

be filed as part of either a re-registration or as part of a late initial registration together with the Application for Temporary Protected Status, Form I-821. The appropriate filing fee must accompany Form I-765 unless a properly documented fee waiver request is submitted to the Immigration and Naturalization Service or the applicant does not request employment authorization. The Form I-765 is necessary for data gathering purposes.

Notice of Extension of Designation of Rwanda Under the Temporary Protected Status Program

By the authority vested in me as Attorney General under section 244A of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended, (8 U.S.C. 1254a), and pursuant to sections 244A(b)(3) (A) and (C) of the Act, I have had consultations with the appropriate agencies of the Government concerning (a) the conditions in Rwanda; and (b) whether permitting nationals of Rwanda, and aliens having no nationality who last habitually resided in Rwanda, to remain temporarily in the United States is contrary to the national interest of the United States. As a result, I determine that the conditions for the original designation of Temporary Protected Status for Rwanda continue to be met. Accordingly, it is ordered as follows:

(1) The designation of Rwanda under section 244A(b) of the Act is extended for an additional 12-month period from June 7, 1995, to June 6, 1996.

(2) I estimate that there are approximately 200 nationals of Rwanda, and aliens having no nationality who last habitually resided in Rwanda, who have been granted Temporary Protected Status and who are eligible for re-registration.

(3) A national of Rwanda, or an alien having no nationality who last habitually resided in Rwanda, who received a grant of Temporary Protected Status during the initial period of designation from June 7, 1994, to June 6, 1995, must comply with the re-registration requirements contained in 9 CFR 240.17, which are described in pertinent part in paragraphs (4) and (5) of this notice.

(4) A national of Rwanda, or an alien having no nationality who last habitually resided in Rwanda, who previously has been granted Temporary Protected Status, must re-register by filing a new Application for Temporary Protected Status, Form I-821, together with an Application for Employment Authorization, Form I-765, within the 30-day period beginning on May 25, 1995 and ending on June 23, 1995, in order to be eligible for Temporary Protected Status during the period from June 7, 1995, until June 6, 1996. Late re-registration applications will be allowed for "good cause" pursuant to 8 CFR 240.17(c).

(5) There is no fee for the Form I-821 filed as part of the re-registration application. The fee prescribed in 8 CFR 103.7(b)(1), currently seventy dollars ($70), will be charged for the Form I-765, filed by an alien requesting employment authorization pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (4) of this notice. An alien who does not request employment authorization must nonetheless file Form I-821 together with Form I-765, but in such cases both Form I-821 and Form I-765 should be submitted without fee.

(6) Pursuant to section 244A(b)(3)(A) and (C) of the Act, the Attorney General will review, at last 60 days before June 6, 1996, the designation of Rwanda under the Temporary Protected Status program to determine whether the conditions for designation continue to be met. Notice of that determination, including the basis for the determination, will be published in the Federal Register.

(7) Information concerning the Temporary Protected Status program for nationals of Rwanda, and aliens having no nationality who last habitually resided in Rwanda, will be available at local Immigration and Naturalization Service offices upon publication of this notice.

Dated: May 17, 1995.

Janet Reno,

Attorney General.

Investigations Regarding Certifications of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

Petitions have been filed with the Secretary of Labor under Section 221 (a) of the Trade Act of 1974 ("the Act") and are identified in the Appendix to this notice. Upon receipt of these petitions, the Director of the Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, Employment and Training Administration, has instituted investigations pursuant to Section 221 (a) of the Act.

The purpose of each of the investigations is to determine whether the workers are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Title II, Chapter 2, of the Act. The investigations
