General Information

The attention of interested persons is directed to the following:

(1) The fact that a transaction is the subject of an exemption under section 408(a) of the Act and/or section 4975(c)(2) of the Code does not relieve a fiduciary or other party in interest or disqualified person from certain other provisions to which the exemption does not apply and the general fiduciary responsibility provisions of section 404 of the Act, which among other things require a fiduciary to discharge his duties respecting the plan solely in the interest of the participants and beneficiaries of the plan and in a prudent fashion in accordance with section 404(a)(1)(B) of the Act; nor does it affect the requirement of section 401(a) of the Code that the plan must operate for the exclusive benefit of the employees of the employer maintaining the plan and their beneficiaries;

(2) These exemptions are supplemental to and not in derogation of, any other provisions of the Act and/or the Code, including statutory or administrative exemptions and transactional rules. Furthermore, the fact that a transaction is subject to an administrative or statutory exemption is not dispositive of whether the transaction is in fact a prohibited transaction; and

(3) The availability of these exemptions is subject to the express condition that the material facts and representations contained in each application accurately described all material terms of the transaction which is the subject of the exemption.

Signed at Washington, D.C., this 23rd day of February, 1995.

NUCLEAR REGULATORY COMMISSION

Draft Regulatory Guides and Standard Review Plan Sections; Issuance, Availability

The Nuclear Regulatory Commission has issued for public comment drafts of five guides planned for its Regulatory Guide Series along with drafts of three sections of NUREG-0800, "Standard Review Plan for the Review of Safety Analysis Reports for Nuclear Power Plants." The Regulatory Guide Series has been developed to describe and make available to the public such information as methods acceptable to the NRC staff for implementing specific parts of the Commission's regulations, techniques used by the staff in evaluating specific problems or postulated accidents, and data needed by the staff in its review of applications for permits and licenses.

These draft guides and draft standard review plans are in support of proposed amendments to 10 CFR parts 50, 52, and 100 (59 FR 52255) that were proposed to update the criteria used in decisions regarding power reactor siting, including geologic, seismic, and earthquake engineering considerations for future nuclear power plants. The draft guides are intended for Division 1, "Power Reactors," and Division 4, "Environmental and Siting."

DG-1932, "Identification and Characterization of Seismic Sources and Determination of Safe Shutdown Earthquake Ground Motion," is being developed to provide general guidance on procedures acceptable to the NRC staff on conducting geological, geophysical, seismological, and geotechnical investigations; identifying and characterizing seismic sources; conducting probabilistic seismic hazard analyses; and determining the safe shutdown earthquake ground motion for a nuclear power plant.

DG-1033, the Third Proposed Revision 2 to Regulatory Guide 1.12, "Nuclear Power Plant Instrumentation for Earthquakes," is being developed to describe seismic instrumentation type, location, operability, and characteristics that is acceptable to the NRC staff for satisfying the requirements of the Commission's regulations.

DG-1034, "Pre-Earthquake Planning and Immediate Nuclear Power Plant Operator Postearthquake Actions," is being developed to provide guidance acceptable to the NRC staff for a timely evaluation after an earthquake of the recorded seismic instrumentation data and to determine whether plant shutdown is required.

DG-1035, "Restart of Nuclear Power Plant Shut Down by a Seismic Event," is being developed to provide guidance acceptable to the NRC staff for performing inspections and tests of nuclear power plant equipment and structures prior to restart of a plant that has been shut down by a seismic event.

DG-4004, the Second Proposed Revision 2 to Regulatory Guide 4.7, "General Site Suitability Criteria for Nuclear Power Stations," is being developed to provide guidance on the major site characteristics related to the public health and safety and environmental issues that the NRC staff considers in determining the suitability of sites for nuclear power stations.

Proposed Revision 3 of Draft Standard Review Plan Section 2.5.1, "Basic Geologic and Seismic Information," is being developed to describe the kinds of basic geological, seismological, and geophysical information and review procedures necessary to evaluate a nuclear power station site.

The Second Proposed Revision 3 of Draft Standard Review Plan Section 2.5.2, "Vibratory Ground Motion," is being developed to describe procedures to assess the ground motion potential of seismic sources at the site and to assess the safe shutdown earthquake.

The Proposed Revision 3 of Draft Standard Review Plan Section 2.5.3, "Surface Faulting," is being developed to describe the geosciences information and review procedures needed to assess the significance of faults to the suitability of the site.

These drafts are being issued to involve the public in the early stages of the development of regulatory positions in these areas. These drafts have not received complete staff review and do not represent official NRC staff positions.

Public comments are being solicited on these drafts. Comments should be accompanied by supporting data. Written comments may be submitted to the Rules and Review and Directives Branch, Division of Freedom of Information and Publication Services, Office of Administration, U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Washington, DC 20555. Copies of comments received may be examined at the NRC Public Document Room, 2120 L Street, NW., Washington, DC. Comments will be most helpful if received by May 12, 1995.

Comments may be submitted electronically, in either ASCII text or Wordperfect format (version 5.1 or later), by calling the NRC Electronic Bulletin Board on FedWorld. The bulletin board may be accessed using personal computer, a modem, and one of the commonly available communications software packages, or directly via Internet. Background documents on the rulemaking are also available for downloading and viewing on the bulletin board.

If using a personal computer and modem, the NRC subsystem on FedWorld can be accessed directly by dialing the toll free number: 1-800-303-9672. Communications software parameters should be set as follows: Parity to none, data bits to 8, and stop bits to 1 (N,8,1). Using ANSI or VT-100 terminal emulation, the NRC NUREGs and RegGuides for Comment subsystems can then be accessed by selecting the "Rules Menu" option from the "NRC Main Menu." For further information about options available for NRC at FedWorld, consult the "Help/Information Center" from the "NRC Main Menu." Users will find the "FedWorld Online User's Guides" particularly helpful. Many NRC subsystems and databases also have a "Help/Information Center" option that is tailored to the particular subsystem.

The NRC subsystem on FedWorld can also be accessed by a direct dial phone number for the main FedWorld BBS: 703-321-8020; Telnet via Internet: fedworld.gov (192.239.93.3); File Transfer Protocol (FTP) via Internet: ftp.fedworld.gov (192.239.92.205); and World Wide Web using: <http://www.fedworld.gov> (this is the Uniform Resource Locator (URL)).

If using a method other than the toll free number to contact Fedworld, the NRC subsystem will be addressed from the main Fedworld menu by selecting the "F—Regulatory, Government Administration and State Systems," then selecting "A—Regulatory Information Mall." At that point, a menu will be displayed that has an option "A—U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission" that will take you to the NRC Online main menu. You can also go directly to the NRC Online area by typing "/go nrc" at a FedWorld Command line. If you access NRC from FedWorld's main menu, you may return to FedWorld by selecting the "Return to FedWorld" option from the NRC Online Main Menu. However, if you access NRC at Fedworld by using NRC's toll-free number, you will have full access to all NRC systems but you will not have access to the main FedWorld system. For more information on NRC bulletin boards call Mr. Arthur Davis, Systems Integration and Development Branch, U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Washington, DC 20555, telephone (301) 415-5780; e-mail AXD3@nrc.gov.

Although a time limit is given for comments on these drafts, comments and suggestions in connection with items for inclusion in guides or standard review plan sections or improvements in all published documents are encouraged at any time.

Regulatory guides and the Standard Review Plan are available for inspection at the Commission's Public Document Room, 2120 L Street, NW., Washington, DC. Requests for single copies of draft documents (which may be reproduced) or for placement on an automatic distribution list for single copies of future draft guides in specific division should be made in writing to the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Washington, DC 20555, Attention: Distribution and Mail Services Section. Telephone requests cannot be accommodated. Regulatory guides and standard review plans are not copyrighted, and Commission approval is not required to reproduce them.
