Briefings on How To Use the Federal Register
For information on briefings in Washington, DC, Minneapolis, MN and Kansas City, MO, see announcement on the inside cover of this issue.

FEDERAL REGISTER Published daily, Monday through Friday, (not published on Saturdays, Sundays, or on official holidays), by the Office of the Federal Register, National Archives and Records Administration, Washington, DC 20408, under the Federal Register Act (49 Stat. 500, as amended; 44 U.S.C. Ch. 15) and the regulations of the Administrative Committee of the Federal Register (1 CFR Ch. I). Distribution is made only by the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, DC 20402.

The Federal Register provides a uniform system for making available to the public regulations and legal notices issued by Federal agencies. These include Presidential proclamations and Executive Orders and Federal agency documents having general applicability and legal effect, documents required to be published by act of Congress and other Federal agency documents of public interest. Documents are on file for public inspection in the Office of the Federal Register the day before they are published, unless earlier filing is requested by the issuing agency.

The seal of the National Archives and Records Administration authenticates this issue of the Federal Register as the official serial publication established under the Federal Register Act. 44 U.S.C. 1507 provides that the contents of the Federal Register shall be judicially noticed.

The Federal Register will be furnished by mail to subscribers for $340 per year in paper form; $195 per year in microfiche form; or $37,500 per year for the magnetic tape. Six-month subscriptions are also available at one-half the annual rate. The charge for individual copies in paper or microfiche form is $1.50 for each issue, or $1.50 for each group of pages as actually bound, or $175.00 per magnetic tape. Remit check or money order, made payable to the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, DC 20402, or charge to your GPO Deposit Account or VISA or Mastercard.

There are no restrictions on the republication of material appearing in the Federal Register.

THE FEDERAL REGISTER

WHAT IT IS AND HOW TO USE IT

- FOR: Any person who uses the Federal Register and Code of Federal Regulations.
- WHO: The Office of the Federal Register.
- WHAT: Free public briefings (approximately 3 hours) to present:
1. The regulatory process, with a focus on the Federal Register system and the public's role in the development of regulations.
 2. The relationship between the Federal Register and Code of Federal Regulations.
 3. The important elements of typical Federal Register documents.
 4. An introduction to the finding aids of the FR/CFR system.
- WHY: To provide the public with access to information necessary to research Federal agency regulations which directly affect them. There will be no discussion of specific agency regulations.

WASHINGTON, DC

- WHEN: May 24, at 9:00 a.m.
- WHERE: Office of the Federal Register,
First Floor Conference Room,
1100 L Street NW., Washington, DC.
- RESERVATIONS: 202-523-5240.

MINNEAPOLIS, MN

- WHEN: June 18, at 1:00 p.m.
- WHERE: Bishop Henry Whipple Federal Building, Room 570, Ft. Snelling, MN.
- RESERVATIONS: 1-800-366-2998

KANSAS CITY, MO

- WHEN: June 19, at 9:00 a.m.

Federal Register

Vol. 55, No. 97

Friday, May 18, 1990

This section of the FEDERAL REGISTER contains regulatory documents having general applicability and legal effect, most of which are keyed to and codified in the Code of Federal Regulations, which is published under 50 titles pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 1510. The Code of Federal Regulations is sold by the Superintendent of Documents. Prices of new books are listed in the first FEDERAL REGISTER issue of each week.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Agricultural Marketing Service

7 CFR Part 910

[Lemon Regulation 718]

Lemons Grown in California and Arizona; Limitation of Handling

AGENCY: Agricultural Marketing Service, USDA.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: Regulation 718 establishes the quantity of fresh California-Arizona lemons that may be shipped to market at 415,000 cartons during the period from May 20, 1990, through May 26, 1990. Such action is needed to balance the supply of fresh lemons with market demand for the period specified, due to the marketing situation confronting the lemon industry.

EFFECTIVE DATES: Regulation 718 [7 CFR part 910] is effective for the period from May 20, 1990, through May 26, 1990.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Beatriz Rodriguez, Marketing Specialist, Marketing Order Administration Branch, F&V, AMS, USDA, room 2523, South Building, P.O. Box 98456, Washington, DC 20090-6456; telephone: (202) 475-3861.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This final rule has been reviewed by the Department in accordance with Departmental Regulation 1512-1 and the criteria contained in Executive Order 12291 and has been determined to be a "non-major" rule.

Pursuant to requirements set forth in the Regulatory Flexibility Act (RFA), the Administrator of the Agricultural Marketing Service has determined that this action will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities.

The purpose of the RFA is to fit regulatory action to the scale of business subject to such actions in order that small businesses will not be unduly or disproportionately burdened. Marketing orders issued pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act, and rules issued thereunder, are unique in that they are brought about through group action of essentially small entities acting on their own behalf. Thus, both statutes have small entity orientation and compatibility.

There are approximately 70 handlers of lemons grown in California and Arizona subject to regulation under the lemon marketing order and approximately 2,500 producers in the regulated area. Small agricultural producers have been defined by the Small Business Administration [13 CFR 121.2] as those having annual receipts of less than $500,000, and small agricultural service firms are defined as those whose annual receipts are less than $3,500,000. The majority of handlers and producers of California-Arizona lemons may be classified as small entities.

This regulation is issued under Marketing Order No. 910, as amended [7 CFR part 910], regulating the handling of lemons grown in California and Arizona. The order is effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act (the "Act," 7 U.S.C. 601-674), as amended. This action is based upon the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee (Committee) and upon other available information. It is found that this action will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the Act.

This regulation is consistent with the California-Arizona lemon marketing policy for 1989-90. The Committee met publicly on May 15, 1990, in Los Angeles, California, to consider the current and prospective conditions of supply and demand and unanimously recommended a quantity of lemons deemed advisable to be handled during the specified week. The Committee reports that demand for large-sized lemons (140's or larger) is very good. However, price discounting continues on small-sized lemons.

Pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 553, it is further found that it is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice and engage in further public procedure with respect to this action and that good cause exists for not postponing the effective date of this action until 30 days after publication in the Federal Register because of insufficient time between the date when information became available upon which this regulation is based and the effective date necessary to effectuate the declared purposes of the Act. Interested persons were given an opportunity to submit information and views on the regulation at an open meeting. It is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared purposes of the Act, to make these regulatory provisions effective as specified, and handlers have been apprised of such provisions and the effective time.

List of Subjects in 7 CFR Part 910

Lemons, Marketing agreements, and Reporting and recordkeeping requirements.

For the reasons set forth in the preamble, 7 CFR part 910 is amended as follows:

PART 910—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

1. The authority citation for 7 CFR part 910 continues to read as follows:

Authority: Secs. 1-19, 48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 601-674

Note: This section will not appear in the Code of Federal Regulations.

2. Section 910.718 is added to read as follows:

§ 910.718 Lemon Regulation 718.

The quantity of lemons grown in California and Arizona which may be handled during the period from May 20, 1990, through May 26, 1990, is established at 415,000 cartons.

Dated: May 16, 1990.

Robert C. Kenney,

Deputy Director, Fruit and Vegetable Division.

Federal Aviation Administration

14 CFR Parts 21 and 25

[Docket No. NM-44; Special Conditions No. 25-ANM-33]

Special Conditions; Beech Aircraft Corporation Models 400 and 400A Airplanes, Lightning and Radio Frequency (RF) Energy ProtectionAGENCY: Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), DOT.ACTION: Final special conditions.

SUMMARY: These special conditions are issued for the Beech Aircraft Corporation Model 400 and Model 400A airplanes. These airplanes incorporate new technology electrical and electronic systems which perform critical or essential functions. The applicable airworthiness regulations do not contain adequate or appropriate safety standards for the protection of these systems from the effects of lightning and radio frequency (RF) energy. These special conditions contain the additional safety standards which the Administrator considers necessary to ensure that the critical and essential functions the new technology electrical and electronic systems perform are maintained when the airplane is exposed to lightning and RF energy.

EFFECTIVE DATE: June 18, 1990.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Gene Vandermolen, FAA, Flight Test and Systems Branch, ANM-111, Transport Airplane Directorate, Aircraft Certification Service, 17900 Pacific Highway South, C-68966, Seattle, Washington, 98168, telephone (206) 431-2157.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:Background

On February 22, 1988, Beech Aircraft Corporation applied for a change to their Type Certificate No. A16SW for the Model 400 and Model 400A airplanes to include new technology avionic systems which present or annunciate critical parameters to the flightcrew. The Model 400 airplane is a twin-engine business jet with a maximum seating capacity of 11 (2 pilots and 9 passengers), and powered by two Pratt and Whitney JT15D-5 turbofans. The Model 400A airplane differs from the Model 400 in that it will have a higher maximum operating altitude of 45,000 feet. The fuel capacity of the Model 400A will also be increased by approximately 100 gallons. The new technology avionic systems for these airplanes include, but are not necessarily limited to: digital electronic primary flight display, airdata, attitude heading reference system (AHRS), navigation and communication, autopilot, and sensor display units (SDU). These systems, which perform critical or essential functions, can be susceptible to disruption to both command and response signals as a result of electrical and magnetic interference. This disruption of signals could result in loss of critical or essential functions or the presentation of misleading information.

Type Certification Basis

Under the provisions of § 21.101 of the Federal Aviation Regulations, (FAR), Beech Aircraft Corporation must show that the Beech Model 400 and Model 400A, as changed, continue to meet the applicable provisions of the regulations incorporated by reference in Type Certificate No. A16SW, or the applicable regulations in effect on the date of application for the change. The regulations incorporated by reference in the type certificate are commonly referred to as the "original type certification basis." The regulations incorporated by reference in Type Certificate No. A16SW are as follows:

Part 25 of the FAR effective February 1, 1965, as amended by Amendments 25-1 through 25-40; §§ 25.1351(d), 25.1353(c)(5) and 25.1450, as amended by Amendment 25-41; §§ 25.29, 25.255, and 25.1353(c)(6), as amended by Amendment 25-42; § 25.361(b), as amended by Amendment 25-46; part 36 of the FAR effective December 1, 1969, as amended by Amendments 36-1 through the amendment effective on the date of type certification; SFAR 27 effective February 1, 1974, as amended by Amendment SFAR 27-1 through the amendment effective on the date of type certification; and various findings of equivalent safety listed on Type Certificate Data Sheet A16SW which are not pertinent to the subject of these special conditions.

In addition, special conditions are prescribed under the provisions of § 21.16 to establish a level of safety equivalent to that established in the regulations, if the Administrator finds that the applicable airworthiness regulations (i.e., part 25 as amended) do not contain adequate or appropriate safety standards for an airplane because of a novel or unusual design feature.

Special conditions, when prescribed, are issued in accordance with § 11.49 of the FAR after public notice, as required by §§ 11.28 and 11.29(b), and become part of the type certification basis in accordance with § 21.17(a)(2).

Discussion

The existing lightning protection airworthiness certification requirements are insufficient to provide an acceptable level of safety with the new technology avionic systems. There are two regulations that specifically pertain to lightning protection, one for the airframe in general (§ 25.581), and the other for fuel system protection (§ 25.954). There are, however, no regulations that deal specifically with protection of electrical and electronic systems from lightning. The loss of a critical function of these systems due to lightning would prevent continued safe flight and landing of the airplane. Although the loss of an essential function would not prevent continued safe flight and landing, it would significantly impact the safety level of the airplane.

There is also no specific regulation that addresses protection requirements for electrical and electronic systems from high energy, radio frequency (RF) transmissions. Increased power levels from ground based radio transmitters and the growing use of sensitive electrical and electronic systems to command and control airplanes have made it necessary to provide adequate protection.

To ensure that a level of safety is achieved equivalent to that intended by the regulations incorporated by reference, special conditions are needed which require that the new technology electrical and electronic systems be designed and installed to preclude component damage and interruption of function due to both the direct and indirect effects of lightning and radio frequency energy.

Lightning

To provide a means of compliance with the special conditions, clarification of the threat definition for lightning is needed. The following "threat definition," based on Society of Automotive Engineers, Inc. (SAE) Report No. AE4L-87-3, is proposed as a basis to use in demonstrating compliance with the lightning protection special condition.

The lightning current waveforms (Components A, D, and H) defined below, along with the voltage waveforms in Advisory Circular (AC) 20-53A, will provide a consistent and reasonable standard which is acceptable for use in evaluating the effects of lightning on the airplane. These waveforms depict threats that are external to the airplane. How these threats affect the airplane and its systems depend upon their installation configuration, materials, shielding, airplane geometry, etc. Therefore, tests (including tests on the completed airplane or an adequate simulation) and/or verified analysis need to be conducted in order to obtain the resultant internal threat to the installed systems. The individual systems may then be evaluated with this internal threat in order to determine their susceptibility to upset and/or malfunction.

To evaluate the induced effects to these systems, three considerations are required:

1. First Return Stroke: [Severe Strike—Component A, or Restrike—Component D]. This external threat needs to be evaluated to obtain the resultant internal threat and to verify that the level of the induced currents and voltages is sufficiently below the equipment "hardness" level; then

2. Multiple Stroke Flash: ($\frac{1}{2}$ Component D). A lightning strike is often composed of a number of successive strokes, referred to as a multiple stroke. Although multiple strokes are not necessarily a salient factor in a damage assessment, they can be the primary factor in a system upset analysis. Multiple strokes can induce a sequence of transients over an extended period of time. While a single event upset of input/output signals may not affect system performance, multiple signal upsets over an extended period of time (2 seconds) may affect the systems under consideration. Repetitive pulse testing and/or analysis needs to be carried out in response to the multiple stroke environment to demonstrate that the system response meets the safety objective. This external multiple stroke environment consists of 24 pulses and is described as a single Component A followed by 23 randomly spaced restrikes of $\frac{1}{2}$ magnitude of Component D (peak amplitude of 50,000 amps). The 23 restrikes are distributed over a period of up to 2 seconds according to the following constraints: (1) The minimum time between subsequent strokes is 10ms, and (2) the maximum time between subsequent strokes is 200ms. An analysis or test needs to be accomplished in order to obtain the resultant internal threat environment for the system under evaluation; and,

3. Multiple Burst: (Component H). In-flight data-gathering projects have shown bursts of multiple, low amplitude, fast rates of rise, short duration pulses accompanying the airplane lightning strike process. While insufficient energy exists in these pulses to cause physical damage, it is possible that transients resulting from this environment may cause upset to some digital processing systems.

The representation of this interference environment is a repetition of short duration, low amplitude, high peak rate of rise, double exponential pulses which represent the multiple bursts of current pulses observed in these flight data gathering projects. This component is intended for an analytical (or test) assessment of functional-upset of the system. Again, it is required that this component be translated into an internal environmental threat in order to be used. This "Multiple Burst" consists of 24 random sets of 20 strokes each, distributed over a period of 2 seconds. Each set of 20 strokes is made up of repetitive Component H waveforms distributed within a period of one millisecond. The minimum time between individual Component H pulses within a burst is 10 μ s, the maximum is 50 μ s. The 24 bursts are distributed over a period of up to 2 seconds according to the following constraints: (1) the minimum time between subsequent strokes is 10ms, and (2) the maximum time between subsequent strokes is 200ms. The individual "Multiple Burst" Component H waveform is defined below.

The following current waveforms constitute the "Severe Strike" (Component A), "Restrike" (Component D), "Multiple Stroke" ($\frac{1}{2}$ Component D), and the "Multiple Burst" (Component H). These components are defined by the following double exponential equation:

$$i(t) = I_0 \{ e^{-at} - e^{-bt} \}$$

t = time in seconds,
i = current in amperes, and

	Severe Strike (Component A)	Restrike (Component D)	Multiple Stroke ($\frac{1}{2}$ Component D)	Multiple Burst (Component H)
l _{amp}	218,810	109,405	54,703	10,572
b, sec ⁻¹	647,265	1,294,530	1,294,530	19,105,100

This equation produces the following characteristics:

$$i_{peak} = 200 \text{ KA} \quad 100 \text{ KA} \quad 50 \text{ KA} \quad 10 \text{ KA}$$

Radio Frequency (RF) Energy

With the trend toward increased power levels from ground based transmitters, plus the advent of space and satellite communications, coupled with electronic command and control of the airplane, the immunity of the airplane to RF energy must be established.

It is not possible to precisely define the RF energy to which the airplane will be exposed in service. There is also uncertainty concerning the effectiveness of airframe shielding for RF energy. Furthermore, coupling to cockpit installed equipment through the cockpit window apertures is undefined. Based on surveys and analysis of existing RF emitters, an adequate level of protection exists when it is shown that each system which performs critical functions is designed and installed to ensure that those functions are not adversely affected when exposed to one of the following:

1. A minimum RF threat of 100 volts per meter average electric field strength from 10 KHz to 18 GHz.

a. The threat must be applied to the system elements and their associated wiring harnesses without the benefit of airframe shielding.

b. Demonstration of this level of protection is established through system tests and analysis.

2. An RF threat external to the airframe of the following field strengths for the frequency ranges indicated.

Frequency	Peak (V/m)	Average (V/m)
10 KHz—500 KHz.....	80	80
500 KHz—2 MHz.....	80	80
2 MHz—30 MHz.....	200	200
30 MHz—100 MHz.....	33	33
100 MHz—200 MHz.....	33	33
200 MHz—400 MHz.....	150	33
400 MHz—1 GHz.....	8,300	2,000
1 GHz—2 GHz.....	9,000	1,500
2 GHz—4 GHz.....	17,000	1,200
4 GHz—6 GHz.....	14,500	800
6 GHz—8 GHz.....	4,000	666

The RF envelope given in paragraph 2 above is a revision to the envelope used in previously issued special conditions in other certification projects. It is based on new data and SAE AE4R subcommittee recommendations. This revised envelope includes data from Western Europe and the U.S. It will also be adopted by the European Joint Airworthiness Authorities.

Discussion of Comments

Notice of Proposed Special Conditions No. SC-90-3-NM for the Beech Model 400 and Model 400A airplanes was published in the Federal Register on February 28, 1990. No comments were received.

Conclusion:

This action affects only certain unusual or novel design features on one model series of airplanes. It is not a rule of general applicability and affects only the manufacturer who applied to the FAA for approval of these features on the airplane.

The Special Conditions

Accordingly, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator, the following special conditions are issued as part of the type certification basis for the Beech Aircraft Corporation Model 400 and Model 400A series airplanes:

Authority: 49 U.S.C. 1344, 1348(c), 1352, 1354(a), 1355, 1421 through 1431, 1502, 1651(b)(2), 42 U.S.C. 1857f-10, 4321 et seq.; E.O. 11514; 49 U.S.C. 106(g) (Revised Pub. L. 97-449, January 12, 1983).

1. Lightning Protection.

a. Each new electrical and electronic system which performs critical functions must be designed and installed to ensure that the operation and operational capability of these systems to perform critical functions are not affected when the airplane is exposed to lightning.

b. Each essential function of new or modified electrical or electronic systems or installations must be protected to ensure that the function can be recovered in a timely manner after the airplane has been exposed to lightning.

2. Protection from Unwanted Effects of Radio Frequency (RF) Energy. Each new electrical and electronic system must be designed and installed to ensure that the operation and operational capabilities of these systems to perform critical functions are not adversely affected when the airplane is exposed to externally radiated electromagnetic energy.

3. For the purpose of these special conditions, the following definitions apply:

Critical Functions. Functions whose failure would contribute to or cause a failure condition which would prevent the continued safe flight and landing of the airplane.

Essential Functions. Functions whose failure would contribute to or cause a failure condition which would significantly impact the safety of the airplane or the ability of the flightcrew to cope with adverse operating conditions.

Issued in Seattle, Washington, on May 7, 1990.

[Docket No. 89-NM-99-AD; Amdt. 39-6605]

Airworthiness Directives; Boeing Model 747 Series Airplanes; Correction

AGENCY: Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), DOT.

ACTION: Correction of final rule.

SUMMARY: This action corrects an alternative inspection method specified in Airworthiness Directive (AD) 90-06-14, Amendment 39-6544. The AD is applicable to certain Boeing Model 747 series airplanes, and requires inspection for cracks and repair, if necessary, of the nose wheel well top panel intercostals and adjacent top panel web, vertical beam webs and clips, and adjacent sidewall panel web. There are no other changes to the AD.

DATES: This correction is effective May 18, 1990.

The effective date for the requirements of this amendment remains April 24, 1990, as specified in Amendment 39-6544.

ADDRESSES: The applicable service information may be obtained from Boeing Commercial Airplanes, P.O. Box 3707, Seattle, Washington 98124. This information may be examined at the FAA, Northwest Mountain Region, Transport Airplane Directorate, 17900 Pacific Highway South, Seattle, Washington, or Seattle Aircraft Certification Office, 9010 East Marginal Way South, Seattle, Washington.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Mr. Steven C. Fox, Airframe Branch, ANM-120S; telephone (206) 431-1923. Mailing address: FAA, Northwest Mountain Region, 17900 Pacific Highway South, C-68966, Seattle, Washington 98168.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On March 9, 1990, the FAA issued AD 90-06-14, Amendment 39-6544 (55 FR 10045; March 19, 1990), applicable to certain Boeing Model 747 airplanes, which requires inspection for cracking of the nose gear wheel well, and repair, if necessary.

Paragraph C. of the AD describes an alternative method of inspection of the vertical beam web. That paragraph incorrectly states that the inspection is an alternative to that required by paragraph A.2.; the reference should have been to "paragraph A.3." This action corrects that reference.

Since this action merely corrects the identification of a paragraph for which an alternative inspection may be used, it has no adverse economic impact and imposes no additional burden on any person. Therefore, notice and public procedure hereon are unnecessary and the amendment may be made effective upon publication in the Federal Register.

Adoption of the Correction

Accordingly, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator, the Federal Aviation Administration amends 14 CFR part 39 of the Federal Aviation Regulations as follows:

PART 39—[AMENDED]

1. The authority citation for part 39 continues to read as follows:

Authority: 49 U.S.C. 1354(a), 1421 and 1423; 49 U.S.C. 106(g) (Revised Pub. L. 97-449, January 12, 1983); and 14 CFR 11.89.

§ 39.13 [Amended]

2. Section 39.13 is amended by correcting paragraph C. of AD 90-06-14, Amendment 39-6544 (55 FR 10045; March 19, 1990), to read as follows:

"C. As an alternative to the repetitive inspections required by paragraphs A.1. and A.3., above, conduct a detailed visual inspection plus a high frequency eddy current (HFEC) inspection of the nose wheel well top panel and intercostals and nose wheel well vertical beam webs, in accordance with Boeing Service Bulletin 747-53-2293, dated December 22, 1988, at intervals not to exceed 3,000 flight cycles."

This correction is effective May 18, 1990.

The effective date for the requirements of this amendment remains April 24, 1990, as specified in Amendment 39-6544, AD 90-06-14.

Issued in Seattle, Washington, on May 10, 1990.

Airworthiness Directives; Boeing Model 747-400 Series Airplanes Equipped With Pratt and Whitney PW4000 Series Engines or Rolls Royce RB211-524 Series Engines

AGENCY: Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), DOT.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This amendment adopts a new airworthiness directive (AD), applicable to certain Boeing Model 747-400 series airplanes equipped with Pratt and Whitney PW4000 series engines or Rolls Royce RB211-524 series engines, which requires replacement of the outboard engine fuel shutoff valve actuator grounding wire. This amendment is prompted by reports of the fuel shutoff valve actuator grounding wire interfering with the fuel shutoff valve actuator manual override lever, which resulted in failure of the valve to fully open and close. This condition, if not corrected, could result in the inability to obtain full engine power during takeoff, or to shut off the supply of fuel in the event of an engine fire.

EFFECTIVE DATE: June 6, 1990.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Michael E. Dostert, Propulsion Branch, ANM-140S; telephone (206) 431-1974. Mailing address: FAA, Northwest Mountain Region, 17900 Pacific Highway South, C-68966, Seattle, Washington 98168.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: One operator of a Boeing Model 747-400 series airplane has reported that, during an engine power check run following maintenance, the number 4 engine power would not increase above low power levels. Subsequent examination revealed that the fuel shutoff valve bonding jumper was wrapped around the manual override lever of the fuel shutoff valve actuator which prevented further movement of the lever. The number 1 engine was found with a similar condition which could cause the same interference. Inspection of the operator's fleet of six airplanes indicated that, on each airplane, an eleven-inch long grounding wire had been installed on the outboard engine fuel shutoff valve actuator in place of the intended six-inch long wire. Such an installation of the grounding wire, if not detected and corrected, could result in the inability to obtain full engine power during takeoff, or to shut off the fuel supply in the event of an engine fire.

Following the report noted above, the manufacturer reviewed the fuel shutoff valve actuator design and advised the FAA that the original six-inch long bonding wire could interfere with the actuator manual override lever, and, therefore, the allowable wire length has been shortened to four inches.

The FAA has reviewed and approved Boeing Alert Service Bulletin 747-28A2143, dated April 19, 1990, which describes procedures for replacement of the outboard engines' fuel shutoff valve actuator bonding wiring.

Since this condition is likely to exist on other airplanes of the same type design, this AD requires replacement of the fuel shutoff valve actuator grounding wire in accordance with the service bulletin previously described. Additionally, operators must submit a report of their inspection findings to the FAA.

Since a situation exists that requires immediate adoption of this regulation, it is found that notice and public procedure hereon are impracticable, and good cause exists for making this amendment effective in less than 30 days.

Information collection requirements contained in this regulation have been approved by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) under the provisions of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1980 (Pub. L. 96-511) and have been assigned OMB Control Number 2120-0056.

The regulations adopted herein will not have substantial direct effects on the States, on the relationship between the national government and the States, or on the distribution of power and responsibilities among the various levels of government. Therefore, in accordance with Executive Order 12612, it is determined that this final rule does not have sufficient federalism implications to warrant the preparation of a Federalism Assessment.

The FAA has determined that this regulation is an emergency regulation and that it is not considered to be major under Executive Order 12291. It is impracticable for the agency to follow the procedures of Order 12291 with respect to this rule since the rule must be issued immediately to correct an unsafe condition in aircraft. It has been further determined that this action involves an emergency regulation under DOT Regulatory Policies and Procedures (44 FR 11034; February 26, 1979). If it is determined that this emergency regulation otherwise would be significant under DOT Regulatory Policies and Procedures, a final regulatory evaluation will be prepared and placed in the regulatory docket (otherwise, an evaluation is not required). A copy of it, if filed, may be obtained from the Rules Docket.

Adoption of the Amendment

Accordingly, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator, the Federal Aviation Administration amends 14 CFR part 39 of the Federal Aviation Regulations as follows:

PART 39—[AMENDED]

1. The authority citation for part 39 continues to read as follows:

Authority: 49 U.S.C. 1354(a), 1421 and 1423; 49 U.S.C. 106(g) (Revised Pub. L. 97-449, January 12, 1983); and 14 CFR 11.89.

§ 39.13 [Amended]

2. Section 39.13 is amended by adding the following new airworthiness directive:

Boeing: Applies to Model 747-400 series airplanes, equipped with Pratt and Whitney PW4000 series engines or Rolls Royce RB211-524 series engines, identified in Boeing Alert Service Bulletin 747-28A2143, dated April 19, 1990, certificated in any category. Compliance required as indicated, unless previously accomplished.

To prevent inability to fully open and close the outboard engine fuel shutoff valve, accomplish the following:

A. Within the next 30 days after the effective date of this AD, replace the outboard engine fuel shutoff valve actuator bonding wire in accordance with Boeing Alert Service Bulletin 747-28A2143, dated April 19, 1990.

B. Within 10 days after the completion of the modification required by paragraph A., above, report all findings of wires longer than six inches to the Manager, Seattle Manufacturing Inspection District Office, 7300 Perimeter Road South, Seattle, Washington 98108. Reports shall include the serial number of the affected airplanes and identify positions of valves found with long straps.

C. An alternate means of compliance or adjustment of the compliance time, which provides an acceptable level of safety, may be used when approved by the Manager, Seattle Aircraft Certification Office, FAA, Northwest Mountain Region.

Note: The request should be forwarded through an FAA Principal Maintenance Inspector (PMI), who will either concur or comment, and then send it to the Manager, Seattle Aircraft Certification Office.

D. Special flight permits may be issued in accordance with FAR 21.197 and 21.199 to operate airplanes to a base in order to comply with the requirements of this AD.

All persons affected by this directive who have not already received the appropriate service information from the manufacturer may obtain copies upon request to Boeing Commercial Airplanes P.O. Box 3707, Seattle, Washington 98124. This information may be examined at the FAA, Northwest Mountain Region, Transport Airplane Directorate, 17900 Pacific Highway South, Seattle, Washington, or Seattle Aircraft Certification Office, 9010 East Marginal Way South, Seattle, Washington.

This amendment becomes effective June 6, 1990.

Issued in Seattle, Washington, on May 11, 1990.

Airworthiness Directives; Teledyne Continental Motors (TCM) Model TSIO-520-UB engines; Correction

ACTION: Final rule; Correction.

SUMMARY: This document corrects two typographical errors which concern a part number identification and part description which appeared in Note 2 of the above captioned airworthiness directive (AD), which was published in the Federal Register on Tuesday, November 7, 1989, (54 FR 46728). In all other respects, the original document is correct.

EFFECTIVE DATE: June 18, 1990.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: A final rule AD applicable to Teledyne Continental Motors (TCM) Model TSIO-520-UB engines was published in the Federal Register on Tuesday, November 7, 1989, (54 FR 46728). This document corrects the noted typographical errors concerning the part number identification and part number description which appeared in Note (2). Therefore, Note (2) should read as follows:

Notes: (2) When determining the P/N assembly installed in order to comply with this AD, a distinguishing feature of the P/N 646795 turbocharger inlet assembly is 2 ribs (approximately 0.25 inches in height, 0.1 inches in width, and 2.1 inches in length) on the top of the turbocharger mating flange.

NATIONAL AERONAUTICS AND SPACE ADMINISTRATION

14 CFR Part 1215

Tracking and Data Relay Satellite System (TDRSS)

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: NASA is amending 14 CFR part 1215, "Tracking and Data Relay Satellite System (TDRSS)," by revising appendix A to reflect the estimated service rates in 1991 dollars for TDRSS standard services, based on NASA escalation estimates. 14 CFR part 1215 sets forth the policy governing the Tracking and Data Relay Satellite System (TDRSS) services provided to non-U.S. Government users and the reimbursement for rendering such services. The TDRSS represents a major investment by the U.S. Government with the primary goal of providing improved tracking and data acquisition services to spacecraft in low earth orbit or to terrestrial users.

EFFECTIVE DATE: May 18, 1990.

ADDRESSES: Office of Space Operations, Code O, NASA Headquarters, Washington, DC 20546.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Eugene Ferrick, 202-453-2030.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The existing regulation was published in the Federal Register on March 9, 1983 (48 FR 9845). Each year since that time, 14 CFR part 1215 has been amended by revising appendix A to reflect the rate changes for the appropriate calendar years (CY). Since this revision of appendix A to 14 CFR part 1215 reflects the rate changes for CY 1991 and involves NASA management procedures and decisions, no public comment is required.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration has determined that this rule is not subject to the requirements of the Regulatory Flexibility Act, 5 U.S.C. 601-612, since it will not exert a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities, and it is not a major rule as defined in Executive Order 12991.

PART 1215—TRACKING AND DATA RELAY SATELLITE SYSTEM (TDRSS)

For reasons set out in the Preamble, 14 CFR part 1215 is amended to read as follows:

1. The authority citation for 14 CFR part 1215 continues to read as follows:

Authority: Sec. 203, Pub. L. 85-568, 72 Stat. 429, as amended; 42 U.S.C. 2473.

2. Appendix A is revised to read as follows:

Appendix A—Estimated Service Rates in 1991 Dollars for TDRSS Standard Services (Based on NASA Escalation Estimate)

TDRSS user service rates for services rendered in CY-91 based on current projections in 1991 dollars are as follows:

Single Access Service—Forward command, return telemetry, or tracking, or any combination of these, the base rate is $178.00 per minute for non-U.S. Government users.

Multiple Access Forward Service—Base rate is $39.00 per minute for non-U.S. Government users.

Multiple Access Return Service—Base rate is $12.00 per minute for non-U.S. Government users.

OFFICE OF THE UNITED STATES TRADE REPRESENTATIVE

15 CFR Part 2006

Procedures for Filing Petitions for Action Under Section 301 of the Trade Act of 1974, as Amended AGENCY: Office of the United States Trade Representative.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The Office of the United States Trade Representative (USTR) hereby amends its regulations governing the filing of petitions for action under section 301 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended, in response to unfair international trade practices. In most instances the revisions implement amendments to chapter 1 of title III of the Trade Act of 1974 contained in section 1301 of the Omnibus Trade and Competitiveness Act of 1988 (19 U.S.C. 2411 et seq.).

EFFECTIVE DATE: June 18, 1990.

ADDRESSES: The mailing address for written submissions and correspondence is: Office of the Chairman, section 301 Committee, Office of the U.S. Trade Representative, 600 17th Street, NW., Washington, DC 20506. Material available for public inspection may be examined, by appointment, in the USTR Reading Room, room 101, at the same address.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: A. Jane Bradley, Deputy General Counsel and Chairman, section 301 Committee, (202) 395-3432.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On May 23, 1989, USTR published a proposed rule in the Federal Register (54 FR 22310) which revised 15 CFR part 2006 to conform to amendments to chapter 1 of title III of the Trade Act of 1974 contained in section 1301 of the Omnibus Trade and Competitiveness Act of 1988 (19 U.S.C. 2411 et seq.). The Trade Representative is required by section 309(a)(1) of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended (the "Trade Act"), to issue regulations concerning the filing of petitions and the conduct of investigations and hearings related to enforcement of U.S. rights under trade agreements and responses to certain foreign trade practices.

USTR provided a 30-day public comment period on the proposed regulations. In response to its request for comment, USTR received three comment letters. USTR analyzed these comments and determined that no changes to the proposed rules were appropriate. A summary of key issues raised by the public comments and the position USTR took with respect to the comments is set forth below.

General Overview

Section 2006.0(a) reflects amendments to section 301(a)(1) of the Trade Act, requiring the Trade Representative to act subject to the specific direction, if any, of the President. Paragraph (b) adds references to services, investment and intellectual property rights in addition to goods. Paragraph (c) adds to former provisions the requirement that petitions be filed during specified business hours, to enable proper docketing. Paragraph (d) provides a new telephone number for recorded information on pending petitions and investigations.

Section 2006.1(a)(7) provides guidance on information related to burden or restriction on U.S. commerce. Section 2006.1(a)(8) provides that if the foreign practice at issue is the subject of investigation under any other provision of law, USTR may decline to initiate an investigation or terminate a pending investigation.

Section 2006.1(b) has renumbered subparagraphs and adds new subparagraphs to provide guidance on information that should be included in petitions concerning unreasonable practices defined in section 301(d) that, while not necessarily in violation of, or inconsistent with, the international legal rights of the United States, are otherwise unfair and inequitable.

Section 2006.3 clarifies that the Section 301 Chairman shall publish in the Federal Register the Trade Representative's determination whether to initiate an investigation, pursuant to section 302(a)(2) of the Trade Act. That has been the customary practice since 1974. Paragraph (b) also adds a reference to requests for public hearings under section 302(a)(4)(B), identifying "interested persons" who may request such hearings, as defined in section 301(d)(9).

Section 2006.4 cites amended section 304(a)(1)(A) of the Trade Act.

Section 2006.5 adds the provision, reflected in section 303(a)(3) of the Trade Act, for the Trade Representative to receive information and advice from the petitioner and private sector advisers in preparing for consultations with the foreign government. It also adds a new paragraph (b) to conform to section 303(b) of the Trade Act, which permits a 90-day delay of a request for consultations with the foreign government.

Former § 2006.5(b) is renumbered as § 2006.6, concerning formal dispute settlement, and is amended to reflect the 150-day limit on consultations provided for in section 303(a)(2)(B) of the Trade Act.

Former § 2006.6, regarding termination or suspension of review, is deleted, because the Trade Act now requires investigations to be terminated with a determination under section 304(a)(2); see § 2006.12.

Section 2006.7 reflects provisions in sections 302(a)(4)(B) and 304(b)(1)(A) of the Trade Act, for public hearings on issues raised in a petition and prior to a determination under section 304(a)(1)(B) as to what action, if any, should be taken under section 301.

Section 2006.11 reflects the provisions of amended section 304 of the Trade Act, requiring a determination on what action, if any, should be taken if a determination is made that a practice is actionable under section 301.

Section 2006.12 reflects the time limits for section 302 investigations set forth in section 304(a)(2) of the Trade Act.

Section 2006.13 is renumbered and in paragraph (a) provides for public reading files to be made available at the Office of the United States Trade Representative. Paragraph (b) implements the provisions of section 308 of the Trade Act, providing for requests for information to be made to the section 301 Chairman. Paragraph (c) deletes a cross-reference to 15 CFR 2004.9 and 2004.10 with respect to duplication of documents, since those sections also will be revised.

Sections 2006.14 and 2006.15 reflect provisions in section 308 of the Trade Act for exempting certain business confidential information from public inspection. Section 2006.15(b) adds a new requirement that business confidential information be clearly marked as such in contrasting color ink.

Summary of Issues Raised by Public Comment

Two commenters raised issues related to petitions for action under section 301 of the Trade Act in response to a foreign government's systematic, persistent pattern of denial of worker rights. One commenter recommended that proposed § 2006.0(b) be changed to provide explicitly for persons who have knowledge of such worker rights violations, but who do not have a tangible economic interest affected by the outcome of the case in question, to file petitions under section 302 of the Trade Act. This commenter noted that the Congress, in amending section 301 in 1988, did not attempt to re-define "interested persons" for purposes of filing petitions under section 302(a)(1) of the Act. The statutory definition in section 301(d)(9) of the Act relates only to requesting and participating in public hearings and presenting views during the course of an investigation. The definition includes an illustrative, not exclusive, list of examples of interested persons. The regulations as proposed did not depart from that statutory definition in any way.

With respect to filing petitions under section 302 of the Trade Act, the regulations as proposed in § 2006.0(b) retained the provisions of the previous regulations (15 CFR 2006.0(b)), except that explicit references were added for services, investment matters and intellectual property rights. USTR did not propose changing the provision that allows persons with a "significant interest" to file petitions under section 302; the amended rule as proposed neither broadened nor narrowed the field of persons who may file petitions. Amended § 2006.0(b) also provides an illustrative, not exclusive, list of persons. Therefore, persons with knowledge and expertise about foreign labor practices thus are not precluded from filing a petition, or from presenting views or requesting a hearing in a section 302 investigation. Accordingly, § 2006.0(b) remains as proposed.

A second commenter suggested that USTR should not accept worker rights petitions that do not meet the substantive requirements of section 301 of the Trade Act. Specifically, this commenter endorsed the documentation requirements contained in § 2006.1(a)(7), as proposed, with respect to the burden or restriction on U.S. commerce that results from the foreign government act, policy or practice. The commenter also suggested that § 2006.1(b)(2)(v) of the proposed regulations be modified to provide that a petitioner must demonstrate a persistent pattern of conduct violating worker rights by providing specific and detailed factual information in order that a petition be considered adequate under §§ 2006.2 and 2006.3. It also suggested that, in the 45-day period prior to determining whether to initiate an investigation, the USTR should determine whether the substantive provisions of section 301(d)(3)(C) would prevent an eventual determination that an alleged practice is "unreasonable". In making these suggestions the commenter fails to recognize that the USTR's determination under section 302(a)(2) of the Trade Act—whether to initiate an investigation of issues raised in a petition—differs substantially from a determination, under section 304 of the Act, that a practice is actionable under section 301. Section 304(a)(1) requires that such determinations be made on the basis of an investigation initiated and consultations held with the foreign government, not on the basis of a 45-day review of the sufficiency of a petition on which to base such investigation. Accordingly, the regulations as proposed were not modified in response to this commenter's suggestions. Similarly, the commenter's view that the USTR should exercise caution in addressing worker rights issues under section 301 did not warrant any change in the proposed regulations.

The second commenter also proposed that § 2006.0(d) of the proposed regulations be amended to require that USTR publish in the Federal Register, within 5 days of the filing of a petition, a notice that the petition had been filed. It was this commenter's view that such public notice would improve the USTR's initial evaluation of a petition by enabling interested parties to provide relevant facts. The commenter suggested that this was especially necessary for petitions involving worker rights issues. The USTR considered this proposal and, with the advice of the interagency Section 301 Committee, decided not to amend the proposed regulations. Under current practice, recorded information on petitions filed under section 302 is updated daily; the telephone number of that information line (202/395-3871) has been published, and is repeated in the amended regulations. As soon as a new petition has been filed, the telephone recording reflects that information. Any interested person wishing to bring factual information to the attention of the Section 301 Committee when a petition is filed may do so, but the purpose of the 45-day evaluation period is to determine whether there is sufficient basis for initiating an investigation; it is not an investigation in itself. Once an investigation is initiated, public comment is routinely invited and examined.

A third commenter suggested that the proposed regulations be amended to include a requirement that each notice of public hearing, published in accordance with § 2006.7(d), regarding potential section 301 action address the issue of retroactive imposition of such action. In particular, this commenter seeks advance notice of which products targeted for potential import restrictions will be subject to potential retroactive restrictions, and an opportunity for interested persons to express views on the issue of retroactivity. The commenter notes that this notice procedure has been followed by USTR in the past. The USTR has decided that an amendment to the proposed regulations that would govern the substantive content of public hearing notices is inappropriate and that customary USTR practice should continue with respect to the conduct of public hearings on section 301 matters. Therefore, § 2006.7(d) of the regulations remains as proposed.

Compliance with Executive Orders 12291 and 12612, the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601, et seq.), and the Paperwork Reduction Act (44 U.S.C. Ch. 35)

The Trade Representative has determined that this rule does not constitute a "major rule" for the purposes of Executive Order 12291, because it does not fall within the categories described in section 1(b) of that Executive Order. Accordingly a Regulatory Impact Analysis was not prepared.

Because this rule will have no direct regulatory impact on the public, the Trade Representative certifies that this rule will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. As a result, a regulatory flexibility analysis was not prepared.

The information collection requirement contained in 15 CFR part 2006 has been approved for use through March 31, 1993, by the Office of Management and Budget under the provisions of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1980 (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.) and has been assigned OMB control number 0350-0004. USTR estimates an average of 100 burden hours to prepare a petition under section 302 of the Trade Act. Any comments concerning the accuracy of this burden may be sent to USTR at the above address or to the Office of Management and Budget, Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Washington, DC 20530, Attention Paperwork Reduction Project 0350-0004.

Finally, the Trade Representative determines that this rule has insufficient Federalism implications to warrant preparation of a Federalism Assessment under E.O. 12612.

Carla A. Hills,

United States Trade Representative.

Pursuant to the authority set forth in section 309(a)(1) of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended (19 U.S.C. 2419), part 2006 of title 15 of the Code of Federal Regulations is revised to read as follows:

Authority: Sec. 309(a)(1), Trade Act of 1974, as amended by sec. 1301 of the Omnibus Trade and Competitiveness Act of 1988, Pub. L. 100-418, 102 Stat. 1176 (19 U.S.C. 2419).

§ 2006.0 Submission of petitions requesting action under section 301.

(a) Section 301 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended (the "Trade Act") requires the United States Trade Representative, subject to the specific direction, if any, of the President regarding such action, to take appropriate and feasible action in response to a foreign government's violation of a trade agreement, or any other international agreement the breach of which burdens or restricts United States commerce; and authorizes the Trade Representative, subject to the specific direction of the President, if any, to take action to obtain the elimination of acts, policies, and practices of foreign countries that are unjustifiable, unreasonable, or discriminatory and burden or restrict United States commerce. Section 302 of the Trade Act provides for petitions to be filed with the Trade Representative requesting that action be taken under section 301. Petitions filed under section 302 will be treated as specified in these regulations.

(b) Petitions may be submitted by an interested person. An interested person is deemed to be any party who has a significant interest affected by the act, policy, or practice complained of, for example: A producer, a commercial importer, or an exporter of an affected product or service; a United States person seeking to invest directly abroad, with implications for trade in goods or services; a person who relies on protection of intellectual property rights; a trade association, a certified union or recognized union or group of workers which is representative of an industry engaged in the manufacture, production or wholesale distribution in the United States of a product or service so affected; or any other private party representing a significant economic interest affected directly by the act, policy or practice complained of in the petition.

(c) The petitioner shall submit 20 copies of the petition in English, clearly typed, photocopied, or printed to: Chairman, Section 301 Committee, Office of the United States Trade Representative, 600 17th Street, NW., Washington, DC 20506.

To ensure proper docketing, petitions may be filed only during the following hours on days when the Federal Government is open for business: between 9 a.m. and 12 noon and 1 p.m. to 5 p.m.

(d) Recorded information on section 302 petitions and investigations may be obtained by calling (202) 395-3871.

§ 2006.1 Information to be included in petition.

(a) General information. Petitions submitted pursuant to section 302 of the Trade Act shall clearly state on the first page that the petition requests that action be taken under section 301 of the Trade Act and shall contain allegations and information reasonably available to petitioner in support of the request, in the form specified below. Petitioners for whom such information is difficult or impossible to obtain shall provide as much information as possible, and assistance in filing their petition may be obtained through the Chairman of the Section 301 Committee. All petitions shall:

(1) Identify the petitioner and the person, firm or association, if any, which petitioner represents and describe briefly the economic interest of the petitioner which is directly affected by the failure of a foreign government or instrumentality to grant rights of the United States under a trade agreement, or which is otherwise directly affected economically by an act, policy, or practice which is actionable under section 301.

(2) Describe the rights of the United States being violated or denied under the trade agreement which petitioner seeks to enforce or the other act, policy or practice which is the subject of the petition, and provide a reference to the particular part of section 301 related to the assertion in the petition.

(3) Include, wherever possible, copies of laws or regulations which are the subject of the petition. If this is not possible, the laws and regulations shall be identified with the greatest possible particularity, such as by citation.

(4) Identify the foreign country or instrumentality with whom the United States has an agreement under which petitioner is asserting rights claimed to be denied or whose acts, policies or practices are the subject of the petition.

(5) Identify the product, service, intellectual property right, or foreign direct investment matter for which the rights of the United States under the agreement claimed to be violated or denied are sought, or which is subject to the act, policy or practice of the foreign government or instrumentality named in paragraph (a)(4) of this section.

(6) Demonstrate that rights of the United States under a trade agreement are not being provided; or show the manner in which the act, policy or practice violates or is inconsistent with the provisions of a trade agreement or otherwise denies benefits accruing to the United States under a trade agreement, or is unjustifiable, unreasonable, or discriminatory and burdens or restricts United States commerce.

(7) Provide information concerning

(i) The degree to which U.S. commerce is burdened or restricted by the denial of rights under a trade agreement or by any other act, policy, or practice which is actionable under section 301.

(ii) The volume of trade in the goods or services involved, and

(iii) A description of the methodology used to calculate the burden or restriction on U.S. commerce.

(8) State whether petitioner has filed or is filing for other forms of relief under the Trade Act or any other provision of law. If the foreign government practice at issue is the subject of investigation under any other provision of law, the USTR may determine not to initiate an investigation; or if the same matter is subsequently subject to investigation under some other provision of law, USTR may terminate the section 302 investigation.

(b) Additional specific information—

(1) Subsidies. If the petition includes an assertion that subsidy payments are having an adverse effect upon products or services of the United States in United States' markets or in other foreign markets, it shall include an analysis supporting any claim that the subsidy complained of is inconsistent with any trade agreement and describe the manner in which it burdens or restricts United States commerce.

(2) Certain unreasonable practices. If the petition asserts that an unreasonable practice defined in section 301(d) (3) denies fair and equitable opportunities for the establishment of an enterprise, or denies adequate and effective protection of intellectual property rights, or denies fair and equitable market opportunities, and burdens or restricts U.S. commerce, the petition should include, to the extent possible, identification of reciprocal opportunities in the United States that may exist for foreign nationals and firms; and

(i) If the petition asserts that fair and equitable opportunities for the establishment of an enterprise in a foreign country are denied, the petition shall

(A) Describe in detail the nature of any foreign direct investment proposed by the United States person, including estimates of trade in goods and services that could reasonably be expected to result from that investment.

(B) Indicate the manner in which the foreign government is denying the United States person a fair and equitable opportunity for the establishment of an enterprise.

(C) State whether action by the foreign government is in violation of or inconsistent with the international legal rights of the United States, citing the relevant provisions of any international agreements to which the United States and the foreign government are party, and

(D) To the extent possible, provide copies of all relevant foreign government statutes, regulations, directives, public policy statements and correspondence with the United States person with respect to the proposed investment.

(ii) If the petition asserts that fair and equitable provision of adequate and effective protection of intellectual property rights in a foreign country is denied, the petition shall

(A) Identify the intellectual property right for which protection has been sought,

(B) Indicate how persons who are not citizens or nationals of such foreign country are denied the opportunity to secure, exercise, and enforce rights relating to patents, process patents, registered trademarks, copyrights, or mask works, and

(C) Provide information on the relevant laws of the foreign country and an analysis of how the foreign country's law or policies conform to provisions of international law or international agreements to which both the United States and the foreign country are parties;

(iii) If the petition asserts that fair and equitable market opportunities are denied through the toleration by a foreign government of systematic private anticompetitive activities, the petition shall specifically

(A) Identify the private firms in the foreign country whose systematic anticompetitive activities have the effect of restricting access of United States goods to purchasing by those firms, inconsistent with commercial considerations,

(B) Describe in detail the private activities in question,

(C) State whether evidence of such activities has been provided (by petitioner or others) to the appropriate foreign government authorities, and describe the evidence indicating that the foreign government is aware of and supports, encourages, or tolerates such activities,

(D) Describe the duration and pervasiveness of such activities,

(E) Indicate whether such activities are inconsistent with the laws of the foreign country involved, making specific reference to any laws in question, and

(F) Indicate whether the foreign government's enforcement of (or failure to enforce) its relevant laws with respect to the private activities at issue is inconsistent with its enforcement practices in other situations;

(iv) If the petition asserts that an act, policy or practice, or combination thereof constitutes export targeting, the petition shall

(A) Identify the specific enterprise, industry, or group thereof which has been assisted in becoming more competitive in the export of the affected product or products,

(B) Describe the elements of the foreign government's plan or scheme consisting of coordinated actions to assist that enterprise, industry, or group, and

(C) Provide information on how and to what degree exports of the affected products by that enterprise, industry, or group have become more competitive as a result of the foreign government's plan or scheme; and

(v) If the petition asserts that an act, policy or practice, or combination thereof constitutes a persistent pattern of conduct that denies workers the right of association or the right to organize and bargain collectively, or permits forced or compulsory labor, or fails to provide a minimum age for employment of children or standards for minimum wages, hours, and occupational safety and health of workers, the petition shall

(A) Describe the rights or standards denied and provide information on the laws, policies and practices of the foreign country involved, if any, that relate to such rights or standards, and

(B) Indicate, to the extent such information is available to petitioner, whether the foreign country has taken, or is taking, actions that demonstrate a significant and tangible overall advancement in providing these rights or standards.

§ 2006.2 Adequacy of the petition.

If the petition filed pursuant to section 302 does not conform substantially to the requirements of §§ 2006.0 and 2006.1, the Chairman of the Section 301 Committee may decline to docket the petition as filed and, if requested by petitioner, return it to petitioner with guidance on making the petition conform to the requirements, or may nevertheless determine that there is sufficient information on which to proceed to a determination whether to initiate an investigation.

§ 2006.3 Determinations regarding petitions.

Within 45 days after the day on which the petition is received, the Trade Representative shall determine, after receiving the advice of the Section 301 Committee, whether to initiate an investigation.

(a) If the Trade Representative determines not to initiate an investigation, the Section 301 Chairman shall notify the petitioner of the reasons and shall publish notice of the negative determination and a summary of the reasons therefor in the Federal Register.

(b) If the Trade Representative determines to initiate an investigation regarding the petition, the Section 301 Chairman shall publish a summary of the petition in the Federal Register, and provide an opportunity for the presentation of views concerning the issues, including a public hearing if requested. A hearing may be requested by the petitioner or any interested person, including but not limited to a domestic firm or worker, a representative of consumer interests, a United States product exporter, or any industrial user of any goods or services that may be affected by actions taken under section 301 with respect to the act, policy or practice that is the subject of the petition.

§ 2006.4 Requests for information made to Foreign Governments or Instrumentalities.

If the U.S. Trade Representative receives a petition alleging violations of any international agreement, he will notify the foreign government or instrumentality of the allegations and may request information, in English, necessary to a determination under section 304(a)(1)(A) of the Trade Act. The Trade Representative may proceed on the basis of best information available if, within a reasonable time, no information is received in response to the request.

§ 2006.5 Consultations with the Foreign Government.

(a) If the Trade Representative determines to initiate an investigation on the basis of a petition he shall, on behalf of the United States, request consultations with the foreign country concerned regarding the issues involved in such an investigation. In preparing United States presentations for consultations and dispute settlement proceedings, the Trade Representative shall seek information and advice from the petitioner and any appropriate private sector representatives, including committees established pursuant to section 135 of the Trade Act.

(b) To ensure an adequate basis for consultation, the Trade Representative may, after consulting with the petitioner, delay requests for consultations for up to 90 days in order to verify or improve the petition. If consultations are delayed, the time limits referred to in

§ 2006.6 Formal dispute settlement.

If the issues in a petition are covered by a trade agreement between the United States and the foreign government involved and a mutually acceptable resolution cannot be reached within the consultation period provided for in the agreement, or by 150 days after consultations begin, whichever is earlier, the Trade Representative shall institute the formal dispute settlement proceedings, if any, provided for in the trade agreement.

§ 2006.7 Public hearings.

(a) A public hearing for the purpose of receiving views on the issues raised in a petition shall be held by the Section 301 Committee:

(1) Within 30 days after the date that an investigation is initiated under section 302(a)(2) if a hearing is requested in the petition (or later, if agreed to by the petitioner); or

(2) Within a reasonable period if, after the investigation is initiated, a timely request is made by the petitioner, or any other interested person as defined in § 2006.3(b).

(b) Prior to making a recommendation on what action, if any, should be taken in response to issues raised in the petition, the Section 301 Committee shall hold a public hearing upon the written request of any interested person. An interested person should submit an application to the Section 301 Chairman stating briefly the interest of the person requesting the hearing, the firm, person, or association he represents, and the position to be taken. A hearing so requested shall be held:

(1) Prior to determining what action should be taken under section 301, and after at least 30 days' notice; or

(2) Within 30 days after the determination of action is made, if the Trade Representative determines that expeditious action is required.

(c) After receipt of a request for a public hearing under sections 302(a)(4)(B) or 304(b)(1)(A) of the Trade Act, the Chairman of the Section 301 Committee will notify the applicant whether the request meets the requirements of this part, and if not, the reasons therefor. If the applicant has met the requirements of this part, he will receive at least 30 days' notice of the time and place of the hearing.

(d) Notice of public hearings to be held under sections 302(a)(4)(B) and 304(b)(1)(A) shall be published in the Federal Register by the Chairman of the Section 301 Committee.

§ 2006.8 Submission of written briefs.

(a) In order to participate in the presentation of views either at a public hearing or otherwise, an interested person must submit a written brief before the close of the period of submission announced in the public notice. The brief may be, but need not be, supplemented by the presentation of oral testimony in any public hearing scheduled in accordance with § 2006.7.

(b) The brief shall state clearly the position taken and shall describe with particularity the supporting rationale. It shall be submitted in 20 copies, which must be legibly typed, printed, or duplicated.

(c) In order to assure each interested person an opportunity to contest the information provided by other parties, the Section 301 Committee will entertain rebuttal briefs filed by any interested person within a time limit specified in the public notice. Rebuttal briefs should be strictly limited to demonstrating errors of fact or analysis not pointed out in the briefs or hearing and should be as concise as possible.

§ 2006.9 Presentation of oral testimony at public hearings.

(a) A request by an interested person to present oral testimony at a public hearing shall be submitted in writing before the close of the period of submission announced in the public notice and shall state briefly the interest of the applicant. Such request will be granted if a brief has been submitted in accordance with § 2006.8.

(b) After consideration of a request to present oral testimony at a public hearing, the Chairman of the Section 301 Committee will notify the applicant whether the request conforms to the requirements of § 2006.8(a) and, if it does not, will give the reasons. If the applicant has submitted a conforming request he shall be notified of the time and place for the hearing and for his oral testimony.

§ 2006.10 Waiver of requirements.

To the extent consistent with the requirements of the Trade Act, the requirements of §§ 2006.0 through 2006.3 and 2006.8 may be waived by the Trade Representative or the Chairman of the Section 301 Committee upon a showing of good cause and for reasons of equity and the public interest.

§ 2006.11 Consultations before making determinations.

Prior to making a determination on what action, if any, should be taken in regard to issues raised in the petition, the Trade Representative shall obtain advice from any appropriate private sector advisory representatives, including committees established pursuant to section 135 of the Trade Act, unless expeditious action is required, in which case he shall seek such advice after making the determination. The Trade Representative may also request the views of the International Trade Commission regarding the probable economic impact of the proposed action.

§ 2006.12 Determinations; Time limits.

On the basis of the petition, investigation and consultations, and after receiving the advice of the Section 301 Committee, the Trade Representative shall determine whether U.S. rights under any trade agreement are being denied, or whether any other act, policy, or practice actionable under section 301 exists and, if so, what action (if any) should be taken under section 301. These determinations shall be made:

(a) In the case of an investigation involving a trade agreement (other than the agreement on subsidies and countervailing measures described in section 2(c)(5) of the Trade Agreements Act of 1979), within 30 days after the dispute settlement procedure concludes, or 18 months after the initiation of the investigation, whichever is earlier.

(b) In all other cases, within 12 months after initiating an investigation.

§ 2006.13 Information open to public inspection.

(a) With the exception of information subject to § 2006.15, an interested person may, upon advance request, inspect at a public reading room in the Office of the United States Trade Representative:

(1) Any written petition, brief, or similar submission of information (other than that to which confidentiality applies) made in the course of a section 302 proceeding;

(2) Any stenographic record of a public hearing held pursuant to section 302 or 304.

(b) In addition, upon written request submitted in accordance with section 308 of the Trade Act, any person may obtain from the Section 301 Chairman the following, to the extent that such information is available to the Office of the U.S. Trade Representative or other Federal agencies:

(1) Information on the nature and extent of a specific trade policy or practice of a foreign government or instrumentality with respect to particular goods, services, investment, or intellectual property rights;

(2) Information on United States rights under any trade agreement and the remedies which may be available under that agreement and under the laws of the United States; and

(3) Information on past and present domestic and international proceedings or actions with respect to the policy or practice concerned.

(c) An appropriate fee will be charged for duplication of documents requested under § 2006.13.

§ 2006.14 Information not available.

If the Office of the U.S. Trade Representative does not have, and cannot obtain from other Federal agencies, information requested in writing by any person, the Section 301 Chairman shall, within 30 days after the receipt of the request:

(a) Request the information from the foreign government involved; or

(b) Decline to request the information and inform the person in writing of the reasons for the refusal.

§ 2006.15 Information exempt from public inspection.

(a) The Chairman of the Section 301 Committee shall exempt from public inspection business information submitted in confidence if he determines that such information involves trade secrets or commercial and financial information the disclosure of which is not authorized by the person furnishing such information nor required by law.

(b) An interested person requesting that the Chairman exempt from public inspection confidential business information submitted in writing must certify in writing that such information is business confidential, the disclosure of such information would endanger trade secrets or profitability, and such information is not generally available. The information submitted must be clearly marked "BUSINESS CONFIDENTIAL" in a contrasting color ink at the top of each page on each copy, and shall be accompanied by a nonconfidential summary of the confidential information.

(c) The Section 301 Chairman may use such information, or make such information available (in his own discretion) to any employee of the Federal Government for use in any investigation under section 302, or make such information available to any other person in a form which cannot be associated with, or otherwise identify, the person providing the information.

(d) The Section 301 Chairman may deny a request that he exempt from public inspection any particular business information if he determines that such information is not entitled to exemption under law. In the event of a denial, the interested person submitting the particular business information will be notified of the reasons for the denial and will be permitted to withdraw the submission.

RIN 0960-AC86

Supplemental Security Income for the Aged, Blind, and Disabled, Treatment of Augmented Veterans Benefits, Anderson, et al. v. Sullivan

AGENCY: Social Security Administration, HHS.

ACTION: Interim final rule with comment period.

SUMMARY: These interim final regulations, which are effective on publication, set out our policy, under the supplemental security income (SSI) program, regarding the treatment of veterans benefits that are increased ("augmented") to provide for dependents. If the SSI claimant or recipient is a veteran or a veteran's surviving spouse receiving a veterans benefit that includes an augmented portion ("dependent's portion"), the dependent's portion of the veterans benefit is not counted as unearned income to the SSI claimant or recipient. The United States District Court in Anderson, et al. v. Sullivan, No. CV-88-036-CF (D. Mont. Nov. 21, 1989), ordered the publication of this policy in interim final regulations.

DATES: Interim final rule effective May 18, 1990; comments must be received on or before July 17, 1990.

ADDRESSES: Comments should be submitted in writing to the Commissioner of Social Security, Department of Health and Human Services, P.O. Box 1585, Baltimore, MD 21235, or delivered to the Office of Regulations, Social Security Administration, 3-B-1 Operations Building, 6401 Security Boulevard, Baltimore, MD 21235, between 8 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. on regular business days. Comments received may be inspected during these same hours by making arrangements with the contact person shown below.

Administration, 6401 Security Boulevard, Baltimore, MD 21235, (301) 965-8470.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

Section 1612 of the Social Security Act (the Act) specifies certain items that are included as earned and unearned income under the SSI program. Section 1612(a)(2)(B) provides that unearned income includes, among other things, payments received as an annuity, pension, retirement, or disability benefit, including veterans compensation and pension.

Prior to November 1981, the Social Security Administration (SSA), with regard to veterans benefits that were augmented for dependents, counted the entire benefit, including the augmented portion, as income to the veteran or veteran's surviving spouse for SSI purposes. In 1981, SSA changed its policy and published a ruling (SSR 82-31, effective November 1, 1981), which explained that the dependent's portion of the augmented veterans benefit would not be counted as unearned income to the veteran or the veteran's surviving spouse but as unearned income to the dependent.

SSA was challenged in Anderson, et al. v. Sullivan, No. CV-88-036-GF (D. Mont. Nov. 21, 1989) for not applying the policy to a nationwide class of veterans pensions known as "protected pensions." The protected pensions under Public Law 95-588 include pensions which are means-tested pensions and paid under provisions that predate the current improved pension program. In Anderson, the plaintiff was a veteran's widow who received a veterans protected pension and SSI disability benefits. Her pension was augmented due to the presence of a dependent in her household. SSA considered the full amount of the veterans pension, including the dependent's portion, as income to Ms. Anderson in determining the amount of her SSI benefits. She filed suit against the Secretary of Health and Human Services seeking relief from our practice of counting the dependent's portion of her veterans protected pension as income to her. SSA had counted this as income to her because of incomplete information received from the computer match between the Department of Veterans Affairs and SSA with regard to veterans protected pensions. On November 21, 1989, the court in Anderson ordered the Secretary to promulgate, within 6 months, interim final regulations that provide that the augmented portion of a veterans pension is not to be counted as unearned income to the veteran or the veteran's surviving spouse.

Provisions of the Regulations

Consistent with the court order, we have revised § 416.1123 of the current regulations. The regulations set out how we count unearned income. We have added a new paragraph (e) to explain that if you receive a veterans benefit that includes an amount paid to you because of a dependent, we do not count as your unearned income the amount paid to you because of the dependent.

Simultaneous Publication of Related NPRM with these Interim Final Regulations

We are publishing a related NPRM regarding the SSI treatment of the dependent's portion as income to the dependent in this issue of the Federal Register. By publishing these regulations simultaneously, we are presenting our complete policy on the treatment of an augmented veterans benefit in the SSI program.

Regulatory Procedures

Justification for Interim Final Rules

The Department, even when not required by statute, as a matter of policy generally follows the Administrative Procedure Act (APA) notice of proposed rulemaking and public comment procedures specified in 5 U.S.C. 553 in the development of its regulations. The APA provides exceptions to its notice and public comment procedures when an agency finds there is good cause for dispensing with such procedures on the basis that they are impracticable, unnecessary, or contrary to the public interest.

We have determined that under 5 U.S.C. 553(b)(3)(B), good cause exists for waiver of proposed rulemaking in these interim final regulations. Since we are implementing a court order mandating specific changes to the regulations, we believe notice and comment procedures are impracticable. The Anderson court has ordered us to issue these interim final regulations within 6 months of the date of the court order. That time is too short to allow prior notice and opportunity for comment. Therefore, these regulations are being issued as interim final rules and will be effective on the date of publication in the Federal Register.

Executive Order 12291

The Secretary has determined that this is not a major rule under Executive Order 12291. The interim final regulations are nondiscretionary.

Although costs could not be estimated with precision, the amount will be well under the $100 million threshold for an impact analysis. Therefore, a regulatory impact analysis is not required.

Paperwork Reduction Act

These interim final regulations impose no reporting/recordkeeping requirements requiring the Office of Management and Budget clearance.

Regulatory Flexibility Act

We certify that these interim final regulations will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities because these regulations will affect only individuals. Therefore, a regulatory flexibility analysis as provided in Public Law 96-354, the Regulatory Flexibility Act of 1980, is not required.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Office of Surface Mining Reclamation and Enforcement

30 CFR Part 942

Surface Coal Mining and Reclamation Operations Under a Federal Program for Tennessee

AGENCY: Office of Surface Mining Reclamation and Enforcement, Interior.

ACTION: Final rule, technical amendment.

SUMMARY: The Office of Surface Mining Reclamation and Enforcement (OSM) of the Department of the Interior (DOI) is making a technical amendment to the final rule promulgating a Federal program for the regulation of coal exploration and surface coal mining and reclamation operations on non-Federal and non-Indian lands in the State of Tennessee, which was published in the Federal Register on October 1, 1984. The purpose of the amendment is to correct a cross-referencing error, and to restore a provision inadvertently omitted concerning backfilling and grading timing requirements.

EFFECTIVE DATE: May 18, 1990.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Suzanne Hudak, Office of Surface Mining Reclamation and Enforcement, U.S. Department of the Interior, 1951 Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20240; Telephone: 202-208-2700 (Commercial) or 268-2700 (FTS).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

- I. Background.
- II. Discussion of Amendment.
- III. Procedural Matters.

I. Background

On October 1, 1984, OSM promulgated a Federal program for the regulation of coal exploration and surface coal mining and reclamation operations on non-Federal and non-Indian lands in Tennessee under section 504(a) of the Surface Mining Control and Reclamation Act of 1977 (SMCRA), 30 U.S.C. 1201 et seq. (49 FR 38874). Upon promulgation of a Federal regulatory program, the Secretary becomes the regulatory authority. Through delegation, the Director of OSM is the official directly responsible for the implementation of a Federal regulatory program.

Federal programs are promulgated by means of cross-referencing the permanent program regulations in 30 CFR subchapters A, F, G, H, J, K, L, and M, which set the substantive standards. The Federal regulatory program for Tennessee is found in 30 CFR part 942. Sections of part 942 on various topics cross-reference the counterpart permanent program rules on those topics. Cross-referencing avoids duplication of the full text of the permanent regulatory program rules for each Federal program.

Where a particular permanent program regulation requires modification for use in the Tennessee Federal program, a paragraph or paragraphs are added to modify the permanent regulatory program standards applicable in Tennessee or to add requirements or standards. This is one means of implementing the mandate of section 504(a) of SMCRA that in promulgating a Federal program the Secretary take into consideration relevant conditions in the State.

II. Discussion of Amendment

The permanent program performance standards contained in 30 CFR 816.102 set forth the general requirements for backfilling and grading of disturbed areas. In establishing backfilling and grading performance standards for use in the Tennessee Federal program, 30 CFR 942.816(e) states:

In addition to the requirements of § 816.102(a)(6) of this chapter, backfilling and grading shall proceed in accordance with the following timing requirements * * *.

The paragraph should have read: "In addition to the requirements of § 816.102 of this chapter, * * *." The reference to § 816.102(a)(6) was a cross-referencing error to a non-existent provision. This rulemaking corrects that error.

The October 1984 rulemaking at 30 CFR 942.816 also included paragraph 942.816(e)(3) which stated:

The Office may grant additional time for rough backfilling and grading if the permittee can demonstrate, through the detailed written analysis under § 780.18(b)(3) of this chapter, that additional time is necessary.

Paragraph 942.816(e)(3) appeared in the July 1985, 1986, and 1987 editions of the Code of Federal Regulations, 30 CFR part 700 to End, but was inadvertently omitted from the 1988 and 1989 editions by the Office of the Federal Register. This rulemaking corrects the Federal Register's inadvertent omission of the rule at 30 CFR 942.816(e)(3) from the Code of Federal Regulations.

These corrections are considered technical amendments and no change in the meaning or application of the Tennessee Federal program is intended.

III. Procedural Matters

Executive Order 12291 and the Regulatory Flexibility Act

OSM has determined that this document is not a major rule and does not require a regulatory impact analysis under Executive Order 12291 because the rule is an administrative correction and has no economic effect on the public. For the same reason this document will not have a significant economic effect on a substantial number of small entities and does not require a regulatory flexibility analysis under the Regulatory Flexibility Act.

National Environmental Policy Act

This rulemaking is not a major Federal action, but an administrative rule covered under previous rulemakings. Therefore, an environmental assessment is not required for this rulemaking which is covered under the environmental assessment and environmental impact statement prepared for the previous rulemaking.

Federal Paperwork Reduction Act

It has been determined that the information collection requirements do not change due to the corrections of this rulemaking and therefore it is exempt from the requirements of the Paperwork Reduction Act (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.) and does not require clearance by the Office of Management and Budget.

List of Subjects in 30 CFR Part 942

Coal mining, Intergovernmental relations, Surface mining, Underground mining, Reporting and recordkeeping requirements.

Accordingly, OSM is amending 30 CFR part 942 as set forth below.

Dated: May 11, 1990.

Assistant Secretary, Land and Minerals Management.

PART 942—TENNESSEE

1. The authority citation for part 942 continues to read as follows:

Authority: 30 U.S.C. 1201 et seq., as amended; and Pub. L. 100-34.

2. Section 942.816 is amended by revising paragraph (e) and restoring paragraph (e)(3) as follows:

§ 942.816 Performance standards—surface mining activities.

(e) Backfilling and grading: General requirements. In addition to the requirements of § 816.102 of this chapter, backfilling and grading shall proceed in accordance with the following timing requirements:

- (1) * * *
- (2) * * *

(3) The Office may grant additional time for rough backfilling and grading if the permittee can demonstrate, through the detailed written analysis under § 780.18(b)(3) of this chapter, that additional time is necessary.

ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY

40 CFR Part 52

[FRL-3764]

Approval and Promulgation of Implementation Plans; Maine Ozone Attainment Plan; Control of Gasoline Volatility

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency (EPA).

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: EPA is approving State Implementation Plan (SIP) revisions submitted by the State of Maine. These revisions will reduce emissions of volatile organic compounds from gasoline by reducing the Reid Vapor Pressure (RVP) of gasoline statewide. EPA is also finding that Maine's RVP regulations are "necessary to achieve" the national ambient air quality standards (NAAQS) in its ozone nonattainment areas and are excepted from federal preemption under section 211(c)(4) of the Clean Air Act (the Act). The intended effect of this action is to make reasonable further progress toward attainment of the ozone standard in the State of Maine as expeditiously as practicable as required under the Act.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This rule will become effective on June 18, 1990.

ADDRESSES: Copies of the submittal and EPA's evaluation are available for public inspection during normal business hours at the Environmental Protection Agency, room 2311, JFK Federal Building, Boston, MA 02203; and the Maine Department of Environmental Protection, Upham Building, 71 Hospital Street, Augusta, ME 04333.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Jennifer York-Olsen (617) 565-3220, FTS: 835-3220.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This Federal Register notice describes EPA's decision to approve revisions to the Maine SIP which limit the volatility of gasoline during the summertime ozone season from May 1 to September 15. While the regulation contained in Maine's SIP submission called for implementation in 1989, EPA was unable to approve the rule nor was it enforceable until Maine submitted additional necessary revisions. Therefore, EPA's decision to approve the SIP revisions apply in 1990 and every year thereafter. The remainder of this preamble is divided into four sections. The first provides the background for this action, with respect to both chronology and the broad issues involved. The second section presents today's action and EPA's rationale. The third section summarizes the comments received on the proposed action and EPA's response to them. The final section discusses Maine's revision to the test methods and definitions sections of the regulation to rectify certain deficiencies identified and discussed in EPA's proposed rulemaking notice.

Background

On November 12, 1987, the Commissioners of the Northeast States for Coordinated Air Use Management (NESCAUM) signed a Memorandum of Understanding expressing their intention to reduce the Reid Vapor Pressure (RVP) of gasoline to 10.0 pounds per square inch (psi) starting in the summer of 1988 and to 9.0 psi in the summer of 1989 and continuing every ozone season thereafter. The State of Maine held a hearing on April 7, 1988 on a regulation to implement this strategy. Since there were delays in adopting necessary regulations, the 1988 limit of 10.0 psi was eliminated. The regulation could not be enforced in 1989 because it was not yet approved as a SIP revision by EPA. The Maine regulation limiting RVP to 9.0 psi from May 1 to September 15 will be enforceable starting in 1990, and continuing each year thereafter.

Maine adopted its regulation on August 10, 1988 and submitted it to EPA as a SIP revision on February 14, 1989. On May 3, 1989, EPA received a supplemental submittal from the state containing additional information on the state's VOC inventory. The Notice of Proposed Rulemaking for Maine's SIP revision was published on September 11, 1989 (54 FR 37479). The Federal Register notice required that the state revise its RVP regulation and submit an official copy with the revisions to EPA prior to EPA taking final action on the SIP revision. EPA received an official copy of the state's revised Department Regulation chapter 119 RVP regulation on December 6, 1989, containing the changes to the definitions and test methods sections. Since EPA was not able to take final action on the Maine submittal prior to the end of the 1989 ozone season, the rule will first be in effect on May 1, for the 1990 ozone season.

EPA published a notice of final rulemaking on March 22, 1989 (54 FR 11868) which requires the control of the volatility of gasoline nationally. The rule requires that in the Northeast the standard would be 10.5 psi beginning in the summer of 1989. The federal standard will be enforced each year beginning June 1 (for retail users and other end-users of gasoline) of May 1 (for all other points in the distribution system) except in 1989 when enforcement began June 30, 1989, and June 1, 1989 (100 days and 70 days, respectively, after the publication date of the final rule). Enforcement ends at all points in the system on September 15 of each year. The EPA regulation would normally preempt the state provision under section 211(c)(4) of the Act. However, section 211(c)(4)(C) of the Act provides for approval of state control of fuel or fuel additives if the control is part of the SIP and is necessary to achieve the primary or secondary national ambient air quality standard (NAAQS) which the plan implements. In its March 22, 1989, Notice, EPA made specific note of the NESCAUM states' initiatives and the conditions for EPA approval of state RVP regulations.

On September 11, 1989, EPA published a Federal Register notice (54 FR 37479) proposing approval of the Maine SIP revision. EPA also proposed to find that these revisions were "necessary" to achieve the NAAQS for ozone within the meaning of section 211(c)(4)(C) of the Act and, thus, meet the requirements for an exception to federal preemption.

Description of Today's Action

EPA today approves revisions to the Maine SIP which limit gasoline volatility statewide to 9.0 psi between May 1 and September 15, 1990 and each year thereafter. EPA is approving the program, including any waivers the state might issue under its authority.

EPA is also explicitly finding that the Maine revisions are "necessary to achieve" the NAAQS in the State of Maine within the meaning of section 211(c)(4)(C) of the Act. This means that Maine's RVP regulations are not preempted by the federal RVP regulations promulgated in March 22, 1989.

In approving the Maine RVP SIP revisions, EPA must consider requirements imposed by two different sections of the Clean Air Act. As with all SIP revisions, section 110 provides the requirements for approval into the SIP. In this case, since EPA has promulgated federal RVP regulations, section 211(c)(4)(A) preempts inconsistent state control. However, section 211(c)(4)(C) provides that the Administrator may except a state RVP control program from preemption if the finds it is "necessary" to achieve the NAAQS. Thus, the Maine revisions must satisfy both section 110 and section 211 requirements to gain approval.

EPA has concluded that the Maine RVP regulations are "necessary" to achieve the ozone NAAQS. In reaching this conclusion EPA has followed the test first articulated in approving the Maricopa County, Arizona SIP (53 FR 17413) (May 18, 1988) and 53 FR 30228 (August 10, 1988)) and later presented in the proposed approval of the Maine revisions. EPA stated that if, after accounting for the possible reductions from all other reasonable control measures, Maine could demonstrate that RVP controls are still required to achieve the standard, then RVP controls are necessary within the meaning of section 211(c)(4)(C). EPA will not interpret that provision to require a state to impose more drastic measures such as driving prohibitions or source shutdowns before it can adopt its own fuel control program.

As discussed in the notice of proposed rulemaking, the record indicates that Maine's southern nonattainment areas need VOC emission reductions on the order of at least 25 percent from 1986 inventory levels to achieve the standard. The state reviewed measures suggested by EPA as reasonable in addition to RVP control to 9.0 psi and found they could collectively potentially achieve a 22.8 percent reduction from 1986 levels. As indicated in the proposed rulemaking, even with the state's regulation of fuel volatility being more stringent than EPA's regulation of 10.5 psi, a shortfall would still exist. EPA's technical review of the data presented in the state submission affirms the conclusion that a shortfall will exist even with all reasonable state and federal measures.

EPA continues to believe that the fact that the state RVP regulation might not by itself fill the shortfall and hence by itself achieve the ozone standard does not mean this rule is not "necessary to achieve" the NAAQS. EPA believes that the "necessary to achieve" standard must be interpreted to apply to measures which are needed to reduce ambient levels when there are no other less draconian measures that EPA or the state have found to achieve this reduction. Thus, EPA concludes that Maine RVP regulation is "necessary" to achieve the NAAQS.

Although not all of the State of Maine is designated as nonattainment for the ozone standard, EPA is approving a statewide volatility limit in Maine. As discussed in the proposed rulemaking, the ozone problem in Maine has worsened as population increases, vehicle miles travelled (VMT) increase, and industrial sources increase in number and density. As evidence of the worsening ozone problem, EPA's post 1987 SIP call and requirements for post 1987 SIP strategies include an additional Maine county, Hancock County (53 FR 20722, June 6, 1988).

In light of the administrative and enforcement difficulties Maine may experience if its RVP regulation were effective only in the southern nonattainment area, until EPA is in a position to conclude that the RVP program is definitely not necessary in the areas designated attainment, the Agency believes it is appropriate to make a finding under section 211(c)(4)(C) with respect to the RVP program in the northern attainment areas. Such a finding is necessary in the northern attainment areas to preserve the integrity and enforceability of the RVP program in the southern nonattainment areas. EPA therefore today makes such a finding.

Waivers

As with its approvals of other state RVP programs, EPA is approving Maine's program including any waivers or variances from compliance Maine may grant to address emergency supply dislocations that might occur as a result of Maine's lower RVP requirement. Such waivers would not affect any federal limit on RVP, which is currently 10.5 psi in Maine.

Summary of Public Comments and EPA's Responses

EPA received only one comment on the proposed rulemaking. This comment was in support of EPA's proposed approval of the revisions to Maine's SIP.

Enforcement

EPA's proposed approval of the Maine SIP revision indicated that there was a problem with the test methods section of its RVP regulations. The regulation required that fuel sampling and testing be conducted in accordance with certain ASTM methods, or "... any other method approved by the Commissioner." EPA informed the state that alternative methods must be approved by EPA as well. Maine also agreed to clarify its definitions of "bulk gasoline terminal" and "bulk gasoline plant." On December 6, 1989, Maine submitted an official copy of the amended regulation, including changes to the test methods section which now reads: "... any other method approved by the Commissioner and EPA." Maine also clarified its definitions of "bulk gasoline terminal" and "bulk gasoline plant."

Final Action

EPA is approving this revision to the Maine State Implementation Plan for ozone to control gasoline volatility, including any waivers Maine may grant under the program. EPA is also finding that the Maine SIP revision meets the requirements of section 211(c)(4)(C) of the Act for an exception to federal preemption.

The Office of Management and Budget has exempted this rule from the requirements of section 3 of Executive Order 12291.

Under section 307(b)(1) of the Act, petitions for judicial review of this action must be filed in the United States Court of Appeals for the appropriate circuit within 60 days of publication. This action may not be challenged later in proceedings to enforce its requirements (See section 307(b)(2)).

Endangered Fish or Wildlife; Permits for Incidental Taking of Endangered Marine Species

AGENCY: National Marine Fisheries Service (NOAA Fisheries), NOAA, Commerce.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: Regulations are issued under 50 CFR part 222 to establish procedures for issuing permits under section 10 of the Endangered Species Act (ESA) for the incidental taking of certain endangered marine species as authorized by the 1982 amendments to the ESA. The regulations allow permits to be issued for a take of endangered marine species incidentally to an otherwise lawful activity, provided certain conditions are met.

DATES: These regulations become effective on June 18, 1990.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Patricia Montanio, Office of Protected Resources, National Marine Fisheries Service, 1335 East West Highway, Silver Spring, MD 20910, 301-427-2322.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

The 1982 amendments to the ESA revised section 10(a) to allow the Secretaries of Commerce and the Interior greater flexibility in regulating the incidental taking of endangered species. Prior to the amendments, taking could be allowed incidentally to most Federal activities and Federally regulated or funded activities under section 7 of the ESA, but could not be allowed incidentally to strictly private activities. The 1982 amendments authorize the Secretaries to issue permits, under limited circumstances, allowing a taking of endangered species incidentally to an otherwise lawful activity.

These regulations establish procedures for issuing permits for the incidental take of endangered species under the jurisdiction of NOAA Fisheries, Department of Commerce. These species are identified in 50 CFR 222.23(a), and are referred to in this document as endangered marine species. All other endangered species are under the jurisdiction of the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior, and are subject to the incidental taking provisions at 50 CFR 17.22 and 17.32.

On October 3, 1989, NOAA Fisheries published proposed regulations in the Federal Register (54 FR 40699) and requested comments. One comment was received from the U.S. Department of the Interior (DOI).

DOI recommends that these regulations be amended to apply to threatened marine species, as well as endangered marine species. The prohibitions in section 9 and exceptions in section 10 of the ESA apply only to endangered species of fish and wildlife. When a species is listed as threatened, protective regulations must be issued under section 4(d) of the ESA to provide for the conservation of the species. These regulations can establish the same requirements for threatened species as the ESA provides for endangered species or they can be less restrictive, as appropriate. Therefore, making these regulations apply to all threatened marine species is not appropriate. Regulations established for threatened marine species under the jurisdiction of NOAA Fisheries are contained in 50 CFR part 227.

DOI believes that the section 10 provisions for private activities should be as restrictive as the section 7 provisions for Federal activities. As discussed below under "Relation to Section 7 of the ESA," the incidental take permit provisions of section 10 are very similar to the incidental take statement provisions of section 7 of the ESA. NOAA Fisheries does not believe that these regulations are less restrictive for private activities than section 7 is for Federal activities. The applicant for a section 10 incidental take permit must develop a conservation plan that evaluates alternatives and indicates the steps the applicant will take to minimize impacts. To issue a permit, NOAA Fisheries must find, among other things, that the impacts will be minimized to the extent practicable and that the taking will not appreciably reduce the likelihood of the survival and recovery of the species.

DOI also believes that the incidental take of endangered or threatened marine mammals should be subject to the same requirements of section 101(a)(5) of the Marine Mammal Protection Act of 1972 (MMPA), regardless of whether the activity is subject to the ESA section 7 or section 10 process. Actually, section 101(a)(5) of the MMPA and section 7 of the ESA would govern the taking of endangered or threatened marine mammals incidental to activities other than commercial fishing. The section 10 process would not apply. Even for otherwise private actions, regulations under section 101(a)(5) of the MMPA would be required and consultation under section 7 of the ESA would be conducted because issuance of the MMPA regulations is a Federal action. The incidental take statement issued with the biological opinion would address taking concerns under the ESA. This issue is discussed in detail in the preamble to the September 29, 1989, final rule on the Incidental Take of Endangered, Threatened and Other Depleted Marine Mammals (see 54 FR 40345-40347).

Incidental Take Permits

Section 10(a)(1)(B) of the ESA authorizes NOAA Fisheries to permit a taking of an endangered marine species otherwise prohibited by section 9(a)(1)(B) of the ESA if the taking is incidentally to, and not the purpose of, an otherwise legal activity. Section 9(a)(1)(B) prohibits the taking of any endangered species within the United States or its territorial sea. Thus, ESA section 10 incidental take permits can be issued only for activities which may incidentally take endangered marine species within the United States or the U.S. territorial sea. These permits will not authorize the incidental taking of endangered marine species outside of the territorial sea.

Section 10(a)(2)(A) requires each applicant for an incidental take permit to submit a conservation plan that specifies (i) the impact which will likely result from such taking; (ii) what steps will be taken to minimize and mitigate such impacts, and the funding that will be available to implement such steps; (iii) what alternative actions to such taking have been considered and the reasons why such alternatives are not being used; and (iv) such other measures that NOAA Fisheries may require as being necessary or appropriate for purposes of the plan.

As required by section 10(a)(2)(B), NOAA Fisheries will issue the permit if it finds, after notice in the Federal Register and opportunity for comments, that (i) the taking will be incidental; (ii) the applicant will, to the maximum extent practicable, minimize and mitigate the impacts of the taking; (iii) the applicant will ensure that adequate funding for the plan will be provided; (iv) the taking will not appreciably reduce the likelihood of the survival and recovery of the species in the wild; and (v) any additional measures required by NOAA Fisheries as being necessary or appropriate for the purposes of the conservation plan will be met. NOAA Fisheries will prescribe terms and conditions to ensure that appropriate conservation measures are taken, including reporting requirements, and may revoke the permit if the terms and conditions of the permit are not being complied with.

The regulations establish two categories of permits: an individual incidental take permit and a general incidental take permit. An individual permit would cover a single entity, such as a corporation, whose activity incidentally takes endangered marine species. A general permit would cover a group of people conducting the same or a similar activity in the same geographic area with similar impacts on endangered marine species. In this case, a representative of a group of potential applicants, such as a fishermen's association, would apply for a general incidental take permit. A single conservation plan would be prepared for the activity as a whole. After a general permit is issued, members of the group, as well as other individuals, can obtain coverage under the permit by applying for and receiving a certificate of inclusion. An applicant for a certificate of inclusion must agree to comply with the terms and conditions of the general permit and the conservation plan.

Relation to Section 7 of the ESA

The incidental take provisions of section 10 parallel certain provisions of section 7 of the ESA. Section 7(a)(2) requires all Federal agencies, in consultation with NOAA Fisheries, to ensure that any action authorized, funded, or carried out by the agency is not likely to jeopardize the continued existence of any endangered or threatened marine species or result in the destruction or adverse modification of the critical habitat of that species. Under section 7(b)(4), when an agency action that may involve incidental taking is found to be consistent with section 7(a)(2), NOAA Fisheries issues an incidental take statement authorizing an incidental take and specifying the terms and conditions necessary to monitor the taking and minimize the impact of such taking. Thus, Federal agencies and private entities regulated or funded by the Federal agency may carry out activities resulting in the incidental take of endangered species consistent with the incidental take statement without violating the ESA and without a section 10 permit.

Congress amended section 10 of the ESA to address incidental taking associated with actions that are not covered by section 7. Under section 10, individuals or entities not otherwise covered by a section 7 incidental take statement can apply for incidental take permits. These permits would provide exemptions from the taking prohibitions similar to those made under section 7 incidental take statements given to Federal agencies.

Since the section 7 incidental take statement only covers activities where there is continuing Federal involvement or control, section 10 incidental take permits may be appropriate for certain Federally regulated or funded activities where there is no continuing Federal involvement over a project once the Federal permit, authorization or funding is made. Federally regulated or funded projects that sustain Federal involvement throughout the life of the project remain subject to the provisions of section 7 of the ESA.

Section 10 permits may also be issued in cases where a section 7 incidental take does not appear to be provided for, such as the taking of marine mammals incidentally to commercial fishing operations within the U.S. territorial sea. A section 7 incidental take statement cannot be issued in this case since in order to issue an incidental take statement for marine mammals, the taking must be authorized under section 10(a)(5) of the Marine Mammal Protection Act which applies to activities other than commercial fishing.

Pre-application Assistance

Any person considering applying for an ESA section 10 incidental take permit may contact NOAA Fisheries for assistance before submitting an application. To the extent practicable, NOAA Fisheries will (1) review the requirements of these regulations and determine if a permit is necessary; (2) identify and provide information on listed and proposed species that may be present in the vicinity of the proposed action; (3) identify possible alternatives to avoid an incidental take; and (4) identify possible mitigating measures. Engaging in this pre-application discussion in no way requires one to apply for a permit.

Conservation Plan

In developing a conservation plan, the applicant must use the best scientific and commercial data available to identify potential impacts to the endangered species and to incorporate the most effective use of research and technology to monitor, minimize and mitigate such impacts. The applicant has the responsibility for securing appropriate data for the preparation of a conservation plan although NOAA Fisheries will provide assistance to the extent practicable (see "Pre-application Assistance" above). All information requirements must be satisfied before NOAA Fisheries will process a permit application.

The conservation plan need only address listed species, although the applicant may include species that have been proposed for listing to facilitate early resolution of potential endangered species conflicts. This may avoid delays in processing or the need to revise the conservation plan and modify the permit should the species become listed after the permit is issued. However, failure to include proposed species will not be a factor in deciding whether to issue or deny a requested permit.

Duration of Permits

Since some projects may take many years to complete, applicants may need long-term permits. To provide sufficient incentives for the private sector to participate in the development of long-term conservation plans, NOAA Fisheries has the discretion to issue ESA section 10 incidental take permits that run for periods significantly longer than are commonly provided for under current administrative practices. In determining the duration of a permit, NOAA Fisheries will consider the duration of the proposed activities as well as the possible positive and negative effects associated with issuing a long-term permit, including the extent to which the conservation plan is likely to enhance the habitat of the endangered species or increase the survivability of the species.

Since circumstances and information may change over time, the original plan might need to be revised. Therefore, any plan approved for a long-term permit must contain a procedure by which NOAA Fisheries and the permit holder will deal with unforeseen circumstances.

Terms and Conditions of Permits

Permit conditions will be based on the extent of a project's anticipated impacts on the species at issue. In establishing terms and conditions necessary and appropriate to minimize adverse impacts to endangered species, NOAA Fisheries will consider the scope, magnitude and duration of a proposed project, the anticipated level of take, and the availability of technologically and economically feasible methods of avoiding or reducing incidental takings. Examples of possible mitigating measures include restricting the time or area of certain activities (such as the use of explosives), relocating individual animals from designated sites, and modifying techniques or equipment (such as fishing gear or water intake structures).

Classification

NOAA Fisheries has determined that this action will not have a significant impact on the human environment and has prepared an environmental assessment for this rulemaking. Therefore, an environmental impact statement is not required. The environmental assessment is available upon request (see FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT).

The Under Secretary for Oceans and Atmosphere, Department of Commerce, determined that this is not a major rule requiring a regulatory impact analysis under E.O. 12291. The regulations are not likely to result in (1) an annual effect on the economy of $100 million or more; (2) a major increase in costs or prices for consumers, individual industries or government agencies; or (3) significant adverse effect on competition, employment, productivity, innovation or on the ability of United States-based enterprises to compete with foreign-based enterprises in domestic or export markets.

The General Counsel of the Department of Commerce has certified to the Small Business Administration that this rule will not have a significant economic effect on a substantial number of small entities because the rule reflects changes made to the Endangered Species Act and is intended to provide guidance for potential applicants concerning procedures and requirements for obtaining permits to take endangered species incidentally to an otherwise lawful activity.

This rule contains a collection of information subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1980 (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.) and has been approved by the office of Management and Budget (OMB Control number 0648-0230). The rule contains three sets of information collections subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act: (1) applications for incidental take permits under § 222.22(b); (2) applications for certificates of inclusion under § 222.22(f)(1); and (3) reporting requirements of issued permits under § 222.22(d)(1). Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 80 hours for permit applications, .5 hours for certificate of inclusion applications, and .5 hours for reports. These estimates include the time for reviewing instructions, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding these burden estimates or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to the Office of Protected Resources, National Marine Fisheries Service, 1335 East West Highway, Silver Spring, MD 20910, and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, DC 20503 (Attn: Paperwork Reduction Project—0648-0230).

This rule does not contain policies with federalism implications sufficient to warrant preparation of a federalism assessment under E.O. 12612.

Regulation Promulgation

For the reasons set out in the preamble, 50 CFR part 222 is amended as follows:

PART 222—ENDANGERED FISH OR WILDLIFE

1. The authority citation for part 222 continues to read as follows:

Authority: 16 U.S.C. 1531 et seq.

2. A new § 222.22 is added to read as follows:

§ 222.22 Permits for the incidental taking of endangered species.

(a) Scope. (1) The Assistant Administrator may issue permits to take endangered marine species incidentally to an otherwise lawful activity under section 10(a)(1)(B) of the Endangered Species Act of 1973. The regulations in this section apply only to those endangered species under the jurisdiction of the Secretary of Commerce identified in § 222.23(a).

(2) If the applicant represents an individual or a single entity, such as a corporation, the Assistant Administrator will issue an individual incidental take permit. If the applicant represents a group or organization whose members conduct the same or a similar activity in the same geographical area with similar impacts on endangered marine species, the Assistant Administrator will issue a general incidental take permit. To be covered by a general incidental take permit, each individual conducting the activity must have a certificate of inclusion issued under paragraph (f) of this section.

(b) Permit application procedures. Applications should be sent to the Assistant Administrator for Fisheries, National Marine Fisheries Service, 1335 East West Highway, Silver Spring, MD 20910. The sufficiency of the application will be determined by the Assistant Administrator in accordance with the requirements of this section. At least 120 days should be allowed for processing. Each application must be signed and dated and include the following:

(1) The type of application, either:

- (i) Application for an Individual Incidental Take Permit under the Endangered Species Act of 1973, or
- (ii) Application for a General Incidental Take Permit under the Endangered Species Act of 1973.

(2) The name, address and telephone number of the applicant. If the applicant is a partnership, corporate entity or is representing a group or organization, the applicable details.

(3) The species or stocks, by common and scientific name, and a description of the status, distribution, seasonal distribution, habitat needs, feeding habits and other biological requirements of the affected species or stocks.

(4) A detailed description of the proposed activity, including the anticipated dates, duration and specific location. If the request is for a general incidental take permit, an estimate of the total level of activity expected to be conducted.

(5) A conservation plan, based on the best scientific and commercial data available, which specifies

(i) The anticipated impact (i.e., amount, extent and type of anticipated taking) of the proposed activity on the species or stocks;

(ii) The anticipated impact of the proposed activity on the habitat of the species or stocks and the likelihood of restoration of the affected habitat;

(iii) The steps (specialized equipment, methods of conducting activities, or other means) that will be taken to monitor, minimize and mitigate such impacts, and the funding available to implement such measures; and

(iv) The alternative actions to such taking that were considered and the reasons why those alternatives are not being used.

(v) A list of all sources of data used in preparation of the plan, including reference reports, environmental assessments and impact statements, and personal communications with recognized experts on the species or activity who may have access to data not published in current literature.

(c) Issuance criteria. (1) In determining whether to issue a permit, the Assistant Administrator will consider the following:

(i) The status of the affected species or stocks;

(ii) The potential severity of direct, indirect and cumulative impacts on the species or stocks and habitat as a result of the proposed activity;

(iii) The availability of effective monitoring techniques;

(iv) The use of the best available technology for minimizing or mitigating impacts; and

(v) The views of the public, scientists and other interested parties knowledgeable of the species or stocks or other matters related to the application.

(2) To issue the permit, the Assistant Administrator must find that:

(i) The taking will be incidental;

(ii) The applicant will, to the maximum extent practicable, monitor, minimize and mitigate the impacts of such taking;

(iii) The taking will not appreciably reduce the likelihood of the survival and recovery of the species in the wild;

(iv) The applicant has amended the conservation plan to include any measures (not originally proposed by the applicant) that the Assistant Administrator determines are necessary or appropriate; and

(v) There are adequate assurances that the conservation plan will be funded and implemented, including any measures required by the Assistant Administrator.

(d) Permit conditions. In addition to the general conditions set forth in part 220 of this chapter, every permit issued under this section will contain such terms and conditions as the Assistant Administrator deems necessary and appropriate, including, but not limited to the following:

(1) Reporting requirements or rights of inspection for determining whether the terms and conditions are being complied with;

(2) The species and number of animals covered;

(3) The authorized method of taking;

(4) The procedures to be used to handle or dispose of any animals taken; and

(5) The payment of a fee to reimburse the National Marine Fisheries Service the cost of processing the application.

(e) Duration of permits. The duration of permits issued under this section will be such as to provide adequate assurances to the permit holder to commit funding necessary for the activities authorized by the permit, including conservation activities. In determining the duration of a permit, the Assistant Administrator will consider the duration of the proposed activities, as well as the possible positive and negative effects associated with issuing a permit of the proposed duration on listed species, including the extent to which the conservation plan is likely to enhance the habitat of the endangered species or increase the long-term survivability of the species.

(f) Certificates of inclusion. (1) Any individual who wishes to conduct an activity covered by a general incidental take permit must apply to the Assistant Administrator for a certificate of inclusion. Each application must be signed and dated and include the following:

(i) The general incidental take permit under which the applicant wants coverage.

(ii) The name, address and telephone number of the applicant. If the applicant is a partnership or a corporate entity, the applicable details.

(iii) A description of the activity the applicant seeks to have covered under the general incidental take permit including the anticipated dates, duration, and specific location; and

(iv) A signed certification that the applicant has read and understands the general incidental take permit and the conservation plan, will comply with their terms and conditions, and will fund and implement applicable measures of the conservation plan.

(2) To issue a certificate of inclusion, the Assistant Administrator must find that:

(i) The applicant will be engaged in the activity covered by the general permit and

(ii) The applicant has made adequate assurances that the applicable measures of the conservation plan will be funded and implemented.

3. Section 222.24 is amended by adding a final sentence to paragraph (d) and by removing the last sentence from paragraph (e), to read as follows:

§ 222.24 Procedures for issuance of permits.

(d) * * * The requirements of this paragraph pertain solely to the permits issued under § 222.23.

§ 222.25 [Amended]

4. Section 222.25 is amended by replacing "§ 222.23(c)" with "§§ 222.22(c) and 222.23(c)."

§ 222.27 [Amended]

5. Section 222.27 is amended by replacing "certificates of exemption" with "permits" in the heading and "certificate of exemption" with "permit" in the introductory text and paragraph (6).

§ 222.31 [Amended]

6. Section 222.31 is amended by replacing "§§ 222.23 through 222.28 (Scientific permits)" with "Subpart C (Endangered Fish or Wildlife Permits) of this part" wherever it appears.

50 CFR Part 661

[Docket No. 900511-0111]

Ocean Salmon Fisheries Off the Coasts of Washington, Oregon, and California

AGENCY: National Marine Fisheries Service (NMFS), NOAA, Commerce.

ACTION: Notice of closure.

SUMMARY: NOAA announces the closure of the commercial salmon fishery in the exclusive economic zone (EEZ) from the U.S.-Canada border to Cape Falcon, Oregon, at midnight, May 14, 1990, to ensure that the chinook salmon quota is not exceeded. The Director, Northwest Region, NMFS (Regional Director), has determined that the commercial fishery quota of 26,100 chinook salmon for the subarea will be reached by May 14, 1990. The closure is necessary to conform to the preseason announcement of 1990 management measures. This action is intended to ensure conservation of chinook salmon.

DATES: Closure of the EEZ from the U.S.-Canada border to Cape Falcon, Oregon, to commercial salmon fishing is effective at 2400 hours local time, May 14, 1990. Actual notice to affected fishermen was given prior to that time through a special telephone hotline and U.S. Coast Guard Notice to Mariners broadcasts as provided by 50 CFR 661.20, 661.21, and 661.23 (as amended May 1, 1989). Public comments are invited until May 30, 1990.

ADDRESSES: Comments may be mailed to Rolland A. Schmitten, Director, Northwest Region, National Marine Fisheries Service, 7600 Sand Point Way NE., BIN C15700, Seattle, Washington 98115-0070. Information relevant to this notice has been compiled in aggregate form and is available for public review during business hours at the office of the NMFS Northwest Regional Director.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: William L. Robinson at 206-526-6140.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Regulations governing the ocean salmon fisheries at 50 CFR part 661 specify at § 661.21(a)(1) that "When a quota for the commercial or the recreational fishery, or both, for any salmon species in any portion of the fishery management area is projected by the Regional Director to be reached on or by a certain date, the Secretary will, by notice issued under § 661.23, close the commercial or recreational fishery, or both, for all salmon species in the portion of the fishery management area to which the quota applies as of the date the quota is projected to be reached."

In its preseason notice of 1990 management measures [55 FR 18894,

May 7, 1990], NOAA announced that the 1990 commercial fishery for all salmon except coho in the subarea from the U.S.-Canada border to Cape Falcon, Oregon, would begin on May 1 and continue through the earlier of June 15 or the attainment of a quota of 26,100 chinook salmon. A total of 9,300 chinook salmon has been landed by 100-110 vessels through May 6, 1990. Based on projected catch rates in this fishery of approximately 2,350 chinook salmon per day, the chinook quota of 26,100 fish is expected to be reached by midnight, May 14, 1990. Therefore, the fishery in this subarea is closed to further fishing effective 2400 hours local time, May 14, 1990.

In accordance with the revised inseason notice procedures of 50 CFR 661.20, 661.21, and 661.23, actual notice to fishermen of this closure was given prior to 2400 hours local time, May 14, 1990, by telephone hotline number (206) 526-6667 and by U.S. Coast Guard Notice to Mariners broadcasts on Channel 16 VHF-FM and 2182 KHz. NOAA issues this notice of closure of the commercial salmon fishery in the EEZ from the U.S.-Canada border to Cape Falcon, Oregon, which is effective 2400 hours local time, May 14, 1990.

The Regional Director consulted with representatives of the Pacific Fishery Management Council, the Washington Department of Fisheries, and the Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife regarding a closure of the commercial fishery between the U.S.-Canada border and Cape Falcon, Oregon. The states of Washington and Oregon will manage the commercial fishery in State waters adjacent to this area of the EEZ in accordance with this federal action. This notice does not apply to other fisheries which may be operating in other areas.

Because of the need for immediate action, the Secretary of Commerce has determined that good cause exists for this notice to be issued without affording a prior opportunity for public comment. Therefore, public comments on this notice will be accepted for 15 days after filing with the Office of the Federal Register, through May 30, 1990.

Proposed Rules

Federal Register

Vol. 55, No. 97

Friday, May 18, 1990

This section of the FEDERAL REGISTER contains notices to the public of the proposed issuance of rules and regulations. The purpose of these notices is to give interested persons an opportunity to participate in the rule making prior to the adoption of the final rules.

DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION

Federal Aviation Administration

14 CFR Chapter I

Petition for Rulemaking; Summary of Petitions Received

AGENCY: Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), DOT.

ACTION: Notice of petition for rulemaking received; extension of comment period.

SUMMARY: This notice announces extension of the comment period of a petition for rulemaking which proposes that children who have not reached their second birthday be restrained by approved devices during takeoff and landing operations.

DATES: Comments on this petition must identify the petition docket number involved and must be received on or before July 6, 1990.

ADDRESSES: Send comments on this petition in triplicate to: Federal Aviation Administration, Office of the Chief Counsel, Attn: Rules Docket (AGC-10), Petition Docket No. 26143, 800 Independence Avenue, SW., Washington, DC 20591.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: The petition, any comments received, and a copy of any final disposition are filed in the assigned regulatory docket and are available for examination in the Rules Docket (AGC-10), Room 915-G, FAA Headquarters Building (FOB-10A), 800 Independence Avenue, SW., Washington, DC 20591; telephone (202) 267-3132.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In the April 3, 1990, issue of the Federal Register (55 FR 12383), the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) published a summary of a petition for rulemaking filed by the Air Transport Association of America. The petition relates primarily to removing existing language that allows children who have not reached their second birthday to be held in the laps of adults during takeoff and landing operations. The petitioner proposes that children who have not reached their second birthday be restrained by FAA/NHTSA-approved devices during takeoff and landing operations. The public was advised that comments had to be received on or before June 18, 1990. To afford the public the opportunity of having more time in which to submit comments, the FAA is extending the comment period until July 6, 1990.

Issued in Washington, DC., on May 14, 1990.

Airworthiness Directives; British Aerospace Model HS.125-700A and BAe 125-800A Series Airplanes

ACTION: Notice of Proposed Rulemaking (NPRM).

SUMMARY: This notice proposes to adopt a new airworthiness directive (AD), applicable to certain British Aerospace Model HS.125-700A and BAe 125-800A series airplanes, which would require the installation of additional circuit breaker identification labels. This proposal is prompted by a report that some circuit breakers were not color-coded during production. This condition, if not corrected, in the event of fire or smoke in the cockpit, could result in crewmembers being unable to identify and pull the appropriate circuit breaker to discontinue electrical power to the defective equipment causing the smoke or fire.

DATES: Comments must be received no later than July 11, 1990.

ADDRESSES: Send comments on the proposal in duplicate to the Federal Aviation Administration, Northwest Mountain Region, Transport Airplane Directorate, ANM-103, Attention: Airworthiness Rules Docket No. 90-NM-78-AD, 17900 Pacific Highway South, C-68966, Seattle, Washington 98168. The applicable service information may be obtained from British Aerospace, PLC, Librarian for Service Bulletins, P.O. Box 17414, Dulles International Airport, Washington, DC 20041. This information may be examined at the FAA, Northwest Mountain Region, Transport Airplane Directorate, 17900 Pacific Highway South, Seattle, Washington, or the Standardization Branch, 9010 East Marginal Way South, Seattle, Washington.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Mr. William Schroeder, Standardization Branch, ANM-113; telephone (206) 431-1565. Mailing address: FAA, Northwest Mountain Region, 17900 Pacific Highway South, C-68966, Seattle, Washington 98168.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Interested persons are invited to participate in the making of the proposed rule by submitting such written data, views, or arguments as they may desire. Communications should identify the regulatory docket number and be submitted in duplicate to the address specified above. All communications received on or before the closing date for comments specified above will be considered by the Administrator before taking action on the proposed rule. The proposals contained in this Notice may be changed in light of the comments received.

Comments are specifically invited on the overall regulatory, economic, environmental, and energy aspects of the proposed rule. All comments submitted will be available, both before and after the closing date for comments, in the Rules Docket for examination by interested persons. A report summarizing each FAA/public contact, concerned with the substance of this proposal, will be filed in the Rules Docket.

Commenters wishing the FAA to acknowledge receipt of their comments submitted in response to this Notice must submit a self-addressed, stamped post card on which the following statement is made: "Comments to Docket Number 90-NM-78-AD." The post card will be date/time stamped and returned to the commenter.

Discussion

The United Kingdom Civil Aviation Authority (CAA), in accordance with existing provisions of a bilateral airworthiness agreement, has notified the FAA of an unsafe condition which may exist on certain British Aerospace Model HS.125-700A and BAe 125-800A series airplanes. This proposal is prompted by a report that some circuit breakers were not color-coded during production. The color-coding is used by flight crews to aid them in the identification of circuit breakers which need to be pulled in the event of an electrical/electronic equipment fire. This condition, if not corrected, in the event of fire or smoke in the cockpit, could result in crewmembers being unable to identify and pull the appropriate circuit breaker to discontinue electrical power to the defective equipment causing the smoke or fire.

British Aerospace has issued Service Bulletin 24-263-9486A, Revision 1, dated January 27, 1988, which describes procedures to install circuit breaker identification labels in panel DA-A. The United Kingdom CAA has classified this service bulletin as mandatory.

This airplane model is manufactured in the United Kingdom and type certificated in the United States under the provisions of § 21.29 of the Federal Aviation Regulations and the applicable bilateral airworthiness agreement.

Since this condition is likely to exist or develop on other airplanes of the same type design registered in the United States, an AD is proposed which would require the installation of circuit breaker identification labels in panel DA-A, in accordance with the service bulletin previously described.

It is estimated that 12 airplanes of U.S. registry would be affected by this AD, that it would take approximately one-half manhour per airplane to accomplish the required actions, and that the average labor cost would be $40 per manhour. The estimated cost for the identification labels is negligible. Based on these figures, the total cost impact of the AD on U.S. operators is estimated to be $240.

The regulations proposed herein would not have substantial direct effects on the States, on the relationship between the national government and the States, or on the distribution of power and responsibilities among the various levels of government. Therefore, in accordance with Executive Order 12612, it is determined that this proposal would not have sufficient federalism implications to warrant the preparation of a Federal Assessment.

For the reasons discussed above, I certify that this proposed regulation (1) is not a "major rule" under Executive Order 12291; (2) is not a "significant rule" under DOT Regulatory Policies and Procedures (44 FR 11034; February 26, 1979); and (3) if promulgated, will not have a significant economic impact, positive or negative, on a substantial number of small entities under the criteria of the Regulatory Flexibility Act. A copy of the draft evaluation prepared for this action is contained in the regulatory docket. A copy of it may be obtained from the Rules Docket.

The Proposed Amendment

Accordingly, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator, the Federal Aviation Administration, proposes to amend 14 CFR part 39 of the Federal Aviation Regulations as follows:

PART 39—[AMENDED]

1. The authority citation for part 39 continues to read as follows:

Authority: 49 U.S.C. 1354(a), 1421 and 1423; 49 U.S.C. 106(g) (Revised Pub. L. 97-449, January 12, 1983); and 14 CFR 11.89.

§ 39.13 [Amended]

2. Section 39.13 is amended by adding the following new airworthiness directive:

British Aerospace: Applies to Model HS.125-700A and BAe 125-800A series airplanes, as listed in British Aerospace Service Bulletin 24-263-9486A, Revision 1, dated January 27, 1988, certificated in any category. Compliance is required within 30 days after the effective date of this AD, unless previously accomplished.

To ensure that crewmembers will pull the correct circuit breakers to electrical/electronic equipment that may be the source of fire or smoke in the cockpit, accomplish the following.

A. Install circuit breaker identification labels in panel DA-A, in accordance with British Aerospace Service Bulletin 24-263-9486A, Revision 1, dated January 27, 1988.

B. An alternate means of compliance or adjustment of compliance time, which provides an acceptable level of safety, may be used when approved by the Manager, Standardization Branch, ANM-113, FAA Northwest Mountain Region.

Note: The request should be forwarded through an FAA Principal Maintenance Inspector (PMI), who will either concur or comment and then send it to the Manager, Standardization Branch, ANM-113.

C. Special flight permits may be issued in accordance with FAR 21.197 and 21.199 to operate airplanes to a base in order to comply with the requirements of this AD.

All persons affected by this directive who have not already received the appropriate service documents from the manufacturer may obtain copies upon request to British Aerospace PLC, Librarian for Service Bulletins, P.O. Box 17414, Dulles International Airport,

Washington, DC 20041. These documents may be examined at the FAA, Northwest Mountain Region, Transport Airplane Directorate, 17900 Pacific Highway South, Seattle, Washington, or the Standardization Branch, 9010 East Marginal Way South, Seattle, Washington.

Issued in Seattle, Washington, on May 11, 1990.

Darrell M. Pederson,
Acting Manager, Transport Airplane Directorate, Aircraft Certification Service.

Airworthiness Directives; British Aerospace Model BAC 1-11 200 and 400 Series Airplanes

AGENCY: Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), DOT.

ACTION: Notice of proposed rulemaking (NPRM).

SUMMARY: This notice proposes to adopt a new airworthiness directive (AD), applicable to all British Aerospace Model BAC 1-11 200 and 400 series airplanes, which would require repetitive ultrasonic and dye penetrant inspections of the main landing gear pintles to detect cracks in the forward reaction rod lug; repetitive ultrasonic inspections to detect cracks in the rear bearing spigot, and replacement, if necessary; and replacement of all pintles prior to reaching specified life limits. This proposal is prompted by reports of in-service fatigue cracking of the rear bearing spigot and possible subsequent cracking in the forward reaction rod lug. This condition, if not corrected, could result in collapse of the main landing gear.

DATES: Comments must be received no later than July 11, 1990.

ADDRESSES: Send comments on the proposal in duplicate to the Federal Aviation Administration, Northwest Mountain Region, Transport Airplane Directorate, ANM-103, Attention: Airworthiness Rules Docket No. 90-NM-73-AD, 17900 Pacific Highway South, C-68966, Seattle, Washington 98168. The applicable service information may be obtained from British Aerospace, PLC, Librarian for Service Bulletins, P.O. Box 17414, Dulles International Airport, Washington, DC 20041. This information may be examined at the FAA, Northwest Mountain Region, Transport Airplane Directorate, 17900

Pacific Highway South, Seattle, Washington, or the Standardization Branch, 9010 East Marginal Way South, Seattle, Washington.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mr. William Schroeder, Standardization Branch, ANM-113; telephone (206) 431-1565. Mailing address: FAA, Northwest Mountain Region, 17900 Pacific Highway South, C-68968, Seattle, Washington 98168.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Interested persons are invited to participate in the making of the proposed rule by submitting such written data, views, or arguments as they may desire. Communications should identify the regulatory docket number and be submitted in duplicate to the address specified above. All communications received on or before the closing date for comments specified above will be considered by the Administrator before taking action on the proposed rule. The proposals contained in this Notice may be changed in light of the comments received.

Comments are specifically invited on the overall regulatory, economic, environmental, and energy aspects of the proposed rule. All comments submitted will be available, both before and after the closing date for comments, in the Rules Docket for examination by interested persons. A report summarizing each FAA/public contact, concerned with the substance of this proposal, will be filed in the Rules Docket.

Commenters wishing the FAA to acknowledge receipt of their comments submitted in response to this Notice must submit a self-addressed, stamped post card on which the following statement is made: "Comments to Docket Number 90-NM-73-AD." The post card will be date/time stamped and returned to the commenter.

Discussion: The United Kingdom Civil Aviation Authority (CAA), in accordance with existing provisions of a bilateral airworthiness agreement, has notified the FAA of an unsafe condition which may exist on all British Aerospace Model BAC 1-11 series airplanes. There have been reports of in-service fatigue cracking of the rear bearing spigot on the main landing gear (MLG) pintle on Model BAC 1-11 200 and 400 series airplanes. Stress analysis by the manufacturer has determined that the forward reaction rod lug on the MLG pintle also has a limited fatigue service life. Therefore, the MLG pintles (left and right) need to be replaced at specified intervals. This condition, if not corrected, could result in collapse of the main landing gear.

British Aerospace has issued Alert Service Bulletin 32-A-PM5492, Issue 2, dated October 18, 1989, which describes procedures for repetitive ultrasonic and dye penetrant inspections of the MLG pintles to detect cracks in the forward reaction rod lug, repetitive ultrasonic inspections to detect cracks in the rear bearing spigot, and replacement of cracked pintles, if necessary; and replacement of all pintles prior to reaching their specified life limits. The United Kingdom CAA has classified this service bulletin as mandatory.

This airplane model is manufactured in the United Kingdom and type certificated in the United States under the provisions of § 21.29 of the Federal Aviation Regulations and the applicable bilateral airworthiness agreement.

Since this condition is likely to exist or develop on other airplanes of the same type design registered in the United States, and AD is proposed which would require repetitive ultrasonic and dye penetrant inspections of the MLG pintles to detect cracks in the forward reaction rod lug and the rear bearing spigot, and replacement of cracked pintles, if necessary; and replacement of all pintles prior to reaching their specified life-limits; in accordance with the service bulletin previously described.

It is estimated that 70 airplanes of U.S. registry would be affected by this AD, that it would take approximately 80 manhours per airplane to accomplish the required actions, and that the average labor cost would be $40 per manhour. Based on these figures, the total cost impact of the AD on U.S. operators is estimated to be $224,000.

The regulations proposed herein would not have substantial direct effects on the States, on the relationship between the national government and the States, or on the distribution of power and responsibilities among the various levels of government. Therefore, in accordance with Executive Order 12812, it is determined that this proposal would not have sufficient Federalism implications to warrant the preparation of a Federalism Assessment.

For the reasons discussed above, I certify that this proposed regulation (1) is not a "major rule" under Executive Order 12291; (2) is not a "significant rule" under DOT Regulatory Policies and Procedures (44 FR 11034; February 26, 1979); and (3) if promulgated, will not have a significant economic impact, positive or negative, on a substantial number of small entities under the criteria of the Regulatory Flexibility Act. A copy of the draft evaluation prepared for this action is contained in the regulatory docket. A copy of it may be obtained from the Rules Docket.

The Proposed Amendment

Accordingly, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator, the Federal Aviation Administration proposes to amend 14 CFR part 39 of the Federal Aviation Regulations as follows:

PART 39—[AMENDED]

The authority citation for part 39 continues to read as follows:

Authority: 49 U.S.C. 1354(a), 1421 and 1423; 49 U.S.C. 106(g) (Revised Pub. L. 97-449, January 12, 1983); and 14 CFR 11.89.

§ 39.13 [Amended]

2. Section 39.13 is amended by adding the following new airworthiness directive:

British Aerospace, PLC: Applies to all Model BAC 1-11 200 and 400 series airplanes, certificated in any category. Compliance is required as indicated, unless previously accomplished.

To detect cracks in the right and left main landing gear pintle forward reaction rod lug and the rear bearing spigot, and to prevent collapse of the main landing gear (MLG), accomplish the following:

A. Prior to the accumulation of 30,000 landings or within 1,400 landings after the effective date of this AD, whichever occurs later, and thereafter at intervals not to exceed 1,400 landings, perform an ultrasonic inspection of the forward reaction rod lug on all pintles Pre-Modification PM3247, in accordance with British Aerospace Alert Service Bulletin 32-A-PM5492, Issue 2, dated October 18, 1989 (Reference Appendix 1, and Figures 1 and 2). If cracks are suspected as a result of this inspection, perform a dye penetrant inspection with the front reaction rod disconnected and the spherical bearing housing and bushing removed from the pintle lug.

B. Prior to the accumulation of 30,000 landings or within 1,400 landings after the effective date of this AD, whichever occurs later, unless accomplished within the last 2,800 landings, and thereafter at intervals not to exceed 4,200 landings, perform a dye penetrant inspection of the forward reaction rod lug on all pintles Pre-Modification PM3247, with the front reaction rod disconnected and the spherical bearing-housing and bushing removed from the pintle lug, in accordance with British Aerospace Alert Service Bulletin 32-A-PM5492, Issue 2, dated October 18, 1989.

C. Perform the initial and repetitive ultrasonic inspections of the right and left MLG pintle rear bearing spigots, in accordance with British Aerospace Alert Service Bulletin 32-A-PM5492, Issue 2, dated October 18, 1989, at the following intervals:

1. Prior to the accumulation of 25,000 landings, or within 1,000 landings after the effective date of this AD, whichever occurs later, and thereafter at intervals not to exceed 1,000 landings, perform an inspection of pintles having part numbers identified in paragraph 2.3 of the service bulletin.

2. Prior to the accumulation of 30,000 landings, or within 1,400 landings after the effective date of this AD, whichever occurs later, and thereafter at intervals not to exceed 1,400 landings, perform an inspection of pintles having part numbers identified in paragraph 2.4 of the service bulletin.

3. Prior to the accumulation of 40,000 landings, or within 1,400 landings after the effective date of this AD, whichever occurs later, and thereafter at intervals not to exceed 1,400 landings, perform an inspection of pintles having part number identified in paragraph 2.5 of the service bulletin.

D. If cracked pintles are found as a result of the inspections required by paragraphs A., B., or C., above, replace the pintles prior to further flight, in accordance with British Aerospace Alert Service Bulletin 32-A-PM5492, Issue 2, dated October 18, 1989.

E. All right and left main landing gear pintles must be replaced prior to reaching the life limits (scrap life) identified in appendix 1 of British Aerospace Alert Service Bulletin 32-A-PM5492, Issue 2, dated October 18, 1989.

F. An alternate means of compliance or adjustment of the compliance time, which provides an acceptable level of safety, may be used when approved by the Manager, Standardization Branch, ANM-113, FAA, Northwest Mountain Region.

Note.—The request should be forwarded through an FAA Principal Maintenance Inspector (PMI), who will either concur or comment and then send it to the Manager, Standardization Branch, ANM-113.

G. Special flight permits may be issued in accordance with FAR 21.197 and 21.199 to operate airplanes to a base in order to comply with the requirements of this AD.

All persons affected by this directive who have not already received the appropriate service documents from the manufacturer may obtain copies upon request to British Aerospace, PLC, Librarian for Service Bulletins, P.O. Box 17414, Dulles International Airport, Washington, DC. These documents may be examined at the FAA, Northwest Mountain Region, Transport Airplane Directorate, 17900 Pacific Highway South, Seattle, Washington, or the Standardization Branch, 9010 East Marginal Way South, Washington.

Issued in Seattle, Washington, on May 11, 1990.

Supplemental Security Income for the Aged, Blind, and Disabled; Treatment of Dependent's Portion of an Augmented Veterans Benefit

ACTION: Proposed rule.

SUMMARY: These proposed regulations explain how we count income under the Supplemental Security Income (SSI) program in those cases where the SSI applicant or recipient is the dependent of a veteran and the Department of Veterans Affairs pays the veteran or the veteran's surviving spouse a benefit that is increased ("augmented") to provide for the dependent. The augmented portion ("dependent's portion") of the veterans benefit will be considered as income to the dependent for SSI purposes. The purpose of these proposed regulations is to clarify the Agency's regulations regarding the treatment under the SSI program of the dependent's portion of an augmented veterans benefit.

DATES: Comments must be received on or before July 17, 1990.

ADDRESSES: Comments should be submitted in writing to the Commissioner of Social Security, Department of Health and Human Services, P.O. Box 1585, Baltimore, MD 21235, or delivered to the Office of Regulations, Social Security Administration, 3-B-1 Operations Building, 6401 Security Boulevard, Baltimore, MD 21235, between 8 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. on regular business days. Comments received may be inspected during these same hours by making arrangements with the contact person shown below.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Duane Heaton, Legal Assistant, Office of Regulations, Social Security Administration, 6401 Security Boulevard, Baltimore, MD 21235, (301) 965-8470.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Section 1612 of the Social Security Act (the Act) specifies certain items that are included as earned and unearned income under the SSI program. Section 1612(a)(2)(B) provides that unearned income includes, among other things, payments received as an annuity, pension, retirement, or disability benefit, including veterans compensation and pensions.

Prior to November 1981, the Social Security Administration (SSA), with regard to veterans benefits that were augmented for dependents, counted the entire benefit, including the dependent's portion, as unearned income to the veteran or veteran's surviving spouse for SSI purposes. In 1981, SSA changed its policy and published a ruling (SSR 82-31, effective November 1, 1981), which explained that the dependent's portion of the augmented veterans benefit would not be counted as unearned income to the veteran or the veteran's surviving spouse but as unearned income to the dependent.

As a result of the court order in Anderson, et al. v. Sullivan, No. CV-88-036-GF (D. Mont., Nov. 21, 1989), SSA is required to promulgate interim final regulations which state that the dependent's portion of an augmented veterans benefit is not income to the veteran or the veteran's surviving spouse. As noted below, we are simultaneously publishing the interim final regulations in this Federal Register. In these proposed regulations, we clarify the other relevant part of our SSI policy on the treatment of an augmented veterans benefit: That that dependent's portion is unearned income to the dependent.

This policy of treating the dependent's portion of an augmented veterans benefit as income to the dependent was challenged in Paxton v. Secretary of Health and Human Services, 856 F.2d 1352 (9th Cir. 1988). The court held that our current regulations, as written, did not support our policy and ruled that the dependent's portion of a veterans benefit generally could not be counted directly as unearned income to the dependent. We are clarifying our regulations to prevent future misinterpretations of our policy, as occurred in Paxton.

Provisions of the Regulations

We propose to revise § 416.1123. That section sets out how we count unearned income. We are adding the proposed regulations to § 416.1123 by adding a new paragraph (e)(2) to explain that if you are the dependent of an individual who receives a veterans benefit and a portion of the benefit is attributable to you as a dependent, we count the amount attributable to you as your unearned income. Section 1612 of the Act requires us to count the entire veterans benefit as unearned income. However, in Whaley v. Schweiker, 663 F.2d 871 (9th Cir. 1981), the court indicated that the dependent's portion of a veterans benefit was intended by Congress for the dependent's needs and, therefore, should not be counted as income to the veteran or the veteran's surviving spouse. In light of the statutory requirement and the rationale in Whaley, we count the dependent's portion as income to the dependent.

Simultaneous Publication of Related Interim Final Regulations and this NPRM

Pursuant to the court order in Anderson, et al. v. Sullivan, our related policy that the dependent's portion of a veterans pension is not income to the veteran or the veteran's surviving spouse is being published as an interim final rule elsewhere in this issue of the Federal Register simultaneously with this NPRM. The court order in Anderson, et al. v. Sullivan required that an interim final rule be published by May 21, 1990. That interim final rule, published simultaneously in this Federal Register, will be designated as paragraph (e)(1) of § 416.1123 and this proposed rule will be designated as paragraph (e)(2).

Regulatory Procedures

Executive Order 12291

The Secretary has determined that this is not a major rule under Executive Order 12291. The current administrative and program costs are estimated to be negligible (less than 30 workyears and $1 million per fiscal year). Therefore, a regulatory impact analysis is not required.

Paperwork Reduction Act

These proposed regulations impose no reporting/recordkeeping requirements requiring the Office of Management and Budget clearance.

Regulatory Flexibility Act

We certify that these proposed regulations, if promulgated, will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities because these regulations will affect only individuals. Therefore, a regulatory flexibility analysis as provided in Public Law 96-354, the Regulatory Flexibility Act of 1980, is not required.

Coast Guard

33 CFR Part 117

[CGD5-90-016]

Drawbridge Operation Regulations; Choptank River, Dover, MD

AGENCY: Coast Guard, DOT.

ACTION: Notice of proposed rulemaking.

SUMMARY: At the request of the Maryland Department of Transportation, the Coast Guard is considering changing the regulations that govern the operation of the drawbridge across the Choptank River, mile 35.3, in Dover, Maryland, by restricting bridge openings from 6 p.m. to 6 a.m. year-round. The proposed changes to these regulations are, to the extent practical and feasible, intended to provide for regularly scheduled drawbridge openings to help reduce motor vehicle traffic delays and congestion on the roads and highways linked by this drawbridge.

DATES: Comments must be received on or before July 2, 1990.

ADDRESSES: Comments should be mailed to Commander (ob), Fifth Coast Guard District, 431 Crawford Street, Portsmouth, Virginia 23704-5004. The comments and other materials referenced in this notice will be available for inspection and copying at the above address, room 507, between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m., Monday through Friday, except Federal holidays. Comments may be hand-delivered to this address.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Ann B. Deaton, Bridge Administrator, Fifth Coast Guard District, at (804) 398-6222.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Interested persons are invited to participate in this rulemaking by submitting written comments or data. Persons submitting comments or data should include their names and addresses, identify the bridge, and give reasons for concurrence with or any recommended changes to the proposal. The Commander, Fifth Coast Guard District, will evaluate all communications received and determine a final course of action on this change based on comments and data received.

Drafting Information

The drafters of this notice are Linda L. Gilliam, project officer, and LT S.M. Fitten, project attorney.

Discussion of Proposed Regulations

The Maryland Department of Transportation has requested that openings of the SR 331 drawbridge across the Choptank River at mile 35.3 in Dover, Maryland, be restricted from 6 p.m. to 6 a.m. year-round, but remain open on demand from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m. year-round. Between the hours of 6 p.m. to 6 a.m., if a vessel operator needs to transit through the bridge, a 24-hour advance notice will be required. Currently, the draw opens on demand, 24-hours a day, year-round. The Maryland Department of Transportation has based this request on a two-year study of the drawlogs during the period July 1, 1987, through June 30, 1989. This study was broken down monthly during the hours of 6 a.m. to 6 p.m. and 6 p.m. to 6 a.m. The two-year summary of bridge openings revealed that the draw opened 36% from 6 p.m. to 6 a.m., and 64% from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m. The minimal nighttime navigation as shown in this study appears to warrant a change to the current regulations.

Local vessel operators may be inconvenienced by the closed periods; however, they will be able to pass through the bridge by giving a 24-hour advance notice of their required time for a draw opening. Vessels requiring an opening from 6 p.m. to 6 a.m. will be required to contact Maryland Department of Transportation at 1-301-820-8592 or 1-301-745-2096.

This proposal would amend 33 CFR 117.553 by redesignating the regulation for the CONRAIL Bridge at mile 50.9 as paragraph (b) and designating this regulation as paragraph (a).

The Coast Guard believes these proposed regulations will not unduly restrict vessel passage through the bridge, as vessel operators can plan their evening transits by incorporating the 24-hour advance notice requirement into their schedules.

Federalism Assessment

This action has been analyzed in accordance with the principles and criteria contained in Executive Order 12612, and it has been determined that the proposed rule will not raise sufficient federalism implications to warrant the preparation of a Federalism Assessment.

Economic Assessment and Certification

These proposed regulations are not considered major under Executive Order 12291 on Federal Regulation nor significant under the Department of Transportation regulatory policies and procedures (44 FR 11034; February 26, 1979). The economic impact of the proposed regulation on commercial navigation or on any industries that depend on waterborne transportation should be minimal. Since the economic impact of this proposal is expected to be minimal, the Coast Guard certifies that, if adopted, it will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities.

Environmental Impact

This rulemaking has been thoroughly reviewed by the Coast Guard and determined to be categorically excluded from further environmental documentation in accordance with section 2.B.2.g. of Commandant Instruction M16475.1B. A Categorical Exclusion Determination statement has been prepared and placed in the rulemaking docket.

1. The authority citation for part 117 continues to read as follows:

2. Section 117.553 is amended by designating the first paragraph as paragraph (b).

3. A new paragraph (a) is added to § 117.553 to read as follows:

§ 117.553 Choptank River.

(a) The draw of the Maryland 331 bridge, mile 35.3 at Dover, shall open on signal from 6:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., year-round, and from 6:00 p.m. to 6:00 a.m., year-round the draw will remain closed unless 24 hours advance notice is given by calling 1-301-820-8592 or 1-301-745-2096.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On November 8, 1989, the Connecticut Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) submitted revisions to its SIP for its Ozone Attainment Plan. The revisions consist of revised volatile organic compound (VOC) emissions regulations in section 22a-174-20 of Connecticut's Regulations for the Abatement of Air Pollution.

Background

In the Federal Register on November 24, 1987, EPA's Proposed Post-1987 Policy for Ozone and Carbon Monoxide stated that air quality monitors revealed continued exceedances of the ozone standard in Connecticut and that a SIP call would be issued. (See 52 FR 45044.) A SIP call is a finding by EPA under Clean Air Act Section 110(a)(2)(H) that the SIP does not provide for attainment by the required date. Since publishing this notice, the review of data from air quality monitors in the State have revealed additional exceedances of the standard during 1987, 1988 and 1989. On May 25, 1988, EPA sent a letter to William A. O'Neill, Governor of Connecticut, pursuant to section 110(a)(2)(H) of the Clean Air Act as amended notifying him that the Connecticut SIP was substantially inadequate to achieve the National Ambient Air Quality Standard (NAAQS) for ozone in the entire State. EPA requested the State to respond to the SIP call in two phases—the first in the near future and the second following EPA's issuance of a final policy on how the States should correct their SIPs. The first phase of the response to the SIP call consists of (1) correcting identified deficiencies in the existing SIP's VOC regulations, (2) adopting VOC regulations previously required or committed to but never adopted, and (3) updating the areas' base year emissions inventory.

On June 16, 1988, EPA sent a letter to the Director of Connecticut's Air Compliance Unit outlining the corrections that needed to be made to Connecticut's existing VOC regulations to eliminate the identified deficiencies and inconsistencies in the regulations as compared to EPA national guidance. The revised VOC regulations submitted by Connecticut on November 9, 1989 are in response to EPA's May 25 and June 16, 1988 letters.

Content of Revised Regulations

The Connecticut DEP made the following changes to the VOC regulations in section 22a-174-20:

1. The applicability levels of Connecticut's "bulk gasoline terminal" regulation and "bulk gasoline plant" regulation, which are subdivisions 22a-174-20 (b)(1) and (b)(4), respectively, were changed such that they are now based on a 30-day rolling average. The "bulk terminal" regulation now states that once a loading rack exceeds the applicability cutoff of 10,000 gallons per day, it will always be subject to the 80 milligrams per liter of liquid loaded emission limitation. Correspondingly, the "bulk plant" regulation now states that once a loading rack exceeds 4,000 gallons per day, it will always be subject to at least the requirements covering bulk plants.

2. The applicability level of Connecticut's "service stations—Stage I" regulation (subdivisions 22a-174-20 (b)(5) and (b)(6)) was changed such it is based on a 30-day rolling average and now states that once a service station's throughput exceeds 10,000 gallons/month, the requirements of the regulations will always apply.

3. The applicability of the surface coating regulations for can, coil, fabric and vinyl, metal furniture, paper and wire coating (subsections 22a-174-20(m) through 22a-174-20(r) inclusive) was changed such that facilities are now subject to the emission limitations if facility-wide emissions from surface coating operations exceed 15 pounds VOC per day actual emissions. Further, these regulations state that once the applicable cutoff is exceeded by a facility, it will always be subject to the applicable emission limitations of the regulation.

4. The applicability of the miscellaneous metal parts and products coating regulation (subsection 22a-174-20(s)) was changed such that facilities are now subject to the emission limitations if facility-wide emissions from surface coating operations exceed 15 pounds VOC per day actual emissions. However, the regulation allows facilities to be exempt provided they agree to a restriction limiting their VOC emissions to 1,666 pounds per month and have never exceeded this amount since January 1, 1987. These restrictions on emissions will limit potential VOC emissions from a source to less than 10 tons per year (TPY) which is consistent with the allowable applicability level in EPA's May 25, 1988 guidance document entitled "Issues Relating to VOC Regulation Cutpoints, Deficiencies, and Deviations." Further, these regulations state that once the applicable cutoff is exceeded by a facility, it will always be subject to the applicable emission limitations of the regulation.

5. The applicability of Connecticut's pharmaceutical regulation (subsection 22a-174-20(t)) was changed such that the regulation is applicable to any piece of equipment that has potential emissions exceeding 15 pounds VOC per day.

6. The applicability of Connecticut's graphic arts regulation (subsection 22a-174-20(v)) was changed such that the regulation is applicable to any printing line that has actual VOC emissions exceeding 40 pounds per day or any facility which has potential facility-wide emissions of 100 tons per year (TPY) or greater. Further, the regulation now states that once a source is subject to the applicable emission limitations, it will always be subject.

7. Connecticut's 100 TPY non-CTG source regulation (subsection 22a-174-20(ee)) was changed such that it is more clearly defined which facilities are subject to the regulation.

8. The emission limitations in all the surface coating regulations (subsections 22a-174-20(m) through 20(s) inclusive) were changed such that they are all now in terms of "pounds of VOC per gallon of coating minus water and exempt solvents."

9. The surface coating regulations and the graphic arts regulation (subsections 22a-174-20 (m) through (s) inclusive and 20(v), respectively) were revised such that the applicable emission limitation of the regulations must be met for every coating being utilized by the facility.

10. A calculation procedure was added to subsection 22a-174-20(bb) which allows the calculation of the allowable emissions for surface coating sources using the applicable emission limit in terms of "pounds of VOC per gallon of solids" for use in equivalence calculations when add-on control equipment is utilized to meet the emission limit.

11. The following terms were either defined or the definition of the term was revised to reflect current EPA guidance: (a) Vapor balance system; (b) cutback asphalt; (c) freeboard height; (d) freeboard ratio; (e) refrigerated chiller; (f) interior base coating; (g) vinyl coating; (h) paper coating; (i) roll coating; (j) clear coat; (k) extreme performance coatings; (1) pharmaceutical products and intermediates; and (m) canned pumps.

12. Connecticut's previously approved generic bubble regulation (subdivisions 22a-174-20(cc) (1) and (2)) was changed such that all cross line averaging now must be consistent with EPA's final Emissions Trading Policy Statement (published on Dec. 4, 1986, 51 FR 43814) and must be submitted as single source SIP revisions before becoming effective.

13. Connecticut's regulations were changed such that the appropriate compliance averaging periods for the following emissions limitations and/or requirements are now stated: (a) The "80 milligrams per liter of liquid loaded" limit for bulk gasoline terminals (i.e., six hours); (b) the reduction requirement for add-on control devices on air dryers and process equipment in pharmaceutical plants (i.e., one hour); (c) the "80 milligrams per liter of liquid loaded" limit for solvent deliveries at pharmaceutical plants (i.e., per delivery); (d) the reduction and capture efficiency requirements for add-on control equipment or pneumatic rubber tire manufacturing facilities (i.e., one hour except for carbon adsorption systems); (e) the reduction and capture efficiency requirements for add-on control equipment on printing equipment at graphic arts facilities (i.e., one hour); (f) the "0.12 kg of VOC/1000 kg of product" limitation for polystyrene resin manufacturers (i.e., one hour); and (g) the reduction and capture efficiency requirements for surface coating sources using add-on control equipment (i.e., one hour).

14. Recordkeeping requirements were adopted for surface coating sources, owners of fixed and external floating roof tanks, bulk gasoline terminals and plants, and gasoline service stations.

15. Continuous monitoring requirements were adopted for major stationary sources using thermal incinerators, catalytic incinerators, condensers or refrigeration systems, or carbon adsorbers.

16. The most current EPA-approved VOC test methods were incorporated into the regulations for determining the VOC content of surface coatings (i.e., RM 24 and 24A); the reduction efficiency of add-on control devices (i.e., RM 18, 25, 25A and 25B); the total seal gap area for floating roofs (i.e., measurement method from model regulation (EPA-450/2-79-004)); the efficiency of control devices at bulk gasoline terminals (i.e., procedures in 40 CFR 60.503(c) and (e)¹; leaks from gasoline tank trucks (i.e., RM 27); the VOC content of cutback asphalt (i.e., ASTM D-244); and compliance with the requirements imposed on perchloroethylene drycleaners (i.e., certain visual methods, the test method from EPA-450/2-78-041, and a modified version of ASTM D-322-67).

Furthermore, Connecticut has put a statement in their regulations stating that the determination of capture efficiency shall be done using methods recommended or approved by EPA. Moreover, Connecticut decided that they will not mention the use of transfer efficiency (TE) credit as a compliance option in their regulations. If a facility ever wanted to utilize TE credits this would be in conflict with the SIP and could only be done if EPA approved it as a single source SIP revision.

17. The following existing exemptions and/or variances have been changed as noted: (a) The exemption for bulk gasoline plants and service stations that cannot meet the requirements of the regulation for various reasons has been changed to say that EPA approval is needed for all waivers granted before becoming effective; (b) the exemption for cold cleaners at automobile repair facilities has been eliminated; (c) the exemption for conveyerized and vapor degreasers installed prior to July 1, 1980 has been eliminated; (d) the exemption for small metal components in the miscellaneous metal parts and products coating regulation has been eliminated; (e) the exemption for the interiors of airplanes in the miscellaneous metal parts and products coating regulation has been eliminated; (f) the exemption for certain types of pneumatic rubber tire manufacturing operations based on size has been eliminated; and (g) the variance provision for perchloroethylene drycleaners that cannot meet the requirements of the regulation for various reasons has been changed to say that EPA approval is needed for all waivers granted before becoming effective.

¹ This numbering refers to the paragraphs that existed in 40 CFR 60.503 prior to its last revision on February 14, 1989 (54 FR 6678).

18. Various provisions of EPA's model regulations (i.e., EPA-905/2-78-001 and EPA-450/2-79-004) for the Group I and II control techniques guideline (CTG) documents were added to the following regulations: (a) The regulation for the storage of volatile organic compounds; (b) the regulation for the storage of volatile organic compounds under external floating roofs; (c) the metal cleaning regulation; and (d) the regulation covering perchloroethylene dry cleaning facilities.

EPA's review of the SIP submittal indicates that Connecticut has addressed all of the deficiencies and inconsistencies in the existing VOC regulations identified by EPA. EPA is proposing to approve the Connecticut SIP revisions containing the revised VOC regulations in section 22a-174-20 of Connecticut's Regulations for the Abatement of Air Pollution, which were submitted on November 9, 1989. EPA is soliciting public comments on the issues discussed in this notice or on other relevant matters. These comments will be considered before taking final action. Interested parties may participate in the Federal rulemaking procedure by submitting written comments to the EPA Regional office listed in the Addresses section of this notice.

Proposed Action

EPA is proposing to approve the SIP revision of the revised VOC regulations for the State of Connecticut. These revisions correct deficiencies of Connecticut's Ozone Attainment Plan.

Under 5 U.S.C. 605(b), I certify that this SIP revision will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. (See 46 FR 8709.)

The Office of Management and Budget has exempted this rule from the requirements of section 3 of Executive Order 12291.

The Administrator's decision to approve or disapprove the SIP revision will be based on whether it meets the requirements of section 110(a)(2)(A)-(K) and 110(a)(3) of the Clean Air Act, as amended, and EPA regulations in 40 CFR part 51.

Foreign-Trade Zones Board

[Order No. 474]

Disapproval of Application of the Illinois International Port District for Subzone Status at E.J. Brach & Sons Plant in Chicago, IL

Pursuant to its authority under the Foreign-Trade Zones Act of June 3, 1934, as amended (19 U.S.C. 81a-81u), and the Foreign-Trade Zones Board Regulations (15 CFR part 400), the Foreign-Trade Zones Board (the Board) adopts the following order:

Whereas, the Illinois International Port District, Grantee of Foreign-Trade Zone 22, has made application (filed September 26, 1989, FTZ Docket 19-89, 54 FR 42317) to the Board for authority to establish a special-purpose subzone at the confectionary manufacturing plant of E.J. Brach & Sons, Inc. (subsidiary of Jacobs Suchard, Inc.) in Chicago, Illinois;

Whereas, notice of said application has been given and published, and full opportunity has been afforded all interested parties to be heard;

Whereas, the proposal calls for the processing of significant amounts of foreign ex-quota sugar under foreign-trade zone procedures;

Whereas, the Board has reviewed the proposal in the light of the domestic sugar price support program administered by the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA), taking into account the views and recommendation of USDA in opposition because of the adverse consequences that approval of the application would have on the sugar program;

Whereas, the Board has considered the economic implications for Brach and other domestic candy producers, taking into account the negative consequences approval would have on other producers unless they receive similar approvals; and,

Whereas, the Board has determined that approval would not be in the public interest because such action would result in adverse consequences to the domestic sugar price support program and to other domestic candy producers not operating under zone procedures;

Now, therefore, the Board hereby orders:

That the application filed September 26, 1989 (FTZ Docket 19-89) is disapproved

Signed at Washington, DC, this 11th day of May, 1990.

Eric I. Garfinkel,

Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Import Administration, Chairman, Committee of Alternates, Foreign-Trade Zones Board.

Viscose Rayon Staple Fiber From France; Revocation of Antidumping Finding AGENCY: International Trade Administration/Import Administration, Commerce.

ACTION: Notice of revocation of antidumping finding.

SUMMARY: The Department of Commerce has determined to revoke the antidumping finding on viscose rayon staple fiber from France because it is no longer of interest to interested parties.

EFFECTIVE DATE: March 1, 1990.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Barbara Victor or Laurie A. Lucksinger, Office of Antidumping Compliance, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, Washington, DC 20230; telephone (202) 377-5253.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On March 1, 1990, the Department of Commerce (the Department) published in the Federal Register (55 FR 7356) its intent to revoke the antidumping finding on viscose rayon staple fiber from France (44 FR 45467, March 21, 1979).

Additionally, as required by 19 CFR 353.25(d)(4)(ii), the Department served written notice of its intent to revoke this finding on each interested party listed on the service list. Interested parties who objected to the revocation were provided the opportunity to submit their comments no later than thirty days from the date of publication.

Scope of Finding

The United States, under the auspices of the Customs Cooperation Council, has developed a system of tariff classification based on the international harmonized system of customs nomenclature. On January 1, 1989, the United States fully converted to the Harmonized Tariff Schedules (HTS), as provided for in section 1201 et seq. of the Omnibus Trade and Competitiveness Act of 1988. All merchandise entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption on or after that date is now classified solely according to the appropriate HTS item number(s).

Imports covered by the finding are shipments of viscose rayon staple fiber, except solution dyed, in noncontinuous form, not carded, not combed and not otherwise processed, wholly of filaments (except laminated filaments and plexiform filaments). Through 1988, such merchandise was classifiable under item numbers 309.4320 and 309.4325 of the Tariff Schedules of the United States Annotated. This merchandise is currently classifiable under HTS item numbers 5504.10.00 and 5504.90.00. The HTS item numbers are provided for convenience and Customs purposes. The written description remains dispositive.

Determination to Revoke

The Department may revoke a finding if the Secretary of Commerce concludes that a finding is no longer of interest to interested parties. We received no objections to our intent to revoke and no requests to review the antidumping finding on viscose rayon staple fiber from France. Further, we received no requests to conduct an administrative review pursuant to our notices of Opportunity to Request Administrative Review (51 FR 7602, March 5, 1986; 52 FR 7915, March 13, 1987; 53 FR 7383, March 8, 1988; 54 FR 8372, February 28, 1989; 55 FR 11417, March 28, 1990).

Since we received no objections to the revocation of this finding by an interested party and no review requests for four consecutive anniversary months (see 19 CFR 353.25(d)(4) (i) and (ii)), the Department has concluded that the finding is no longer of interest to interested parties. Therefore, any entries for the period March 1, 1989 through February 28, 1990 will be subject to automatic assessment pursuant to 19 CFR 353.22(e). In addition, we are revoking the antidumping finding on viscose rayon staple fiber from France in accordance with 19 CFR 353.25(d)(4)(iii).

The revocation applies to all unliquidated entries of this merchandise of French origin entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption on or after March 1, 1990. The Department will instruct the Customs Service to proceed with liquidation of all unliquidated entries of this merchandise entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption on or after March 1, 1990, without regard to antidumping duties, and to refund any estimated antidumping duties collected with respect to those entries.

This notice is in accordance with 19 CFR 353.25(d)(4)(iii).

Dated May 11, 1990.

Assistant Secretary, for Import Administration.

[Docket No. 900515-0115]

The Corporate Program Under the Japan Export Promotion Program

AGENCY: International Trade Administration, Commerce.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Department of Commerce (the "Department") has launched the Japan Export Promotion Program. A major component of this initiative is the "Corporate Program" (the "Program") which is intended to increase the number and scope of U.S. companies competing in the Japanese market. The focus of the Program is to identify approximately twenty companies, called "threshold companies," that are prepared to make a long-term (minimum five-year) commitment to enter and develop the Japanese market. Companies chosen to participate will be required to enter into a "Participation Agreement" with the Department, and to undertake certain activities. The Department will assist such companies by supplying market information and strategic recommendations. This notice provides details of the selection criteria to be used in evaluating potential participants, the obligations of participants, and the process for requesting participation.

DATES: The Department will select threshold companies after July 15, 1990.

ADDRESSES: Requests to participate should be addressed to: Michael P. Skarzynski, Assistant Secretary for Trade Development, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th & Constitution Avenues, NW., Washington, DC 20230.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Phyllis Genter, Office of Industrial Trade, U.S. Department of Commerce, telephone (202) 377-2831.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Corporate Program seeks to promote exports and business activities by U.S. companies in the Japanese market through an active and sustained effort to be undertaken jointly by private U.S. companies and the Department of Commerce.

Background

The Department will select a total of approximately twenty U.S. companies for participation in the Program. These "threshold companies" must be prepared to undertake a long-term (minimum five-year) commitment to enter and develop the Japanese market or to expand existing export activity in Japan. Companies selected, after requesting the opportunity to participate as "threshold companies," will be required to enter into a Participation Agreement with the Department.

Selection Criteria

In selecting companies to participate in the Program, the Department, in recognition of the substantial effort and extended commitment which will be required of threshold companies, will apply the following criteria:

- Financial strength and stability.
- Export experience and performance.
- Export potential of product(s).
- Assessment of whether, based on the above criteria, trade barriers may impact the sales potential of the product(s).

In applying these criteria, the Department will accord priority consideration to companies that meet the following requirements:

- Annual Sales: $30 Million or more
- Number of Employees: more than 250
- Percentage Exports/Total Sales: 10% or more
- Product(s) manufactured in U.S. or U.S. content of at least 51% of the value of the finished good or service
- Product(s) has/have high export potential in Japan.

Companies meeting at least some of the above requirements are also welcome to request the opportunity to participate. In addition, export trading companies and export management companies are eligible to request the opportunity to participate as threshold companies.

Obligations of Threshold Companies

Each threshold company will be required to enter into a Participation Agreement with the Department in which the company agrees to undertake the following export promotion activities: (1) Arrange four visits to Japan, including at least two visits by its Chief Executive Officer, during each year of the Agreement to promote exports; (2) publish its product literature in Japanese; (3) participate in at least one Japanese trade promotion event annually during the term of the Agreement, provided a suitable event is available in Japan during the year; (4) undertake modifications of products as necessary to enhance sales in Japan; (5) provide or arrange for after-sales service and maintenance; (6) provide Japanese market export sales figures to the Department at regular intervals during the term of the Agreement and for five years thereafter; and (7) bear all costs associated with fulfilling these obligations.

Obligations of the Department

Under the Participation Agreement, the Department will agree to provide the threshold company with market data in its industry sector, to develop a list of companies able to translate and publish project literature for the Japanese market, to conduct a Comparative Pricing Survey on behalf of each threshold company, to develop an estimate of sales levels that each threshold company may be anticipated to achieve over a five to ten year period, to arrange introductory meetings with senior management personnel of appropriate Japanese companies during the company's first visit to Japan, to work to rectify problems involving standards, trademarks and patents, and other non-tariff barriers that appear to block market access, to provide information on cultural differences and structural barriers to the Japanese market, to recommend market development strategies, to provide advice on preferable business structures, including agent/distributor agreements, franchises, joint ventures, and direct investment, to counsel and assist companies in applying for Export Trade Certificates of Review under title III of the Export Trading Company Act of 1982, 15 U.S.C. § 4001-21, and to prepare and submit an annual assessment of the performance by the threshold company of its obligations under the Agreement.

Requests for Participation

Any company that meets the minimum criteria set forth above is eligible to request participation as a threshold company in the Program. Requests to participate may be accompanied by information already compiled and maintained by requesters in the normal course of their activities.

For further information, interested companies should contact: Phyllis Genther, Office of Industrial Trade, U.S. Department of Commerce, telephone (202) 377-2831. The Department will select the threshold companies after July 15, 1990.

The Department will evaluate all requests for participation in the Program based on information available to it and the selection criteria described in this Notice. Companies not selected for participation in the Project will receive written notification from the Department.

Dated: May 14, 1990.

Assistant Secretary for Trade Development.

Short-Supply Determination on Certain Manganese Steel Plate

AGENCY: Import Administration/International Trade Administration, Commerce.

ACTION: Notice of Short-Supply Determination on Certain Manganese Steel Plate.

SHORT-SUPPLY REVIEW NUMBER: 16.

SUMMARY: The Secretary of Commerce ("Secretary") hereby grants a short-supply allowance for 348 net tons of certain manganese steel plate for May-December 1990 under the U.S.-EC steel arrangement.

EFFECTIVE DATE: May 10, 1990.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Richard O. Weible, Office of Agreements Compliance, Import Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, room 7866, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue NW., Washington, DC 20230 (202) 377-0159.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On April 25, 1990, the Secretary received an adequate short-supply petition from U.S. Metalsource requesting a short-supply allowance for 348 net tons of this product for 1990 under Article 8 of the Arrangement Between the European Coal and Steel Community and the European Economic Community, and the Government of the United States of America Concerning Trade in Certain Steel Products. U.S. Metalsource requested short supply for this product because no domestic mill is currently able to produce this material and because its potential foreign supplier is unable to meet U.S. Metalsource's needs through regular export licenses. The Secretary conducted this short-supply review pursuant to section 4(b)(4)(A) of the Steel Trade Liberalization Program Implementation Act, Pub. L. No. 101-221, 103 Stat. 1886 (1989) ("the Act"), and § 357.102 of the Department of Commerce's Short-Supply Regulations, published in the Federal Register on January 12, 1990, 55 FR 1348 ("Commerce's Short-Supply Regulations").

The requested product meets the following specifications:

Chemistry: Mn, 11 to 14%; C, 1.15%; Si, <0.06%; P, <0.04%; S, <0.06%; Cr, <5%
Thickness: 1/4 to 3/4 inch
Width: 60 to 96 inches
Length: 144 to 240 inches
Tolerances: as per ASTM—A6
Hardness: BHN 200 in delivery condition (work hardens under impact to BHN 500-600)
Yield Strength: 50 KSI
Tensile Strength: 125 KSI
Elongation: 30%

Action

On April 25, 1990, the Secretary established an official record on this short-supply request (Case Number 16) in the Central Records Unit, room B-099, Import Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce at the above address. Section 4(b)(4)(i) of the Act and § 357.106(b)(1) Commerce's Short-Supply Regulations require the Secretary to apply a rebuttable presumption that a product is in short supply and to make a determination with respect to a short-supply petition not later than the 15th day after the petition is filed if the Secretary finds that one of the following conditions exists: (1) The raw steelmaking capacity utilization in the United States equals or exceeds 90 percent; (2) the importation of additional quantities of the requested steel product was authorized by the Secretary during each of the two immediately preceding years; or (3) the requested steel product is not produced in the United States. The Secretary has granted short-supply for this product during each of the two immediately preceding years. Therefore, the Secretary has applied a rebuttable presumption that this product is presently in short supply in accordance with section 4(b)(4)(B)(i)(II) of the Act and § 357.106(b)(1)(ii) of Commerce's Short-Supply Regulations.

Unless domestic steel producers provided proof that they could and would produce the requested quantity of this product within the desired period of time, provided it represented a normal order-to-delivery period, the Secretary would issue a short-supply allowance not later than May 10, 1990. On April 30, 1990, the Secretary published a notice in the Federal Register announcing a review of this request and providing domestic steel producers an opportunity to rebut the presumption of short supply. All comments were required to be received no later than May 7, 1990. No comments were received.

Conclusion

Since the Secretary received no comments to the Federal Register notice by potential suppliers to rebut the Secretary's presumption of short supply for the requested product, the Secretary hereby grants, pursuant to section 4(b)(4)(A) of the Act and § 357.102 of Commerce's Short-Supply Regulations, a short-supply allowance for 348 net tons of the requested manganese steel plate for May-December 1990 under Article 8 of the Arrangement Between the European Coal and Steel Community and the European Economic Community, and the Government of the United States of America Concerning Trade in Certain Steel Products

Eric I. Garfinkel,

Assistant Secretary for Import Administration.

National Institute of Standards and Technology

[Docket No. 900499-0099]

Cooperative Research and Development Opportunity in Advanced Structural Ceramics With the National Institute of Standards and Technology AGENCY: National Institute of Standards and Technology, Commerce.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) seeks industrial parties interested in entering into a cooperative research program with NIST on advanced structural ceramics. This program will be undertaken within the scope and confines of the Federal Technology Transfer Act of 1986, which provides federal laboratories, including NIST, with the authority to enter into cooperative research agreements with qualified parties. Under this law, NIST may contribute personnel, equipment and facilities—but no funds—to the cooperative research program. Contributions from other participants may include funding, personnel, facilities and equipment. This is not a grant program.

DATES: Interested parties should contact NIST at the address or telephone number shown below no later than June 18, 1990.

ADDRESSES: Dr. S.M. Hsu, Chief, Ceramics Division, National Institute of

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Dr. S.M. Hsu, (301) 975-6119.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: NIST seeks qualified industrial parties interested in entering into a cooperative research program on advanced structural ceramics. The Ceramics Division of the National Institute of Standards and Technology conducts a research program directed toward development of standard reference materials, standard reference data, test methodologies and understanding of processing-structure-property relationships for advanced ceramics. Industrial firms are invited to participate in the program through collaborative research projects which address the processing-structure-property relationship. Specifically, collaboration is desired in projects directed toward the development of technologies utilizing silicon nitride for advanced applications such as bearings, heat engine components and wear resistance devices. Industrial partners are expected to share at least 50% of costs through clearly identified allocation of manpower, facilities and materials.

This program is being undertaken within the scope and confines of the Federal Technology Transfer Act of 1986 (Pub. L. 99-502), which authorizes government owned and operated federal laboratories, including NIST, to enter into cooperative research and development agreements (CRDSs) with qualified parties. Under the law, a CRDA may provide for contributions from the Federal laboratory of personnel, facilities and equipment, but not direct funding. Contributions from other participants may include funding, personnel, facilities and equipment. This is not a grant program. This program is covered by 15 CFR, part 26, Nonprocurement Debarment and Suspension.

Dated: May 9, 1990.

Announcement of Meeting to Discuss Architectural Proposals for Computer Courseware Standards

AGENCY: National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST), Commerce.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The National Computer Systems Laboratory (NCSL) at the NIST announces a meeting to discuss architectural proposals for courseware (computer based interactive training software) for use in the multi-media systems domain. The meeting will explain NIST goals for a family of Federal Information Processing Standards (FIPS) for courseware and NIST's process for selecting architectural proposals that have been solicited.

DATES: The meeting will be held June 14, 1990, at NIST, Gaithersburg, MD, in the Green Auditorium, Administration Building, 9 a.m.

ADDRESSES: To register, contact Lori Phillips, National Institute of Standards and Technology, Administration Building, room A807, Gaithersburg, MD 20899, Telephone: (301) 975-3881, FAX (301) 926-1630.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Dr. Larry Welsch, National Institute of Standards and Technology, Attn: Architectural Proposals for Computer Courseware Standards, Building 225, room B266, Gaithersburg, MD 20899, (301) 975-3345.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In an announcement on April 19, 1990, in the Commerce Business Daily, NIST solicited proposals for the integration and standardization of multi-media systems to address a broad set of requirements affecting the creation, distribution, execution and procurement of courseware. NIST asked that the proposed solutions consist of:

- A specification for a standard for courseware portability, (Possible examples included specification of virtual device interfaces (VDIs) to support the common peripheral devices associated with courseware.) The specification should describe services available from the peripheral devices, e.g., for a graphics display, functions might include draw a line, draw a circle, etc.
- A comprehensive plan and discussion of an evolutionary path to allow stepwise refinement of the architecture to encompass future hardware and software technology.
- A specification for a neutral interchange format for courseware so that courseware developed on one machine may be edited and maintained on another.
- Implementation(s), if available, of one or more of the above.

NIST requested architectural proposals for standards for portable courseware to provide an alternative to the current practice of distributing courseware with proprietary interfaces to system services, and to specify a standard interchange format so that courseware developed on one authoring system may be modified on another. A copy of the requirements can be requested from the address above.

Attendance at the meeting is limited due to space requirements and the size of the conference facility; therefore, registration is on a first-come, first-served basis. Participants are expected to make their own travel arrangements and accommodations. NIST reserves the right to cancel the meeting.

Dated: May 9, 1990.

COMMITTEE FOR THE IMPLEMENTATION OF TEXTILE AGREEMENTS

Adjustment of Import Limits for Certain Cotton, Man-Made Fiber, Silk Blend and Other Vegetable Fiber Textile Products Produced or Manufactured in Mauritius

May 11, 1990.

AGENCY: Committee for the Implementation of Textile Agreements (CITA).

ACTION: Issuing a directive to the Commissioner of Customs increasing limits.

EFFECTIVE DATE: May 18, 1990.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Anne Novak, International Trade Specialist, Office of Textiles and Apparel, U.S. Department of Commerce (202) 377-4212. For information on the quota status of these limits, refer to the Quota Status Reports posted on the bulletin boards of each Customs port or call (202) 566-5810. For information on embargoes and quota re-openings, call (202) 377-3715.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Authority: Executive Order 11651 of March 3, 1972, as amended; section 204 of the Agricultural Act of 1956, as amended (7 U.S.C. 1854).

The current limits for certain cotton, man-made fiber, silk blend and other vegetable fiber textile products are being increased for carryover.

A description of the textile and apparel categories in terms of HTS numbers is available in the Correlation: Textile and Apparel Categories with the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States (see Federal Register notice 54 FR 50797, published on December 11, 1989). Also see 54 FR 39561, published on September 27, 1989.

The letter to the Commissioner of Customs and the actions taken pursuant to it are not designed to implement all of the provisions of the bilateral agreement, but are designed to assist only in the implementation of certain of its provisions.

Ronald I. Levin,

Acting Chairman, Committee for the Implementation of Textile Agreements.

Committee for the Implementation of Textile Agreements

May 11, 1990.

Commissioner of Customs,
Department of the Treasury, Washington, DC 20229.

Dear Commissioner: This directive amends, but does not cancel, the directive issued to you on September 22, 1989 by the Chairman, Committee for the Implementation of Textile Agreements. This directive concerns imports into the United States of certain cotton, man-made fiber, silk blend and other vegetable fiber textiles and textile products, produced or manufactured in Mauritius and exported during the twelve-month period which began on October 1, 1989 and extends through September 30, 1990.

Effective on May 18, 1990, the directive of September 22, 1989 is amended to include the following adjusted limits, as provided under the terms of the current bilateral agreement between the Governments of the United States and Mauritius:

Category	Adjusted 12-mon. limit ¹
Knit Group:
345, 438, 445, 446, 645 and 646, as a group.	132,953 dozen.
Levels not in a group:
237.....	148,315 dozen.
331.....	393,034 dozen pairs.
335/835.....	58,956 dozen.
336.....	69,377 dozen.
338/339.....	277,745 dozen.
341/641.....	313,117 dozen.
342/642/842.....	203,933 dozen.
638/639.....	319,407 dozen.
647/648/847.....	458,542 dozen.

¹ The limits have not been adjusted to account for any imports exported after September 30, 1989.

The Committee for the Implementation of Textile Agreements has determined that these actions fall within the foreign affairs exception to the rulemaking provisions of 5 U.S.C. 553(a)(1).

Sincerely,

Ronald I. Levin,

Acting Chairman, Committee for the Implementation of Textile Agreements.

Announcing the Requirement of an Export Declaration (Form ITA-370P) for Cotton and Man-Made Fiber Insulated Coveralls Assembled in the United Mexican States

May 14, 1990.

AGENCY: Committee for the Implementation of Textile Agreements (CITA).

ACTION: Announcing the requirement for Form ITA-370P and issuing a directive to the Commissioner of Customs directing Customs to begin signing Form ITA-370P for certain fabric.

EFFECTIVE DATE: June 1, 1990.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Jerome Turtola, International Trade Specialist, Office of Textiles and Apparel, U.S. Department of Commerce, (202) 377-4212.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Authority: Executive Order 11651 of March 3, 1972, as amended; section 204 of the Agricultural Act of 1956, as amended (7 U.S.C. 1854).

A notice published in the Federal Register on April 23, 1990 (55 FR 15259) announced, among other things, amendment to the coverage of Categories 359-C/659-C to include insulated coveralls (Memorandum of Understanding dated February 9, 1990).

The purpose of this notice is to announce further that the U.S. Customs Service, beginning on June 1, 1990, will start signing the first section of form ITA-370P for shipments of U.S. formed and cut fabric for insulated coveralls in Special Regime Categories 359-C/659-C that are destined for Mexico and re-exported to the United States during the period July 1, 1990 through December 31, 1990. Insulated coveralls, which are assembled in Mexico from parts cut in the United States from fabric formed in the United States, are governed by Harmonized Traffic Schedule item 9802.00.8010 and Chapter 62 Statistical Note 3 of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule.

Interested parties should be aware that shipments of cut parts for insulated coveralls in Categories 359-C/659-C must be accompanied by a form ITA-370P, signed by a U.S. Customs officer, prior to export from the United States for assembly in Mexico in order to qualify for entry under the Special Regime.

A description of the textile and apparel categories in terms of HTS numbers is available in the correlation: Textile and Apparel Categories with the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States (see Federal Register notice 54 FR 50797, published on December 11, 1989).

Requirements for participation in the Special Regime are available in Federal Register notices 53 FR 15724, published on May 3, 1988; 53 FR 32421, published on August 25, 1988; and 54 FR 50425, published on December 8, 1989.

The letter to the Commissioner of Customs and the actions taken pursuant to it are not designed to implement all of the provisions of the MOU dated February 9, 1990, but are designed to assist only in the implementation of certain of its provisions.

COMMITTEE FOR PURCHASE FROM THE BLIND AND OTHER SEVERELY HANDICAPPED

Procurement List 1990; Addition

AGENCY: Committee for Purchase from the Blind and Other Severely Handicapped.

ACTION: Addition to Procurement List.

SUMMARY: This action adds to Procurement List 1990 a service to be provided by workshops for the blind or other severely handicapped.

EFFECTIVE DATE: June 18, 1990.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Beverly Milkman (703) 557-1145.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On April 6, 1990, the Committee for Purchase from the Blind and Other Severely Handicapped published notice (55 FR 12878) of proposed additions to Procurement List 1990, which was published on November 3, 1989 (54 FR 46540).

After consideration of the material presented to it concerning the capability of a qualified workshop to provide this service at a fair market price and the impact of the addition on the current or most recent contractor, the Committee has determined that the service listed below is suitable for procurement by the Federal Government under 41 U.S.C. 46-48c and 41 CFR 51-2.6.

I certify that the following action will not have a significant impact on a substantial number of small entities. The major factors considered for this certification were:

- The action will not result in any additional reporting, recordkeeping or other compliance requirements.
- The action will not have a serious economic impact on any contractors for the service listed.
- The action will result in authorizing small entities to provide the service procured by the Government.

Accordingly, the following service is hereby added to Procurement List 1990: Janitorial/Custodial, Federal Building and Post Office, Summersville, West Virginia.

Beverly L. Milkman,
Executive Director.

Edison requests waiver of the Commission's prior notice requirement and an effective date for the changes in rates of January 1, 1990.

In addition, Edison requests implementation of procedures to be reimbursed for the Annual Charge imposed by FERC under 18 CFR, Part 382.

Copies of this filing were served upon the Public Utilities Commission of the State of California and all interested parties.

[Docket No. ER90-344-000]

Take notice that on April 30, 1990, Northern States Power Company (Minnesota Company) [NSP-MN] tendered for filing Supplement No. 4, dated April 23, 1990, to the Interconnection and Interchange Agreement, dated January 25, 1968, between NSP-MN, Northern States Power Company (Wisconsin Company), and Wisconsin Public Service Corporation [WPS].

The Interconnection and Interchange Agreement provides for interconnected electric operation between the parties' systems, as well as for the interchange of electrical power and energy between the parties. Supplement No. 4 modifies the agreement by adding the new Arpin Substation point of interconnection, and adding two new service schedules, System Power and Supplemental Energy, under which NSP, as seller, may enter into transactions with WPS.

Copies of this filing have been provided to the respective parties and to the State Commissions of Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Wisconsin, and Michigan.

NSP-MN requests that the Commission make May 1, 1990 the effective date of the proposed System Power and Supplemental Energy Schedules (Service Schedules G & H) to allow the parties to immediately realize the mutual benefits available. The Parties desire to commence with the interchange of power and energy under those schedules at that time.

Comment date: May 25, 1990, in accordance with Standard Paragraph E at the end of this notice.

Standard Paragraphs:

E. Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 825 North Capitol Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). All such motions or protests should be filed on or before the comment date. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

[Docket Nos. CP90-1297-000 et al.]

Take notice that the following filings have been made with the Commission:

1. Williams Natural Gas Company

[Docket No. CP90-1297-000]

May 11, 1990.

Take notice that on May 1, 1990, Williams Natural Gas Company (Williams), P.O. Box 3288, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74101, filed in Docket No. CP90-1297-000 an application pursuant to section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act for a certificate of public convenience and necessary authorizing the expansion of facilities in the Alden Storage Field in Rice County, Kansas, all as more fully set forth in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Specifically, Williams proposes to (1) construct and operate approximately 7.2 miles of 20-inch pipeline and related facilities, (2) drill and connect ten injection/withdrawal wells and appurtenant facilities, including approximately 2.6 miles of connecting pipeline and (3) uprate the existing storage line and gathering field pressures from 1167 psig to 1440 psig.

Williams asserts that KPL Gas Service (KPL) has requested that Williams provide firm storage service for its intrastate pipeline system in western Kansas utilizing the Alden storage field and provide firm transportation of the gas to and from storage. Williams states that it would provide the storage service under its Rate Schedule X-24.

Williams asserts that the proposed construction and uprating would enable it to provide the storage service for KPL. Williams further asserts that it would recover the cost of the proposed facilities and uprating through the rate to be charged KPL for the storage service.

Williams estimates the cost of the proposed facilities and uprating to be $6,704,719. Williams proposes to finance the project with available funds.

Comment date: June 2, 1990, in accordance with Standard Paragraph F at the end of this notice.

5. Pacific Gas Transmission Company

May 11, 1990.

Take notice that on May 7, 1990, Pacific Gas Transmission Company (PGT), 160 Spear Street, San Francisco, California 94105-1570, filed in Docket No. CP90-1031-001 a petition to amend its pending application for a part 284 Open Access Blanket Transportation Certificate pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act in Docket No. CP90-1031-000, to permit holders of firm transportation capacity rights on PGT's system to assign such rights to third parties, all as more fully set forth in the petition to amend which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

PGT proposes to implement a Transportation Assignment Program (TAP) for its firm transportation customers pursuant to new provisions of its applicable firm transportation rate schedules. PGT proposes to allow firm transportation customers to assign the rights to a portion or all of their firm transportation service to third parties, provided such third parties comply with certain requirements, as more fully described in the petition to amend.

PGT's proposal would permit reassignment of capacity, and capacity would be permitted to be repackaged on both a firm and interruptible basis. Under PGT's proposal, all shippers would be required to allocate capacity on a non-discriminatory basis.

PGT proposes that the maximum rate that could be charged for any assigned firm transportation services could not exceed the as-billed rate charged by PGT for such transportation.

Comment date: June 2, 1990, in accordance with Standard Paragraph F at the end of this notice.

6. Colorado Interstate Gas Company

[Docket No. CP90-1323-000]

May 11, 1990.

Take notice that on May 8, 1990, Colorado Interstate Gas Company (CIG), Post Office Box 1087, Colorado Springs, Colorado 80944, filed in Docket No. CP90-1323-000 an application pursuant to section 7(b) of the Natural Gas Act for permission and approval to abandon certain compression facilities located in Texas and Wyoming, all as more fully detailed in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

CIG proposes to abandon two 1,145 horsepower compressor engines at CIG's Bivins Compressor Station (Bivins), located in Moore County, Texas, three 880-horsepower compressor engines at CIG's Sanford Compressor Station (Sanford), located in Hutchinson County, Texas, and one 400-horsepower compressor engine at the Moneta Field Compressor Station (Moneta), located in Fremont County, Wyoming. CIG states that the engines at Bivins were installed in 1928 and are obsolete, that the engines at Sanford are no longer needed because of a decline in field production, and that the engine at Moneta has insufficient capacity for recent and projected increases in production in the Fuller Reservoir area of Wyoming. It is further stated that the engine to be abandoned at Moneta would be replaced by an 825-horsepower unit to be installed at a new location under the authority of CIG's blanket certificate issued in Docket No. CP83-21-000. CIG asserts that no service would be terminated as a result of the abandonment.

Comment date: June 2, 1990, in accordance with Standard Paragraph F at the end of this notice.

7. Enserch Gas Company

[Docket No. CI89-501-002]

May 11, 1990.

Take notice that on May 1, 1990, Enserch Gas Company (EGC) of Suite 504-H, 301 South Harwood, Dallas, Texas 75201, filed an application pursuant to sections 4 and 7 of the Natural Gas Act and the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission's (Commission) regulations thereunder to amend its blanket limited-term certificate with pregranted abandonment previously issued by the Commission in Docket No. CI89-501-001 to include authorization for sales for resale of imported natural gas, liquified natural gas, and gas purchased from non-first-sellers, such as gas purchased from pipelines under interruptible sales programs, all as more fully set forth in the application which is on file with the Commission and open for public inspection.

Comment date: May 21, 1990, in accordance with Standard Paragraph J at the end of the notice.

Standard Paragraphs:

F. Any person desiring to be heard or make any protest with reference to said filing should on or before the comment date file with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 825 North Capitol Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, a motion to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214) and the Regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a motion to intervene in accordance with the Commission's Rules.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission or its designee on this filing if no motion to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a motion for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for the applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

G. Any person or the Commission's staff may, within 45 days after the issuance of the instant notice by the Commission, file pursuant to Rule 214 of the Commission's Procedural Rules (18 CFR 385.214) a motion to intervene or notice of intervention and pursuant to § 157.205 of the Regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.205) a protest to the request. If no protest is filed within the time allowed therefore, the proposed activity shall be deemed to be authorized effective the day after the time allowed for filing a protest. If a protest is filed and not withdrawn within 30 days after the time allowed for filing a protest, the instant request shall be treated as an application for authorization pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act.

Standard Paragraph

J. Any person desiring to be heard or make any protest with reference to said filings should on or before the comment date file with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 825 North Capitol Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426 a motion to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211, 385.214). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party in any proceeding herein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for the applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Environmental Impact Statements and Regulations; Availability of EPA Comments

Availability of EPA comments prepared April 30, 1990 through May 4, 1990 pursuant to the Environmental Review Process (ERP), under section 309 of the Clean Air Act and section 102(2)(c) of the National Environmental Policy Act as amended. Requests for copies of EPA comments can be directed to the Office of Federal Activities at (202) 382-5076.

An explanation of the ratings assigned to draft environmental impact statements (EISs) was published in FR dated April 13, 1990 (55 FR 13949).

Draft EISs

ERP No. D-AFS-K61104-CA, Rating EC2, Mt. Shasta Wilderness Management Plan, Shasta-Trinity National Forests, Implementation, Mt. Shasta Ranger District and McCloud Ranger District, Siskiyou County, CA.

Summary

EPA expressed environmental concerns because the draft EIS did not discuss how the four alternatives will effect water quality and beneficial uses. EPA requested that the final EIS contain mitigation measures to protect water quality, since water quality is suspected to be deteriorating in several heavy use areas of the Mt. Shasta Wilderness Area.

ERP No. D-AFS-K65125-CA, Rating EC2 Blank Panther Fire Recovery Project, Implementation, 1987 King-Titus Wildfire, Klamath National Forest, Ukonom Ranger District, Siskiyou County, CA.

Summary

EPA expressed environmental concerns because additional timber salvage cuts, fuels treatment and road construction may exacerbate problems such as erosion, mass wasting and depleted soils productivity. EPA urged the Forest Service to implement long-term monitoring of watershed conditions and fisheries habitat to establish a better understanding of the cumulative effects of forest management activities.

ERP No. D-NAS-A12038-00, Rating EC2, Space Station Freedom Program, Design, Develop and Operation, First Element Launch (FEL).

Summary

EPA expressed environmental concerns about potential impacts associated with rocket motor emissions associated with the launch activities, and the atmospheric implications of the space station and its use.

Grants, State and Local Assistance: Exploratory Environmental Research Centers; Correction

AGENCY: U.S. Environmental Protection Agency.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: This is a correction to an earlier notice, which appeared in the April 5, 1990 issue of the Federal Register at (55 FR 12725) under the title, "Exploratory Environmental Research Centers; Solicitation for Proposals".

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Karen Morehouse, Director, Centers Program, Office of Exploratory Research (RD-675), U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, 401 M Street, SW., Washington, DC 20460, Telephone: 202/382-5750.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The error occurred in section V.B., "Research Themes, EPA's Research Strategy for the 1990's". In the original document, the following sentence appeared at the top of page 12727: "There is considerable room within the other two areas of ecological risk assessment for the kind of long term, interdisciplinary research which centers can provide."

This sentence was included erroneously and should not have appeared. There are no restrictions placed upon research themes for these centers except for those articulated in section V.A., "Center Themes Prohibited Under this Solicitation".

Dated: May 14, 1990.

Performance Evaluation Reports for Fiscal Year 1989 Section 105 Grants; Missouri, Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency (EPA).

ACTION: Notice of availability of grantee performance evaluation reports.

SUMMARY: EPA's grant regulations (40 CFR 35.150) require the Agency to conduct yearly performance evaluations on the progress of the approved State/EPA Agreements. EPA's regulations (40 CFR 56.7) require that the Agency make available to the public the evaluation reports. EPA has conducted evaluations on the Missouri Department of Natural Resources, Nebraska Department of Environmental Control, Iowa Department of Natural Resources, and Kansas Department of Health and Environment. These evaluations were conducted to assess the agencies' performance under the grants made to them by EPA pursuant to section 105 of the Clean Air Act.

EFFECTIVE DATE: May 18, 1990.

ADDRESSES: Copies of the evaluation reports are available for public inspection at the EPA's Region VII Office, Air and Toxics Division, 726 Minnesota Avenue, Kansas City, Kansas 66101.

Underground Injection Control Program; Hazardous Waste Disposal Injection Restrictions; Petition for Exemption—Class I Hazardous Waste Injection; Allied-Signal, Inc., Morristown, NJ

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency.

ACTION: Notice of final decision of petition.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given by the United States Environmental Protection Agency (USEPA) that an exemption to the land disposal restrictions under the 1984 Hazardous and Solid Waste Amendments (HSWA) to the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act (RCRA) has been granted to Allied-Signal, Inc., (Allied) of Morristown, New Jersey, for its Class I injection well located in Danville, Illinois. As required by 40 CFR part 148, Allied has demonstrated, to a reasonable degree of certainty, that there will be no migration of hazardous constituents from the injection zone for as long as the waste remains hazardous. This final decision allows the continued underground injection by Allied of a specific restricted hazardous waste, arsenic, (code D004 under 40 CFR 261), into a Class I hazardous waste injection well specifically identified as Waste Disposal Well Number 1, at the Danville facility. This decision constitutes a final USEPA action for which there is no administrative appeal.

Background

Allied submitted a petition for exemption from the land disposal restrictions of hazardous waste on February 25, 1988. USEPA personnel reviewed all data pertaining to the petition, including, but not limited to, well construction, regional and local geology, seismic activity, penetrations of the confining zone, and the mathematical models. The USEPA has determined that the geological setting at the site as well as the construction and operation of the well as adequate to prevent fluid migration out of the injection zone within 10,000 years, as required under 40 CFR part 148. The injection zone at this site is the Eminence/Potosi Formation, and the immediate confining zone is the Prairie du Chien Group, at a depth of 2620 feet to 3332 feet below ground level. The confining zone is separated from the lowermost underground source of drinking water (at a depth of 1700 feet below ground level) by a sequence of permeable and less permeable sedimentary rocks, which provide additional protection from fluid migration into drinking water sources. A fact sheet containing a more complete summary of the proposed decision was published in the Federal Register on February 14, 1990.

A public notice was issued on February 9, 1990, pursuant to 40 CFR 124.10, and a public hearing was subsequently held in Danville on March 12, 1990. The public comment period expired on April 2, 1990. A number of comments were received and all comments have been considered in making the final decision. A responsiveness summary has been mailed to all commentors and included as part of the Administrative Record relating to this decision.

Conditions

As a condition of this exemption, Allied must be in full compliance with all conditions of its permit. Other conditions relating to the exemption may be found in 40 CFR parts 148.23 and 148.24.

Errata

Errors have been identified in the notice of the draft decision published in the Federal Register on February 14, 1990. A list of these errors is on file in the Administrative Record.

DATES: This action is effective as of May 8, 1990.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: George Hudak, Lead Petition Reviewer, USEPA, Region V, telephone (312) 353-4142. Copies of the petition and all pertinent information relating thereto are on file and are part of the Administrative Record. It is recommended that you contact the lead reviewer prior to reviewing the Administrative Record.

Acting Director, Water Division.

Radio; Broadcasting

AGENCY: Federal Communications Commission.

ACTION: Notice; order to show cause and order for consolidation.

SUMMARY: By this action, the Commission ordered Williamsburg County Broadcasting Corp. (WCB) to show cause why its license for AM radio Station WKSP, Kingstree, South Carolina, should not be revoked in light of information that its controlling owner had been convicted and sentenced to prison for drug trafficking and that WCB had not amended a pending application for a new FM station to report the conviction until nearly a year after his sentencing. By this action the Commission also ordered that the revocation inquiry would be conducted in conjunction with the comparative proceeding in Docket No. 88-536 concerning the competing applications of WCB and another party for a new FM station in Kingstree.

First Chicago Corporation, et al.; Acquisitions of Companies Engaged in Permissible Nonbanking Activities

The organizations listed in this notice have applied under § 225.23(a)(2) or (f) of the Board's Regulation Y (12 CFR 225.23(a)(2) or (f)) for the Board's approval under section 4(c)(8) of the Bank Holding Company Act (12 U.S.C. 1843(c)(8)) and § 225.21(a) of Regulation Y (12 CFR 225.21(a)) to acquire or control voting securities or assets of a company engaged in a nonbanking activity that is listed in § 225.25 of Regulation Y as closely related to banking and permissible for bank holding companies. Unless otherwise noted, such activities will be conducted throughout the United States.

Each application is available for immediate inspection at the Federal Reserve Bank indicated. Once the application has been accepted for processing, it will also be available for inspection at the offices of the Board of Governors. Interested persons may express their views in writing on the question whether consummation of the proposal can "reasonably be expected to produce benefits to the public, such as greater convenience, increased competition, or gains in efficiency, that outweigh possible adverse effects, such as undue concentration of resources, decreased or unfair competition, conflicts of interests, or unsound banking practices." Any request for a hearing on this question must be accompanied by a statement of the reasons a written presentation would not suffice in lieu of a hearing, identifying specifically any questions of fact that are in dispute, summarizing the evidence that would be presented at a hearing, and indicating how the party commenting would be aggrieved by approval of the proposal.

Unless otherwise noted, comments regarding each of these applications must be received at the Reserve Bank indicated for the application or the offices of the Board of Governors not later than June 6, 1990.

Mid Am, Inc., et al.; Applications To Engage de Novo in Permissible Nonbanking Activities

The companies listed in this notice have filed an application under § 225.23(a)(1) of the Board's Regulation Y (12 CFR 225.23(a)(1)) for the Board's approval under section 4(c)(8) of the Bank Holding Company Act (12 U.S.C. 1843(c)(8)) and § 225.21(a) of Regulation Y (12 CFR 225.21(a)) to commence or to engage de novo, either directly or through a subsidiary, in a nonbanking activity that is listed in § 225.25 of Regulation Y as closely related to banking and permissible for bank holding companies. Unless otherwise noted, such activities will be conducted throughout the United States.

Each application is available for immediate inspection at the Federal Reserve Bank indicated. Once the application has been accepted for processing, it will also be available for inspection at the offices of the Board of Governors. Interested persons may express their views in writing on the question whether consummation of the proposal can "reasonably be expected to produce benefits to the public, such as greater convenience, increased competition, or gains in efficiency, that outweigh possible adverse effects, such as undue concentration of resources, decreased or unfair competition, conflicts of interests, or unsound banking practices." Any request for a hearing on this question must be accompanied by a statement of the reasons a written presentation would not suffice in lieu of a hearing, identifying specifically any questions of fact that are in dispute, summarizing the evidence that would be presented at a hearing, and indicating how the party commenting would be aggrieved by approval of the proposal.

Unless otherwise noted, comments regarding the applications must be received at the Reserve Bank indicated or the offices of the Board of Governors not later than June 6, 1990.

A. Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland (John J. Wixted, Jr., Vice President) 1455 East Sixth Street, Cleveland, Ohio 44101:

1. Mid Am, Inc., Bowling Green, Ohio; to engage de novo through its subsidiary, Mid Am, Inc., Community Development Corporation, Bowling Green, Ohio, in community development activities pursuant to § 225.25(b)(6) of the Board's Regulation Y. These activities will be conducted in Northwestern Ohio which includes the counties of: Williams, Fulton, Lucas, Ottawa, Defiance, Henry, Wood, Putnam, Hancock, and Logan.

2. Banill Corporation, Normal, Illinois, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Duco Bancshares, Inc., Villa Park, Illinois; to engage de novo in making and servicing loans and leasing personal property pursuant to § 225.25 (b)(1) and (b)(5) of the Board's Regulation Y, respectively.

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

Office of Consumer Affairs

Statement of Organization, Functions, and Delegations of Authority

Introduction. Part A, chapter AW, U.S. Office of Consumer Affairs (USOCA), of the Statement of Organization, Functions and Delegations of Authority of the Department of Health and Human Services, as last amended at 48 FR 31299, July 7, 1983, is being amended to reflect a reorganization of USOCA. The reorganization will enable consolidation of functions assigned to USOCA subunits resulting in five rather than seven such units, thus enabling more efficient management of staff and financial resources in the conduct of USOCA programs. The revised Chapter reads as follows:

Section AW.00 Mission. The U.S. Office of Consumer Affairs executes the functions assigned by Executive Order 11583 of February 24, 1971 (as amended by Executive Order 11595 of May 26, 1971, Executive Order 11702 of January 25, 1973 and Executive Order 12608 of September 9, 1987) and Executive Order 11566 of October 26, 1970, advises the President on consumer affairs, and coordinates consumer functions in the Federal government. In accordance with Executive Order 12160 of September 26, 1979, the staff also provides assistance to the Chairperson of the Consumer Affairs Council.

Section AW.10 Organization. A. The Director of the U.S. Office of Consumer Affairs reports directly to the President and directs and coordinates the activities of the U.S. Office of Consumer Affairs.

B. The U.S. Office of Consumer Affairs consists of the following components:

Office of the Director,
General Counsel,
Division of Planning, Budget and Evaluation,
Division of Policy and Education Development, Division of Business, Consumer and International Liaison.

Section AW.20 Functions. A. U.S. Office of Consumer Affairs. (1) Works to ensure appropriate consideration of consumer perspective in policy development at the White House and Federal agencies. The Special Adviser to the President for Consumer Affairs also coordinates Federal consumer policy through the Consumer Affairs Council, composed of all Federal agencies providing consumer programs, under authority of Executive Order 12160. (2) Publishes the Consumers' Resource Handbook and other documents distributed upon request to millions of Americans through the Consumer Information Center maintained by the General Services Administration. These publications advise individuals how to avoid marketplace problems and how to resolve questions or complaints if they do arise. (3) Promotes cooperation between international, Federal, state, local, nonprofit, and private sector entities involved in the marketplace, emphasizing the need for ethical business practices, regulation and legislation where needed and appropriate, and voluntary efforts to promote consumer interests through education, dispute resolution and policy coordination.

The Special Adviser to the President for Consumer Affairs chairs the delegation from the United States to the Committee on Consumer Policy of the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development, at which international marketplace principles are harmonized. (4) Promotes improved consumer skills through education programs which emphasize practical application of skills learned in elementary, secondary and post-secondary schools, as well as public and private sector programs which target specific consumer issues to be addressed by media information campaigns, workshops, facts sheets and other publications. (5) Identifies, analyzes and focuses attention on needs, interests and marketplace problems of consumers by conducting surveys, conferences, and working groups, both independently and in conjunction with other government agencies, nonprofit organizations, and the private sector.

B. Office of the Director. Directs and coordinates the activities of the U.S. Office of Consumer Affairs; is responsible for USOCA relations with the press and media; and prepares speeches, articles and syndicated radio programs.

General Counsel. Participates in the design and enactment of the President's consumer legislative Program, including preparation of Congressional testimony and serving as Congressional liaison; prepares and reviews materials for presentation to Federal departments and agencies; and provides all necessary legal services for USOCA.

D. Division of Planning, Budget and Evaluation. Develops comprehensive plans for programs of USOCA and develops and implements systems to evaluate staff effectiveness. Recommends and applies administrative policy and procedures; is responsible for the activities of USOCA in the areas of financial management, procurement, personnel and record keeping; and provides advice and recommendations to the Director on alternatives to achieve USOCA program objectives.

E. Division of Policy and Education Development. Monitors and evaluates ongoing programs and emerging issues in Federal agencies affecting consumers, with a view to determining the effectiveness of current and proposed programs, particularly as they impact on the unique needs of special interest groups; develops and recommends new programs to insure that each agency of the Federal government adequately responds to consumer needs in the development of policy; encourages private industry voluntarily to develop self-regulatory programs and to adopt competitive policies and programs; coordinates staff assistance to the Chairperson of the Consumer Affairs Council; responds to consumer complaints; conceives and facilitates implementation of programs to enhance consumer and economic education through the efforts of government, education institutions, business, voluntary groups and individual citizens; provides services to consumer educators; and promotes a broad multidisciplinary approach that seeks to unify and focus the efforts of those engaged in consumer and economic education programs.

F. Division of Business, Consumer and International Liaison. Maintains liaison with Federal, state, county, and city government officials responsible for consumer matters; serves as focal point for liaison with individual consumers and with national, state and local voluntary organizations which represent consumers and citizens; provides adequate opportunities for consumer participation in the decision-making process; maintains liaison with trade associations and industry as necessary, including encouraging initiation of programs aimed at resolving complaints common to large numbers of consumers; maintains liaison with representatives of other nations, particularly within the framework of the Committee on Consumer Policy of the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development; and serves as the principal USOCA unit responsible for development and coordination of conferences and meetings on consumer matters.

Section AW.30 Order of Succession. In the absence or incapacity of the Director, the Deputy Director shall act as Director, USOCA.

Section AW.40 Delegations of Authority. The exercise of authority and duties of the Director, USOCA are set forth in the Executive Orders cited in section AW.00, above. Authority is exercised under Executive Order 11583 through the staff of the Office of Consumer Affairs and under Executive Order 12160 through the Consumer Affairs Council comprised of representatives of Federal departments and agencies.

Dated May 9, 1990.

Louis W. Sullivan, M.D.,

Secretary.

Agency for Toxic Substances and Disease Registry

[ATSDR-20]

Health Assessments Completed and Health Assessments To Be Conducted in Response to Requests From Public AGENCY: Agency for Toxic Substances and Disease Registry (ATSDR), Public Health Service (PHS), Department of Health and Human Services (HHS).

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: This notice contains a list of health assessments completed or amended by ATSDR during the previous three months (January-March, 1990) for hazardous waste sites that are on, or proposed for inclusion on, the National Priorities List (NPL) and non-NPL sites. It also contains a list of sites for which ATSDR has determined that there is reasonable basis for conducting a health assessment in response to a request (petition) from the public. In addition, this notice announces all health assessments completed to date by ATSDR that have been conducted in response to requests from the public.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Robert C. Williams, P.E., Director, Division of Health Assessment and Consultation, Agency for Toxic Substances and Disease Registry, 1600 Clifton Road, Atlanta, Georgia 30333, (404) 639-0610, FTS 236-0610.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act (CERCLA) (42 U.S.C. 9604(i)), as amended, requires that ATSDR perform a health assessment for all sites that are proposed for or are on the CERCLA National Priorities List (NPL). In addition, CERCLA authorizes ATSDR, at its discretion, to conduct health assessments for sites in response to requests from the public (petitioned health assessments). A health assessment is an evaluation of data and information on the release of hazardous substances into the environment in order to assess any current or future impact on public health, develop health advisories or other recommendations, and identify studies or actions needed to evaluate and mitigate or prevent human health effects. As stated in the final rule for health assessments and health effects studies of hazardous substances release and facilities (February 13, 1990, (55 FR 5136), to be codified, 42 CFR part 90), ATSDR will publish on a quarterly basis a list of all health assessments completed and petitions for health assessments accepted in the previous three months.

Health Assessments completed for NPL Sites

Health assessments for the sites listed below were completed between January 1, 1990, and March 31, 1990.

Recticon/Allied Steel Corporation—Parkerford, Pennsylvania
Cedartown Industries, Inc.—Cedartown, Georgia

Petitioned Health Assessments Accepted

ATSDR determined, between January 1, 1990, and March 31, 1990, that there was reasonable basis to conduct health assessments for the sites or facilities listed below that were received as requests from the public. As of March 31, 1990, ATSDR had initiated health assessments at all of these sites or facilities.

GSX Landfill—Sumter County, South Carolina
Marine Shale Processors, Inc.—Morgan City/Amelia, Louisiana
Ottawa—Ottawa, Illinois
United Refinery—Warren, Pennsylvania
Allen Park Clay Mine—Dearborn, Michigan
Bluefield—Bluefield, Virginia
TRW Minerva—Minerva, Ohio
Puyallup Indian Tribe—Tacoma, Washington
Schaffer Equipment/Electric Company—Minden, West Virginia
Winton Hills—Cincinnati, Ohio
Union Carbide—St. Joseph, Michigan
American Chemical Services—Griffith, Indiana
Global Landfill—Sayreville, New Jersey
CORCO Chemical—Bucks County, Pennsylvania
Neville Chemical Company—Santa Fe Springs, California
Southern Wood Piedmont—Augusta, Georgia
Underground Storage Tanks—Jacksonville, New York

Petitioned Health Assessments Completed

To date, ATSDR has completed health assessments at the following locations in response to requests from the public. These sites may also be on the NPL. A list of these sites has not previously appeared in the Federal Register for this purpose.

Bridgeport Rental and Oil Service—Bridgeport, New Jersey

Union Chemical—Hope, Maine
 Coakley Landfill—North Hampton, New Hampshire
 Tucson Airport—Tucson, Arizona
 Clothier Disposal—Oswego County, New York
 Fulton Terminals—Oswego County, New York
 Pollution Abatement Services—Oswego County, New York
 Volney Municipal Landfill—Oswego County, New York
 GEMS Landfill—Gloucester Township, New Jersey

Availability

The completed health assessments are available for public inspection at the Division of Health Assessment and Consultation, Agency for Toxic Substances and Disease Registry, Building 31, Executive Park Drive, Atlanta, Georgia (not a mailing address), between 8 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday except legal holidays. On or about June 30, 1990, the completed health assessments will be available by mail through the U.S. Department of Commerce, National Technical Information Service (NTIS), 5285 Port Royal Road, Springfield, Virginia 22161 or by phone at (703) 487-4650.

Centers for Disease Control

National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health; Request for Comments and Secondary Data Relevant to Occupational Exposure to Cutting Fluids

AGENCY: National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health (NIOSH), Centers for Disease Control (CDC), Public Health Service (PHS), Department of Health and Human Services (HHS).

ACTION: Notice of request for comments and secondary data.

SUMMARY: NIOSH is requesting comments and secondary data from all interested parties concerning the health hazards associated with occupational exposure to cutting fluids. NIOSH has been concerned with the potential health hazards associated with occupational exposure to cutting fluids of three basic types: straight cutting oils (insoluble), oil-in-water emulsions (soluble), and synthetic/semi-synthetic. Interested parties may submit information on the health and safety hazards of exposure to cutting fluids used in metalworking, including but not limited to: (1) Their selection and use as coolants, lubricants, rust inhibitors, and flushes for metal (plastic) chips or fines, (2) exposure data, (3) results of epidemiological or laboratory animal studies, (4) descriptions of work practices, protective equipment, and control technology in use today, (5) sources and levels of contaminants (e.g., metals, nitrosamines, polycyclic aromatic hydrocarbons), and (6) health effects related to occupational exposure to cutting fluids, additives, or contaminants. This information will be used by NIOSH to determine the extent of the health hazards associated with occupational exposures to cutting fluids and to develop strategies for preventing and controlling the related exposures.

DATES: Comments and secondary data concerning this notice should be submitted by June 18, 1990.

ADDRESSES: Please submit any information, comments, suggestions, or recommendations in writing to: Dr. Richard Niemeier, Director, Division of Standards Development and Technology Transfer, NIOSH, 4676 Columbia Parkway, C-14, Cincinnati, Ohio 45226.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Ms. Brenda Boutin, Division of Standards Development and Technology Transfer, NIOSH, 4676 Columbia Parkway C-32, Cincinnati, Ohio, 45226, (513) 533-8345, or FTS 684-8345.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Under the Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970 (29 U.S.C. 651, et seq.), and the Federal Mine Safety and Health Act of 1977 (30 U.S.C. 801, et seq.), NIOSH is directed to gather information and develop recommendations for improving occupational safety and health standards. Occupational exposures to cutting fluids primarily occur by direct contact of the skin with the liquid, or by inhalation and skin contact during fluid misting. Cutting fluids may be responsible for increases in the incidence of cancer (e.g., scrotal cancer in metal turners). Dermatitis and occasionally allergic dermatitis have been associated with exposure to cutting fluids.

NIOSH is interested in obtaining existing and available materials, including reports and research findings, that pertain to cutting fluids, additives, and contaminants and their uses in industries involved in metalworking.

Examples of requested information include but may not be limited to the following:

1. Basis for the selection and use of a specific cutting fluid formation for a specific type of metalworking.
2. Average length of use of different cutting fluids.
3. Types and concentrations of additives such as wetting agents and surfactants, anti-foaming agents, water softeners, extreme pressure additives, corrosion inhibitors, dyes, buffer components, emulsifiers, coupling agents, anti-weld and anti-rust agents, and bactericides in new and used cutting fluids.
4. Methods for the evaluation of the quality of used cutting fluids and basis for disposal or reuse.
5. Methods and testing intervals to evaluate cutting fluid pH, effective additive concentrations, and contaminant levels.
6. A description of the types of contamination that can be found in cutting fluids (e.g., machine oil, metal, nitrosamines, polycyclic aromatic hydrocarbons, food, human wastes).
7. A description of methods for refining or processing used cutting fluids, and safety checks (e.g., quality assurance, toxicity testing) for re-refined fluids.
8. Health effects (e.g., skin irritation, inflammation, infections, respiratory symptoms or disease, systemic effects) related to occupational exposure to cutting fluids, additives or contaminants.
9. Measured airborne concentrations of cutting fluids and additives in the workplace.
10. Personal protective equipment, engineering controls and work practices that have been used to limit worker exposure to cutting fluids, additives and contaminants.

All information received in response to this notice, except that designated as trade secret and protected by section 15 of the Occupational Safety and Health Act, or personal identifying information contained in medical case reports or data, will be available for public examination and copying at the above address.

Dated: May, 14, 1990.

[Announcement Number 021]

National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health; Grants for Education ProgramsIntroduction

The National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health (NIOSH), Centers for Disease Control (CDC), announces the availability of funds in Fiscal Year 1990 for training grants in occupational safety and health.

Authority

This program is authorized under section 21(a)(1) of the Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970 (29 U.S.C. 670(a)(1)). Regulations applicable to this program are in 42 CFR part 86, "Grants for Education Programs in Occupational Safety and Health."

Objectives

The objective of this grant program is to award funds to eligible institutions or agencies to assist in providing an adequate supply of qualified professional and para-professional occupational safety and health personnel to carry out the purposes of the Act.

Eligible Applicants

Any public or private educational or training agency or institution located in a State, the District of Columbia, or U.S. Territory is eligible to apply for a grant.

Availability of Funds and Recipient Activities

Funds in the total amount of approximately $10,961,000 will be available in Fiscal Year 1990.

Approximately $9,114,000 of the total funds available will be utilized as follows:

1. To award approximately 14 non-competing continuation Educational Resource Center (ERC) training grants ranging from approximately $400,000 to $800,000 with the average award being approximately $600,000 (for specific activities refer to Federal Register Announcement, 51 FR 32963, September 17, 1986); no new ERC awards will be made in Fiscal Year 1990;
2. To award approximately 27 competing and non-competing continuation and new long-term training project grants ranging from approximately $10,000 to $500,000, with the average award being $60,000, to support academic programs in the fields of industrial hygiene, occupational health nursing, occupational/industrial medicine, and occupational safety (for specific activities refer to Federal Register Announcement, 52 FR 3172, February 2, 1987); and

3. To conduct the peer review and evaluations of all new, competing continuation, and supplemental applications received.

Awards will be made for a 1- to 5-year project period with an annual budget period. Funding estimates may vary and are subject to change. Non-competing continuation awards within the approved project periods will be made on the basis of satisfactory progress and the availability of funds.

In addition, $1,100,000 of the total funds available will be awarded to ERCs to support research training programs (for specific activities refer to Federal Register Announcement, 51 FR 32963, September 17, 1986). Program support is available for faculty and staff, salaries, trainee costs, and other costs to prepare professionals for research and teaching careers in the primary occupational safety and health disciplines.

Approximately $500,000 of the total funds available will be awarded to ERCs to support the development and presentation of continuing education and short courses for professionals engaged in the management of hazardous substances. These funds were provided to NIOSH through an Interagency Agreement with the National Institute for Environmental Health Sciences as authorized by section 209(b) of the Superfund Amendments and Reauthorization Act (SARA) of 1986 (100 Stat. 1708-1710). The hazardous substance training funds are being used to supplement previous hazardous substance continuing education grant support provided to the ERC's in FY 1984 and 1985 under the authority of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act (CERCLA) of 1980 for the ERC continuing education program (for specific activities refer to the Federal Register Announcement, 51 FR 32963, September 17, 1986). Program support is available for faculty and staff salaries, and other costs to provide occupational safety and health training to practicing professionals in State and local health and environmental agencies and other professional personnel engaged in the evaluation, management, and handling of hazardous substances. The policies regarding project periods also apply to these activities.

Approximately $247,000 of the total funds available will be awarded to ERCs to support the development of specialized educational programs in agricultural safety and health within the existing core disciplines of industrial hygiene, occupational medicine, occupational health nursing, and occupational safety (for specific activities refer to Federal Register Announcement, 51 FR 32963, September 17, 1986). Program support is available for faculty and staff salaries, trainee costs, and other costs to educate professionals in agricultural safety and health.

Review and Evaluation Criteria

In reviewing ERC grant applications, consideration will be given to:

1. Needs assessment directed to the overall contribution of the training program toward meeting the job market, especially within the applicant's region, for qualified personnel to carry out the purposes of the Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970. The needs assessment should consider the regional requirements for outreach, continuing education, information dissemination and special industrial or community training needs that may be peculiar to the region.
2. Plan to satisfy the regional needs for training in the areas outlined by the application, including projected enrollment, recruitment and current workforce populations. The need for supporting students in allied disciplines must be specifically justified in terms of user community requirements.
3. The extent to which arrangements for day-to-day management, allocation of funds and cooperative arrangements are designed to effectively achieve Characteristics of an Educational Resource Center (Federal Register Announcement, 51 FR 32963, September 17, 1986).
4. The extent to which curriculum and design includes formalized training objectives, minimal course content to achieve certificate or degree, course descriptions, course sequence, additional related courses open to occupational safety and health students, time devoted to lecture, laboratory and field experience, and the nature of specific field and clinical experiences including their relationships with didactic programs in the educational process.
5. Academic training including the number of full-time and part-time students and graduates for each core program, the placement of graduates, employment history, and their current location by type of institution (academic, industry, labor, etc.). Previous continuing education training in each discipline and outreach activity and assistance to groups within the ERC program.

6. Methods in use or proposed for evaluating the effectiveness of training and services including the use of placement services and feedback mechanisms from graduates as well as employers, critiques from continuing education courses, and reports from consultations and cooperative activities with other universities, professional associations, and other outside agencies.

7. The competence, experience and training of the Center Director, the Deputy Center Director, the Program Directors and other professional staff in relation to the type and scope of training and education involved.

8. Institutional commitment to Center goals.

9. Academic and physical environment in which the training will be conducted, including access to appropriate occupational settings.

10. Appropriateness of the budget required to support each academic component of the ERC program, including a separate budget for the academic staff's time and effort in continuing education and outreach.

11. Evidence of a plan describing the research and research training the Center proposes. This shall include goals, elements of the program, research faculty and amount of effort, support faculty, facilities and equipment available and needed, and methods for implementing and evaluating the program.

12. Evidence of success in attaining outside support to supplement the ERC grant funds including other federal grants, support from states and other public agencies, and support from the private sector including grants from foundations and corporate endowments, chairs, and gifts.

In reviewing long-term training project grant applications, consideration will be given to:

1. The need for training in the program area outlined by the application. This should include documentation of ability and a plan for student recruitment, projected enrollment, job opportunities, regional/national need both in quality and quantity, and similar programs, if any within the geographic area.

2. The potential contribution of the project toward meeting the needs for graduate or specialized training in occupational safety and health.

3. Curriculum content and design which should include formalized program objectives, minimal course content to achieve certificate or degree, course sequence, related courses open to students, time devoted to lecture, laboratory and field experience, nature and the interrelationship of these educational approaches.

4. Previous records of training in this or related areas, including placement of graduates.

5. Methods proposed to evaluate effectiveness of the training.

6. The degree of institutional commitment: is grant support necessary for program initiation or continuation? Will support gradually be assumed? Is there related instruction that will go on with or without the grant?

7. Adequacy of facilities (classroom, laboratories, library services, books, and journal holdings relevant to the program, and access to appropriate occupational settings).

8. The competence, experience, training, time commitment to the program and availability of faculty to advise students; faculty/student ratio; and teaching loads of the program director and teaching faculty in relation to the type and scope of training involved.

9. Admission Requirements: Student selection standards and procedures, student performance standards and student counseling services.

10. Advisory Committee (if established): Membership, industries and labor groups represented; how often they meet; who they advise, role in designing curriculum and establishing program need.

Funding Allocation Criteria

For Educational Resource Center grants the following criteria will be considered in determining funding allocations:

1. Academic core programs.

a. Budget to support programs primarily for personnel and other personnel-related costs. Advanced (doctoral and post-doctoral) and specialty (master's) programs will be considered.

b. Budget to support programs based on program quality and need. Factors considered include faculty commitment/breadth/faculty reputation/strength, national/regional manpower needs, unique program contribution, interdisciplinary interaction, and technical merit.

c. Budget to support students based on the program level and the number of students supported.

2. Center administration.

Budget to support Center administration to assure coordination and promotion of academic programs.

3. Continuing education/outreach program.

Budget to support outreach and continuing education activities to prepare, distribute, and conduct short courses, seminars, and workshops.

4. Research training programs.

Budget to support research training programs to establish a research base within the core disciplines and for the training of researchers in occupational safety and health.

5. Hazardous substance training programs.

Budget to support the development and presentation of continuing education courses for professionals engaged in the management of hazardous substances.

6. Agricultural safety and health academic programs.

Budget to support the development of specialized academic programs in agricultural safety and health within existing academic core disciplines.

For Training Project grants the following factors will be considered in determining funding allocations:

1. Academic core programs.

a. Budget to support programs primarily for personnel and other personnel-related costs. Advanced (doctoral and post-doctoral), specialty (master's), and baccalaureate/associate programs will be considered.

b. Budget to support programs based on program quality and need. Factors considered include faculty commitment/breadth/faculty reputation/strength, national/regional manpower needs, unique program contribution, interdisciplinary interaction, and technical merit.

c. Budget to support students based on the program level and the number of students supported.

Advisory Council; Meeting

In accordance with section 10(a)(2) of the Federal Advisory Committee Act (Public Law 92-463), announcement is made of the following National Advisory bodies scheduled to meet during the month of June 1990:

Name: Subcommittee on Physician Manpower of the Council on Graduate Medical Education.

Time: June 18, 1990, 10 a.m.-5 p.m.

Place: Parklawn Conference Center, Conference room C, Parklawn Building, 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, Maryland 20857.

Open for entire meeting.

Purpose: The subcommittee reviews and analyzes currently applicable studies of under and oversupply of physician manpower giving special attention to number and distribution of specialists, primary care physicians and residents. It also is concerned with studies and recommendations regarding the number of undergraduate medical students as well as the need for improving physician manpower data.

Agenda: Briefing of contractor activities on project to reexamine the adequacy of physician personnel supply made in 1980 by GMENAC for six physician specialties. Discussion of selected issue papers to be prepared on physician manpower. In addition, the Subcommittee will hold a panel discussion on physician manpower implications of important State initiatives in health care system reform.

Anyone requiring information regarding the subject Subcommittee should contact Jerald M. Katzoff, Subcommittee Principal Staff Liaison, Division of Medicine, Bureau of Health Professions, room 4C-18, Parklawn Building, 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, Maryland 20857 Telephone (301) 443-6326.

Agency Forms Submitted to the Office of Management and Budget for Clearance

The following request has been submitted to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for clearance in compliance with the Paperwork Reduction Act (44 U.S.C. chapter 35).

Expedited review by OMB has been requested as described below.

Call PHS Reports Clearance Officer on 202-245-2100 for a copy of the package.

Application Forms for National Institutes of Health AIDS Research Loan Repayment Program—NEW—This submission is for approval of application forms and instructions for implementation of the National Institutes of Health (NIH) AIDS Research Loan Repayment Program (LRP). The NIH AIDS Research LRP, authorized in section 487A of the Public Health Service Act (42 USC 288-1), seeks to identify qualified health professionals who have a substantial amount of educational loans relative to income and to encourage them to engage in research as employees of NIH in AIDS research.

Respondents: Individuals or households, businesses or other for-profit, Federal agencies or employees.

	Number of respond- ents	Number of hours per response	Number of re- sponses per respond- ent
Applicant.....	50	9.4167	1
Lender/State other entity.....	60	.154	6

Estimated Annual Burden, 526 hours.

Additional Information: It is essential to reach AIDS researchers who plan to commence employment through the Medical Staff Fellowship (MSF) Program at NIH. Such researchers, who enter the MSF as clinical or research associates, are due to start employment at the NIH in July 1990. Many of those researchers, having knowledge of the LRP since its legislative enactment in 1988, accepted offers to join the NIH in anticipation of their acceptance to the AIDS Research LRP. However, some of these researchers have advised NIH that they will accept offers from the private sector if the AIDS LRP is not implemented in July.

The probable loss of these researchers will have a deleterious effect on the AIDS research efforts of NIH. The current NIH AIDS effort encompasses work on the etiological agent, pathogenesis, therapeutics, vaccine development, and the epidemiology and natural history of HIV infection. The inability to successfully recruit AIDS researchers into the MSF Program and offer participation in the LRP will impact negatively upon AIDS research efforts at NIH. NIH believes that the latest it can reach these researchers for successful implementation of the program is June 1990. It is therefore, critical that they receive OMB approval of the LRP application forms by May 24 to allow time for printing and mailing of the forms, completion by the applicant, review of the applicant's qualifications and scientific merit of the proposed AIDS research assignment, and verification of qualified educational debt. OMB has been requested to review and approve the application forms and instructions on an expedited basis by no later than May 24. In keeping with the requirements for expedited review, we are publishing the application forms and instructions in their entirety.

OMB Desk Officer: Angela Antonelli.

Because of the time frame in which OMB has been asked to act on this submission, any comments and recommendations for the proposed information collection should be provided directly to the OMB Desk Officer designated above by telephone at (202) 395-7316 or by express mail at the following address: Human Resources and Housing Branch, New Executive Office Building, Room 3002, Washington, DC 20503.

Dated: May 16, 1990.

ITEM

1a. PROFESSIONAL DEGREE

Enter all post baccalaureate degrees (i.e., M.D., Ph.D., MPH).

4a. SERVICE OBLIGATION

Enter yes or no as to whether you owe an existing service obligation to a Federal, State, or other entity. Examples of such service obligations are the following:

- Physicians Shortage Area Scholarship Program
- Public Health Scholarship Program
- National Health Service Corps Scholarship Program
- Armed Forces (Army, Navy, or Air Force) Health Professions Scholarship Programs
- Indian Health Service Scholarship Program

Individuals with obligations under any of these programs (including monetary penalties resulting from failure to serve as required) are not eligible for the NIH AIDS Research Loan Repayment Program (LRP) until these obligations are satisfied. Individuals may be eligible for LRP participation if their service obligation has been deferred by the Federal, State or other entity for the period of their service obligation to the LRP. NIH Epidemiology Staff Fellows, who incur a service obligation resulting from NIH sponsorship of their training, are exempt from this disqualification.

No loan will be repaid under the NIH AIDS LRP which will have the effect of eliminating any previous service obligation, or which conflicts with an existing service obligation.

4b. NAME OF PROGRAM

If you have a service obligation with a Federal, State, or other entity, identify the name of the program.

4d. CONTACT PERSON

Enter the name of the program official or contact person who can confirm the nature of your obligation.

4e. TELEPHONE NUMBER

Enter the telephone number, including area code, for the contact person entered in 4d.

4f. TERMS OF OBLIGATION

Indicate the terms of the service obligation (i.e. the number of years and the date service is to commence).

4h. DATE OF SERVICE SATISFACTION

If you answered "no" to 4g, please enter the date when you will satisfy your obligation, or the date your deferment ends, if applicable.

5. START DATE

Indicate when you will be able to start working at the NIH, or the actual date of entry (DOE) stated in your offer of employment from the Personnel Office. If you have received an offer of employment, please attach it.

6. TAX REIMBURSEMENT

Enter yes or no as to whether you want reimbursement for a portion of the potential tax liability which may result from loan repayments received under the LRP. If you enter yes, NIH will make a payment, on a yearly basis directly to your IRS account. The rate of reimbursement may vary from year to year. It is anticipated that during FY 1990 tax reimbursements may be made at the rate of 20% of the total annual loan repayments made on the participant's behalf.

The Privacy Act of 1974 (5 USC 552a) requires that a Federal agency provide the following notification to each individual whom it asks to supply information. This information is contained in the system of records of the Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) numbered 09-15-0057, entitled Public Health Service (PHS) and National Health Service Corps (NHSC) Health Care Provider Records System, HHS/HRSA/BHCDA, as published in the Federal Register, June 8, 1987, altered and republished in the Federal Register on November 17, 1989. This system of records is being amended to include the NIH AIDS Research LRP. The altered systems notice will be republished in the Federal Register.

- o The authority for collecting the requested information is contained in Sections 487A and 3388 of the PHS Act (42 USC 2541) and Public Law 100-607, and the Debt Collection Act of 1982 (5 USC 5514 Note).
- o The principal purpose of which the information you furnish will be used to determine your eligibility for loan repayment under Section 487A of the PHS Act, including verification of the existence and purpose of your educational loan(s), and to determine the amount(s) which are eligible for repayment under the NIH AIDS Research LRP.
- o While disclosure of this information is not mandatory, you must provide the information requested in order to obtain loan repayment benefits authorized by Section 487A of the PHS Act.
- o The information you provide will be made available to Federal employees responsible for administering the NIH AIDS Research LRP for the purpose of determining your eligibility for loan repayment, as described above.
- o The information you provide will not be disclosed without your consent to anyone outside of the DHHS in a manner that identifies you, except that:
 - o The loan information you provide will be disclosed to the lender(s) and or their authorized collection agents for the purpose of confirming the purpose of your loan(s), and the repayment status of your loan(s), including whether your loan(s) repayment are current in their repayment status, and
 - o Any information you provide may be disclosed to the Department of Justice in connection with potential or actual criminal prosecution or civil litigation arising out of the application you submit for loan repayment benefits.

 DISCLOSURE OF YOUR SOCIAL SECURITY ACCOUNT NUMBER
 UNDER PUBLIC LAW 93-579, SECTION 7(b), PRIVACY ACT OF 1974.

- o Disclosure of your social security number (SSN) is required for participation in the LRP. This disclosure is required, as provided in Section 4 of the Debt Collection Act of 1982 (26 USC 6103 note).
- o Disclosure of your SSN is required for purposes of verifying the financial information provided in your LRP application. Your SSN will be given to the Department of the Treasury (Treasury) for purposes of disbursing Federal funds in connection with the LRP benefit. Your SSN will be used for identification with the records of the Treasury and the DHHS in the event of the loss and or theft of repayment checks or other difficulties arising from this transaction.

Your SSN will be disclosed to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) when making partial tax payments to the IRS for the benefits you receive under the LRP. The SSN will be disclosed to the IRS to obtain a current mailing address if you default on your service obligation, and to other Federal agencies, commercial credit bureaus and or collection agencies for the purpose of offset or other means of collection of delinquent debts.

Dear Sir/Madam:

is a candidate for the National Institutes of Health (NIH) Loan Repayment Program (LRP) for AIDS researchers and has authorized our office, as agent for NIH, to verify his/her outstanding educational loan(s). In return for conducting AIDS research as an employee of the NIH, the LRP provides participants' lenders quarterly payments on the portion of the participants' educational loans which qualify for repayment under the LRP guidelines. Qualified educational loans include loans for the following expenses:

- a. Undergraduate, graduate, and health professional school tuition expenses.
- b. Other reasonable educational expenses required by the school(s) attended, including fees, books, supplies, educational equipment and materials, and laboratory expenses
- c. Reasonable living expenses, including the cost of room and board, and other reasonable living expenses as determined by the Secretary, Department of Health and Human Services.

Please verify the information on the enclosed Loan Data/Verification form, Form NIH 2674-2 Revised 4/90, and return it in the enclosed self-addressed, postage-paid envelope. If appropriate, please correct any information in Section A, in addition to providing your certification in Section B of the form.

While provision of this information is voluntary, it is needed in order to determine the eligibility of loan(s) issued by you for inclusion in the repayment plan of your borrower. Department of Health and Human Services, Public Health Service, National Institutes of Health

AIDS Research Loan Repayment Program Contract

Section 487A of the Public Health Services Act ("Act") authorizes the Secretary of Health and Human Services ("Secretary") to repay a sizeable portion of the health professionals educational loans of applicants selected to be participants in the National Institutes of Health AIDS Research Loan Repayment Program ("Loan Repayment Program"). In return for these loan payments, applicants must agree to conduct, as employees of the National Institutes of Health (NIH), research with respect to Acquired Immunodeficiency Syndrome in a manner and degree determined by the Secretary for a minimum two year period of obligated service, in accordance with the service provisions of the National Health Service Corp Loan Repayment Program established in subpart III of part D of title III of the Public Service Act.

Section 338B(b)(4) of the Act requires applicants to submit a signed contract which states the Terms and Conditions of participation in the Loan Repayment Program with their applications. The Secretary shall sign only those contracts submitted by applicants who are selected for participation.

The Terms and Conditions of participating in the Loan Repayment Program are set forth below:

Section A — Obligations of the Secretary

Subject to the availability of funds appropriated by the Congress of the United States for the Loan Repayment Program and the National Institutes of Health, the Secretary agrees to:

1. Pay, in the amount provided in paragraph 2 of this section, the undersigned applicant's qualifying educational loans. Qualifying health professionals loans consist of the principal, interest and related expenses (such as the required insurance premium on the unpaid balances of some loans) of qualified Government (Federal, State and Local) and Commercial educational loans obtained by the applicant for the following expenses:
 - a. Enrollment in undergraduate, graduate, and health professional school tuition expenses.
 - b. Other reasonable educational expenses required by the school(s) attended, including fees, books, supplies, educational equipment and materials, and laboratory expenses.
 - c. Reasonable living expenses, including the cost of room and board, and other reasonable living expenses as determined by the Secretary.
2. To qualify for loan repayment, participants must have educational debt in excess of 20% of their annual NIH basic pay or stipend. NIH will not repay loan amounts that are less than this amount, which is considered the "qualifying debt threshold." The qualifying debt threshold must be paid by the participants to their lender(s).

NIH will repay the remaining educational debt ("repayable debt") as follows:

- a. At the rate of one-third of the repayable debt for the first year of qualified service, up to $20,000.00 maximum. Payments are to be made on a delayed quarterly schedule so that time is served prior to payment being made.
 - b. At the rate of one-third of the repayable debt for the second year of qualified service, up to a $20,000.00 maximum.
 - c. At the rate on one-third of the repayable debt for the third year of qualified service, up to $20,000.00 maximum, if a continuation contract is entered into.
3. Payment made by NIH to lenders which represents taxable income, will be reported annually to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) by the Secretary, and may result in an increase in an applicant's Federal, State and Local tax liability. If requested by an applicant, NIH will pay a reasonable amount to reimburse participants for this tax liability. NIH will make this payment directly to the participant's IRS account. The rate of tax reimbursement may vary from year to year. In the fiscal year this contract is entered into the tax reimbursement will be made at the rate of ____% of the total annual loan repayment made by NIH on the participant's behalf.
4. Payment of qualifying educational loans will be made directly to the lender(s). If there is more than one outstanding qualifying educational loan, the Secretary will repay the loans in the following order: (a) HEAL loans; (b) Other loans from the Federal government; (c) Other loans; unless the Secretary determines significant savings would result from paying loans in a different order of priority.

Section B — Obligations of the Participant

1. The applicant agrees to:
 - a. To provide a description of each of his or her outstanding qualified educational loans and supporting documentation.
 - b. Serve his or her period of obligated service by conducting research, as an employee of the NIH, primarily with respect to acquired immunodeficiency syndrome, as defined by the Secretary.
 - c. Serve in accordance with paragraph b. of this section for a minimum of 2 years. The applicant must serve a minimum of two years and may apply for consideration of continuation contracts beyond 2 years.

- d. Comply with the provisions of Title 42, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 68, when adopted. Should any provision of Part 68 be inconsistent with this contract, the regulatory provision will be controlling.

Section C — Breach of Written Loan Repayment Contract

1. In accordance with 42 USC 288-1 and 42 USC 254o, which addresses enforcement of the National Health Service Corps Program and will be regarded as equally applicable to the NIH AIDS Research Loan Repayment Program, any participant who fails to complete the minimum two year service obligation required under the initial contract will be considered to have breached the contract and will be subject to assessment of monetary damages and penalties as specified in Section 3 below.

- a. Terminations for cause or for the convenience of the government will not be considered a breach of contract, and monetary damages and penalties will not be assessed.

- b. Occasionally, a participant's assignment may evolve and change so that a determination is reached that he/she is no longer "primarily" engaged in AIDS research. Similarly, the research needs and priorities of the ICD and/or NIH may change, so that a determination is made that the scientist's skills may be better utilized in a non-AIDS research assignment. Under these circumstances, the following will apply:

1. Since no authority exists for the Secretary to make repayments on behalf of scientist's who are not primarily engaged in AIDS research, loan repayments will cease as of the date such determination is made.

2. Normally, job changes of this nature will not be considered a breach of contract on the part of either the Secretary or the employee. Based on the recommendation of the Secretary the employee will be released from the remainder of his/her service obligation without assessment of damages or monetary penalties. Employees will be permitted to retain the benefit of all loan repayments made or owed by NIH on their behalf up to the date of the contract release.

2. Participants who sign a continuation contract for a third or subsequent year, and who fail to complete the one year period specified, will not be subject to collection action or assessed monetary damages or penalties.

3. Penalties for Failing to Complete the Two Year Service Obligation

- a. In accordance with the statute, the Secretary will recover the following from participants who fail to complete the minimum two year service obligation required under the initial contract:

1. For participants who leave during the first year of the contract:

- amounts already paid by NIH on behalf of the participant; plus
- $1,000 multiplied by the number of months of the original obligation (i.e., $$1,000 \times 24 = $24,000$)

2. For participants who leave during the second year of the contract:

- amounts already paid by NIH on behalf of the participant; plus
- $1,000 for each month unserved

- b. Any amount which the Secretary is entitled to recover due to the breach of contract must be paid within 1 year from date of the breach, unless a longer period is specifically authorized by the Secretary. Collection agencies may be utilized when payment of damages is delinquent by more than 3 months, and appropriate credit agencies may be notified when payment of damages in excess of $100 is delinquent by more than 60 days.

- c. Any obligation of the participant for payment of damages may be released by a discharge in bankruptcy under title 11 of the United States Code only if such discharge is granted after the expiration of the five-year period beginning on the first date that payment of such damages is required, and only if the bankruptcy court finds that nondischarge of the obligation would be unconscionable.

Section D — Cancellation, Suspension and Waiver of Obligation

1. Any service or payment obligation incurred by the applicant under this contract will be canceled upon the applicant's death.

2. The Secretary may waive or suspend the applicant's service or payment obligation incurred under this contract if:

- a. Compliance by the applicant with the terms and conditions of this contract is impossible or would involve extreme hardship, and

- b. Enforcement of such obligation would be unconscionable.

The Secretary or his/her authorized representative must sign this contract before it becomes effective.

Dear _____

Dr. _____ is a candidate for the National Institutes of Health (NIH) AIDS Research Loan Repayment Program (LRP).

Candidates for the LRP must agree to engage in AIDS research, as an employee of the NIH, for two years in exchange for loan repayment benefits.

An individual who owes a Federal, State or other obligation for health professional service is ineligible for the LRP, unless such obligation will be completely satisfied prior to the beginning of service under the LRP, or has been granted deferment by the Federal Government, State or other entity for the period of their service obligation to the LRP.

Dr. _____ has advised the LRP office of the following:

_____ Service obligation satisfied as of _____.

_____ Service obligation deferred until _____.

To determine the eligibility of this candidate for the LRP we require verification of this information. Please complete the enclosed verification form and return it in the enclosed self-addressed, postage paid envelope. You may also return this verification form via facsimile number (301) 480-5481.

DEPARTMENT OF HOUSING AND URBAN DEVELOPMENT

Office of the Assistant Secretary for Community Planning and Development

[Docket No. N-90-1917; FR-2606-N-72]

Federal Property Suitable as Facilities to Assist the Homeless

AGENCY: Office of the Assistant Secretary for Community Planning and Development, HUD.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: This Notice identifies unutilized and underutilized Federal property determined by HUD to be suitable for possible use for facilities to assist the homeless.

EFFECTIVE DATE: May 18, 1990.

ADDRESSES: For further information, contact James Forsberg, room 7262, Department of Housing and Urban Development, 451 Seventh Street SW., Washington, DC 20410; telephone (202) 755-6300; TDD number for the hearing- and speech-impaired (202) 755-5965. (These telephone numbers are not toll-free.)

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In accordance with the December 12, 1988 Court Order in National Coalition for the Homeless v. Veterans Administration, No. 88-2503-OG (D.D.C.), HUD is publishing this Notice to identify Federal buildings and real property that HUD has determined are suitable for use for facilities to assist the homeless. The properties were identified from information provided to HUD by Federal landholding agencies regarding unutilized and underutilized buildings and real property controlled by such agencies or by GSA regarding its inventory of excess or surplus Federal property.

The Order requires HUD to take certain steps to implement section 501 of the Stewart B. McKinney Homeless Assistance Act (42 U.S.C. 11411), which sets out a process by which unutilized or underutilized Federal properties may be made available to the homeless. Under section 501(a), HUD is to collect information from Federal landholding agencies about such properties and then to determine, under criteria developed in consultation with the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) and the Administrator of General Services (GSA), which of those properties are suitable for facilities to assist the homeless. The Order requires HUD to publish, on a weekly basis, a Notice in the Federal Register identifying the properties determined as suitable.

The properties identified in this Notice may ultimately be available for use by the homeless, but they are first subject to review by the landholding agencies pursuant to the court's Memorandum of December 14, 1988 and section 501(b) of the McKinney Act. Section 501(b) requires HUD to notify each Federal agency about any property of such agency that has been identified as suitable. Within 30 days from receipt of such notice from HUD, the agency must transmit to HUD: (1) Its intention to declare the property excess to the agency's need or to make the property available on an interim basis for use as facilities to assist the homeless; or (2) a statement of the reasons that the property cannot be declared excess or made available on an interim basis for use as facilities to assist the homeless.

First, if the landholding agency decides that the property cannot be declared excess or made available to the homeless for use on an interim basis the property will no longer be available.

Second, if the landholding agency declares the property excess to the agency's need, that property may, if subsequently accepted as excess by GSA, be made available for use by the homeless in accordance with applicable law and the December 12, 1988 Order and December 14, 1988 Memorandum, subject to screening for other Federal use.

Homeless assistance providers interested in any property identified as suitable in this Notice should send a written expression of interest to HHS, addressed to Judy Breitman, Division of Health Facilities Planning, U.S. Public Health Service, HHS, room 17A-10, 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, MD 20857; (301) 443-2265. (This is not a toll-free number.) HHS will mail to the interested provider an application packet, which will include instructions for completing the application. In order to maximize the opportunity to utilize a suitable property, providers should submit such written expressions of interest within 30 days from the date of this Notice. For complete details concerning the timing and processing of applications, the reader is encouraged to refer to HUD's Federal Register Notice on June 23, 1989 (54 FR 26421), as corrected on July 3, 1989 (54 FR 27975).

For more information regarding particular properties identified in this Notice (i.e., acreage, floor plan, existing sanitary facilities, exact street address), providers should contact the appropriate landholding agencies at the following addresses: GSA: James Folliard, Federal Property Resources Services, GSA, 18th and F Streets NW., Washington, DC 20405; (202) 535-7067; Dept. of

Agriculture: Marsha Pruitt, USDA, 14th and Independence Avenue SW., South Bldg., room 1566, Washington, DC 20250; (202) 447-3338; Dept. of Energy: Tom Knox, Facility Management Specialist, MA222, room 5B020, 1000 Independence Ave. SW., Washington, DC 20303; (202) 586-1191. Conservation of Avian Diversity in North America; Availability of Document

AGENCY: Fish and Wildlife Service, Interior.

ACTION: Notice of availability of Conservation of Avian Diversity in North America.

SUMMARY: This notice advises the public that a final document, "Conservation of Avian Diversity in North America," is available for public review. This document outlines new and continuing activities of the Service, in cooperation with other agencies and organizations, that relate to conserving migratory birds in North America. It was prepared in response to public concern about the welfare of migratory birds and to the 1988 Amendments to the Fish and Wildlife Conservation Act of 1980, 16 U.S.C. 2901 et seq. The document will be amended periodically to reflect changes in Service and cooperative efforts related to the conservation of migratory birds.

ADDRESSES: Copies of this document can be obtained by contacting the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Office of Migratory Bird Management, Mail Stop 934-ARLSQ, Washington, DC 20240 (703-358-1821). Copies are available in room 634, 4401 N. Fairfax Drive, Arlington, VA 22203.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Thomas J. Dwyer, Chief, Office of Migratory Bird Management, Mail Stop 634-ARLSQ, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Washington, DC 20240 (703-358-1714).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Federal Government has been assigned specific responsibility for the protection of migratory birds, including 778 species that are not hunted. Legislation protecting these species includes the Fish and Wildlife Conservation Act of 1980 and 1988 amendments, Migratory Bird Treaty Act of 1918, 16 U.S.C. 703 et seq., Migratory Bird Conservation Act, 16 U.S.C. 715 et seq., Migratory Bird Hunting and Conservation Stamp Act, 16 U.S.C. 718 et seq., and Federal Aid in Wildlife Restoration Act, 16 U.S.C. 669 et seq. International treaties, including the Convention on Nature Protection and Wildlife Preservation in the Western Hemisphere, the Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species of Wild Fauna and Flora, and treaties with individual countries sharing migratory bird resources with the United States, also provide for international cooperation in the protection of migratory birds, including species that are not hunted. The provisions of the laws and treaties related to migratory birds are carried out primarily by the Service.

Service actions related to migratory nongame birds were described and made available to the public for the first time in a 1988 document titled "Nongame Bird Strategies". Subsequent to publication of that document, 1988 Amendments to the Fish and Wildlife Conservation Act of 1980 placed additional requirements on the Service relative to migratory bird conservation. See 16 U.S.C. 2912. The document, "Conservation of Avian Diversity in North America," was prepared in response to the 1988 amendments and replaces "Nongame Bird Strategies". It outlines activities of the Service that are essential to fulfilling the legislated requirements of the 1988 amendments and provides a framework for cooperating with other agencies and organizations to conserve the diversity of migratory bird resources in North America. Public comments or suggestions may be submitted to the address above.

Dated: May 11, 1990.

BILLING CODE 4310-55-M

Notice of Availability of a Draft Environmental Impact Statement (DEIS) on the Proposed Endangered Species Management and Protection Plan, Naval Weapons Station-Seal Beach and Seal Beach National Wildlife Refuge, Orange County, CA

AGENCIES (Joint EIS): U.S. Department of the Interior, Fish and Wildlife Service (Lead Agency), and U.S. Department of the Navy.

ACTION: Notice of availability.

SUMMARY: This notice advises the public that the DEIS on the Proposed Endangered Species Management and Protection Plan for the Naval Weapons Station-Seal Beach and the Seal Beach National Wildlife Refuge (Seal Beach Refuge) is available for public review. Five alternative plans are being considered. Comments and suggestions are requested.

The Seal Beach Refuge provides habitat for four federally-listed endangered birds and one State-listed endangered bird. Management actions for the federally-listed endangered California least tern and light-footed clapper rail include an extensive effort to reduce predation from the non-native red fox. Key issues addressed in this DEIS are identified as the effects that implementation of the proposed action would have on (1) Endangered species and their habitats, (2) predatory mammals and other predators, (3) other wildlife and their habitats, (4) physical factors, and (5) the local community and general public.

DATES: Written comments must be received by July 17, 1990.

ADDRESSES: Questions or comments concerning this project should be sent to Mr. Charles J. Houghten, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, 2233 Watt Avenue, suite 375, Sacramento, California 95825-0509

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Two species of federally-listed endangered birds, the California least tern and the light-footed clapper rail, are entirely dependent for their survival upon salt marsh habitat. This habitat is already limited, and it has been disappearing rapidly from the coast of Southern California. These species' populations hover at precariously low levels, both throughout their very limited ranges and on the Seal Beach National Wildlife Refuge where they nest, rear young, and forage within its salt marsh environs. The 911-acre Seal Beach Refuge overlays a portion of the 5,000-acre Naval Weapons Station-Seal Beach.

The already low and fluctuating populations of the two principal endangered species on the Refuge have, within the last 15 years, experienced impacts that are largely due to predation. The predation impacts are largely attributed to non-native red foxes that since the early 1980's have moved on to Seal Beach Refuge in high numbers in the absence of previously present native coyotes.

The proposed action, which is the subject of this DEIS, is the implementation of a plan developed jointly by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service and U.S. Navy to manage and protect endangered species at the Seal Beach Refuge and Naval Weapons Station. The purpose of the proposed action is to maximize the endangered species' chances for survival both at the Refuge and throughout their ranges. The need for action stems from an immediate and serious threat to the survival of the endangered species from predation and other potential impacts at the Refuge and Station.

This DEIS provides an assessment of plan alternatives for protection and management of endangered species at the Refuge and Station. Purposes of the DEIS are to (1) Satisfy the decisions of the Federal Courts which ordered its preparation and (2) satisfy legal requirements of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (NEPA). NEPA requires Federal agencies to document the environmental effects likely to occur if a major action is implemented.

In June 1986, an Environmental Assessment (EA) and plan to control red foxes on the Station and Refuge was finalized with a Finding of No Significant Impact. In July 1986, the Animal Lover's Volunteer Association, Inc. (ALVA) brought suit against the Navy and the Fish and Wildlife Service to halt the red fox control program at the Station and Refuge. ALVA claimed that potentially significant impacts were not addressed by the EA, and that an Environmental Impact Statement (EIS) should be required prior to initiation of the red fox control effort. The case went before the U.S. District Court, which sustained the adequacy of the EA. The case was then appealed to the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals which found that the EA was inadequate, but did not halt the red fox control effort. Subsequently, the District Court ordered that an EIS be prepared.

This DEIS is being developed to help determine which management actions and techniques should be implemented at the Seal Beach National Wildlife Refuge and Naval Weapons Station-Seal Beach to ensure the protection and enhancement of the endangered California least tern, light-footed clapper rail and other endangered species. Five alternative management plans have been developed, each with the goal of protecting and managing endangered species at the Refuge and Station. Each alternative is defined by different methods or levels of management within each of the following components: (1) Management actions for endangered species, (2) monitoring and researching environmental quality, (3) public use and education, and (4) staff and funding. The five alternative management plans are defined as (A) Interim Management, (B) No Action, (C) Reduced Management, (D) Expanded Endangered Species Management, and (E) Expanded Endangered Species Management with Ecosystem Restoration.

Alternative E, the agencies' preferred alternative, is defined as expanded management for endangered species on the Refuge, along with restoration of supporting habitats. The preferred alternative is a phased transition from the interim management actions currently in place, to expanded management as funding becomes available, coordination is accomplished, and information from research and studies is acquired to implement new and expanded actions. This transition would be phased. It would begin with those actions described in Alternative A (Phase 1), and pass through intermediate actions (Phase 2) into a fully implemented expanded endangered species management program (Phase 3).

Under the preferred alternative, high quality wetlands and a restored ecosystem that maximizes production of native fish and wildlife on the Station and Refuge would be provided. This would be accomplished by establishing, as closely as possible, a self-perpetuating collection of natural habitats. Under this alternative, reintroducing coyotes and restoring supporting native shrubland habitat would be explored through research with the objective of implementing actions on the Station and Refuge which would create a more naturally balanced ecosystem supportive of endangered species. As funding and available staff permit, expanded management programs and research efforts to explore ecosystem restoration potential and feasibility would be implemented.

Individuals wishing copies of this DEIS for review should immediately contact the Navy's Public Affairs Office at the above address or phone number. Copies of the DEIS have been sent to all agencies and individuals who participated in the scoping process and to all others who have already requested copies.

Realty Action; Exchange of Federal Minerals

AGENCY: Bureau of Land Management, Interior.

ACTION: Notice of realty action on proposed land exchange.

SUMMARY: The following described federal mineral estate which is located under private surface estate within Pima County has been determined to be suitable for disposal by exchange under section 206 or conveyance under section 209 of the Federal Land Policy and Management Act of 1976, 43 U.S.C. 1716.

Gila and Salt River Meridian, Arizona

T. 19 S., R. 7 E.,

Sec. 24, W½, SE¼;

Sec. 25, NW¼.

Additional information may be obtained from the Area Manager, Phoenix Resource Area, Phoenix District Office, 2015 West Deer Valley Road, Phoenix, Arizona 85027.

Upon publication of this Notice in the Federal Register, the mineral interests described above will be segregated to the extent that they will not be open to appropriation under the public land laws, including the mining laws. The segregation shall terminate upon issuance of a document conveying such lands or upon publication in the Federal Register of a notice of termination of the segregation; or the expiration of two years from the date of publication, whichever occurs first.

For a period of forty-five (45) days from the date of publication of this Notice in the Federal Register interested parties may submit comments to the District Manager, Phoenix District Office, 2015 West Deer Valley Road, Phoenix, Arizona 85027.

Realty Action; Exchange of Public Lands in Colorado

AGENCY: Bureau of Land Management, Department of the Interior.

ACTION: Designation of public lands in Pitkin County, Colorado, as preliminarily suitable for disposal out of Federal ownership by exchange.

SUMMARY: Pursuant to sections 205, 206, 209, 320(b) and 310 of the Federal Land Policy and Management Act of 1976 (43 U.S.C. 1716), the Bureau of Land Management, Glenwood Springs Resource Area, has identified the following-described public lands as preliminarily suitable for exchange.

Sixth Principal Meridian, Colorado

T. 9 S., R. 85 W.,
 Sec. 7: Lots 18 and 17
 Sec. 14: Lot 10
 Sec. 23: Lot 6
 Sec. 28: Lot 8
 Sec. 34: Lot 18
 T. 9 S., R. 86 W.,
 Sec. 14: Lots 2, 4, and 5
 Sec. 23: Lots 1 and 4

 Sec. 25: Lot 15
 Sec. 35: Lot 1
 T. 9 S., R. 87 W.,
 Sec. 25: NW¼NE¼, N¼NW¼

The lands described above contain 350.12 acres, more or less. The publication of this notice in the Federal Register will segregate the public lands described above to the extent that they will not be subject to appropriation under the public land laws, including the mining laws and the mineral leasing laws, except for disposal by exchange. As provided by the regulations of 43 CFR 2201.1(b), any subsequently tendered application, allowance of which is discretionary, shall not be considered as filed and shall be returned to the applicant. The segregative effect will terminate upon issuance of a patent, upon publication in the Federal Register of termination of the segregation, or 2 years from the date of this publication, whichever occurs first.

Final determination on disposal will await completion of an environmental assessment. Upon completion of the environmental assessment and the land use decision, a Notice of Realty Action shall be published to specify the selected public lands and the offered private lands proposed for exchange.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Additional information concerning the lands proposed for exchange is available for review in the Glenwood Springs Resource Area Office at 50629 Highway 6 and 24, P.O. Bureau of Reclamation

Quarterly Status Tabulation of Water Service and Repayment Contract Negotiations

AGENCY: Bureau of Reclamation, Department of the Interior.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given of proposed contractual actions pending through June 1990. This notice is one of a variety of means being used to inform the public about proposed contractual actions for water service and repayment. The Bureau of Reclamation announcements of individual repayment and water service contract actions will be published in the Federal Register and in newspapers of general circulation in the areas determined by the Bureau of Reclamation to be affected by the proposed action. Announcements may be in the form of news releases, legal notices, letters, memorandums, or other forms of written material. Meetings, workshops, and/or hearings may also be used, as appropriate, to provide local publicity. The public participation requirements do not apply to proposed contracts for the sale of surplus or interim irrigation water for a term of 1 year or less. The Secretary of the Interior or the non-Federal contracting entity may invite the public to observe any contract proceedings. All public participation procedures will be coordinated with those involved in complying with the National Environmental Policy Act if the Bureau determines that the contract action may or will have "significant" environmental effects.

ADDRESSES: The identity of the approving officer, and other information pertaining to a specific contract proposal, may be obtained by calling or writing the appropriate regional office at the address and telephone number given for each region in the following supplementary information.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Dick L. Porter, Chief, Contracts & Repayment, Bureau of Reclamation, 1849 C Street NW., Washington, DC 20240; telephone (202) 208-5104, (FTS) 268-5104.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Pursuant to section 226 of the Reclamation Reform Act of 1982 (96 Stat. 1273), and to § 426.20 of the rules and regulations published in the Federal Register dated December 6, 1983, Vol. 48, page 54785, the Bureau of Reclamation will publish notice of proposed or amendatory repayment contract actions or for any contract action for the delivery of water for irrigation or other uses in newspapers of general circulation in the affected area at least 60 days prior to contract execution. And, pursuant to the "Final Revised Public Participation Procedures" for water service and repayment contract negotiations, published in the Federal Register dated February 22, 1982, Vol. 47, page 7763, a tabulation is provided below of all proposed contractual actions in each of the five Reclamation regions. Each proposed action listed is, or is expected to be, in some stage of the contract negotiation process during April, May, or June of 1990. When contract negotiations are completed, and prior to execution, each proposed contract form must be approved by the Secretary, or pursuant to delegated or redelegated authority, the Commissioner of Reclamation or one of the Regional Directors. In some instances, congressional review and approval of a report, water rate, or other terms and conditions of the contract may be involved. Individual notices of intent to negotiate, and other appropriate announcements, are made in the Federal Register for those actions found to have widespread public interest. When this is the case, the date of publication is given.

28. Lakeview Irrigation District, Shoshone Project, Wyoming: New long term water service contract for up to 15,000 acre-feet of water annually from Buffalo Bill Reservoir. Opportunity for public participation and receipt of comments on contract proposals will be facilitated by adherence to the following procedures:

(1) Only persons authorized to act on behalf of the contracting entities may negotiate the terms and conditions of a specific contract proposal.

(2) Advance notice of meetings or hearings will be furnished to those parties that have made a timely written request for such notice to the appropriate regional or project office of the Bureau of Reclamation.

(3) All written correspondence regarding proposed contracts will be made available to the general public pursuant to the terms and procedures of the Freedom of Information Act (50 Stat. 383), as amended.

(4) Written comments on proposed contract or contract action must be submitted to the appropriate Bureau of Reclamation officials at location and within the time limits set forth in the advance public notices.

(5) All written comments received and testimony presented at any public hearings will be reviewed and summarized by the appropriate regional office for use by the contract approving authority.

(6) Copies of specific proposed contracts may be obtained from the appropriate Regional Director or his designated public contact as they become available for review and comment.

(7) In the event modifications are made in the form of a proposed contract, the appropriate Regional Director shall determine whether republication of the notice and/or extension of the 60-day comment period is necessary.

Factors which shall be considered in making such a determination shall include, but are not limited to: (i) The significance of the impact(s) of the modification, and (ii) the public interest which has been expressed over the course of the negotiations. As a minimum, the Regional Director shall furnish revised contracts to all parties who requested the contract in response to the initial public notice.

BILLING CODE 4310-09-M

INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[332-273]

Certain Final Judicial Decisions Relating to Tariff Treatment

AGENCY: United States International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Request for public comment.

SUMMARY: This notice publishes proposals to change the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States (HTS) pursuant to subsection 1211(d)(2)(B) of the Omnibus Trade and Competitiveness Act of 1988 (the OTCA) and solicits comments on such proposals from other Federal agencies and the public.

EFFECTIVE DATE: May 10, 1990.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Eugene A. Rosengarden, Director, Office of Tariff Affairs and Trade Agreements (202-252-1592), Craig M. Houser (202-252-1597), or Leo A. Webb (202-252-1599).

Background

The Commission instituted investigation No. 332-273, on March 14, 1989, under section 332(g) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1332(g)), as required by subsection 1211(d)(2)(B) of the OTCA (19 U.S.C. 3011(d)(2)(B)). Notice of the institution of this investigation was published in the Federal Register of April 20, 1989 (54 FR 16011). The notice requested interested parties to advise the Commission of particular "final judicial decisions" which they believe are within the scope of this investigation and to suggest changes to the HTS which they believe are necessary or appropriate to conform the HTS to such decisions. The notice further stated that the Commission would publish the suggested changes for public comment, and would hold a hearing if deemed appropriate by the Commission.

Subsection 1211(d)(2)(B) of the OTCA requires the Commission to review the suggested changes and to "recommend those changes to the Harmonized Tariff Schedule that the Commission would have recommended if the final decisions concerned had been made before the conversion [of the TSUS] into the format of the [Harmonized System] Convention occurred". As directed by subsection 1211(d)(2)(B), the Commission will report its recommendations with respect to these suggested changes to the President, the Committee on Ways and Means of the House of Representatives, and the Committee on Finance of the Senate by no later than September 1, 1990.

Proposed Changes to the HTS:

Interested parties have suggested changes to the HTS based upon "final judicial decisions" which they believe are within the scope of this investigation. These suggestions may be grouped into two product categories: (1) Certain power supplies for ADP machines; and (2) certain chromatography and electrophoresis equipment. The changes to the HTS suggested by interested parties are set forth below.

Certain power supplies for ADP machines.—Numerous submissions request that the power supplies which were the subject of the decision in Digital Equipment Corp. v. U.S., 889 F.2d 267 (Fed. Cir. 1989), be accorded a free rate of duty in column 1-general in order to conform tariff treatment under the HTS to that decision. The column 1-general rate of duty assessed by the Customs Service under the HTS is currently 3 percent ad valorem. This merchandise is currently classified by the Customs Service as "units" of ADP machines in Heading 8471, HTS. At least one submission also argues that this merchandise should be classified as "parts" of ADP machines in Heading 8473, HTS, at a free rate of duty in column 1-general, in order to carry out U.S. obligations under the "U.S.-Japan Semiconductor Agreement" (also referred to as the "Computer Parts Agreement"). See Proclamation No. 5305 of February 21, 1985 (50 FR 7571), and USTR Notice of January 7, 1986 (51 FR 1590, January 14, 1986).

Certain chromatography and electrophoresis equipment.—Several submissions request that the chromatography and electrophoresis equipment which was the subject to numerous decisions of the Court of International Trade in 1988 and 1989, each entitled "Stipulated Judgment On Agreed Statement Of Facts", be accorded a 3.9 percent ad valorem rate of duty in column 1-general in order to conform tariff treatment under the HTS to those decisions. These submissions identified 28 such decisions, of which copies of 21 decisions were submitted to the Commission variously captioned LKB Instruments v. U.S. or Pharmacia Inc. v. U.S.; the earliest such decision is cited as Abs. C88/204 of November 1, 1988 (Court No. 87-7-00792), and the most recent is cited as Abs. C89/158 of July 27, 1989 (Court No. 85-12-01702). These decisions are based on Pharmacia Fine Chemicals, Inc. v. U.S., 9 CIT 438 (1985), and are unreported. However, abstracts of these decisions have appeared as "abstracted classification decisions" in the weekly Customs Bulletin. See, e.g., 23 Cust. Bull. No. 36 at 50-52 (September 6, 1989). Another submission argues that the Commission should include within the scope of this investigation "not only published decisions that are supported with an opinion or by findings of fact and conclusions of law, but also final judicial decisions in the form of a stipulated judgment on agreed statement of facts and other unreported final judicial decisions". (Emphasis supplied.) Acknowledgement of the receipt of such submissions in this notice does not imply any judgment by the Commission, at this time, that such decisions are: (1)

"final judicial decisions", or (2) "published" within the scope of subsection 1211(d)(2)(B) of the OTCA.

The column 1-general rate of duty assessed by the Customs Service on the chromatography equipment which is the subject of these decisions is currently 3.9 percent ad valorem under the provisions for ". . . filtering or purifying machinery and apparatus, for liquids and gases; parts thereof" in Heading 8421, HTS. Thus, it appears that no further examination need be given this request since the subject chromatography equipment is currently assessed duty at the rate requested by the interested party.

The column 1-general rate of duty assessed by the Customs Service on the electrophoresis equipment which is the subject of these decisions is currently 4.9 percent ad valorem under the provisions for "Instruments and apparatus for physical or chemical analysis [and] parts and accessories thereof" in Heading 9027. We shall continue to examine this request.

Written Submissions:

Interested parties (including other Federal agencies) are invited to submit written statements concerning these proposed changes to the HTS. To be assured of consideration by the Commission, written statements must be received by the close of business on the day that is 30 days after the date of publication of this notice in the Federal Register. Commercial or financial information which a party desires the Commission to treat as confidential must be submitted on separate sheets of paper, each clearly marked "Confidential Business Information" at the top. All submissions requesting confidential treatment must conform with the requirements of § 201.6 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (19 CFR 201.6). All written submissions, except for confidential business information, will be made available for inspection by interested parties. All submissions should be addressed to the Secretary, United States International Trade Commission, 500 E St. SW., Washington, DC 20436.

Hearing-impaired persons are advised that information on this matter can be obtained by contacting our TDD terminal on 202-252-1809.

By order of the Commission.

Issued: May 11, 1990.

Secretary.

Illiana Railroad Service, Inc.— Acquisition and Operation Exemption—Consolidated Rail Corp.

Illiana Railroad Service, Inc. (Illiana), a noncarrier, has filed a notice of exemption to acquire and operate approximately 20.9 miles of rail line owned by Consolidated Rail Corporation (Conrail), extending from a point 2,400 feet south of Indiana Street, near Swanington, IN (near former Conrail milepost 198.50), to a point near Old U.S. Hwy. 24, near Sheldon, IL (near Conrail milepost 219.40). Illiana will also acquire incidental overhead trackage rights at Sheff, IN. Illiana plans to enter into an operating agreement with Kankakee, Beaverville & Southern Railroad Company (KBS) whereby KBS will provide certain services over the line.

This transaction is related to a petition for exemption filed concurrently by F.R. Orr in Finance Docket No. 31602, F.R. Orr—Control Exemption—Kankakee, Beaverville & Southern Railroad Company and Illiana Railroad Service, Inc. That petition seeks an exemption from the requirements of 49 U.S.C. 11343 for F.R. Orr to continue in control of KBS and Illiana.

Any comments must be filed with the Commission and served on: Jill M. Hawken, Weiner, McCaffrey, Brodsky, Kaplan & Levin, P.C., Suite 800, 1350 New York Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20005.

Illiana shall retain its interest in and taken no steps to alter the historic integrity of all sites and structures on the line that are 50 years old or older until completion of the section 106 process of the National Historic Preservation Act, 16 U.S.C. 470.

This notice is filed under 49 CFR 1150.31. If the notice contains false or misleading information, the exemption is void ab initio. Petitions to revoke the exemption under 49 U.S.C. 10505(d) may be filed at any time. The filing of a petition to revoke will not automatically stay the transaction.

Decided: May 10, 1990.

[Finance Docket No. 31661]

Norfolk and Western Railway Co., Merger Exemption; Fort Wayne Union Railway Co.

Norfolk and Western Railway Company (NW) and Fort Wayne Union Railway Company (Fort Wayne) have filed a notice of exemption to merge Fort Wayne into NW, on or about May 1, 1990.

NW is a Class I rail carrier, whose lines are operated in 13 States and the Province of Ontario, Canada. Fort Wayne is a Class III rail carrier operating as a terminal freight switching railroad over 1.71 miles of track on the southeast side of Fort Wayne, IN. Its properties are located entirely in Indiana. Fort Wayne is a wholly owned subsidiary of NW as a result of a stock purchase exempted from Commission approval in Finance Docket No. 31354, Norfolk and Western Railway Company—Control Exemption—Fort Wayne Union Railway Company (not printed), served March 23, 1989.

This is a transaction within a corporate family of the type specifically exempted from prior review and approval under 49 CFR 1180.2(d) (3). It will not result in adverse changes in service levels, significant operational changes, or a change in the competitive balance with carriers outside the corporate family. The proposed transaction is intended to effect operating efficiencies.

To ensure that all employees who may be affected by the transaction are given the minimum protection afforded under 49 U.S.C. 10505(g) (2) and 49 U.S.C. 11347, the labor conditions set forth in New York Dock RY.—Control—Brooklyn Eastern Dist., 360 I.C.C. 60 (1979), are imposed.

Petitions to revoke the exemption under 49 U.S.C. 10505(d) may be filed at any time. The filing of a petition—to revoke will not stay the transaction. Pleadings must be filed with the Commission and served on: J. Gary Lane, Norfolk Southern Corporation, Three Commercial Place, Norfolk, VA 23510-2191.

Decided: May 10, 1990.

Agency Recordkeeping/Reporting Requirements Under Review by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB)

Background: The Department of Labor, in carrying out its responsibilities under the Paperwork Reduction Act (44 U.S.C. chapter 35), considers comments on the reporting and recordkeeping requirements that will affect the public.

List of recordkeeping/reporting requirements under review: As necessary, the Department of Labor will publish a list of the Agency recordkeeping/reporting requirements under review by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) since the last list was published. The list will have all entries grouped into new collections, revisions, extensions, or reinstatements. The Departmental Clearance Officer will, upon request, be able to advise members of the public of the nature of the particular submission they are interested in.

The agency of the Department issuing this recordkeeping/reporting requirements.

The title of the recordkeeping/reporting requirement.

The OMB and Agency identification numbers, if applicable.

How often the recordkeeping/reporting requirement is needed.

Who will be required to or asked to report or keep records.

Whether small businesses or organizations are affected.

An estimate of the total number of hours needed to comply with the recordkeeping/reporting requirements and the average hours per respondent.

An abstract describing the need for and uses of the information collection.

Comments and questions: Copies of the recordkeeping/reporting requirements may be obtained by calling the Departmental Clearance Officer, Paul E. Larson, telephone (202) 523-6331. Comments and questions about the items on this list should be directed to Mr. Larson, Office of Information Management, U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Avenue, NW., room N-1301, Washington, DC 20210. Comments should also be sent to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Attn: OMB Desk Officer for (BLS/DM/ESA/ETA/OLMS/MSHA/OSHA/PWBA/VETS), Office of Management and Budget, room 3208, Washington, DC 20503 (Telephone (202) 395-6880).

Any member of the public who wants to comment on a recordkeeping/reporting requirement which has been submitted to OMB should advise Mr. Larson of this intent at the earliest possible date.

BILLING CODE 4510-28-M

Employment Standards Administration, Wage and Hour Division

Minimum Wages for Federal and Federally Assisted Construction; General Wage Determination Decisions

General wage determination decisions of the Secretary of Labor are issued in accordance with applicable law and are based on the information obtained by the Department of Labor from its study of local wage conditions and data made available from other sources. They specify the basic hourly wage rates and fringe benefits which are determined to be prevailing for the described classes of laborers and mechanics employed on construction projects of a similar character and in the localities specified therein.

The determinations in these decisions of prevailing rates and fringe benefits have been made in accordance with 29 CFR part 1, by authority of the Secretary of Labor pursuant to the provisions of the Davis-Bacon Act of March 3, 1931, as amended (46 Stat. 1494, as amended, 40 U.S.C. 276a) and of other Federal statutes referred to in 29 CFR part 1, appendix, as well as such additional statutes as may from time to time be enacted containing provisions for the payment of wages determined to be prevailing by the Secretary of Labor in accordance with the Davis-Bacon Act. The prevailing rates and fringe benefits determined in these decisions shall, in accordance with the provisions of the foregoing statutes, constitute the minimum wages payable on Federal and federally assisted construction projects to laborers and mechanics of the specified classes engaged on contract work of the character and in the localities described therein.

Good cause is hereby found for not utilizing notice and public comment procedure thereon prior to the issuance of these determinations as prescribed in 5 U.S.C. 553 and not providing for delay in the effective date as prescribed in that section, because the necessity to issue current construction industry wage determinations frequently and in large volume causes procedures to be impractical and contrary to the public interest.

General wage determination decisions, and modifications and supersedeas decisions thereto, contain no expiration dates and are effective from their date of notice in the Federal Register, or on the date written notice is received by the agency, whichever is earlier. These decisions are to be used in accordance with the provisions of 29 CFR parts 1 and 5. Accordingly, the applicable decision, together with any modifications issued, must be made a part of every contract for performance of the described work within the geographic area indicated as required by an applicable Federal prevailing wage law and 29 CFR part 5. The wage rates and fringe benefits, notice of which is published herein, and which are contained in the Government Printing Office (GPO) document entitled "General Wage Determinations Issued Under The Davis-Bacon And Related Acts," shall be the minimum paid by contractors and subcontractors to laborers and mechanics.

Any person, organization, or governmental agency having an interest in the rates determined as prevailing is encouraged to submit wage rate and fringe benefit information for consideration by the Department. Further information and self-explanatory forms for the purpose of submitting this data may be obtained by writing to the U.S. Department of Labor, Employment Standards Administration, Wage and Hour Division, Division of Wage Determinations, 200 Constitution Avenue NW., room S-3014, Washington, DC 20210.

General Wage Determination Publication

General wage determinations issued under the Davis-Bacon and related Acts, including those noted above, may be found in the Government Printing Office (GPO) document entitled "General Wage Determinations Issued Under The Davis-Bacon And Related Acts". This Publication is available at each of the 50 Regional Government Depository Libraries and many of the 1,400 Government Depository Libraries across the country. Subscriptions may be purchased from: Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402, (202) 783-3238.

When ordering subscription(s), be sure to specify the State(s) of interest, since subscriptions may be ordered for any or all of the three separate volumes, arranged by State. Subscriptions include an annual edition (issued on or about January 1) which includes all current general wage determinations for the States covered by each volume. Throughout the remainder of the year, regular weekly updates will be distributed to subscribers.

Mine Safety and Health Administration

[Docket No. M-90-59-C]

Consolidation Coal Co.; Petition for Modification of Application of Mandatory Safety Standard

Consolidation Coal Company, Consol Plaza, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15241-1421 has filed a petition to modify the application of 30 CFR 77.216-5 (water, sediment or slurry impoundments and impounding structures; abandonment) to its Velva Mine (I.D. No. 32-00045) located in Ward County, North Dakota for Sediment Pond (I.D. No. 1211-ND-9-001) and Sediment Pond (I.D. No. 1211-ND-9-002). The petition is filed under section 101(c) of the Federal Mine Safety and Health Act of 1977.

A summary of the petitioner's statements follows:

1. The petition concerns the requirement that persons owning, operating or controlling an impoundment and impounding structure submit to and obtain approval of the District Manager a plan for abandonment. The plan for abandonment should be based on current prudent engineering practices which contain provisions to preclude the probability of future impoundment of water, sediment, or slurry. The plan must also provide for major slope stability, and include a schedule for the plan's implementation.

2. As an alternate method, petitioner proposes to abandon two sediment ponds at the mine, without submitting a plan for approval of the abandonment to the District Manager.

3. In support of this request, petitioner states that—

(a) All mining activity has been completed at the mine;

(b) Both impoundments have low hazard potentials and are approved as permanent impoundments by the State of North Dakota; and

(c) The original drainage basins for which the ponds were designed have been significantly reduced by reclamation efforts at the mine, resulting in water impoundments which no longer require regulation by MSHA.

4. Petitioner states that the proposed alternate method will provide the same degree of safety for the miners affected as that provided by the standard.

[Docket No. M-90-67-C]

Consolidation Coal Co.; Petition for Modification of Application of Mandatory Safety Standard

Consolidation Coal Company, Consol Plaza, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15241 has filed a petition to modify the application of 30 CFR 75.305 (weekly examinations for hazardous conditions) to its Blacksville No. 1 Mine (I.D. No. 46-01867) located in Monongalia County, West Virginia. The petition is filed under section 101(c) of the Federal Mine Safety and Health Act of 1977.

A summary of the petitioner's statements follows:

1. The petition concerns the requirement that return aircourses be examined in their entirety on a weekly basis.

2. The affected return aircourses and bleeder entries in the 3-south left and 3-south right areas of the mine, have experienced and are continuing to experience deterioration of roof and rib conditions. Restoration of these areas is nearly impossible, and would require an exorbitant amount of time and work that would be performed under extremely hazardous conditions.

3. As an alternate method, petitioner proposes that—

(a) Checkpoints would be established at specific locations where the air would be monitored for the areas not being traveled;

(b) All monitoring stations and the approaches to such stations would, at all times, be maintained in a safe condition;

(c) Tests for methane and the quantity of air would be determined weekly by a certified person at each station; and

(d) The person making such examinations and tests would place his/her initials and the date and time at each station. A record of these examinations, tests and actions taken would be recorded in a book kept on the surface and made available for inspection by interested persons.

4. Petitioner states that the proposed alternate method will provide the same degree of safety for miners affected as that provided by the statement.

Jim Walter Resources, Inc.; Petition for Modification of Application of Mandatory Safety Standard

Jim Walter Resources, Inc., P.O. Box 830079, Birmingham, Alabama 35283-0079 has filed a petition to modify the application of 30 CFR 75.1002 (location of trolley wires, trolley feeder wires, high-voltage cables and transformers) to its No. 1 Longwall, at its No. 4 Mine, (I.D. No. 01-01247) located in Jefferson County, Alabama. The petition is filed under section 101(c) of the Federal Mine Safety and Health Act of 1977.

A summary of the petitioner's statements follows:

1. The petition concerns the requirement that trolley wires and trolley feeder wires, high-voltage cables and transformers not be located inby the last open crosscut and be kept at least 150 feet from pillar workings.

2. As an alternate method, petitioner proposes to continue utilizing high-voltage (2300 v) cables at the No. 1 Longwall inby the last open crosscut. The petitioner outlines specific equipment and conditions in the petition.

3. In addition, petitioner proposes that—

(a) The cables to be used would be SHD-GC 5KV MSHA approved jacketed cables. These cables provide as safe a protection against potential for an ignition source as medium-voltage cables of the same type construction and better protection than low-voltage cables of non-shielded construction;

(b) The use of higher voltage motors results in lower current flow, thereby reducing heating of the cable;

(c) A sensitive ground fault and lockout protection circuit would be provided to detect, trip and lockout any cable with a ground fault current of 90 milliamperes. Therefore, this application of high-voltage cables is safer than that of medium-voltage cables under similar faulted conditions;

(d) All high-voltage cables supplying all prime movers located inby the last open crosscut are deenergized at any time this equipment is not in operation. This provides added protection through reduced exposure time.

(4) Petitioner states that the proposed alternate method will provide the same degree of safety for the miners affected as that provided by the standard.

BILLING CODE 4510-43-M

Occupational Safety and Health Administration

Maryland State Standards; Approval

1. Background—Part 1953 of title 29, Code of Federal Regulations, prescribes procedures under section 18 of the Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970 (hereinafter called the Act) by which the Regional Administrator for Occupational Safety and Health (hereinafter called the Regional Administrator) under a delegation of authority from the Assistant Secretary of Labor for Occupational Safety and Health (hereinafter called the Assistant Secretary) (29 CFR 1953.4), will review and approve standards promulgated pursuant to a State plan which has been approved in accordance with section 18(c) of the Act and 29 CFR part 1092. On July 5, 1973, notice was published in the Federal Register (38 FR 17834) of the approval of the Maryland State plan and the adoption of subpart O to part 1952 containing the decision.

The Maryland State Plan provides for the adoption of all Federal standards as State standards after comments and public hearing. Section 1952.210 of subpart O sets forth the State's schedule for the adoption of Federal standards. By letter dated March 26, 1990, from Commissioner Henry Koellein, Jr., Maryland Division of Labor and Industry, to Linda R. Anku, Regional Administrator, and incorporated as part of the plan, the State submitted State standards identical to: 29 CFR 1926.700, pertaining to Concrete and Masonry Construction Safety Standards, as published in the Federal Register of October 5, 1989 (54 FR 41088). This standard is contained in COMAR 09.12.31. The Maryland Occupational Safety and Health Standard was promulgated after a public hearing on February 14, 1990. This standard was effective on March 19, 1990.

2. Decision. Having reviewed the State submission in comparison with the Federal standard, it has been determined that the State standard is identical to the Federal standard and, accordingly, is approved.

3. Location of the Supplements for Inspection and Copying. A copy of the standard supplement, along with the approved plan, may be inspected and copied at the following locations during normal business hours: Office of the Regional Administrator, 3535 Market Street, Suite 2100, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19104; Office of the Commissioner of Labor and Industry, 501 St. Paul Place, Baltimore, Maryland 21202-2272; and the Office of State Programs, Occupational Safety and Health Administration, Room N-3700, Third Street and Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20210.

4. Public Participation—Under 29 CFR 1953.2(c), the Assistant Secretary may prescribe alternative procedures to expedite the review process or for other good cause which may be consistent with applicable laws. The Assistant Secretary finds that good cause exists for not publishing the supplement to the Maryland State plan as a proposed change and making the Regional Administrator's approval effective upon publication for the following reasons:

a. The standards are identical to the Federal standards which were promulgated in accordance with Federal law including meeting requirements for public participation.

b. The standards were adopted in accordance with the procedural requirements of State law and further participation would be unnecessary.

This decision is effective May 18, 1990.

(Sec. 18, Pub. L. 91-596, 84 Stat. 1608 (29 U.S.C. 667).

Signed at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, this 11th day of April 1990.

Richard Soltan,

Deputy Regional Administrator.

NUCLEAR REGULATORY COMMISSION

Documents Containing Reporting or Recordkeeping Requirements; Office of Management and Budget Review

AGENCY: Nuclear Regulatory Commission.

ACTION: Notice of the Office of Management and Budget review of information collection.

SUMMARY: The Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) has recently submitted to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for review the following proposal for the collection of information under the provisions of the Paperwork Reduction Act (44 U.S.C. chapter 35).

1. Type of submission, new, revision, or extension: Extension.

2. The title of the information collection:

10 CFR Part 74—Material Control and Accounting of Special Nuclear Material.

NUREG 1065—Acceptance Criteria for the Low Enriched Uranium Reform Amendments.

NUREG 1230—Standard Format and Content Acceptance Criteria for the Material Control and Accounting (MC&A) Reform Amendment.

3. The form number if applicable: Not applicable.

4. How often the collection is required: Submission of the material control and accounting plan and the fundamental nuclear material control plan are one-time requirements which have been completed by all current licensees. Specified inventory and material status reports are required annually or semiannually. Other reports are submitted as events occur.

5. Who will be required or asked to report: Persons licensed under 10 CFR parts 70 or 72 who possess and use certain forms and quantities of special nuclear material.

6. An estimate of the number of responses: 15.

7. An estimate of the total number of hours needed to complete the requirement or request: Approximately 54 hours and 52 minutes per response and 1,376 hours per recordkeeper annually. The total annual burden for the industry is estimated to be 13,207 hours.

8. An indication of whether Section 3504(h), Public Law 95-511 applies: Not applicable.

9. Abstract: 10 CFR part 74 establishes requirements for material control and accounting of special nuclear material and for documenting the transfer of special nuclear material. The recordkeeping and reporting requirements are designed to provide timely detection of the loss, theft or diversion of special nuclear material. The material control and accounting plans and fundamental nuclear control plans are needed to ensure that licensees have systems and procedures in place for the control and accounting of special nuclear material.

Copies of the submittal may be inspected or obtained for a fee from the NRC Public Document Room, 2120 L Street, NW. (Lower Level), Washington, DC.

Comments and questions may be directed by mail to the OMB reviewer: Ronald Minsk, Paperwork Reduction Project (3150-0123), Office of Management and Budget, Washington, DC 20503.

Comments may also be communicated by telephone at (202) 395-3084.

Licensing Support System Advisory Review Panel; Meeting

Notice is hereby given pursuant to the Federal Advisory Committee Act of October 6, 1972 (Public Law 94-463, 86 Stat. 770-776), that the Licensing Support System Advisory Review Panel (LSSARP) will hold a meeting on June 7, 1990. The meeting will convene at 9 a.m. in the Fifth Floor Hearing room, East West Towers Building (West Tower), 4350 East West Highway, Bethesda, Maryland. The Nuclear Regulatory Commission established the LSSARP to provide advice and recommendations to the Nuclear Regulatory Commission and to the Department of Energy on topics, issues, and activities related to the design, development, and operation of an electronic information management system known as the Licensing Support System (LSS). This system is being designed to contain information relevant to the Commission's high-level waste licensing proceeding. In addition to routine administrative matters, this meeting will include a discussion of a Panel working group's recommendations on elements of information to be required in headers for LSS documents.

The meeting will be open to the public. Interested persons may make oral presentations to the Panel or file written statements. Requests for oral presentations should be made to the contact person listed below as far in advance as practicable so that appropriate arrangements can be made to allow the necessary time during the meeting for oral statements.

For further information regarding this meeting, contact Marilee Rood, Office of the LSS Administrator, U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Washington, DC 20555; telephone 301-492-4003.

Dated at Rockville, Maryland, this 14th day of May 1990.

Denial of Petition for Proceeding on Adequacy of Notification and Remedy of Motor Vehicle Defect or Failure to Comply

This notice sets forth the reasons for the denial of a petition submitted to NHTSA under section 156 of the National Traffic and Motor Vehicle Safety Act of 1966 (the Act), as amended, 15 U.S.C. 1416.

Ms. Gloria Jean Stewart of Beverly Hills, California, asked the agency on January 17, 1990, to conduct a hearing to determine if General Motors Corporation met its obligations as defined in 49 CFR ch. V, § 557.3 regarding her 1983 Cadillac Eldorado vehicle and other similar vehicles. She provided a supplement to her petition in a letter dated February 22, 1990.

The petitioner stated that her vehicle was sold to her by an authorized Cadillac dealer as a new 1983 Cadillac Eldorado convertible that had been converted by Hess & Eisenhardt Company from a hardtop to a convertible. She stated that the vehicle was repaired more than 40 times for front end, alignment, electrical, and other mechanical problems and that she was told by the dealership that the front end of the vehicle needed replacement and that it was dangerous to drive.

The petitioner requested a " * * * hearing to determine whether General Motors Corporation has reasonably met its obligation to: (a) Notify owners of a failure to notify owners of a safety-related defect in the subject and like vehicles; (b) notify owners of a failure to comply with an applicable Federal motor vehicle safety standard; (c) remedy a safety-related defect in the subject and like vehicles; and (d) meet its obligation to remedy a failure to comply with applicable Federal motor vehicle safety standard."

The agency is denying the petition because it does not state any facts tending to show that the manufacturer of the vehicle in question had an obligation to provide notification and remedy for either a safety-related defect or for a failure to comply with a Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standard. Section 156 of the act presupposes an obligation to provide notification and remedy. In the absence of a basis to believe that such an obligation exists, no purpose would be served by conducting the proceeding requested in the petition.

NHTSA has the authority to conduct a proceeding under section 156 to determine whether a manufacturer has failed to meet its obligation under section 151 of the Act to determine the existence of a defect or noncompliance and to provide notification and a remedy. However, based on the agency's examination of the petition and information in its own records, there is no reason to believe that such a proceeding would uncover evidence that General Motors should have made such a determination with respect to the vehicles covered by this petition.

The agency does not generally view the front end and alignment problems alleged by petitioner as potential hazards to motor vehicle safety in the absence of evidence that those failures might pose a risk to vehicle control. Moreover, the agency may only order a manufacturer to take corrective action to remedy a defect when the defect appears in a significant number of vehicles and represents an unreasonable risk to safety. It cannot act on isolated problems or disputes between individual owners and dealers or manufacturers.

The agency has made a search of its computerized consumer complaint file for suspension and steering (which includes "alignment and mechanical") problems. It found only two complaints of suspension problems (specifically ball joint failures) among a population of 71,624 1983 model year Eldorado vehicles, with no accidents or injuries reported. There is no indication that the two vehicles had been altered to become convertibles. This low level of complaints does not warrant the expenditure of the substantial resources that would be needed to conduct an investigation to develop evidence sufficient to determine whether these vehicles contain a safety-related defect.

With respect to the issue of compliance, the petition does not indicate any safety standard that may have been violated, and there is no reason to believe that the petitioner's vehicle or other 1983 Cadillac Eldorado failed to comply with any applicable safety standards.

Although the petition does not meet the formal requirements set forth in NHTSA's regulations for petitions requesting the commencement of a defect investigation (see 49 CFR part 552), the agency has considered it under section 124 of the Act, 15 U.S.C. 1410a, because the nature of the relief sought by petitioner is essentially the same as that which could be obtained by means of such a petition. Section 124 permits interested persons to petition NHTSA to commence a proceeding to determine whether it should issue an order to a manufacturer under section 152(b) of the Act to provide notification and remedy for vehicles that contain a safety-related defect or fail to comply with Federal safety standards.

On the basis of the considerations set forth above, NHTSA has concluded that there is not a reasonable possibility that an order requiring the notification and remedy of a safety-related defect or noncompliance with a safety standard in relation to the petitioner's allegations would be issued at the conclusion of an investigation. Further commitment of resources does not appear to be warranted. Therefore, the petition has been denied.

Friday, May 18, 1989

This section of the FEDERAL REGISTER contains notices of meetings published under the "Government in the Sunshine Act" (Pub. L. 94-409) 5 U.S.C. 552b(e)(3).

FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION

Notice of Agency Meeting

Pursuant to the provisions of the "Government in the Sunshine Act" (5 U.S.C. 552b), notice is hereby given that the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation's Board of Directors will meet in open session at 2:00 p.m. on Tuesday, May 22, 1990, to consider the following matters:

Summary Agenda: No substantive discussion of the following items is anticipated. These matters will be resolved with a single vote unless a member of the Board of Directors requests that an item be moved to the discussion agenda.

Disposition of minutes of previous meetings.

Reports of actions approved by the standing committees of the Corporation and by officers of the Corporation pursuant to authority delegated by the Board of Directors.

Discussion Agenda:

Memorandum and resolution re: Statement of Policy Regarding Liability of Commonly Controlled Depository Institutions.

Review of the Corporation's financial position.

The meeting will be held in the Board Room on the sixth floor of the FDIC Building located at 550 17th Street NW., Washington, DC

Requests for further information concerning the meeting may be directed to Mr. Hoyle L. Robinson, Executive Secretary of the Corporation, at (202) 898-3813.

FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION

Notice of Agency Meeting

Pursuant to the provisions of the "Government in the Sunshine Act" (5 U.S.C. 552b), notice is hereby given that at 3:00 p.m. on May 22, 1990, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation's Board of Directors will meet in closed session, by vote of the Board of Directors, pursuant to sections 552b (c)(2), (c)(6), (c)(8), (c)(9)(A)(ii), and (c)(9)(B) of title 5, United States Code, to consider the following matters:

Summary Agenda: No substantive discussion of the following items is anticipated. These matters will be resolved with a single vote unless a member of the Board of Directors requests that an item be moved to the discussion agenda.

Recommendations with respect to the initiation, termination, or conduct of administrative enforcement proceedings (cease-and-desist proceedings, termination-of-insurance proceedings, suspension or removal proceedings, or assessment of civil money penalties) against certain insured banks or officers, directors, employees, agents or other persons participating in the conduct of the affairs thereof:

Names of persons and names and locations of banks authorized to be exempt from disclosure pursuant to the provisions of subsections (c)(6), (c)(8), and (c)(9)(A)(ii) of the "Government in the Sunshine Act" (5 U.S.C. 552b (c)(6), (c)(8), and (c)(9) (A)(ii)).

Note: Some matters falling within this category may be placed on the discussion agenda without further public notice if it becomes likely that substantive discussion of those matters will occur at the meeting.

Recommendation regarding the liquidation of a depository institution's assets acquired by the Corporation in its capacity as receiver, liquidator, or liquidating agent of those assets:

Case No. 47,556

The Bowery Savings Bank, New York City (Manhattan), New York

Discussion Agenda:

Application for Consent to Convert Deposits from the Savings Association Insurance Fund to the Bank Insurance Fund:

Trans-Pacific National Bank, San Francisco, California, for consent to convert the Savings Association Insurance Fund insured deposits of the Alameda Branch of Southern California Savings and Loan Association, A Federal Savings and Loan Association, Beverly Hills, California, to Bank Insurance Fund insured deposits upon the acquisition of the subject branch.

Personnel actions regarding appointments, promotions, administrative pay increases, reassignments, retirements, separations, removals, etc.:

Names of employees authorized to be exempt from disclosure pursuant to the provisions of subsections (c)(2) and (c)(6) of the "Government in the Sunshine Act" (5 U.S.C. 552b (c)(2) and (c)(6)).

Matters relating to the possible closing of certain insured banks:

Names and locations of banks authorized to be exempt from disclosure pursuant to the provisions of subsections (c)(8), (c)(9)(A)(ii), and (c)(9)(B) of the "Government in the Sunshine Act" (5 U.S.C. 552b (c)(8), (c)(9)(A)(ii), and (c)(9)(B)).

The meeting will be held in the Board Room on the sixth floor of the FDIC Building located at 550-17th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C.

Requests for further information concerning the meeting may be directed to Mr. Hoyle L. Robinson, Executive Secretary of the Corporation, at (202) 898-3813.

(e) * * *

(3) Emissions Screening Limits. (i) For the carcinogenic metals arsenic, cadmium, chromium, and beryllium, the sum of the ratios of the actual emission rate to the Emissions Screening Limit for all the metals shall not exceed 1.0, as determined by the following equation:

$$\sum_{i=1}^n \frac{\text{Actual Feed Rate}_i}{\text{Emissions Screening Limit}_i} < 1.0$$

where:

n = number of carcinogenic metals
Actual Emission Rate_i = the emission rate measured during the trail burn or provided in lieu of the trail burn for metal "i", in g/s.

Emissions Screening Limit_i = the limit provided in the RAG for metal "i", in g/s.

The Screening Limits are specified in the RAG (incorporated by reference in § 260.11) for the applicable effective stack height, terrain type and urban or rural land use classification.

Total chromium emission rates measured in accordance with "Test Methods for Evaluating Solid Waste; Physical/Chemical Methods," EPA Publication SW-846, as incorporated by reference in § 260.11 are to be used for this determination unless the applicant's emissions sampling and analysis procedures are capable of reliably determining hexavalent chromium emissions rates to the satisfaction of the Administrator; and

(ii) For each of the noncarcinogenic metals antimony, barium, lead, mercury, silver, and thallium, the actual emission rate shall not exceed the Emissions

Screening Limits provided in the RAG (incorporated by reference in § 260.11) for the applicable effective stack height, terrain type, and urban versus rural land use classification.

(iii) Metals emissions must be measured in accordance with the Multiple Metals Method in "Test Methods for Evaluating Solid Waste; Physical/Chemical Methods," EPA Publication SW-846, as incorporated by reference in § 260.11 and 40 CFR part 60 Reference Methods 1-5.

(4) Site-specific risk analysis. (i) For the carcinogenic metals arsenic, cadmium, chromium and beryllium, the sum of the ratios of the predicted maximum off-site annual average ground level concentration to the Risk-Specific Dose for all carcinogenic metals shall not exceed 1.0, as determined by the following equation.

$$\sum_{i=1}^n \frac{\text{Predicted Ambient Concentration}_i}{\text{Risk Specific Dose}_i} < 1.0$$

where:

Predicted Ambient Concentration = the maximum off-site annual average ground level concentration for metal "i", in ug/m³, predicted by dispersion modeling.

Risk Specific Dose_i = value provided by the RAG for metal "i", in ug/m³, at the 10⁻⁶ risk level.

Total chromium emission rates measured in accordance with "Test Methods for Evaluating Solid Waste; Physical/Chemical Methods," EPA Publication SW-846, as incorporated by reference in § 260.11 are to be used for this determination, unless the applicant's sampling and analysis procedures are capable of reliably determining hexavalent chromium emission rates to the satisfaction of the Administrator.

(ii) For each of the noncarcinogenic metals, antimony, barium, lead, mercury, silver, and thallium, the predicted maximum annual average off-site ground level concentration shall not exceed the Reference Air Concentrations provided by the RAG.

(iii) Conformance with the requirements provided by this paragraph is demonstrated by stack emissions testing in accordance with the Multiple Metals Method in "Test Methods for Evaluating Solid Waste; Physical/Chemical Methods," EPA Publication SW-846, as incorporated by reference in § 260.11 and 40 CFR part 60 Reference Methods 1-5, and dispersion modeling in accordance with EPA's "Guideline on Air Quality Models (Revised)" (see § 270.6).

(5) For facilities with more than one stack handling emissions from the burning of hazardous waste in an incinerator, boiler, or industrial furnace, aggregate emissions from all such stacks will be considered in demonstrating compliance with paragraph (d) of this section according to procedures prescribed in the RAG.

(f) Hydrogen chloride. (1) The owner and operator must comply with the total chlorine or hydrogen chloride (HCl) controls provided by paragraphs (f)(2), (f)(3), or (f)(4) of this section.

(2) Feed Rate Screening Limits. The actual feed rate of total chlorine in lb/hr shall not exceed the Feed Rate Screening Limits provided in the RAG (see § 260.11) for the applicable effective stack height and terrain type, as defined in the RAG.

(3) Emissions Screening Limits. The emission rate of HCl in g/s shall not exceed the Emissions Screening Limits provided in the RAG for the applicable effective stack height and terrain type.

Section 8 Housing Assistance Payments Program-Fair Market Rent Schedules for Use in the Existing Housing Certificate Program, Loan Management and Property Disposition Programs, Moderate Rehabilitation Program and Housing Voucher Program AGENCY: Office of the Assistant Secretary for Housing-Federal Housing Commissioner, HUD.

ACTION: Proposed notice.

SUMMARY: Section 8(c)(1) of the United States Housing Act of 1937 requires the Secretary to publish Fair Market Rents (FMRs) periodically, but not less frequently than annually, to be effective October 1 of each year. The Department's regulations at 24 CFR part 888 provide a notice and comment process for developing Fair Market Rents. Today's document proposes the Fair Market Rents for FY-1991. The proposal would amend Fair Market Rent schedules for the Section 8 Existing Housing Certificate Program (part 882, subparts A and B), including space rentals by owners of manufactured homes under the Section 8 Existing Housing Certificate Program (part 882, subpart F); the Section 8 Moderate Rehabilitation Program (part 882, subparts D and E); and Section 8 existing housing assisted under part 886, subparts A and C (Section 8 loan management and property disposition programs). In addition, FMRs are used to determine payment standard schedules in the Housing Voucher Program.

DATES: Comments are due: July 17, 1990.

ADDRESSES: Interested person are invited to submit comments to the Rules Docket Clerk, Office of General Counsel, room 10276, Department of Housing and Urban Development, 451 Seventh Street SW., Washington, DC, 20410-0500. Each comment should include the commenter's name and address and must refer to the docket number indicated in the heading of this Notice. To expedite processing, each commenter is requested to simultaneously submit a copy of its comments to the Economic and Market Analysis Staff in the appropriate HUD Field Office. A copy of each comment submitted to the Rules Docket Clerk will be available for public inspection during regular business hours at the above address.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Cecelia D. Livingston, Housing Voucher Division, Office of Elderly and Assisted Housing, telephone (202) 755-6477. For technical information on the development of schedules for specific areas or the method used for the rent calculations, contact Michael R. Allard, Economic and Market Analysis Division, Office of Economic Affairs, telephone (202) 755-5577. (These are not toll-free numbers.)

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

Section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (the Act) (42 U.S.C. 1437f) authorizes a housing assistance program to aid lower income families in renting decent, safe, and sanitary housing. Assistance payments are limited by Fair Market Rents (FMRs) (or payment standards based on FMRs in the Housing Voucher Program) established by HUD for different areas. In general, the FMR for an area is the amount that would be needed to rent privately owned, decent, safe, and sanitary rental housing of a modest (non-luxury) nature with suitable amenities.

The FMRs proposed in this Notice govern the following Section 8 Housing Assistance Payments Programs: The Section 8 Existing Housing Certificate Program under part 882 (subparts A and B), including space rentals by owners of manufactured homes (subpart F), the Moderate Rehabilitation Program under part 882 (subparts D and E), the Section 8 Housing Assistance Program for Projects with HUD-insured or HUD-held Mortgages under part 886 (subpart A), as well as for existing housing under the Section 8 Housing Assistance Program for the Disposition without Substantial Rehabilitation of HUD-owned Projects under part 886 (subpart C). In addition, FMRs are used to establish payment standards for the Housing Voucher Program.

II. Procedures for the Development of FMRs

Section 8(c) of the Act requires the Secretary of HUD to publish FMRs periodically, but not less frequently than annually. The Department's regulations provide that HUD will develop FMRs by publishing proposed FMRs for public comment, analyzing the public comment, and publishing final FMRs. (See 24 CFR 888.115.) Final FY-1991 FMRs will be published on or before October 1, 1990, as required by section 8(c)(1) of the Act.

III. Fair Market Rent Schedules

This document proposes revised Fair Market Rents, which reflect estimated rent levels as of April 1, 1991. Schedules at the end of this document list the FMR levels for Existing Housing (Schedule B) and Manufactured Home Spaces in the Section 8 Existing Housing Certificate Program (Schedule D). FMRs for the Moderate Rehabilitation Program are 120 percent of the Schedule B Existing Housing Fair Market Rents (see 24 CFR 882.408(a) and 888.113(e)(1)). The FMR for a Single Room Occupancy (SRO) unit in the Section 8 Existing Housing Certificate Program is 75 percent of the zero-bedroom FMR listed in Schedule B. The FMR for an SRO unit in the Moderate Rehabilitation program is 75 percent of the Moderate Rehabilitation FMR for zero-bedroom unit. The payment standard amount for an SRO unit in the Housing Voucher Program is 75 percent of the zero-bedroom FMR listed in Schedule B or the HUD approved community-wide exception rent.

IV. Method Used to Develop FMRs

The criteria used by HUD in developing the FMRs are: (1) The 45th percentile rent (that is, the rent below which 45 percent of the standard quality rental housing units are distributed); (2) Rents based on units occupied by recent movers (households who moved within two years before the date of the survey data used in these calculations); and (3) Exclusion from the data base of public housing units and recently completed housing (units built within two years of the survey dates). (See 24 CFR 888.113.)

In establishing the proposed FMRs, HUD uses the most accurate data available. Data used to compute the FY-1991 FMRs include the 1980 Census data, post-1980 American Housing Survey (AHS) data and reliable area specific data submitted by public commenters.

The proposed FMRs were calculated by updating last year's final FMRs one additional year to April 1, 1991 based on the most recent CPI data available on average annual changes for rents and for utilities. The FMRs have been calculated for each Primary Metropolitan Statistical Area (PMSA), Metropolitan Statistical Area (MSA), and nonmetropolitan county.

This year's proposed FMRs incorporate the results of the 1987 and 1988 metropolitan area AHSs. Based on a case-by-case analysis of these surveys, HUD is proposing to modify the base FMRs for some areas.

Ten areas have proposed FMR increases that are larger than would have resulted by applying the most recent CPI data:

Birmingham, AL MSA
Brazoria, TX PMSA
Cleveland, OH PMSA
Houston, TX PMSA
Indianapolis, IN MSA
Norfolk-Virginia Beach-Newport News, VA MSA
Seattle, WA PMSA
St. Louis, MO-IL MSA
Tacoma, WA PMSA

Four areas have proposed decreases in their FMRs:

Buffalo, NY PMSA
Oklahoma City, OK MSA
Salt Lake City-Ogden, UT MSA
San Jose, CA PMSA

The FMRs for the Denver and Boulder, CO PMSAs are being proposed for a slight reduction ($\frac{1}{2}$ percent) as a result of the continuing decline in the CPI survey for this locality. Based on the CPI data, the proposed FMRs for the State of Alaska remain unchanged, following several years of decline.

This year's proposed FMRs for manufactured home spaces were calculated by updating last year's FMRs to April 1, 1991, using the most current average annual change in the CPI residential rent data for rents exclusive of utilities.

V. Request for Comments

The Department seeks public comment on FMR levels for specific areas. Comments on FMR levels must include sufficient information (including local data and a full description of the methodology used) to justify any proposed changes. Changes may be proposed in all or any of the unit sizes on the schedule. Recommendations and supporting data must reflect the rent levels that exist within the entire market area (Metropolitan Statistical Area, Primary Metropolitan Statistical Area, or nonmetropolitan county).

During the past year, the Department has developed a FMR survey approach based on a type of Random Digit Dialing (RDD) telephone survey methodology. This survey provides a statistically reliable means for obtaining FMR estimates for areas that have a sufficient number of Section 8 units under contract to justify the individual survey cost of $15,000 to $25,000. The RDD survey technology is based on a sampling technique that makes use of computers to select a totally random sample, dial and keep track of the phone numbers, tabulate responses, and determine the reliability of the results. The RDD approach was tested in three AHS areas and yielded results that were nearly identical to the AHS rents.

PHAs that plan to use this survey technique may obtain a copy of the "PHA Guide to Conducting a Fair Market Rent (FMR) Telephone Survey" by calling HUD USER on 1-800-245-2691. This package contains information on: How to decide whether to conduct a rent survey; selecting a contractor and monitoring the contract. In addition, there are example copies of a request for bids letter and a contract package, the survey questionnaire and interviewer training manual, and a detailed explanation of the methodology. After a contract is awarded, these surveys can normally be completed within two to three months. The hardware and the timing of staff utilization require that these surveys be conducted by contractors staffed with professional statisticians experienced in this field.

Use of the RDD survey methodology is not mandated. If it is not cost feasible to undertake a professional survey (RDD or comparable alternative), locally obtained data are acceptable so long as they are statistically representative of prevailing rent levels in the FMR area. Local rent surveys must show the 45th percentile rent levels. The data must exclude units built within the last two years of the survey, should include only standard quality rental housing units, should not be drawn solely from vacant units, and should approximate the same proportion of units by structure type (for example, highrise or single family detached) and date of construction as exists in the total local inventory. Since the FMR data base uses only units occupied by recent movers, which are difficult to identify and survey, the Department will accept surveys of all units and apply a recent mover adjustment. In addition, commenters should specify the date the rent data were collected so that the Department can apply an appropriate trending factor to update these estimates to April 1, 1991.

Rent surveys that cover only two-bedroom units are acceptable if rent proposals for other size units are consistent with established HUD differentials by bedroom size, or if other pertinent data are supplied to support the proposals for other size units. When three- and four-bedroom units are surveyed, the following procedure must be used to determine appropriate FMR proposals: (1) Determine the 45th percentile rents for the three- and four-bedroom units surveyed, (2) multiply the 45th percentile three-bedroom rent by 1.087 to determine the three-bedroom FMR, and (3) multiply the four-bedroom rent by 1.077 to determine the four-bedroom FMR. The use of these factors will produce the same upward adjustments in the rent differentials by bedroom size as those applied to the rent differentials for three- and four-bedroom units in the HUD methodology.

VI. Other Matters

A Finding of No Significant Impact with respect to the environment required by the National Environmental Policy Act (42 U.S.C. 4321-4374) is unnecessary, since the statutorily required establishment and review of fair market rents is categorically excluded from the Department's National Environment Policy Act procedures under 24 CFR 50.20(1).

Under 5 U.S.C. 605(b) (the Regulatory Flexibility Act), the Undersigned hereby certifies that this Notice does not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities, because FMRs reflect the rents for similar quality units in the area. Therefore, FMRs do not change the rent from that which would be charged if the unit were not in the Section 8 program.

This document does not constitute a "major rule" as that term is defined in section 1(b) of Executive Order 12291 on Federal Regulations issued on February 17, 1981. Analysis of the document indicates that it does not (1) have an annual effect on the economy of $100 million or more; (2) cause a major increase in costs or prices for consumers, individual industries, Federal, State, or local government agencies, or geographic regions; or (3) have a significant adverse effect on competition, employment, investment, productivity, innovation, or on the ability of United States-based enterprises to compete with foreign-based enterprises in domestic or export markets.

The General Counsel, as the Designated Official under Executive Order No. 12606, The Family, has determined that this proposal would not have a significant impact on family formation, maintenance, or well-being. The proposal would amend Fair Market Rent schedules for various Section 8 assisted housing programs.

The General Counsel, as the Designated Official under section 6(a) of Executive order No. 12611, Federalism, has determined that this proposal would not involve the preemption of State law by Federal statute or regulation and would not have Federalism implications. The Fair Market Rent schedules do not have any substantial direct impact on States, on the relationship between the Federal government and the States, or on the distribution of power and responsibility among the various levels of government.

The Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance program under is 14.156, Lower-Income Housing Assistance Program (Section 8).

Accordingly, the Fair Market Rent Schedules are proposed to be amended as follows:

Dated: May 4, 1990.

C. Austin Fitts,

Assistant Secretary for Housing-Federal Housing Commissioner.

1. Geographic Coverage.

a. FMRs for Existing Housing (Schedule B) are established for all Metropolitan Statistical Areas (MSAs), Primary Metropolitan Statistical Areas (PMSAs), nonmetropolitan counties, and county equivalents in the United States, District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, and Guam. FMRs also are established for nonmetropolitan parts of counties in the New England states.

b. FMRs for Manufactured Home spaces in the Section 8 Certificate Program (Schedule D) are established for all MSAs, PMSAs, selected nonmetropolitan counties, and the residual nonmetropolitan portion of each State.

c. The current 338 MSAs and PMSAs are those established by the Office of Management and Budget effective October 18, 1986.

2. Arrangements of FMR Areas and Identification of Constituent Parts.

a. The FMR areas in Schedules B and D are listed alphabetically by MSA-PMSA and nonmetropolitan county within each State.

b. The constituent counties (and New England towns and cities) included in each MSA and PMSA are listed immediately following the listings of the FMR dollar amounts. All of the constituent parts of an MSA that are in more than one State can be identified by consulting the listings for each applicable State.

c. Two nonmetropolitan counties are listed alphabetically on each line of the nonmetropolitan county listings.

d. The New England towns and cities included in a nonmetropolitan part of a county are listed immediately following the county name.

e. The FMRs are listed by dollar amount on the first line beginning with the FMR area name.

Office of Management and Budget

Cumulative Report on Rescissions and Deferrals

MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET OFFICECumulative Report on Rescissions and Deferrals

May 1, 1990.

This report is submitted in fulfillment of the requirement of section 1014(e) of the Impoundment Control Act of 1974 (Pub. L. 93-344). Section 1014(e) requires a monthly report listing all budget authority for this fiscal year for which, as of the first day of the month, a special message has been transmitted to Congress.

This report gives the status, as of May 1, 1990, of 28 deferrals and three rescission proposals contained in five special messages for FY 1990. These messages were transmitted to Congress on October 2, 1989, January 29, 1990, February 6, April 18, and April 23, 1990.

Rescissions (Table A and Attachment A)

As of May 1, 1990, three rescission proposals totaling $226.9 million were pending before Congress.

Deferrals (Table B and Attachment B)

As of May 1, 1990, $5,423.8 million in budget authority was being deferred from obligation. Attachment B shows the history and status of each deferral reported during FY 1990.

Information from Special Messages

The special messages containing information on the deferrals covered by this cumulative report are printed the Federal Register as cited below:

54 FR 41410, Friday, October 6, 1989.
55 FR 3860, Monday, February 5, 1990.

43 CFR Public Land Order 6782
Withdrawal of National Forest System Lands Near Jewel Cave National Monument; South Dakota; Rule

Bureau of Land Management

43 CFR Public Land Order

[MT-930-00-4214-10; SDM 76798]

Withdrawal of National Forest System Lands Near Jewel Cave National Monument; South Dakota

ACTION: Public Land Order.

SUMMARY: This order withdraws 2,387.22 acres of National Forest System lands from mining for 20 years for the protection of the unique cave resources in the area surrounding Jewel Cave National Monument. The lands have been and remain open to such other forms of disposition as may by law be made of National Forest System lands and to mineral leasing.

EFFECTIVE DATE: May 18, 1990.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

James Binando, BLM Montana State Office, P.O. Box 36800, Billings, Montana 59107, 406-255-2935.

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of the Interior by Section 204 of the Federal Land Policy and Management Act of 1976, 90 Stat. 2751; 43 U.S.C. 1714, it is ordered as follows:

1. Subject to valid existing rights, the following described National Forest System lands are hereby withdrawn from location and entry under the mining laws (30 U.S.C., ch. 2), but not from leasing under the mineral leasing laws, to provide additional protection to cave resources surrounding Jewel Cave National Monument:

Black Hills Meridian*Black Hills National Forest*

Sec. 34, S $\frac{1}{2}$ S $\frac{1}{2}$.

T. 4 S., R. 2 E.,

Sec. 2, lot 4, SW $\frac{1}{4}$ NW $\frac{1}{4}$, SW $\frac{1}{4}$ excluding that portion of the NE $\frac{1}{4}$ NE $\frac{1}{4}$ SW $\frac{1}{4}$ east of U.S. Highway 16, and those portions of lot 3, SW $\frac{1}{4}$ NE $\frac{1}{4}$, and SE $\frac{1}{4}$ NW $\frac{1}{4}$ west of U.S. Highway 16;

Sec. 3, lots 1 to 4, inclusive, S $\frac{1}{2}$ N $\frac{1}{2}$, and S $\frac{1}{2}$;

Sec. 10, N $\frac{1}{2}$;Sec. 11, N $\frac{1}{2}$;Sec. 12, S $\frac{1}{2}$ N $\frac{1}{2}$.

T. 4 S., R. 3 E.,

Sec. 6, lots 6 and 7, E $\frac{1}{2}$ SW $\frac{1}{4}$, and W $\frac{1}{2}$ SE $\frac{1}{4}$;

Sec. 7, lots 1 and 2, W $\frac{1}{2}$ NE $\frac{1}{4}$, and E $\frac{1}{2}$ NW $\frac{1}{4}$.

The areas described aggregate 2,387.22 acres, more or less, in Custer County.

2. The withdrawal made by this order does not alter the applicability of those public land laws governing the use of the lands under lease, license, or permit, or governing the disposal of their mineral or vegetative resources other than under the mining laws.

3. This withdrawal will expire 20 years from the effective date of this order unless, as a result of a review conducted before the expiration date pursuant to section 204(f) of the Federal Land Policy and Management Act of 1976, 43 U.S.C. 1714(f), the Secretary determines that the withdrawal shall be extended.

Dated: May 16, 1990.

Dave O'Neal,

Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

The United States Government Manual 1989/90

As the official handbook of the Federal Government, the Manual is the best source of information on the activities, functions, organization, and principal officials of the agencies of the legislative, judicial, and executive branches. It also includes information on quasi-official agencies and international organizations in which the United States participates.

Particularly helpful for those interested in where to go and who to see about a subject of particular concern is each agency's "Sources of Information" section, which provides addresses and telephone numbers for use in obtaining specifics on consumer activities, contracts and grants, employment, publications and films, and many other areas of citizen interest. The Manual also includes comprehensive name and agency/subject indexes.

Of significant historical interest is Appendix C, which lists the agencies and functions of the Federal Government abolished, transferred, or changed in name subsequent to March 4, 1933.

The Manual is published by the Office of the Federal Register, National Archives and Records Administration.
