

ACTION: Extension of filing period.

SUMMARY: The Copyright Office is extending the filing period in Docket RM 94-4 (Specialty Station List) to accommodate parties who were unable to file within the time period originally set for compiling a new specialty station list. See 60 FR 4639 (January 24, 1995). The former deadline was March 27, 1995. The new deadline is April 24, 1995.

DATES: Filings should be received by April 24, 1995.

ADDRESSES: By mail: Copyright GC/I&R, P.O. Box 70400, Southwest Station, Washington, D.C. 20023. By hand: Office of the General Counsel, U.S. Copyright Office, James Madison Memorial Building, Room 407, First and Independence Avenue, S.E.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Marilyn J. Kretsinger, Acting General Counsel, Copyright GC/I&R, P.O. Box 70400, Southwest Station, Washington, D.C. 20024. Telephone (202) 707-8380, Telefax (202) 707-8366.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Specialty station status is significant in the administration of the cable compulsory license, 17 USC 111. The Copyright Office announced in 1990 that it will create a new, up-to-date list of specialty stations at approximately three year intervals so that broadcasters and cable operators may plan their transmission arrangements. See 60 FR 4639 (January 24, 1995). We have discovered that many station owners either were not aware of the filing deadline in this proceeding or were not aware that the creation of a new list required filing an affidavit verifying specialty station status by each station that wants to be on the new list. Therefore, we are extending the deadline for filing such affidavits from March 27, 1995, until April 24, 1995. After that date the Office will publish a list of every station that submitted an affidavit seeking comment as to whether or not the listed stations meet the requirements for specialty station status set forth in former FCC regulations at 47 CFR 76.5 (kk)(1981). Finally, we will publish a new specialty station list for purposes of administering 17 USC 111.

Dated: April 7, 1995.

Appendix—Announcement of the NRC's Intent to Reduce the Scope of Work to States Under Contract to the NRC To Perform Environmental Monitoring in the Environs of Selected NRC Licensed Facilities

The Nuclear Regulatory Commission is soliciting comments on its plan to reduce the scope of work for the Cooperative Agreement program under which States are paid to conduct radiological environmental monitoring in the environs of selected nuclear facilities. The NRC plans to eliminate the scope of work in 1996 for the part of the program under which States obtain and analyze environmental samples. However, the NRC plans to continue the part of the program under which States participate in the NRC's direct radiation monitoring network. This reduction in the scope of work of the program directly affects 27 States. The elimination of the environmental monitoring portion of the program will not have an impact on public health and safety and does not represent a reduction in plant safety.

The State Cooperative Agreement Program was established in the 1970s to provide NRC assistance to State radiological health programs, through the use of NRC-funded contracts, to perform measurements of radioactive material released into the environment from NRC-licensed facilities. The States issue an annual report to the NRC of all analyses they perform with comparisons of similar analyses performed by the respective nuclear facility. The NRC uses this data as a supplemental tool in assessing the performance of environmental monitoring programs conducted by nuclear power plants. The contracts for environmental monitoring were intended as a means to assist States with nuclear facilities to develop their own environmental monitoring programs, but not to fully fund them.

NRC-licensed facilities are under strict NRC requirements to monitor and control the release of radioactive materials to the air, water and ground around their facilities. The NRC inspects and reviews licensee conformance with the requirements on a routine basis.

In addition to the environmental monitoring portion of the program, which will cost $1 million for 1995, the NRC has a provision in the contract, which will continue to remain, for the States to participate in the NRC's direct radiation monitoring network. The network provides continuous measurement of the ambient radiation levels around selected nuclear facilities by using small devices called thermoluminescent dosimeters (TLDs). The cost of this program for 1995 is $195,000.

The environmental monitoring portion of the program was specifically chosen for elimination because of the excellent record maintained by NRC-licensed facilities in controlling the release of radiological effluents into the environment within regulatory limits. In addition, the elimination of the data supplied by the States will not adversely affect NRC's ability to effectively monitor and regulate NRC licensees in this area.

The NRC recognizes the excellent service and cooperation the States have provided under this program. However, the need to constantly examine and adjust programs to ensure that public health and safety is protected in the most cost-effective manner has necessitated the reduction in this program.
