

the panel for U.S. history and the panel for world geography in accordance with the NAGB policy document "Setting Appropriate Achievement Levels for the National Assessment of Educational Progress," dated November 20, 1993, and further amended on March 5, 1995, and a design developed by American College Testing and approved by the Board on March 5, 1994. The proposals include detailed descriptions of the subject-matter knowledge and skills proposed for each level.

These proposals are scheduled to be presented to the Board during its quarterly meeting in Washington, D.C. August 3-5, 1995. The text of these proposals and a description of the achievement levels-setting process may be obtained by contacting the ACT office at the address or telephone number above by 3:00 p.m. on June 9, 1995. However, every effort will be made to receive testimony from all persons attending the forum who wish to make a presentation. Written statements should be submitted at the forum or to the ACT office by 5:00 p.m. on July 10, 1995. The Board plans to analyze all comments received in response to this announcement. The results of the public comments will be used by the Board in conjunction with other information to fulfill its statutory requirement to establish achievement levels on the National Assessment.

Records are kept of all Board proceedings, and are available to public inspection at the National Assessment Governing Board, 800 North Capitol Street, Suite 825, Washington, D.C., from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Dated: May 22, 1995.

Roy Truby,

Executive Director, National Assessment Governing Board.
