

draft LEIS should be as specific as possible, and may address the adequacy of the statement or the merits of the alternatives discussed (see The Council on Environmental Quality Regulations for implementing the procedural provisions of the National Environmental Policy Act, 40 CFR 1503.3). In addition, Federal court decisions have established that reviewers of draft LEIS must structure their participation in the environmental review of the proposal so that it is meaningful and alerts an agency to the reviewers' position and contentions. Vermont Yankee Nuclear Power Corp. v. NRDC, 435 U.S. 519, 553 (1978). Also, environmental objections that could be raised at the draft LEIS stage but that are not raised until after completion of the final LEIS may be waived or dismissed by the courts. City of Angoon v. Hodel, 803 F.2d 1016, 1022 (9th Cir. 1988) and Wisconsin Heritages, Inc. v. Harris, 490 f. Supp. 1334, 1338 (E.D. Wis. 1980). The reason for this is to ensure that substantive comments and objections are made available to the Forest Service at a time when it can meaningfully consider them and respond to them in the final study and environmental impact statement.

After the comment period ends on the draft LEIS, comments will be analyzed and considered by the Forest Service in preparing the final LEIS. In the final LEIS, the Forest Service will respond to comments received. The final LEIS is scheduled to be completed by October 1995. The Secretary will consider the comments, responses, and consequences discussed in the LEIS, applicable laws, regulations, and policies in making a recommendation to the President regarding the suitability of these river segments for inclusion into the National Wild and Scenic Rivers System. The final decision on inclusion of a river in the National Wild and Scenic Rivers System rests with the Congress of the United States.

Dated: March 24, 1995.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

Foreign-Trade Zones Board

[Docket 9-95]

Foreign-Trade Zone 93, Triangle J Council of Governments; Application for Subzone: AT&T/Custom Manufacturing Services (Telecommunication and Computer Products) Whitsett, NC (Greensboro area)

An application has been submitted to the Foreign-Trade Zones Board (the Board) by the Triangle J Council of Governments, grantee of FTZ 93, requesting special-purpose subzone status for the telecommunication and computer products manufacturing plant of Custom Manufacturing Services (CMS), (subsidiary of AT&T Corporation) in Whitsett (Guilford County), North Carolina, adjacent to the Greensboro Customs port of entry. The application was submitted pursuant to the provisions of the Foreign-Trade Zones Act, as amended (19 U.S.C. 81a-81u), and the regulations of the Board (15 CFR part 400). It was formally filed on March 27, 1995).

The CMS facility (3 buildings/210,000 sq. ft. on 19 acres) is located at 6537 Judge Adams Road, Whitsett, North Carolina, 10 miles east of Greensboro. The facility (400 employees) is used to produce a variety of telecommunications and computer products, components and subassemblies. Telecommunication products include encryption devices, speech compression devices, cellular handsets and network equipment, ATM and digital conferencing switches, optical and voice recognition circuit packs, teleconferencing bridges and routers, and power equipment for voice and data transmission. Computer products include signal processing computers, local-area network (LAN)/wide-area network (WAN) equipment, workstations, high resolution terminals, printers, portable copiers, optical disk drives, disk array controllers, and memory modules. Most of the products are manufactured under contract for other AT&T plants and for other telecommunication and computer product manufacturers.

Foreign components currently account for 15 percent of material used in production. Items sourced from abroad include cable assemblies, computer parts and subassemblies, dial pad assemblies, computer monitors and displays, sheet glass, semiconductors, integrated circuits, keypads, LCDs (liquid crystal displays), LEDs (light emitting diodes), microphones, power supplies, printed circuit assemblies, printed wiring boards, ringers, speakers, switches, rectifiers, resistors, transformers, transistors, capacitors, connectors, diodes, and hardware, including screws and bolts.

Zone procedures would exempt CMS from Customs duty payments on foreign components used in production for export. On domestic sales, the company would be able to choose the duty rate that applies to the finished product (duty rates, duty-free to 8.5%). The duty rates on foreign components range from duty-free to 10 percent. The application indicates that zone procedures will improve the plant's international competitiveness and will help increase exports.

In accordance with the Board's regulations, a member of the FTZ Staff has been designated examiner to investigate the application and report to the Board.

Public comment is invited from interested parties. Submissions (original and 3 copies) shall be addressed to the Board's Executive Secretary at the address below. The closing period for their receipt is June 5, 1995. Rebuttal comments in response to material submitted during the foregoing period may be submitted during the subsequent 15-day period (to June 18, 1995).

A copy of the application and accompanying exhibits will be available for public inspection at each of the following locations:

U.S. Department of Commerce District Office, 400 West Market Street, Suite 400, Greensboro, North Carolina 27401.

Office of the Executive Secretary, Foreign-Trade Zones Board, U.S. Department of Commerce, Room 3716, 14th & Pennsylvania Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20230.

Dated: March 28, 1995.

John J. Da Ponte, Jr.,

Executive Secretary.

In accordance with §§ 353.22(a) and 355.22(a) of the regulations, an interested party as defined by § 353.2(k) may request in writing that the Secretary conduct an administrative review. For antidumping reviews, the interested party must specify for which individual producers or resellers covered by an antidumping finding or order it is requesting a review, and the requesting party must state why it desires the Secretary to review those particular producers or resellers. If the interested party intends for the Secretary to review sales of merchandise by a reseller (or a producer if that producer also resells merchandise from other suppliers) which were produced in more than one country of origin, and each country of origin is subject to a separate order, then the interested party must state specifically which reseller(s) and which countries of origin for each reseller the request is intended to cover.

Seven copies of the request should be submitted to the Assistant Secretary for Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Room B-099, U.S. Department of Commerce, Washington, DC 20230. The Department also asks parties to serve a copy of their requests of the Office of Antidumping

Compliance, Attention: John Kugelman, in room 3065 of the main Commerce Building. Further, in accordance with § 353.31(g) or 355.31(g) of the regulations, a copy of each request must be served on every party on the Department's service list.

The Department will publish in the Federal Register a notice of "Initiation of Antidumping (Countervailing) Duty Administrative Review," for requests received by April 30, 1995. If the Department does not receive, by April 30, 1995, a request for review of entries covered by an order or finding listed in this notice and for the period identified above, the Department will instruct the Customs Service to assess antidumping or countervailing duties on those entries at a rate equal to the cash deposit of (or bond for) estimated antidumping or countervailing duties required on those entries at the time of entry, or withdrawal from warehouse, for consumption and to continue to collect the cash deposit previously ordered.

This notice is not required by statute, but is published as a service to the international trading community.

Dated: March 29, 1995.

Roland L. MacDonald,
Acting Deputy Assistant Secretary for Compliance.
