DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Office of the Secretary

Bureau of International Labor Affairs; Public Hearings

This document is a notice of public hearings to be held by the Department of Labor for the purpose of gathering factual information regarding child labor practices throughout the world. The hearing will be held on Friday, May 5, 1995, at the Department of Labor, room N-3437, beginning at 9 a.m. The hearing will be open to the public. The Department of Labor is now accepting requests from all sectors to provide oral or written testimony at the hearing. Each presentation will be limited to ten minutes. The Department is not able to provide financial assistance to those wishing to travel to attend the hearing. Those unable to attend the hearing are invited to submit written testimony. Individuals or organizations interested in testifying at the international child labor hearing, should call (202) 501-6068 to be put on the roster.

The Department of Labor is currently undertaking a second Congressionally-mandated review of international child labor practices (pursuant to the 1995 HHS/Department of Labor Appropriations Bill—Pub. L. 103-333). Information provided at the hearing will be considered by the Department of Labor in preparing its report to Congress. Testimony should be confined to the specific topic of the study. Specifically, the international child labor study of the Bureau of International Labor Affairs is seeking written and oral testimony on the topics noted below:

1. Use of child labor in commercial (i.e., non-subsistence) export-oriented agricultural enterprises. While we are not examining family or subsistence farming, we are seeking information on children in agricultural enterprises of all sizes, from plantations and estates to small-sized farms; in forest industries, ranching, and fishing (including shellfish) enterprises.

2. Forced or bonded child labor. We are seeking information on the incidence of forced and bonded labor in industries directly or indirectly contributing to exports.

3. Government efforts to deal with child labor. Any significant actions, progressive or regressive, taken by governments with respect to child labor laws, the enforcement of child labor laws, new programs or approaches for curtailing child labor, oversight efforts, or other relevant initiatives.

4. Non-Governmental efforts intended to reduce child labor. Private-sector programs or policies to reduce child labor, including codes of conduct, corporate efforts to develop guidelines for subcontractors, or the creation of schools, centers, organizations, studies, and other approaches to limit child labor.

5. Updates and new developments. Significant actions taken by the 19 countries reviewed in the first report, such as new laws, regulations, or enforcement efforts; educational, rehabilitational, or other programs initiated; and any significant public discussion or debate of the issue.

DATES: The hearing is scheduled for Friday, May 5, 1995. The deadline for being placed on the roster for oral testimony is 5 p.m., April 21, 1995. Presenters will be required to submit five (5) written copies of their oral testimony to the Child Labor Study office by 5 p.m., May 1.
