G.E. Power Systems Including Corporate Research and Development Schenectady, NY; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on May 18, 1995, applicable to all workers of G.E. Power Systems, Schenectady, New York. The notice will soon be published in the Federal Register.

At the request of the State Agency and the one of the petitioners, the Department is amending the certification to include workers in the research and development division of G.E. Power Systems. The investigation findings show that workers of the corporate research and development division of G.E. Power Systems, located in another building in Schenectady, were inadvertently excluded from the certification.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of G.E. Power Systems adversely affected by imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-30,880 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of G.E. Power Systems, including Corporate Research and Development, Schenectady, New York who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after November 19, 1993 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 9th day of June 1995.

Investigations Regarding Certifications of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

Petitions have been filed with the Secretary of Labor under Section 221(a) of the Trade Act of 1974 ("the Act") and are identified in the Appendix to this notice. Upon receipt of these petitions, the Director of the Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, Employment and Training Administration, has instituted investigations pursuant to Section 221(a) of the Act.

The purpose of each of the investigations is to determine whether the workers are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Title II, Chapter 2, of the Act. The investigations will further relate, as appropriate, to the determination of the date on which total or partial separations began or threatened to begin and the subdivision of the firm involved.

The petitioners or any other persons showing a substantial interest in the subject matter of the investigations may request a public hearing, provided such request is filed in writing with the Director, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, at the address shown below, not later than July 3, 1995.

Interested persons are invited to submit written comments regarding the subject matter of the investigations to the Director, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, at the address shown below, not later than July 3, 1995.

The petitions filed in this case are available for inspection at the Office of the Director, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, Employment and Training Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20210.

Signed at Washington, D.C. this 5th day of June, 1995.
