INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

International Trade Commission, Investigations Relating to Potential Breaches of Administrative Protective Orders, Sanctions Imposed for Actual Violations

AGENCY: U.S. International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Summary of Commission practice relating to administrative protective orders.

SUMMARY: This notice provides a summary by the International Trade Commission (Commission) of its investigations of (1) breaches of administrative protective orders (APOs) issued in connection with investigations under Title VII and Section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, and (2) certain violations of the Commission's rules.

This notice is intended to inform the public of the Commission's experience with APO breaches. The Commission also intends that this notice will educate and alert representatives of parties to Commission proceedings as to some specific types of APO breaches encountered by the Commission. This notice is illustrative only and does not limit the Commission's rules or standard APO. The notice does not provide an exclusive list of conduct that will be deemed to be a breach of the Commission's APOs, and does not indicate how the Commission will rule in future cases.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Elizabeth C. Rose, Esq., Office of the General Counsel, U.S. International Trade Commission, telephone 202-205-3113.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The discussion below illustrates APO breach investigations that the Commission has completed including a description of actions taken in response to breaches.
The discussion covers breach investigations completed during 1994 with respect to antidumping and countervailing duty cases. Also discussed are the Commission's investigations completed during 1994 of possible violations of Commission rule 207.3, commonly known as the "one day rule." In the interest of providing as much information to practitioners as possible on APO practice, this notice also discusses breach investigations completed during 1994 with respect to investigations under section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930.

The Commission periodically reports a summary of its actions in response to violations of Commission APOs in an effort to educate those obtaining access to business proprietary information (BPI) under an APO of the common problems encountered in handling BPI and confidential business information (CBI). This is the fifth notice of its kind, the previous ones having been published at 56 FR 4846 (Feb. 6, 1991), 57 FR 12335 (Apr. 9, 1992), 58 FR 21991 (Apr. 26, 1993), and 59 FR 16834 (Apr.
8, 1994). The Commission intends to publish summaries at least annually, and more frequently as appropriate.

As part of the effort to educate practitioners about APO practice, the Commission's Secretary issued in September 1991 An Introduction to Administrative Protective Order Practice in Antidumping and Countervailing Duty Investigations. This document is available upon request from the Office of the Secretary, U.S.
International Trade Commission, 500 E Street, SW, Washington, DC 20436, telephone 202-205-2000.

I. Title VII Administrative Protective Orders

A. In General

APOs are issued in Commission investigations under Title VII of the Tariff Act of 1930 to provide access to BPI to certain party representatives under conditions designed to protect the confidentiality of such information. The
