FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

47 CFR Part 32

[CC Docket No. 95-60; FCC 95-182]

Uniform System of Accounts to Raise the Expense Limit for Certain Items of Equipment

AGENCY: Federal Communications Commission.

ACTION: Notice of proposed rulemaking.

SUMMARY: The Commission has adopted a Notice of Proposed Rulemaking ("NPRM") which proposes to amend its rules regarding Uniform System of Accounts for Class A and Class B Telephone Companies to Raise the Expense Limit for Certain Items of Equipment from $500 to $750. This action is taken to recognize the effects of inflation, the increased competitive environment, and the rapid technological changes that have occurred since the Commission last changed the expense limit in 1988.

DATES: Comments are to be filed on or before July 24, 1995; reply comments are to be filed on or before August 8, 1995.

ADDRESSES: Federal Communications Commission, 1919 M Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20554.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Tom Petras, Common Carrier Bureau,

Accounting and Audits Division, (202) 418-0809.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This is a synopsis of the Commission's Notice of Proposed Rulemaking in CC Docket No. 95-60, adopted May 2, 1995 and released May 31, 1995. The complete text of this NPRM is available for inspection and copying during normal business hours in the FCC Dockets Branch (Room 230), 1919 M Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20554, and may also be purchased from the Commission's copy contractor, International Transcription Service, Inc. at 2100 M Street, N.W., Suite 140, Washington, D.C. 20037, or call (202) 847-3800.

Synopsis of Notice of Proposed Rulemaking

1. This NPRM proposes to amend Section 32.2000(a)(4), of Part 32, Uniform System of Accounts for Class A and Class B Telephone Companies by raising the expense limit for certain items of equipment from $500 to $750. The Commission seeks comments on this proposal.

2. The Commission also seeks comments on whether carriers should be permitted to amortize the undepreciated, embedded assets covered by such an amendment to our rules, and if so, over what period of time.

3. The Commission also seeks comments on whether the proposed expense limit change is an economic cost and what effect, if any, on carriers' cash flow it may have that would qualify this accounting change for exogenous treatment under Price Cap regulation.

4. Accordingly, it is ordered that, pursuant to Section 4(i), 4(j) and 220 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. 154(i), 154(j) and 220, Notice is hereby given of the proposed amendment to Part 32 of the Commission's rules, 47 CFR part 32, as described below. In conjunction with this notice, we delegate authority to the Chief, Common Carrier Bureau to request and obtain from the Regional Bell Operating Companies and GTE any data necessary to evaluate the possible revenue requirement impact of the proposed change.

[CC Docket No. 80-286; FCC 95-189]

Establishment of a Joint Board

AGENCY: Federal Communications Commission.

ACTION: Notice of proposed rulemaking.

SUMMARY: The Federal Communications Commission proposes to change the separations rules applicable to local exchange carriers ("LECs") for allocating the Other Billing and Collecting ("OB&C") expenses¹ portion of Account 32.6623, Customer services,² between state and interstate jurisdictions. These permanent separations rules would replace the interim procedures that LECs currently use to allocate OB&C costs. The FCC proposes a fixed allocation method which would allocate a specified percentage of costs to the interstate jurisdiction. The FCC invited comment on four fixed allocation methodologies and it asked parties to suggest alternative approaches. The FCC also invited comment on the need for a contingency provision that would be triggered by one or more of the interexchange carriers substantially reducing their use of LEC billing and collection services. The FCC referred the issues involving the OB&C separations rules to the Federal State Joint Board established in the CC Docket 80-286 Joint Board proceeding for a recommendation.

DATES: Comments are due July 14, 1995; Reply Comments are due August 14, 1995.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This is a summary of the FCC's Notice of Proposed Rulemaking in Amendment of Part 36 of the Commission Rules and Establishment of a Joint Board, FCC 95-189, CC Docket No. 80-286, adopted May 4, 1995 and released May 15, 1995. The Commission has made the full text of the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking available for inspection and copying during normal business hours in the Commission's Reference Center, Room 239, 1919 M Street, N.W., Washington, DC 20554, and will publish it in the FCC Record. Synopsis of Notice of Proposed Rulemaking

OB&C expenses are the costs incurred by LECs in preparing and rendering customer bills (other than carrier access charge bills), and in accounting for revenues generated by those billings. LECs allocate most of the interstate OB&C costs to nonregulated activities and recover these costs through untariffed charges for non-regulated services. The sole exception is the billing and collecting cost for the federal end user common line charge which LECs recover through the common line access rate element.

Prior to 1987, the FCC rules had complex and administratively-burdensome rules in place. In 1987 the FCC replaced those rules with a new approach which it expected to simplify the separation of OB&C expenses.³ The new rules, however, applied a formula that inadvertently set the interstate share of OB&C expenses at thirty-three percent for LECs that continued to provide billing and collecting functions for AT&T. The interstate allocations had typically amounted to approximately twenty percent. This unanticipated result led the Commission, in 1988, on reconsideration to reinstate on an interim basis a portion of the allocation rules that were in effect prior to 1987.⁴

The FCC believes that LECs generally cannot attribute OB&C services to any specific service and, therefore, it proposes a fixed allocation factor to replace the interim OB&C allocation procedures. The FCC also believes that a fixed allocation factor would provide greater administrative simplicity, certainty and auditability than the interim rules. The FCC proposed four alternative fixed allocation methods and invited parties to propose other possible methods as well. The FCC requests that parties comment on (1) whether the allocation procedures should be based upon a fixed allocation factor, rather than on a direct measurement of actual interstate usage, and (2) whether the
