Notice Pursuant to the National Cooperative Research and Production Act of 1993 HDP User Group International, Inc.

Notice is hereby given that, on September 14, 1994, pursuant to Section 6(a) of the National Cooperative Research and Production Act of 1993, 15 U.S.C. 4301 et seq. ("the Act"), HDP User Group International, Inc., an Arizona non-profit corporation, has filed written notifications simultaneously with the Attorney General and the Federal Trade Commission disclosing (1) identities of the parties and (2) the nature and objectives of the venture. The notifications were filed for the purpose of invoking the Act's provisions limiting the recovery of antitrust plaintiffs to actual damages under specified circumstances. Pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, the identities of the parties are Ruben Bergman, Alvsjo, Sweden; Advanced Micro Devices, Sunnyvale, CA; Alcatel, Aventom, Belgium; Digital Equipment Corp., Maynard, MA; Ericsson Telecom AB, Stockholm, Sweden; International Business Machines, Hopewell Junction, NY; Nokia, Espoo, Finland; and Northern Telecom, Ltd., Kanata, Ottawa, Canada.

The HDP User Group International, Inc. began in August, 1990, as an informal group of companies from Europe and North America whose goal was to influence the development of standard component assembly, and interconnect technologies required for dense electronic and opt-electronic systems, or High Density Packaging. HDP began operating under the VMEbus International Trade Association in 1993, operating as a user group with representatives from within the industry. Subsequently, HDP separated from VMEbus and on June 15, 1994, HDP incorporated as a nonprofit corporation under the laws of the State of Arizona. HDP supports, in concept, open packaging technologies as opposed to proprietary packaging technologies.

The general areas of planned activity are as follows: (a) Collecting the requirements for End Users and the Industry; (b) collecting the requirements of Users for pre-defined application profiles, based upon supplier opportunities; (c) defining preferred concepts of packaging with Suppliers and their organizations; and (d) working with Suppliers and their organizations aimed at promoting preferred concepts to develop industry standards.
