BILLING CODE 6717-01-M

[Docket No. RP95-324-000]

Southern Natural Gas Co.; Notice of GSR Cost Recovery Filing

June 2, 1995.

Take notice that on May 31, 1995, Southern Natural Gas Company (Southern) set forth its revised demand surcharges and revised interruptible rates that will be charged in connection with this recovery of GSR costs associated with the payment of price differential costs under realigned gas supply contracts or contract buyout costs associated with continuing realignment efforts during the period February 1, 1995 through April 30, 1995. These GSR costs have arisen as a direct result of customers' elections during restructuring to terminate their sales entitlements under Order No. 636.

Southern submitted the following tariff sheets to its FERC Gas Tariff, Seventh Revised Volume No. 1, with the proposed effective date of July 1, 1995.

Eighteenth Revised Sheet No. 15
Eighteenth Revised Sheet No. 17
Eleventh Revised Sheet No. 18

Southern states that copies of the filing were served upon Southern's customers and interested state commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 825 North Capitol Street NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure. All such motions or protests should be filed on or before June 2, 1995. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of Southern's filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

[Docket No. RP95-325-000]

El Paso Natural Gas Co.; Notice of Request for Approval of Procedures

June 2, 1995.

Take notice that on May 31, 1995, El Paso Natural Gas Company (El Paso) submitted a Notice of Procedures for Implementation of Gas Research Institute (GRI) crediting of 1994 GRI over-collections as a result of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission's May 3, 1995, order issued at Docket No. RP95-124-001. El Paso requested that the Commission approve this methodology so that El Paso can coordinate with GRI to facilitate Releasing and Acquiring Shippers receiving any applicable GRI collections which were assessed to such shippers for capacity released at less than the maximum reservation charge(s) and reservation surcharge(s).

El Paso states that once the Commission approves this methodology, El Paso will provide GRI with the necessary amounts in order to facilities GRI's return to El Paso of all GRI collections which were assessed to Releasing and Acquiring Shippers for capacity released at less than the maximum rate, i.e., the discount exceeded the GRI surcharge rate. El Paso states that it thereafter will immediately flow-through these funds to all affected shippers.

El Paso states that based on this methodology, GRI will refund and El Paso will flow-through 1994 over-collections of $1,848,012.51 to all affected shippers: $1,361,521.39 to Releasing Shippers and $486,491.12 to Acquiring Shippers.

El Paso states that assuming the Commission approves El Paso's proposed July 1, 1995, effective date for its concurrent tariff filing, El Paso will cease GRI collections on the capacity release transactions where the discount is greater than the GRI surcharge beginning with July, 1995 business and calculate and flow-through 1995 over-collections through June 30, 1995 utilizing identical procedures as it used for the 1994 over-collections.

El Paso states that copies of the filing were served upon all affected transportation customers of El Paso and interested state regulatory commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 825 North Capitol Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 and 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests should be filed on or before June 9, 1995. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.
