Hartz Mountain Corporation Harrison, NJ; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on December 2, 1994, applicable to all workers of the subject firm engaged in employment related to the production of aquariums and reflectors.

The certification notice was published in the Federal Register on December 16, 1994 (59 FR 65077).

At the request of the State Agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New findings show that a few workers were laid off a few weeks before the impact date of June 16, 1993. Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification by deleting the June 16, 1993 impact date and inserting a new impact date of April 1, 1993.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers who were adversely affected by increased imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-30,049 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Hartz Mountain Corporation who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after April 1, 1993 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed in Washington, DC, this 17th day of March 1995.

Victor J. Trunzo,

Program Manager, Policy and Reemployment Services, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

Determinations Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and NAFTA Transitional Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended, the Department of Labor herein presents summaries of determinations regarding eligibility to apply for trade adjustment assistance for workers (TA-W) issued during the period of March, 1995.

In order for an affirmative determination to be made and a certification of eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance to be issued, each of the group eligibility requirements of section 222 of the Act must be met.

(1) That a significant number or proportion of the workers in the workers' firm, or an appropriate subdivision thereof, have become totally or partially separated,

(2) That sales or production, or both, of the firm or subdivision have decreased absolutely, and

(3) That increases of imports of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by the firm or appropriate subdivision have contributed importantly to the separations, or threat thereof, and to the absolute decline in sales or production.

Negative Determinations for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In each of the following cases the investigation revealed that criterion (3) has not been met. A survey of customers indicated that increased imports did not contribute importantly to worker separations at the firm.

TA-W-30, 680; J.M. Huber Corp., (Engineered Minerals Div), Macon, GA

In the following cases, the investigation revealed that the criteria for eligibility have not been met for the reasons specified.

TA-W-30,707; Tidewater, Inc., New Orleans, LA

The workers' firm does not produce an article as required for certification under section 222 of the Trade Act of 1974.

TA-W-30,655; Lavelle Powder Co., Inc., Butte, MT

The workers' firm does not produce an article as required for certification under section 222 of the Trade Act of 1974.

TA-W-30,712; U.S. Information Agency, Voice of America Bethany Relay Station, Mason, OH

The workers' firm does not produce an article as required for certification under section 222 of the Trade Act of 1974.

TA-W-30,663; E-Systems, Inc., Greenville Div., Greenville, TX

The workers' firm does not produce an article as required for certification under section 222 of the Trade Act of 1974.

TA-W-30,646; Enterra Oil Field Rental Co., Odessa, TX

Increased imports did not contribute importantly to worker separations at the firm.

TA-W-30,791; DLCI USA, Van Buren, ME

Increased imports did not contribute importantly to worker separations at the firm.

TA-W-30,737; Native Textiles, A Division of Carisbrook Industries, Dallas, PA

The investigation revealed that criterion (2) and criterion (3) have not been met. Sales or production did not decline during the relevant period as required for certification. Increases of imports of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by the firm or appropriate subdivision have not contributed importantly to the separations or threat thereof, and the absolute decline in sales or production.

A certification was issued covering all workers separated on or after February 1, 1994.

Also, pursuant to Title V of the North American Free Trade Agreement Implementation Act (Pub. L. 103-182) concerning transitional adjustment assistance hereinafter called (NAFTA-TAA) and in accordance with section 250(a) subchapter D, chapter 2, title II, of the Trade Act as amended, the Department of Labor presents summaries of determinations regarding eligibility to apply for NAFTA-TAA issued during the months of March, 1995.

In order for an affirmative determination to be made and a certification of eligibility to apply for NAFTA-TAA the following group eligibility requirements of section 250 of the Trade Act must be met:

(1) That a significant number or proportion of the workers in the workers' firm, or an appropriate subdivision thereof, (including workers in any agricultural firm or appropriate subdivision thereof) have become totally or partially separated from employment and either—

(A) That sales or production, or both, of such firm or subdivision have decreased absolutely,

(B) That imports from Mexico or Canada of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by such firm or subdivision have increased.

(C) That the increase in imports contributed importantly to such workers' separations or threat of separation and to the decline in sales or production of such firm or subdivision; or

(2) That there has been a shift in production by such workers' firm or subdivision to Mexico or Canada of articles like or directly competitive with articles which are produced by the firm or subdivision.

Negative Determinations NAFTA-TAA
None.

Affirmative Determinations NAFTA-TAA

NAFTA-TAA-00359; Contract Apparel, El Paso, TX

A certification was issued covering all workers of Contract Apparel, El Paso, TX separated on or after February 2, 1994.
