Description: In November 1991, the Congress of the United States passed the Emergency Unemployment Compensation Act. In accordance with the Act, Congress created the Advisory Council on Unemployment Compensation (ACUC). The ACUC's primary responsibility is to evaluate the unemployment compensation program, including the purpose, goals, countercyclical effectiveness, coverage, benefit adequacy, trust fund solvency, funding of State administrative costs, administrative efficiency, and any other aspects of the program, and to make recommendations for improvement.

In carrying out its mandate to evaluate and analyze the unemployment insurance system the ACUC has determined that it is very important to assess public opinion and public knowledge regarding the performance, fairness, coverage, adequacy, and satisfaction of the unemployment system currently in place. A telephone survey of a random sample of adults 18 years and older will be conducted.

Signed at Washington, D.C. this 1st day of May 1995.

Theresa M. O'Malley,

Acting Departmental Clearance Officer.
