

language in a guide, and the NRC staff has made some minor changes in language, as appropriate. Comments were also received from the Nuclear Energy Institute, State of Illinois Department of Nuclear Safety, Arizona Public Service Company, PECO Energy Company and Northeast Utilities System on matters that were not directly related to the removal of emergency diesel generator performance criteria and trigger values or clarification of language in the draft version of this guide, DG-1031, which was issued in June 1994. These matters were addressed previously in response to the comment period for the maintenance rule C10 CFR 50.65) and Regulatory Guide 1.160, and the commenters did not present new information that would lead the NRC staff to reconsider their prior resolution. The comments received, and the staff's basis for disposition of the comments, are available for public inspection and copying at the Commission's Public Document Room, 2120 L Street NW., Washington, DC.

Comments and suggestions in connection with items for inclusion in guides currently being developed or improvements in all published guides are encouraged at any time. Written comments may be submitted to the Rules Review and Directives Branch, Division of Freedom of Information and Publications Services, Office of Administration, U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Washington, DC 20555.

Regulatory guides are available for inspection at the Commission's Public Document Room, 2120 L Street NW., Washington, DC. Copies of issued guides may be purchased from the Government Printing Office at the current GPO price. Information on current GPO prices may be obtained by contacting the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Post Office Box 37082, Washington, DC 20013-7082, telephone (202) 512-2249.
