BILLING CODE 4410-36-M

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Pension and Welfare Benefits Administration

[Prohibited Transaction Exemption 95-46;

Exemption Application No. D-09519, et al.]

Grant of Individual Exemptions; Westinghouse Pension Plan, et al.

AGENCY: Pension and Welfare Benefits Administration, Labor.

ACTION: Grant of individual exemptions.

SUMMARY: This document contains exemptions issued by the Department of Labor (the Department) from certain of the prohibited transaction restrictions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (the Act) and/or the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the Code).

Notices were published in the Federal Register of the pendency before the Department of proposals to grant such exemptions. The notices set forth a summary of facts and representations contained in each application for exemption and referred interested persons to the respective applications for a complete statement of the facts and representations. The applications have been available for public inspection at the Department in Washington, D.C. The notices also invited interested persons to submit comments on the requested exemptions to the Department. In addition the notices stated that any interested person might submit a written request that a public hearing be held (where appropriate). The applicants have represented that they have complied with the requirements of the notification to interested persons. No public comments and no requests for a hearing, unless otherwise stated, were received by the Department.

The notices of proposed exemption were issued and the exemptions are being granted solely by the Department because, effective December 31, 1978, section 102 of Reorganization Plan No. 4 of 1978 (43 FR 47713, October 17, 1978) transferred the authority of the Secretary of the Treasury to issue exemptions of the type proposed to the Secretary of Labor.

Statutory Findings

In accordance with section 408(a) of the Act and/or section 4975(c)(2) of the Code and the procedures set forth in 29 CFR Part 2570, Subpart B (55 FR 32836, 32847, August 10, 1990) and based upon the entire record, the Department makes the following findings:

(a) The exemptions are administratively feasible;

(b) They are in the interests of the plans and their participants and beneficiaries; and

(c) They are protective of the rights of the participants and beneficiaries of the plans.

Westinghouse Pension Plan (the Plan)

Located in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

[Prohibited Transaction Exemption 95-46; Application No. D-09519]

Exemption

The restrictions of sections 406(a)(1)(A) through (D), 406(b)(1) and (b)(2) of the Act and the sanctions resulting from the application of section 4975 of the Code, by reason of section 4975(c)(1)(A) through (E) of the Code, shall not apply to the contribution of certain securities (the Securities) to the Plan on September 14, 1993 and October 29, 1993 by Westinghouse Electric Corporation (WEC), the Plan's sponsor and as such a party in interest with respect to the Plan, provided the following conditions are met:

(a) The Securities were valued at an amount which was no greater than their fair market value at the time of contribution, as established by an independent, qualified appraiser;

(b) The terms and conditions of the contributions were at least as favorable to the Plan as terms and conditions which the Plan could have obtained in a purchase of similar securities from an unrelated party;
