

amendment will be granted or denied by the Director of Personnel or, for records maintained by the Inspector General, the Inspector General. If the request is granted, the Director of Personnel, or the Inspector General, for records maintained by the Inspector General, shall promptly make any correction of any portion of the record which the individual believes is not accurate, relevant, timely, or complete. If, however, the request is denied, the Director of Personnel shall inform the individual of the refusal to amend the record in accordance with the individual's request and give the reason(s) for the refusal. In cases where the Director of Personnel or the Inspector General has refused to amend in accordance with an individual's request, he or she also shall advise the individual of the procedures under § 201.29 of these regulations for the individual to request a review of that refusal by the full Commission or by an officer designated by the Commission.

5. Paragraphs (a) through (d) of § 201.29 are revised to read as follows:

§ 201.29 Commission review of request for correction or amendment to record.

(a) The individual who disagrees with the refusal of the Director of Personnel or the Inspector General to amend the record may request a review of the refusal by the Commission. All requests for review of refusals to amend records should be addressed to the Chairman, United States International Trade Commission, 500 E Street, SW., Washington, DC 20436, and shall clearly indicate both on the envelope and in the letter that it is a Privacy Act review request.

(b) Not later than 30 days (Saturdays, Sundays, and Federal legal public holidays excluded) from the date on which the Commission receives a request for review of the Director of Personnel's or the Inspector General's refusal to amend the record, the Commission shall complete such a review and make a final determination thereof unless, for good cause shown, the Commission extends the 30-day period.

(c) After the individual's request to amend his or her records has been reviewed by the Commission, if the Commission agrees with the Director of Personnel's or the Inspector General's refusal to amend the record in accordance with the individual's request, the Commission shall: (1) Notify the individual in writing of the Commission's decision; (2) advise the individual that he or she has the right to file a concise statement of disagreement with the Commission which sets forth his or her reasons for disagreement with the refusal of the Commission to amend the records; and (3) notify the individual of his or her legal right to judicial review of the Commission's final determination.

(d) In any disclosure, containing information about which the individual has filed a statement of disagreement, the Director of Personnel, or, for records maintained by the Inspector General, the Inspector General, shall clearly note any portion of the record which is disputed and shall provide copies of the statement and, if the Commission deems it appropriate, copies of a concise statement of the reasons of the Commission for not making the amendments requested, to persons or other agencies to whom the disputed record has been disclosed.

6. Paragraph (b) of § 201.30 is revised to read as follows:

§ 201.30 Commission disclosure of record to person other than the individual to whom it pertains.

(b) Except for disclosures either to officers and employees of the Commission, or, to contractor employees who, in the Inspector General's or the Director of Personnel's judgment, are acting as federal employees, who have a need for the record in the performance of their duties, and any disclosure required by 5 U.S.C. § 552, the Director of Personnel shall keep an accurate accounting of: (1) The date, nature, and purpose of each disclosure of a record to any person or to another agency under paragraph (a) of this section; and (2) the name or address of the person or agency to whom the disclosure is made.

Issued: May 15, 1995.

By order of the Commission.
