LIBRARY OF CONGRESS

Copyright Office

37 CFR Part 202

[Docket No. 95-2]

Registration of Claims to Copyright; Group Registration of Daily Newsletters

AGENCY: Copyright Office, Library of Congress.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The Copyright Office of the Library of Congress is adopting a new regulation that permits group registration of daily newsletters. Publishers of daily newsletters, which are issued routinely at least two times per week, may register these newsletters in groups at a reduced fee, on a single application, if they meet certain requirements. The group registration privilege is contingent upon the publisher or claimant meeting the conditions specified in the regulation. The final rule implements a portion of section 408(c)(1) of the Copyright Act of 1976 relating to the deposit requirements for copyright registration.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This rule will become effective March 28, 1995.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Marilyn J. Kretsinger, Acting General Counsel, Copyright GC/I&R, P.O. Box 70400, Southwest Station, Washington, D.C. 20024. Telephone: (202) 707-8380. Telefax: (202) 707-8366.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Under section 407 of the Copyright Act of 1976, title 17 of the U.S. Code, the owner of copyright, or of the exclusive right of publication, in a work published in the United States is required to deposit two copies of the work in the Copyright Office for the use or disposition of the Library of Congress. The deposit is to be made within three months after such publication. Failure to make the required deposit does not affect the copyright in the work, but may subject the copyright owner to fines and other monetary liability if the failure is continued after a demand for deposit is made by the Register of Copyrights.

Section 408 of title 17 requires deposit of material in connection with applications for voluntary registration of claims to copyright in unpublished and published works. Subsection 408(c)(1) authorizes the Register of Copyrights to establish by regulation the nature of the deposit that is required. These regulations may require or permit "a single registration for a group of related works."

On December 7, 1990, the Copyright Office issued regulations permitting group registration of serials (55 FR 50556 (Dec. 7, 1990)) and on September 1, 1992, it issued regulations permitting group registration of daily newspapers (57 FR 39615 (Sept. 1, 1992)). Both of those regulations are unchanged and continue to govern group registration of serials, other than daily newsletters. For purposes of this regulation, a daily newsletter is defined as a serial published and distributed by mail or electronic media (telefacsimile, cassette tape, diskette or CD-ROM). Publication must occur at least two days per week and the newsletter must contain news or information of interest chiefly to a special group (for example, trade and professional associations, corporate
