Color Television Receivers, Except for Video Monitors, From Taiwan; Amended Final Results of Antidumping Duty Administrative Review

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

ACTION: Notice of amendment to final results of antidumping duty administrative review.

SUMMARY: On October 21, 1994, in the case of Zenith Electronics Corporation v. United States, Slip-Op 94-170 (Zenith), the United States Court of International Trade (the Court) affirmed the Department of Commerce's (the Department's) third results of redetermination on remand and prior remand determinations of the final results of the first administrative review of the antidumping duty order on color television receivers, except for video monitors, from Taiwan. In accordance with the Court's determination, we are hereby amending the final results of administrative review with respect to one company, Capetronic (BSR) Ltd. (Capetronic), for the period October 19, 1983, through March 31, 1985.

EFFECTIVE DATE: March 3, 1995.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Karin Price or Maureen Flannery, Office of Antidumping Compliance, Import Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20230; telephone: (202) 482-4733.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On December 29, 1986, the Department published in the Federal Register (51 FR 46895) the final results of the first administrative review of the antidumping duty order on color television receivers, except for video monitors, from Taiwan, covering the period October 19, 1983, through March 31, 1985.

Subsequent to the Department's final results, Zenith Electronics Corporation (Zenith), a domestic producer, alleged before the Court that the Department erred in calculating Capetronic's constructed value. The Court agreed and remanded the issue to the Department to recalculate Capetronic's margin using certain production data on the record. As a result of the recalculation, Capetronic's margin increased from the de minimis margin of 0.46 percent to 1.36 percent. The decision became final on October 21, 1994, when the Court issued its final decision on this administrative review in Zenith.

Amended Final Results of Review

In its decision in Timken Co. v. United States, 893 F.2d 337 (Fed. Cir. 1990) (Timken), the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit (Federal Circuit) held that the Department must publish notice of a decision of the Court or Federal Circuit which is not "in harmony" with the Department's determination. The Department published that notice with respect to the Court's October 21, 1994, decision in the Federal Register on January 17, 1995 (60 FR 3391). In Timken, the Federal Circuit also held that the Department must suspend liquidation until there is a "conclusive" decision in the action. An appeal was filed in this case. However, because no party has appealed an issue which would affect Capetronic, the Department is now publishing Capetronic's new margin in accordance with the Court's final and conclusive decision.

Based on our revised calculations, we have amended our final results of review for Capetronic for the period October 19, 1983, through March 31, 1985. The amended weighted-average margin is 1.36 percent. The Department shall determine, and the Customs Service shall assess, antidumping duties on all appropriate entries. Individual differences between U.S. price and foreign market value may vary from the percentage stated above. The Department will issue appraisal instructions directly to the Customs Service.

This notice is in accordance with section 751(a)(1) of the Act (19 U.S.C. 1675(a)(1)) and § 353.22 of the Department's regulations.

Dated: February 24, 1995.

Susan G. Esserman,
Assistant Secretary for Import Administration.
