In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Notice of Certification Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance applicable to workers of Sara Lee Knit Products at the Cleveland Avenue plant in Martinsville, Virginia; Midway, Georgia; Cloverleaf Knitting in Martinsville, Virginia; and the Distribution Center in Martinsville, Virginia. The certification notice was issued on August 26, 1994 and was published in the Federal Register on October 4, 1994 (59 FR 50625). The certification was amended on September 16, 1994 to include workers at the Gretna, Virginia plant of Sara Lee Knit Products.

At the request of the company, the Department again reviewed the certification for workers producing men's, women's and children's fleecewear at the subject firm. The findings show that the Morganton plant ceased operations on February 17, 1995 and its production and sales data were included in the corporate statistics provided by Sara Lee.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-30,089 through TA-W-30,092 is hereby issued as follows:

"All workers of Sara Lee Knit Products, Martinsville, Virginia (TA-W-30,089) Gretna, Virginia (TA-W-30,089A) Morganton, North Carolina (30,089B) Midway, Georgia (TA-W-30,090); Cloverleaf Knitting, Martinsville, Virginia (TA-W-30,091) and the Central Distribution Center, Martinsville, Virginia (TA-W-30,092), respectively, who were engaged in employment related to the production of men's, women's and children's fleecewear and provided administrative, office, warehousing and distribution services who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after June 27, 1993 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974."

Signed at Washington, DC, this 23rd day of February, 1995.

Intera Information Technologies, Inc.; Denver, CO; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on February 2, 1995 applicable to all workers of the subject firm.

The certification notice was published in the Federal Register on February 14, 1995 (60 FR 8417).

At the request of one of the workers, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. Some workers were laid off a few months prior to the impact date.

The investigation findings show that the Department can go back to February 2, 1993 in setting its impact date.

Accordingly, the Department is deleting its previous impact date of September 2, 1993 and inserting a new impact date of February 2, 1993.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers who were adversely affected by increased imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-30,332 is hereby issued as follows:

"All workers of Intera Information Technologies, Inc., in Denver, Colorado who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after February 2, 1993 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974."

Signed at Washington, DC, this 23rd day of February 1995.

Investigations Regarding Certifications of Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

Petitions have been filed with the Secretary of Labor under Section 221(a) of the Trade Act of 1974 ("the Act") and are identified in the Appendix to this notice. Upon receipt of these petitions, the Director of the Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, Employment and Training Administration, has instituted investigations pursuant to Section 221(a) of the Act.

The purpose of each of the investigations is to determine whether the workers are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Title II, Chapter 2, of the Act. The investigations will further relate, as appropriate, to the determination of the date on which total or partial separations began or threatened to begin and the subdivision of the firm involved.

The petitioners or any other persons showing a substantial interest in the subject matter of the investigations may request a public hearing, provided such request is filed in writing with the Director, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, at the address shown below, not later than March 20, 1995.

Interested persons are invited to submit written comments regarding the subject matter of the investigations to the Director, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, at the address shown below, not later than March 20, 1995.

The petitions filed in this case are available for inspection at the Office of the Director, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, Employment and Training Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20210.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 27th day of February, 1995.

Victor J. Trunzo,

Program Manager, Policy & Reemployment Services, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance.
