

1142, a public meeting of the Working Group on Defined Contribution Adequacy of the Advisory Council on Employee Welfare and Pension Benefit Plans will be held from 9:30 a.m. until 12:00 noon, Wednesday, June 14, 1995, in Suite S-3215 A-B, U.S. Department of Labor Building, Third and Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20210.

This work group was formed by the Advisory Council to study issues relating to the adequacy of defined contribution plans for employee retirement income.

The purpose of the June 14 meeting is to receive testimony from invited persons and to hold discussions concerning the following questions: (1) What constitutes an adequate retirement income?; (2) What defined contribution research and studies have been done? and (3) What further research, if any, is needed? The work group will also take testimony and/or submissions from employee representatives, employer representatives and other interested individuals and groups regarding the subject matter.

Individuals or representatives of organizations wishing to address the work group should submit a written request on or before June 8, 1995 to Linda R. Jackson, Acting Executive Secretary, ERISA Advisory Council, U.S. Department of Labor, Suite N-5677, 200 Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20210. Oral presentations will be limited to ten (10) minutes, but witnesses may submit an extended statement for the record.

Organizations or individuals may also submit statements for the record without testifying. Twenty (20) copies of such statement should be sent to the Executive Secretary of the Advisory Council at the above address. Papers will be accepted and included in the record of the meeting if received on or before June 8, 1995.

Olena Berg,

Assistant Secretary, Pension and Welfare Benefits Administration.

Advisory Council on Employee Welfare and Pension Benefit Plans; Notice of Meeting

Pursuant to the authority contained in Section 512 of the Employee Retirement Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), 29 U.S.C. 1142, a public meeting of the Working Group on Real Estate Investment of the Advisory Council on Employee Welfare and Pension Benefit Plans will be held from 1:00 p.m. until 3:30 noon, Tuesday, June 13, 1995, in Suite S-3215 A-B, U.S. Department of Labor Building, Third and Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20210.

This work group was formed by the Advisory Council to study issues relating to real estate investment, focusing on real estate investment advisor practices and real estate valuations.

The purpose of the June 13 meeting is to receive testimony from invited persons addressing the following questions: (1) Is current regulatory oversight of real estate investment advisors adequate?; (2) Is additional regulation needed beyond the Securities and Exchange Commission registration guidelines?; and (3) Would self-regulation of real estate investment advisors be better? The work group will hear testimony from a plan sponsor, a pension consultant dealing with real estate, a Department of Labor representative, a real estate investment manager, and a lawyer with experience in real estate fee structures.

The work group will also take testimony and/or submissions from employee representatives, employer representatives and other interested individuals and groups regarding the subject matter. Individuals or representatives of organizations wishing to address the work group should submit a written request on or before June 8, 1995 to Linda R. Jackson, Acting Executive Secretary, ERISA Advisory Council, U.S. Department of Labor, Suite N-5677, 200 Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20210. Oral presentations will be limited to ten (10) minutes, but witnesses may submit an extended statement for the record.

Organizations or individuals may also submit statements for the record without testifying. Twenty (20) copies of such statement should be sent to the Executive Secretary of the Advisory Council at the above address. Papers will be accepted and included in the record of the meeting if received on or before June 8, 1995.
