Analysis of Proposed Consent Order To Aid Public Comment

The Federal Trade Commission has accepted an agreement to a proposed consent order from respondent G.E.C.H., Inc. ("GE Cherry Hill").

The proposed consent order has been placed on the public record for sixty (60) days for reception of comments by interested persons. Comments received during this period will become part of the public record. After sixty (60) days, the Commission will again review the agreement and the comments received and will decide whether it should withdraw from the agreement or make final the agreement's proposed order.

The complaint alleges the GE Cherry Hill, as a creditor under the Truth in Lending Act ("TILA"), has violated the TILA and its implementing Regulation Z. Specifically, the TILA requires creditors to make clear and consistent disclosures of the credit terms in a financed transaction. GE Cherry Hill failed to accurately calculate and disclose the annual percentage rate ("APR"), which resulted in some consumers paying more in interest charges than the franchise disclosed. The complaint further alleges that this practice is unfair or deceptive in violation of the Federal Trade Commission Act.

Additionally, the complaint alleges that GE Cherry Hill failed to accurately disclose the itemization of the amount financed, which assists consumers in understanding whether they are being charged a prepaid finance charge or whether any of the proceeds are being distributed to third parties.

Finally, the complaint alleges that GE Cherry Hill failed to identify the creditor in each transaction, and failed to provide the total payments and the total sales price.

The consent agreement would prohibit GE Cherry Hill from failing to accurately calculate and disclose the APR and any other terms by the TILA.

The consent agreement includes a refund program requiring GE Cherry

Hill to make adjustments to the account of any consumer to whom it disclosed an APR or finance charge that was lower than the amount the consumer actually was required to pay.

The consent agreement would also require GE Cherry Hill to maintain records of its compliance with the consent agreement, distribute copies of the agreement to its employees, and advise the Federal Trade Commission of any changes in its corporate structure.

The purpose of this analysis is to facilitate public comment on the proposed order, and it is not intended to constitute an official interpretation of the agreement and proposed order or to modify in any way their terms.

Donald S. Clark,

Secretary.

Analysis of Proposed Consent Order To Aid Public Comment

The Federal Trade Commission has accepted an agreement to a proposed consent order from respondents Great Expectations Creative Management, Inc. ("G/ECM"), Great Expectations, Inc. ("G/EI"), GEC Illinois, Inc. ("GE Illinois"), GEC Tennessee, Inc. ("GE Tennessee"), and GEC Alabama, Inc. ("GE Alabma").

The proposed consent order has been placed on the public record for sixty (60) days for reception of comments by interested persons. Comments received during this period will become part of the public record. After sixty (60) days, the Commission will again review the agreement and the comments received and will decide whether it should withdraw from the agreement or make final the agreement's proposed order.

The complaint alleges that G/ECM provided its franchises with Truth in Lending Act ("TILA") disclosures that, when used by those franchisees, resulted in false and misleading disclosures of the annual percentage rate ("APR") and finance charge to consumers. Thus, the complaint alleges that G/ECM engaged in unfair or deceptive acts or practices in violation of Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act.

The complaint also alleges that G/EI, GE Illinois, GE Tennessee, and GE Alabama, as creditors under the TILA, have violated the TILA and its implementing Regulation Z. Specifically, the TILA requires creditors to make clear and consistent disclosures of the credit terms in a financed transaction. These franchisees failed to accurately calculate and disclose the APR, which resulted in some consumers paying more in interest charges than the franchises disclosed. The complaint further alleges that this practice, when engaged in by G/EI, GE Alabama, and GE Illinois, was unfair or deceptive in violation of the Federal Trade Commission Act.

Additionally, the complaint alleges that G/EI, GE Illinois, GE Tennessee, and GE Alabama failed to accurately disclose the itemization of the amount financed, which assists consumers in understanding whether they are being charged a prepaid finance charge or whether any of the proceeds are being distributed to third parties.

Finally, the complaint alleges that G/EI, GE Illinois, GE Tennessee, and GE Alabama failed to identify the creditor in each transaction.

The consent agreement would prohibit G/ECM from providing any disclosures to its franchisees that violate the TILA. Because G/ECM disseminated TILA disclosure forms that contained pre-printed APRs without also providing adequate instructions for accurately calculating and disclosing the APR, the consent agreement would prohibit G/ECM's use of forms containing pre-printed APRs in the future. The consent agreement would further prohibit G/ECM from providing any calculation instructions that conflict with the TILA.

The consent agreement would require G/ECM to make sure that its franchisees are complying with the TILA, including reviewing and randomly testing franchisees' TILA disclosures. The consent agreement would also require G/ECM to make available to its franchisees a program that accurately calculates the disclosures required by the TILA and would require G/ECM to terminate, where permitted by state law, any franchise that it knows or should know does not comply with the TILA.

The consent agreement would prohibit G/EI, GE Illinois, GE Tennessee, and GE Alabama from failing to accurately calculate and disclose the APR and other terms required by the TILA.

The consent agreement includes a refund program requiring G/EI, GE Illinois, GE Tennessee, and GE Alabama to make adjustments to the account of any consumer to whom they disclosed an APR or finance charge that was lower than the amount the consumer actually was required to pay.

The consent agreement would also require G/EI, GE Illinois, GE Tennessee, and GE Alabama to maintain records of their compliance with the consent agreement, distribute copies of the agreement to their employees, and advise the Federal Trade Commission of any changes in their corporate structure.

The purpose of this analysis is to facilitate public comment on the proposed order, as it is not intended to constitute an official interpretation of the agreement and proposed order or to modify in any way their terms.

Secretary.
