

General Services Administration, notice is hereby given that the Basic Energy Sciences Advisory Committee has been renewed for a two-year period beginning in January 1995. The Committee will provide advice to the Director of Energy Research on the basic energy sciences program.

The Secretary has determined that the renewal of the Basic Energy Sciences Advisory Committee is essential to the conduct of the Department's business and in the public interest in connection with the performance of duties imposed upon the Department of Energy by law. The Committee will continue to operate in accordance with the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act, the Department of Energy Organization Act (Public Law 95-91), and rules and regulations issued in implementation of those Acts.

Further information regarding this advisory committee can be obtained from Rachel Samuel at (202) 586-3279.

Issued in Washington, DC on January 6, 1995.

JoAnne Whitman,

Deputy Advisory Committee Management Officer.

Federal Energy Regulatory Commission

[Docket No. RP95-115-000]

CNG Transmission Corp.; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

January 5, 1995.

Take notice that on December 30, 1994, CNG Transmission Corporation (CNG), tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Second Revised Volume No. 1, the following revised tariff sheets, with a proposed effective date of February 1, 1995:

Sixth Revised Sheet No. 32

Sixth Revised Sheet No. 33

CNG states that the purpose of this filing is to file CNG's initial surcharge under Section 18.2.B. of the General Terms of CNG's FERC Gas Tariff. Specifically, CNG has recalculated this surcharge to reflect the inclusion of $693,512.28 of stranded Account No. 858 charges incurred from implementation of restructured services on October 1, 1993 to September 30, 1994. CNG is proposing to collect these costs over a three-month amortization period.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a protest or motion to intervene with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 825

North Capitol Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 214 and 211 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 18 CFR 385.214 and 385.211. All motions or protests should be filed on or before January 12, 1995. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

CNG Transmission Corp.; Notice of Filing of Storage Study

January 5, 1995.

Take notice that on December 30, 1994, CNG Transmission Corporation (CNG), in compliance with the Commission's requirement in CNG's restructuring proceeding in Docket No. RS92-14-000, filed a study entitled "Storage After One Year Of Operations Under Restructured Services." The storage study identifies the various uses of CNG's retained working gas storage capacity during the first year of operations under Order No. 636.

CNG states that it has served its filing upon affected firm service customers and interested state commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 825 North Capitol Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 214 and 211 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.214 and 385.211). All motions or protests should be filed on or before January 27, 1995. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

[Docket No. RP95-114-000]

Colorado Interstate Gas Company; Filing of Report on Utilization of Storage

January 5, 1995.

Take notice that on December 30, 1994, as required by the Commission's Orders issued April 22, 1993,¹ and September 3, 1993,² in Docket No. RS92-4-000, Colorado Interstate Gas Company (CIG), submits for filing its report on utilization of storage, utilization of upstream capacity, and development of market centers.

CIG states that the report shows CIG's level of retained storage and upstream capacity (principally on Wyoming Interstate Company Ltd.) are essential to system operations.

CIG states that it began service under the Commission's Order No. 636 on October 1, 1993.

CIG states that copies of the filing have been served upon each person designated on the official service list complied by the Secretary in this proceeding.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 825 North Capitol Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 214 and 211 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR Sections 385.214 and 385.211). All motions or protests should be filed on or before January 27, 1995. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

BILLING CODE 6717-01-M

[Docket No. RP95-45-001]

Colorado Interstate Gas Company; Tariff Compliance Filing

January 5, 1995.

Take notice that on December 29, 1994, Colorado Interstate Gas Company (CIG), tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, First Revised Volume No. 1, the following revised tariff sheets, with an effective date of December 14, 1994:

² 64 FERC (CCH) ¶61,227 (1993).

Substitute First Revised Sheet No. 259
Substitute Second Revised Sheet No. 359
First Revised Sheet No. 360

CIG states that the new tariff sheets are being filed in accordance with the December 14, 1994, order in this proceeding. In the December 14 order, the commission conditioned acceptance of CIG's November 14, 1994, filing on a compliance filing by CIG to revise the tariff to: (1) include provisions for the proration of monthly charges for releasing shippers and replacement shippers when service is for less than a month at points where different rates apply because of discounting, (2) clarify that the new provisions relating to capacity release proposed in this proceeding shall be effective for replacement capacity contracts executed on or after January 1, 1995, (3) reflect the information Order No. 566-A requires to be posted on the electronic bulletin board with respect to affiliate discounts.

CIG states that a copy of this filing was served upon all parties in this proceeding.

Any person desiring to protest said filing should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 825 North Capitol Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Section 385.211 of the commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211). All such protests should be filed on or before January 12, 1995. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.
