

were significant mitigating factors, primarily the individual's substantial reduction of his alcohol intake over the last year and the fact that the last incident of lack of temper control was several years ago. The Hearing Officer concluded that neither the individual's alcohol use nor his mental condition present a risk to national security. Accordingly, the Hearing Officer found that the individual's access authorization should be reinstated.

Federal Energy Regulatory Commission

[Docket No. RP95-250-000]

Algonquin LNG, Inc; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

April 27, 1995.

Take notice that on April 24, 1995, Algonquin LNG, Inc. (Algonquin LNG) submitted for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, First Revised Volume No. 1, effective May 4, 1995, the following revised tariff sheet:

Second Revised Sheet No. 65

Algonquin LNG states that the purpose of this filing is to revise the capacity release provisions of its tariff to conform to changes in § 284.243(h) of the Commission's regulations pursuant to Order No. 577.

Algonquin LNG states that copies of its filing were mailed to all affected customers and interested State Commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 825 North Capitol Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with § 385.214 and § 385.211 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure. All such motions or protests should be filed on or before May 4, 1995. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.

Lois D. Cashell,

Secretary.
