

following revised tariff sheet, proposed to be effective July 1, 1995:

Second Revised Sheet No. 179

ANR states that the above-referenced tariff sheet is being filed to extend by two years ANR's pricing differential mechanism.

ANR states that all of its Volume No. 1 customers and interested State Commissions have been mailed a copy of this filing.

Any person desiring to be heard or protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 825 North Capitol Street NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). All such motions or protests should be filed on or before June 9, 1995. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Anyone wishing to become a party to the proceeding must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this application are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

Iroquois Gas Transmission System, L.P.; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

June 2, 1995.

Take notice that on May 31, 1995, Iroquois Gas Transmission System, L.P. (Iroquois) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, First Revised Volume No. 1, the following revised tariff sheets, with a proposed effective date of June 1, 1995:

First Revised Tariff Sheet No. 93
First Revised Tariff Sheet No. 94

Iroquois states that the purpose of the proposed changes is to bring its tariff into conformity with recent regulatory changes promulgated by the Commission in Order No. 577, revising 18 CFR 284.243(h), which provides for limited exemptions to the advance posting and bidding requirements of the Commission's capacity release regulations. Specifically, these revised tariff sheets: (i) permit shippers to enter into pre-arranged releases of one calendar month or less without complying with the advance posting and bidding requirements; (ii) allow a releasing customer to make another exempt release to a replacement customer 28 days after the previous exempt release; and (iii) provide that Iroquois will post notice of an exempt transaction at the maximum rate as soon as possible, but not later than 48 hours after the release transaction commences.

Iroquois states that copies of this filing were served upon all jurisdictional customers and interested state regulatory agencies.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 825 North Capitol Street NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with 18 CFR 385.214 and 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such petitions or protests should be filed on or before June 9, 1995. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken.

be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the public reference room.
