SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Committee on Rulemaking will meet to discuss several topics relating to rulemaking. The topics will include a report on "interim final rules," prepared by Professor Michael Asimow of UCLA Law School, a report on "direct final rulemaking," by Professor Ronald Levin of Washington University School of Law, and a report on agency review of existing rules, by Professor Sidney Shapiro of the University of Kansas Law School.

The Committee on Adjudication will meet to begin discussion of a report on the use of Rule 11-type sanctions in administrative-level adjudications. The report is being prepared by Professor Carl Tobias of the University of Montana School of Law.

The Committee on Administration will meet to discuss reports on two topics. A report on the potential uses of alternative dispute resolution techniques for resolving conflicts between endangered species and development interests was prepared by Professors Steven L. Yaffee and Julia M. Wondollock of the University of Michigan. A second report, by Professor Mark H. Grunewald of Washington and Lee University School of Law, addresses the Freedom of Information Act and Confidentiality of Records in Alternative Dispute Resolution.

The Committee on Governmental Processes will reschedule its meeting to continue discussion of when federal government lawyers and other government employees may participate in public service activities. There are possible restrictions in the Code of Professional Responsibility, in agency regulations governing outside activities, and in government-wide rules concerning use of government instrumentalities.

Attendance at the meetings is open to the interested public, but limited to the space available. Persons wishing to attend should notify the Office of the Chairman at least one day in advance. The chairman of each committee, if he deems it appropriate, may permit members of the public to present oral statements at the meeting. Any member of the public may file a written statement with the committee before, during, or after the meeting. Minutes of each meeting will be available on request.

Dated: March 2, 1995.

[Docket No. FV-94-704]

Debt Collection

AGENCY: Agricultural Marketing Service, USDA.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Agricultural Marketing Service (AMS) hereby gives notice that, in an effort to collect delinquent assessments (debts) from persons and commercial entities under research and promotion programs and fruit and vegetable marketing orders, AMS will implement the debt collection procedures set forth in 7 CFR 3.1 through 3.36. Under these debt collection procedures, AMS will report delinquent debts to credit reporting agencies or will institute administrative offset against debtors, or both. These actions apply to both current and future delinquent debts and are necessary for effective enforcement of the various programs.
