Social Security Administration

Rescission of Social Security Acquiescence Ruling 87-1(6)

AGENCY: Social Security Administration, HHS.

ACTION: Notice of Rescission of Social Security Acquiescence Ruling 87-1(6)—Webb v. Richardson, 472 F.2d 529 (6th Cir. 1972).

SUMMARY: In accordance with 20 CFR 404.985(e) and 422.406(b)(2), the Commissioner of Social Security gives notice of the rescission of Social Security Acquiescence Ruling 87-1(6).

EFFECTIVE DATE: March 3, 1995.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Gary Sargent, Litigation Staff, Social Security Administration, 6401 Security Blvd., Baltimore, MD 21235, (410) 965-1695.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: A Social Security Acquiescence Ruling explains how we will apply a holding in a decision of a United States Court of Appeals that we determine conflicts with our interpretation of a provision of the Social Security Act or regulations when the Government has decided not to seek further review of the case or is unsuccessful on further review.

As provided by 20 CFR 404.985(e)(2), a Social Security Acquiescence Ruling may be rescinded as obsolete if a circuit court overrules or limits itself on an issue that was the basis of an Acquiescence Ruling.

On January 6, 1987, we issued Acquiescence Ruling 87-1(6) to reflect the holding in Webb v. Richardson, 472 F.2d 529 (6th Cir. 1972), that the tribunal that ultimately allows an individual's retirement, survivor's or disability insurance (title II) claim may approve an attorney's fee covering services provided during the entire appeal process (at both the administrative level of review and before the Federal courts) and that such approved fee is limited to 25 percent of the past-due benefits.

On September 14, 1994, the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit issued a judgment in Horenstein v. Secretary of Health and Human Services, 35 F.3d 261 (6th Cir. 1994) (en banc), in which it overruled Webb and joined seven other circuit courts by holding that a tribunal may award attorneys' fees only for the services performed before the tribunal. The Sixth Circuit also held that only fee awards for services performed in Federal courts, not awards for services performed before the Secretary, are limited to 25 percent of past-due benefits. The Sixth Circuit recognized that section 206(b)(1) of the Social Security Act (the Act) establishes a separate standard for awarding attorneys' fees for services performed in cases before the Federal courts and that those fees may not exceed 25 percent of the total past-due benefits. The Sixth Circuit also recognized that Congress made specific provision under section 206(a)(1) of the Act for awarding reasonable attorneys' fees for services performed before the Secretary at the administrative level, and that these fees are not limited by past-due benefits. Furthermore, the circuit court found that in cases involving court remands the court will set attorneys' fees, limited to 25 percent of past-due benefits, for services performed before it and that the Secretary will separately set reasonable attorneys' fees for the services performed at the administrative level.

Because the Sixth Circuit's judgment in Horenstein overruled the holding in Webb that resulted in our issuance of Acquiescence Ruling 87-1(6), we are rescinding that Acquiescence Ruling.

Commissioner of Social Security.
