7.0 ISSUES

* * * * *

7.3 Contents

Issues may include annual reports, directories, buyers' guides, lists, and similar material prepared as part of the contents if copies of these issues bear the publication name and are included in the regular subscription price.

* * * * *

9.0 BACK NUMBERS AND REPRINTS

[Combine 9.1 and 9.2; revise as follows:]

Second-class rates may be paid on mailings of back issues (if the publication's second-class entry is in effect). Reprint copies of daily publications printed within 1 week of the issue date and reprint copies of other than daily publications printed before the next issue is printed are also mailable at second-class rates. Other mailings of reprint or back issues, including permanently bound reprint or back issues, are subject to the applicable First-, third-, or fourth-class rates.

11.0 ADVERTISING STANDARDS

* * * * *

11.2 Public Service

Public service announcements are announcements for which no valuable consideration is received by the publisher, which do not include any matter related to the business interests of the publisher, and which promote programs, activities, or services of federal, state, or local governments or of nonprofit organizations, or matters generally regarded as in the public interest. Public service announcements are not treated as advertising.

[Delete existing 2.4; renumber succeeding sections accordingly.]

* * * * *

2.8 Computing Permit Imprint Postage

[Renumber as 2.7 and insert the following after the first sentence:]

* * * The enclosure is eligible for the rate for its class of mail that is most comparable to the presort and destination discounts that apply to the second-class host piece. For example, a third-class enclosure is eligible for the SCF entry discount if the publication is deposited at the destinating SCF. When more than one enclosure of the same class of mail is enclosed with a publication, the enclosures are treated as a single enclosure for computing postage. * * *

1.7 Measuring Advertising

The total advertising and nonadvertising portions may be determined by column inches, square inches, pages, or by another recognized unit of measure if the same unit of measure is used for both portions. One full page of advertising must equal one full page of nonadvertising regardless of the amount of blank space between each advertisement or nonadvertising article on a page. If measured in column inches, nonadvertising inches are determined by subtracting the total measured advertising inches from the total column inches of the publication. A blank page, portion of a page, or blank border or margin is counted as advertising if consideration was received for the whole page, the blank portion, or the blank border or margin. The border of a page is otherwise considered neither advertising nor nonadvertising and is not measured, but it is included in the total weight of the publication for purposes of postage calculation. When measuring nonrectangular sheets, the measurement is based on the smallest rectangle that could contain the irregular sheet; exact measurement is not attempted. When two or more sheets are permanently glued together to form a single sheet, the surface area of the resulting sheet (front and back) is included when measuring the advertising or nonadvertising portion.

Bureau of Reclamation

43 CFR Part 426

[RIN 1006-AA33]

Administrative Fee Provision of the Acreage Limitation Rules and Regulations

AGENCY: Bureau of Reclamation, Interior.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The purposes of this rule are to improve compliance with the form submission requirements of the Reclamation Reform Act of 1982 (RRA) and the Acreage Limitation Rules and Regulations in order to ensure that irrigation water is delivered only to eligible landholders (landowners and lessees), and to recoup administrative costs that the Bureau of Reclamation (Reclamation) incurs due to noncompliance with the RRA reporting requirements. The rule adds a section that imposes fees on districts when they do not meet statutory and regulatory requirements for submitting RRA forms.
EFFECTIVE DATE: March 27, 1995.
