-Baton Rouge line. Applicant states that if that application is granted and the instant application is not promptly granted, the transport gas received at Hester would flow towards New Orleans rather than towards Baton Rouge. Applicant indicates that in such a case gas diverted into the New Orleans-Baton Rouge line would have to be used to reimburse Mid Louisiana in East Baton Rouge Parish for gas taken from the Hester Field. Applicant alleges that approval of this application will not affect the volumes of gas which will need to be diverted from the Napoleonville-Kosciusko line to serve Lousiana customers, as requested in Docket No. CP73-143, but will only affect the percentages of such diverted gas which will flow toward New Orleans and toward Baton Rouge.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before January 2, 1973, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission on this application if no petition to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that permission and approval for the proposed abandonment are required by the public convenience and necessity. If a petition for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

[Docket No. CP73-143]

UNITED GAS PIPE LINE CO.

Notice of Application

DECEMBER 12, 1972.

Take notice that on November 27, 1972, United Gas Pipe Line Co. (Applicant), 1500 Southwest Tower, Houston, Tex. 77002, filed in Docket No. CP73-143 an application pursuant to section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing it to divert natural gas from its Napoleonville-Kosciusko line into its New Orleans-Baton Rouge line by opening a presently closed valve, all as more fully set forth in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Applicant states that the current gas reserves available to meet the demand of its New Orleans District customers served by its New Orleans-Baton Rouge pipeline have declined to a point where additional certificated gas must be diverted from its other certificated pipelines into the New Orleans area in order to assure equal treatment of all customers under its curtailment program. Applicant estimates that 18,703 Mcf to 45,000 Mcf of natural gas must be diverted and transported to New Orleans on the peak day during the 1972-73 heating season or otherwise the severe scarcity of gas in that area will cause its area customers to be curtailed on said day by approximately that amount over and above the curtailments which they share equally with all other customers.

The Commission found Applicant's New Orleans District sales, services, and facilities jurisdictional in its Opinion No. 610, "United Gas Pipe Line Company," Docket No CP71-89, issued on February 9, 1972. At the present time in said docket, there is pending an application for certification of Applicant's sales, service, and facilities in the New Orleans area.

Applicant proposes herein to open a presently closed gas valve which will result in reversing the flow of its New Orleans-Baton Rouge pipeline between Marchland Junction (the intersection of the New Orleans-Baton Rouge pipeline and the Napoleonville-Kosciusko line) and the Hester Field to permit gas to flow towards New Orleans and in diverting natural gas from its Napoleonville-Kosciusko line into its New Orleans-Baton Rouge pipeline.

Applicant has filed in Docket No. CP73-142 an application to abandon certain transportation service to Mid Louisiana Gas Co. (Mid Louisiana) from the Hester Field to Baton Rouge area through Applicant's New Orleans-Baton Rouge pipeline. Applicant indicates that if that application is denied, it would be forced to use that transport gas in the New Orleans area and to divert gas at Marchland Junction for delivery to Mid Louisiana near Baton Rouge. Applicant alleges that the grant or denial of the application in Docket No. CP73-142 will affect only the percentages of gas diverted which will be transported towards New Orleans and will not have any effect on the volumes of gas which must be diverted from the out-of-State markets at Marchland Junction.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before January 2, 1973, file with the Federal Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.10). All protests filed wiht the ommission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the atuhority, contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission on this application if no petition to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a petition for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

NORTHERN VIRGINIA BANKSHARES INC.

Order Approving Acquisition of Falls Church Mortgage Corporation

Northern Virginia Bankshares Inc., Arlington, Va. (Applicant), a bank holding company within the meaning of the Bank Holding Company Act, has applied for the Board's approval, under section 4(c)(8) of the Act and § 225.4(b)(2) of the Board's Regulation Y, to acquire all of the voting shares of Falls Church Mortgage Corp. (Company), Falls Church, Va., a company that engages in the activities of a mortgage company and which proposes to engage de novo in (1) originating mortgage loans as agent, (2) servicing mortgage loans for subsidiaries of Applicant, and (3) acting as agent for the sale of credit life, credit disability, mortgage redemption and mortgage cancellation insurance in connection with extensions of credit. Such activities have been determined by the Board to be closely related to the business of banking (12 CFR 225(a)(1) and (9)).

Notice of the application, affording opportunity for interested persons to submit comments and views on the public interest factors, has been duly published (37 F.R. 23755). The time for filing comments and views has expired and none has been timely received.

Applicant controls three banks with aggregate deposits of approximately $22 million, representing 0.2 percent of total commercial deposits in Virginia.[1] Each of Applicant's subsidiary banks is located in the Northern Virginia portion of the Washington, D.C., banking market, where they hold in the aggregate less than 1 percent of the commercial bank deposits in that market. Although Applicant's banking subsidiaries originate and service mortgage loans for their own portfolio, their share of total mortgage loans in this market is negligible.

Company operates from a single office in Falls Church, where it is engaged in originating and servicing mortgage loans.[2] In 1971, Company originated $936,000 in mortgage loans for sale to investors, and $154,000 in loans for its own account. The combined share of total mortgage originations in the Washington banking market by Applicant and Company is substantially less than 1 percent of the total mortgage recordings in this market. In view of the relatively large number of other mortgage lenders in the market, elimination of this small amount of local competition would have no significantly adverse effect on mortgage lending in the area. Company also proposes to engage de novo in the sale of credit life, credit disability, mortgage redemption and mortgage cancellation insurance in connection with loans it originates or services. Due to the limited nature of its insurance activities it does not appear that Company's entry into such activities would have any significant effect on either existing or potential competition.

Approval of the proposed acquisition will make available to Company the financial and managerial resources of Applicant, and permit Company to compete more effectively with the numerous mortgage departments of large banks and savings and loan associations in the area. Applicant also proposes to furnish additional funds to Company to increase the quantity of loans that Company can make for its own account. On balance, the Board concludes that these public benefits outweigh any possible adverse effect on competition.

Based upon the foregoing and other considerations reflected in the record, the Board has determined that the balance of the public interest factors the Board is required to consider under section 4(c)(8) is favorable. Accordingly, the application is hereby approved. This determination is subject to the conditions set forth in § 225.4(c) of Regulation Y and to the Board's authority to require such modification or termination of the activities of a holding company or any of its subsidiaries as the Board finds necessary to assure compliance with the provisions and purposes of the Act, and the Board's regulations and orders issued thereunder, or to prevent evasion thereof.

By order of the Board of Governors,[3] effective December 12, 1972.

[SEAL] TYNAN SMITH,
Secretary of the Board.

[1] All banking data are as of December 31, 1971.

[2] Company is also engaged in leasing real property, which consists primarily of an office building located in Falls Church. Applicant has committed itself, contingent upon approval of this application, to occupy approximately 17 percent of the usable space in this building by January 1, 1973, and an additional 69 percent of the rentable space as it becomes available in the near future. In making its determination herein, the Board has relied upon Applicant's commitment relating to occupancy of this building.

POLLUTION OF LAKE SUPERIOR, LAKE HURON, AND THE GREAT LAKES SYSTEM FROM LAND USE ACTIVITIES

Public Hearings

The International Joint Commission, a permanent Canada-United States Commission, established under the terms of the Boundary Waters Treaty of 1909, has been requested by the governments to conduct two studies relating to pollution of the waters of the Great Lakes. One is a study of pollution of Lake Superior and Lake Huron from all sources, while the other is an inquiry into the effects of land drainage from agriculture, forestry, urban and industrial land development, recreational and parkland development, utility and transportation systems, and natural sources, on the quality of all the boundary waters of the Great Lakes system. In both studies the Commission is to determine if these boundary waters are being polluted to an extent which is causing or is likely to cause injury to the health or property on the other side of the boundary; if so, to what extent and from what causes? The complete text of these two references from the governments may be obtained from the Secretaries of the Commission at the addresses shown hereunder.

DECEMBER 13, 1972.

Christiana Securities Company (Christiana), a Delaware corporation registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 (Act), and E. I. du Pont de Nemours and Co. (Du Pont), Wilmington, Delaware 19898, a Delaware corporation (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Applicants"), have filed a joint application pursuant to sections 6(c), 17(b), and 17(d) of the Act and Rule 17d-1 thereunder for an order exempting from the provisions of 17(a), and permitting under section 17(d) and Rule 17d-1, certain transactions incident to a proposed merger of Christiana into Du Pont, with Du Pont as the surviving corporation.

The Commission, on October 3, 1972, issued a notice of the filing of said application (Investment Company Act Release No. 7402). The notice, which is incorporated herein by reference, gave interested persons an opportunity to request a hearing and stated that an order disposing of the application might be issued upon the basis of the information stated therein, unless a hearing should be ordered.

Certain interested persons have filed requests for a hearing. It appears to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors that a hearing be held with respect to said application.

It is ordered, Pursuant to section 40(a) of the Act, that a hearing on the aforesaid application under the applicable provisions of the Act and of the rules of the Commission thereunder be held on February 5, 1973, at 10 a.m., in the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 1100 L Street NW., Washington, DC 20005. At such time, the hearing room clerk will advise as to the room in which such hearing will be held. Any person desiring to be heard or otherwise wishing to participate in the proceeding is directed to file with the Secretary of the Commission his application as provided by Rule 9(c) of the Commission's rules of practice, on or before January 15, 1973, setting forth any issues of law or fact which he desires to controvert, or any additional issues which he deems raised by this notice and order or by such application. Persons filing an application to participate or be heard will receive notice of any adjournment of the hearing as well as other actions of the Commission involving the subject matter of these proceedings.

It is further ordered, That any officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at said hearing. The officer so designated is hereby authorized to exercise all the powers granted to the Commission under sections 41 and 42(b) of the Act and to an Administrative Law Judge under the Commission's rules of practice.

The Division of Investment Company Regulation has advised the Commission that it has made a preliminary examination of the application and that upon the basis thereof the following matters and questions are presented for consideration without prejudice to its specifying additional matters and questions upon further examination:

(1) Whether the terms of the proposed transactions including the consideration to be paid or received, are reasonable and fair and do not involve overreaching on the part of any person concerned;

(2) Whether the proposed transactions are consistent with the policy of Christiana, as recited in its registration statement and reports filed under the Act;

(3) Whether the proposed transactions are consistent with the general purposes of the Act;

(4) Whether the participation of Du Pont and Christiana in such transactions on the basis proposed is consistent with the provisions, policies, and purposes of the Act, and the extent to which the participation of Du Pont or Christiana is on a basis different from, or less advantageous than, that of other participants; and

(5) Whether the terms of the proposed transactions reflect a disproportionate weight given to either the market value or the net asset value of Christiana securities.

It is further ordered, That at the aforesaid hearing, attention should be given to the foregoing matters.

It is further ordered, That the Secretary of the Commission shall give notice of the aforesaid hearing by mailing a copy of this notice and order by registered mail to the Applicants and to the persons who have requested a hearing; that notice to all other persons be given by publication of this notice and order in the FEDERAL REGISTER; and that a general release of this Commission in respect of this notice and order be distributed to the press and mailed to the mailing list for releases.

By the Commission.

VERMONT YANKEE NUCLEAR POWER CORP.

Proposed Issue and Sale of First Mortgage Bonds and Preferred Stock and Articles of Incorporation

DECEMBER 13, 1972.

Notice is hereby given that Vermont Yankee Nuclear Power Corp. (Vermont Yankee), 77 Grove Street, Rutland, VT 05701, an electric utility company and an indirect subsidiary company of both Northeast Utilities and New England Electric System, registered holding companies, has filed an application-declaration and an amendment thereto with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 (Act), designating sections 6, 7, and 12 of the Act and Rules 42, 50, and 62(b) promulgated thereunder as applicable to the following proposed transactions. All interested persons are referred to the amended application-declaration, which is summarized below, for a complete statement of the proposed transactions.

Vermont Yankee has virtually completed construction of a nuclear-powered electric generating plant with an expected net capacity of approximately 540 megawatts. On October 11, 1972, the Atomic Energy Commission issued to Vermont Yankee a temporary operating license, expiring February 28, 1973, and the plant was declared in commercial operation on November 30, 1972. The total permanent capital requirements of Vermont Yankee are expected to be approximately $217 million, including approximately $21 million for the cost of the initial inventory of nuclear fuel and excluding the cost of installation of a charcoal filter device to be completed in 1973. As of October 31, 1972, Vermont Yankee had incurred costs and obligations of approximately $183 million for the construction of the plant, other than the cost of the initial inventory of nuclear fuel, and it estimates that an additional $7 million will be incurred for plant construction in the remainder of 1972 and about $6 million in 1973.

Vermont Yankee presently proposes to issue and sell, subject to the competitive bidding requirements of Rule 50 under the Act, $20 million principal amount of First Mortgage Bonds, ____ percent Series C, due 1998. The interest rate (which shall be a multiple of one-eighth or one-tenth of 1 percent) and the price, exclusive of accrued interest, to be paid to Vermont Yankee (which shall be not less than 100 percent and not more than 102.75 percent of the principal amount thereof) will be determined by the competitive bidding. The bonds will be issued under the provisions of the first mortgage indenture dated as of October 1, 1970, between Vermont Yankee and Chemical Bank, as successor trustee, as heretofore supplemented and as to be further supplemented by a supplemental indenture, which includes a prohibition until January 15, 1978, against refunding the bonds with the proceeds of funds borrowed at a lower effective interest cost. The bonds will be secured by the physical properties of Vermont Yankee and by an assignment to the indenture trustee of its interest in the power contracts and capital funds agreements with the sponsors, as specified in the indenture, excluding Vermont Yankee's rights under the power contracts to be paid its fuel costs. The indenture further provides for a sinking fund, sufficient to retire $393,000 principal amount of bonds annually, commencing on October 1, 1973, or all of the bonds at or prior to maturity.

Vermont Yankee also proposes to issue and sell, subject to the competitive bidding requirements of Rule 50 under the Act, 250,000 shares of its Cumulative Preferred Stock, ____ percent Series (Sinking Fund), par value $100 per share. The dividend rate of the preferred stock (which shall be a multiple of one twenty-fifth of 1 percent) and the price to be paid to Vermont Yankee (which shall be not less than $100 nor more than $102.75 per share) will be determined by the competitive bidding. The terms of the preferred stock include a prohibition against refunding the preferred stock prior to January 15, 1978, directly or indirectly, with funds derived from the issue of debt securities at a lower effective interest cost or preferred stock at a lower effective dividend cost. The preferred stock will be redeemable at par plus accrued and unpaid dividends pursuant to a mandatory sinking fund requiring the redemption of 11,000 shares of preferred stock annually commencing on March 1, 1975. In addition, Vermont Yankee will have the option to redeem at the same price 11,000 additional shares of preferred stock in any one year.

Proceeds from the issue and sale of the bonds and preferred stock will be used first to pay short-term bank borrowings and subordinated notes due the sponsors and the balance will be used to pay for current construction costs.

In addition, Vermont Yankee proposes to amend its articles of incorporation to provide for the pro rata redemption of common stock at a price per share equal to the sum of the aggregate par value of the common stock plus capital surplus divided by the number of shares outstanding, provided that after such redemption, common stock equity is not less than 30 percent of total capitalization and the number of common shares outstanding is not less than 5,000 shares. At present, 400,014 shares of common stock are outstanding.

The fees and expenses to be incurred in connection with the proposed transactions will be filed by amendment. It is stated that the Vermont Public Service Board has jurisdiction over the proposed transaction and that no other State commission and no Federal commission, other than this Commission, has jurisdiction over the proposed transactions.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than January 8, 1973, request in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law raised by said application-declaration which he desires to controvert; or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549. A copy of such request should be served personally or by mail (airmail if the person being served is located more than 500 miles from the point of mailing) upon the applicant-declarant at the above-stated address, and proof of service (by affidavit or, in case of an attorney at law, by certificate) should be filed with the request. At any time after said date, the application-declaration, as amended or as it may be further amended, may be granted and permitted to become effective as provided in Rule 23 of the general rules and regulations promulgated under the Act, or the Commission may grant exemption from such rules as provided in Rules 20(a) and 100 thereof or take such other action as it may deem appropriate. Persons who request a hearing or advice as to whether a hearing is ordered will receive notice of further developments in this matter, including the date of the hearing (if ordered) and any postponements thereof.

For the Commission, by the Division of Corporate Regulation, pursuant to delegated authority.

REVENUE SHARING PAYMENTS

Notice of Allocations

The Department of the Treasury is publishing herewith the roster of recipient governments of the first revenue sharing payments and the amounts received by each. These represent entitlement payments made for the first entitlement period (January 1, 1972, through June 30, 1972) under title I of the State and Local Fiscal Assistance Act of 1972 (Public Law 92–512), to State governments, county governments, municipalities, townships, and other units of general government.

Payments for this entitlement period will be made to Indian tribes and Alaskan native villages, but are being delayed because time has not permitted the gathering of sufficiently accurate information and the determination of entitlements. Additionally, in some cases payments to recipient governments which experienced a boundary change or reorganization prior to January 1, 1972, will not reflect such reorganization at this time. Recipient governments who have failed to respond to address verification notices are not included in this initial payment of entitlement funds.

Funds available for the first entitlement period total $2.65 billion. Of this amount, 1 percent has been withheld for the purpose of making payments to those recipient governments entitled thereto who are not receiving payments at this time, and for the purpose of making any adjustments which may be necessary.

The data upon which these allocations have been calculated includes tax data collected this year by the Bureau of the Census reflecting fiscal year 1971 taxes. Estimates prepared earlier this year reflected fiscal years 1965 and 1966 tax data. Therefore, to the extent that relative shifts in taxing patterns have taken place during that period, some recipients will receive relatively more, others relatively less than the amounts shown in the earlier estimates.

Because of the necessity of reviewing and verifying to the greatest degree possible the data upon which entitlements are based, which in some cases includes estimates, that data is not available at the present time. When the Department is satisfied that the best data available has been used, that any estimates made are as accurate as possible, and that necessary adjustments have been made, data upon which the computation of entitlement payments is based will be published.

For example, Treasury has determined that the per capita income data to be used for places under 500 in population will be the per capita income of the county area in which such places are located. In the case of those who did not respond to the Census Tax Survey, Census has prepared estimates of taxes.

Publication of the roster of recipient governments and the amounts of their initial entitlement payments shall not be deemed to constitute a final determination of allocation and entitlement. The books on this entitlement period will remain open until the Department is satisfied that the data used is as current and error free as possible. As stated in the regulations, the date upon which final determinations of allocations and entitlements will be made will be determined at some future time, and will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

[SEAL] GEORGE P. SHULTZ,
Secretary of the Treasury.
