

of this proposed interim approval. The principal purposes of the docket are:

(1) To allow interested parties a means to identify and locate documents so that they can effectively participate in the approval process, and

(2) To serve as the record in case of judicial review. The EPA will consider any comments received by March 16, 1995.

B. Executive Order 12866

The Office of Management and Budget has exempted this action from Executive Order 12866 review.

C. Regulatory Flexibility Act

The EPA's actions under section 502 of the Act do not create any new requirements, but simply address operating permits programs submitted to satisfy the requirements of 40 CFR part 70. Because this action does not impose any new requirements, it does not have a significant impact on a substantial number of small entities.

List of Subjects in 40 CFR Part 70

Environmental protection, Administrative practice and procedure, Air pollution control, Intergovernmental relations, Operating permits, Reporting and recordkeeping requirements.

Authority: 42 U.S.C. 7401-7671q.

Regulation of Fuels and Fuel Additives: Standards for Deposit Control Gasoline Additives

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency (EPA).

ACTION: Reopening of comment period.

SUMMARY: Section 211(l) of the Clean Air Act requires the Environmental Protection Agency to establish specifications for deposit control detergent additives. On November 22, 1993, the Environmental Protection Agency issued a notice of proposed rulemaking for standards for deposit control detergent additives. On October 15, 1994, EPA promulgated a final regulation (published in the Federal Register on November 1, 1994 (59 FR 54678)), with an interim program for detergent additives, which will be replaced by a full certification detergent program in a subsequent action.

On December 28, 1994 (59 FR 66860), EPA issued a supplemental notice reopening the comment period for the final detergent additive certification program and requesting comment on issues related to the final detergent additive certification program. This document extends the public comment period for the supplemental notice.

DATES: The comment period for the supplemental notice will be extended from the original closing date of January 27, 1995 to February 21, 1995.

ADDRESSES: Comments on this document should be submitted in duplicate to: EPA Air Docket Section (LE-131); Attention: Public Docket No. A-91-77; Room M-1500, 401 M Street S.W., Washington, DC 20460. Facilitation of Future Development of SMR Systems in the 800 MHz Frequency Band; Implementation of Section 309(j) of the Communications Act—Competitive Bidding, 800 MHz SMR

AGENCY: Federal Communications Commission.

ACTION: Proposed rule; extension of time.

SUMMARY: On November 4, 1994, the Commission released a Further Notice of Proposed Rule Making, FCC 94-271, concerning establishment of a flexible regulatory scheme and competitive bidding procedures for Specialized Mobile Radio (SMR) systems in the 800 MHz band.

Based on the number of initial comments received and the variety of views expressed in this proceeding, this Order extends the deadline for reply comments from January 20 to March 1, 1995. The intended effect of this action is to provide members of the SMR industry with an opportunity to further evaluate, discuss, and attempt to reach consensus regarding the proposals presented and issues addressed both in the Further Notice of Proposed Rule Making and the initial comments submitted in this proceeding.

DATES: Reply comments must be filed on or before March 1, 1995.

ADDRESSES: Federal Commission, 1919 M Street, NW., Washington, DC 20554.
