UNITED STATES INFORMATION AGENCY

Professional Development of African Radio Station Owners and Managers

ACTION: Notice; request for proposals.

SUMMARY: The Office of Citizen Exchanges of the United States Information Agency's Bureau of Education and Cultural Affairs announces an open competition for an assistance award. Public or private non-profit organizations meeting the provisions described in IRS regulation 501(c)(3) may apply to develop two-way exchange projects for radio station owners and managers in selected African countries. The Office proposes development of two separate projects focused on radio station management: (a) One project for francophone African participants; and (b) one project for anglophone African participants. Applicants may submit proposals to develop one or both projects. The projects should enhance participants' skills in managing their broadcasting operations and assist them to develop effective business management strategies. Each project should provide U.S.-based activities for approximately 9-12 African radio station owners and managers. Each project also should provide in-country workshops or consultancies to assist participating broadcasters implement appropriate business management practices. The projects should begin in fall 1995. Applicants are encouraged to consult with the U.S. Information Service (USIS) posts in participating countries in the development of the project proposals.

Overall grant making authority for this program is contained in the Mutual Educational and Cultural Exchange Act of 1961, Public Law 87-256, as amended, also known as the Fulbright-Hays Act. The purpose of the Act is "to enable the Government of the United States to increase mutual understanding between the people of the United States and the people of other countries * * *; to strengthen the ties which unite us with other nations by demonstrating the educational and cultural interests, developments, and achievements of the people of the United States and other nations * * * and thus to assist in the development of friendly, sympathetic and peaceful relations between the United States and the other countries of the world."

Programs and projects must conform with Agency requirements and guidelines outlined in the Solicitation Package. USIA projects and programs are subject to the availability of funds.

ANNOUNCEMENT NAME AND NUMBER: All communications with USIA concerning this announcement should refer to the above title and reference number E/P-95-50.
