Program Instruction

To: State Agencies and Indian Tribes Administering the Title IV-B Child and Family Services Program.

Subject: Requirements for Acquisition of Fiscal Year 1995 and 1996 Title IV-B Allotments.

Purpose: In the interim, until the Final Rule for the Family Preservation and Support Services Program is published, this Program Instruction's purpose is to provide States and eligible Indian Tribes with guidance on the development and submission of their Five-Year Plans for Family Preservation and Support, and additional instructions on obtaining their Fiscal Year (FY) 1995 and 1996 allotments for the Child Welfare Services program (title IV-B, subpart 1) and the Family Preservation and Support Services Program (title IV-B, subpart 2).

Legal and Related References: Title IV-B of the Social Security Act, Subpart 1, Child Welfare Services, and Subpart 2, Family Preservation and Support Services; 45 CFR part 92; ACYF-PI-94-01; ACYF-PI-94-04; Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, 59 FR 50646, October 4, 1994.

Overview: This Program Instruction provides guidance to States and eligible Indian Tribes on actions they need to take in order to receive their allotments for fiscal years 1995 and 1996 authorized under title IV-B, subparts 1 and 2. These State and Tribal actions will involve: (1) developing and submitting a five-year plan for family preservation and support services; (2) completing and submitting the Annual Budget Requests for title IV-B, subparts 1 and 2, and the Annual Summary of Child and Family Services.

The FY 1994 Program Instructions (PIs) issued to States and eligible Indian Tribes on January 18, 1994, and the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking (NPRM) for the Family Preservation and Support Services Program published in the Federal Register on October 4, 1994, informed States and eligible Indian Tribes that the legislation required the development and submission of five-year plans for family preservation and support by June 30, 1995. The PIs and the NPRM provided a general orientation to planning for the development of the five-year plan, and encouraged numerous activities such as the consolidation of title IV-B, subparts 1 and 2.

States and Indian Tribes are currently involved in joint planning with Administration on Children and Families (ACF) Regional Staff. The development of five-year plans appears to be progressing extremely well, and we expect this positive momentum to be maintained. States and Tribes are working diligently and creatively as they build on their existing reform efforts and engage in extensive outreach in the course of designing new and/or expanded family preservation and community-based family support services.

This Program Instruction restates that statutory requirements for the five-year plan and reiterates recommendations, such as consolidation, which were articulated in the NPRM. No new plan requirements are being added to this time, and we want to reaffirm that consolidation remains an option.

The variation among States and Indian Tribes in their five-year planning processes and the various cycles both use for their title IV-B, subpart 1, planning necessitates clarification of the specific requirements they must meet in order to obtain their FY 1995 and 1996 title IV-B, subpart 1 and 2, allotments.

This Program Instruction is divided into a background section and two attachments.

★ The background section provides general information on the enactment and purposes of the Family Preservation and Support Services Program along with principles and themes guiding its implementation.

★ Attachment A addresses the five-year plan.

Attachment A.1 provides guidance to States and eligible Indian Tribes, on completing the development of their five-year plan. Included in Attachment A.1 are:

A.1a—Content guidelines for the five-year plan;

A.1b—A list of all required assurances that must be submitted with the plan;

A.1c—Copies of all certifications that are to be complied with and clarification about which one will have to be signed and actually submitted with the plan.

Attachment A.2 presents the statutory basis for five-year plan approval.

Attachment A.3 presents the statutory basis for exempting eligible Indian Tribes from inappropriate requirements.

★ Attachment B addresses the new CFS-101, which consists of the State Annual Budget Requests for title IV-B, subparts 1 and 2, and the State annual Summary of Child Welfare Services. The new CFS-102 is essentially an updated CWS-101 and requests some new information so States can receive their subpart 2 allotment:

Attachment B.1 provides a general orientation to the new CFS-101. Included in Attachment B.1 are:

B.1a—Information on the development of the CFS-101;

B.1b—General directions and timeframes for submission of the CFS-101.

Attachment B.2 provides instructions for filling out the three forms which constitute the CFS-101:

(Form 1) Part I: Annual Budget Request for Title IV-B, Subpart 1, Child Welfare Services. Part I is the same as the old CWS-101 Part I: Annual Budget Request;

(Form 2) Part I Supplement: Annual Budget Request for Title IV-B, Subpart 2. Part I Supplement is a new form for States to request funds from the Family Preservation and Support Services Program;

(Form 3) Part II: Annual Summary of Child and Family Services. Part II is essentially the same as the old CWS-101 Part II, except that some new information relevant to implementation of the Family Preservation and Support Services Program is being requested

Copies of all the forms are enclosed.

Submittals: The Five-Year Plan

An original and two copies of the plan must be submitted to the Administration for Children and Families (ACF) Federal Regional Office by June 30, 1995. Guidelines can be found in Attachment A.

The CFS-101

The due dates for the Annual Budget Requests and the Annual Summary of Services for FYs 1995 and 1996 vary depending upon a number of different circumstances. Explicit instructions can be found in Attachment B.

Submit the original (with original signature) and two copies to the Administration for Children and Families (ACF) Federal Regional Office.
