Minimum Wages for Federal and Federally Assisted Construction; General Age Determination Decisions

General wage determination decisions of the Secretary of Labor are issued in accordance with applicable law and are based on the information obtained by the Department of Labor from its study of local wage conditions and data made available from other sources. They specify the basic hourly wage rates and fringe benefits which are determined to be prevailing for the described classes of laborers and mechanics employed on construction projects of a similar character and in the localities specified therein.

The determinations in these decisions of prevailing rates and fringe benefits have been made in accordance with 29 CFR part 1, by authority of the Secretary of Labor pursuant to the provisions of the Davis-Bacon Act of March 3, 1931, as amended (46 Stat. 1494, as amended, 40 U.S.C. 276a) and of other Federal statutes referred to in 29 CFR part 1, Appendix, as well as such additional statutes as may from time to time be enacted containing provisions for the payment of wages determined to be prevailing by the Secretary of Labor in accordance with the Davis-Bacon Act. The prevailing rates and fringe benefits determined in these decisions shall, in accordance with the provisions of the foregoing statutes, constitute the minimum wages payable on Federal and federally assisted construction projects to laborers and mechanics of the specified classes engaged on contract work of the character and in the localities described therein.

Good cause is hereby found for not utilizing notice and public comment procedure thereon prior to the issuance of these determinations as prescribed in 5 U.S.C. 553 and not providing for delaying the effective date as prescribed in that section, because the necessity to issue current construction industry wage determinations frequently and in large volume causes procedures to be impractical and contrary to the public interest.

General wage determination decisions, and modifications and supersedes decisions thereto, contain no expiration dates and are effective from their date of notice in the Federal Register, or on the date written notice is received by the agency, whichever is earlier. These decisions are to be used in accordance with the provisions of 29 CFR Parts 1 and 5. Accordingly, the applicable decision, together with any modifications issued must be made a party of every contract for performance of the described work within the geographic area indicated as required by an applicable Federal prevailing wage law and 29 CFR Part 5. The wage rates and fringe benefits, notice of which is published herein, and which are contained in the Government Printing Office (GPO) document entitled "General Wage Determinations Issued Under the Davis-Bacon and Related Acts," shall be the minimum paid by contractors and subcontractors to laborers and mechanics.

Any person, organization, or general agency having an interest in the rates determined as prevailing is encouraged to submit wage rate and fringe benefit information for consideration by the Department. Further information and self-explanatory forms for the purpose of submitting this data may be obtained by writing to the U.S. Department of Labor, Employment Standards

Administration, Wage and Hour Division, Division of Wage Determination, 200 Constitution Ave., N.W., Room S-3014, Washington, D.C. 20210.

NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATIONPrivacy Act of 1974; New System of Records

AGENCY: National Science Foundation.

ACTION: Notice of new system of records and routine uses.

New System of Records

Pursuant to the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. 552a), the National Science Foundation is providing notice of a new system of records—NSF-58, "National Survey of Recent College Graduates and Follow-up File." This system is established and maintained by the National Science Foundation, the U.S. Department of Energy and their present and future contractors (present contractors include the U.S. Bureau of Census and Westat, Inc.). The system is used as a source for measuring the new entrants into the science and engineering workforce and for providing information on indicators related to the science and engineering workforce, as required by congressional mandate. The system is also used to report on the participation rates of women and minorities in scientific and technical fields, as required by congressional mandate.

Effective date: Section 552a(e) (4) and (11) of Title 5 of the U.S. Code provides the public thirty days to comment on the routine uses of systems of records. The new system of records and its routine uses will become effective 30 days after publication of this notice, unless comments are received on or before that date that would result in a contrary decision. In this case a notice will be published to that effect.

Comments: Written comments should be addressed to the NSF Privacy Act Officer, Office of Information and Resource Management, National Science Foundation, Room 485, 4201 Wilson Blvd., Arlington, VA 22230.

Dated: January 30, 1995.

Herman G. Fleming,

Privacy Act Officer.

National Science Foundation Act of 1950, as amended, 42 U.S.C. 1862(a)(6), 1863(j)(1), 1885d.

PURPOSES:

This system is used as a source of information on the characteristics of individuals with bachelor's and master's degrees in science and engineering in the United States. The system is used as a source for measuring the new entrants into the science and engineering workforce. The system is used to provide information on indicators related to the science and engineering workforce, as required by congressional mandate. The system is also used to report on the participation rates of women and minorities in scientific and technical fields, as required by congressional mandate. It is also used by researchers interested in policy issues related to the scientific and engineering workforce.

ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND THE PURPOSES OF SUCH USES:

Disclosure of the records may be made to the Federal sponsors listed under "System location" above, their contractors and collaborating researchers and their staff for the purpose of analyzing data, preparing reports, writing articles, and preparing public use data tapes in order to accomplish the research purpose for which the records are collected. Disclosure of certain data on records (including name, address, phone number, academic institution, degree type) are also made to present and future contractors to conduct longitudinal surveys of individuals included in the system. All users of the data are required to comply by the requirements of the Privacy Act with respect to such records.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR STORING, RETRIEVING, ACCESSING, RETAINING, AND DISPOSING OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:STORAGE:

Computer tapes with identifying information on individuals and questionnaires are kept by the National Science Foundation, the U.S. Department of Energy, U.S. Bureau of Census, and Westat, Inc.
