Sunnyside Coal Co., Sunnyside, Utah and Sunnyside Coal Co, Boulder, CO; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 USC 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on August 18, 1994, applicable to all workers of the subject firm. The Notice was published in the Federal Register on August 26, 1994 (59 FR 44193).

At the request of the company, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New findings show worker separations in 1994 at the subject firm's headquarters in Boulder, Colorado.

Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to include the subject firm's workers at Boulder, Colorado.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-29,742 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Sunnyside Coal Company, Sunnyside, Utah and Boulder, Colorado who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after March 24, 1993 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed in Washington, DC, this 14th day of March, 1995.

Victor J. Trunzo,

Program Manager, Policy and Reemployment Services, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

Wailuku Agribusiness Co., Inc., Pineapple Division, Wailuku, HI; Revised Determination on Reconsideration

On February 10, 1995, the Department issued an Affirmative Determination Regarding Application for Reconsideration for the workers and former workers of the subject firm. The notice was published in the Federal Register on February 27, 1995 (60 FR 9409).

The findings show that the workers produce pineapples and macadamia nuts with pineapples being the preponderant portion of sales. The findings show that sales and production of pineapples declined in the first nine months of 1994 compared to the same period in 1993. Substantial worker separations occurred in 1994.

New findings on reconsideration show that all the pineapples grown and harvested are sold to an exclusive purchaser whose workers are under a trade adjustment assistance certification. By virtue of the fact that there is only one customer, the customer exercised de facto control over the production, sales and employment of pineapples at the subject firm. Accordingly, the workers meet the Department's standard of a reduced demand for their products from a parent or controlling firm whose workers produce an article and are currently under a certification for TAA.

Conclusion

After careful consideration of the new facts obtained on reconsideration, it is concluded that the workers and former workers of Wailuku Agribusiness Company, Inc., Pineapple Division, Wailuku Hawaii were adversely affected by increased imports of articles like or directly competitive with pineapples.

Accordingly, in accordance with the provisions of the Act, I make the following certification:

All workers of Wailuku Agribusiness Company, Inc., in Wailuku, Hawaii who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after September 14, 1993 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 14th day of March, 1995.

Victor J. Trunzo,

Program Manager, Policy and Reemployment Services, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance.
