NUCLEAR REGULATORY COMMISSION

Draft Supplemental Environmental Statement

AGENCY: Nuclear Regulatory Commission.

ACTION: Extension of public comment period.

SUMMARY: On December 9, 1994, the Nuclear Regulatory Commission issued a notice of availability for the Draft Supplement (NUREG-0498, Supplement 1) to the Final Environmental Statement related to the operation of Watts Bar Nuclear Plant Units 1 and 2 (59 FR 63832). The Environmental Protection Agency also noticed the availability of the draft supplement on December 9, 1994 (59 FR 63791). Interested members of the public were requested to submit their comments by January 30, 1995. During a January 10, 1995, public meeting on the draft supplement, members of the public cited the extensive technical content of the document as the primary reason why additional time is needed to provide comments. After considering the public concerns, the Nuclear Regulatory Commission has decided to extend the comment period by an additional 15 days.

DATES: The comment period is extended to February 14, 1995. Interested parties are invited to submit comments.

ADDRESSES: Written comments may be submitted by mail to the Rules Review and Directives Branch, Division of Freedom of Information and Publications Services, Office of Administration, U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Washington, DC 20555. Written comments also may be delivered to Room 6D22, Two White Flint North, 1145 Rockville Pike, Rockville, Maryland, from 7:30 a.m. to 4:15 p.m. Federal workdays.

Single copies of the draft supplement report are available free, to the extent of supply, upon written request to the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, P.O. Box 37082, Washington, DC 20013-7082 or the Office of Administration, Distribution and Mail Service Section, U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Washington, DC 20555-0001.

An individual copy is available for inspection and/or copying for a fee in the NRC Public Document Room, 2120 L Street, NW., Washington, DC 20555.

Regulatory Guide; Issuance, Availability

The Nuclear Regulatory Commission has issued a revision to a guide in its Regulatory Guide Series. This series has been developed to describe and make available to the public such information as methods acceptable to the NRC staff for implementing specific parts of the Commission's regulations, techniques used by the staff in evaluating specific problems or postulated accidents, and data needed by the staff in its review of applications for permits and licenses.

Revision 1 of Regulatory Guide 1.160, "Monitoring the Effectiveness of Maintenance at Nuclear Power Plants," provides guidance on meeting the Commission's rules on maintenance and monitoring the effectiveness of maintenance in nuclear power plants. Although the concept of trigger values was included in the original guide as an option to be used as an alert to reveal emergency diesel generator performance problems that may need additional monitoring or corrective actions, it was clearly noted that conformance with such triggers was not a statistical demonstration of maintaining the emergency diesel generator reliability levels at levels selected for compliance with the station blackout rule (10 CFR 50.63). Since there has been continued misinterpretation of the triggers as related to statistical achievement of selected emergency diesel generator reliability, all language in this Revision 1 to Regulatory Guide 1.160 pertaining to emergency diesel generator performance and trigger values was deleted to avoid any misconceptions on their statistical significance. The Commission expects that in implementing the maintenance rule as applied to emergency diesel generators, each licensee will set performance goals that are consistent with the licensee's coping analysis performed to comply with the station blackout rule (10 CFR 50.63), unless there is a documented basis for the inconsistency.

No comments were received from the public regarding emergency diesel generator performance as related to the deletion of the trigger values. However, a number of comments were received requesting further clarification of language in a guide, and the NRC staff has made some minor changes in language, as appropriate. Comments were also received from the Nuclear Energy Institute, State of Illinois Department of Nuclear Safety, Arizona Public Service Company, PECO Energy Company and Northeast Utilities System on matters that were not directly related to the removal of emergency diesel generator performance criteria and trigger values or clarification of language in the draft version of this guide, DG-1031, which was issued in June 1994. These matters were addressed previously in response to the comment period for the maintenance rule C10 CFR 50.65) and Regulatory Guide 1.160, and the commenters did not present new information that would lead the NRC staff to reconsider their prior resolution. The comments received, and the staff's basis for disposition of the comments, are available for public inspection and copying at the Commission's Public Document Room, 2120 L Street NW., Washington, DC.

Comments and suggestions in connection with items for inclusion in guides currently being developed or improvements in all published guides are encouraged at any time. Written comments may be submitted to the Rules Review and Directives Branch, Division of Freedom of Information and Publications Services, Office of Administration, U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Washington, DC 20555.

Regulatory guides are available for inspection at the Commission's Public Document Room, 2120 L Street NW., Washington, DC. Copies of issued guides may be purchased from the Government Printing Office at the current GPO price. Information on current GPO prices may be obtained by contacting the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Post Office Box 37082, Washington, DC 20013-7082, telephone (202) 512-2249. Issued guides may also be purchased from the National Technical Information Service on a standing order basis. Details on this service may be obtained by writing NTIS, 5285 Port Royal Road, Springfield, VA 22161.
