

significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. This temporary stay is not expected to result in any additional compliance cost to regulated parties and, in fact, is expected to decrease compliance costs to the industry and decrease costs to consumer in the affected areas.

VIII. Administrative Requirements

Under Executive Order 12866 (58 FR 51735, October 4, 1993) the Agency must determine whether a regulation is "significant" and therefore subject to OMB review and the requirements of the Executive Order. The Order defines "significant regulatory action" as one that is likely to result in a rule that may:

- (1) Have an annual effect on the economy of $100 million or more, or adversely affect in a material way the economy, a sector of the economy, productivity, competition, jobs, the environment, public health or safety, or State, local or tribal governments or communities;
- (2) Create a serious inconsistency or otherwise interfere with an action taken or planned by another agency;
- (3) Materially alter the budgetary impact of entitlements, grants, user fees, or loan programs or the rights and obligations of recipients thereof; or
- (4) Raise novel legal or policy issues arising out of legal mandates, the President's priorities, or the principles set forth in the Executive Order.

It has been determined that this rule is not a "significant regulatory action" under the terms of Executive Order 12866 and is therefore not subject to OMB review.

Under the Paper Reduction Act, 44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq., EPA must obtain Office of Management and Budget (OMB) clearance for any activity that will involve collecting substantially the same information from 10 or more non-Federal respondents. This rule does not create any new information requirements or contain any new information collection activities.

IX. Statutory Authority

The statutory authority for the action in this rule is granted to EPA by section 211 (c) and (k), and section 301(a) of the Clean Air Act as amended, 42 U.S.C. 7545 (c) and (k) and 7601(a).

Ocean Dumping; Site Designation Technical Amendment

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency (EPA).
ACTION: Technical amendment.

SUMMARY: This document contains corrections to the final rulemaking for designation of an Ocean Dredged Material Disposal Site (ODMDS) offshore Fort Pierce, Florida. The final rule was published in the Federal Register on Thursday, September 2, 1993. The preamble of the Final Rule correctly described the location of the ODMDS. However, the regulatory text gave incorrect coordinates for the location of the Fort Pierce, Florida ODMDS. This technical amendment is necessary to correct the coordinates for the location of the ODMDS.

EFFECTIVE DATE: February 10, 1995.
FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Christopher J. McArthur, 404/347-1740.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

The final rule (September 2, 1993, 58 FR 46544) that is the subject of this correction designated an Ocean Dredged Material Disposal Site (ODMDS) offshore Fort Pierce, Florida as an EPA-approved ocean dumping site for the dumping of suitable dredged material. Need for Correction

As published, the final rule contained errors in the regulatory text. Coordinates for the location of the Fort Pierce, Florida ODMDS were listed incorrectly.

Oklahoma: Final Authorization of State Hazardous Waste Management Program Revisions

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency.
ACTION: Immediate final rule.

SUMMARY: The State of Oklahoma Department of Environmental Quality (DEQ) applied for final authorization of revision to its hazardous waste program under the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, (RCRA), 42 U.S.C. 6926(b). The Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) reviewed Oklahoma's application and decided that its hazardous waste program revision satisfies all of the requirements necessary to qualify for final authorization. Unless adverse written comments are received during the review and comment period provided for public participation in this process, EPA intends to approve Oklahoma's hazardous waste program revision
