

impacts. Based on the results of these studies, the Applicant would decide whether to proceed with the preparation of a development application to construct and operate the project.

B. Comments, Protests, or Motions to Intervene—Anyone may submit comments, a protest, or a motion to intervene in accordance with the requirements of Rules of Practice and Procedure, 18 CFR 385.210, .211, .214. In determining the appropriate action to take, the Commission will consider all protests or other comments filed, but only those who file a motion to intervene in accordance with the Commission's Rules may become a party to the proceeding. Any comments, protests, or motions to intervene must be received on or before the specified comment date for the particular application.

C. Filing and Service of Responsive Documents—Any filings must bear in all capital letters the title "COMMENTS", "NOTICE OF INTENT TO FILE COMPETING APPLICATION", "COMPETING APPLICATION", "PROTEST", "MOTION TO INTERVENE", as applicable, and the Project Number of the particular application to which the filing refers. Any of the above-named documents must be filed by providing the original and the number of copies provided by the Commission's regulations to: The Secretary, Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 825 North Capitol Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426. An additional copy must be sent to Director, Division of Project Review, Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, Room 1027, at the above-mentioned address. A copy of any notice of intent, competing application or motion to intervene must also be served upon each representative of the Applicant specified in the particular application.

D2. Agency Comments—Federal, state, and local agencies are invited to file comments on the described application. A copy of the application may be obtained by agencies directly from the Applicant. If an agency does not file comments within the time specified for filing comments, it will be presumed to have no comments. One copy of an agency's comments must also be sent to the Applicant's representatives.

D4. Filing and Service of Responsive Documents—The application is ready for environmental analysis at this time, and the Commission is requesting comments, reply comments, recommendations, terms and conditions, and prescriptions.

The Commission directs, pursuant to section 4.34(b) of the regulations (see Order No. 533 issued May 8, 1991, 56 FR 23108, May 20, 1991) that all comments, recommendations, terms and conditions and prescriptions concerning the application be filed with the Commission within 60 days from the issuance date of this notice. (August 8, 1995 for Project No. 11291-000). All reply comments must be filed with the Commission within 105 days from the date of this notice. (September 22, 1995 for Project No. 11291-000.)

Anyone may obtain an extension of time for these deadlines from the Commission only upon a showing of good cause or extraordinary circumstances in accordance with 18 CFR 385.2008.

All filings must (1) bear in all capital letters the title "PROTEST", "MOTION TO INTERVENE", "NOTICE OF INTENT TO FILE COMPETING APPLICATION," "COMPETING APPLICATION," "COMMENTS," "REPLY COMMENTS," "RECOMMENDATIONS," "TERMS AND CONDITIONS," or "PRESCRIPTIONS;" (2) set forth in the heading the name of the applicant and the project number of the application to which the filing responds; (3) furnish the name, address, and telephone number of the person protesting or intervening; and (4) otherwise comply with the requirements of 18 CFR 385.2001 through 385.2005. All comments, recommendations, terms and conditions or prescriptions must set forth their evidentiary basis and otherwise comply with the requirements of 18 CFR 4.34(b). Agencies may obtain copies of the application directly from the applicant. Any of these documents must be filed by providing the original and the number of copies required by the Commission's regulations to: The Secretary, Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 825 North Capitol Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426. An additional copy must be sent to Director, Division of Project Review, Office of Hydropower Licensing, Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, Room 1027, at the above address. A copy of any protest or motion to intervene must be served upon each representative of the applicant specified in the particular application. A copy of all other filings in reference to this application must be accompanied by proof of service on all persons listed in the service list prepared by the Commission in this proceeding, in accordance with 18 CFR 4.34(b) and 385.2010.

[Docket No. GT95-43-000]

Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

June 15, 1995.

Take notice that on June 9, 1995, Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation (Columbia) tendered for filing the following tariff sheets to its FERC Gas Tariff:

Effective November 1, 1993

Original Volume No. 2
Second Revised Sheet No. 681

Effective July 10, 1995

Second Revised Volume No. 1
Seventh Revised Sheet No. 7
Original Volume No. 2
Twentieth Revised Sheet No. 4A

Columbia states that these tariff sheets are being filed to cancel in its entirety Rate Schedule X-70, which embodies a transportation agreement between Columbia and Equitrans, Inc. (Equitrans) as authorized by an individual NGA Section 7(c) certificate issued in Docket No. CP78-41. (3 FERC ¶ 61,038 1978).

Columbia states further that service under Rate Schedule X-70 was assigned to Equitable Gas Company (Equitable) effective September 1, 1993. Such service to Equitable was then converted to open access firm transportation service under Columbia's Rate Schedule FTS effective November 1, 1993.

Columbia states that a copy of this filing was served upon Equitable and have been mailed to all firm customers and affected state regulatory commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 825 North Capitol Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure. All such motions or protests should be filed on or before June 22, 1995.

Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of Columbia's filings are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

[Docket Nos. RP95-339-000 and CP95-563-000]

Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America; Notice of Petition for Approval of Settlement

June 15, 1995.

Take notice that on June 9, 1995, Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America (Natural) filed a petition pursuant to Rule 207 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure for an order approving the Stipulation entered into by Natural and Columbia Gulf Transmission Company (Columbia Gulf) on May 15, 1995.

Natural states that the stipulation terminates Natural's contractual obligations under a transportation and exchange agreement between Natural and Columbia Gulf dated September 30, 1980 (Columbia Gulf's Rate Schedule X-81) and a transportation agreement between Natural and Columbia Gulf dated March 14, 1983 (Columbia's Gulf Rate Schedule X-105) through the payment of a negotiated Exit Fee by Natural to Columbia Gulf (Exit Fee) in consideration for Columbia Gulf's agreement to the termination and abandonment of Columbia Gulf's transportation services performed for Natural under Columbia Gulf's Rate Schedules X-81 and X-105.

Natural notes that the stipulation is contingent upon the Commission's approval, including Commission approval of Natural's full recovery from Natural's customers of the Exit Fee.

Comments on the settlement, as well as motions to intervene or protests should be filed with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 825 North Capitol Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, on or before June 29, 1995. Reply comments should be filed on or before July 10, 1995. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.

Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

June 15, 1995.

Take notice that on June 13, 1995, Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company (Panhandle) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, First Revised Volume No. 1, the following tariff sheets, with the proposed effective date of July 8, 1995:

Second Revised Sheet No. 278

Second Revised Sheet No. 282

Panhandle states that this filing is being made to comply with Order No. 577-A, the Commission's Order Granting Rehearing in Docket No. RM95-5-001 issued May 31, 1995.

Panhandle states that the revised tariff sheets reflect the revisions in the term and character of capacity releases that are exempt from advance posting and bidding requirements. Specifically, the tariff sheets clarify that the maximum term of pre-arranged capacity releases, at less than the maximum rate, that are exempt from advance posting and bidding requirements is 31 days.

Panhandle states that copies of this filing have been served on all customers subject to the tariff sheets and applicable state regulatory agencies.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest this filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 825 North Capitol Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 and 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed on or before June 22, 1995. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.
