

Register on May 24, 1995 (60 FR 27612). A sentence in the NOFA mistakenly describes the maximum total number of points an application can earn. This notice corrects the sentence to provide that an application can earn a maximum total of 110 points, including bonus points.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Margaret Milner, Acting Director, Office of Elderly and Assisted Housing, Department of Housing and Urban Development, 451 Seventh Street, SW., Room 6130, Washington, DC 20410; telephone number (202) 708-4542 (voice); (202) 708-4594 (TDD). (These numbers are not toll-free).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Fiscal Year (FY) 1995 Notice of Funding Availability (NOFA) for Supportive Housing for the Elderly was published in the Federal Register on May 24, 1995 (60 FR 27612). At the end of the "Selection Criteria" section of the NOFA (60 FR 27615), HUD included a sentence intended to clarify that section by providing the maximum total number of points. However, in this final sentence, HUD mistakenly described the total number of bonus points available. This notice establishes that, according to the selection criteria as described in the NOFA, an application can earn an additional 10 bonus points for a maximum total of 110 points.

Accordingly, FR Doc. 95-12716, the FY 1995 NOFA for Supportive Housing for the Elderly, published in the Federal Register on May 24, 1995 (60 FR 27612), is corrected as follows:

1. On page 27615, column 3, in section I.D.3., under the heading "Selection Criteria," paragraph (d) is corrected to read as follows:

I. Purpose and Substantive Description

* * * * *

D. Initial Screening, Technical Processing, and Selection Criteria

* * * * *

3. Selection Criteria

* * * * *

(d) The project will be located within the boundaries of a Federally-designated Empowerment Zone, Urban Supplemental Empowerment Zone, Enterprise Community, or Urban Enhanced Enterprise Community (5 bonus points).

The maximum number of points an application can earn without bonus points is 100. An application can earn an additional 10 bonus points for a maximum total of 110 points.

NOFA for Public and Indian Housing Family Investment Centers: Amendment

AGENCY: Office of the Assistant Secretary for Public and Indian Housing, HUD.

ACTION: Amendment of NOFA.

SUMMARY: This Notice amends a NOFA that was published in the Federal Register on February 15, 1995, to announce a set-aside to two Housing Agencies not funded under the FY 1994 NOFA for this program only because of a technical, computational error.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Marcia Y. Martin, Office of Community Relations and Involvement (OCRI), Room 4106, or Charles V. Bell, Office of Native American Programs (ONAP), Room P8204, Department of Housing and Urban Development, 451 Seventh Street, S.W., Washington, DC 20410; telephone Numbers: OCRI (202) 708-4214; and ONAP (202) 755-0088 (these are not toll-free numbers). Hearing- or speech-impaired persons may use the Telecommunications Devises for the Deaf (TDD) by contacting the Federal Information Relay Services on 1-800-877-TDDY (1-800-877-8339) or 202-708-9300 (not a toll-free number) for information on the program.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Accordingly, FR Doc. 95-3731, the NOFA for Public and Indian Housing Family Investment Centers, published at 670 FR 8900 (February 15, 1995), is amended as follows:

1. On page 8900, beginning in the second column, the second paragraph under the heading "B. Allocation Amounts" in Section I, Purpose and Substantive Description, of the NOFA is revised to read as follows:

Of the up to $60 million total current funds, $1,709,500 has been set-aside to two housing authorities not funded in the FY 1994 funding cycle because of a technical, computational error, and up to $42,820,129 is being made available under this NOFA. In accordance with the FY 1994 NOFA, the Housing Authority of Milwaukee, Wisconsin will receive $1,000,000 and the Kodiak Island Housing Authority, Alaska will receive $709,500 to conduct renovation/supportive services activities. In addition, the Department intends to use $10 million of the current funds for a Youth Development Initiative for the purposes of curbing crime among youth, and for youth leadership and development programs that will provide young individuals in public housing with better access to comprehensive education, employment opportunities, and supportive services to achieve self-sufficiency. (Indian Housing Authorities (IHAs) are not eligible for the Youth Development Initiative; however, additional IHAs may be funded through the regular FIC allocation under this NOFA.) In FY 1994, the Department awarded $5 million of FIC funds under this Initiative. A separate NOFA announcing these funds will be published in the Federal Register.

Amendment to Field Reorganization; Redelegation of Authority

AGENCY: Office of the Assistant Secretary for Community Planning and Development, HUD.

ACTION: Notice of Amendment to Redelegation of Authority.

SUMMARY: This notice amends the Revocation and Redelegation of Authority (59 FR 18280), published April 15, 1994. In that redelegation, the Department implemented the field reorganization for the Office of Community Planning and Development. This amendment expands the authority redelegated to the field regarding the HOPE and the HOME programs. In addition, it adds Technical Assistance Awards and General Administrative Functions to the list of program and administrative areas redelegated to the field. The April 15, 1994 Revocation and Redelegation of Authority (59 FR 18280) remains in effect, as amended by this notice.

EFFECTIVE DATE: June 2, 1995.
