Export Trade Activities and Methods of Operation

1. To engage in Export Trade in the Export Markets, as an Export Intermediary, TEXTPORT, Inc. may:
 - a. Solicit orders from foreign customers.
 - b. Arrange for transportation of merchandise sold from Members' plants, warehouses, etc. to customers' premises.
 - c. Arrange for financing of sales, collect accounts receivable and disburse funds to Members.
 - d. Arrange for customs clearance and, where applicable and permitted, assist Members in filing claims for drawback of duties paid on imported raw materials.
 - e. Collaborate with one or more of its Members or on its own, to conduct market research in foreign markets; purchase or commission studies and reports of foreign markets; participate in trade shows and missions; secure and provide advertising and promotional services; engage legal, accounting, customs brokerage and other services required to facilitate the applicant's ongoing business activity; and solicit, from private or public sector sources, monetary grants and funding to assist the applicant in the conduct of its business.
 - f. Quote prices to potential customers from Members' price lists. Members will agree that selling prices may be negotiated between applicant and customers with Member's prior approval.
 - g. Confer, from time to time, with one or more of its Members regarding a potential sale with regard to the quantities, price, delivery schedule and other pertinent matters pertaining thereto. Members may agree to share in a sale or submit joint bids. The applicant and one or more of its Members may refuse to quote prices or solicit or make a sale for reasons they deem fit.
 - h. Require that active membership in the American Textile Manufacturers Institute be a condition for membership in TEXTPORT, Inc.
 - i. Receive a commission on final sales by the Member(s) for whose account the sale was made, the percentage of such commission to be mutually agreed between applicant and Member(s).

2. It will be agreed that the applicant will not divulge the prices or quantities of goods sold for any Member's account to other Members but reserves the right to divulge the total of sales commissions paid by an individual Member during any fiscal year.
