Bureau of the Census

Census Advisory Committee (CAC) on the American Indian and Alaska Native Populations, the CAC on the Asian and Pacific Islander Populations, the CAC on the African American Population, and the CAC on the Hispanic Population; Public Meeting

Pursuant to the Federal Advisory Committee Act (Pub. L. 92–463 as amended by Pub. L. 94–409), we are giving notice of a joint meeting followed by separate and jointly held (described below) meetings of the CAC on the American Indian and Alaska Native Populations, the CAC on the Asian and Pacific Islander Populations, the CAC on the African American Population, and the CAC on the Hispanic Population. The joint meeting will convene on May 11–12, 1995 at the Bureau of the Census in the Conference Center, Room 1630, Federal Building 3, Suitland, Maryland 20233.

Each of these Committees is composed of nine members appointed by the Secretary of Commerce. They provide an organized and continuing channel of communication between the communities they represent and the Bureau of the Census on its efforts to reduce the differential undercount in the 2000 census and on ways the census data can be disseminated to maximum usefulness to their communities and other users.

The Committees will draw on past experience with the 1990 census process and procedures, results of evaluations and research studies, and the expertise and insight of their members to provide advice and recommendations during the research and development phase on various topics, and provide advice and recommendations during the design planning and implementation phases of the 2000 census.

The agenda for the May 11 combined meeting is: (1) Introductory remarks by the Director, Bureau of the Census; (2) reengineered 2000 census; (3) 1995 Census Test update; (4) outreach and promotion; and (5) issues on race and ethnicity.

The agendas for the four committees in their separate and jointly held meetings are as follows:

The CAC on the African American Population: (1) Outreach and promotion; (2) issues on race and ethnicity; and (3) review of responses to committee recommendations.

The CAC on the American Indian and Alaska Native Populations: (1) Outreach and promotion; (2) issues on race and ethnicity; (3) review of responses to committee recommendations; (4) plans for the 2000 census geography; (5) plans for the 1996 reservation site test; and (6) discussion of agenda items for fall meeting.

The CAC on the Asian and Pacific Islander Populations: (1) Outreach and promotion; (2) issues on race and ethnicity; and (3) review of responses to committee recommendations.

The CAC on the Hispanic Population: (1) outreach and promotion; (2) issues on race and ethnicity; and (3) review of responses to committee recommendations.

The agenda for the May 12 combined meeting is: (1) Format of advisory meeting; (2) electronic release of data and innovations in development of data products; and (3) sampling and estimation.

The agendas for the four committees in their separate and jointly held meetings are:

The CAC on the African American Population: (1) Review of plenary session topics; (2) discussion of agenda items for next meeting; and (3) development and discussion of recommendations.
