Approval and Promulgation of Air Quality Implementation Plans; Utah; New Source ReviewAGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency (EPA).ACTION: Notice of proposed rulemaking.

SUMMARY: In this document, the EPA is proposing approval of revisions to the State Implementation Plan (SIP) pertaining to the State of Utah's new source review (NSR) regulations, which were submitted by the Governor of Utah on November 12, 1993 and June 27, 1994. EPA is also proposing approval of revisions to the State's definition of volatile organic compounds, which was submitted by the Governor of Utah on May 20, 1994. In the final rules section of this Federal Register, the EPA is approving the State's SIP submittal as a direct final rule without prior proposal because the Agency views this submittal as noncontroversial and anticipates no adverse comments. A detailed rationale for the approval is set forth in the direct final rule. If no adverse comments are received in response to this proposed rule, no further activity is contemplated in relation to this rule. If the EPA receives adverse comments, then the direct final rule will be withdrawn and all public comments received will be addressed in a subsequent final rule based on this proposed rule. The EPA will not institute a second comment period on this notice. Any parties interested in commenting on this document should do so at this time.

DATES: Comments on this proposed action must be received in writing by June 5, 1995.

ADDRESSES: Written comments should be addressed to Vicki Stamper, 8ART-AP, at the EPA Regional Office listed below. Copies of the documents relevant to this proposed rule are available for public inspection during normal business hours at the following locations: Air Programs Branch, Environmental Protection Agency, Region VIII, 999 18th Street, suite 500, Denver, Colorado 80202-2466; and Division of Air Quality, Utah Department of Environmental Quality, PO Box 144820, 150 North 1950 West, Salt Lake City, Utah 84114-4820.

Approval and Promulgation of State Implementation Plans: WashingtonAGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency (EPA).ACTION: Proposed rule.

SUMMARY: The EPA proposes to approve the State of Washington's contingency measure plan as a revision to Washington's State Implementation Plan (SIP) for carbon monoxide (CO). The SIP revision was submitted by the State to satisfy certain Federal Clean Air Act requirements for the Puget Sound Carbon Monoxide Nonattainment Area. In the final rules section of this Federal Register, the EPA is approving the State's SIP revision as a direct final rule without prior proposal because the Agency views this as a noncontroversial revision amendment and anticipates no adverse comments. A detailed rationale for the approval is set forth in the direct final rule. If no adverse comments are received in response to this proposed rule, no further activity is contemplated in relation to this rule. If the EPA receives adverse comments, the direct final rule will be withdrawn and all public comments received will be addressed in a subsequent final rule based on this proposed rule. The EPA will not institute a second comment period on this document.
