

ACTION: Notice of amendment to an existing system of records—"Consumer Complaint and Inquiry System".

SUMMARY: As part of an ongoing examination of the FDIC's systems of records, the "Consumer Complaint and Inquiry System" has been reviewed for compliance with the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. 552a. Review was necessitated by a recent reorganization within the FDIC which resulted in the creation of a new division, the Division of Compliance and Consumer Affairs. Numerous minor amendments have been made that will more accurately describe the following elements in this system of records: System location, categories of individuals covered by the system, categories of records in the system, retention and disposal, system manager(s) and address, and record source categories.

EFFECTIVE DATE: February 7, 1995.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Frederick N. Ottie, Attorney, Office of the Executive Secretary, FDIC, 550-17th Street, NW, Washington, DC 20429, (202) 898-6679.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The FDIC's system of records entitled "Consumer Complaint and Inquiry System" is being amended to describe its contents more accurately. These modifications update language in the system notice describing system location, categories of individuals covered by the system, categories of records in the system, system manager(s) and address, and record source categories to reflect organizational changes within the FDIC and delineate more precisely that this system of records encompasses complaints and inquiries concerning the activities and practices of FDIC-insured depository institutions. Additionally, the description of the system's provisions for retention and disposal of records is amended to reflect that all records are retained for two years after receipt unless updated by correspondence received during the second year, and that electronic records are deleted from the electronic system and files are destroyed by shredding.

Accordingly, the Board of Directors of the FDIC amends the "Consumer Complaint and Inquiry System" to read as follows:
