BILLING CODE 7020-02-P

[Investigation No. 332-325]

The Economic Effects of Significant U.S. Import Restraints: First Biannual Update

AGENCY: United States International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Notice of schedule for biannual update report.

SUMMARY: The letter of May 15, 1992, from the United States Trade Representative (USTR) requesting that the Commission institute the above referenced investigation also requested that the Commission prepare biannual update reports, to be submitted on the 2-year anniversary dates of the submission of the first report. The first report was submitted on November 15, 1993. This is the first such update and it will be submitted to USTR by November 15, 1995.

EFFECTIVE DATE: December 23, 1994.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Hugh Arce on (202) 205-3234, Office of Economics, U.S. International Trade Commission. Hearing impaired persons are advised that information on this investigation can be obtained by contacting the Commission's TDD terminal on (202) 205-1810.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: As requested in the USTR's letter of May 15, 1992, the Commission in its update reports will, as was done in the first report, assess the economic effects of significant U.S. import restraints on U.S. consumers, on the activities of U.S. firms, on the income and employment of U.S. workers, and on the net economic welfare of the United States. The investigation will not include import restraints resulting from final antidumping or countervailing duty investigations, section 337 or 406 investigations, or section 301 actions.

Notice of institution of this investigation was published in the Federal Register of June 17, 1992 (57 FR 27063).

Written Submissions

The Commission does not plan to hold a public hearing in connection with the first biannual update of this report. However, interested persons are invited to submit written statements concerning the matters to be addressed in the report. Commercial or financial information that a party desires the Commission to treat as confidential must be submitted on separate sheets of paper, each clearly marked "Confidential Business Information" at the top. (Generally, submission of separate confidential and public versions of the submission would be appropriate.) All submissions requesting confidential treatment must conform with the requirements of § 201.6 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR 201.6). All written submissions, except for confidential business information, will be made available in the Office of the Secretary to the Commission for inspection by interested persons. To be assured of consideration, written submissions must be filed by June 15, 1995.

Issued: January 5, 1995.

By order of the Commission.

Donna R. Koehnke,

Secretary.
