Rules and Regulations

Federal Register

Vol. 48, No. 216

Monday, November 7, 1983

This section of the FEDERAL REGISTER contains regulatory documents having general applicability and legal effect, most of which are keyed to and codified in the Code of Federal Regulations, which is published under 50 titles pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 1510.

The Code of Federal Regulations is sold by the Superintendent of Documents. Prices of new books are listed in the first FEDERAL REGISTER issue of each month.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Office of the Secretary

7 CFR Part 2

Revisions of Delegations of Authority

AGENCY: Department of Agriculture.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This document revises the delegations of authority from the Secretary of Agriculture and the general officers of the Department to reflect the transfer of certain functions relating to food and nutrition information.

EFFECTIVE DATE: November 7, 1983.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Joseph H. Howard, Director, National Agricultural Library, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Beltsville, MD 20705, (301) 344-4248.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The National Agricultural Research, Extension, and Teaching Policy Act of 1977 established in the Department of Agriculture a Food and Nutrition Information and Education Resources Center to be responsible for the assembly, maintenance, and dissemination of food and nutrition education materials. The Human Nutrition Information Service had been carrying out these responsibilities. It has been determined that these responsibilities should be administered by the National Agricultural Library. Accordingly, the delegations of authority from the Secretary and general officers of the Department are amended to reflect the transfer of these responsibilities from the Human Nutrition Information Service to the National Agricultural Library. This rule relates to internal agency management. Therefore, pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 553, it is found upon good cause that notice and other public procedures with respect thereto are impractical and contrary to the public interest, and good cause is found for making this rule effective less than 30 days after publication in the Federal Register. Further, since this rule relates to internal agency management, it is exempt from the provisions of Executive Order 12291. Lastly, this action is not a rule as defined by Pub. L. 97-354, the Regulatory Flexibility Act, and thus is exempt from the provisions of that Act.

List of Subjects in 7 CFR Part 2

PART 2—[AMENDED]

Accordingly, Part 2, Subtitle A, Title 7, Code of Federal Regulations is amended as follows:

1. The authority citation for Part 2 reads as follows:

Authority: 5 U.S.C. 301 and Reorganization Plan No. 2 of 1953, unless otherwise noted.

Subpart C—Delegations of Authority to the Deputy Secretary, the Under Secretary for International Affairs and Commodity Programs, the Under Secretary for Small Community and Rural Development, and Assistant Secretaries

2. Section 2.15 is amended by removing and reserving paragraph (b)(4) as follows:

§ 2.15 Delegations of authority to the Assistant Secretary for Food and Consumer Services.

(b) * * *
(4) [Reserved]

3. Section 2.30 is amended by adding a new paragraph (a)(77) as follows:

§ 2.30 Delegations of authority to the Assistant Secretary for Science and Education.

(a) * * *

(77) Assemble and collect food and nutrition education materials, including the results of nutrition research, training methods, procedures, and other materials related to the purpose of the National Agricultural Research, Extension, and Teaching Policy Act of 1977, as amended; maintain such information; and provide for the dissemination of such information and materials on a regular basis to State educational agencies and other interested parties (7 U.S.C. 3126).

* * * * *

Subpart L—Delegations of Authority by the Assistant Secretary for Food and Consumer Services

4. Section 2.92 is amended by removing and reserving paragraph (a)(4) as follows:

§ 2.92 Administrator, Human Nutrition Information Service.

(a) * * *

(4) [Reserved]

* * * * *

Subpart N—Delegations of Authority by the Assistant Secretary for Science and Education

5. Section 2.109 is amended by adding a new paragraph (a)(16) to read as follows:

§ 2.109 Director, National Agricultural Library.

(a) * * *

(16) Assemble and collect food and nutrition education materials, including results of nutrition research, training methods, procedures, and other materials related to the purpose of the National Agricultural Research, Extension, and Teaching Policy Act of 1977, as amended; maintain such information; and provide for the dissemination of such information and materials on a regular basis to State educational agencies and other interested parties (7 U.S.C. 3126).

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Immigration and Naturalization Service

8 CFR Parts 103 and 109

Powers and Duties of Service Officers; Availability of Service Records; Employment Authorization; Excludable or Deportable Aliens

AGENCY: Immigration and Naturalization Service, Justice.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This final rule revises the regulations relating to the imposition of bond conditions against employment in the case of aliens who are placed in exclusion or deportation proceedings. Work authorization may be granted in certain instances, upon application by the alien. The decision to authorize employment will lie with the district director of the Service. The revisions will eliminate the present cumbersome procedures by which Regional Commissioners are authorized to impose bond conditions against employment.

EFFECTIVE DATE: December 7, 1983.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

For General Information: Loretta J. Shogren, Director, Policy Directives and Instructions, Immigration and Naturalization Service, 425 Eye Street NW., Washington, D.C. 20536. Telephone: (202) 633-3048.

For Specific Information: Robert J. Schmidt, Detention and Deportation Officer, Immigration and Naturalization Service, 425 Eye Street NW., Washington, D.C. 20536. Telephone: (202) 633-4120.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On March 2, 1983, a proposed rule was published in the Federal Register (48 FR 8820) to revise the regulations relating to work authorization of aliens apprehended or detained for immigration law violations. The proposed rule provided for revision of both 8 CFR Parts 103 and 109. The regulations up until the present have allowed an alien in deportation proceedings to work, unless a Regional Commissioner of the Service, upon recommendation by a district director, imposed a specific condition of release barring employment.

Under the final rule, only the district director will decide whether or not an alien in proceedings will be granted work authorization. In order to qualify for this privilege, the alien will have to apply for work authorization and establish that employment should be authorized at the discretion of the district director. The final rule contains factors which may be taken into account by the district director in considering employment authorization. The burden will be on the alien to establish that the authorization should be granted. Among the factors which may be considered are the presence of U.S. citizen or permanent resident relatives who are dependent on the alien for support, and the likelihood that the alien will qualify for some type of relief from deportation or exclusion.

Following publication of the proposed rule, a large number of comments were received. Critical comments may be roughly divided into five categories:

- (1) That the rule went beyond the Service's statutory authority;
- (2) That the rule would result in fewer bonds being written and more persons being detained;
- (3) That the rule would impose significant hardships on citizens and permanent resident relatives and asylum seekers;
- (4) That the proposed rule did not meet rule making standards as to determinations of economic impact under the Regulatory Flexibility Act or Executive Order 12291; and
- (5) That the standards to be applied in granting employment authorization were unclear.

Of the criticisms, the first three represent a misinterpretation of the immigration law and the regulation itself.

These comments will be considered in sequence:

1. The comment that the rule went beyond the Service's statutory authority

Section 242 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. 1252, authorizes the Attorney General to set conditions for release on bond. The standards applied must be reasonable. Matter of Toscano-Rivas, 14 I&N Dec. 523 (BIA 1972); (A.G. 1974). A reasonable condition is one that prohibits an alien under deportation or exclusion proceedings from working without authorization. Such unauthorized work is a continuing violation of the immigration laws. Unauthorized work is in direct contravention of one of the "dominant purpose(s) of the immigration laws" which is "to protect American workers," as one commenter conceded, although further characterizing this determination as a "legislative determination."

Many commenters contended that the no-work condition is contrary to the purpose of the appearance bond, which is to assure the appearance of the alien at a deportation or exclusion hearing. Most commenters who focused on this issue asserted that assuring appearance was the only purpose of the bond. The Attorney General in 1974 found otherwise:

It is generally agreed that a basic purpose of the immigration laws is to protect against the displacement of workers in the United States. Thus, under an approach similar to that used in Earle, [Earle v. United States, 254 F.2d 384 (2 Cir. 1958); cert. denied, 358 U.S. 822 (1958)] it may be that section 103(a) and the Attorney General's broad authority to enforce the immigration laws afford an independent basis for requiring of persons subject to deportation proceedings bonds prohibiting unauthorized employment. Such bonds are frequently required of nonimmigrant aliens seeking either admission to the United States, or an extension of their stay. It may be proper to impose a similar requirement upon aliens who become subject to deportation proceedings. The result would be a bond serving two related but independent purposes. Matter of Toscano-Rivas, at 555.

It is clear from this that a bond condition barring unauthorized employment may have dual purposes. While it is true that most bond conditions are aimed at ensuring appearance of an alien, there does not appear to be any reason under Section 242 of the Act to limit conditions of release. For example, where a nonimmigrant visitor is apprehended for violating the conditions of his stay by working, it is entirely appropriate to impose, as a condition of release, a condition barring further unauthorized employment. If this is not done, upon release, the alien could simply continue his employment with impunity until a deportation hearing was scheduled and through the appeal process. There is no provision in the immigration law which mandates such a result.

A condition barring employment could, therefore, be used in tandem with a money bond whose purpose would be to insure the alien's appearance. The violation of a condition barring employment would not necessarily lead to a breach of the money bond, because the alien might appear even if he or she were violating the condition against unauthorized employment. Where the "no work" condition is violated, the appropriate response would be to take the alien into custody.

The argument that the Service would be using a bond for improper purposes, i.e., "no work," misses the point. It is not the bond which imposes "no work." Rather, "no work" is a condition of release, which, if violated, gives the Service the right to order the alien to surrender and appear. If the alien fails to appear following a breach of the condition of release, the Service may declare the bond to be in default, just as if the alien failed to appear at a scheduled court date. The bond requires the bonding company to pay (or the alien to forfeit a cash bond) upon the alien's unexcused failure to appear, either upon a date certain or upon an order to surrender following a breach of a condition of release. The Service is imposing "no work" as a condition of release, unless, of course, the alien applied to and received, from the district director, permission to work.

Most importantly, the regulation does not necessarily change the number of aliens ultimately allowed to work. In each case, if an alien desires to work, the response to the inquiry could be the same. There is just a different starting point. The person seeking to work will have the burden of going forth with the application to the district director, who is the party best able to consider that application.

Under this formulation, the comments made by many commenters to the effect that bonds could not be written if the alien did not work, were based, in part, on a false premise. The premise was that violation of the "no work" condition would necessarily lead to bond breach.

2. The comment that the rule would result in fewer bonds being written and more aliens being detained

In considering whether to publish the proposed rule, Service officials were aware that bonding companies and other sureties might be affected by the rule. It was understood that in certain instances a bond might not be quite as attractive if a "no work" release condition were imposed. The possibility that a bonding company might require more collateral or charge higher premiums was also considered. As a corollary of these possibilities, it was also assumed that more aliens might have to be detained. This latter possibility was considered an acceptable consequence. In balance, it was decided that prevention of employment by illegal aliens and safeguarding of employment of U.S. citizens and permanent resident aliens were more important considerations than inconvenience to bonding companies or increased detention costs.

3. The comment that the rule would impose significant hardships on citizens and permanent resident aliens and asylum seekers

These comments failed to take into account the fact that the proposed rule specifically provided protections for persons in these categories. In the first instance, permanent resident aliens are not affected by these release conditions. Until such time as permanent resident status is lost, the permanent resident alien has the right to work in the United States, if released on bond. The Service, therefore, has no intention of applying this condition to a permanent resident alien in exclusion or deportation proceedings.

The regulation also allows a district director to take permanent resident and U.S. citizen relatives into account when considering an application for employment authorization. If the alien in proceedings supports such relatives, employment may be authorized.

Aliens who have applied for asylum will not be affected by these regulations. Employment authorization of asylum seekers is governed by 8 CFR Part 208. Those provisions allow a district director to authorize employment for an asylum applicant who has filed a non-frivolous asylum application.

4. The criticism that the proposed rule did not meet rule making standards relating to economic impact determinations under the Regulatory Flexibility Act or Executive Order 12291

A. Executive Order 12291. A large number of commenters stated that the proposed rule was a "major rule" under Executive Order 12291 because of its effect on bonding agencies, aliens and their families, the Service, and State and local governments. The gist of the criticisms was that a no-work condition would result in no bonds being written because bonding companies would not bond unemployed aliens. As a consequence, aliens would have to be detained, or the alien would be released and have to be supported at public expense, along with the alien's family.

Under the Executive Order, a "Regulatory Impact Analysis and Review" is required for every "major rule." This includes a rule which is likely to result in "A major increase in costs or prices for consumers, individual industries, Federal, State, or local government agencies, or geographic regions." If the rule is "likely" to result in these consequences, then a detailed analysis must be undertaken, following the prescribed format, and transmitted to OMB.

The discussions surrounding the decision to publish the proposed rule included consideration of the effects of the new procedures on various parties. The impact of the rule on bonding companies was considered. The conclusion was that the number of companies affected, and the adverse effects they might feel as a result of the no-work rider provision, were quite limited. Other adverse effects, such as possible increased welfare costs if aliens were denied work authorization, were thought to be minimal, because it was anticipated that allowances would be made for work authorization for aliens with citizen or permanent resident dependents or other substantial equities. Because the discussions revealed no major impact on any segment of the public, the rule as contemplated was not a "major rule" and therefore not subject to an impact review and analysis.

B. 5 U.S.C. 603 requires a "regulatory flexibility analysis". Many commenters cited the Administrative Procedures Act (APA) in criticizing the proposed rule. Under this provision, an agency is required, before publishing a notice of proposed rule making, to "prepare and make available for public comment an initial regulatory flexibility analysis." This analysis is published with the notice of proposed rule making.

This analysis is not required if the head of the agency certifies, pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 553(f), that the rule will not have a significant economic effect on any "substantial number" of small businesses, organizations or governments. The Commissioner in fact made this certification.

In the period prior to the publishing of the proposed rule, the Service engaged in a good deal of internal discussion relating to both the content and the effect of the proposed rule. The decision to publish the rule was made after conversations among the Regional Commissioners and the Central Office Management. It was apparent during these deliberations that certain bonding companies might not consider the proposed rule to be in their interest. It was also understood that the number of companies involved in immigration bond writing was quite small.

The claims made regarding adverse effects on governmental units fail to take into account the definitions contained in the regulatory flexibility provisions. It is not necessary for an agency to take into account costs to the Federal or State governments. The analysis by its clear terms applies to "small governmental jurisdictions" such as cities, counties, towns and villages, with a population of less than 50,000 persons (5 U.S.C. 601). None of the commenters seemed aware of the scope of the flexibility analysis in these terms. The costs the commenters project are thus based on faulty assumptions.

It is our conclusion that criticisms of the rule making procedures as they relate to the regulatory flexibility analysis are basically flawed because of the misconceptions as to the applicability of the provisions. In addition, it is our position that we made an "initial regulatory flexibility analysis" during consideration of the rule making and that the management level discussions on this topic were sufficient, although not reduced to formal studies or writings.

5. The criticism that the standards to be applied in granting employment authorization were unclear

Some of the commenters provided useful criticisms of the factors to be considered in adjudicating a request for employment authorization. In particular, they questioned whether the Service had the authority to consider "dislocation" of American workers and the "impact" of such employment. Several commenters described this as more appropriately a function of the Department of Labor. These criticisms have substance to them. "Dislocation" is a term difficult to define and to quantify, this factor is deleted from the final rule.

Factor (C) of the proposed rule, the "number of aliens involved" in unauthorized employment, was criticized because it did not specify if it referred to a particular industry or to the work force as a whole. It was also criticized as being part of the "dislocation" and "impact" determinations more suitably made by the Department of Labor. This factor is deleted from the final rule.

One commenter stated that two other factors of the proposed rule appeared to be contradictory: Factor (F), the "recentness" of the alien's arrival, and factor (G), the acceptance of employment "shortly after the alien's arrival." The commenter suggested that a long-term resident may have taken employment shortly after arrival, and inquired as to which factor would take precedence. Because of the ambiguity surrounding these factors, and because they are not essential considerations, they have been deleted from the final rule.

Comments on factors (H) and (I) were mixed. These factors are in the final rule, as they are important factors in the fair consideration of employment requests, and have been used in the general employment authorization regulations contained in 8 CFR 109.1(b).

List of Subjects

8 CFR Part 103

Administrative practice and procedure, Authority delegation (Government Agencies), Bonding, Bonds, Surety bonds.

8 CFR Part 109

Aliens, Employment.

Accordingly, Title 8, Chapter I of the Code of Federal Regulations is amended as follows:

PART 103—POWER AND DUTIES OF SERVICE OFFICERS; AVAILABILITY OF SERVICE RECORDS

1. In § 103.6, paragraph (a)(2) is revised to read as follows:

§ 103.6 Surety bonds.

(a) * * *

(2) Bond riders—(i) General. Bond riders shall be prepared on Form I-351 and attached to Form I-352. If a condition to be included in a bond is not on Form I-351, a rider containing the condition shall be executed.

(ii) Condition against unauthorized employment. A condition barring employment shall be included in an appearance and delivery bond in connection with a deportation proceeding or bond posted for the release of an alien in exclusion proceedings, unless the District Director determines that employment is appropriate.

(iii) Factors to be considered. Only those aliens who upon application under § 109.1(b) of this chapter establish compelling reasons for granting employment authorization may be authorized to accept employment. Among the factors which may be considered when an application is made, are the following:

- (A) Safeguarding employment opportunities for United States citizens and lawful permanent resident aliens;
- (B) Prior immigration violations by the alien;
- (C) Whether there is a reasonable basis for considering discretionary relief; and
- (D) Whether a United States citizen or lawful permanent resident spouse or children are dependent upon the alien for support, or other equities exist.

PART 109—EMPLOYMENT AUTHORIZATION

2. In § 109.1, a new paragraph (b)(8) is added to read as follows:

§ 109.1 Classes of aliens eligible.

(b) * * *

(8) Any excludable or deportable alien who has posted an appearance and delivery bond may be granted temporary employment authorization if the District Director determines that employment is appropriate under § 103.6(a)(2)(iii) of this chapter.

CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

[Organization Regulations Amendment No. 133 to Part 385; Regulation OR-211]

Delegations and Review of Action Under Delegation; Nonhearing Matters

AGENCY: Civil Aeronautics Board.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The CAB delegates to the Associate Director of the Bureau of Domestic Aviation the authority to extend an airline's subsidy rate during the time between the end of its old subsidy rate and the establishment of its new one. This will ease administration of the subsidy program and help ensure the continuation of necessary subsidy payments during the time that the new rate is being negotiated.

DATES: Adopted: November 1, 1983. Effective: November 4, 1983.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: John R. Hokanson, Chief, Air Carrier Subsidy Need Division, Bureau of Domestic Aviation, Civil Aeronautics Board, 1825 Connecticut Avenue, NW., Washington, D.C. 20428; 202-673-5368.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Section 419 of the Federal Aviation Act [49 U.S.C. 1389] guarantees essential air service to small communities that are eligible points. If no carrier is willing to offer this service on its own, section 419 directs the Board to pay a subsidy to a carrier to provide it.

The Board typically establishes airline subsidy rates for a 1- or 2-year period. At the end of this period, the Board reevaluates the needs of the community and establishes a new subsidy rate for the carrier if necessary.

Sometimes there is a gap between the end of the old subsidy rate and the establishment of a new one. Currently, the Director of the Board's Bureau of Domestic Aviation is delegated the authority to extend the carrier's existing subsidy rate. 14 CFR 385.13(i). This allows the carrier to continue receiving subsidy payments until the new rate is approved by the Board.

The Board is here extending the identical delegation of authority to the Associate Director of the Bureau of Domestic Aviation. This will ease administration of the subsidy program and help ensure the continuation of necessary subsidy payments during the time that the new rate is being negotiated. As with the delegation to the Director, any subsidy paid under the authority of the Associate Director, will be subject to later adjustment by the Board.

Since this is a rule of agency organization and procedure, the Board finds that notice and public procedure thereon are unnecessary and that it may take effect on less than 30 days' notice.

List of Subjects in 14 CFR Part 385

PART 385—[AMENDED]

Accordingly, the Civil Aeronautics Board amends 14 CFR Part 385, Delegation and Review of Action under Delegation: Nonhearing Matters, as follows:

1. The authority for Part 385 is:

Authority: Secs. 101, 204, 401, 402, 403, 407, 416, Pub. L. 85-726, as amended, 72 Stat. 740, 743, 754, 757, 758, 766, 771; 49 U.S.C. 1302, 1324, 1371, 1372, 1373, 1377, 1386. Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1961, 26 FR 5989.

2. In § 385.14, the title is changed and a new paragraph (e) is added as follows:

§ 385.14 Delegation to the Associate Director, Economic Affairs, Bureau of Domestic Aviation.

(e) Extend the term of a carrier's subsidy rate established under section 419 of the Act, with the amount paid during the extension subject to adjustment by the Board.

By the Civil Aeronautics Board,
Phyllis T. Kaylor,
Secretary.

Food and Drug Administration

21 CFR Parts 74, 81, and 82

[Docket No. 83N-0009]

FD&C Blue No. 2; Hearing

AGENCY: Food and Drug Administration.

ACTION: Notice of hearing; final rule-related.

SUMMARY: The Food and Drug Administration (FDA) is granting a formal evidentiary public hearing on an objection to the final rule "permanently" listing FD&C Blue No. 2 for general use in food and ingested drugs. This hearing is granted on the issue of whether the occurrence of a higher number of male rats with a brain glioma in the high-dose group as compared with the control groups in the long-term feeding study on FD&C Blue No. 2 precludes FDA from finding that this color additive is safe for general use in food and ingested drugs. FDA is also announcing a prehearing conference for the formal evidentiary public hearing.

DATES: Written notice of participation must be filed with the Dockets Management Branch (address below) no later than December 7, 1983. Prehearing conference on December 13, 1983 at 10 a.m. Disclosures of data and information by January 6, 1984.

ADDRESSES: The prehearing conference will be held in FDA's Hearing Room, Rm. 4A-35, 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, MD 20857. Written notices of participation and disclosure of data and information must be submitted to the Dockets Management Branch (HFA-305), Food and Drug Administration, Rm. 4-62, 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, MD 20857. (Submissions to the Dockets Management Branch should be identified with Docket No. 83N-0009 and clearly labeled "FD&C Blue No. 2 Hearing.")

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

C. K. Gund, Regulations Policy Staff (HFC-10), Food and Drug Administration, 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, MD 20857, 301-443-3480.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In the Federal Register of February 4, 1983 (48 FR 5252), FDA published a final rule "permanently" listing FD&C Blue No. 2 for general use in food and ingested drugs. The agency concluded that the data establish to a reasonable certainty that FD&C Blue No. 2 does not cause harm. This action was taken in response to a petition filed by the Certified Color Industry Committee, now the Certified Color Manufacturers Association, Inc. (CCMA). Notice that the petition for the listing of FD&C Blue No. 2 as a color additive had been filed, under section 706 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C. 376), had been announced in the Federal Register of July 2, 1968 (33 FR 9627).

Public Citizen's Health Research Group (HRG), 2000 P St. NW., Washington, DC 20036, filed a timely objection to the final rule and requested a public hearing. HRG stated that because a feeding study done by Biodynamics, Inc., for CCMA showed a statistically significant increase in brain tumors in rats fed FD&C Blue No. 2, the color additive had not been proven to be safe and thus could not be permanently listed. In support of its objection, HRG argued that the agency's application of various biological criteria to evaluate the safety of this color additive was insufficient to show that FD&C Blue No. 2 is safe. HRG stated that the decision to list FD&C Blue No. 2 under the color additive provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C. 376) violates both the "Delaney clause" (21 U.S.C. 376(b)(5)(B)) and the "general safety clause" (21 U.S.C. 376(b)(4)) of the Color Additive Amendments of 1960.

The Commissioner has decided to grant a formal evidentiary public hearing in accordance with 21 CFR Part 12 on the following issue: Whether the occurrence of a higher number of male rats with a brain glioma in the high-dose group as compared with the control groups in the long-term feeding study on FD&C Blue No. 2 precludes the Food and Drug Administration from finding that this color additive is safe for general use in food and ingested drugs.

The hearing will take place in FDA's Hearing Room, Rm. 4A-35, 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, MD 20857. Administrative Law Judge Daniel J. Davidson will preside. Parties to the hearing will be FDA's Bureau of Foods and Public Citizen's Health Research Group. Any other interested person may participate in the hearing and be accorded the rights granted to participants by FDA regulations. Participants are, of course, required to assume the obligations of participation as set forth in FDA regulations. Written notices of participation must be filed with the Dockets Management Branch (HFA-305), Food and Drug Administration, Rm. 4-62, 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, MD 20857, no later than December 7, 1983. A notice of participation should be identified with docket number found in brackets in the heading of this document and clearly labeled "FD&C Blue No. 2 Hearing."

The Bureau of Foods has filed with the Dockets Management Branch all documents required by § 12.85 (21 CFR 12.85). These are: (1) Those portions of the administrative record of the proceeding relevant to the issue to be considered at the hearing; (2) all documents in the Bureau's files containing factual data and information (whether favorable or unfavorable to its position) that relate to the issue involved in the hearing; (3) all other documentary data and information on which the Bureau relies; and (4) a statement signed by the Director of the Bureau that, to the best of his knowledge and belief, the submission complies with the requirements of § 12.85. The Bureau has also filed with the Dockets Management Branch a narrative statement setting forth its position on the issue for hearing and a summary of the type of evidence intended to be introduced in support of its position at the hearing.

Interested persons may obtain a copy of the narrative statement from the Dockets Management Branch at the address above. Persons may also examine the data filed in this matter (with the exception of any data identified as confidential) at the Dockets Management Branch, between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m., Monday through Friday.

The prehearing conference and hearing session will be open to the public. Any participants may appear in person, or by or with counsel, or with other qualified representatives, and may be heard on relevant matters. Participants other than the Bureau of Foods shall disclose data and information on or before January 6, 1984, under § 12.85.

Therefore, under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (secs. 701(e), 706(d), 70 Stat. 919 as amended, 74 Stat. 402-403 (21 U.S.C. 371(e), 376(d))) and under authority delegated to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs (21 CFR 5.10), it is ordered that a formal evidentiary public hearing be held on the issue set forth in this notice.

Dated: November 1, 1983.

Acting Commissioner of Food and Drugs.

21 CFR Parts 182 and 184

[Docket No. 81N-0225]

GRAS Status of Carnauba Wax

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The Food and Drug Administration (FDA) is affirming that carnauba wax is generally recognized as safe (GRAS) as a direct human food ingredient. The safety of this ingredient has been evaluated under the comprehensive safety review conducted by the agency.

DATES: Effective December 7, 1983. The Director of the Federal Register approves the incorporation by reference of certain publications at 21 CFR 184.1978 effective on December 7, 1983.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: John W. Gordon, Bureau of Foods (HFF-335), Food and Drug Administration, 200

C St. SW., Washington, DC 20204, 202-426-5487.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In the Federal Register of August 6, 1982 (47 FR 34164), FDA published a proposal to affirm that carnauba wax is GRAS for use as a direct human food ingredient. The proposal was published in accordance with the announced FDA review of the safety of GRAS and prior-sanctioned food ingredients.

In accordance with § 170.35 (21 CFR 170.35), copies of the scientific literature review, data on the mutagenic evaluation, and the report of the Select Committee on GRAS Substances (the Select Committee) on carnauba wax are available for public review in the Dockets Management Branch (HFA-305), Food and Drug Administration, Rm. 4-62, 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, MD 20857. Copies of these documents also are available for public purchase from the National Technical Information Service, as announced in the proposal.

In addition to proposing to affirm the GRAS status of carnauba wax, FDA gave public notice that it was unaware of any prior-sanctioned food ingredient uses for this ingredient, other than for the proposed conditions of use. Persons asserting additional or extended uses, in accordance with approvals granted by the U.S. Department of Agriculture or FDA before September 6, 1958, were given notice to submit proof of those sanctions, so that the safety of prior-sanctioned uses could be determined. That notice was also an opportunity to have prior-sanctioned uses of carnauba wax recognized by issuance of an appropriate regulation under Part 181—Prior-Sanctioned Food Ingredients (21 CFR Part 181) or affirmed as GRAS under Parts 184 and 186 (21 CFR Part 184 or 186), as appropriate.

FDA also gave notice that failure to submit proof of an applicable prior sanction in response to the proposal would constitute a waiver of the right to assert that sanction at any future time.

No reports of prior-sanctioned uses for carnauba wax were submitted in response to the proposal. Therefore, in accordance with the proposal, any right to assert a prior sanction for use of carnauba wax under conditions different from those set forth in this final rule has been waived.

One comment was received in response to the proposal. The comment was from a food manufacturer who requested an expansion of the carnauba wax regulation to include the use of the ingredient as a fixative or encapsulating agent for volatile flavoring agents that are used to flavor sauces and gravies.

The agency has reviewed the use described in the comment and finds that this use would result in the presence of a low level of carnauba wax in sauces and gravies. The consumer exposure to carnauba wax resulting from this use is not expected to add significantly to consumer exposure to carnauba wax resulting from its other uses in food. Further, the increase in exposure would be well within the safe levels for this food ingredient established by the safety studies on carnauba wax. The agency concludes that this new use is GRAS. Because the agency considers encapsulating agents to be carriers of flavors, FDA has included in 21 CFR 184.1978 the requested use of carnauba wax as a formulation aid as defined in § 170.3(o)(14) (21 CFR 170.3(o)(14)) for use in gravies and sauces as defined in § 170.3(n)(24).

The agency has previously determined under 21 CFR 25.24(d)(6) [proposed December 11, 1979; 44 FR 71742] that this action is of a type that does not individually or cumulatively have a significant impact on the human environment. FDA has not received any new information or comments that would alter its previous determination.

In accordance with the Regulatory Flexibility Act, the agency has previously considered the potential effects that this rule would have on small entities, including small businesses. In accordance with section 605(b) of the Regulatory Flexibility Act, the agency has determined that no significant impact on a substantial number of small entities would derive from this action. FDA has not received any new information or comments that would alter its previous determination.

In accordance with Executive Order 12291, the agency has previously considered the potential economic effects of this final rule. As announced in the proposal, the agency has determined that the rule is not a major rule as determined by that Order. FDA has not received any new information or comments that would alter its previous determination.

The agency's finding of no major economic impact and no significant impact on a substantial number of small entities, and the evidence supporting these findings, are contained in a threshold assessment which may be seen in the Dockets Management Branch (address above).

List of Subjects

21 CFR Part 182

Generally recognized as safe (GRAS) food ingredients, Spices and flavorings.

21 CFR Part 184

Direct food ingredients, Food ingredients. Generally recognized as safe (GRAS) food ingredients, incorporation by reference.

Therefore, under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (secs. 201(s), 409, 701(a), 52 Stat. 1055, 72 Stat. 1784-1788 as amended (21 U.S.C. 321(s), 348, 371(a))) and under authority delegated to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs (21 CFR 5.10), Parts 182 and 184 are amended as follows:

PART 182—SUBSTANCES GENERALLY RECOGNIZED AS SAFE

§ 182.1978 [Removed]

1. Part 182 is amended by removing § 182.1978 Carnauba wax.

PART 184—DIRECT FOOD SUBSTANCES AFFIRMED AS GENERALLY RECOGNIZED AS SAFE

2. Part 184 is amended by adding new § 184.1978, to read as follows:

§ 184.1978 Carnauba wax.

(a) Carnauba wax (CAS Reg. No. 008-015-869) is obtained from the leaves and buds of the Brazilian wax palm Copernicia cerifera Martius. The wax is hard, brittle, sparingly soluble in cold organic solvents and insoluble in water. It is marketed in five grades designated No. 1 through No. 5. Grades No. 4 and No. 5 represent the bulk of the commercial trade volume. These commercial grades consist chiefly of C<sub>24</sub> to C<sub>32</sub> normal saturated monofunctional fatty acids and normal saturated monofunctional primary alcohols.

(b) The ingredient meets the specifications of the Food Chemicals Codex, 3d Ed. (1981), p. 73, which is incorporated by reference. Copies are available from the National Academy Press, 2101 Constitution Ave. NW., Washington, DC 20418, or available for inspection at the Office of the Federal Register, 1100 L St. NW., Washington, DC 20408.

(c) In accordance with § 184.1(b)(1), the ingredient is used in food with no limitation other than current good manufacturing practice. The affirmation of this ingredient as generally recognized as safe (GRAS) as a direct human food ingredient is based upon the following current good manufacturing practice conditions of use:

(1) The ingredient is used as an anticaking agent as defined § 170.3(o)(1) of this chapter; as a formulation aid as defined in § 170.3(o)(14) of this chapter; as a lubricant and release agent as defined in § 170.3(o)(18) of this chapter; and as a surface-finishing agent as defined in § 170.3(o)(30) of this chapter.

(2) The ingredient is used in the following foods at levels not to exceed current good manufacturing practice: baked goods and baking mixes as defined in § 170.3(n)(1) of this chapter; chewing gum as defined in § 170.3(n)(6) of this chapter; confections and frostings as defined in § 170.3(n)(9) of this chapter; fresh fruits and fruit juices as defined in § 170.3(n)(16) of this chapter; gravies and sauces as defined in § 170.3(n)(24) of this chapter; processed fruits and fruit juices as defined in § 170.3(n)(35) of this chapter; and soft candy as defined in § 170.3(n)(38) of this chapter.

(d) Prior sanctions for this ingredient different from the uses established in this section do not exist or have been waived.

Effective date. This regulation shall be effective December 7, 1983.

(Secs. 201(s), 409, 701(a), 52 Stat. 1055, 72 Stat. 1784-1788 as amended (21 U.S.C. 321(s), 348, 371(a)))

21 CFR Parts 182 and 184

[Docket No. 81N-0341]

GRAS Status of Riboflavin and Riboflavin-5'-Phosphate (Sodium)

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The Food and Drug Administration (FDA) is affirming that riboflavin and riboflavin-5'-phosphate (sodium) are generally recognized as safe (GRAS) as direct human food ingredients. The safety of these ingredients has been evaluated under the comprehensive safety review conducted by the agency.

DATES: Effective December 7, 1983. The Director of the Federal Register approves the incorporation by reference of certain publications at 21 CFR 184.1695 and 184.1697 effective on December 7, 1983.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Leonard C. Gosule, Bureau of Foods (HFF-335), Food and Drug Administration, 200 C St. SW., Washington, DC 20204, 202-426-9463.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In the Federal Register of September 14, 1982 (47 FR 40448), FDA published a proposal to affirm that riboflavin and riboflavin-

5'-phosphate (sodium) are GRAS for use as direct human food ingredients. The proposal was published in accordance with the announced FDA review of the safety of GRAS and prior-sanctioned food ingredients.

In accordance with § 170.35 (21 CFR 170.35), copies of the scientific literature review on riboflavin and riboflavin-5'-phosphate (sodium) and the report of the Select Committee on GRAS Substances (the Select Committee) on riboflavin and riboflavin-5'-phosphate (sodium) are available for public review in the Dockets Management Branch (HFA-305), Food and Drug Administration, Rm. 4-62, 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, MD 20857. Copies of these documents also are available for public purchase from the National Technical Information Service, as announced in the proposal.

In addition to proposing to affirm the GRAS status of riboflavin and riboflavin-5'-phosphate (sodium), FDA gave public notice that it was unaware of any prior-sanctioned food uses for these ingredients other than the proposed conditions of use. Persons asserting additional or extended uses in accordance with approvals granted by the U.S. Department of Agriculture or FDA before September 6, 1958, were given notice to submit proof of those sanctions, so that the safety of any prior-sanctioned uses could be determined. That notice was also an opportunity to have prior-sanctioned uses of these ingredients recognized by issuance of an appropriate regulation under Part 181—Prior-Sanctioned Food Ingredients (21 CFR Part 181) or affirmed as GRAS under Part 184 or 186 (21 CFR Part 184 or 186), as appropriate.

FDA also gave notice that failure to submit proof of an applicable prior sanction in response to the proposal would constitute a waiver of the right to assert that sanction at any future time.

No reports of prior-sanctioned uses for riboflavin or riboflavin-5'-phosphate (sodium) were submitted in response to the proposal. Therefore, in accordance with the proposal, any right to assert a prior sanction for use of riboflavin or riboflavin-5'-phosphate (sodium) under conditions different from those set forth in this final rule has been waived.

No comments were received in response to the agency's proposal on these ingredients. The agency is therefore issuing the proposed regulation as a final rule with minor editorial changes.

The agency has previously determined under 21 CFR 25.24(d)(6) (proposed December 11, 1978; 44 FR 71742) that this action is of a type that does not individually or cumulatively have a significant impact on the human environment. FDA has not received any new information or comments that would alter its previous determination.

In accordance with the Regulatory Flexibility Act, the agency has previously considered the potential effects that this rule would have on small entities, including small businesses. In accordance with section 605(b) of the Regulatory Flexibility Act, the agency has determined that no significant impact on a substantial number of small entities would derive from this action. FDA has not received any new information or comments that would alter its previous determination.

In accordance with Executive Order 12291, the agency has previously considered the potential economic effects of this final rule. As announced in the proposal, the agency has determined that the rule is not a major rule as defined by that Order. FDA has not received any new information or comments that would alter its previous determination.

The agency's finding of no major economic impact and no significant impact on a substantial number of small entities, and the evidence supporting these findings, are contained in the threshold assessment which may be seen in the Dockets Management Branch (address above).

Direct food ingredients, Food ingredients, Generally recognized as safe (GRAS) food ingredients, Incorporation by reference.

Therefore, under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (secs. 201(s), 409, 701(a), 52 Stat. 1055, 72 Stat. 1784-1788 as amended (21 U.S.C. 321(s), 348, 371(a))) and under authority delegated to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs (21 CFR 5.10), Parts 182 and 184 are amended as follows:

PART 182—SUBSTANCES GENERALLY RECOGNIZED AS SAFE

1. Part 182 is amended:

§ 182.8695 [Removed]

a. By removing § 182.8695 Riboflavin.

§ 182.8697 [Removed]

b. By removing § 182.8697 Riboflavin-5-phosphate.

PART 184—DIRECT FOOD SUBSTANCES AFFIRMED AS GENERALLY RECOGNIZED AS SAFE

2. Part 184 is amended:

a. By adding new § 184.1695, to read as follows:

§ 184.1695 Riboflavin.

(a) Riboflavin (C<sub>17</sub>H<sub>20</sub>N<sub>4</sub>O<sub>6</sub>, CAS Reg. No. 83-88-5) occurs as yellow to orange-yellow needles that are crystallized from 2*N* acetic acid, alcohol, water, or pyridine. It may be prepared by chemical synthesis, biosynthetically by the organism Eremothecium ashbyii, or isolated from natural sources.

(b) The ingredient meets the specifications of the Food Chemicals Codex, 3d Ed. (1981), p. 262, which is incorporated by reference. Copies are available from the National Academy Press, 2101 Constitution Ave. NW., Washington, DC 20418, or available for inspection at the Office of the Federal Register, 1100 L St. NW., Washington, DC 20408.

(c) In accordance with § 184.1(b)(1), the ingredient is used in food with no limitation other than current good manufacturing practice. The affirmation of this ingredient as generally recognized as safe (GRAS) as a direct human food ingredient is based upon the following current good manufacturing practice conditions of use:

(1) The ingredient is used as a nutrient supplement as defined in § 170.3(o)(20) of this chapter.

(2) The ingredient is used in foods at levels not to exceed current good manufacturing practice. The affirmation may also be used in infant formula in accordance with section 412(g) of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (the act) or with regulations promulgated under section 412(a)(2) of the act.

(d) Prior sanctions for this ingredient different from the uses established in this section do not exist or have been waived.

b. By adding new § 184.1697, to read as follows:

§ 184.1697 Riboflavin-5'-phosphate (sodium).

(a) Riboflavin-5'-phosphate (sodium) (C<sub>17</sub>H<sub>20</sub>N<sub>4</sub>O<sub>8</sub>PN<sub>2</sub>·2H<sub>2</sub>O, CAS Reg. No. 130-40-5) occurs as the dihydrate in yellow to orange-yellow crystals. It is prepared by phosphorylation of riboflavin with chlorophosphoric acid, pyrophosphoric acid, metaphosphoric acid, or pyrocatechol cyclic phosphate.

(b) The ingredient meets the specifications of the Food Chemicals Codex, 3d Ed. (1981), p. 263, which is incorporated by reference. Copies are available from the National Academy Press, 2101 Constitution Ave. NW., Washington DC 20418, or available for inspection at the Office of the Federal Register, 1100 L St. NW., Washington, DC 20408.

(c) In accordance with § 184.1(b)(1), the ingredient is used in food with no limitation other than current good manufacturing practice. The affirmation of this ingredient as generally recognized as safe (GRAS) as a direct human food ingredient is based upon the following current good manufacturing practice conditions of use:

(1) The ingredient is used as a nutrient supplement as defined in § 170.3(o)(20) of this chapter.

(2) The ingredient is used in milk products, as defined in § 170.3(n)(31) of this chapter, at levels not to exceed current good manufacturing practice. The ingredient may also be used in infant formulas in accordance with section 412(g) of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (the act) or with regulations promulgated under section 412(a)(2) of the act.

(d) Prior sanctions for this ingredient different from the uses established in this section do not exist or have been waived.

Effective date. This regulation shall be effective December 7, 1983.

[Docket No. 78N-0199]

GRAS Status of Pectins

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The Food and Drug Administration (FDA) is affirming that pectins are generally recognized as safe (GRAS) as direct human food ingredients. The safety of these ingredients has been evaluated under the comprehensive safety review conducted by the agency.

DATES: Effective December 7, 1983. The Director of the Federal Register approves the incorporation by reference of certain publications at 21 CFR 184.1588 effective on December 7, 1983.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Hortense S. Macon, Bureau of Foods (HFF-335), Food and Drug Administration, 200 C St. SW., Washington, DC 20204, 202-426-5487.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In the Federal Register of August 29, 1978 (43 FR 38591), FDA published a proposal to affirm that pectins are GRAS for use as direct human food ingredients. The proposal was published in accordance with the announced FDA review of the safety of GRAS and prior-sanctioned food ingredients.

Subsequently, the agency published a tentative final rule in the Federal Register of August 13, 1982 (47 FR 35242), in which FDA proposed not to include levels of use or food categories in the GRAS regulation on pectins. The tentative final rule provided an opportunity for public comment on this change.

One comment was received from a food manufacturer in response to the tentative final rule. The comment noted that a semantic error was made in the description statement of the proposed regulation concerning type commercial preparation of pectin. The comment recommended that the word "and" be replaced by "or" in the fourth sentence of paragraph (a) of the regulation to reflect clearly the intent of the regulation concerning the source of the ingredient. The comment stated that the word "and" implies that pectin must be produced as a mixture from three sources instead of one or more of the three.

FDA agrees with this comment and has revised this final rule to reflect this change.

The agency has previously determined under 21 CFR 25.24(d)(6) (proposed December 11, 1979; 44 FR 71742) that this action is of a type that does not individually or cumulatively have a significant impact on the human environment. FDA has not received any new information or comments that would alter its previous determination.

In accordance with the Regulatory Flexibility Act, the agency has previously considered the potential effects that this rule would have on small entities, including small businesses. In accordance with section 605(b) of the Regulatory Flexibility Act, the agency has determined that no significant impact on a substantial number of small entities would derive from this action. FDA has not received any new information or comments that would alter its previous determination.

In accordance with Executive Order 12291, the agency has previously considered the potential economic effects of this final rule. As announced in the tentative final rule, the agency has determined that the rule is not a major rule as determined by that Order. FDA has not received any new information or comments that would alter its previous determination.

The agency's findings of no major economic impact and no significant impact on a substantial number of small entities, and the evidence supporting these findings, are contained in a threshold assessment which may be seen in the Dockets Management Branch (HFA-305), Food and Drug Administration, Rm. 4-62, 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, MD 20857, between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m., Monday through Friday.

List of Subjects*21 CFR Part 182

Generally recognized as safe (GRAS) a food ingredients, Spices and flavorings.

21 CFR Part 184

Direct food ingredients, Food ingredients, Generally recognized as safe (GRAS) food ingredients, Incorporation by reference.

Therefore, under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (secs. 201(s), 409, 701(a), 52 Stat. 1055, 72 Stat. 1784-1788 as amended (21 U.S.C. 321(s), 348, 371(a))) and under authority delegated to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs (21 CFR 5.10), Parts 182 and 184 are amended as follows:

PART 182—SUBSTANCES GENERALLY RECOGNIZED AS SAFE*§ 182.1775 [Removed]

1. Part 182 is amended by removing § 182.1775 Sodium pectinate.

PART 184—DIRECT FOOD SUBSTANCES AFFIRMED AS GENERALLY RECOGNIZED AS SAFE

2. Part 184 is amended by adding new § 184.1588, to read as follows:

§ 184.1588 Pectins.

(a) The pectins (CAS Reg. No. 9000-69-5) are a group of complex, high molecular weight polysaccharides found in plants and composed chiefly of partially methylated polygalacturonic acid units. Portions of the carboxyl group occur as methyl esters, and the remaining carboxyl groups exist in the form of the free acid or as its ammonium, potassium, or sodium (CAS Reg. No. 9000-59-8) salts, and in some types as the acid amide. Thus, the pectins regulated in this section are the high-ester pectins, low-ester pectins, amidated pectins, pectinic acids, and pectinates. Pectin is produced commercially by extracting citrus peel, apple pomace, or beet pulp with hot dilute acid (pH 1.0 to 3.5, 70° to 90° C). The extract is filtered, and pectin is then precipitated from the clear extract with ethanol or isopropanol, or as the copper or aluminum salt. The acid extract is sometimes spray- or roller-dried, or it is concentrated to be sold as liquid pectin.

(b) The ingredients meet the specifications of the Food Chemical Codex, 3d Ed. (1981), p. 215, which is incorporated by reference. Copies are available from the National Academy Press, 2101 Constitution Ave. NW., Washington, DC 20418, or available for inspection at the Office of the Federal Register 1100 L St. NW., Washington, DC 20408.

(c) In accordance with § 184.1(b)(1), the ingredients are used in food with no limitation other than current good manufacturing practice. The affirmation of these ingredients as generally recognized as safe (GRAS) as direct human food ingredients is based upon the following current good manufacturing practice conditions of use:

(1) The ingredients are used as emulsifiers as defined in § 170.3(o)(8) of this chapter and as stabilizers and thickeners as defined in § 170.3(o)(28) of this chapter.

(2) The ingredients are used in food at levels not to exceed current good manufacturing practice.

(d) Prior sanctions for these ingredients different from the uses established in this section do not exist or have been waived.

Effective date. This regulation shall be effective December 7, 1983.

21 CFR Parts 182 and 184

[Docket No. 79N-0032]

GRAS Status of Lecithin

AGENCY: Food and Drug Administration.
ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The Food and Drug Administration (FDA) is affirming that lecithin is generally recognized as safe (GRAS) as a direct human food ingredient. The safety of this ingredient has been evaluated under the comprehensive safety review conducted by the agency.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Lawrence J. Lin, Bureau of Foods (HFF-335), Food and Drug Administration, 200 C St. SW., Washington, DC 20204, 202-426-8950.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In the Federal Register of August 6, 1982 (47 FR 34161), FDA published a proposal to affirm that lecithin is GRAS for use as a direct human food ingredient. The proposal was published in accordance with the announced FDA review of the safety of GRAS and prior-sanctioned food ingredients.

In accordance with § 170.35 (21 CFR 170.35), copies of the scientific literature review on lecithin and the report of the Select Committee on GRAS Substances (the Select Committee) on lecithin are available for public review in the Dockets Management Branch (HFA-305), Food and Drug Administration, Rm. 4-62, 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, MD 20857. Copies of these documents are also available for public purchase from the National Technical Information Service, as announced in the proposal.

In addition to proposing to affirm the GRAS status of lecithin, FDA gave public notice that it was unaware of any prior-sanctioned food uses for this ingredient other than for the proposed conditions of use. Persons asserting additional or extended uses in accordance with approvals granted by the U.S. Department of Agriculture or FDA before September 6, 1958, were given notice to submit proof of those sanctions, so that the safety of any prior-sanctioned uses could be determined. That notice was also an opportunity to have prior-sanctioned uses of lecithin recognized by issuance of an appropriate regulation under Part 181—Prior-Sanctioned Food Ingredients (21 CFR Part 181) or affirmed as GRAS under Part 184 or 186 (21 CFR Part 184 or 186), as appropriate.

FDA also gave notice that failure to submit proof of an applicable prior sanction in response to the proposal would constitute a waiver of the right to assert that sanction at any future time.

No reports of prior-sanctioned uses for lecithin were submitted in response to the proposal. Therefore, in accordance with the proposal, any right to assert a prior sanction for use of lecithin under conditions different from those set forth in this final rule has been waived.

One comment was received in response to the agency's proposal on lecithin. The comment supported the proposal and indicated that lecithin has been used for a number of years in baked goods, candies, chocolate products, dehydrated foods, ice cream, margarine, and whipped toppings. The comment also stated that scientific evidence supports the safety of lecithin as a food ingredient.

The agency concludes that no changes in the proposal are necessary as a result of this comment. The agency is therefore issuing the proposal as a final rule without change.

The agency has previously determined under 21 CFR 25.24(d)(6) (proposed December 11, 1979; 44 FR 71742) that this action is of a type that does not individually or cumulatively have a significant impact on the human environment. FDA has not received any new information or comments that would alter its previous determination.

In accordance with the Regulatory Flexibility Act, the agency has previously considered the potential effects that this rule would have on small entities, including small businesses. In accordance with section 605(b) of the Regulatory Flexibility Act, the agency has determined that no significant impact on a substantial number of small entities would derive from this action. FDA has not received any new information or comments that would alter its previous determination.

In accordance with Executive Order 12291, the agency has previously considered the potential economic effects of this regulation. As announced in the proposal, the agency has determined that the rule is not a major rule as determined by that Order. FDA has not received any new information or comments that would alter its previous determination.

The agency's finding of no major economic impact and no significant impact on a substantial number of small entities, and the evidence supporting these findings, are contained in a threshold assessment which may be seen in the Dockets Management Branch (address above).

Therefore, under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (secs. 201(s), 409, 701(a), 52 Stat. 1055, 72 Stat. 1784-1788 as amended (21 U.S.C. 321(s), 348, 371(a))) and under authority delegated to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs (21 CFR 5.10), Parts 182 and 184 are amended as follows:

PART 182—SUBSTANCES GENERALLY RECOGNIZED AS SAFE

1. Part 182 is amended:

§ 182.70 [Amended]

a. In § 182.70 Substances migrating from cotton and cotton fabrics used in dry food packaging by removing the entry for "Lecithin (vegetable)" from the list of substances.

§ 182.1400 [Removed]

b. By removing § 182.1400 Lecithin.

PART 184—DIRECT FOOD SUBSTANCES AFFIRMED AS GENERALLY RECOGNIZED AS SAFE

2. Part 184 is amended by adding new § 184.1400, to read as follows:

§ 184.1400 Lecithin.

(a) Commercial lecithin is a naturally occurring mixture of the phosphatides of choline, ethanolamine, and inositol, with smaller amounts of other lipids. It is isolated as a gum following hydration of solvent-extracted soy, safflower, or corn oils. Lecithin is bleached, if desired, by hydrogen peroxide and benzoyl peroxide and dried by heating.

(b) The ingredient meets the specifications of the Food Chemicals Codex, 3d Ed. (1981), pp. 166-167, which is incorporated by reference. Copies are available from the National Academy Press, 2101 Constitution Ave. NW., Washington, DC 20418, or available for inspection at the Office of the Federal Register, 1100 L St. NW., Washington, DC 20408.

(c) In accordance with § 184.1(b)(1), the ingredient is used in food with no limitation other than current good manufacturing practice.

GRAS Status of Rennet

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The Food and Drug Administration (FDA) is affirming that rennet is generally recognized as safe (GRAS) as a direct human food ingredient. The safety of this ingredient has been evaluated under the comprehensive safety review conducted by the agency.

DATES: Effective December 7, 1983. The Director of the Federal Register approves the incorporation by reference of certain publications at 21 CFR 184.1685 effective on December 7, 1983.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Robert L. Martin, Bureau of Foods (HFF-335), Food and Drug Administration, 200 C St. SW., Washington, DC 20204 202-426-8950.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In the Federal Register of October 23, 1979 (44 FR 61053), FDA published a proposal to affirm that rennet is GRAS for use as a direct human food ingredient. The proposal was published in accordance with the announced FDA review of the safety of GRAS and prior-sanctioned food ingredients.

Subsequently, the agency published a tentative final rule in the Federal Register of December 3, 1982 (47 FR 54454), in which FDA proposed not to include levels of use in the GRAS regulation on rennet. The tentative final rule provided an opportunity for public comment on this change. FDA published a notice correcting the tentative final rule in the Federal Register of February 8, 1983 (48 FR 5761).

No comments were received in response to the agency's tentative final rule on rennet. The agency is therefore issuing this final rule based on the tentative final rule with only minor editorial changes.

The agency has previously determined under 21 CFR 25.24(d)(6) (proposed December 11, 1979; 44 FR 71742) that this action is of a type that does not individually or cumulatively have a significant impact on the human environment. FDA has not received any new information or comments that would alter its previous determination.

In accordance with the Regulatory Flexibility Act, the agency has previously considered the potential effects that this rule would have on small entities, including small businesses. In accordance with section 605(b) of the Regulatory Flexibility Act, the agency has determined that no significant impact on a substantial number of small entities would derive from this action. FDA has not received any new information or comments that would alter its previous determination.

In accordance with Executive Order 12291, the agency has previously considered the potential economic effects of this final rule. As announced in the tentative final rule, the agency has determined that the rule is not a major rule as determined by that Order. FDA has not received any new information or comments that would alter its previous determination.

The agency's findings of no major economic impact and no significant impact on a substantial number of small entities, and the evidence supporting these findings, are contained in a threshold assessment which may be seen in the Dockets Management Branch (HFA-305), Food and Drug Administration, Rm. 4-62, 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, MD 20857.

2. Part 184 is amended by adding new § 184.1685, to read as follows:

§ 184.1685 Rennet (animal-derived).

(a) Rennet and bovine rennet are commercial extracts containing the active enzyme rennin (CAS Reg. No. 90001-98-3). Rennet is the aqueous extract prepared from cleaned, frozen, salted, or dried fourth stomachs (abomasas) of calves, kids, or lambs. Bovine rennet is the product from adults of the animals listed above. Both products are called rennet and are clear amber to dark brown liquid preparations or white to tan powders.

(c) In accordance with § 184.1(b)(1), the ingredient is used in food with no limitation other than current good manufacturing practice. The affirmation of this ingredient as generally recognized as safe as a direct human food ingredient is based upon the following current good manufacturing practice conditions of use:

(1) the ingredient is used as an enzyme as defined in § 170.3(o)(9) of this chapter; a processing aid as defined in § 170.3(o)(24) of this chapter; and a stabilizer and thickener as defined in § 170.3(o)(28) of this chapter.

(2) the ingredient is used in the following foods at levels not to exceed current good manufacturing practice: In cheeses as defined in § 170.3(n)(5) of this chapter; frozen dairy desserts and mixes as defined in § 170.3(n)(20) of this chapter; gelatins, puddings, and fillings as defined in § 170.3(n)(22) of this chapter; and milk products as defined in § 170.3(n)(31) of this chapter.

VETERANS ADMINISTRATION

38 CFR Part 36

Decrease in Maximum Interest Rate on New Guaranteed, Insured and Direct Loans for Homes and Condominiums*AGENCY: Veterans Administration.ACTION: Final regulations.

SUMMARY: The VA (Veterans Administration) is decreasing the maximum interest rate on fixed payment and graduated payment loans for homes and condominiums. The maximum interest rates are decreased because the mortgage money market has eased in recent weeks. The decrease in the interest rates will allow eligible veterans to obtain a loan at a lower monthly cost.

EFFECTIVE DATE: November 1, 1983.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mr. George D. Moerman, Loan Guaranty Service (264), Department of Veterans Benefits, Veterans Administration, 810 Vermont Ave. N.W., Washington, D.C. 20420 (202-389-3042).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Administrator is required by law to establish a maximum interest rate for home and condominium loans guaranteed, insured or made by the Veterans Administration as he finds the loan market demands. Recent market indicators—including the rate of discount charged by lenders on VA and Federal Housing Administration loans and the general availability of mortgage funds—have shown that the mortgage market has eased.

After consultation with the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development as required by law, it has been determined that a decrease in the VA home and condominium interest rate for both graduated payment and fixed payment loans is warranted at this time.

The decrease in the VA maximum home and condominium interest rates should not have an adverse impact on the availability of funds necessary to make VA loans. The decrease in the VA interest rate, however, should allow more veterans to purchase a home because of the lower monthly payment for principal and interest required at the lower interest rate.

The Administrator's statutory authority to establish interest rates has been delegated by 38 CFR 2.6 to the Chief Benefits Director, Deputy Chief Benefits Director, or person authorized to act for them.

Regulatory Flexibility Act/Executive Order 12291

For the reasons discussed in the May 7, 1981, Federal Register (46 FR 25443), it has previously been determined that final regulations of this type which change the maximum interest rates for loans guaranteed, insured, or made pursuant to chapter 37 of title 38, United States Code, are not subject to the provisions of the Regulatory Flexibility Act, 5 U.S.C. 601-612.

These regulatory amendments have also been reviewed under the provisions of Executive Order 12291. The VA finds that they are not "major rules" as defined in that Order. The existing process of informal consultation among representatives within the Executive Office of the President, OMB, the VA and the Department of Housing and Urban Development has been determined to be adequate to satisfy the intent of this Executive Order for this category of regulations. This alternative consultation process permits timely rate adjustments with minimal risk of premature disclosure. In summary, this consultation process will fulfill the intent of the Executive Order while still permitting compliance with statutory responsibilities for timely rate adjustments and a stable flow of mortgage credit at rates consistent with the market.

These final regulations come within exceptions to the general VA policy of prior publication of proposed rules as contained in 38 CFR 1.12. The publication of notice of a regulatory change in the VA maximum interest rates for VA guaranteed, insured or direct loans would deny veterans the benefit of lower interest rates pending the final rule publication date which would necessarily be more than 30 days after publication in proposed form. Accordingly, it has been determined that publication of proposed regulations prior to publication of final regulations is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest.

(Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance Program numbers, 64.113 and 64.114)

These regulations are adopted under authority granted to the Administrator by sections 210(c), 1803(c)(1) and 1811(d)(1) of title 38, United States Code and delegated to the undersigned by 38 CFR 2.6(b)(3). The regulations are clearly within that statutory authority and are consistent with Congressional intent.

These decreases are accomplished by amending §§ 36.4311, and 36.4503(a), title 38, Code of Federal Regulations.

Deputy Chief Benefits Director.

PART 36—LOAN GUARANTY

The Veterans Administration is amending 38 CFR Part 36 as follows:

1. In §36.4311, paragraphs (a) and (b) are revised as follows:

§36.4311 Interest rates.

(a) Excepting loans guaranteed or insured pursuant to guaranty or insurance commitments issued by the Veterans Administration which specify an interest rate in excess of 12½ per centum per annum effective November 1, 1983, the interest rate on any home or condominium loan, other than a graduated payment mortgage loan, guaranteed or insured wholly or in part on or after such date may not exceed 12½ per centum per annum on the unpaid principal balance. (38 U.S.C. 1803(c)(1))

(b) Excepting loans guaranteed or insured pursuant to guaranty or insurance commitments issued by the Veterans Administration which specify an interest rate in excess of 12¼ per centum per annum, effective November 1, 1983, the interest rate on any graduated payment mortgage loan guaranteed or insured wholly or in part on or after such date may not exceed 12¼ per centum per annum. (38 U.S.C. 1803(c)(1))

2. In §36.4503, paragraph (a) is revised as follows:

§36.4503 Amount and amortization.

(a) The original principal amount of any loan made on or after October 1, 1980, shall not exceed an amount which bears the same ratio to $33,000 as the amount of the guaranty to which the veteran is entitled under 38 U.S.C. 1810 at the time the loan is made bears to $27,500. This limitation shall not preclude the making of advances otherwise proper, subsequent to the making of the loan pursuant to the provisions of §36.4511. Except as to home improvement loans, loans made by the Veterans Administration shall bear interest at the rate of 12½ percent per annum. Loans solely for the purpose of energy conservation improvements or other alterations, improvements, or repairs shall bear interest at the rate of 14 percent per annum (38 U.S.C. 1811(d)(1) and (2)(A)).

ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY

40 CFR Part 52

[A-6-FRL 2466-1]

Approval of Implementation Plans; Texas: Air Quality Surveillance

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency.

ACTION: Final rulemaking.

SUMMARY: This notice approves an administrative revision to the Texas State Implementation Plan (SIP). The Texas Air Control Board (TACB), in accordance with 40 CFR 51.6(c), submitted an administrative revision to Section IX (Air Quality Surveillance) on June 22, 1983. The revision describes the process used in establishing the air quality surveillance network and meets all the federal requirements specified in 40 CFR 58.20 Air Quality Surveillance: Plan content.

DATE: This action will be effective on January 6, 1984 unless notice is received within 30 days that someone wishes to submit adverse or critical comments.

ADDRESSES: Incorporation by reference material is available for inspection during normal business hours at the following locations:

The Office of the Federal Register, 1100 L Street NE., Washington, D.C., Rm. 8401

Environmental Protection Agency, Public Information Reference Unit, EPA Library Rm. 2404, 401 M Street SW., Washington, D.C. 20460

Kathryn Griffith, State Implementation Plan Section, Environmental Protection Agency Region 6, Air and Waste Management Division, Air Branch, 1201 Elm Street, Dallas, Texas 75270, (214) 767-0853.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On June 22, 1983, the TACB submitted a revision for Section IX (Air Quality Surveillance) which deletes and supersedes the existing approved Section IX in the Texas SIP. EPA has reviewed the State's submittal and developed an evaluation report<sup>1</sup> which is based on the requirements established in 40 CFR 58.20 Air Quality Surveillance: plan content. This evaluation report is available for inspection by interested parties during normal business hours at the EPA Region 6 Office and the other addresses listed above.

Section 319 of the Clean Air Act of 1977, as amended, required the Administrator to promulgate regulations establishing an air quality monitoring system throughout the United States. The national monitoring system is to be used to assess air quality by regulated standard procedures. Monitoring data gathered by the system will be used in the periodic review of national air quality trends.

The regulations establishing the network system were promulgated in 40 CFR Part 58 and the plan requirements are listed in 40 CFR 58.20 Air Quality Surveillance: plan content. The Section IX revision meets all the applicable requirements. Therefore, EPA is approving the revision.

Since the revision included in this approval notice is considered administrative in nature and minor in substance, EPA is approving this revision without prior proposal. The public should be advised that this action will be effective 60 days from the date of this Federal Register Notice. However, if notice is received within 30 days that someone wishes to submit adverse or critical comments, this action will be withdrawn and two subsequent notices will be published before the effective date. One notice will withdraw the final action and another will begin a new rulemaking by announcing a proposal of the action and establishing a comment period.

The Office of Management and Budget has exempted this rule from the requirements of Section 3 of Executive Order 12291.

Under 5 U.S.C. 605(b), I have certified that SIP approvals do not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. (See 46 FR 8709.)

Under Section 307(b)(1) of the Act, petitions for judicial review of this action must be filed in the United States Court of Appeals for the appropriate circuit by January 6, 1984. This action may not be challenged later in proceedings to enforce its requirements. (See 307(b)(2).)

of Texas was approved by the Director of the Federal Register on July 1, 1982.

This notice of final rulemaking is issued under the authority of Section 110 of the Clean Air Act, as amended, 42 U.S.C. 7410.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Bureau of Reclamation

43 CFR Part 422

Procedures for the Identification and Administration of Cultural Resources

AGENCY: Bureau of Reclamation, Interior.

ACTION: Final revocation of rule.

SUMMARY: Part 422 was issued to establish policies and procedures to meet the Bureau of Reclamation's responsibilities in the identification, protection, preservation, and maintenance of cultural resources affected by Reclamation actions or on Reclamation lands. These policies and procedures relate to internal Reclamation procedures, impose no requirement on the general public and have therefore, been replaced by an internal directive.

EFFECTIVE DATE: November 7, 1983.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Dr. Ward Weakly, Archeologist, Office of Environmental Affairs, Engineering and Research Center, Bureau of Reclamation, Denver, Colorado (303) 234-2050 or Lois Thompson, Office of Environmental Affairs, Washington, D.C. (202) 343-2840.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On October 10, 1978 (43 FR 46540), the Bureau of Reclamation issued regulations for the identification and protection of cultural resources. These procedures are applicable only to reclamation project planning, construction, operation and maintenance. They do not affect the general public. Consequently, 43 CFR Part 422 is being revoked and replaced by a Bureau directive, Reclamation Instructions, Series 350 General Instructions, Part 376 Environmental Quality—Preservation and Enhancement, Chapter II Identification and Administration of Cultural Resources. Copies are available from the Bureau of Reclamation, Office of Environmental Affairs, Engineering and Research Center, Denver, Colorado (303) 234-2050, and Office of Environmental Affairs, Washington, D.C. (202) 343-2840.

The Bureau is taking this action in response to the Department's commitment to eliminate unnecessary rules from the Code of Federal Regulations and consolidate internal policy and procedures into Reclamation Instructions.

The Department of the Interior has determined that this document is not a major rule under Executive Order 12291 and certifies that this document will not have a significant economic effect on a substantial number of small entities under the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601 et seq.). The proposed regulations were published in the Federal Register on June 29, 1983 (48 FR 29690), for a 30-day comment period. No comments were received. Therefore, except for minor editorial changes the final revocation is the same as that proposed on June 29, 1983. This rule does not contain information collection requirements which require approval by the Office of Management and Budget under 44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.

The primary authors of this document are Dr. Ward Weakly, Office of Environmental Affairs, Engineering and Research Center, Denver, Colorado (303) 234-2050, and Lois Thompson, Office of Environmental Affairs, Washington, D.C. (202) 343-2840.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

17 CFR Part 230

[Release No. 33-6495; File No. S7-999]

Confidential Treatment Under the Securities Act of 1933

AGENCY: Securities and Exchange Commission.

ACTION: Proposed rulemaking.

SUMMARY: The Commission is requesting public comment on a proposed amendment to Rule 406 under the Securities Act of 1933. The proposed amendment would adopt a system of confidential treatment under the Securities Act that is similar in scope and procedure to that under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The proposed revision is a further step in the integration of the disclosure requirements under the two Acts.

DATE: Comments must be received on or before December 29, 1983.

ADDRESS: Comments should be submitted in triplicate to George A. Fitzsimmons, Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 450 Fifth Street, NW., Washington, D.C. 20549. Comment letters should refer to File No. S7-999 and will be available for public inspection and copying in the Commission's Public Reference Room, 450 Fifth Street, NW., Washington, D.C. 20549.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Alan L. Dye (202) 272-2573, Office of Chief Counsel, Division of Corporation Finance, Securities and Exchange Commission, 450 Fifth Street, NW., Washington, D.C. 20549.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: As a further step in its continuing effort to integrate the disclosure system, the Commission is proposing to broaden the information eligible for confidential treatment in documents filed under the Securities Act of 1933. The Commission's proposal would permit confidential treatment of the same type of information that may be granted confidential treatment in an issuer's periodic reports.<sup>1</sup>

I. Background

Confidential treatment under the Securities Act currently is limited to portions of contracts required to be filed as exhibits to a registration statement.<sup>2</sup> The Commission's proposal would extend the availability of confidential treatment to the same filed information as may be granted confidential treatment in an issuer's periodic reports. Under the Exchange Act, the Commission, in its sole discretion, may grant confidential treatment to any information required to be filed with it pursuant to the Exchange Act to the extent consistent with the Freedom of Information Act (the "FOIA")<sup>3</sup> and investor protection.<sup>4</sup>

The difference in the scope of availability of confidential treatment under the Securities Act and the Exchange Act is inconsistent with the basic premise underlying the integration of the disclosure system under those statutes,<sup>5</sup> i.e., the same information is

<sup>2</sup> The current rule is predicated on paragraph 30 of Schedule A to the Securities Act, which generally requires the filing of all material contracts as exhibits to registration statements but allows non-disclosure of any portion of any contract if the Commission determines that disclosure of such portion would impair the value of the contract and would not be necessary for the protection of investors.

required for all issuers whether provided by a registration statement or periodic reports. An issuer filing on Form S-1 must present all of the information required by that form in the prospectus. On the other hand, an issuer eligible to use Form S-2 or S-3 presents certain required information through the delivery or incorporation of certain Exchange Act periodic filings. The difference in the scope of Rule 406 under the Securities Act and Rule 24b-2 under the Exchange Act can result in confidential treatment in the Form S-2 or S-3 registration statement of information that would not be eligible for confidential treatment in the Form S-1 registration statement and that would be part of the disclosure required of such issuer.

II. Proposed Revision to Rule 406

The proposed revision to Rule 406 parallels the provisions of Rule 24b-2 under the Exchange Act and is intended to make uniform the scope of, and procedures for obtaining, confidential treatment of information filed pursuant to the Securities Act and the Exchange Act. The proposed rule would be the exclusive vehicle for requesting confidential treatment of FOIA-exempt information required to be disclosed in registration statements and other required filings under the Securities Act.

Paragraph (a) of proposed Rule 406 provides that the rule will be applicable to any document required to be filed under the Securities Act. The confidential treatment of supplemental information or other information not required to be filed under the Securities Act is already covered by Rule 83.<sup>6</sup>

Paragraph (b) sets forth the procedure to be used in making the request for confidential treatment and specifies the items of information that an issuer should include in its application. These items are identical to those required under Rule 24b-2.

Paragraph (c) of proposed rule provides that the material for which confidential treatment is required will not be made available pending the Commission's processing of the request. Paragraph (d) sets forth the procedure to be used by the Commission if the application is granted.

Paragraphs (e) and (f) set forth the procedure to be followed in those instances where the Commission determines that confidential treatment will not be granted. Where confidential treatment is denied, proposed Rule 406 differs from Rule 24b-2 in one regard. Paragraph (e) of the proposed rule, similar to existing Rule 406(d), permits the registrant to withdraw the confidential material if the filing to which it relates is withdrawn pursuant to an applicable statute, rule or regulation.<sup>7</sup>

Paragraphs (g) through (i) of the proposed rule discuss the procedures to be followed where a prior grant of confidential treatment has been revoked. These procedures are identical to the procedures applicable under Rule 24b-2.

III. Standard To Be Applied in Granting Confidential Treatment

Under Rule 24b-2, the threshold criterion for confidential treatment is the availability of at least one of the nine FOIA exemptions.<sup>8</sup> Similarly, proposed Rule 406 requires the requestor of confidential treatment first to establish a FOIA exemption in order to invoke the Commission's discretionary authority to grant the request.<sup>9</sup> The applicability of a FOIA exemption, however, will not give rise to an automatic entitlement to confidential treatment. Rather, it is a basic condition for Commission consideration of the confidential treatment request.

Once the threshold test has been met, the Commission must determine whether confidential treatment for the information in question is consistent with the investor's statutory right to full and fair disclosure of all the information necessary for an informed investment decision. Thus, information shown to be exempt under the FOIA will be accorded confidential treatment under the proposed rule only if the Commission is satisfied that under the facts and circumstances of the particular <sup>6</sup> The Commission's rules under the Securities Act presently permit the withdrawal of registration statements, offering statements, and offering circulars. These filings may be withdrawn because the registrant may elect to cancel the proposed offering and thereby relieve itself of the legal obligation to disclose the confidential information. Such a procedure is not provided for in Rule 24b-2 because the information submitted under that rule, if found by the Commission not to warrant confidential treatment, must be disclosed pursuant to the issuer's reporting obligation under the Exchange Act.

<sup>8</sup> The Commission has delegated to the staff the authority to grant applications for confidential treatment under Rule 406, to issue orders scheduling hearings on such applications, and to deny any such application as to which the applicant waives its right to a hearing, provided the applicant is advised of its right to have the denial reviewed by the Commission. [17 CFR 200.30-1(a)(3)]. The staff has delegated authority to grant and deny applications under Rule 24b-2. [17 CFR 200.30-1(f)(3)(i)].

case, disclosure of the information is not necessary for the protection of investors.<sup>10</sup>

While the Commission frequently grants confidential treatment to limited portions of material contracts filed as exhibits to filings under the Securities Act and the Exchange Act, the Commission historically has been reluctant to grant confidential treatment to information required to be disclosed in public filings, and those requests have been granted only in limited situations. Most such requests have relied upon Exemption 4 under the FOIA, which covers "trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person and privileged or confidential."<sup>11</sup> The test for confidentiality under Exemption 4 upon which the Commission relies is as follows:

[C]ommercial or financial matter is "confidential" for purposes of the exemption if disclosure of the information is likely to have either of the following effects: (1) To impair the Government's ability to obtain necessary information in the future; or (2) to cause substantial harm to the competitive position of the person from whom the information was obtained.<sup>12</sup>

In those cases where an issuer has requested confidential treatment of information specifically required to be disclosed in a public filing, the Commission has found the request to meet the above specified test of confidentiality in limited situations.<sup>13</sup>

IV. Other Matters

The Commission believes that the proposed amendment to Rule 406 is <sup>10</sup> The test for confidential treatment differs from the test set forth in paragraph 30 of Schedule A that is currently applied to request under Rule 406. The Commission believes that such consistency is requisite to an integrated disclosure system.

<sup>13</sup> Issuers seldom argue that disclosure of purportedly confidential information would have an adverse impact on the Commission's ability to obtain the information, because the information is required to be disclosed publicly by all companies subject to the disclosure requirements of the Acts. In National Parks, the court specifically recognized that where disclosure is required, the element of adverse effect on obtaining the disclosure generally is not present. With respect to the second element of the confidentiality test, most have failed to sustain the burden of demonstrating both that they in fact will suffer harm and that the harm will be to competitive position. The exemption is intended to protect persons from the competitive harm that would result from the agency's disclosure to the public of information that other persons would not be required to disclose. Since information under consideration in the typical request is required of all companies subject to the disclosure requirements of the Acts, an issuer, except in unique situations, cannot generally sustain the burden of showing such harm.

The Commission adopted Rule 83 to provide a procedure whereby persons submitting to the Commission information not otherwise required to be filed publicly, may request that the information not be released in response to a FOIA request. necessary at this time to alleviate the inconsistent treatment of requests for confidential treatment under the Securities Act and the Exchange Act in order to more fully implement the integration of the disclosure system under those statutes. The Commission staff is engaged in a comprehensive review of all of its regulations relating to confidential treatment and the FOIA. At some later date, public comment will be requested on these broader issues, but at the current time, comment is sought only with respect to the proposed amendments to Rule 406.

V. Summary of Regulatory Flexibility Analysis

The Commission has prepared an Initial Regulatory Flexibility Analysis in accordance with 5 U.S.C. 603 regarding the proposed revision of Rule 406.

The analysis notes that the revision of Rule 406 is designed to make the standards for according confidential treatment under the Securities Act consistent with those applicable under the Exchange Act. At the present time, Rule 406 applies only to material contracts filed as exhibits to a registration statement and requires the requestor to establish that disclosure of confidential information would impair the value of the contract and would not be necessary for the protection of investors. Under the Exchange Act, on the other hand, confidential treatment of any information required to be filed under that Act may be granted, consistent with investor protection, upon a showing that an exemption under the Freedom of Information Act applies. The proposed revision of Rule 406 makes the applicable criteria uniform under both Acts and applies equally to large and small entities.

The Commission also stated that, for purposes of the analysis, the Commission was using the definition of small business adopted in Securities Act Release No. 6380 (March 8, 1982) [47 FR 5215]. That definition provides that when used in reference to the Securities Act, small business means any issuer whose total assets on the last day of its most recent fiscal year were $3 million or less. The proposed revised Rule 406 will apply equally to large and small entities, but the rule is applicable only to entities that file materials with the Commission in connection with an offering of securities. Preparation of an application for confidential treatment may require the skills of a professional familiar with the securities laws, but such services would be only a small part of the overall services being rendered by the professional in connection with the offering of securities. In any event, the proposed revised rule is not mandatory, and it does not require any recordkeeping or reporting.

VII. Text of Proposed Rule

PART 230—GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS, SECURITIES ACT OF 1933

1. By revising § 230.406, Rule 406, to read as follows:

§ 230.406 Non-Disclosure of Information Filed With the Commission.

Preliminary Note.—Confidential treatment of supplemental information or other information not required to be filed under the Act should be requested under § 200.83 of this chapter and not under this rule.

(a) Any person submitting any information in a document required to be filed under the Act may make written objection to its public disclosure by following the procedure in paragraph (b) of this section, which shall be the exclusive means of requesting confidential treatment of information included in any document (hereinafter referred to as the "material filed") required to be filed under the Act, except that if the material filed is a registration statement on Form S-8 (§ 239.16b of this chapter) or on Forms S-3, F-2 or F-3 (§ 239.13, 32 or 33 of this chapter) relating to a dividend or interest reinvestment plan, or if the material filed is a registration statement that does not contain a delaying amendment pursuant to Rule 473 (§ 230.473 of this chapter), the person shall comply with the procedure in paragraph (b) prior to the filing of the registration statement.

(b) The persons shall omit from the material filed the portion thereof which it desires to keep undisclosed (hereinafter called the "confidential portion"). In lieu thereof, the person shall indicate at the appropriate place in the material filed that the confidential portion has been so omitted and filed separately with the Commission. The person shall file with the material filed:

(1) As many copies of the confidential portion, each clearly marked "Confidential Treatment", as there are copies of the material filed with the Commission. Each copy shall contain an appropriate identification of the item or other requirement involved and, notwithstanding that the confidential portion does not constitute the whole of the answer or required disclosure, the entire answer or required disclosure, except that in the case where the confidential portion is part of a financial statement or schedule only the particular financial statement or schedule need be included. All copies of the confidential portion shall be in the same form as the remainder of the material filed;

(2) An application making objection to the disclosure of the confidential portion. Such application shall be on a sheet or sheets separate from the confidential portion, and shall contain: (i) An identification of the portion; (ii) a statement of the grounds of the objection referring to and analyzing the applicable exemption(s) from disclosure under § 200.80 of this chapter, the Commission's rule adopted under the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552), and a justification of the period of time for which confidential treatment is sought; (iii) a detailed explanation of why, based on the facts and circumstances of the particular case, disclosure of the information is unnecessary for the protection of investors; (iv) a written consent to the furnishing of the confidential portion to other government agencies, offices or bodies and to the Congress; and (v) the name, address and telephone number of the person to whom all notices and orders issued under this rule at any time should be directed.

(3) The copies of the confidential portion and the application filed in accordance with this paragraph (b) shall be enclosed in a separate envelope marked "Confidential Treatment" and addressed to the Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549.

(c) Pending a determination as to the objection, the material for which confidential treatment has been applied will not be made available to the public.

(d) If the Commission determines that the application shall be granted, an order to that effect will be entered, and a notation to that effect will be made at the appropriate place in the material filed. Such a determination will not preclude reconsideration whenever appropriate, such as upon receipt of any subsequent request under the Freedom of Information Act and, if appropriate, revocation of the confidential status of all or a portion of the information in question.

(e) If the Commission denies the application, confirmed telegraphic notice of the order of denial will be sent to the person named in the application pursuant to paragraph (b)(2)(v) of this section. In such case, if the material filed may be withdrawn pursuant to an applicable statute, rule, or regulation, the registrant shall have the right to withdraw the material filed in accordance with the terms of the applicable statute, rule, or regulation, but without the necessity of stating any grounds for the withdrawal or of obtaining the further assent of the Commission. In the event of such withdrawal, the confidential portion will be returned to the registrant. If the material filed may not be so withdrawn, the confidential portion will be made available for public inspection in the same manner as if confidential treatment had been revoked under paragraph (h) of this section.

(f) If a right of withdrawal pursuant to paragraph (e) of this section is not exercised, the confidential portion will be made available for public inspection as part of the material filed, and the registrant shall amend the material filed to include all information required to be set forth in regard to such confidential portion.

(g) In any case where a prior grant of confidential treatment has been revoked, the person named in the application pursuant to paragraph (b)(2)(v) of this section will be so informed by registered or certified mail. Pursuant to § 201.26 of this chapter, persons making objections to disclosure may petition the Commission for review of a determination by the Division revoking confidential treatment.

(h) Upon revocation of confidential treatment, the confidential portion shall be made available to the public at the time and according to the conditions specified in paragraphs (b) (1)-(2):

(1) Upon the lapse of five days after the dispatch of notice by registered or certified mail of a determination disallowing an objection, if prior to the lapse of such five days the person shall not have communicated to the Secretary of the Commission his intention to seek review by the Commission under § 201.26 of this chapter of the determination made by the Division; or

(2) If such a petition for review shall have been filed under § 201.26 of this chapter, upon final disposition adverse to the petitioner.

(i) If the confidential portion is made available to the public, one copy thereof shall be attached to each copy of the material filed with the Commission.

Authority: The Commission is proposing these amendments to Rule 406 under Sections 7, 10, and 19(a) of the Securities Act. (Secs. 7, 10, 19(a), 48 Stat. 78, 81, 85; secs. 205, 209, 48 Stat. 906, 908; sec. 8, 66 Stat. 685; sec. 308(a)(2), 90 Stat. 57; 15 U.S.C. 77g, 77j, 77s (a))

By the Commission.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Office of Surface Mining Reclamation and Enforcement

30 CFR Part 920

Maryland Permanent Regulatory Program; Review of State Program Amendments

AGENCY: Office of Surface Mining Reclamation and Enforcement (OSM), Interior.

ACTION: Reopening and extension of public comment period.

SUMMARY: OSM is reopening the period for review and comment on revised regulations submitted by the State of Maryland to amend its permanent regulatory program which was conditionally approved by the Secretary of the Interior under the Surface Mining Control and Reclamation Act of 1977 (SMCRA). The general areas of revision to the State's regulations include definitions, permit application requirements and regulatory authority review procedures and decision, coal exploration, permit review and transfer of permit rights, designation of areas unsuitable for mining, roads, performance bonds, hydrologic balance, sediment control measures, explosives, special performance standards, and backfilling and grading. Specifically, OSM is reopening the comment period to allow the public sufficient time to consider and comment on revisions submitted by Maryland on October 21, 1983, to its proposed regulations initially submitted on October 28, 1982, and minutes of a meeting held between OSM and the State on May 19, 1983. The meeting concerned preliminary findings made by OSM on the State's amendment as a result of review and public comments. Pursuant to the State's resubmission letter, the revised regulations reflect changes made to the proposed regulations as a result of the comments received from OSM.

DATE: Written comments not received on or before 4:00 p.m. on November 22, 1983 will not necessarily be considered.

ADDRESS: Written comments should be mailed or hand delivered to: Office of Surface Mining Reclamation and Enforcement, Charleston Field Office, Attention: Maryland Administrative Record, 603 Morris Street, Charleston, West Virginia 25301.

See "SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION" for addresses where copies of the Maryland program amendment and administrative record on the Maryland program are available. Each requestor may receive, free of charge, one single copy of the proposed program amendment by contacting the OSM Charleston Field Office listed above.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: David H. Halsey, Director, Charleston Field Office, Office of Surface Mining Reclamation and Enforcement, 603 Morris Street, Charleston, West Virginia 25301, Telephone: (304) 347-7158.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Copies of the Maryland program amendment, the Maryland program and the administrative record on the Maryland program are available for public review and copying at the OSM offices and the office of the State regulatory authority listed below, Monday through Friday, 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., excluding holidays:

Office of Surface Mining Reclamation and Enforcement, Charleston field Office, 603 Morris Street, Charleston, West Virginia 25301, Telephone: (304) 347-7158.

Office of Surface Mining Reclamation and Enforcement, 1100 L Street, NW., Room 5315, Washington, D.C. 20240, Telephone: (202) 343-7896

Maryland Bureau of Mines, 69 Hill Street, Frostburg, Maryland 21532, Telephone: (301) 689-4136.

In addition, copies of the amendment are available for inspection and copying during regular business hours at the following location: Office of Surface Mining Reclamation and Enforcement, Morgantown Area Office, 75 High Street, Room 229, Morgantown, West Virginia 26505, Telephone: (304) 291-4004.

The Maryland program was conditionally approved by the Secretary of the Interior of December 1, 1980 (45 FR 79430-79451). On February 18, 1982, following submission of program amendments to satisfy the conditions of approval, the Maryland program was fully approved by the Secretary (47 FR 7214-7217).

On October 28, 1982, the State submitted certain proposed regulations (Administrative Record No. MD 194) to replace those contained in its approved program. The general areas of revision to the State's regulations include definitions, permit application requirements and regulatory authority review procedures and decision, coal exploration, permit review and transfer of permit rights, designation of areas unsuitable for mining, roads, performance bonds, hydrologic balance, sediment control measures, explosives, special performance standards, and backfilling and grading. On November 16, 1982, OSM published a notice in the Federal Register to announce receipt of the amendments, public comment period and opportunity for public hearing (47 FR 51590). The public comment period closed on December 16, 1982. A public hearing scheduled for December 7, 1982, was not held because no one expressed an interest in participating. Following this opportunity for a public hearing and the public comment period, OSM met with the State on May 19, 1983, and presented to the State its tentative findings and possible deficiencies of the proposed regulations (Administrative Record No. MD 216). The regulations currently being considered were revised in accordance with the comments presented to the State. The revised regulations were marked by the State to indicate the exact changes between the current proposed amendment and the previous amendment to its regulations submitted on October 28, 1982.

In accordance with the provisions of 30 CFR 732.15, OSM is reopening the public comment period and is seeking comments on the substantive adequacy of the proposed regulations.

ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY

40 CFR Part 52

[AL-003; A-4-FRL 2465-5]

Approval and Promulgation of Implementation Plans, Alabama; Lead Implementation Plan

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency.

ACTION: Proposed rule.

SUMMARY: EPA is today proposing disapproval of the State Implementation Plan (SIP) for Lead submitted by the State of Alabama on March 24, 1982. This SIP does not provide for the attainment of the National Ambient Air Quality Standard (NAAQS) for lead throughout the State. Approval of this revision was proposed on October 22, 1982 (47 FR 47026), and no comments were received. However, subsequent review of the plan and the most recent monitoring data revealed that it was not adequate to achieve and maintain the ambient lead standard. The public is asked to comment on the proposed action.

DATES: To be considered, comments must reach us on or before December 7, 1983.

ADDRESS: Written comments should be addressed to Denise W. Pack of EPA Region IV's Air Management Branch (see EPA Region IV address below). Copies of the materials submitted by Alabama and a technical support document developed by EPA may be examined during normal business hours at the following locations:

Environmental Protection Agency,
Region IV, Air Management Branch,
345 Courtland Street, NE., Atlanta,
Georgia 30365
Division of Air Pollution Control,
Alabama Air Pollution Control
Commission, 645 South McDonough
Street, Montgomery, Alabama 36130

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Denise W. Pack at the EPA Region IV Air Management Branch or call 404/881-3286 (FTS 257-3286).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On October 5, 1978, National Ambient Air Quality Standards (NAAQS) for lead were promulgated by the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA). Under section 110(a)(1) of the Clean Air Act (the Act), a state is allowed nine (9) months after promulgation of NAAQS to submit a State Implementation Plan (SIP) which provides for implementation, maintenance, and enforcement of the primary and secondary NAAQS within the state.

On March 24, 1982, the Alabama Air Pollution Control Commission (AAPCC) now the Air Program of the Alabama Department of Environmental Management, submitted the Alabama lead SIP to EPA for approval. The major elements of the SIP include: a summary of measured air quality data from 1974 to present, a base-year emission inventory for stationary and mobile sources, control strategies showing reductions in lead emissions from stationary and mobile sources, schedules for installation of control equipment on certain stationary sources, calculations of projected ambient air lead concentrations in areas that have shown exceedances of the standard, and emission regulations for secondary lead smelters. Provisions for the review of new and modified sources of lead emissions are contained in Alabama's current new source review regulations.

As defined by EPA's October 5, 1978, Federal Register notice, there are three major lead emission sources in Alabama. An evaluation of air quality and modeling data revealed that control measures were needed for the areas around two secondary lead smelters. The State responded by developing control measures enforceable by a regulation adopted for secondary lead smelters. This regulation (Section 4.15 of the Alabama regulations) addresses and limits fugitive and process particulate emissions from cupolas, reverberatory furnaces, and alloying kettles. All affected facilities were required to be in compliance by no later than October 31, 1982.

Also, a statewide inventory of Alabama identified Jefferson County as an area with a potential for high lead concentrations. Current air quality and modeling data show that current levels in Jefferson County are below the standard and air quality should improve with the expected future reduction in mobile source lead emissions.

On October 22, 1982, EPA proposed approval of Alabama's Lead SIP. A subsequent review of the plan in conjunction with current available monitoring data revealed that the area surrounding the Saunders secondary lead smelting facility in Troy, Alabama was violating the NAAQS for lead. Since the control strategy contained in the SIP required that all controls be in place no later than October 31, 1982, data from the last quarter of 1982 should have shown an improvement in air quality. Alabama operates a lead monitoring system that complies with the requirements of 40 CFR 58, and it has been fully approved by EPA.

Also, the regulation adopted by Alabama to control emissions from secondary lead smelters does not include methods for determining compliance of the blast or reverberatory furnaces and the alloying kettle or pots that EPA considers enforceable. Emission rates are regulated by using the projected capture efficiencies of the control equipment. EPA has not approved a method for qualifying such efficiency ratings and recommends that Visible Emission Evaluations be employed.

Action: Based on the foregoing, EPA is today proposing to disapprove the SIP for lead submitted by the AAPCC. Comments on these rules are solicited.

Implications of Action: EPA recently reached agreement with the Natural Resources Defense Council (NRDC) and other plaintiffs who filed a citizens suit under Section 304(a) of the Clean Air Act; the suit, NRDC v. Ruckelshaus No. 82-2137 (D.D.C.), concerned the action EPA must take on lead implementation plans. Further information on the Settlement Agreement appears in the Federal Register of August 10, 1983 (48 FR 36250). The Settlement Agreement established specific deadlines for completion of SIP's for lead. This proposed disapproval of the Alabama lead SIP is consistent with that Settlement Agreement. Under the Agreement, EPA must, after entertaining public comment, publish final action on its proposed disapproval of the Alabama lead SIP by May 1, 1984. If EPA's final action is to disapprove the State submittal, the Agency must propose a Federal implementation plan (FIP) for Alabama by October 1, 1984. EPA and NRDC would then return to the District Court to seek an order setting an appropriate date for making the proposed FIP final.

The agreement provides for EPA to review State plan revisions (to correct deficiencies) that are submitted after an EPA proposed disapproval. If at any time a State covered by the Agreement, such as Alabama, that did not submit an acceptable plan in accordance with the timetable set forth in the Agreement submits an approvable revision to its lead SIP, EPA may propose approval of that plan revision in lieu of a Federal plan. EPA, however, must have taken final action on such a plan before the deadlines specified in the Agreement in order not to have to propose or promulgate a FIP for the State.

Also, if in the future a State covered by the Agreement submits an approvable plan after EPA has promulgated a FIP for that State, EPA may at that time withdraw its plan and simultaneously substitute the approved State plan.

Under 5 U.S.C. 605(b), the Administrator has certified that SIP approvals do not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. (See 46 FR 8709.)

Under Executive Order 12291, today's action is not "Major". It has been submitted to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for review. Any comments from OMB to EPA and any response are available for public inspection at the EPA Region IV Office (see address above).

Designation of Areas for Air Quality Planning Purposes; Attainment Status Designations in Arizona

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency (EPA).

ACTION: Notice of proposed rulemaking.

SUMMARY: This notice proposes to reduce the size of the Tucson, Arizona nonattainment area for carbon monoxide (CO) and to redesignate the Page, Arizona nonattainment area to attainment for total suspended particulate (TSP). This action responds to requests for redesignation by the Arizona Department of Health Services under paragraph 107(d)(5) of the Clean Air Act. EPA invites public comment on these proposed redesignations.

DATE: Comments will be considered if submitted on or before December 7, 1983.

ADDRESSES: Send any comments to: Regional Administrator, Environmental Protection Agency, Region 9, 215 Fremont Street, San Francisco, CA 94105 Attn: State Implementation Plan Section (A-2-3), Air Programs Branch, Air Management Division.

EPA's Technical Support Document concerning the proposed redesignations is available for public inspection during normal business hours at EPA's San Francisco office and at the following locations:

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On March 3, 1978 (43 FR 8970) EPA promulgated attainment status designations for all States as required by Section 107 of the Clean Air Act. EPA designated Pima County as nonattainment for CO and Coconino County as nonattainment for TSP. On August 15, 1978 the State requested that only a small portion of Pima County including the Tucson area be designated nonattainment for CO. The State also requested that Coconino County be designated to attainment for TSP except for a six square mile area containing the city of Page, which the State requested be designated unclassified for TSP.

In response to the August 15, 1978 State requests, EPA published two notices of final rulemaking. On March 19, 1979 (44 FR 16392) EPA redesignated the area requested by the State within Pima County to attainment, leaving only the Tucson Air Planning Area (TAPA) as nonattainment for CO. On April 10, 1979 (44 FR 21264) EPA redesignated the area requested by the State within Coconino County to attainment, leaving the Page area (requested by the State to be unclassified) as the only TSP nonattainment area in Coconino County.

On March 4, 1983 the State of Arizona submitted a redesignation request to EPA to further shrink the Tucson CO nonattainment area. The reduced nonattainment area would more closely approximate the Tucson urbanized area as defined by the U.S. Bureau of the Census for 1980.

On May 3, 1983 the State of Arizona requested that EPA redesignate the Page area to attainment for TSP. The redesignation request is based on ambient air quality data which shows no violations of the National Ambient Air Quality Standards since 1977.

Under paragraph 107(d)(5) of the Clean Air Act, a state may revise its attainment status designations and submit them to EPA for consideration and promulgation. In general, eight quarters of violation-free air quality data plus evidence of an EPA-approved control strategy are necessary in order for an area to be redesignated from nonattainment to attainment. However, EPA policy allows for an attainment designation when the only monitored violations were due to temporary emissions sources or infrequently occurring natural phenomena.

In addition, the area to be redesignated cannot contain a source or sources which contribute significantly to a place with measured or modeled violations.

For a more detailed description and evaluation of the redesignations proposed in this notice, please refer to the Technical Support Document.

Proposed Actions

EPA has reviewed the designations requested by the Arizona Department of Health Services and has determined that they should be approved. The reduction of the Tucson nonattainment area for CO from 2,200 square miles to 912 square miles is based on: (a) No historic measured or modeled violations in the area to be redesignated, (b) no sources in the proposed redesignation area which contribute significantly to the measured/modeled violations in the area which will remain nonattainment, and (c) the fact that the area to be redesignated is beyond the urbanized area of Tucson which remains designated nonattainment.

The redesignation of the Page nonattainment area for TSP to attainment is based on: (a) No measured violations since 1977 and (b) the belief that the violations recorded in 1976 and 1977 should not be considered since they appear to have been due to temporary construction activity and usually high winds.

The Administrator has certified (46 FR 87709) that this action will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. The Office of Management and Budget has exempted this action from the requirements of Section 3 of Executive Order 12291.

Authority: Sections 107(d) and 301(a) of the Clean Air Act as amended (42 U.S.C. 7407(d) and 7601(a)).

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Forest Service

Admiralty Island National Monument—Boundary Adjustment; Tongass National Forest, Chatham Area, Admiralty Island National Monument/Wilderness Juneau, Alaska; Intent To Prepare an Environmental Impact Statement

The Department of Agriculture, Forest Service will prepare an environmental impact statement on a proposal by Noranda Mining, Inc., for a boundary adjustment to the Admiralty Island National Monument under the authority of section 103(b) of Pub. L. 96-487, the Alaska National Interest Lands Conservation Act (ANILCA). The proposed boundary adjustment of the Admiralty Island National Monument would be minor under the expressed provisions of section 103(b) of ANILCA. Nonetheless, the Forest Service deems it desirable to prepare an environmental impact statement for this adjustment because of the controversy that has surrounded this and other management issues pertaining to Admiralty Island. This is most recently manifested in the lawsuits over the management of privately owned lands of Shee Atika, Inc., on Admiralty Island. In this overall context, an environmental statement will provide a mechanism for broad public comment on Federal actions which could affect the Monument.

The Noranda Mining, Inc. proposal states as its purpose the removal of the Greens Creek Project, Admiralty Island National Monument, from the time constraints identified in section 504 of Pub. L. 96-487 so that a planned mine can be developed in the most environmentally sound manner. Section 504 of Pub. L. 96-487 provides that all exploration work necessary to perfect eligible unperfected claims within the Admiralty and Misty Fiords National Monuments by completed on or before December 2, 1985. Noranda in its June 2, 1983, proposal states that compliance with the time requirements of section 504 of Pub. L. 96-487 will result in more significant adverse effects to the resources of the Admiralty Island National Monument than would other alternatives.

As a minimum, the alternatives which will be considered in the draft environmental impact statement will include:

1. No action.
2. Boundary adjustment alternatives under authority of section 103(b) of Pub. L. 96-487.
3. Land exchange alternatives under authority of section 1302 (h) and (i) of Pub. L. 96-487.
4. Administration recommendation to Congress for a legislative extension or waiver of the time constraints imposed by section 504 of Pub. L. 96-487.

Federal, State, and local agencies and other individuals or organizations who may be interested in or affected by the decision will be invited to participate in the scoping process. This process will include:

1. Identification of those issues to be addressed.
2. Identification of issues to be analyzed in depth.
3. Elimination of insignificant issues or those which have been covered by a previous environmental review.
4. Determination of potential cooperating agencies and assignment of responsibilities.

The Fish and Wildlife Service of the Department of the Interior will be invited to participate as a cooperating agency to evaluate potential impacts on threatened and endangered species habitat if any such species are found to exist in the project area. The State of Alaska will also be invited to participate as a cooperator to evaluate potential social and economic impacts and potential impacts to fish and wildlife including subsistence.

The Alaska Land Use Council, organized under authority of Title XII of Pub. L. 96-487 will be invited to review and comment on the draft environmental impact statement.

The Monument Manager will hold public meetings in her office at 8465 Old Dairy Road, Juneau, Alaska, from 1:30 p.m. until 4:30 p.m., Wednesday, November 9, 1983.

R. Max Peterson, Chief, Forest Service, Washington, D.C., is the responsible official.

The draft environmental impact statement is expected to be available for public review by December 1983.

Written comments and suggestions concerning the analysis should be sent to Helen Castillo, Monument Manager, Admiralty National Monument/Wilderness, P.O. Box 2097, Juneau, Alaska 99803.

Questions about the proposed action and environmental impact statement should be directed to Helen Castillo, Monument Manager, Admiralty National Monument/Wilderness, Juneau, Alaska, 99803, telephone 907/789-3111.

Notice of Decision; Pacific Crest National Scenic Trail Relocation Acton—Aqua Dulce Segment

A notice of my decision on the relocation of the Acton—Aqua Dulce Segment of the Pacific Crest National Scenic Trail was published in the Federal Register on December 10, 1981, 46 FR 60484. That notice included a legal description of the relocation of this segment which is located in the Angeles National Forest in Los Angeles County, California.

Subsequently, the relocation of the trail was appealed under the administrative review procedures at 36 CFR 211.19. As a result of that appeal I have reconsidered the relocation of the Acton—Aqua Dulce Segment of the Pacific Crest Trail. Based on further analysis and evaluation of the environmental assessment prepared on this segment of the Trail, I am now amending my original decision of December 1981 to permit minor changes in the Trail relocation.

The original relocation as described to 46 FR 60484 read as follows: Add the following described private lands.

4 North	13 West	8, 17.
5 North	13 West	31.
5 North	14 West	14, 23, 26, and 35.

The new relocation of this portion of Trail is as follows: Add the following described private lands.

4 North.....	13 West.....	7, 8
5 North.....	13 West.....	31
5 North.....	14 West.....	14, 23, 26, and 35.

This minor relocation was necessary to preserve the purposes for which the Trail was established. Full consideration was given to minimizing the adverse effects of the Trail on the affected landowners and their operations.

Copies of the environmental assessment prepared for this relocation, the decision notice, the detailed location description, and maps are available in the following Forest Service Offices:

Notice of Decision; Pacific Crest National Scenic Trail Relocation, Hauser Segment From Mexican Border to Cleveland National Forest

In accordance with Section 7(b) of the National Trails System Act (82 Stat. 919 as amended; 16 U.S.C. 1246), notice is hereby given of a minor relocation of the official route of the Pacific Crest National Scenic Trail in Southern California. The portion of trail being relocated extends from the Mexican Border near Campo, California, to the southern boundary of Cleveland National Forest, a distance of approximately 10 miles.

The original location of this Trail segment as described in the Federal Register of Tuesday, January 30, 1973, 38 FR 2838 reads as follows:

It goes through the Hauser Mountains, crosses State Highway 94 west of Bill Valley and ends at the Mexican border about 2½ miles east of Tecate, approximately ¼ mile east of Monument 243 on the Mexican border * * *

Township	Range	Section
18 South.....	4 East.....	15, 21, and 22.

The new location of this portion of the trail is as follows:

It ascends the south side of Hauser Canyon and passes along the east slope of Hauser Mountain, crossing State Highway 94 approximately ¼ mile west of Campo, and ends at the Mexican border about 1¼ miles south of Campo, approximately ¼ mile west of border Monument 239 * * *

SAN BERNARDINO MERIDIAN

Township	Range	Section
18 South.....	5 East.....	16, 17, and 22.

This route relocation was determined to be necessary to preserve the purposes for which the trail was established. Problems involving border security and trail user safety, as well as trail user conflicts with U.S. Border Patrol and U.S. Customs operations prompted the change. The new route alignment is located approximately 70% on public domain land administered by the Bureau of Land Management, 20% on lands owned by the County of San Diego, and 10% on private lands. In selecting the route, full consideration was given to minimizing the adverse effects of the trail on the affected landowners and their operations. The advice and assistance of the State of California, County of San Diego, private organizations, landowners, and land users was obtained. The Pacific Crest National Scenic Trail Advisory Council has formally concurred with the relocation.

Copies of the environmental assessment, prepared on this relocation, the decision notice, detailed location description and maps are available in the following Forest Service Offices:

Forest Supervisor, Cleveland National Forest, 880 Front Street, Room 6-5-5, San Diego, California 92188;

USDA, Forest Service, Recreation Management, Room 4252, 12th and Independence, SW., P.O. Box 2417, Washington, DC 20013; and

Regional Forester, Pacific Southwest Region, 630 Sansome Street, San Francisco, California 94111.

Implementation of this trail relocation may take place immediately. This decision is subject to administrative review pursuant to 36 CFR 211.19.

Notice of Decision; Pacific Crest National Scenic Trail Relocation, Klamath River Crossing Segment From Devil's Ridge to Grider Creek

In accordance with Section 7(b) of the National Trails Systems Act (82 Stat. 919 as amended; 16 U.S.C. 1246), notice is hereby given of a minor relocation of the official route of the Pacific Crest National Scenic Trail on the Klamath National Forest in Siskiyou County, California.

The original location for this portion of the Trail, as described in the Federal Register of Tuesday, January 30, 1973, 38 FR 2834, reads as follows:

The Trail follows Portuguese Creek to the Klamath River Highway, State Route 96.

The Trail crosses the Klamath river on a trail bridge at the mouth of Portuguese Creek and continues southeasterly across the face of Evans Mountain to West Grider and Grider Creek and then * * *

The new location of this portion of the Trail is as follows:

The Trail proceeds south down the ridge to the Klamath River Highway, State Route 96.

It follows easterly along State Highway 96, through the town of Seiad Valley, crossing the Klamath River on the State Highway Bridge. Thence southwesterly along County and Forest Service roads to Grider Creek and then * * *

This relocation is necessary because the terrain on the original location is unstable and subject to high reconstruction and maintenance costs. The bridge across the Klamath, which had previously been proposed, is not cost effective and has not had public support. Public safety and user utility were also important considerations in deciding to move the trail location. The relocation utilizes existing public right-of-ways and will not require any private land crossing.

Advice and assistance on this relocation has been obtained from the State and local governments, private organizations, landowners, and land users.

Copies of the environmental assessment prepared on this relocation, the decision notice, detailed relocation description and maps are available for review in the following Forest Service Offices:

Forest Supervisor, Klamath National Forest, 1312 Fairlane Road, Yreka, California 96097;

Regional Forester, Pacific Southwest Region, 630 Sansome Street, San Francisco, California 94111.

Implementation of this trail location may take place immediately. This decision is subject to administrative review pursuant to 36 CFR 211.19.

Rural Electrification Administration

Oglethorpe Power Corp.; Environmental Impact

AGENCY: Rural Electrification Administration, USDA.

ACTION: Notice of finding of no significant impact

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that the Rural Electrification Administration (REA), pursuant to the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969, the Council on Environmental Quality Regulations (40 CFR Part 1500), and REA Bulletin 20-21:320-21, Environmental Policies and Procedures, has made a Finding of No Significant Impact with respect to possible financing assistance for proposed construction by Oglethorpe Power Corporation (OPC) of approximately 6 miles of 230 kV double circuit transmission tap line from the Plant Branch-Bonaire Transmission line in Jones County, to the Gordon Substation, in Wilkinson County, all in Georgia.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: REA's Finding of No Significant Impact and Environmental Assessment (EA) and OPC's Borrower's Environmental Report (BER) may be reviewed in the Office of the Chief, Distribution and Transmission Engineering Branch, Southeast Area—Electric, Room 0262, South Agriculture Building, REA, Washington, D.C. 20250, telephone (202) 382-8436, or at the Office of OPC (Mr. F. F. Stacy, Jr., Manager), 2888 Woodcock Boulevard, Atlanta, Georgia 30341, telephone (404) 455-1121.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: REA has reviewed the BER and has determined that it represents an accurate assessment of the environmental impacts of the proposed project. REA determined that the proposed project is not likely to affect threatened or endangered species or critical habitat, and will have no effect on important forestland, wetlands, floodplains, or cultural resources. The proposed route will cross a small amount of prime farmland. Cultivation can continue in most of the right-of-way, except at the pole sites, and there will be minimal adverse effect to prime farmland. An alternative route was considered, however, this route would have crossed more prime farmland and some wetland.

In addition to alternative routes, alternative supply sources and "no action" were considered. REA determined that the proposed alternative is an acceptable way to provide long-term, reliable service to the Gordon area.

Based upon the BER and supporting documents, REA prepared an EA concerning the proposed project and its impacts. In accordance with REA Bulletin 20-21:320-21, dated January 21, 1980, OPC advertised and requested comments on the environmental aspects of the proposed project. No comments were received. REA concluded that approval of financing assistance for the project would not constitute a major Federal action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment. An environmental impact statement is not necessary.

This program is listed in the Catalogue of Federal Domestic Assistance as 10.850—Rural Electrification Loans and Loan Guarantees.

Dated: November 1, 1983.

Administrator.

Economic Advisory Board; Meeting

Pursuant to the provisions of section 10(a)(2) of the Federal Advisory Committee Act, as amended, 5 U.S.C. App. (1976), notice is hereby given that the meeting of the Department of Commerce Economic Advisory Board will be held on Tuesday, December 13, 1983, from 9:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. in Room 4830, Herbert C. Hoover Building, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, D.C. 20230.

The Board was established by the Secretary of Commerce on January 13, 1967. The purpose of the Board is to advise the Secretary of Commerce on economic policy issues. The intended agenda for this meeting is as follows:

- A review of the economic outlook by major sector.
- A discussion of the outlook for prices and employment and of strategies for sustaining noninflationary economic growth.

A limited number of seats will be available to the public on a first-come, first-served basis. Public participation will be limited to requests for clarification of items under discussion. Additional statements or inquiries may be submitted to the chair before or after the meeting. Copies of the minutes will be available on request 30 days after the meeting.

Additional information concerning this meeting may be obtained by contacting Ms. Virginia R. Marketti, Office of the Under Secretary for Economic Affairs, Room 4836, Department of Commerce, Washington, D.C. 20230; (202) 377-3523.

Steel Advisory Committee; Establishment

In accordance with the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act and the Interim Rules published in 48 F.R. 19324 (1983), and after consultation with GSA, it has been determined that the establishment of the Steel Advisory Committee is in the public interest.

The Committee will provide advice and make recommendations with respect to problems within the domestic steel industry which are affected by such international and domestic issues as trade laws and trade policy, U.S. antitrust laws, U.S. tax laws, employment, productivity and community issues, capital formation, investment and modernization, as each may affect that industry.

The Committee will consist of twenty-four members: eight representatives of management and eight representatives of organized labor fairly representative of the domestic steel production industry; eight representatives of the U.S. Government, including the Secretary of Commerce and the Secretary of Labor, who shall co-chair the Committee, and six members designated by the Secretaries of Commerce, Labor and Treasury, the Attorney General, the Chairman of the Council of Economic Advisers, and the United States Trade Representative, to be allocated equally between those offices and appointed jointly by the Secretary of Commerce and the Secretary of Labor; and other appropriate individuals appointed jointly by the Secretaries of Commerce and Labor if it is determined that additional members are necessary to the function of the Committee or to achieve a balanced membership.

The Committee will function solely as an advisory body and in compliance with the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act. The Secretaries of Commerce and Labor have requested and GSA has agreed to waive the fifteen (15) day public comment period preceding filing of the Committee charter by reason of the necessity for immediate Committee action. Interested persons, however, are invited to submit comments regarding the establishment of the Steel Advisory Committee. Such comments, as well as inquiries, may be addressed to Robert H. Brumley II, Special Assistant to the General Counsel, Office of the General Counsel, Room 5870, U.S. Department of Commerce, Washington, D.C. 20230, telephone: (202) 377-4772 or James A. Greene, N2428, Office of the Solicitor, U.S. Department of Labor, Washington, D.C. 20210, telephone: (202) 523-8157.

Signed in Washington, D.C., this 3rd day of November, 1983.

Dated: November 3, 1983.

Clear Sheet Glass From Italy; Final Results of Administrative Review of Antidumping Finding

AGENCY: International Trade Administration, Commerce.

ACTION: Notice of final results of administrative review of antidumping findings

SUMMARY: On July 25, 1983, the Department of Commerce published the preliminary results of its administrative review of the antidumping finding on clear sheet glass from Italy. The review covered the six known manufacturers and/or exporters of this merchandise to the United States and generally the period December 1, 1981 through November 30, 1982.

Interested parties were given an opportunity to submit oral or written comments on the preliminary results. We received no comments. Based on our analysis, the final results of review are unchanged from those presented in the preliminary results of review.

EFFECTIVE DATE: November 7, 1983.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Joseph A. Fargo or Robert J. Marenick, Office of Compliance, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, Washington, D.C. 20230, telephone (202) 377-5255.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On July 25, 1983, the Department of Commerce ("the Department") published in the Federal Register (48 FR 33728-9) the preliminary results of its last administrative review of the antidumping finding on clear sheet glass from Italy (36 FR 23360, December 9, 1971). The Department has now completed that review.

Scope of the Review

Imports covered by the review are shipments of clear sheet glass, currently classifiable under items 542.3120 through 542.4835 of the Tariff Schedules of the United States Annotated.

The review covers the six known manufacturers and/or exporters of Italian clear sheet glass to the United States and generally the period December 1, 1981 through November 30, 1982.

Final Results of the Review

Interested parties were invited to comment on the preliminary results. The Department received no comments or requests for a hearing. Based on our analysis, the final results of our review are the same as those presented in the preliminary results and we determine that the following margins exist:

Manufacturer/exporter	Time period	Margin (percent)
Societa Italiana Vetro	12/01/81-11/30/82	19.62
Vemante Pennitalia S.p.A.	12/01/81-11/30/82	44.56
Vetrenia Italiana Balzarotti-Modigliani	12/01/81-11/30/82	37.40
Vetrenia Milanese Lucchini	12/01/81-11/30/82	43.90
Vetrobel	12/01/81-11/30/82	59.80

The Department shall determine, and the U.S. Customs Service shall assess, dumping duties on all appropriate entries during the time period involved. The Department will issue appraisement instructions directly to the Customs Service.

Further, as provided for in § 353.48(b) of the Commerce Regulations, a cash deposit of estimated antidumping duties based on the above margins shall be required on all shipments of Italian clear sheet glass from these firms entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption on or after the date of publication of this notice. For future entries from a new exporter not covered in this or prior administrative reviews, whose first shipments occurred after November 30, 1982, and who is unrelated to any covered firm, no cash deposit shall be required. These deposit requirements shall remain in effect until publication of the final results of the next administrative review. The Department intends to begin immediately the next administrative review. The Department encourages interested parties to submit applications for protective orders, if desired, as early as possible after the Department's receipt of the information during the next administrative review.

This administrative review and notice are in accordance with section 751(a)(1) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1675(a)(1)) and § 353.53 of the Commerce Regulations (19 CFR 353.53).

Dated: October 28, 1983.

Instant Potato Granules From Canada; Final Results of Administrative Review of Antidumping Finding

AGENCY: International Trade Administration, Commerce.

ACTION: Notice of Final Results of Administrative Review of Antidumping Finding.

SUMMARY: On July 25, 1983, the Department of Commerce published the preliminary results of its administrative review of the antidumping finding on instant potato granules from Canada. The review covered the two known manufacturers and/or exporters of this merchandise to the United States currently covered by the finding and the period September 1, 1981 through August 31, 1982.

Interested parties were given an opportunity to submit oral or written comments on the preliminary results. We received no comments. Based on our analysis, the final results of review are unchanged from those presented in the preliminary results of review.

EFFECTIVE DATE: November 7, 1983.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Joseph A. Fargo or Robert J. Marenick, Office of Compliance, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, Washington, D.C. 20230; telephone: (202) 377-5255.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On July 25, 1983, the Department of Commerce ("the Department") published in the Federal Register (48 FR 33729-30) the preliminary results of its last administrative review of the antidumping finding on instant potato granules from Canada (37 FR 20175, September 27, 1972). The Department has now completed that administrative review.

Scope of the Review

Imports covered by the review are shipments of instant potato granules from Canada, currently classifiable under items 140.5000, 140.7000, and 141.8610 through 141.8630 of the Tariff Schedules of the United States Annotated.

The review covers the two known manufacturers and/or exporters of Canadian instant potato granules to the United States currently covered by the finding and the period September 1, 1981 through August 31, 1982.

Final Results of the Review

Interested parties were invited to comment on the preliminary results. The Department received no comments or requests for a hearing. Based on our analysis, the final results of our review are the same as those presented in the preliminary results of review and we determine that the following margins exist for the period September 1, 1981 through August 31, 1982:

Manufacturer/Exporter	Margin (per cent)
McCain Foods Limited	0.00
Vauxhall Foods Limited	0.39

The Department shall determine, and the U.S. Customs Service shall assess, dumping duties on all appropriate entries during the time period involved. The Department will issue appraisement instructions directly to the Customs Service.

Since the margin for Vauxhall is less than 0.5 percent and, therefore, de minimis for cash deposit purposes the Department waives the requirement for cash deposit of estimated antidumping duty as provided for in § 353.48(b) of the Commerce Regulations. No cash deposit of estimated antidumping duties shall be required on any shipment of Canadian instant potato granules entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption on or after the date of publication of this notice.

These deposit requirements and waiver shall remain in effect until publication of the final results of the next administrative review. The Department intends to begin immediately the next administrative review. The Department encourages interested parties to submit applications for protective orders, if desired, as early as possible after the Department's receipt of the information during the next administrative review.

This administrative review and notice are in accordance with section 751(a)(1) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C.

1675(a)(1) and § 353.53 of the Commerce Regulations (19 CFR 353.53).

Dated: October 28, 1983.

Certain Refrigeration Compressors
From the Republic of Singapore:
Suspension of Countervailing Duty
Investigation

AGENCY: International Trade Administration, Commerce.

ACTION: Notice of Suspension of Countervailing Duty Investigation.

SUMMARY: The Department of Commerce has decided to suspend the countervailing duty investigation involving certain refrigeration compressors from the Republic of Singapore. The basis for the suspension is an agreement to offset or eliminate completely all benefits provided by the government of the Republic of Singapore which we find to constitute bounties or grants on refrigeration compressors exported to the United States.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:
Melissa G. Skinner, Office of Investigations, or Laura Kneale, Office of Compliance, Import Administration, International Trade Administration,
U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue, N.W.,
Washington, D.C. 20230, telephone: (202)
377-3530 or (202) 377-1167

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Case History

On May 26, 1983, we received a petition in proper form from Tecumseh Products Company, a manufacturer of smaller hermetic refrigeration compressors, on behalf of the U.S. industry producing certain refrigeration compressors. The petitioner alleged that certain benefits which constitute bounties or grants within the meaning of section 303 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended ("the Act") are being provided, directly or indirectly, to the manufacturers, producers, or exporters in Singapore of certain refrigeration compressors.

Since Singapore is not a "country under the Agreement" within the meaning of section 701(b) of the Act, section 303 of the Act applies to this investigation. Because the product under investigation is dutiable, the domestic industry is not required to allege that,

and the U.S. International Trade Commission is not required to determine whether imports of this product cause or threaten to cause material injury to a U.S. industry. We found the petition to contain sufficient grounds upon which to initiate a countervailing duty investigation, and on June 13, 1983, we initiated a countervailing duty investigation (48 FR 28888).

On June 29, 1983, we presented a questionnaire concerning the allegations to the government of Singapore at the Department of Commerce in Washington, D.C. On August 8, 1983, we received the responses to the questionnaire.

On August 15, 1983, we received a brief from petitioner alleging that benefits flowing from the "utilization" of the Pioneer Program, discussed below, by a company under investigation have ramifications far beyond the period during which this company technically held pioneer status. Petitioner also alleged that the companies in Singapore which are producing and exporting refrigeration compressors are receiving private subsidies from their parent companies.

We issued an affirmative preliminary determination on August 29, 1983 (48 FR 39109). We preliminarily determined that there was reason to believe or suspect that certain benefits which constitute bounties or grants within the meaning of the Act are being provided to manufacturers, producers, or exporters in Singapore of certain refrigeration compressors. We preliminarily determined the net bounty or grant was 4.87 per ad valorem. The programs preliminarily determined to bestow countervailable benefits were the Economic Expansion Incentives Act, Part IV, and certain financing provided by the rediscount facility of the Singapore Monetary Authority.

We directed the U.S. Customs Service to suspend liquidation of all entries of the product under investigation which were entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption, and to require a cash deposit or the posting of a bond on this product in an amount equal to the estimated net bounties or grants.

Verification of the questionnaire responses from the government and both companies was conducted in Singapore during the week of September 11-17, 1983.

Our notice of preliminary determination gave interested parties an opportunity to submit oral and written views. We received no request for a public hearing. Both petitioners and respondents submitted comments subsequent to our preliminary determination.

On September 30, 1983, we initiated a proposed suspension agreement.
Petitioners have had 30 days in which to submit comments regarding the proposed suspension agreement. Their comments have been received and taken into consideration in this suspension of investigation.

On October 26 and 27, 1983, the Department obtained information relating to three additional programs.
Two of the new programs were under the Singapore Skills Development Fund, a Training Grant Scheme and an interest Grant for Mechanisation. The third was Public Utilities Board surtax exemption.
Since information regarding these programs was obtained at the last stage of this investigation, the Department was unable to verify such information.
For the purpose of this suspension, the best information available has been used in determining that these programs are countervailable.

Scope of Investigation

The product covered by this investigation is certain hermetic refrigeration compressors rated not over one-quarter horsepower. The merchandise is currently classifiable under item number 661.0900 of the *Tariff
Schedules of the United States
Annotated (TSUSA)*.

Two companies were identified by the government of Singapore as being manufacturers, producers, or exporters of the product under investigation. They are Matsushita Refrigeration Industries (Singapore) Pte. Ltd. ("MARIS"), producer, and Matsushita Electric Trading (Singapore) Pte. Ltd.
("METOS"), exporter.

The period for which we are measuring subsidization is calendar year 1982 or fiscal year 1982, as appropriate.

Changes Since the Preliminary Determination

We determine that the total bounty or grant applicable to the subject product is 5.86 percent ad valorem, in accordance with the changes cited below.

The Economic Expansion Incentives Act

In the preliminary determination we calculated a bounty or grant by allocating total tax savings over total exports. The tax savings were earned on a calendar year basis, but the export value was based on exports during a fiscal year beginning October 1981. The bounty or grant calculated for the purposes of the suspension agreement will be based on export statistics adjusted to coincide with the calendar year on which tax savings are based. In addition, due to an additional assessment for taxes from that time period, we have included additional tax savings in our calculation. The benefit from this program is 5.52 percent ad valorem.

Singapore Monetary Authority ("MAS")

In the preliminary determination we calculated a bounty or grant on the benefit obtained through the use of the rediscount facility operated by the MAS. During verification, we found that no loans are outstanding on exports of the product under investigation to the United States. Further, under the terms of the suspension agreement, MARIS and METOS have agreed not to apply for or receive any MAS financing with respect to future exports of the product under investigation to the United States.

New Programs

On October 26 and 27, 1983, respondents provided new information regarding grants MARIS received from two programs under the Skills Development Fund (a Training Grant Scheme and an Interest Grant for Mechanization) and from a Public Utilities Board surtax exemption. Respondents contended that these grants are not countervailable because they are "generally available." Due to its later receipt, we were unable to verify this information. Therefore, for purposes of the suspension agreement, we have presumed that these program are countervailable and have included them for purposes of calculating the export charge to be collected pursuant to the agreement. The aggregate benefit from these three grants is 0.34 percent ad valorem.

Petitioner's Comments

The Department has consulted with the petitioner and has received the following comments from it concerning the proposed suspension agreement. Our response is shown for each comment.

Comment 1

The proposed suspension agreement, initialed on September 30, 1983, was based on a renunciation of both benefits preliminarily determined to be countervailable. Petitioner objects to these provisions and urges that the suspension agreement would be more effective if the benefits were offset by an export tax, rather than renounced. Petitioner also suggests numerous technical amendments to the proposed agreement.

DOC Position

We have carefully considered petitioner's comments. In view of the three new grants which came to light late in the investigation, we have determined that an offset is the most effective way to neutralize the benefits received from these grants. Since an export charge is necessary to offset these benefits, the suspension agreement has been redrafted in such a way that the benefits accruing under the Economic Expansion Incentives Act, Part IV, are also offset by an export charge. Under the terms of the suspension agreement signed on October 31, 1983, the MAS financing on exports to the United States continues to be eliminated by means of a renunciation. We have also adopted many of the technical amendments suggested by petitioner.

Comment 2

The value to MARIS of the export subsidy it received as an "export enterprise" must be based on the verified data for MARIS's tax exempt profits and for MARIS's "overseas sales," not on information regarding METOS's sales.

DOC Position

The Department allocates export subsidies received over the export value of the product under investigation. Because the METOS value represents the export value, we have allocated the countervailable benefit over that figure.

Comment 3

Petitioner contends that the Pioneer Enterprise Program has been found in the past to be countervailable (the Treasury Department's preliminary determination in Certain Textiles and Textile Products from Singapore, 44 FR 2748 (June 10, 1979)) and that because this program has an immediate competitive benefit on the production of compressors produced during the period of investigation, it is not enough to simply conclude that the program was "not used" during the period of investigation. Instead, the Department should treat any benefits received in the past, under both the Pioneer and Export Enterprise Programs, as grants tied to capital equipment. Further, petitioner contends that benefits received as a result of Export Enterprise Status during the period of investigation, and each year thereafter, must be allocated to merchandise produced in the relevant year.

DOC Position

Treasury's preliminary determination in Certain Textiles and Textile Products from Singapore, did not find the Pioneer Program to be countervailable. Indeed, in the final determination in that proceeding, the Treasury Department stated:

Certain other programs were preliminarily determined not to constitute bounties or grants because they are not used by Singapore's textile and apparel industry, including an exemption from corporate income tax for companies designated as being part of a "pioneer" industry. . . . For the reasons explained in the notice of "Preliminary Countervailing Duty Determination," the conclusions reached in that determination remain unchanged (emphasis supplied).

44 FR 35335 (June 19, 1979). Therefore, there has been no prior determination of countervailability of this Pioneer Enterprise Program.

Regardless of the Treasury decision, the Department normally allocates tax benefits received in the period of investigation to that period. Tax incentives provide a benefit to the extent that they reduce the firm's current tax liability. As such, this is a benefit which is realized on an annual basis. Furthermore, although investment is a relevant factor in qualifying for Pioneer status, the amount of benefit is not directly tied to, or proportionate to the level of investment.

Comment 4

MARIS's tax savings are increased by payment of excessive technical assistance fees, which are a specified supplement to export enterprise benefits and a countervailable subsidy. The Department should conclude that no subsidy is being provided only if it is satisfied that the technical assistance services provided are paid for on an arms-length basis.

DOC Position

The Department has determined that the fees paid do not appear to be excessive. Petitioners will have the opportunity, during an administrative review of the suspension agreement or if the investigation is continued, to present further evidence that these technical assistance fees are excessive.

Comment 5

The Department should consider that the Skills Development Fund Loan, which petitioner contends is probably at less than commercial rates and is likely tied to a grant under either the Training Grant Scheme the Interest Grant for Mechanisation Scheme, or the Development Consultancy Scheme, constitutes an additional countervailable subsidy.

DOC Position

We have no verified information regarding these benefits. Based on the information presently available, however, we have included these benefits in the export charge offset provision of the suspension agreement.

Comment 6

The payment of taxes during tax year 1982, in installments, when they would normally be paid in full upon receipt of notices of assessment constitutes a countervailable benefit in the amount of interest earnings lost by the government due to the granting of installment payments.

DOC Position

Based on information currently available, it appears that such installment payments are consistent with normal practice. More complete information in this regard will be obtained during the first administrative review of this agreement or prior to reaching a final determination, if a continuation is requested. If we conclude at that time that such a payment practice constitutes a countervailable benefit, the value of such benefit will be added to the export charge collected under the suspension agreement.

Comment 7

Benefits derived from MARIS's use of pre-export financing obtained through the use of the MAS facility should be deemed countervailable and incorporated in the final calculation of net subsidy.

DOC Position

As noted in the verification report for MARIS, the interest payments for pre-export financing were made during 1981. As such, the benefit (if any) would be applicable to 1981. There was no evidence of usage by MARIS of the MAS facility, for pre-export or export financing, for the period under investigation. Such benefits on future exports of the merchandise under investigation to the United States are renounced under the suspension agreement.

Comment 8

Petitioners contend that (1) funds received by METOS from its parent company and (2) earnings retained by MARIS for investment in plant and equipment (rather than distributed as dividends to its parents) constitute

"intra company grants" or private subsidies that should be countervailed.

DOC Position

On verification it was learned that funds METOS received from its parent and related companies were for intracorporate purchases of merchandise and, as such, do not constitute countervailable "intra company grants." With regard to petitioner's concern about MARIS's practice of retaining earnings, we conclude that such practices are legitimate business decisions and are not private subsidies.

Respondents' Comments

Comment 1

Respondents contend that benefits from the Skills Development Fund and the Public Utility Board surtax exemption are not countervailable because they are "generally available."

DOC Position

We have no verified information that supports respondents' contention. Accordingly, we have presumed that these benefits are countervailable and have included them in the export charge required by the suspension agreement in order to offset completely the bounties or grants provided by the government of Singapore with respect to the merchandise under investigation.

Comment 2

Respondents urge that in the event that the benefits from the Skills Development Fund and the Public Utility Board surtax exemption are ultimately found to be not countervailable, either during the continuation of this investigation (if such a continuation is requested) or during an administrative review of the suspension agreement, that respondents should be entitled to either a refund or credit of export charges collected to offset these benefits.

DOC Position

If, in a final determination or administrative review, we subsequently determine that such benefits are not countervailable, the suspension agreement would allow for an adjustment to the export charge to take such a determination into account for the time period covered by that determination.

Suspension of Investigation

The Department has consulted with the petitioners and has considered the comments submitted with respect to the proposed suspension agreement. We have determined that the agreement will eliminate or offset completely the net bounty or grant with respect to the subject merchandise exported directly or indirectly to the United States, that the agreement can be monitored effectively, and that the agreement is in the public interest. Therefore, we find that the criteria for suspension of an investigation pursuant to section 704 of the Act have been met. The terms and conditions of the agreement, signed October 31, 1983, are set forth in Annex I to this notice.

Pursuant to section 704(f)(2)(A) of the Act, the suspension of liquidation of all entries, entered or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption of certain refrigeration compressors from Singapore effective August 29, 1983, as directed in our notice of "Preliminary Affirmative Countervailing Duty Determination; Certain Refrigeration Compressors from the Republic of Singapore," 48 FR 39109, is hereby terminated. Any cash deposits on entries of refrigeration compressors from Singapore pursuant to that suspension of liquidation shall be refunded and any bonds shall be released.

The Department intends to conduct an administrative review within 12 months of the anniversary date of publication of this suspension of investigation pursuant to section 751 of the Act.

Notwithstanding the suspension agreement, the Department will continue the investigation if we receive such a request in accordance with section 704(g) of the Act within 20 days after the date of publication of this notice.

This notice is published pursuant to section 704(f)(1)(A) of the Act.

October 31, 1983.

Alan F. Holmer,

Deputy Assistant Secretary for Import Administration.

Annex I—Suspension Agreement

Certain Refrigeration Compressors From the Republic of Singapore

Pursuant to the provisions of section 704 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, (the "Act"), and § 355.31 of the Commerce Regulations the United States Department of Commerce (the "Department"), the Government of the Republic of Singapore, Matsushita Refrigeration Industries (Singapore) Pte. Ltd. ("MARIS"), and Matsushita Electric Trading (Singapore) Pte. Ltd. ("METOS") enter into the following suspension agreement (the "Agreement") on the basis of which the Department shall suspend its countervailing duty investigation initiated on June 13, 1983 (48 Fed. Reg.

28888) with respect to certain refrigeration compressors from the Republic of Singapore. The Agreement shall be in accordance with the terms and provisions set forth below.

A. Scope of the Agreement

The Agreement applies to hermetic refrigeration compressors rated not over one-quarter horsepower, and exported, directly or indirectly, from the Republic of Singapore to the United States, currently classifiable in item 661.0900 to the Tariff Schedules of the United States Annotated (hereinafter referred to as the "subject product").

B. Basis of the Agreement

1. MARIS is a manufacturer of the subject product, accounting for more than 85 percent of the total production of the subject product in the Republic of Singapore. METOS is an exporter of the subject product, accounting for more than 85 percent of the total exports of the subject product from the Republic of Singapore.

2. The Government of the Republic of Singapore hereby agrees to offset completely the amount of the net bounty or grant determined by the Department in this proceeding to exist with respect to the subject product. The offset shall be accomplished by the collection of an export charge by the Government of the Republic of Singapore applicable to the subject product exported on or after the effective date of the Agreement. The export charge on each subject product shall be collected at the time the exporter submits its Outward Declaration to the Import and Export Office of the Singapore Government's Trade Development Board, and shall not be deferred. The export charge shall offset completely any benefits found to exist with respect to the following programs:

a. The income tax exemption on export earnings provided for in Part IV of the Economic Expansion Incentives (Relief from Income Tax) Act, Chapter 135 of the Revised Edition, Acts of Singapore;

b. Benefits provided under the Skills Development Fund (Training Grant Scheme and Interest Grants for Mechanisation);

c. The Public Utilities Board surtax exemption; and

d. Any other program subsequently determined by the Department in an administrative review of this Agreement under section 751 of the Act to constitute countervailable bounties or grants under the Act to the subject product.

3. The Department shall officially notify the Government of the Republic of Singapore, in writing, of any determination made with respect to paragraph B.2.

4. The export charge shall be composed of a provisional export charge and, if needed, annual adjustments. The export charge shall be calculated as follows:

a. The rate of provisional export charge shall be equal to the most recent rate of bounty or grant under the programs referred to in paragraph B.2, determined by the Department in this proceeding to exist with respect to exports of the subject product.

b. The annual adjustment for each shipment shall be calculated as follows:

1. (a) The amount of benefit found by the Department to exist on that shipment during the course of administrative reviews on this Agreement under section 751 of the Act, minus

(b) The amount of provisional export charge paid on that shipment, plus

2. Interest on that amount, calculated in accordance with section 778(b) of the Act, with "the date on which the rate or amount of the duty is finally determined" being deemed to be the date on which the Department notifies the Government of the Republic of Singapore of its determination in this proceeding.

c. If the annual adjustment is positive, the Government of the Republic of Singapore shall collect that amount within 30 days of notification by the Department of its determination. If the annual adjustment is negative, the Government of Singapore may refund or credit that amount.

5. Neither MARIS nor METOS will apply for or receive any financing provided by the rediscount facility of the Monetary Authority of Singapore with respect to shipments of the subject product exported and entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption in the United States on or after the effective date of this Agreement. Prior to the effective date of this Agreement, MARIS and METOS agree to repay, or refinance at market rates, any outstanding loans provided under this program.

6. Neither MARIS nor METOS will apply for or receive benefits under any other program subsequently determined by the Department in an administrative review of this Agreement under section 751 of the Act to constitute countervailable bounties or grants under the Act to the subject product. If any program under which benefits have been received in the past but eliminated or offset in this Agreement is ultimately found not to constitute a bounty or grant under the Act in an administrative review of this Agreement under section 751 of the Act, then this Agreement will not longer apply to such program.

7. Neither the execution of this Agreement nor the elimination or offset of benefits specified herein constitutes an admission by the Government of the Republic of Singapore, MARIS, or METOS that such benefits are bounties or grants within the meaning of the U.S. countervailing duty law. The Government of the Republic of Singapore, MARIS, and METOS execute this Agreement solely for the purpose of suspending this investigation.

C. Monitoring of the Agreement

1. The Government of the Republic of Singapore, MARIS, and METOS agree to supply to the Department any information and documentation the Department deems necessary to demonstrate that they are in full compliance with the Agreement. The Government of the Republic of Singapore, MARIS, and METOS agree to permit such data collection and verification as the Department deems necessary in order to monitor this Agreement. The Department will request information and may perform verifications periodically pursuant to administrative reviews conducted under section 751 of the Act.

2. The Government of the Republic of Singapore shall certify to the Department within 15 days after the last day of each three-month period beginning on October 1, 1983 whether:

a. It continues to be in compliance with the Agreement by offsetting completely the net subsidy referred to paragraph B.2; and

b. MARIS and METOS continue to be in compliance with the Agreement by renouncing completely the financing referred to in paragraph B.5.

The first certification shall include the period from the effective date of this Agreement through December 31, 1983.

3. The Government of the Republic of Singapore agrees to notify the Department in writing within 30 days prior to granting any new benefits to producers, manufacturers or exporters of the subject product which may be countervailable.

4. The Government of the Republic of Singapore shall notify the Department in writing within 30 days with appropriate documentation of any changes in the amount of available benefits as described in paragraph B.2 of this agreement to the subject product or if it decides to alter or terminate its obligation with respect to any of the terms of this Agreement.

5. MARIS or METOS will notify the Department in writing if they: (1) Transship hermetic refrigeration compressors rated not over one-quarter horsepower to the United States through third countries; (2) alter their position with respect to any terms of this Agreement; (3) apply for or receive directly or indirectly the benefits of the programs described in paragraph B.2 of this Agreement for the manufacture production or exportation of the subject product; or (4) apply for or receive directly or indirectly any new benefits on the subject product.

6. In accordance with the procedure during the investigation, MARIS, METOS, and the Government of the Republic of Singapore agree to continue to provide the petitioner with non-confidential summaries of all submissions required to be provided to the Department under the terms of this Agreement at the time such submissions are provided to the Department.

D. Violation or Termination of the Agreement

1. If the Government of the Republic of Singapore withdraws from this Agreement, or if the Department determines that the Agreement is being or has been violated or no longer meets the requirements of section 704(b) or (d) of the Act, then section 704(i) shall apply.

2. Additionally should METOS annual exports to the United States account for less than 85% of the subject product imported into the United States from the Republic of Singapore, directly or indirectly the Department may terminate this Agreement and reopen the investigation or issue a countervailing duty order as appropriate under § 355.32 of the Commerce Regulations. If reopened, the investigation will be resumed for all exporters of the subject product as if the affirmative preliminary determination was made on the date that the Department terminates this Agreement.

E. Effective Date

The effective date of the Agreement is the date of publication in the Federal Register.

Signed on this 31st day of October 1983 for the Government of the Republic of Singapore.
Jack Choo.

Signed on this 31st day of October 1983 for MARIS and METOS.
A. Paul Victor.

I have determined pursuant to section 704(b) of the Act that the provisions of paragraph B completely eliminate or offset the subsidies that the Government of the Republic of Singapore is providing with respect to certain refrigeration compressors exported directly or indirectly from the Republic of Singapore to the United States. Furthermore, I have determined that suspension of the investigation is in the public interest that the provisions of paragraph C ensure that this Agreement can be monitored effectively and that the Agreement meets the requirements of section 704(d) of the Act.

United States Department of Commerce.

COMMITTEE FOR THE IMPLEMENTATION OF TEXTILE AGREEMENTS

Soliciting Public Comment on Bilateral Textile Consultations With the Government of the Federative Republic of Brazil to Include a Review of Trade in Category 604 and Controlling Imports in That Category

November 2, 1983.

(1) Soliciting public comment on bilateral textile consultations with the Government of the Federative Republic of Brazil concerning trade in Category 604 and

(2) Controlling imports of other man-made fiber yarn, wholly of non-continuous filament, in Category 604, produced or manufactured in Brazil and exported during the ninety-day period which began on November 1, 1983 and extends through January 29, 1984.

A description of the textile categories in terms of T.S.U.S.A. numbers was published in the Federal Register on December 13, 1982 (47 FR 55709), as amended on April 7, 1983 (48 FR 15175) and May 3, 1983 (48 FR 19924).

Summary: On October 31, 1983, under the terms of the Bilateral Cotton and Man-Made Fiber Textile Agreement of March 31, 1982 between the governments of the United States and the Federative Republic of Brazil, the Government of the United States requested consultations concerning imports into the United States of man-made fiber yarn in Category 604, produced or manufactured in Brazil.

Anyone wishing to comment or provide data or information regarding the treatment of Category 604 under the agreement with Brazil, or on any other aspect thereof, or to comment on domestic production or availability of textile products included in the category, is invited to submit such comments or information in ten copies to Mr. Walter C. Lenahan, Chairman, Committee for the Implementation of Textile Agreements, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, Washington, D.C. 20230. Because the exact timing of the consultation is not yet certain, comments should be submitted promptly.

Comments or information submitted in response to this notice will be available for public inspection in the Office of Textiles and Apparel, Room 3100, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th and Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, D.C., and may be obtained upon written request.

Further comment may be invited regarding particular comments or information received from the public which the Committee for the Implementation of Textile Agreements considers appropriate for further consideration.

The solicitation of comments regarding any aspect of the agreement or the implementation thereof is not a waiver in any respect of the exemption contained in 5 U.S.C. 533(a)(1) relating to matters which constitute "a foreign affairs function of the United States."

Under the consultation provision of the bilateral agreement, Brazil is obligated to limit its exports to the United States of these products during the ninety-day period to the following amount:

Category	Ninety-day level of restraint (November 1, 1983-January 29, 1984)
604	96,749 pounds

If no mutually satisfactory solution is reached during consultations, the United States may establish a specific limit of 56,391 pounds for the period beginning on January 30, 1984 and extending through the end of the agreement year on March 31, 1984. The new limit may be adjusted for prorated seven percent swing and full six percent carry forward.

The United States Government has decided, pending a mutually satisfactory solution, to control imports of man-made fiber textile products in Category 604 for the ninety-day period at the level described above. The United States remains committed to finding a solution concerning this category. Should such a solution be reached in consultations with the Government of the Federative Republic of Brazil, further notice will be published in the Federal Register.

In the event the limit established for Category 604 for the ninety-day period is exceeded, such excess amount, if allowed to enter, may be charged to the level established for the following period beginning on January 30, 1984.

EFFECTIVE DATE: November 8, 1983.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Diana Bass, International Trade Specialist, Office of Textiles and Apparel, U.S. Department of Commerce, Washington, D.C. (202/377-4212).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

On March 16, 1983 a letter was published in the Federal Register (48 FR 11143) to the Commissioner of Customs from the Chairman of the Committee for the Implementation of Textile Agreements which established levels of restraint for certain categories of cotton and man-made fiber textile products, produced or manufactured in Brazil and exported during the twelve-month period which began on April 1, 1983. The notice document which preceded that letter referred to the consultation mechanism which applies to categories of textile products under the bilateral agreement, such as Category 604, which are not subject to specific ceilings and for which levels may be established during the year. In the letter published below, pursuant to the bilateral agreement, the Chairman of the Committee for the Implementation of Textile Agreements is directing the Commissioner of Customs, pending agreement on a different solution, to prohibit entry into the United States for consumption, or withdrawal from warehouse for consumption, of man-made fiber textile products in Category 604, produced or manufactured in Brazil and exported during the indicated ninety-day period, in excess of 96,749 pounds.

Walter C. Lenahan,

Chairman, Committee for the Implementation of Textile Agreements.

Committee for the Implementation of Textile Agreements

Commissioner of Customs,
Department of the Treasury, Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Commissioner: Under the terms of Section 204 of the Agricultural Act of 1956, as amended (7 U.S.C. 1854), and the Arrangement Regarding International Trade in Textiles done at Geneva on December 20, 1973, as extended on December 15, 1977 and December 22, 1981; pursuant to the Bilateral Cotton and Man-made Fiber Textile Agreement of March 31, 1982, between the Governments of the United States and the Federative Republic of Brazil; and in accordance with the provisions of Executive Order 11651 of March 3, 1972, as amended by Executive Order 11951 of January 6, 1977, you are directed to prohibit, effective on November 8, 1983, entry into the United States for consumption and withdrawal from warehouse for consumption of man-made fiber textile products in Category 604, produced or manufactured in the Federative Republic of Brazil, and exported during the ninety-day period which began on November 1, 1983 and extends through January 29, 1984, in excess of 96,749 pounds.<sup>1</sup>

Textile products in Category 604 which have been exported to the United States prior to November 1, 1983 shall not be subject to this directive.

Textile products in Category 604 which have been released from the custody of the U.S. Customs Service under the provisions of 19 U.S.C. 1448(b) or 14849(a)(1)(A) prior to the effective date of this directive shall not be denied entry under this directive.

A description of the textile categories in terms of T.S.U.S.A. numbers was published in the Federal Register on December 13, 1982 (47 FR 55709), as amended on April 7, 1983 (48 FR 15175) and May 3, 1983 (48 FR 19924).

In carrying out the above directions, the commissioner of Customs should construe entry into the United States for consumption to include entry for consumption into the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

The action taken with respect to the Government of the Federative Republic of Brazil and with respect to imports of man-made fiber textile products from Brazil has been determined by the Committee for the Implementation of Textile Agreements to involve foreign affairs functions of the United States. Therefore, these directions to the Commissioner of Customs, which are necessary for the implementation of such actions, fall within the foreign affairs exception to the rule-making provisions of 5 U.S.C. 533. This letter will be published in the Federal Register.

Sincerely,

Walter C. Lenahan,

DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY

Health and Environmental Research Advisory Committee; Determination to Establish

Pursuant to the Federal Advisory Committee Act (Pub. L. 92-463), I hereby certify that the establishment of the Health and Environmental Research Advisory Committee is in the public interest in connection with the performance of duties imposed on the Department of Energy by law. This determination follows consultation with the Committee Management Secretariat of the General Services Administration, pursuant to 41 CFR Subpart 101-6.10.

The purpose of the committee is to provide advice on a continuing basis to the Secretary of Energy, through the Director of Energy Research, on the Health and Environmental Research (HER) program, including:

a. Periodic reviews of elements of the program and recommendations based thereon;

b. Advice on long-range plans, priorities, and strategies to address more effectively the energy-related health and environmental issues of departmental policies and programs;

c. Advice on recommended appropriate levels of funding to develop those strategies and to help maintain appropriate balance between competing elements of the HER program;

d. Advice on any issues relating to the HER program, as requested by the Secretary or the Director of Energy Research.

Further information concerning this committee can be obtained from Gloria Decker (202-252-8990).

ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY

[OPRM-FRL 2464-6]

Agency Information Collection Activities Under OMB Review

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Section 3507(a)(2)(B) of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1980 (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.) requires the Agency to publish in the Federal Register a notice of proposed information collection requests that have been forwarded to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for review. The information collection requests listed are available to the public for review and comment.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: David Bowers; Office of Standards and Regulations; Information Management Section (PM-223); U.S. Environmental Protection Agency; 401 M Street, SW., Washington, D.C. 20460; telephone (202) 382-2742 or FTS 382-2742.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Water Programs

National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System (NPDES)

The permit authority in each of the following cases is EPA or the designated State agency, except as noted. With the exception of #0017, respondents are businesses, publicly-owned treatment works and other institutions discharging wastewater.

• Title: Application for Thermal Effluent Variance (EPA #0015).

Abstract: A permittee may file a request for variance from thermal effluent limitations by demonstrating that NPDES limits are more stringent than necessary to ensure the protection and propagation of a balanced, indigenous population of fish and wildlife in the receiving waters. The permit authority evaluates the request to determine if the variance should be granted.

• Title: Application for Innovative Pollution Control Technology Variance (EPA #0016).

Abstract: NPDES standards allow permittees using innovative technology (that results in greater effluent reduction or lower cost than the standard) to apply to EPA for an extension in complying with the effluent limitation deadline. In determining whether to grant an extension, the Agency assesses the adequacy of the technology to achieve these goals.

• Title: Application for Nonconventional Pollutant Waiver (EPA #0017).

Abstract: A permittee may request a waiver from nonconventional pollutant standards by submitting technical data on the effluent and receiving waters. The permit authority may grant the waiver if it determines that water quality is maintained and that a balanced population of fish and wildlife is protected.

Respondents: Businesses.

• Title: Permittee Notice of Regulated Discharge Cessation (EPA #0021).

Abstract: When a permittee decides to terminate a regulated discharge, the discharger must provide the permit authority with a legally binding notice of intent so that the authority can modify permit conditions accordingly.

• Title: Wastewater Permittee Report of Inaccurate Previous Information (EPA #0022).

Abstract: Permittees must correct inaccurate information submitted in a permit application or report. Reporting corrected information to the permit authority ensures that the authority has accurate data upon which to base permit conditions, enforcement actions and other compliance activities.

Air Programs

• Title: Notice of Intent to Certify (EPA #0116).

Abstract: At least 45 days prior to the initial offer for sale, respondents notify the Agency of their intent to market a warranted motor vehicle part as "certified to EPA standards". This 45-day period allows vehicle manufacturers and other interested parties time to review each notice and to file an objection if appropriate.

Respondents: Manufacturers.

Agency PRA Clearance Requests Completed By OMB

(Except as noted, the following ICRs were cleared on October 20)

[Docket No. WH-FR 2451-5]

State and Local Assistance; Grants for Construction of Treatment Works

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency (EPA).

ACTION: Notice of allotment: Fiscal year 1984.

SUMMARY: This notice sets forth the allotments to the States of the $2.4 billion appropriated on July 12, 1983, by Pub. L. 98-45 for the municipal wastewater treatment works construction grants program.

Section 205(c)(2) of the Clean Water Act (the Act) provides that sums authorized to be appropriated for Fiscal Year 1984 be allotted to the States in accordance with the table added to that section by Pub. L. 97-117.

Through promulgation of this notice, the requirements of the Act are fulfilled and the public is notified of the amounts made available to the States for grants for the construction of municipal wastewater treatment works.

DATE: November 7, 1983.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mr. Albert Pelmoter, Chief, Program Policy Branch, Municipal Construction Division, Office of Water Program Operations (202) 382-7359.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Pub. L. 98-45 appropriated $2.43 billion to fund the construction grants program in fiscal year 1984. Of this amount, $2.4 billion was appropriated for allotment to the States under section 205 of the Clean Water Act (the Act), and $30 million was appropriated for combined sewer overflow correction under section 201(n)(2) of the Act.

As required by section 205(c)(2) of the Act, funds appropriated for Fiscal Year 1984 are hereby allotted on the basis of the percentages listed in the table added to section 205(c)(2) by Pub. L. 97-117. The percentages were applied to $2.4 billion of the appropriation to determine the actual dollar amount allotted to each State.

The table of allotments reflects a revised formula first used in Fiscal Year 1983 and conforms to section 205(e) of the Act, which requires that no State shall receive less than one half of one percent of a total allotment. The table appears at the end of this notice.

Pub. L. 98-45 also contains an allocation of $30 million to address pollution caused by discharges from combined (storm and sanitary) sewers. This amount may be used as deemed appropriate by the Administrator, as provided in section 201(n)(2) of the Act.

The $2.4 billion is allotted as follows:

Bank Holding Companies; Proposed de Novo Nonbank Activities; Community Bancorporation, Inc., et al.

The organizations identified in this notice have applied, pursuant to section 4(c)(8) of the Bank Holding Company Act (12 U.S.C. 1843(c)(8)) and § 225.4(b)(1) of the Board's Regulation Y (12 CFR 225.4(b)(1)), for permission to engage de novo (or continue to engage in an activity earlier commenced de novo), directly or indirectly, solely in the activities indicated, which have been determined by the Board of Governors to be closely related to banking.

With respect to these applications, interested persons may express their views on the question whether consummation of the proposal can "reasonably be expected to produce benefits to the public, such as greater convenience, increased competition, or gains in efficiency, that outweigh possible adverse effects, such as undue concentration of resources, decreased or unfair competition, conflicts of interests, or unsound banking practices." Any comment that requests a hearing must include a statement of the reasons a written presentation would not suffice in lieu of a hearing, identifying specifically any questions of fact that are in dispute, summarizing the evidence that would be presented at a hearing, and indicating how the party commenting would be aggrieved by approval of that proposal.

The applications may be inspected at the offices of the Board of Governors or at the Federal Reserve Bank indicated. Comments and requests for hearing should identify clearly the specific application to which they relate, and should be submitted in writing and received by the appropriate Federal Reserve Bank not later than the date indicated.

Food and Drug Administration

Elanco Products Co.; Tylocine® Tablets; Withdrawal of Approval of NADA

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Food and Drug Administration (FDA) is withdrawing approval of a new animal drug application (NADA) sponsored by Elanco Products Co. providing for use of Tylocine® (tylosin) Tablets for the treatment of feline pneumonitis in cats and upper respiratory infections in dogs. The firm requested withdrawal of approval.

EFFECTIVE DATE: November 17, 1983.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Leonard D. Krinsky, Bureau of Veterinary Medicine (HFV-216), Food and Drug Administration, 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, MD 20857; 301-443-4093.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Elanco Products Co., a Division of Eli Lilly & Co., 740 South Alabama St., Indianapolis, IN 46285, is sponsor of NADA 12-964 providing for use of Tylocine® Tablets which contain 200 milligrams of tylosin activity in each tablet. The tablets are indicated for the treatment of feline pneumonitis in cats and for the treatment of upper respiratory infections in dogs when due to or associated with bacterial etiology.

The product was originally approved on March 8, 1962. Approval of the NADA has not been codified in the Code of Federal Regulations. In its submission of June 20, 1983, to the Bureau of Veterinary Medicine, Elanco Products Co. requested withdrawal of approval of the NADA without prejudice and waived opportunity for a hearing under 21 CFR 514.115(d) because the product is not being marketed.

Therefore, under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 512(e), 82 Stat. 345-347 (21 U.S.C. 360b(e))) and under authority delegated to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs (21 CFR 5.10) and redelegated to the Bureau of Veterinary Medicine (21 CFR 5.84), and in accordance with § 514.115 Withdrawal of approval of applications (21 CFR 514.115), notice is given that approval of NADA 12-964 and all supplements for Tylocine® Tablets is hereby withdrawn, effective November 17, 1983.

Dated: October 31, 1983.

The draft statement is scheduled for completion in July, 1984. A Notice of Availability will be published in the Federal Register establishing dates for the comment period following distribution of the draft. Federal, State, or local governments and interested groups or individuals needing further information should call Mary Elaine Warhurst at (213) 688-4360. Those wishing to assist MMS in determining the scope of the Southern Santa Maria Basin Area EIS/EIR should write to: William E. Grant, Acting Regional Manager, Minerals Management Service, Pacific OCS Region, 1340 West 6th Street, Los Angeles, CA 90017. Comments on the scope of the statement should be received no later than December 16, 1983.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Proposed development of the Point Arguello Field includes installation of three production platforms with associated connecting subsea pipelines; installation of one 200,000 bbl/day capacity oil pipeline and a 160 MMSCFD capacity gas pipeline running eastward to a landfill north of Point Conception and continuing onshore to Gaviota; expansion of existing oil and gas processing facilities at Gaviota; and installation of an ocean outfall line for produced water from the onshore facilities.

Production from up to five additional platforms will be considered in the Southern Santa Maria Basin Area EIS/EIR for the purpose of assessing cumulative impacts. The Southern Santa Maria Basin Area includes a total of 25 OCS Leases offshore Point Conception/Point Arguello.

This EIS/EIR will provide the information needed to evaluate proposed and future activities in Federal OCS waters offshore Point Conception. Since Development and Production Plans (DPP's) have or will be submitted for Lease Nos. OCS-P 0315, P 0316, and P 0450, a detailed, site-specific impact analysis will be provided in the EIS/EIR for these platforms. Further environmental documentation will not be required for these development plans before a decision is made by the MMS. Decisions on these three platforms will follow certification of the EIS/EIR.

Operators proposing additional platforms in the Southern Santa Maria Basin Area will be required to conduct the appropriate site-specific geohazards, cultural resource and biological surveys and to submit Development and Production Plans (DPPs). Documents included in these submittals are: Plan of Development, Environmental Report, Oil Spill Contingency Plan, Hydrogen Sulfide Contingency Plan, and survey data and reports. The MMS will evaluate environmental impacts from additional development activities in subsequent Environmental Assessments or, depending on the significance of the impacts, in Environmental Impact Statements.

The EIS/EIR will analyze the environmental consequences of the proposed project in compliance with the National Environmental Policy Act and California Environmental Quality Act. Significant issues to be discussed include: air quality, water quality, terrestrial and marine biota, endangered species, cultural resources, aesthetic resources, commercial fishing, military use, and land use. Alternatives to be considered include options to modify, defer, or disapprove the proposed development plans.

Robert G. Paul,

Acting Regional Manager, Pacific OCS Region.

INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

Import Investigations; Carbon Steel Wire Rod From Brazil and From Trinidad and Tobago

Determinations

On the basis of the record<sup>1</sup> developed in investigations Nos. 731-TA-113 (Final) and 731-TA-114 (Final), the Commission determines, pursuant to section 735(b) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1673(b)), that an industry in the United States is being materially injured by reason of imports of carbon steel wire rod from Brazil, provided for in item 607.17 of the Tariff Schedules of the United States (TSUS) which have been found by the Department of Commerce (Commerce) to be sold in the United States at less than fair value (LTFV). The Commission further determines that an industry in the United States is being materially injured by reason of imports from Trinidad and Tobago (Trinidad) of carbon steel wire rod, also provided for in TSUS item 607.17, which have also been found by Commerce to be sold in the United States at LTFV.

Counsel for petitioners alleged that imports of carbon steel wire rod from Brazil and Trinidad present "critical circumstances." Commerce examined such imports under section 735(a)(3) of the act and determined that, for Brazil, critical circumstances exist, and, for Trinidad, critical circumstances do not exist. This affirmative critical circumstances determination by Commerce with respect to imports from Brazil requires an additional finding by the Commission as to whether the material injury is by reason of massive imports from Brazil to an extent that, in order to prevent such material injury from recurring, it is necessary to impose antidumping duties retroactively on those imports. Accordingly, pursuant to section 735(b)(4)(a), the Commission determines, Commissioner Stern dissenting, that material injury was not by reason of massive imports of the LTFV merchandise over a short period of time to the extent that it is necessary to impose the duty retroactively to prevent such injury from recurring.

Background

The Commission instituted these final investigations following preliminary determinations by the Department of Commerce, that imports of carbon steel wire rod from Brazil and from Trinidad are being or are likely to be, sold at LTFV. Commerce's preliminary LTFV determinations were published in the Federal Register of May 4, 1983 (48 FR 20106).

Notice of the institution of the Commission's final investigations and scheduling of the public hearing to be held in connection therewith was given by posting copies of the notice in the Office of the Secretary, and by publishing the notice in the Federal Register of May 25, 1983 (48 FR 23488). On June 22, 1983, Commerce published in the Federal Register (48 FR 28519 and 48 FR 28520), notices of postponement of its final determinations with respect to carbon steel wire from Brazil and Trinidad. Accordingly, the Commission revised its investigation schedule. Notice of the Commission's revised schedule for its public hearing was published in the Federal Register of July 7, 1983 (48 FR 31305). On September 22, 1983, Commerce published in the Federal Register (48 FR 43202) its affirmative final determinations with respect to LTFV sales of carbon steel wire rod from Brazil and Trinidad. The Commission's hearing was held in Washington, D.C. on September 20, 1983 and all persons who requested the opportunity were permitted to appear in person or through counsel. The Commission's determinations in these investigations were made in an open "Government in the Sunshine" meeting held on October 19, 1983.

On September 30, 1982, a petition was filed by counsel on behalf of Atlantic Steel Corp., Continental Steel Corp., Georgetown Steel Corp., Georgetown Texas Steel Corp. (now North Star Steel Texas), and Raritan River Steel Co. with the U.S. International Trade Commission and with the Department of Commerce alleging that an industry in the United States is materially injured, or is threatened with material injury, by reason of imports from Brazil and Trinidad of carbon steel wire rod allegedly being sold in the United States at LTFV. Accordingly, effective October 1, 1982, the Commission instituted preliminary material injury investigations under section 733(a) of the Tariff Act of 1930. On November 15, 1982, the Commission determined that there was a reasonable indication that an industry in the United States was materially injured by reason of such imports. The Commission's determination was published in the Federal Register on November 26, 1982 (47 FR 53515). As a result, Commerce continued its investigations of alleged

LTFV sales of carbon steel wire rod from Brazil and Trinidad.

The Commission transmitted its report on these investigations to the Secretary of Commerce on October 31, 1983. A public version of the report, Carbon Steel Wire Rod from Brazil and Trinidad and Tobago (investigations Nos. 731-TA-113 and 114 (Final)), USITC Publication 1444, contains the views of the Commission and information developed during the investigations.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

[Docket No. AB-156; Sub-13X]

Delaware and Hudson Railway Company; Abandonment in Albany County, NY; Exemption

Delaware and Hudson Railway Company (D&H) has filed a notice of exemption for an abandonment under 49 CFR Part 1152 Subpart F—Exempt Abandonments. The line to be abandoned is a portion of D&H's Troy Branch in Cohoes (Albany County), NY, between milepost T-3.11, on the southerly line of Ontario Street, and milepost T-3.05, a distance of 300 feet.

D&H has certified (1) that no local or overhead traffic moved over the line for at least 2 years, and (2) that no formal complaint filed by a user of rail service on the line regarding cessation of service over the line either is pending with the Commission or has been decided in favor of the complainant within the 2-year period. The Public Service Commission (or equivalent agency) in New York has been notified in writing at least 10 days prior to the filing of this notice. See Exemption of Out of Service Rail Lines, 366 I.C.C. 885 (1983).

As a condition to use of this exemption, any employees affected by the abandonment shall be protected pursuant to Oregon Short Line R. Co.-Abandonment-Goshen, 360 I.C.C. 91 (1979).

The exemption will be effective on December 7, 1983 (unless stayed pending reconsideration). Petitions to stay the effective date of the exemption must be filed by November 17, 1983 and petitions for reconsideration, including environmental, energy and public use concerns, must be filed by November 28, 1983 with:

Office of the Secretary
Case Control Branch
Interstate Commerce Commission
Washington, DC 20423

A copy of any petition filed with the Commission should be sent to D&H's representative:

George H. Kleinberger
40 Beaver Street
Albany, NY 12207

If the notice of exemption contains false or misleading information, the use of the exemption is void ab initio.

A notice to the parties will be issued if use of the exemption is conditioned upon environmental or public use conditions.

Decided: November 2, 1983.

By the Commission, Heber P. Hardy,
Director, Office of Proceedings,
Agatha L. Mergenovich,
Secretary.

NATIONAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON OCEANS AND ATMOSPHERE

Future Meeting Dates

October 26, 1983.

Pursuant to Section 10(a)(2) of the Federal Advisory Committee Act, 5 U.S.C. App. (1976), as amended, notice is hereby given that the National Advisory Committee on Oceans and Atmosphere (NACOA) will hold meetings on the days listed below in calendar year 1984. All the meetings will be held in Washington, D.C. except for the May meeting which will be held in San Diego, CA. Exact times and locations will be announced at a later date.

The Committee, consisting of 18 non-Federal members appointed by the President from academia, business and industry, public interest organizations, and State and local government was established by Congress by Pub. L. 95-63 on July 5, 1977. Its duties are to: (1) Undertake a continuing review, on a selective basis, of national ocean policy, coastal zone management, and the status of the marine and atmospheric science and service programs of the United States; (2) advise the Secretary of Commerce with respect to the carrying out of the programs administered by the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration; and (3) submit an annual report to the President and to the Congress setting forth an assessment, on a selective basis, of the status of the Nation's marine and atmospheric activities, and submit such other reports as may from time to time be requested by the President or Congress.

The tentative meeting dates are as follows:

January 30-31, 1984, Monday and Tuesday
March 19-20, 1984, Monday and Tuesday
May 17-18, 1984, Thursday and Friday (San Diego, CA)

June 25-26, 1984, Monday and Tuesday
August 2-3, 1984, Thursday and Friday
September 13-14, 1984, Thursday and Friday
October 29-30, 1984, Monday and Tuesday
December 10-11, 1984, Monday and Tuesday

The public is welcome at the sessions and will be admitted to the extent that seating is available. Persons wishing to make formal statements should notify the Chairman in advance of the meeting. The Chairman retains the prerogative to place limits on the duration of oral statements and discussions. Written statements may be submitted before or after each session.

Additional information concerning these meetings may be obtained through the Committee's Executive Director, Steven N. Anastasion, whose mailing address is: National Advisory Committee on Oceans and Atmosphere, 3300 Whitehaven Street, NW., Washington, DC 20235. The telephone number is 202/653-7818.

NUCLEAR REGULATORY COMMISSION

Applications for Licenses To Export/Import; Nuclear Facilities or Materials

Pursuant to 10 CFR 110.70(b) "Public notice of receipt of an application", please take notice that the Nuclear Regulatory Commission has received the following applications for export and import licenses. A copy of each application is on file in the Nuclear Regulatory Commission's Public Document Room located at 1717 H Street, N.W., Washington, D.C.

A request for a hearing or petition for leave to intervene may be filed within 30 days after publication of this notice in the Federal Register. Any request for hearing or petition for leave to intervene shall be served by the requestor or petitioner upon the applicant, the Executive Legal Director, U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Washington, D.C. 20555, the Secretary, U. S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission and the Executive Secretary, Department of State, Washington, D.C. 20520.

In its review of applications for licenses to export production or utilization facilities, special nuclear material or source material, noticed herein, the Commission does not evaluate the health, safety or environmental effects in the recipient nation of the facility or material to be exported. The table below lists all new major applications.

Dated this 28th day of October, at Bethesda, Maryland.

For the Nuclear Regulatory Commission,
James V. Zimmerman,
Assistant Director, Export/Import and International Safeguards Office of International Programs.

Documents Containing Reporting or Recordkeeping Requirements; Office of Management and Budget Review

AGENCY: Nuclear Regulatory Commission.

ACTION: Notice of the Office of Management and Budget review of information collection.

SUMMARY: The Nuclear Regulatory Commission has recently submitted to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for review the following proposal for the collection of information under the provisions of the Paperwork Reduction Act (44 U.S.C. Chapter 35).

1. Type of submission, new, revision or extension: Revision.
2. The title of the information collection:
  - 10 CFR Part 30—Domestic Licensing of Byproduct Material
  - 10 CFR Part 40—Domestic Licensing of Source Material, and
  - 10 CFR Part 150—Exemptions and Continued Regulatory Authority in Agreement States and in Offshore Waters Under Section 274
3. The Form number, if applicable: Not applicable.
4. How often the collection is required: Upon each transfer, receipt, or change or adjustment to inventory of 1 kilogram or more of source material at any one time.
5. Who will be required or asked to report: Each NRC or Agreement State licensee who transfers, receives, or makes any change or adjustment to inventory of source material of 1 kilogram or more at any one time.
6. An estimate of the number of responses: 6,400.
7. An estimate of the total number of hours needed to complete the requirement or request: 6,400.
8. An indication of whether Section 3504(h), Pub. L. 96-511 applies: Not applicable.
9. Abstract: In order for the U.S. to meet the obligations of the US/IAEA Agreement and other international agreements, it is necessary to lower the reportable quantity if source material transfers by NRC and Agreement State licensees from 1,000 kilograms to 1 kilogram.

In addition, as a result of its review of safeguards reporting requirements, NRC has determined that semi-annual tritium inventory reports are no longer required. Consequently, 10 CFR 30.55(b) and 150.19(b), which impose the requirement for these reports, are being deleted, with a resulting reduction in burden and cost.

Copies of the submittal may be inspected or obtained for a fee from the NRC Public Document Room, 1717 H Street, N.W., Washington, DC 20555.

Comments and questions should be directed to the OMB reviewer, Jefferson B. Hill, (202) 395-7340.

Arkansas Power & Light Co. (Arkansas Nuclear One, Unit 2); Exemption

I

The Arkansas Power and Light Company (the licensee) is the holder of Facility Operating License No. NPF-6 which authorizes operation of Arkansas Nuclear One, Unit No. 2 (ANO-2). This license provides, among other things, that it is subject to all rules, regulations and Orders of the Commission now or hereafter in effect.

The facility uses a Combustion Engineering, Inc. pressurized water reactor at the licensee's site located in Pope County, Arkansas.

II

Section 50.48(c)(3) of 10 CFR Part 50 requires that certain features of the facility fire protection program, specifically those that involve installation of modifications which can be effected only during an outage, shall be implemented before startup after the earliest of the following events commencing 180 days or more after February 17, 1981:

- (1) The first refueling outage;
- (2) Another planned outage that lasts for at least 60 days; or
- (3) An unplanned outage that lasts for at least 120 days.

For ANO-2, the Commission granted, on May 10, 1982, an exemption with respect to the requirements of 10 CFR 50.48(c)(3). The exemption extended the date, February 17, 1983, from which the installation schedules established in 10 CFR 50.48(c)(3) are calculated, to July 1, 1982.

By letter dated July 1, 1982, the licensee requested an exemption from the 50.48 scheduler requirement, delaying the modification of the switchgear in Fire Zones 2100-Z and 2101-AA from the completion of the refueling outage, 2R3, which began in October 1983, to the completion of the subsequent outage, 2R4, expected to begin in July 1985. The delay is necessitated because of the long procurement lead time required in getting the switchgear equipment from the vendor.

By letter dated September 27, 1983, the licensee informed the staff that it had made a substantial effort to have the switchgear equipment delivered and installed during the 2R3 outage, thus eliminating the need for a scheduler exemption. However, the licensee encountered an unanticipated problem in that the vendor was planning to manufacture the switchgear equipment at a facility which was not on the licensee's Qualified Vendor List. This would have resulted in the licensee performing a detailed and time consuming Quality Assurance audit of the facility in question to ensure the equipment met the licensee's Quality Assurance Standards. Diligent negotiation, which was concluded in mid-August 1983, resulted in the manufacture of the equipment at a facility on the licensee's Qualified Vendor List. However, delivery of the switchgear equipment is not expected until late January 1984. Thus, the equipment would not be received in time to be installed during the current refueling outage, as required by 10 CFR 50.48(c).

The licensee stated in a letter dated July 13, 1983 that the affected fire zones are all equipped with ionization type smoke detectors which alarm in the control room to provide early fire detection capability and that the additional fire preventive measures are provided by the licensee's Auxiliary Operators, who routinely walk through these zones during the performance of their duties.

Based on the above considerations, we find that the licensee has made a good faith effort to complete the modification during the current outage as required by 10 CFR 50.48(c). We find that the licensee encountered an unanticipated procurement problem and that the delivery of the equipment will not be made in time to effect the modification. We also find that, because of the fire preventive measures already provided for the affected fire zones, there is no undue risk to the health and safety of the public involved with continued operation until the completion of this modification during the 2R4 refueling outage. Therefore, we conclude that the licensee's request for an extension of the completion date required by 10 CFR 50.48(c)(3) should be granted.

III

Accordingly, the Commission has determined that, pursuant to 10 CFR 50.12, an exemption is authorized by law and will not endanger life or property or the common defense and security, is otherwise in the public interest, and is hereby granted.

The Commission has determined that the granting of this exemption will not result in any significant environmental impact and that pursuant to 10 CFR 51.(d)(4) an environmental impact statement or negative declaration and environmental impact appraisal need not be prepared in connection with this action.

This Exemption is effective upon issuance.

Maine Yankee Atomic Power Co. (Maine Yankee Atomic Power Station); Exemption

I

The Maine Yankee Atomic Power Company (the licensee) is the holder of Facility Operating License No. DPR-38 which authorizes operation of the Maine Yankee Atomic Power Plant. This license provides, among other things, that it is subject to all rules, regulation and Orders of the Commission now or hereafter in effect.

The facility comprises one pressurized water reactor at the licensee's site located in Lincoln County, Maine.

II

On November 19, 1980, the Commission published a revised Section 10 CFR 50.48 and a new Appendix R to 10 CFR Part 50 regarding fire protection features of nuclear power plants (45 FR 78602). The revised § 50.48 and Appendix R became effective on February 17, 1981. Section III of Appendix R contains fifteen subsections, lettered A through O, each of which specifies requirements for a particular aspect of the fire protection features at a nuclear power plant. One of these fifteen subsections, III.G, is the subject of this exemption request.

Subsection III.G.2 of Appendix R requires that one train of cables and equipment necessary to achieve and maintain safe shutdown shall be maintained free of fire damage by specific use of fire barriers, separation or enclosures. If these conditions are not met, Section III.G.3 requires an alternative shutdown capability independent of the fire area of concern.

III 1By letter dated December 22, 1982, the licensee specifically requested exemptions to Sections III.G.2 and III.G.3 of Appendix R.

The exemption to Section III.G.2 concerned the Primary Auxiliary Building. The licensee requested that the cables and equipment of redundant shutdown division not have the required separation by 3-hour rated fire barriers. The licensee justified the exemption on the basis of low fire load, the existing fire protection system, the concrete cubicles around each of the normal charging pumps, and the spatial separation of the auxiliary charging pump. Our review of the licensee's submittal indicated that because of the large open areas, the high ceiling, and the concrete shielding walls around the normal charging pumps, ambient conditions at the pumps are not expected to pose a serious threat to the pumps themselves. We conclude that this configuration will achieve a level of fire protection equivalent to that provided by Section III.G.2. Therefore, the exemption requested to Section III.G.2 should be granted.

The exemptions to Section III.G.3 concerned the Protected Switchgear Room and Circulating Water Pump House. The licensee requested that these areas not be required to have a fixed fire suppression system. The licensee justified the exemptions in these two areas on the basis of the low fire load, existing fire protection and the ability to achieve safe shutdown despite the complete loss of the normal shutdown system due to a fire within these locations. Our analysis shows that the fire resistant perimeter construction of these buildings would confine the damage to the area of origin. Furthermore, safe shutdown could still be achieved using alternate systems which are independent of these fire areas. Consequently a fixed fire suppression system is not needed to limit the extent of damage. Therefore, the exemptions requested to Section III.G.3 should be granted.

IV

Accordingly, the Commission has determined that, pursuant to 10 CFR 50.12(a), an exemption is authorized by law and will not endanger life or property or the common defense and security and is otherwise in the public interest and hereby grants an exemption from the requirements of Sections III.G.2 and III.G.3 of Appendix R to the extent that they apply to the Primary Auxiliary Building, Protected Switchgear Room, and Circulating Water Pump House.

The NRC staff has determined that the granting of this Exemption will not result in any significant environmental impact and that pursuant to 10 CFR 51.5(d)(4) an environmental impact statement or negative declaration and environmental impact appraisal need not be prepared in connection with this action.

A copy of the Safety Evaluation dated November 1, 1983, related to this action is available for public inspection at the Commission's Public Document Room, 1717 H. Street, NW., Washington, D.C. and at the local public document room located at the Wiscasset Public Library, High Street, Wiscasset, Maine. A copy may be obtained upon request addressed to the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Washington, D.C. 20555, Attention: Director, Division of Licensing.

This Exemption is effective upon issuance.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[Release No. 20334; SR-AM/EX-83-21]

American Stock Exchange, Inc.; Order Granting Accelerated Approval

October 31, 1983.

On September 29, 1983, the American Stock Exchange, Inc. ("Amex") 86 Trinity Place, New York, NY, 10005, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") a proposed rule change under Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Act") and Rule 19b-4 under the Act. This proposed rule change would move Amex' 10-year U.S.

Treasury note options from a March/June/September/December expiration cycle to a February/May/August/November expiration cycle.

Notice of the proposed rule change together with the terms of substance of the proposed rule change was given by publication of a Commission Release (Securities Exchange Act Release No. 20252, October 3, 1983) and by publication in the Federal Register (48 FR 46461, October 12, 1983). No comments were received with respect to the proposed rule change.

The Commission finds that the proposed rule change is consistent with the requirements of the Act and the rules and regulations thereunder applicable to a national securities exchange, and in particular, the requirements of Section 6 and the rules and regulations thereunder.

The Commission finds good cause for approving the proposed rule change prior to the thirtieth day after the date of publication of the notice of filing thereof in that the effective implementation of the proposed rule change requires that it be in effect soon after the next Treasury note auction, which is scheduled to occur on November 2, 1983. We also find that accelerated approval is consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest.

It is therefore ordered, pursuant to Section 19(b)(2) of the Act, that the above-mentioned proposed rule change is approved.

For the Commission, by the Division of Market Regulation pursuant to delegated authority.

George A. Fitzsimmons,
Secretary.

[Release No. 13605; 812-5659]

Hessische Landesbank-Girozentrale; Application

October 31, 1983.

Notice is hereby given that Hessische Landesbank-Girozentrale ("Applicant"), c/o Brown, Wood, Ivey, Mitchell & Petty, One World Trade Center, New York, New York 10048, a German commercial bank, filed an application on September 27, 1983, for an order of the Commission pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("Act"), exempting Applicant from all provisions of the Act. All interested persons are referred to the application on file with the Commission for a statement of the representations contained therein, which are summarized below, and to the Act for the text of all applicable sections thereof.

Applicant states that it is a commercial bank incorporated under German law and on the basis of total deposits ranks, on a consolidated basis, seventh among all banks in the Federal Republic of Germany at December 31, 1982. The State of Hesse and the Hessian Savings Bank and Giro Association each own 50% of the capital stock of Applicant. All Applicant's obligations are stated to be jointly and severally guaranteed by these two owners. Applicant states that it engages in a broad range of financial activities in the fields of commercial banking, investment banking, central banking and fiduciary administration. Applicant represents that its primary purpose is to act as the central bank and clearing house for the savings banks in the State of Hesse. Its major focus in the commercial banking area is on providing medium and long-term credit to commercial enterprises in the form of municipal loans, mortgage loans and long-term fixed rate loans. Applicant states that during 1982 it received $1.838 billion in interest and similar revenue from lending and money market transactions, or 84% of its total revenues for that year. Further, Applicant states that while it does act as a securities broker/dealer, in 1982 its revenues from such activities accounted for less than 7.3% of its consolidated total revenues.

Applicant represents that it is extensively regulated by German banking authorities, which regulation included supervision by the Federal Banking Supervisory Board and the German Federal Bank, the central bank of the Federal Republic of Germany. Reports are periodically required to be made to either or both the Federal Banking Supervisory Board and, the German Federal Bank. In addition, Applicant states that German banking legislation contains certain liquidity and capital requirements and lending limits.

Applicant proposes to issue and sell in the United States short-term unsecured negotiable promissory notes of the type generally referred to as commercial paper (the "Notes") with maturities not to exceed 270 days in bearer term and denominated in United States dollars to finance or refinance its current transactions, particularly its short-term off-shore dollar-denominated portfolio of credits. Applicant represents that the notes will be of prime quality and in minimum denominations of $100,000; that it presently intends that not in excess of $300,000,000 of the Notes will be outstanding at any one time; and that the Notes will not have any provisions for renewal at the option of Applicant or the holders thereof or for automatic roll-over. The notes will be issued and sold by Applicant to one or more commercial paper dealers in the United States which, as principal, will reoffer them to investors in the United States. In certain cases, however, the commercial paper dealers may offer the Notes as agent. Applicant represents that the Notes will not be advertised or otherwise offered for sale to the general public, but instead will be sold to institutional investors, wealthy individuals and other purchasers of the type that normally purchase commercial paper. Applicant states that it undertakes to ensure that each offeree of the Notes will receive prior to purchase a memorandum which briefly describes Applicant's business and includes its most recent publicly available fiscal year-end audited balance sheet and income statement. Applicant represents that such memorandum will describe any material differences between German and United States generally accepted accounting principles applicable to commercial banks. Applicant states that such memorandum will be at least as comprehensive as those customarily used in offering commercial paper in the United States and will be updated periodically to reflect material changes in Applicant's financial status.

The application states the Notes will be direct liabilities of Applicant and will rank pari passu among themselves and equally with all other unsecured indebtedness of Applicant, including Applicant's deposit liabilities and will rank prior to Applicant's share capital.

Applicant plans to sell the Notes without registration under the Securities Act of 1933 (the "1933 Act") in reliance upon an opinion of its United States counsel that the Notes will qualify for the exemption from the registration requirements of the 1933 Act provided for certain short-term commercial paper by Section 3(a)(3) thereof. Applicant states that it will not issue and sell the Notes until it has received such opinion. Applicant does not request Commission review or approval of such opinion, and the Commission expresses no opinion as to the availability of any such exemption.

Applicant further represents that the presently proposed issue of securities and all future issues of its securities in the United States will have received prior to their respective issuance one of the three highest investment grade ratings from at least one of the nationally recognized statistical rating organizations and that its United States counsel will have certified that such rating has been received, provided, however, that no such rating will be required to be obtained if in the opinion of United States counsel having taken into account for the purpose thereof the doctrine of integration referred to in Rule 502 under the 1933 Act and various releases and relevant no-action letters made public by the Commission, an exemption from registration is available with respect to such issue pursuant to Section 4(2) of the 1933 Act.

Applicant may in the future offer other debt securities for sale in the United States. Applicant represents that any such future offering of its securities in the United States will be made only pursuant to a registration statement under the 1933 Act or pursuant to an applicable exemption from registration under such Act, and any such offering will be made on the basis of disclosure documents appropriate for such registration or exemption, as the case may be. In no event will such disclosure documents be less comprehensive than is customary for United States offerings of similar debt securities.

Applicant undertakes to ensure that any such disclosure documents will be provided to each offeree who has indicated an interest in the securities then being offered, prior to any sale of such securities to such offeree, except that in the case of an offering made pursuant to a registration statement under the 1933 Act, such disclosure documents will be provided to such persons and in such manner as may be required by the 1933 Act and the rules and regulations thereunder. Applicant consents to having any order granting the relief requested under Section 6(c) of the Act expressly conditioned upon its compliance with its undertakings regarding disclosure documents.

Applicant states, in connection with the presently proposed offering of Notes and any future offering in the United States of its securities, that it will appoint an agent to accept any process which may be served in any action based on any such security and instituted in any state or federal court by the holder of any such security. Applicant states that such appointment of an agent to accept service of process will be irrevocable so long as such securities remain outstanding and until all amounts due and to become due in respect of such securities have been paid. Applicant further represents that, in connection with the presently proposed offering, it will expressly accept the jurisdiction of any state or federal court in the City and State of New York in respect of any such action and such consent to jurisdiction will be irrevocable so long as such securities remain outstanding and until all amounts due and to become due in respect of such securities have been paid. In connection with any future offering in the United States of its securities, Applicant undertakes that it will expressly accept the jurisdiction of an appropriate state or federal court in respect of any such action. Such consent to jurisdiction will be irrevocable so long as such securities remain outstanding and until all amounts due and to become due in respect of such securities have been paid.

Applicant asserts that granting the relief requested would advance the policies underlying the International Banking Act of 1978 by furthering the principle established thereunder of parity of treatment between foreign and domestic banks in like circumstances, and would benefit United States investors by expanding their investment opportunities. Applicant maintains that its activities are extensively regulated by the German banking authorities, that it is substantially different from the typical investment company that Congress intended the Act to regulate and that there is ample investor protection provided by the 1933 Act and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Notice is further given that any interested person wishing to request a hearing on the application may, not later than November 25, 1983, at 5:30 p.m., do so by submitting a written request setting forth the nature of his/her interest, the reasons for the request, and the specific issues of fact or law that are disputed, to the Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549. A copy of the request should be served personally or by mail upon Applicant at the address stated above. Proof of service (by affidavit or, in the case of an attorney-at-law, by certificate) shall be filed with the request. After said date, an order disposing of the application will be issued unless the Commission orders a hearing upon request or upon its own motion.

For the Commission, by the Division of Investment Management, pursuant to delegated authority.

New England Power Company, New England Electric System; Proposed Sale

October 31, 1983.

New England Power System, a registered holding company, and one of its electric utility subsidiaries, New England Power Company ("NEP"), 25 Research Drive, Westborough, Massachusetts, 01581, have filed a declaration with this Commission pursuant to Section 12(d) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("Act") and Rule 44 promulgated thereunder.

NEP owns eight diesel generator units (Model MP45) with a baseload generating capacity of 2.75 megawatts each, located in Lynn, Massachusetts. All the generator units were purchased new from General Motors Electro-Motive Division in 1968. They are arranged in two groups of four units each. Each of the two groups is provided with its own switchgear, control house, and fuel oil storage tank with a capacity of 60,000 gallons. Due to the current availability of alternative, less costly sources of generation, these generating units are no longer needed by NEP to meet its demand for electricity. On September 15, 1983, they were officially retired from service. NEP proposes to sell the eight surplus diesel generating units and the associated equipment. The original cost of the eight generator units and associated equipment (including installation costs) was approximately $1.75 million. The current net book value (defined as original cost less accumulated depreciation) totals approximately $825,000. An independent engineering consulting firm has estimated the total current fair market value of the eight diesel generator units and associated equipment to be within the range of $1.8 million to $2.2 million.

The declaration and any amendments thereto are available for public inspection through the Commission's Office of Public Reference. Interested persons wishing to comment or request a hearing should submit their views in writing by November 28, 1983, to the Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549, and serve a copy on the declarants at the address specified above. Proof of service (by affidavit or, in case of an attorney at law, by certificate) should be filed with the request. Any request for a hearing shall identify specifically the issues of fact or law that are disputed. A person who so requests will be notified of any hearing, if ordered, and will receive a copy of any notice or order issued in this matter. After said date, the declaration, as filed or as it may be amended, may be permitted to become effective.

For the Commission, by the Division of Corporate Regulation, pursuant to delegated authority.

Secretary.

American Stock Exchange, Inc.; Filing and Order Granting Accelerated Approval of Proposed Rule Change

November 1, 1983.

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Act"), 15 U.S.C. 78s(b)(1), notice is hereby given that on October 17, 1983, the American Stock Exchange, Inc. ("Amex"), 86 Trinity Place, New York, NY 10006, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission the proposed rule change as described herein. The Commission is publishing this notice to solicit comments on the proposed rule change from interested persons.

The rule change would: (1) Fix the cut-off time for options exercises at 5:30 p.m. (New York time) on the last business day before expiration; (2) delete a clause providing an exception from the established cut-off time for options in an account maintained for another member and including only positions of the latter's customers; (3) drop certain explanatory matter relating to the rules of the Options Clearing Corporation ("OCC"); (4) add a provision requiring time-stamping of exercise instructions; and (5) add a reference to notices not to exercise options which otherwise would be automatically exercised under OCC Rule 805. Amex states that the purpose of the proposed rule change is to take account of OCC rules calling for automatic exercise in certain cases. The proposed rule also shortens the Amex exercise cut-off rule, adopting language similar to that in the current Chicago Board Options Exchange ("CBOE") rule.

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views and arguments concerning the submission within 21 days from the date of publication in the Federal Register. Persons desiring to make written comments should file six copies thereof with the Secretary of the Commission, Securities and Exchange Commission, 450 Fifth Street, Washington, DC 20549. Reference should be made to File No. SR-Amex-83-25).

Copies of the submission, all subsequent amendments, all written statements with respect to the proposed rule change which are filed with the Commission, and all written communications relating to the proposed rule change between the Commission and any person, other than those which may be withheld from the public in accordance with the provisions of 5 U.S.C. 552, will be available for inspection and copying at the Commission's Public Reference Room. Copies of the filing and of any subsequent amendments also will be available at the principal office of the above-mentioned self-regulatory organization.

The Commission finds that the proposed rule change is consistent with the requirements of the Act and the rules and regulations thereunder applicable to a national securities exchange and, in particular, the requirements of Section 6 and the rules and regulations thereunder.

The Commission finds good cause for approving the proposed rule change prior to the thirtieth day after the date of publication of notice of filing thereof in that insofar as the proposal would alter the existing Amex rule, it is substantially the same as the CBOE rule recently published for public comment, considered and approved by the Commission.<sup>1</sup> In light of this fact, and to reduce the potential for confusion, accelerated approval is appropriate.

It is therefore ordered, pursuant to Section 19(b)(2) of the Act, that the proposed rule change referenced above be, and hereby is, approved.

For the Commission, by the Division of Market Regulation pursuant to delegated authority.

George A. Fitzsimmons,
Secretary.

Self-Regulatory Organizations; Proposed Rule Change by the American Stock Exchange, Inc., Registered Options Traders Parity With Off-Floor Broker/Dealers

Pursuant to section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C. 78s(b)(1), notice is hereby given that on October 17, 1983, the American Stock Exchange, Inc. filed with the Securities Exchange Commission the proposed rule change as described in Items I, II, and III below, which Items have been prepared by the self-regulatory organization. The Commission is publishing this notice to solicit comments on the proposed rule change from interested persons.

Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Terms of Substance of the Proposed Rule Change

The American Stock Exchange, Inc. ("Amex" or "the Exchange") proposes to amend Rule 950(c) and Commentary thereto, as set forth below. Italics indicate material proposed to be added; brackets [ ] indicate material proposed to be deleted.

Rule 950 Rules of General Applicability.

(c) The provisions of Rule 111 and Commentary thereto, with the exception of paragraphs (a)(1), (b), and (e) of such Rule and the Commentary insofar as it relates to such paragraphs, shall apply to Exchange option transactions. In addition, the following commentary shall also apply [to an order in a class of options also traded on another exchange which is placed for an account in which a market maker in options registered as such on such other exchange has an interest (a "covered account");

Commentary.

.01 With respect to an order in a class of options also traded on another exchange which is placed for an account in which a market maker in options registered as such on such other exchange has interest (a "covered account"):

(a) No member or member organization shall place, or permit to be placed, an order on the Exchange which establishes or increases a position in a class of options for a covered account [other than an order specified by subparagraph [.02] (b) of this Commentary] unless such order yields priority and parity to all other off-Floor orders [; and [.02] (b) No member or member organization shall place, or permit to be placed, an order which establishes or increases a position in a series of options with a specialist on the Exchange for a covered account without so identifying that order to the specialist. Such order shall be deemed to be an on-Floor order for the account of a Registered Trader until the intervention of two trades in the same series of options; provided however, that the provisions of paragraphs (a), (b), (c), and (e) of Rule 111 shall not apply to that order.

[.03] .02—No change.

.03 A Registered Option Trader, in establishing or increasing a position, may retain priority over or have parity with an off-Floor order for the account of a member or broker/dealer which is establishing or increasing a position in the trading crowd. Orders of broker/dealers must be appropriately identified.

II. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, the self-regulatory organization included statements concerning the purpose of and basis for the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. The self-regulatory organization has prepared summaries, set forth in sections (A), (B), and (C) below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for the Proposed Rule Change. The purpose of the proposed rule change is to permit Registered Options Traders ("ROTs") to have parity with an off-Floor order for the proprietary account of a member or non-member broker/dealer that is establishing or increasing an option position.

Present Exchange rules require Registered Options Traders who are establishing or increasing an option position (opening) to yield to all off-Floor orders (opening or closing). This includes customer as well as firm proprietary orders. This rule, comparable to a provision in stocks, was adopted at the outset of the Exchange's options program to ensure that off-Floor orders would receive priority over ROT orders at the same price.

In the past few years, the Exchange has observed that many professional trading firms engage in substantial proprietary trading involving conversion and reverse conversion transactions, i.e., trades which involve the trading of large option positions versus appropriate stock positions in an attempt to lock-in profits based upon the different prices of such established positions. In establishing conversion and reverse conversion positions, these options traders as noted, are considered off-Floor orders, requiring ROTs to yield. In such situations, many ROTs have virtually been precluded from establishing positions of their own since they must permit all off-Floor orders to be executed ahead of their own orders, even where they were bidding or offering first. The Exchange's experience is that ROTs have found it increasingly difficult to make markets in those options where there is substantial conversion/reversal interest because they are oftentimes precluded from acquiring the necessary option positions to offset their market-making obligations.

The Chicago Board Options Exchange offers no priority in their trading crowds based on type of account (e.g., market-maker, firm proprietary, customer); orders of customers, market-makers and broker/dealers are all equal. While this proposal would, in certain cases place ROTs and off-Floor broker/dealers on parity, the Exchange remains committed to retaining priority for public customer orders over all opening ROT orders.

In light of the above, the Exchange proposes that ROTs not be required to yield to off-Floor orders for the accounts of a member or non-member broker/dealer which are establishing or increasing an option position.

The proposed change is consistent with the requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "1934 Act") and rules and regulations thereunder applicable to the Exchange in that it will permit Registered Options Traders to be on parity with professional off-Floor traders, which will enhance their ability to fulfill their market-making responsibilities thereby creating better liquidity in options, to the benefit of the investing public.

Therefore, the proposed rule change is consistent with Section 6(b)(5) of the 1934 Act, which provides in pertinent part, that the rules of the Exchange be designed to promote just and equitable principles of trade and to protect the public interest.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition. The Exchange does not believe that the proposed rule change will impose a burden on competition.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received from Members, Participants or Others. The proposed rule change was endorsed by the Exchange's Options Committee (a Committee of the Board of Governors) and its Sub-Committee on Trading Practices and Procedures (comprised of Floor Members and representatives of member organizations).

No written comments were solicited or received.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

Within 35 days of the date of publication of this notice in the Federal Register or within such longer period: (i) As the Commission may designate up to 90 days of such date if it finds such longer period to be appropriate and publishes its reasons for so finding or (ii) as to which the self-regulatory organization consents, the Commission will:

(A) By order approve such proposed rule change, or

(B) Institute proceeding to determine whether the proposed rule change should be disapproved.

IV. Solicitation of Comments

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views and arguments concerning the foregoing. Persons making written submissions should file six copies thereof with the Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 450 Fifth Street, NW., Washington, D.C. 20549. Copies of the submission, all subsequent amendments, all written statements with respect to the proposed rule change that are filed with the Commission, and all written communications relating to the proposed rule change between the Commission and any person, other than those that may be withheld from the public in accordance with the provisions of 5 U.S.C. 552, will be available for inspection and copying in the Commission's Public Reference Section, 450 Fifth Street, NW., Washington, D.C. Copies of such filing will also be available for inspection and copying at the principal office of the above mentioned self-regulatory organization. All submissions should refer to the file number in the caption above and should be submitted within 21 days after the date of this publication.

Dated: October 31, 1983.

[Release No. 20337; SR-NYSE-83-34]

New York Stock Exchange, Inc.; Order Approving Proposed Rule Change

October 31, 1983.

Introduction

On August 28, 1983, the New York Stock Exchange, Inc. ("NYSE"), 11 Wall Street, New York, NY 10005, filed with the Commission a proposed rule change under Section 19(b)(2) and Rule 19b-4 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Act") that would permit the NYSE to impose on its member firms a charge under NYSE Rule 129<sup>1</sup> for NYSE regulatory oversight services. The proposed rule change would permit the Exchange to impose on its member firms a charge of 13¢ per $1,000 of gross revenues as reported by each member firm in its FOCUS report.<sup>2</sup> This fee would be imposed on all NYSE members other than those dual members for which another self-regulatory organization ("SRO") is the designated examining authority ("DEA") under Rule 17d-1 of the Act.<sup>3</sup>

<sup>1</sup> NYSE Rule 129 provides that the NYSE Board of Governors may impose charges on members to reimburse the Exchange, in whole or in part, for regulatory oversight services provided for the membership by the Exchange. See note 17, infra.

<sup>2</sup> FOCUS (Securities Exchange Act Form X-17A-5) is an acronym for Financial and Operational Combined Uniform Single Report. The report is filed periodically with the Commission pursuant to Securities Exchange Act Rule 17a-5. The minimum annual fee imposed would be $2,000 for carrying firms and specialists, $1,000 for introducing firms, and $180 for members and firms not dealing with the public.

Notice of the proposed rule change together with the terms of substance of the proposed rule change was given by the issuance of a Commission Release (Securities Exchange Act Release No. 20107, August 23, 1983) and by publication in the Federal Register (48 FR 39553, August 31, 1983).<sup>4</sup> All written statements filed with the Commission and all written communications between the Commission and any person relating to the proposed rule change were considered and (with the exception of those statements or communications which may be withheld from the public in accordance with the provisions of 5 U.S.C. 552) were made available to the public at the Commission's Public Reference Room.

According to the NYSE, these new regulatory oversight charges would be allocated solely for performing the financial and operational ("FINOP") examinations for NYSE member firms that the NYSE is obligated to perform as the DEA under Securities Exchange Act Rule 17d-1.<sup>5</sup> The charges would replace <sup>4</sup> The NYSE initially filed with the Commission its proposal to impose a regulatory oversight charge on June 23, 1983 (File No. SR-NYSE-83-24; Securities Exchange Act Release No. 19934, July 1, 1983; 48 FR 31952, July 12, 1983). That proposal was filed for immediate effectiveness under Section 19(b)(3)(A) of the Act, which would have permitted the NYSE to impose the charge as of July 1, 1983 unless the rule change were abrogated by the Commission within 60 days of filing. At the Commission's request, the Exchange agreed to postpone implementing the fee until August 24, 1983 (the date the abrogation period expired), to permit public comment prior to actual collection of the oversight charges.

In view of the significant public comment on the proposed changes, the Commission requested the NYSE to file the proposed change with the Commission under Section 19(b)(2) of the Act to provide an additional comment period. In addition, the Commission permitted the NYSE to simultaneously file the oversight charges under Section 19(b)(3)(A) of the Act and to immediately begin collecting such charges under Rule 129, retroactive to July 1, 1983. (SR-NYSE-83-33; Securities Exchange Act Release No. 20100, August 23, 1983; 48 FR 39555, August 31, 1983). The filing was conditioned on the Exchange agreeing that it would refund to its members all regulatory oversight charges collected under Rule 129 unless the Commission approved the charges on a permanent basis by October 15, 1983. This deadline subsequently was extended to October 31, 1983. (Securities Exchange Act Release No. 20277, October 13, 1983; 48 FR 48562, October 19, 1983).

<sup>5</sup> For those members for which NYSE is the DEA, the NYSE is responsible for review and subsequent action on FOCUS Reports, any schedules or forms thereof, and any other generally applicable financial reporting requirements imposed by other SROs, the NYSE, or the SEC. The NYSE's responsibility with respect to these financial reports includes determination of compliance with Commission, NYSE, and other applicable SRO rules related to capital, margin, operations, books and records, reporting, and filing of documents. The NYSE is not responsible for conducting such a review for members for which the NYSE is not DEA, and no regulatory oversight fee would be imposed on such members. See note 13, infra.

the NYSE's fee arrangement with the National Securities Clearing Corporation ("NSCC") that expired on June 30, 1983, whereby the NSCC collected a regulatory fee of 12¢ per side per cleared transaction in NYSE listed securities and made annual payment to the NYSE of a maximum of $3,000,000. The NYSE has indicated that its charge of 13¢ per $1,000 of gross revenues is calculated to produce approximately $3,000,000 annually for the Exchange, based on 1982 gross revenues of members.<sup>6</sup>

Twenty comment letters were filed with the Commission.<sup>7</sup> Most commentators objected to the imposition of fees calculated on other than NYSE transactions because the proposed fee would not be based only on transactions in NYSE listed securities, as was the NSCC fee it would replace. Instead, fees would be collected based on all of a firm's revenues, including revenues generated from transactions in over-the-counter ("OTC"), municipal and investment company securities, commodity futures, or any other revenue reported in the FOCUS report, whether or not related to securities business. The commentators' objections focused primarily on: (i) The NYSE's lack of jurisdiction to impose fees on gross

<sup>6</sup> See letter from James E. Buck, Secretary, NYSE, to George A. Fitzsimmons, Secretary, SEC, dated September 15, 1983, page 17. The American Stock Exchange, Inc. ("Amex") and the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. ("NASD") were also parties to an agreement with the NSCC prior to July 1, 1983, and for their broker-dealer examinations received from NSCC a fee of 12¢ per side cleared transaction in Amex and over-the-counter securities, respectively. Under that agreement, the NASD realized a maximum annual fee of $1,000,000, and the Amex $550,000. The NASD has replaced the fee with a new fee of 10¢ per transaction on all over-the-counter cleared transactions and the Amex has replaced its fee with a new fee of 0.00225% of the compared share value of Amex transactions.

<sup>7</sup> Specifically, comment letters were received from the following: NASD, dated August 3, 1983, and September 27, 1983; National Futures Association, dated July 28, 1983; Chicago Board Options Exchange, Inc., dated August 10, 1983; Futures Industry Association ("FIA"), dated September 19, 1983; Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board ("MSRB"), dated August 16, 1983; National Security Traders Association, dated August 18, 1983; Barney Perry & Company, dated August 23, 1983; Brown, Geary & McInnes, dated August 15, 1983; Cable, Howse & Ragen, dated August 16, 1983; Carolina Securities Corporation, dated August 25, 1983; Hanifen, Inhoff, Inc., dated September 2, 1983; UMIC, Inc., dated August 25, 1983; Carty & Co., dated August 24, 1983; Ferris & Co., dated August 9, 1983; Folger, Nolen, Fleming, Douglas, Inc., dated August 9, 1983; Mesirov & Co., dated August 3, 1983; Scharf & Jones, dated August 25, 1983; William E. Read & Co., Inc., dated September 19, 1983; and Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith, undated, received September 29, 1983. Nearly all of these comment letters were filed in connection with File No. SR-NYSE-83-24, a predecessor to the instant filing.

revenues, insofar as the NYSE does not have primary regulatory responsibility over non-NYSE transactions; (ii) the inequity of fees based on members' gross revenues, insofar as the NASD, for example, imposes charges on dual NASD/NYSE members for oversight and enforcement activities, which charges are based solely on OTC transactions; and (iii) the burden of such a fee on NYSE members who receive most of their revenue from business unrelated to NYSE transactions.

In a letter dated September 15, 1983,<sup>8</sup> the NYSE responded that it has sole responsibility as the DEA under the Act for examining virtually all of its members for compliance with applicable financial and operational standards in conducting the FINOP examination, and that its regulatory services fee is intended to fund a portion of the costs of discharging this responsibility. The NYSE has stated further that it costs the Exchange approximately $15,000,000 to provide FINOP regulation of its members,<sup>9</sup> and that other SROs benefit from such regulation without contributing to its cost. According to the NYSE, a fee based on a member's gross revenues is appropriate because the NYSE's examination of members for compliance with financial and operational standards encompasses all activities of the member—not just the portion of its business represented by transactions effected on the NYSE. Furthermore, the NYSE indicated that if the fee were based solely on NYSE transactions, then a member with mostly non-NYSE transaction revenues would pay proportionately less than a member with predominantly NYSE transaction revenues, even though the Exchange would have to expend the same resources in conducting its FINOP examination of each member.

II. Discussion

Several commentators, including the NASD and the MSRB,<sup>10</sup> objected to

<sup>8</sup> See letter from James E. Buck, Secretary, NYSE, to George A. Fitzsimmons, Secretary, SEC, dated September 15, 1983. This letter was submitted at the Commission's request that the NYSE clarify the purposes of the fee and address the various issues raised by the comment letters.

<sup>9</sup> The Commission has not received detailed information concerning the basis on which NYSE has made this estimate. Nevertheless, it believes that the revenues generated by the proposed rule change will not exceed NYSE's examination costs. Any subsequent increases in the fee, however, would have to be accompanied by a detailed cost justification.

<sup>10</sup> See letters from Frank J. Wilson, Executive Vice President, NASD, to George A. Fitzsimmons, Secretary, SEC, dated August 3, 1983 and September 27, 1983; letter from Angelo's Desmond, General Counsel, MSRB, to George A. Fitzsimmons, Secretary, SEC, dated August 16, 1983.

basing the proposed NYSE charges on gross revenues on the ground that other SROs have primary regulatory responsibility over their members for a number of the transactions that contribute to those revenues. The NASD, for example, states that a charge based on "total revenues" includes many revenue sources over which the NYSE has no regulatory responsibility—such as underwriting, commodity futures, municipal securities, and non-NYSE securities. The NASD claims that the assessment of SRO regulatory fees has traditionally been tied to the specific responsibilities of the respective SROs; that is, exchange members have always been assessed by exchanges for exchange transactions, and NASD members have been assessed by the NASD for OTC transactions.

Similarly, the MSRB argues that, under Section 15B(b) of the Act, the MSRB is the "primary medium" for regulation of the municipal securities industry and that under Section 15A(b)(2) of the Act, the NASD has express responsibility with respect to compliance, inspection and enforcement of MSRB rules in the case of broker-dealers. The MSRB notes that municipal securities transactions generally occur in the OTC market and that brokers and dealers who effect municipal securities transactions are subject to regulatory fees imposed by the NASD. The FIA also raised a jurisdictional objection to the NYSE charges, stating that NYSE members engaged in activities under the jurisdiction of the Commodity Futures Trading Commission ("CFTC") pay fees to SROs designated by the CFTC and such SROs (together with the CFTC) have primary responsibility to examine and enforce applicable financial and operational CFTC requirements.<sup>11</sup>

The Commission recognizes that SROs other than the NYSE have primary responsibility for enforcing member compliance with SRO rules and the federal securities laws with respect to a variety of securities transactions. Similarly, the NYSE has no responsibility, of course, for enforcement of the commodities laws. The NYSE's proposed regulatory charges, however, do not raise issues of SRO jurisdiction. As the DEA under Rule 17d-1,<sup>12</sup> the NYSE has the

<sup>12</sup> Rule 17d-1 under the Act addresses those instances where, because a broker-dealer belongs to more than one SRO, more than one SRO has regulatory responsibilities over that broker-dealer. In such cases, the Commission designates which SRO is responsible for inspecting the member to assure its compliance with applicable financial exclusive responsibility to inspect virtually all of its members for compliance with applicable financial responsibility rules, including NYSE members that belong to other SROs.<sup>13</sup> Thus, with rare exceptions, the NYSE's FINOP examinations of NYSE members are not duplicated by any oversight activities conducted by other SROs. As the DEA, the NYSE has sole responsibility for examining its members both with respect to transactions in NYSE listed securities as well as any of their other financial activities.<sup>14</sup>

In the Commission's view, NYSE's proposed charges would not expand the NYSE's jurisdiction over its members. As the DEA for monitoring the financial responsibility of its members, including members that also belong to another SRO, the NYSE already has an obligation, in conducting examinations and otherwise, to ensure its members' financial responsibility by, for example, enforcing compliance with SRO and Commission net capital rules. Under the proposed rule change, the NYSE is seeking an allocation of charges commensurate with its examination and other oversight responsibilities in this area. In effect, the NYSE would be imposing a charge on total revenues for a service it is required by the Commission to perform for all of its members, including those that also belong to other SROs.

B. Duplication of Oversight Fees

A number of commentators argued that dual NASD/NYSE members are already assessed charges by the NASD for regulatory oversight based on OTC cleared transactions, and that payment to the NYSE of charges based on gross revenues duplicates the NASD's responsibility rules. See Securities Exchange Act Release No. 12352, April 20, 1976.

<sup>13</sup> The Commission has named SROs other than the NYSE as DEAs in certain unusual circumstances. For example, the CBOE is DEA for several NYSE members that engage predominantly in options market making and clearing activities. In addition, electronic access members of the NYSE whose business is primarily OTC occasionally are assigned to the NASD. In this regard, the NYSE has amended its proposed rule change to provide that the regulatory oversight services fee will not be imposed upon any member for which the NYSE is not the DEA under Rule 17d-1. (SR-NYSE-83-34, Amendment No. 2).

<sup>14</sup> Thus, although the NYSE has no direct responsibilities under the federal securities laws to ensure compliance by its members with the Commodity Exchange Act or other commodities regulations, it is required to review commodities transactions as part of its overall review of a member firm's financial and operational position. Therefore, the Commission believes it is appropriate for the NYSE to include revenues from commodities (and other non-securities) sources in calculating its oversight charge.

charges.<sup>15</sup> The NASD fee, however, is not duplicative of a fee charged by the NYSE to cover its costs in administering FINOP exams since the NYSE has exclusive responsibility for conducting annual FINOP examinations of its members.

With respect to NYSE members whose revenues are generated predominantly from non-NYSE transactions, the Commission notes that the same type of FINOP examination must be performed by the NYSE regardless of whether a particular NYSE member firm derives its gross revenues mainly from NYSE transactions or mainly from other sources, such as dealings in OTC stocks, municipal bonds, options, commodity futures, or from underwriting. Accordingly, it would appear equitable for the NYSE to charge an examining fee based on a firm's total or gross revenues. Otherwise, a specialty firm having a small percentage of NYSE business relative to its gross revenues would be charged proportionately less for its FINOP examination, and another firm having a high percentage of NYSE business would be charged proportionately more for equivalent services.<sup>16</sup>

III. Conclusion and Findings

The Commission believes that the NYSE's proposed regulatory oversight services fee under NYSE Rule 129<sup>17</sup>

<sup>15</sup>The NASD currently imposes a regulatory fee of 10¢ per transaction on all OTC cleared transactions. See Securities Exchange Act Release No. 19900 (May 23, 1983).

<sup>16</sup>On a related issue, the National Futures Association ("NFA") has objected that the NYSE is already being compensated for its review of the futures business of dual members of the NYSE and seven commodities exchanges. See letter from Joseph H. Harrison, General Counsel, NFA, to Secretary, SEC, dated July 28, 1983. In its comment letter, the NYSE states that the Exchange receives a base amount of $250,000 per year from the commodities exchanges in the aggregate. According to the NYSE, this amount is intended to cover both supplying FINOP information to the seven commodity exchanges and reviewing dual members in the sales practice area, which is separate from the FINOP examination. The NYSE states that the contract amount merely reimburses the Exchange for the incremental costs incurred by it in supplying information to, and in interfacing with, the commodity exchanges; and that it does not serve to reduce the annual cost incurred by the Exchange in conducting FINOP examinations of its members.

<sup>17</sup>In its proposed rule change, the NYSE deletes that portion of Rule 129 that requires that any such charges be imposed pursuant to Article X, Section 10 of the NYSE Constitution. Section 10 requires such charges to be measured by the number of, the value of, or the commissions on transactions effected on the NYSE floor or on transactions on Exchange-listed securities, regardless of whether such transactions are affected. Instead, charges under Rule 129 would be governed by Article X, Section 3 of the NYSE Constitution, which provides that the NYSE Board may impose charges on members for the use of equipment or facilities or for particular services or privileges granted. In filing the NYSE based on the gross revenues of its members is appropriate insofar as the NYSE is the designated examining authority under Rule 17d-1 of the Act with respect to conducting the financial and operational (FINOP) examination of its members. No other SRO has responsibility for conducting such examinations which necessarily include inspection of non-NYSE related aspects of a member's business.

The Commission finds that the proposed rule change is consistent with the requirements of the Act and the rules and regulations thereunder applicable to a national securities exchange and, in particular, the requirements of Section 6 and the rules and regulations thereunder.<sup>18</sup>

In particular, the Commission finds that the regulatory fee is consistent with Section 6(b)(4) of the Act, which requires that exchange rules provide for the equitable allocation of reasonable dues, fees and other charges among its members. A charge of 13¢ per $1000 gross revenue is reasonable in light of the examination services that the NYSE is required to perform; in view of the contends that its regulatory oversight services are, in fact, services within the meaning of Section 3. Section 3 contains no provision that any charges imposed under that section be measured by NYSE-related transactions.

In its two comment letters, the NASD states that the proposed regulatory fee is "inconsistent" with the NYSE Constitution and, specifically, that the section of the Constitution relied on by the NYSE (Article X, Section 3) provides no basis for the fee. The NASD claims that a "fundamental change" of this type must be supported by a constitutional amendment endorsed by its membership, rather than merely a fee reclassification by the NYSE's board. According to the NASD, the proposed changes cannot be reasonably classified as a "service fee" of the type authorized under Article X, Section 3, but must remain controlled by Article X, Section 10, requiring charges to be based on NYSE-related revenues.

The Commission does not concur with the NASD that a membership vote was required. While the FINOP exams are different than the other services for which NYSE has in the past levied fees under Article X, Section 3, and while the proposed fee is calculated in a different manner than the previous examining fee, the Commission does not believe either factor amounts to such a "fundamental change" that NYSE is compelled under its Constitution to submit the proposal to a members' plebiscite before the fee could be adopted. While charges for regulatory oversight responsibilities under Rule 129 have heretofore been controlled by Article X, Section 10, the Commission views the NYSE Board's amendment to Rule 129 and its classification of regulatory oversight responsibilities as "services" under Article X, Section 3, as reasonable.

<sup>18</sup>The Commission's determination that the proposed fee is consistent with the Act is directly based on the universal nature of the FINOP examination. SRO fees calculated on members' gross revenues intended to support services directly related to that marketplace or for examinations (such as sales practice examinations) which do not focus on all aspects of a member's business would not appear to be appropriate.

fact that the charges were established to collect $3,000,000 (based on 1982 revenues); and in view of the likelihood that such charges may not fully compensate the Exchange for its expenses in conducting FINOP examinations for its members.

The charge is equitable insofar as all NYSE members are assessed on the same basis. Admittedly, those NYSE members whose revenue is largely based on non-NYSE-related business will pay proportionately more than they have in the past in comparison to NYSE members whose NYSE-related business predominates. However, because FINOP examinations provide no unique benefit to the NYSE, but instead entail an examination of all activities conducted by the member, the Commission believes that the charge equitably allocates FINOP examination costs.

The Commission finds further that the proposed charges are consistent with Section 6(b)(8) of the Act, which requires that an exchange's rules not impose any burden on competition not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. The Commission does not view such a modest fee as having a significant competitive effect on NYSE members regardless of the method of calculation. Any burden imposed by such charges is de minimis and clearly outweighed by the Commission's interest in monitoring the financial responsibility of all NYSE members. More importantly, the Commission does not believe the NYSE proposal imposes a burden on competition simply because it alters the basis under which the fee is imposed. As noted above, the Commission has concluded that the proposed fee is equitable and applies to all NYSE members on the same basis. The NYSE could have chosen to impose charges on NYSE revenues only. The Commission believes charging only on the basis of NYSE transactions would not have eliminated a competitive burden, but merely would have shifted it to NYSE members whose revenues are largely NYSE-related. The Commission does not view this as a more equitable (or even appropriate) arrangement in light of the nature of the FINOP examination. Finally, the proposed fee, in conjunction with fees imposed by NASD and Amex, will result in some firms being required to pay fees to more than one SRO on the same transaction. So long as its fees are otherwise appropriate, however, the Commission does not believe any SRO should be constrained in devising a fee arrangement on the basis of charges imposed by other SROs.

It is therefore ordered, pursuant to Section 19(b)(2) of the Act, that the above-mentioned proposed rule change be, and hereby is, approved.

For the Commission, by the Division of Market Regulation pursuant to delegated authority.

George A. Fitzsimmons,
Secretary.

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Office of the Secretary

[Department Circular; Public Debt Series No. 34-83]

12% Treasury Bonds of 2008-2013

Washington, October 27, 1983.

1. Invitation for Tenders

1.1. The Secretary of the Treasury, under the authority of Chapter 31 of Title 31, United States Code, invites tenders for approximately $4,250,000,000 of United States securities, designated 12% Treasury Bonds of 2008-2013 (CUSIP No. 912810 DF 2). The securities will be sold at auction, with bidding on the basis of yield. Payment will be required at the price equivalent of the bid yield of each accepted tender. The price equivalent of each accepted bid will be determined in the manner described below. Additional amounts of these securities may be issued to Government accounts and Federal Reserve Banks for their own account in exchange for maturing Treasury securities. Additional amounts of the new securities may also be issued at the average price to Federal Reserve Banks, as agents for foreign and international monetary authorities.

2. Description of Securities

2.1. The securities will be issued November 15, 1983, and are offered as an additional amount of 12% Treasury Bonds of 2008-2013 (CUSIP No. 912810 DF 2) dated August 15, 1983. Payment for the securities will be based on the price equivalent to the bid yield (to maturity) determined in accordance with this circular, plus accrued interest from August 15, 1983, to November 15, 1983. Interest on the securities offered as an additional issue is payable on a semiannual basis on February 15, 1984, and each subsequent 6 months on August 15 and February 15 until the principal becomes payable. They will mature August 15, 2013, but may be redeemed at the option of the United States on and after August 15, 2008, in whole or in part, at par and accrued interest on any interest payment date or dates, on 4 months' notice of call given in such manner as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe. In case of partial call, the securities to be redeemed will be determined by such method as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury. Interest on the securities called for redemption shall cease on the date of redemption specified in the notice of call. In the event an interest payment date or the maturity date is a Saturday, Sunday, or other nonbusiness day, the interest or principal is payable on the next succeeding business day.

2.2. The income derived from the securities is subject to all taxes imposed under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The securities are subject to estate, inheritance, gift, or other excise taxes, whether Federal or State, but are exempt from all taxation now or hereafter imposed on the principal or interest thereof by any State, any possession of the United States, or any local taxing authority.

2.3. The securities will be acceptable to secure deposits of public monies. They will not be acceptable in payment of taxes.

2.4. Securities registered as to principal and interest will be issued in denominations of $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, $100,000, and $1,000,000. Book-entry securities will be available to eligible bidders in multiples of those amounts. Interchanges of securities of different denominations and of registered and book-entry securities, and the transfer of registered securities will be permitted

Bearer securities will not be available, and the interchange or registered or book-entry securities for bearer securities will not be permitted.

2.5. The Department of the Treasury's general regulations governing United States securities apply to the securities offered in this circular. These general regulations include those currently in effect, as well as those that may be issued at a later date.

3. Sale Procedures

3.1. Tenders will be received at Federal Reserve Banks and Branches and at the Bureau of the Public Debt, Washington, D.C. 20226, prior to 1:30 p.m., Eastern Standard time, Thursday, November 3, 1983. Noncompetitive tenders as defined below will be considered timely if postmarked no later than Wednesday, November 2, 1983, and received no later than Tuesday, November 15, 1983.

3.2. The face amount of securities bid for must be stated on each tender. The minimum bid is $1,000, and larger bids must be in multiples of that amount. Competitive tenders must also show the yield desired, expressed in terms of an annual yield (to maturity) with two decimals, e.g., 7.10%. Common fractions may not be used. Noncompetitive tenders must show the term "noncompetitive" on the tender form in lieu of a specified yield. No bidder may submit more than one noncompetitive tender, and the amount may not exceed $1,000,000.

3.3. Commercial banks, which for this purpose are defined as banks accepting demand deposits, and primary dealers, which for this purpose are defined as dealers who make primary markets in Government securities and report daily to the Federal Reserve Bank of New York their positions in and borrowings on such securities, may submit tenders for account of customers if the names of the customers and the amount for each customer are furnished. Others are permitted to submit tenders only for their own account.

3.4. Tenders will be received without deposit for their own account from commercial banks and other banking institutions; primary dealers, as defined above; Federally-insured savings and loan associations; States, and their political subdivisions or instrumentalities; public pension and retirement and other public funds; international organizations in which the United States holds membership; foreign central banks and foreign states; Federal Reserve Banks; and Government accounts. Tenders from others must be accompanied by full payment for the amount of securities applied for (in the form of cash, maturing Treasury securities, or readily collectible checks), or by a payment guarantee of 5 percent of the face amount applied for, from a commercial bank or a primary dealer.

3.5. A noncompetitive bidder may not have entered into an agreement, or make an agreement with respect to the purchase or sale or other disposition of any noncompetitive awards of this issue in this auction prior to 1:30 p.m., Eastern Standard time, Thursday, November 3, 1983.

3.6. Immediately after the closing hour, tenders will be opened, followed by a public announcement of the amount and yield range of accepted bids. Subject to the reservations expressed in Section 4, noncompetitive tenders will be accepted in full, and then competitive tenders will be accepted, starting with those at the lowest yields, through successively higher yields to the extent required to attain the amount offered. Competitive tenders at yields higher than 12.94% will not be accepted, because the equivalent prices would fall below the original issue discount limit of 92.750. Tenders at the highest accepted yield will be prorated if necessary. After the determination is made as to which tenders are accepted, the price on each competitive tender allotted will be determined and each successful competitive bidder will be required to pay the price equivalent to the yield (to maturity) bid. Those submitting noncompetitive tenders will pay the price equivalent to the weighted average yield (to maturity) of accepted competitive tenders. Price calculations will be carried to three decimal places on the basis of price per hundred, e.g., 99.923, and the determinations of the Secretary of the Treasury shall be final. If the amount of noncompetitive tenders received would absorb all or most of the offering, competitive tenders will be accepted in an amount sufficient to provide a fair determination of the yield. Tenders received from Government accounts and Federal Reserve Banks will be accepted at the price equivalent to the weighted average yield of accepted competitive tenders.

3.7. Competitive bidders will be advised of the acceptance or rejection of their tenders. Those submitting noncompetitive tenders will be notified only if the tender is not accepted in full, or when the price is over par.

4. Reservations

4.1. The Secretary of the Treasury expressly reserves the right to accept or reject any or all tenders in whole or in part, to allot more or less than the amount of securities specified in Section

1. and to make different percentage allotments to various classes of applicants when the Secretary considers it in the public interest. The Secretary's action under this Section is final.

5. Payment and Delivery

5.1. Settlement for allotted securities must be made at the Federal Reserve Bank or Branch or at the Bureau of the Public Debt, wherever the tender was submitted, and must include accrued interest from August 15, 1983, to November 15, 1983, in the amount of $30,000,000 per $1,000 of securities allotted. Settlement on securities allotted to institutional investors and to others whose tenders are accompanied by a payment guarantee as provided in Section 3.4., must be made or completed on or before Tuesday, November 15, 1983. Payment in full must accompany tenders submitted by all other investors. Payment must be in cash; in other funds immediately available to the Treasury; in Treasury bills, notes, or bonds (with all coupons detached) maturing on or before the settlement date but which are not overdue as defined in the general regulations governing United States securities; or by check drawn to the order of the institution to which the tender was submitted, which must be received from institutional investors no later than Thursday, November 10, 1983. When payment has been submitted with the tender and the purchase price of allotted securities is over par, settlement for the premium must be completed timely, as specified in the preceding sentence. When payment has been submitted with the tender and the purchase price is under par, the discount will be remitted to the bidder. Payment will not be considered complete where registered securities are requested if the appropriate identifying number as required on tax returns and other documents submitted to the Internal Revenue Service (an individual's social security number or an employer identification number) is not furnished. When payment is made in securities, a cash adjustment will be made to or required of the bidder for any difference between the face amount of securities presented and the amount payable on the securities allotted.

5.2. In every case where full payment has not been completed on time, an amount of up to 5 percent of the face amount of securities allotted, shall, at the discretion of the Secretary of the Treasury, be forfeited to the United States.

5.3. Registered securities tendered in payment for allotted securities are not required to be assigned if the new securities are to be registered in the same names and forms as appear in the registrations or assignments of the securities surrendered. When the new securities are to be registered in names and forms different from those in the inscriptions or assignments of the securities presented, the assignment should be to "The Secretary of the Treasury for (securities offered by this circular) in the name of (name and taxpayer identifying number)." Specific instructions for the issuance and delivery of the new securities, signed by the owner or authorized representative, must accompany the securities presented. Securities tendered in payment should be surrendered to the Federal Reserve Bank or Branch or to the Bureau of the Public Debt, Washington, D.C. 20228. The securities must be delivered at the expense and risk of the holder.

5.4. Delivery of securities in registered form will be made after the requested form of registration has been validated, the registered interest account has been established, and the securities have been inscribed.

6. General Provisions

6.1. As fiscal agents of the United States, Federal Reserve Banks are authorized and requested to receive tenders, to make allotments as directed by the Secretary of the Treasury, to issue such notices as may be necessary, and to receive payment for and make delivery of securities on full-paid allotments.

6.2. The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time issue supplemental or amendatory rules and regulations governing the offering. Public announcement of such changes will be promptly provided.

Treasury Notes of November 15, 1993; Series D-1993

Washington, October 27, 1983.

1. Invitation for Tenders

1.1. The Secretary of the Treasury, under the authority of Chapter 31 of Title 31, United States Code, invites tenders for approximately $5,250,000,000 of United States securities, designated Treasury Notes of November 15, 1993, Series D-1993 (CUSIP No. 912827 QD 7). The securities will be sold at auction, with bidding on the basis of yield.

Payment will be required at the price equivalent of the bid yield of each accepted tender. The interest rate on the securities and the price equivalent of each accepted bid will be determined in the manner described below. Additional amounts of these securities may be issued to Government accounts and Federal Reserve Banks for their own account in exchange for maturing Treasury securities. Additional amounts of the new securities may also be issued at the average price to Federal Reserve Banks, as agents for foreign and international monetary authorities.

2. Description of Securities

2.1. The securities will be dated November 15, 1983, and will bear interest from that date, payable on a semiannual basis on May 15, 1984, and each subsequent 6 months on November 15 and May 15 until the principal becomes payable. They will mature November 15, 1993, and will not be subject to call for redemption prior to maturity. In the event an interest payment date or the maturity date is a Saturday, Sunday, or other nonbusiness day, the interest or principal is payable on the next-succeeding business day.

2.2. The income derived from the securities is subject to all taxes imposed under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The securities are subject to estate, inheritance, gift, or other excise taxes, whether Federal or State, but are exempt from all taxation now or hereafter imposed on the principal or interest thereof by any State, any possession of the United States, or any local taxing authority.

2.3. The securities will be acceptable to secure deposits of public monies. They will not be acceptable in payment of taxes.

2.4. Securities registered as to principal and interest will be issued in denominations of $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, $100,000, and $1,000,000. Book-entry securities will be available to eligible bidders in multiples of those amounts. Interchanges of securities of different denominations and of registered and book-entry securities, and the transfer of registered securities will be permitted. Bearer securities will not be available, and the interchange of registered or book-entry securities for bearer securities will not be permitted.

2.5. The Department of the Treasury's general regulations governing United States securities apply to the securities offered in this circular. These general regulations include those currently in effect, as well as those that may be issued at a later date.

3. Sale Procedures

3.1. Tenders will be received at Federal Reserve Banks and Branches and at the Bureau of the Public Debt, Washington, D.C. 20226, prior to 1:30 p.m., Eastern Standard time, Wednesday, November 2, 1983. Noncompetitive tenders as defined below will be considered timely if postmarked no later than Tuesday, November 1, 1983, and received no later than Tuesday, November 15, 1983.

3.2. The face amount of securities bid for must be stated on each tender. The minimum bid is $1,000, and larger bids must be in multiples of that amount. Competitive tenders must also show the yield desired, expressed in terms of an annual yield with two decimals, e.g., 7.10%. Common fractions may not be used. 3.5. A noncompetitive bidder may not have entered into an agreement, or make an agreement with respect to the purchase or sale or other disposition of any noncompetitive awards of this issue in this auction prior to 1:30 p.m., Eastern Standard time, Wednesday, November 2, 1983.

3.6. Immediately after the closing hour, tenders will be opened, followed by a public announcement of the amount and yield range of accepted bids. Subject to the reservations expressed in Section 4, noncompetitive tenders will be accepted in full, and then competitive tenders will be accepted, starting with those at the lowest yields, through successively higher yields to the extent required to attain the amount offered. Tenders at the highest accepted yield will be prorated if necessary. After the determination is made to which tenders are accepted, an interest rate will be established, on the basis of a  $\frac{1}{2}$  of one percent increment, which results in an equivalent average accepted price close to 100.000 and a lowest accepted price above the original issued discount limit of 97.500. That rate of interest will be paid on all of the securities. Based on such interest rate, the price on each competitive tender allotted will be determined and each successful competitive bidder will be required to pay the price equivalent to the yield bid. Those submitting noncompetitive tenders will pay the price equivalent to the weighted average yield of accepted competitive tenders. Price calculations will be carried to three decimal places on the basis of price per hundred, e.g., 99.923, and the determinations of the Secretary of the Treasury shall be final. If the amount of noncompetitive tenders received would absorb all or most of the offering, competitive tenders will be accepted in an amount sufficient to provide a fair determination of the yield. 2.1. The securities will be dated November 15, 1983, and will bear interest from that date, payable on a semiannual basis on May 15, 1984, and each subsequent 6 months on November 15 and May 15 until the principal becomes payable. They will mature November 15, 1986, and will not be subject to call for redemption prior to maturity. In the event an interest payment date or the maturity date is a Saturday, Sunday, or other nonbusiness day, the interest or principal is payable on the next-succeeding business day.

2.2. The income derived from the securities is subject to all taxes imposed under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The securities are subject to estate, inheritance, gift, or other excise taxes, whether Federal or State, but are exempt from all taxation now or hereafter imposed on the principal or interest thereof by any State, any possession of the United States, or any local taxing authority.

2.3. The securities will be acceptable to secure deposits of public monies. They will not be acceptable in payment of taxes.

2.4. Securities registered as to principal and interest will be issued in denominations of $5,000, $10,000, $100,000, and $1,000,000. Book-entry securities will be available to eligible bidders in multiples of those amounts. Interchanges of securities of different denominations and of registered and book-entry securities, and the transfer of registered securities will be permitted. Bearer securities will not be available, and the interchange of registered or book-entry securities for bearer securities will not be permitted.

2.5. The Department of the Treasury's general regulations governing United States securities apply to the securities offered in this circular. These general regulations include those currently in effect, as well as those that may be issued at a later date.

3. Sale Procedures

3.1. Tenders will be received at Federal Reserve Banks and Branches and at the Bureau of the Public Debt, Washington, D.C. 20226, prior to 1:30 p.m., Eastern Standard time, Tuesday, November 1, 1983. Noncompetitive tenders as defined below will be considered timely if postmarked no later than Monday, October 31, 1983, and received no later than Tuesday, November 15, 1983.

3.2. The face amount of securities bid for must be stated on each tender. The minimum bid is $5,000, and larger bids must be in multiples of that amount. Competitive tenders must also show the yield desired, expressed in terms of an annual yield with two decimals, e.g., 7.10%. Common fractions may not be used. Noncompetitive tenders must show the term "noncompetitive" on the tender form in lieu of a specified yield. No bidder may submit more than one noncompetitive tender, and the amount may not exceed $1,000,000.

3.3. Commercial banks, which for this purpose are defined as banks accepting demand deposits, and primary dealers, which for this purpose are defined as dealers who make primary markets in Government securities and report daily to the Federal Reserve Bank of New York their positions in and borrowings on such securities, may submit tenders for account of customers if the names of the customers and the amount for each customer are furnished. Others are permitted to submit tenders only for their own account.

3.4. Tenders will be received without deposit for their own account from commercial banks and other banking institutions; primary dealers, as defined above; Federally-insured savings and loan associations; States, and their political subdivisions or instrumentalities; public pension and retirement and other public funds; international organizations in which the United States holds membership; foreign central banks and foreign states; Federal Reserve Banks; and Government accounts. Tenders from others must be accompanied by full payment for the amount of securities applied for (in the form of cash, maturing Treasury securities, or readily collectible checks), or by a payment guarantee of 5 percent of the face amount applied for, from a commercial bank or a primary dealer.

3.5. A noncompetitive bidder may not have entered into an agreement, or make an agreement with respect to the purchase or sale or other disposition of any noncompetitive awards of this issue in this auction prior to 1:30 p.m., Eastern Standard time, Tuesday, November 1, 1983.

3.6. Immediately after the closing hour, tenders will be opened, followed by a public announcement of the amount and yield range of accepted bids. Subject to the reservations expressed in Section 4, noncompetitive tenders will be accepted in full, and then competitive tenders will be accepted, starting with those at the lowest yields, through successively higher yields to the extent required to attain the amount offered. Tenders at the highest accepted yield will be prorated if necessary. After the determination is made as to which tenders are accepted, an interest rate will be established, on the basis of a 1/8 of one percent increment, which results in an equivalent average accepted price close to 100.000 and a lowest accepted price above the original issue discount limit of 99.250. That rate of interest will be paid on all of the securities. Based on such interest rate, the price on each competitive tender allotted will be determined and each successful competitive bidder will be required to pay the price equivalent to the yield bid. Those submitting noncompetitive tenders will pay the price equivalent to the weighted average yield of accepted competitive tenders. Price calculations will be carried to three decimal places on the basis of price per hundred, e.g., 99.923, and the determinations of the Secretary of the Treasury shall be final. If the amount of noncompetitive tenders received would absorb all or most of the offering, competitive tenders will be accepted in an amount sufficient to provide a fair determination of the yield. Tenders received from Government accounts and Federal Reserve Banks will be accepted at the price equivalent to the weighted average yield of accepted competitive tenders.

3.7. Competitive bidders will be advised of the acceptance or rejection of their tenders. Those submitting noncompetitive tenders will be notified only if the tender is not accepted in full, or when the price is over par.

4. Reservations

4.1. The Secretary of the Treasury expressly reserves the right to accept or reject any or all tenders in whole or in part, to allot more or less than the amount of securities specified in Section 1, and to make different percentage allotments to various classes of applicants when the Secretary considers it in the public interest. The Secretary's action under this Section is final.

5. Payment and Delivery

5.1. Settlement for allotted securities must be made at the Federal Reserve Bank or Branch or at the Bureau of the Public Debt, wherever the tender was submitted. Settlement on securities allotted to institutional investors and to others whose tenders are accompanied by a payment guarantee as provided in Section 3.4., must be made or completed on or before Tuesday, November 15, 1983. Payment in full must accompany tenders submitted by all other investors. Payment must be in cash; in other funds immediately available to the Treasury; in Treasury bills, notes, or bonds (with all coupons detached) maturing on or before the settlement date but which are not overdue as defined in the general regulations governing United States securities; or by check drawn to the order of the institution to which the tender was submitted, which must be received from institutional investors no later than Thursday, November 10, 1983. When payment has been submitted with the tender and the purchase price of allotted securities is over par, settlement for the premium must be completed timely, as specified in the preceding sentence. When payment has been submitted with the tender and the purchase price is under par, the discount will be remitted to the bidder. Payment will not be considered complete where registered securities are requested if the appropriate identifying number as required on tax returns and other documents submitted to the Internal Revenue Service (an individual's social security number or an employer identification number) is not furnished. When payment is made in securities, a cash adjustment will be made to or required of the bidder for any difference between the face amount of securities presented and the amount payable on the securities allotted.

5.3. Registered securities tendered in payment for allotted securities are not required to be assigned if the new securities are to be registered in the same names and forms as appear in the registrations or assignments of the securities surrendered. When the new securities are to be registered in names and forms different from those in the inscriptions or assignments of the securities presented, the assignment should be to "The Secretary of the Treasury for (securities offered by this circular) in the name of (name and taxpayer identifying number)." Specific instructions for the issuance and delivery of the new securities, signed by the owner or authorized representative, must accompany the securities presented. Securities tendered in payment should be surrendered to the Federal Reserve Bank or Branch or to the Bureau of the Public Debt, Washington, D.C. 20226. The securities must be delivered at the expense and risk of the holder.

5.4. Delivery of securities in registered form will be made after the requested form of registration has been validated, the registered interest account has been established, and the securities have been inscribed.

6. General Provisions

6.1. As fiscal agents of the United States, Federal Reserve Banks are authorized and requested to receive tenders, to make allotments as directed by the Secretary of the Treasury, to issue such notices as may be necessary, and to receive payment for and make delivery of securities on full-paid allotments.

6.2. The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time issue supplemental or amendatory rules and regulations governing the offering. Public announcement of such changes will be promptly provided.

Carole J. Dineen,

Fiscal Assistant Secretary.

Statute of Limitations Claims List

November 1, 1983.

AGENCY: Department of the Interior.ACTION: This notice is published in the exercise of authority delegated by the Secretary of the Interior to the Assistant Secretary—Indian Affairs by 209 DM 8.

SUMMARY: This notice lists all potential pre-1966 Indian damage claims submitted to the Department of the Interior's Statute of Limitations Program by tribes, groups, and individual Indians pursuant to Sec. 4(a) of the Indian Claims Limitation Act of 1982, Pub. L. 97-394. The claims are grouped by Indian tribes. Excluded from this list are claims which have no legal merit whatsoever or which were not sufficiently identified as a claim. The listing of a claim does not signify that the Department believes the claim has legal merit. This notice, together with the list of claims published in the Federal Register on March 31, 1983 (Vol. 48, No. 63, Part V), constitute all the known pre-1966 Indian damage claims.

DATE: This notice establishes that any right of action for claims not appearing in this notice or the notice published in the Federal Register on March 31, 1983, shall be barred 60 days after the date of this publication. For claims included on either of the published lists, the statute of limitations does not begin to run until the Secretary of the Interior takes certain actions.

Sacramento Area Director, Bureau of Indian Affairs, 2800 Cottage Way, Sacramento, California 95825. Telephone: (916) 484-6682.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Indian Claims Limitation Act of 1982, Pub. L. 97-394, extends the federal statute of limitations governing pre-1966 Indian damage claims (28 U.S.C. 2415), which was due to expire on December 31, 1982. A claim subject to the statute of limitations in Pub. L. 97-394 is an Indian claim for money damages which arose prior to July 18, 1966. Claims against the United States are not governed by this law, only money damage claims against persons, corporations, states, or any other entities except the Federal Government. Claims for title to land are also not governed by this statute of limitations. The vast majority of the listed claims involve trespasses to Indian land.

This notice lists all potential Indian damage claims, which have been submitted to the Bureau of Indian Affairs by tribes, groups, or individual Indians pursuant to Sec. 4(a) of the Indian Claims Limitation Act, Pub. L. 97-394.

For claims not included on this list or the list of claims published in the Federal Register on March 31, 1983, any right of action shall be barred 60 days after the publication of this supplemental list. For all claims included on either of the published lists, the statute of limitations does not begin to run until the Secretary takes certain actions. If the Secretary decides to reject any claim or category of claims included on the two lists, a report must be sent to the appropriate tribe whose rights or the rights of whose members could be affected by a rejection. The report will identify each separate claim being rejected, list the names of potential plaintiffs and defendants, if known or reasonably ascertainable, and briefly set forth the reason or reasons for rejection. A simple written notice of rejection will be sent to individual Indian claimants, if their identities and addresses are known or reasonably ascertainable from Bureau of Indian Affairs' records. As soon as possible after a report has been forwarded to a tribe, the Secretary shall publish a notice in the Federal Register identifying the claims covered in the report. Any right of action on claims rejected by the Secretary and covered in the report shall be barred unless a complaint is filed within one year after the notice of rejection is published in the Federal Register. After a report has been issued, any Indian claimant may request the Secretary to provide any non-privileged information relating to any claim covered by the report.

If the Secretary determines that a claim or a category of claims should be resolved legislatively, he may submit legislative proposals or reports to Congress. Any right of action on a claim covered by a legislative proposal or report shall be barred, if the complaint is not filed within three years after the legislative proposal or report is submitted to Congress.

It is important to remember that, for claims contained on either of the lists, the statute of limitations does not begin to run until such time as the Secretary formally rejects a claim or submits a legislative proposal or report to Congress.

The road trespass claims published in the Federal Register on March 31, 1983, have been updated and corrected for the Billings Area. Numerous errors were discovered when aerial photos were used to verify land descriptions on land status maps. This notice contains a complete updated inventory of road trespass claims for the Billings Areas, which supersedes the Billings Area road trespass claims contained in the Federal Register publication of March 31, 1983. The same claim numbers as those appearing in the March 31, 1983, publication have been assigned to the corrected claims.

Also, in the Federal Register of March 31, 1983, the table of contents referenced only Arapahoe Indians with regard to claims arising within the Wind River Agency. All claims that were published on March 31, 1983, for the Arapahoe Tribe are for both the Shoshone and Arapahoe Tribes and their members.

For the fishery damage claims previously and currently listed under Tribal Codes P00000, P06000, and P10000, the indication of "No tribes or allottees identified" under the "Allottee" heading is not intended to indicate that there were no tribal or individual fishing rights affected. For these claims, there may be more than one tribe or individual claiming fishing rights which were adversely affected by the particular obstruction. Publication of these claims is intended to preserve the potential rights of action of any affected Indian tribe or individual.

Because of the numerous claims listed in the document, this notice may be subject to technical clarification or change.

Kenneth Smith,

Assistant Secretary—Indian Affairs.

Instruction Sheet

Each claim has been assigned a nine or ten character identification number (a letter followed by eight or nine numbers). The first six characters identify a specific Bureau of Indian Affairs' Area Office, Agency Office, and tribe. The last three or four characters represent the specific number assigned to that claim. For example, A013400001 indicates:

A01—Adberdeen Area Office/
Cheyenne River Agency;

340—Cheyenne River Sioux Tribe; and 0001—Claim number one.

To locate a claim, begin with the Table of Contents, which lists each tribe (grouped by Area Office and Agency), and the pages where the claims for that tribe or its members can be found. Individual Indian claims are listed under the tribe of which the original Indian allottee was a member. The claims list has been reproduced by photographing two pages of the list to each Federal Register page. The page number referred to in the Table of Contents is located at the top center above the name of the Area Office, and is not the five digit Federal Register page number located on the outer portion of each page.

If a tribe is not listed in the Table of Contents, no claim was identified for that tribe or its members.

Each page of claims contains five columns of information under the headings: Tribe, Case, Allottee, Allotment, and Type Description.

Tribe: This column contains the six character code number (explained above), which identifies the Area Office/Agency and Tribe.

Case: The three or four digit number under this column represents the specific number assigned to that claim.

Allottee: This column lists the name of the original Indian allottee, if the claim is an individual claim. For tribal claims, the word "tribal" has been inserted.

Allotment: This column lists the allotment number of the original allottee. If the land has no allotment number, the letters N/A (Not Applicable) have been inserted.

Type of Claim: This column briefly describes the nature of the claim. Because of space limitations, a large number of claims have been described simply as Forced Fee or Secretarial Transfer. A Forced Fee claim involves the issuance of a fee simple patent by the Department of the Interior to an Indian allottee before the expiration of the trust period and allegedly without the consent of the allottee. A Secretarial Transfer claim involves the sale of an Indian allotment in heirship status by the Department of the Interior without the consent of all the beneficial heirs.

If, after locating a claim on the list, you desire further information, call or write the Area Office under which your tribe is listed. The names, addresses, and telephone numbers for all Area Offices are contained in the FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT section of this document. Be sure to include the complete identification number for your claim in any correspondence with the Bureau of Indian Affairs' Area or Agency Office. If you cannot find a claim on the list or you need help in locating a claim, call the appropriate Area Office or your tribe.

FEDERAL HOME LOAN BANK BOARD

12 CFR Parts 563 and 571

(No. 83-608)

Reserve Requirements and Policies Relating to Insurance of Accounts of de Novo Institutions

November 3, 1983.

AGENCY: Federal Home Loan Bank Board.

ACTION: Proposed rule.

SUMMARY: The Federal Home Loan Bank Board, as the operating head of the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, is proposing to codify and update its policies relating to approval of insurance applications of de novo (newly-chartered) institutions to require initial capitalization of $3 million to be raised by all de novo applicants. The Board is also proposing to require submission of business plans by all insurance applicants, including a detailed description of the applicants' investment policies, plans, and strategies. In this regard, the Board proposes to establish a policy calling for disapproval of applicants whose business plans indicate an intention to invest more than ten percent of their assets in service corporation subsidiaries or in the acquisition of real estate. The Board further proposes to amend its regulation governing statutory reserve and net-worth requirements as they pertain to new institutions applying for insurance of accounts, including deletion of provisions permitting calculation of reserves on a five-year-average basis and building reserves over a 20-year period. The Board believes that the proposed changes are necessary because existing requirements permit new institutions excessive leveraging and growth potential which may create an unacceptable risk to the Insurance Fund, especially in light of the range of new activities authorized for federal and state-chartered institutions. The proposal is intended to allow growth in a gradual, safe, and sound manner, while guarding against excessive, highly leveraged growth and risk to the FSLIC.

DATE: Comments must be received by November 21, 1983.

ADDRESS: Send comments to Director, Information Services Section, Office of the Secretariat, Federal Home Loan Bank Board, 1700 G Street, NW., Washington, D.C. 20552. Comments will be available for public inspection at this address.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Robert S. Monheit, Attorney, Office of General Counsel, (202) 377-6465.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: During the past few years, the Federal Home Loan Bank Board ("Board"), as the operating head of the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation ("FSLIC" or "Corporation"), has observed significant changes in the powers and structure of the thrift industry. These changes have led the Board to reconsider its assessment of the potential risks facing the FSLIC insurance fund as well as the appropriate use of the resources of the FSLIC.

As a result of the Garn-St Germain Depository Institutions Act of 1982 ("DIA"), Pub. L. No. 97-320, and changes to a number of state laws, the investment powers of federal and state-chartered institutions have widened significantly. While the Board has focused its concern in the recent past on the problems of interstate risks facing the thrift industry, this expansion of investment authority has also caused the Board to view with concern the potential problems of credit risk. Institutions are now permitted to make investments in areas in which this industry has little, if any, experience. In many instances, the exercise of these new authorities involves unsecured investments, thus increasing the risk of loss to the institutions and, ultimately, to the FSLIC. In some states, statutory limits on the percentage of assets that an association may commit to these new powers may not effectively require a prudent mix of these new, riskier investments with the traditional, secured investments, and may instead permit institutions largely to abandon their primary role as providers of residential mortgage credit.

Increased asset powers also raise questions concerning the appropriate use of FSLIC resources. The Board is authorized to deny insurance to any applicant whose "home financing policy is inconsistent with economical home financing or with the purposes of Title IV of the National Housing Act" (12 U.S.C. 1726(c)) and may terminate the insurance of an insured institution that "has violated its duty as such" (12 U.S.C. 1730(b)(1)). The Board believes that excessive investments in areas other than home finance may constitute home financing policies inconsistent with economical home financing and the purpose of the National Housing Act ("NHA"), and may violate the duty of insured institutions.

The Board has also observed a significant change in the predominant form of organization of applicants for insurance of accounts. Most of the Board's policies concerning applicants for insurance of accounts were developed at time when applicants were exclusively mutual institutions. However, the number of mutual institutions seeking and receiving FSLIC insurance approval in the past few years has decreased dramatically. Since 1981, all de novo state-chartered institutions applying for insurance of accounts have been stock institutions. In addition, the Board is now authorized (by Title III of the DIA) to charter and insure de novo federal stock institutions. As a result of this recent change, all applications of de novo federal associations received this year have involved stock associations.

The primary consequence of the shift in corporate structure of thrift institutions is in the ability of such institutions to raise capital. Stock institutions have a far greater inherent ability than mutuals to raise capital, and this capacity has been increased through the creation of a nationwide market for S&L securities. The ability of stock institutions to raise capital, combined with the development of a nationwide network for attracting deposit liabilities, creates a potential for rapid growth not contemplated by existing policies. When this potential is further linked with expanded investment authorization, the increased risk to insured institutions and the Corporation requires a re-examination of present policies.

The Board is commencing its review of these issues by proposing rules and policy statements, detailed below, applicable to newly-chartered institutions. De novo applicants for insurance do not have a proven, supervisory history. Thus, the Corporation faces the prospect of insuring untried institutions having the potential for rapid growth and the ability to undertake substantial non-housing-related investments and other activities. Further, these institutions can enter into new investment areas more rapidly than existing institutions that are constrained by their current portfolios and expertise.

The Board therefore believes it appropriate to act promptly to ensure that de novo institutions commence operations in a safe and sound manner, while it continues to review its policies regarding reserve requirements, investments and other areas of possible concern relating to existing institutions.

Board Policy for Consideration of Applications for Insurance

The Board is proposing to codify its policies relating to approval of insurance applications of de novo institutions, and to revise 12 CFR 571.6 to eliminate redundant provisions. In May, 1976, the Board's policy called for an applicant located in a Standard Metropolitan Statistical Area (SMSA), or market area, having a population between 25,000 and 100,000, to raise at least $1 million in permanent stock (stock institutions) or withdrawable savings of which no more than $250,000 would be pledged savings (mutual institutions); an applicant in a SMSA, or market area, having a population over 100,000 was expected to raise at least $2 million in permanent stock or withdrawable savings, of which no more than $250,000 would be pledged savings. In 1982, the Board raised the minimum pledged savings level to the 1976 permanent capital stock level (which was not significantly changed).

Changes in the industry occurring since 1976 have brought into question the adequacy of the current minimum capital level. As previously described, the preference of organizers for the stock form of organization to enhance capital accumulation, the availability of riskier, new investment opportunities, and the ready access to funds on a nationwide basis, argue for elimination of a distinction between institutions in different market areas and for an increase in initial reserves for the soundness of the institutions and for the protection of the FSLIC. In addition, the Board has noted that current minimums have effectively declined as a result of inflation.

The Board, therefore, proposes to call for a higher minimum capitalization for de novo institutions seeking to obtain FSLIC insurance. The Board believes that capitalization of $3 million, taken together with the other approaches described in this proposal for the appropriate and sound structuring of institutions seeking to enjoy the advantages of FSLIC insurance, will provide an increased level of protection for institutions and, ultimately, the Corporation.

The NHA, in § 403(c) (12 U.S.C. 1726(c)), requires disapproval of an application if the Board finds that the applicant's capital is impaired or that its financial policies or management are unsafe. Further, § 403(c) grants the Board the discretion to reject an applicant if the Board finds that the applicant's management or home financing policy is inconsistent with economical home financing or with the purpose of Title IV of the NHA. In addition, the board is directed to give full consideration to all factors in connection with the financial condition of applicants.

As a result of the expansion of investment authority under the DIA and many state laws, and the increased ability of institutions to obtain capital and deposit liabilities on a nationwide basis, the Board finds it increasingly difficult to make these determinations without detailed information on the business plans and projections of de novo applicants. The Board faces the prospect of insuring untried institutions without a supervisory history that have the authority to make a wide range of nontraditional investments. The Board, therefore, finds it imperative that, in addition to the current application requirements, de novo applicants provide further detailed information on plans for the first three years of operation, including descriptions of management, investment policies, and operations (including expected reliance upon brokers to obtain deposits), accompanied by financial projections.

The Board is also concerned that an applicant may intend to make substantial investments in activities unrelated to home finance, thereby rendering the applicant's home financing policy inconsistent with economical home financing or with the purposes of the NHA. The Board is particularly concerned with the ability of applicants to channel a significant amount of their investment through service corporations whose activities are not effectively limited. This may result in the diversion of a substantial portion of insured deposits into activities unrelated to home financing. Similarly, the Board is concerned that the authority to make substantial direct investments in real estate will result in real estate developers obtaining state charters and federal insurance as a means of financing their acquisition and development plans. The Board believes that these activities, if funded by a substantial portion of an institution's assets, would result in an inappropriate use of FSLIC insurance and, necessarily, in an applicant having a home financing policy inconsistent with economical home financing and the purposes of the NHA.

The Board therefore proposes to adopt a policy calling for rejection of any application that fails to include in its business plan a limitation, to an aggregate of ten percent of assets, on investment in service corporations and acquisition of real estate. Exceptions would be provided for real estate acquired for the applicant's offices and related facilities, and for real estate acquired through foreclosures or similar actions. The Board believes that a ten-percent limit would not materially hamper the legitimate use of these investment authorizations as supplements to an association's primary role as provider of housing credit. A recent state-by-state study of investments in service corporations and/or real estate acquisition by current FSLIC-insured, state-chartered institutions indicates that the composite investment in service corporations did not exceed 4.5 percent where institutions invested in both service corporations and real estate, and did not exceed 6.0 percent where they invested in service corporations alone. The composite investment in real estate did not exceed 5.25 percent where institutions invested in both real estate and service corporations, and did not exceed 3.5 percent where the investment was in real estate alone. In addition, the proposed limit would not be inconsistent with the great majority of current state authorizations for such investments, which the Board considers to be a noteworthy factor in its consideration of the appropriate activity focus of thrift institutions. The Board therefore believes that its proposed policy will not have an adverse impact on the formation of institutions seeking primarily to extend home mortgage credit, and will serve to discourage only those few applicants seeking federal insurance as a way to promote their non-housing-related goals.

Reserve Requirements

The DIA amended Section 403(b) of the NHA so that the statute no longer establishes a range within which the Board must set the statutory reserve percentage. The amendment also eliminated Congressional direction to the Board to permit the building up of reserves over a period not exceeding twenty years. Rather, Section 403(b) as amended gives the Board broad discretion to determine appropriate reserve levels, in a form satisfactory to the Corporation, to be established in accordance with regulations issued by the Board on behalf of the Corporation.

The current regulation, set forth at 12 CFR 563.13, requires insured institutions that have reached the twentieth anniversary of insurance of accounts to maintain statutory reserves equal to three percent of all insured account balances. These institutions must also have a minimum regulatory net worth equal to the sum of the three percent of liabilities, plus two percent of recourse liabilities and 20 percent of scheduled items. Insured institutions that have not yet reached their twentieth anniversary are permitted to "phase in" their reserves and minimum net worth. This is accomplished by multiplying the three percent of insured account balances and the three percent of liabilities, respectively, by a fraction of which the numerator is the number of years of insurance and the denominator is twenty. Thus, a newly insured institution is required to have only  $\frac{1}{20}$  of the statutory reserve requirement, which would equal only 0.15 percent of all insured accounts. The newly insured institution is required to have a minimum net worth of only 0.15 percent of liabilities (recourse liabilities and scheduled items being non-existent at that time). Further, the statutory reserve and net-worth requirements are calculated as of the opening of business of the first day of the fiscal year and must be met on the annual closing date of that year. Thus, a new institution commencing operations shortly after the beginning of a fiscal year could avoid establishing and meeting a reserve and net-worth requirement for nearly two years.

The phase-in of statutory reserve and net-worth requirements was instituted at a time when applicants for insurance were exclusively mutual institutions. A gradual building of reserves and net worth was considered to be appropriate because mutual institutions generate reserves from pledged savings and earnings and cannot inject significant capital by issuing stock (the availability of mutual capital certificates cannot be equated to traditional stock offerings). However, the number of mutual institutions receiving insurance approval in the past few years has decreased dramatically and, as previously stated, all recent applicants have been stock institutions.

The existing reserve requirements do not appear to be adequate for new institutions primarily because they permit significant leveraging potential. The current net-worth requirement, in effect, places no limit on the rate of growth of new associations since it permits a debt-to-equity ratio as high as 666 to 1. A new institution could, under the current statutory reserve requirement, leverage $2 million (in initial capital stock or pledged savings) to $1.3 billion in savings after the first year of operation. This potential for growth did not present a grave danger when applicants were primarily small mutual institutions obtaining savings and other liabilities from the local markets that they served, because the mutual form and local character of such institutions placed inherent limits on the amount and speed of their expansion.

Today, however, new institutions have access to nationwide markets and may quickly obtain large blocks of deposits and other liabilities through the use of intermediaries, advertising campaigns and other devices. New institutions therefore have the ability to reach the nearly unrestrained growth potential permitted by the existing phase-in requirement.

The risk inherent in the uncontrolled growth of new institutions is compounded by the expanded investment opportunities and activities permitted for federal institutions by the DIA and for state institutions under many state laws. Applicants are no longer limited to local, traditional activities and to primarily secured investments. The Corporation faces the prospect of insuring untried institutions undertaking significantly novel activities. The proposed rule would limit the risk of harm to these new institutions, and to the Corporation, by ensuring that early growth in the institution is backed by reserves that are adequate to ensure its continued viability and to provide some cushion of protection for the Corporation.

The proposed rule would replace the 20-year phase-in provision with a "phase-down" requirement for institutions receiving FSLIC insurance approval on or after the effective date of this rule. Under the phase-down requirement, a new institution would be required to maintain reserves equal to at least seven percent of insured accounts and to have a minimum net worth equal to at least seven percent of liabilities (plus two percent of recourse liabilities and 20 percent of scheduled items). For the first year of operation (or the portion of the year from the commencement of operation to the annual closing date), the statutory reserve and net-worth requirements would be calculated on the insured accounts and liabilities projected for the annual closing date, and would be required to be met by that date. After the first year, these requirements would be reduced to six percent of insured accounts and liabilities, respectively, and would be lowered the next year to five percent. After three years of operation, the institution would be permitted to meet the then-current reserve requirement for institutions in operation for 20 years or more, if approved by the Principal Supervisory Agent for the institution's district. The proposed phase-down would provide sufficient time for new institutions to establish a supervisory track record by which the Corporation can judge the soundness of their management and financial policies and their ability to follow their business plans.

In addition, new institutions would not be permitted to calculate reserves on an average basis. Averaging by new institutions understates the need for reserves and thereby contributes to the risk that this proposed rule seeks to limit, i.e. unrealistic growth by untried institutions undertaking riskier, newly-authorized activities.

The Board seeks comments on all aspects of these proposals. However, because the Board believes that the issues presented regarding the safety and soundness of the insurance fund and the home financing policies of applicants require prompt action in the public interest, and in order to avoid unduly delaying the processing of current applications, the Board has limited the public comment period to 15 days.

Initial Regulatory Flexibility Analysis

Pursuant to Section 3 of the Regulatory Flexibility Act, Pub. L. No. 96-354, 94 Stat. 1164 (1980), the Board is providing the following regulatory flexibility analysis:

1. Reasons, objectives and legal basis underlying the proposed rule. These elements are incorporated above in the supplementary information regarding the proposal.

2. Small entities to which the proposed rules would apply. The proposed rule would apply only to new associations receiving approval of insurance of accounts after the effective date of a final rule. It would not apply to existing institutions insured by the Corporation.

3. Impact of the proposed rules on small institutions. The rule would not have a substantial impact upon a significant number of the small entities insured by the FSLIC.

4. Overlapping or conflicting federal rules. There are no known federal rules that duplicate, overlap, or conflict with this proposal.

5. Alternatives to the proposed rules. The regulatory requirement concerns the growth potential of new institutions and the risks inherent when such growth is combined with expanded investment authority. Alternatives, therefore, would focus on more severe limitations as applied to new institutions. Such alternatives would have a more restrictive impact on new institutions than does the proposed rule.

List of Subjects in 12 CFR Parts 563 and 571

Insurance of accounts, Savings and loan associations.

Accordingly, the Federal Home Loan Bank Board proposes to amend Parts 563 and 571, Subchapter D, Chapter V of Title 12 Code of Federal Regulations, as set forth below.

SUBCHAPTER D—REGULATIONS OF THE FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN INSURANCE CORPORATION

PART 563—OPERATIONS

1. Revise paragraphs (a)(2) and (b)(1) and (2) of § 563.13, as follows:

§ 563.13 Reserve accounts.

(a) Statutory reserve requirement. * * *

(2)(i) Except as provided in paragraph (a)(2)(ii) of this section, the reserve requirement shall be an amount equal to three percent of all insured account balances on the date of calculation, or the average of such account balances on such date and on one or more of the four immediately preceding annual calculation dates, provided all such dates are consecutive: Provided, that institutions that have not reached the twentieth anniversary of insurance of accounts shall calculate a factor of which the numerator is the number of consecutive years of insurance and the denominator is twenty. The calculation period shall be as described in paragraph (b)(1) of this section.

(ii) For all institutions having received the Corporation's approval for insurance of accounts on or after [the effective date of this paragraph], the reserve requirement shall be an amount equal to seven percent of all insured account balances on the date of calculation for the first year of operation, and shall decline by 100 basis points each year until equal to five percent and thereafter may be reduced to three percent upon the approval of the Principal Supervisory Agent. The calculation period shall be as described in paragraph (b)(1) of this section. The Principal Supervisory Agent of the institution's Federal Home Loan Bank district is hereby delegated authority to approve reduction to three percent provided that the Agent does not take supervisory objection to the probable effect of such reduction upon the institution's safe and sound operating condition. If approval is withheld, the institution may seek review and final decision by the Corporation.

(b) Net-worth requirement.—(1) Calculation period.

(i) Except as provided in paragraph (b)(1)(ii) of this section, the annual net worth requirement, as set forth in paragraph (b)(2) of this section, shall be established as of the opening of business of the first day of each fiscal year and shall be met on the annual closing date of the year.

(ii) For all institutions having received the Corporation's approval for insurance of accounts on or after [the effective date of this paragraph], the annual net worth requirement for the first year (i.e. the period between the commencement of operation and the annual closing date of that year) shall be established by projecting the net worth requirement as of the annual closing date following the commencement of operation and shall be met on that annual closing date.

Thereafter, the annual net worth requirement shall be established and met as described in paragraph (b)(1)(i) of this section.

(2) Minimum required amount. (1) On the annual closing date of the twentieth anniversary of insurance of accounts and on each annual closing date thereafter, an institution shall have net worth at least equal to the sum of (A) three percent of the amount on the date specified in paragraph (b)(1) of this section or of the average amount on such date and on the corresponding date(s) of one or more of the four immediately preceding fiscal years (provided all such dates are consecutive) of all liabilities (i.e., total assets, net of the following: loans in process, specific reserves, and deferred credits other than deferred taxes; minus net worth as defined by § 561.13 of this subchapter) of the institution, (B) two percent of recourse liabilities (as defined in § 561.8 of this subchapter) resulting from the sale of any loan, and (C) an amount equal to 20 percent of the institution's scheduled items.

(ii) Except as provided in paragraph (b)(2)(iii) of this section, commencing with the annual closing date after the fiscal year in which a certificate of insurance is issued, all insured institutions that have not reached the twentieth anniversary of insurance of accounts shall have a net worth at least equal to the sum of the amount required by paragraph (b)(2)(i) above, except that the amount required by subparagraph (b)(2)(i)(A) shall be multiplied by a fraction of which the numerator is the number of consecutive years of insurance of accounts and the denominator is twenty.

(iii) All insured institutions having received the Corporation's approval for insurance of accounts on or after [the effective date of this paragraph], shall have net worth equal to the sum of the amount required by paragraph (b)(2)(i), except that the amount required by subparagraph (b)(2)(i)(A) shall be seven percent of all liabilities of the institution, which shall decline by 100 basis points per year until equal to five percent and thereafter may be reduced to three percent upon the approval of the Principal Supervisory Agent. The Principal Supervisory Agent of the institution's Federal Home Loan Bank district is hereby delegated authority to approve a reduction to three percent provided that the Agent does not take supervisory objection to the probable effect of such reduction on the institution's safe and sound operating condition. If approval is withheld, the institution may seek review and final decision by the Corporation.

PART 571—STATEMENTS OF POLICY

2. Revise § 571.6 as follows:

§ 571.6 Policy considerations regarding applications for insurance of accounts.

The Corporation deems it advisable that applicants for insurance of accounts be informed of certain policies governing application review which the Corporation has adopted as follows:

(a) Minimum initial capitalization. In order to ensure adequate reserve levels for newly-chartered institution applicants during their initial period of operations, it is the Corporation's policy that it will not approve any such applicant having less than three million dollars in initial capital stock (stock institutions) or initial pledged savings (mutual institutions).

(b) Business and investment plans of newly-chartered institutions applying for insurance of accounts. (1) Pursuant to § 403(c) of the National Housing Act (12 U.S.C. 1726(c)), the Corporation is required to reject applicants if it finds that the capital of the applicant is impaired or that its financial policies or management are unsafe, and may reject applicants if the character of the management of the applicant or its home financing policy is inconsistent with economical home financing or with the purposes of Title IV of the National Housing Act. Further, the Corporation is directed in considering applications for insurance to give full consideration to all factors in connection with the financial condition of applicants and insured institutions.

(2) In order for the Corporation to determine whether to reject an applicant pursuant to § 403(c), a newly-chartered institution applying for insurance of accounts shall submit with its application a business plan describing its management, operations, investments, and financial projections for the first three years of operation. In this connection, it is the policy of the Corporation not to approve the application of any such institution unless the applicant agrees to limit the aggregate of its investments in service corporations (and other subsidiaries authorized by law) and its acquisition of real estate (other than real estate to be used by the institution for office and related facilities or real estate owned as a result of foreclosure, or acquired by deed of trust in lieu of foreclosure, or on which a contract purchaser has defaulted and the contract has been cancelled) to ten percent of assets or as authorized by law, whichever is less.

(Sec. 202, 96 Stat. 1469; sec. 409, 94 Stat. 160; secs. 402, 403, 407, 48 Stat. 1256, 1257, 1260, as amended (12 U.S.C. 1725, 1726m 1730), sec. 5A 47 Stat. 727, as amended by sec. 1, 64 Stat. 256, as amended, sec. 17, 47 Stat. 736, as amended (12 U.S.C. 1464). Reorg. Plan No. 3 of 1947, 12 FR 4891 3 CFR, 1943-48 Comp., 1071)

S.J. Res. 189/Pub. L. 98-143

Extending the expiration date of the Export-Import Bank Act of 1945. (Nov. 1, 1983; 97 Stat. 916) Price: $1.50

H.R. 3706/Pub. L. 98-144

To amend title 5, United States Code, to make the birthday of Martin Luther King, Jr., a legal public holiday. (Nov. 2, 1983; 97 Stat. 917) Price: $1.50

CFR CHECKLIST

This checklist, prepared by the Office of the Federal Register, is published weekly. It is arranged in the order of CFR titles, prices, and revision dates.

New units issued during the week are announced on the back cover of the daily Federal Register as they become available.

A checklist of current CFR volumes comprising a complete CFR set, also appears in the latest issue of the LSA (List of CFR Sections Affected), which is revised monthly.

The annual rate for subscription to all revised volumes is $615 domestic, $153.75 additional for foreign mailing.

Order from Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402.
