Title: NESHAP for Benzene Equipment Leaks (Subpart V)—Information Requirements (ICR # 1153.05; OMB # 2060-0068). This is a request to extend the expiration date of a currently approved collection without any change in the substance or method of collection.

Abstract: Owners or operators of process units operating in benzene service (those containing or contacting fluids consisting by weight of at least 10 percent benzene) must submit an application for approval of construction or modification, and notice of anticipated and actual startup. They must monitor for fugitive benzene emissions, and must keep records of this monitoring and of any leaks detected from valves, pumps, and compressors, as well as the steps taken to make repairs. This includes a weekly visual inspection and reporting of leaks from pumps to detect outer seal failure from those pumps containing dual mechanical seals. Owners or operators must submit semiannual reports of any emissions, leaks or repairs. EPA, or the delegated State authority, uses this information to determine the compliance status of sources.

Burden Statement: The public burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 30 hours per response for reporting, and 57 hours annually for recordkeeping. The estimated reporting burden includes the time needed to review instructions, search existing data sources, gather the data needed and review the collection of information.

Respondents: Owners or operators of process units operating in benzene service (those containing or contacting fluids consisting by weight of at least 10 percent benzene).

Estimated No. of Respondents: 200.

Estimated No. of Responses per Respondent: 2.

Estimated Total Annual Burden on Respondents: 23,539 hours.

Frequency of Collection: For initial compliance and semiannually.
