46 CFR Part 582

FMC requests an extension of clearance for 46 CFR part 582, which implements section 10(b)(2) of the Shipping Act of 1984 provisions. The Act provides that no common carrier by water may rebate, refund, or remit any portion of its rates except in accordance with its tariffs or service contracts. Section 15(b) of the Act requires the chief executive officer of each common carrier and certain other persons designated by the Commission to file a periodic written certification that anti-rebating policies have been implemented. The Commission estimates that approximately 2100 NVOCCs, 500 VOCCs and 1800 freight forwarders will file anti-rebate certifications on each even-numbered year. Annual respondent burden for complying with the regulation is 2,200 manhours (½ hour per response). Estimated annual cost to the Federal Government is $5,700; estimated annual cost to respondents is $59,400.

FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEMCoöperatieve Centrale Raiffeisen-Boerenleenbank B.A., et al.; Notice of Applications to Engage de novo in Permissible Nonbanking ActivitiesThe companies listed in this notice have filed an application under § 225.23(a)(1) of the Board's Regulation Y (12 CFR 225.23(a)(1)) for the Board's approval under section 4(c)(8) of the Bank Holding Company Act (12 U.S.C. 1843(c)(8)) and § 225.21(a) of Regulation Y (12 CFR 225.21(a)) to commence or to engage de novo, either directly or through a subsidiary, in a nonbanking activity that the Board has determined is closely related to banking and permissible for bank holding companies. Unless otherwise noted, such activities will be conducted throughout the United States.

Each application is available for immediate inspection at the Federal Reserve Bank indicated. Once the application has been accepted for processing, it will also be available for inspection at the offices of the Board of Governors. Interested persons may express their views in writing on the question whether consummation of the proposal can "reasonably be expected to produce benefits to the public, such as greater convenience, increased competition, or gains in efficiency, that outweigh possible adverse effects, such as undue concentration of resources, decreased or unfair competition, conflicts of interests, or unsound banking practices." Any request for a hearing on this question must be accompanied by a statement of the reasons a written presentation would not suffice in lieu of a hearing, identifying specifically any questions of fact that are in dispute, summarizing the evidence that would be presented at a hearing, and indicating how the party commenting would be aggrieved by approval of the proposal.

Unless otherwise noted, comments regarding the applications must be received at the Reserve Bank indicated or the offices of the Board of Governors not later than June 14, 1995.

FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION

Granting of Request For Early Termination of the Waiting Period Under the Premerger Notification Rules

Section 7A of the Clayton Act, 15 U.S.C. § 18a, as added by Title II of the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, requires persons contemplating certain mergers or acquisitions to give the Federal Trade Commission and the Assistant Attorney General advance notice and to wait designated periods before consummation of such plans. Section 7A(b)(2) of the Act permits the agencies, in individual cases, to terminate this waiting period prior to its expiration and requires that notice of this action be published in the Federal Register.

The following transactions were granted early termination of the waiting period provided by law and the premerger notification rules. The grants were made by the Federal Trade Commission and the Assistant Attorney General for the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice. Neither agency intends to take any action with respect to these proposed acquisitions during the applicable waiting period.
